Title 12 Professions and OccupationsTitle 12 - page 1

Source Note Information

A source note shows the legislative history of a C.R.S. section and is located immediately after the text of the section. The source note for each section indicates the year the section was added, each year it was amended, and the page of the Session Laws and the section of the bill where the amendment can be found. The source note includes the number of the section in prior codifications when applicable. For amendments made after 1973, information on each specific provision of the section that has been changed by a bill, the specific change to the provision (i.e. added, added with relocations, amended, amended with relocations, repealed, repealed and reenacted, or recreated and reenacted), and the effective date of the bill are shown.

The legislative history is arranged by year of passage; if the section was amended by two or more acts in the same year, the order of the information for that year is determined by the effective dates of the acts. The effective date in the source note indicates the date the act or portion of the act takes effect even if the text of the amendment indicates a different date. If the year is not included with the month and day, the provision is effective the year of passage. Additional information to assist the user in researching C.R.S. sections can be found beginning on page vii.

The following provides a further explanation of the information found in a source note:

“L.” is the symbol for “Session Laws” and will be followed by a number indicating the year when the C.R.S. section was changed by an act generally either creating new law, amending existing law, or repealing existing law; except that, in the constitution, “L.” also means constitutional measures referred by the General Assembly and voted on by the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election.

“Ex. Sess.” is the symbol for “Extraordinary Session”. If this symbol follows the year, the amended provision can be found in the Session Laws for an extraordinary session for that year and not in the Session Laws for the regular session of the General Assembly for that year (S, S2 in the Red Book).

“p.” is the symbol for “page” and will be followed by a number indicating the page of the Session Laws where the amendment to the C.R.S. section can be found.

“§” is the symbol for “section” and will be followed by a number indicating the section of the act where the amendment to the C.R.S. section can be found.

“IP” is the symbol for the “introductory portion” to a section, subsection, paragraph, or subparagraph.

“Added with relocations” means the provision in existing law was relocated from one title, article, part, or section to another title, article, part, or section with amendments by the act.

“Amended with relocations” means the provision in existing law was amended to reorganize an entire title, article, part, or section by the act.

“Repealed” means the provision was deleted from the existing law by the act through the use of a repeal provision (R in the Red Book).

“R&RE” is the symbol for “Repealed and Reenacted” and means the provision in existing law was repealed and reenacted by the act (RE in the Red Book).

“RC&RE” is the symbol for “Recreated and Reenacted” and means a previously repealed provision has been recreated by the act (RC in the Red Book).

“Added by revision” means a provision providing for the repeal of a statutory provision on a specified date has been added by the Revisor of Statutes as a C.R.S. provision. Adding the provision is necessary because a separate section of the act provided for the repeal of the provision with a future effective date.

“Initiated” means a provision that was amended by means of an initiated petition approved by a vote of the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election.

“Referred” means a provision that was amended by a measure referred by the General Assembly and voted on by the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election; except that, in the constitution, a referred measure is indicated by “L.” and also means constitutional measures referred by the General Assembly and voted on by the people of Colorado at a general or an odd-year election.

Starting in 2009, references to the bill number and chapter number have been included in the source note. If you are conducting a search on-line, the bill number reference within the source note links directly to the bill itself.

Colorado Statutory Research

Legislative history is not already written. It must be compiled by the researcher from many different sources and materials. The following information is a helpful starting point in identifying information you wish to research. Consult the red book table distributed with the session laws, the softbound editions of Colorado Revised Statutes beginning in 1997, the comparative tables located in the back of the C.R.S. index, C.R.S. 1963 and subsequent cumulative supplements thereto through 1971, and C.R.S. 1973 and annual cumulative supplements thereto through 1996.

Prior to 1921, enacted laws were not compiled into a comparative table, thereby making it more difficult to track the legislative history. Determining the subject matter in the statutory index is the only choice for tracking the history of a statute since a statute did not retain its original number. The General Statutes of 1883 arranged laws into numbered chapters, alphabetically entitled, collated, and arranged by sections. This became the foundation and model for compiling the statutes until the codification of C.R.S. 1973. (See Revised Statutes of Colorado 1908, An Act Providing For the Compilation, Publication, and Distribution of all the general statutes of the state.)

References in some source notes throughout the Colorado Revised Statutes to “Code 08”, “Code 21”, and “Code 35” are to the Revised Statutes of Colorado 1908, the Compiled Laws of Colorado 1921, and the Colorado Statutes Annotated 1935, respectively. Each of these volumes set forth the general statutes of the state of Colorado, including the Code of Civil Procedure and, in 1935, the Colorado Supreme Court Rules. On January 6, 1941, the Colorado Supreme Court adopted the new Rules of Civil Procedure, which became effective on April 6, 1941, resulting in the publication of a replacement volume. Thereafter, the publication of the Colorado Court Rules, although a continuing part of the Colorado Revised Statutes, contained a combination of the Federal Rules and the Colorado Code of Civil Procedure and, in addition, included some provisions that were entirely distinct from both the Federal Rules and the Colorado Code of Civil Procedure, as adopted or amended by the Supreme Court of Colorado.

To research a statute as it existed in previous years, the following is a chronological list of C.R.S. publications and the correct citation for each publication.

Revised Statutes of Colorado	(1868)	R.S.

Supplements to C.R.S. 1963 include:

- 1965 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1964 and 1965
- 1967 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1966 and 1967
- 1969 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1968 and 1969
- 1971 hardbound supplement containing laws enacted in 1970 and 1971

The softbound publication of the “Official Report of the Committee on Legal Services” was not intended as an official publication of our office. Copies were distributed to the members of the General Assembly for the purpose of certifying the laws enacted in the 1972 and 1973 Sessions for inclusion in the compilation of the 1973 C.R.S., which was not available until 1974. To find the 1972 or 1973 amended language, refer to the session laws of either 1972 or 1973.

Bills Enacted Without A Safety Clause
Explanation of Effective Date

If a bill is enacted without a safety clause and an effective date is not indicated in the bill, the effective date is the day following the expiration of the ninety-day period after final adjournment of the General Assembly that is allowed for submitting a referendum petition pursuant to article V, section 1 (3) of the state Constitution unless a referendum petition is filed against the act within such time period. If a referendum petition is filed, the act, if approved by the people, will take effect on the date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by proclamation of the Governor or the date indicated in the act if it is later than the Governor’s proclamation. The source note for a provision contained in such an act will indicate the actual date following the ninety-day period or the date set out in the act. If a referendum petition is filed, the date in the source note will be adjusted accordingly in the next publication following the election where the referendum petition is considered.

Annotations

Beginning in 2012, the annotations for Colorado state appellate court decisions include both public domain and regional reporter case cites. In preparing annotations to court decisions, we endeavor to include the most recent decisions. Occasionally, this may result in the inclusion of a decision before it becomes finalized and published in an official reporter. In such instances, the case cite will contain blank spaces for the volume and page number of the reporter. The volume and page number will be substituted for the blank spaces in subsequent publications of the statutes.

12-1.5-101. Mandatory donation of services prohibited.

12-1.5-101. Mandatory donation of services prohibited. (1) No regulatory agency or other department, division, agency, branch, instrumentality, or political subdivision of state government shall require any person practicing a regulated profession or occupation to donate such person’s professional services without compensation to any other person as a condition of admission to or continued licensure in such profession or occupation; nor shall payment of money in lieu of such uncompensated service be required.

(2) This section shall not be construed to prohibit the crediting of required hours of continuing education in exchange for hours of donated services by a person in a regulated profession or occupation.

12-2-101. Legislative declaration. (1) It is declared to be in the interest of the citizens of the state of Colorado and a proper exercise of the police power of the state of Colorado to provide for the licensing and registration of certified public accountants, to ensure that persons who hold themselves out as possessing professional qualifications as certified public accountants are, in fact, qualified to render accounting services of a professional nature, and to provide for regulation of certified public accountants employed, serving clients, or doing business in Colorado and the maintenance of high standards of professional conduct by those so licensed and registered as certified public accountants. Because of the customary reliance by the public upon audited financial statements and upon financial information presented with the opinion or certificate of persons purporting to possess expert knowledge in accounting or auditing, it is further declared to be in the interest of such citizens to limit and restrict, under the circumstances set forth in this article, the issuance of opinions or certificates relating to accounting or financial statements which utilize or contain wording indicating that the author has expert knowledge in accounting or auditing or which purport to express an independent auditor's opinion as to financial position, financial results of operations, changes in financial position, reliability of financial information, or compliance with conditions established by law or contract to persons so licensed or registered.

(2) It is declared that the state board of accountancy may invoke discipline proactively with regard to certified public accountants employed, serving clients, or doing business in Colorado when required for the protection of the public health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of this state.

12-2-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Accredited college or university" means either:

(a) A college or university which is accredited by one of the following regional accrediting agencies:

- (I) The middle states association of colleges and schools;
- (II) The north central association of colleges and schools;
- (III) The New England association of schools and colleges;
- (IV) The northwest association of schools and colleges;
- (V) The southern association of colleges and schools;
- (VI) The western association of schools and colleges; or

(b) A college or university which meets academic standards substantially equivalent to the standards of the agencies specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). The board shall establish by rule what constitutes substantially equivalent academic standards.

(2) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation organized under the laws of another state, which meets the requirements of section 12-2-117 (7).

(2.5) "Foreign limited liability company" means a limited liability company organized under the laws of another state, which meets the requirements of section 12-2-117 (7).

(2.7) "Limited liability company" means a limited liability company organized for the sole purpose of providing professional services to the public customarily performed by certified public accountants and includes foreign limited liability companies.

(2.9) "Peer review" means a study, appraisal, or review by an independent certified public accountant of one or more aspects of the professional work of another certified public accountant or of a registered partnership, corporation, or limited liability company that issues attest or compilation reports.

(3) "Person" includes individuals, partnerships, professional corporations, and limited liability companies.

12-2-103. State board of accountancy - subject to termination. (1) The state board of accountancy shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state. Five members of the board shall be holders of valid certified public accountant certificates issued under the laws of this state, a majority of whom are engaged in active practice as certified public accountants. Two members of the board shall be members of the public who do not hold a certified public accountant certificate. Members shall be appointed for terms of four years each. Any vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired term. Upon the expiration of a member's term of office, such member shall continue to serve until a successor is appointed. In no event shall a member of the board serve more than two consecutive terms. The governor shall remove from the board any member whose certificate has become void or has been revoked or suspended and may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty, misconduct, or incompetence.

(2) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(3) In any proceeding in court, civil or criminal, arising out of or founded upon any provision of this article, a copy of the records of the board certified as correct by the board shall be admissible in evidence as being the records of the board.

(5) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the state board of accountancy created by this section.

(6) (a) Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

(b) The disclosure of reports or working papers subpoenaed by the board or any person or group authorized by the board to conduct an investigation into audit or review attest activities of a certified public accountant or certified public accounting firm pursuant to section 13-90-107 (1) (f) (III) or (1) (f) (IV), C.R.S., which is not in good faith shall subject the member of the board, person, or group to civil liability for damages to be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

12-2-104. Powers and duties of board. (1) The board has the power and duty to:

(a) Elect annually from among its members a chair and prescribe the duties of such office;

(b) Make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as may be necessary for the orderly conduct of its affairs and for the administration of this article, pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.;

(c) Make appropriate rules of professional conduct in order to establish and maintain a high standard of integrity in the profession of public accounting. Any rule of professional conduct applies with equal force to all persons holding certificates under this article. No rule of professional conduct shall be promulgated which will work to the disadvantage of one group and in favor of another. Every person practicing as a certified public accountant in the state shall be governed and controlled by such rules. All rules of professional conduct shall be promulgated pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(g) Prescribe forms for and receive applications for certificates and grant certificates, including contracting with people to receive and review the applications as the agent of the board;

(h) Give examinations to applicants and, as necessary, contract for assistance in administering the examination;

(i) Deny the issuance or renewal of, suspend for a specified period, or revoke a certificate; issue a letter of admonition to or place on probation or fine any person who, while holding a certificate, violates this article; issue confidential letters of concern; issue cease-and-desist orders; or impose other conditions and limitations;

(j) Keep a record of all certificates, suspensions, and revocations and of its own proceedings;

(k) Administer this article and exercise and perform any other powers and duties granted or directed by the general assembly;

(m) Repealed.

(2) Publications of the board circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

State board of accountancy may not, by regulation, prohibit unlicensed accountants from performing "reviews" because the statutes prohibit unlicensed accountants from performing "audits" and the board's regulation is in conflict with such statutes and therefore beyond the board's authority. Cartwright v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 796 P.2d 51 (Colo. App. 1990).

12-2-106. Fees. (1) A fee authorized to be established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., shall be paid for each application made to the board, whether it is an application for examination or reexamination or for issuance, renewal, reactivation, or reinstatement of a certificate of certified public accountant, an application for registration with the board as a public accounting firm, or any other application requiring formal action or consideration by the board. The fee required shall not be returnable irrespective of the action taken by the board.

(2) A fee authorized to be established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., shall be paid for each examination in which the candidate is examined in the subjects prescribed by the board.

(3) Any person making application for a certificate of certified public accountant under section 12-2-113 shall pay a fee authorized to be established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., in addition to the fee required in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1236), ch. 146, p. 502, § 17, effective July 1, 2010.)

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the board to impose any notice, fee, or other submission requirement on a certified public accountant or registered public accountant from another state or a foreign partnership, corporation, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership, or limited liability company, that is practicing accountancy in this state pursuant to section 12-2-121 (2).

12-2-108. Certificate of certified public accountant - issuance - renewal - reinstatement - rules. (1) The board shall grant a certificate of certified public accountant to any applicant who:

- (a) Meets the requirements of section 12-2-113;
 - (b) Satisfies the board of the applicant's continued competence; or
 - (c) (I) Passes a written examination pursuant to section 12-2-111; and
 - (II) Meets the requirements of section 12-2-109.
- (2) Repealed.

(3) All certificates shall expire pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her certification pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such certificate shall expire. Any person whose certificate has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(4) and (5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1793, § 2, effective August 4, 2004.)

(6) Any person who practices certified public accounting after the expiration of his or her certificate shall be practicing in violation of this article. The board may refuse to reactivate or reinstate any expired certificate for conduct that constitutes a violation of this article.

(7) Effective on the first renewal period established by the board after May 31, 2011, the board shall not renew the certificate of a holder who issues attest or compilation reports unless the certificate holder performs public accounting within a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company or the certificate holder has undergone a peer review conducted according to rules promulgated by the board that meet the standards for performing and reporting on a peer review of the American institute of certified public accountants or an equivalent standard.

12-2-109. Educational and experience requirements - rules - repeal. (1) Prior to July 1, 2015, a person meets the educational and experience requirements necessary to be issued a certificate of certified public accountant if the person has:

(a) Successfully completed a course of study concerning the subject of professional ethics, approved by the board, and has passed a written examination concerning such subject prepared and given by educational institutions or professional organizations deemed qualified by the board to administer such examination;

(b) Received a baccalaureate degree conferred by an accredited college or university with an accounting program approved by the board, and has a concentration in accounting or what the board determines to be the equivalent thereof or has a nonaccounting concentration supplemented by what the board determines to be the equivalent of an accounting concentration, including related courses in other areas of business administration, and either:

(I) Has one year's experience that:

(A) Meets the requirements set by the board by rule;

(B) Is in any type of service or advice involving the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax, or consulting skills, which may be gained through employment in government, industry, academia, or public practice; and

(C) Is verified by an actively licensed certified public accountant; or

(II) Has not less than thirty semester hours' additional study when the baccalaureate is the highest degree held, the total educational program to include an accounting concentration or its equivalent and such related subjects as the board determines to be appropriate.

(2) On and after July 1, 2015, a person meets the educational and experience requirements necessary to be issued a certificate of certified public accountant if the applicant:

(a) (I) Has a baccalaureate or higher degree conferred by an accredited college or university with an accounting program approved by the board or has a baccalaureate with a nonaccounting concentration supplemented by what the board determines to be the equivalent of an accounting concentration, including related courses in other areas of business administration; and

(II) Has completed at least one hundred fifty semester hours of college education approved by the board;

(b) Has successfully completed a course of study concerning the subject of professional ethics approved by the board and passed a written examination concerning such subject prepared and given by educational institutions or professional organizations deemed qualified by the board to administer the examination; and

(c) Has one year's experience that:

(I) Meets the requirements set by the board by rule;

(II) Is in any type of service or advice involving the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax, or consulting skills, which may be gained through employment in government, industry, academia, or public practice; and

(III) Is verified by an actively licensed certified public accountant who meets the requirements set by the board by rule.

12-2-111. Examinations - reexaminations - rules. (1) The board shall provide licensure examinations as often as necessary to provide candidates a reasonable opportunity to take the examination. Examinations shall adequately test a candidate's knowledge of accounting, auditing, and any other related subject the board deems relevant and necessary. Any additional examination subject shall be designated by the board by rule. The board shall set the passing score for an examination at a level to adequately reflect the minimum level of competency necessary for the practice of accountancy.

(2) The board shall establish by rule the standards for granting conditional examination credit for candidates who pass one or more but not all of the sections of the examination.

(3) The board may use the standard examinations and advisory grading service promulgated by the American institute of certified public accountants, which examination shall be deemed prima facie to meet the requirements of this section.

(4) A candidate for a certificate of certified public accountant who meets the educational requirements set by the board by rule is entitled to take an examination.

(5) Any candidate who has passed any or all sections of an examination in another state shall be credited for passing such sections if the sections passed are determined by the board to be equivalent to sections of the examination offered in this state and if the testing requirements in the other state are substantially the same as in this state.

(6) If a candidate fails an examination or fails to pass in all subjects as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the board may require the candidate to take additional study before taking another examination.

12-2-112. Approval of schools. (1) The board shall approve the accounting program of the schools that meet the following requirements:

(a) The school has a curriculum designed to give the candidate proficiency in those subjects in which the candidate must pass an examination to be licensed.

(b) Such school shall have adequate equipment and resources, including suitable facilities for practical instruction and shall maintain an adequate professional library. It shall provide a sufficient number of full-time salaried instructors with satisfactory professional training. It shall provide a satisfactory major in accountancy and allied subjects. It shall require for admission the satisfactory completion of an approved four-year secondary school course of study or the equivalent.

(2) If any applicant is a graduate from a school which has not at the time of the filing of the application been approved by the board, the board may make an investigation to determine whether or not the school did, at the time of said applicant's attendance, meet the requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section. If the board finds that such school did, at that time, meet the requirements set forth in said subsection (1), the board may approve said school as of the time of the applicant's graduation therefrom.

(3) The board may, after a hearing, withdraw its approval of any school which fails to meet the requirements of the law and the standards of the board. The board shall give notice to the school complained against and shall hold a hearing on the complaint within a reasonable time after notice is given.

(4) Before disapproving any school for which approval is sought, the board shall give notice to the school of its contemplated action and shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time after notice is given, affording such school an opportunity to be heard.

12-2-113. Issuance of certificate by reciprocity or by passing examination of another state. (1) The board, in its discretion, may waive the examination of persons qualified under this subsection (1) and may issue a certificate of certified public accountant to:

(a) Any person who is the holder of a certificate of certified public accountant issued after examination under the laws of another state and who possesses the qualifications prescribed in section 12-2-108 for an applicant applying for a certificate as of the time of the issuance of the certificate by such other state or possesses substantially equivalent qualifications;

(b) A person who has passed an examination under the laws of another state and who possesses the qualifications prescribed in section 12-2-108 at the time the person applies for a certificate in this state or possesses substantially equivalent qualifications; or

(c) Any person who is the holder of a certificate, license, or degree in a foreign country which constitutes a recognized qualification for the practice of public accounting in such country, which is comparable to that of a certified public accountant in this state, and which is in full force and effect.

12-2-115. Use of the title “certified public accountant”. (1) (a) A person who has received from the board and holds an active certificate of certified public accountant shall be styled and known as a certified public accountant and may also use the abbreviation “C.P.A.”

(b) A partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company of certified public accountants that is registered under this article may use the words “certified public accountants” or the abbreviation “C.P.A.s” in connection with its partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company name.

(2) A person authorized to use the title “certified public accountant” or the abbreviation “C.P.A.” shall provide to any client residing in or headquartered in Colorado, during the course of an engagement, an address and telephone number for the certified public accountant’s firm or, in the case of a sole practitioner, the address and telephone number of the sole practitioner.

(3) (a) Except as authorized in subsection (4) of this section, a person shall not assume or use the title or designation “certified public accountant”, the abbreviation “C.P.A.”, or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such person is a certified public accountant unless the person holds a certificate as a certified public accountant issued under this article or under the laws of any other state.

A person who is inactive pursuant to section 12-2-122.5 may use the title “inactive certified public accountant” or “inactive C.P.A.”

(b) Except as authorized by subsection (1) or (4) of this section, an individual, partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company shall not assume or use any title or designation using the word “certified”, “registered”, “chartered”, “enrolled”, “licensed”, “independent”, or “approved” in conjunction with the word accountant or auditor or any abbreviation thereof or any title, designation, or abbreviation likely to be confused with “certified public accountant” or the abbreviation “C.P.A.”, including the terms “chartered accountant” and “certified accountant” and the abbreviation “C.A.”

(c) Except as authorized in subsection (4) of this section, a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company shall not assume or use the title or designation “certified public accountants”, the abbreviation “C.P.A.s”, or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company is composed of certified public accountants unless such partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company is registered as a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company of certified public accountants under this article or the laws of any other state.

(4) (a) A certified public accountant from another state or jurisdiction of the United States who is practicing in this state pursuant to section 12-2-121 may use the title “certified public accountant”, the abbreviation “C.P.A.”, or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant.

(b) A foreign partnership, corporation, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership, or limited liability company that is practicing in this state pursuant to section 12-2-121 may use the title or designation “certified public accountants”, the abbreviation “C.P.A.s”, or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company is composed of certified public accountants.

ANNOTATION

Under the provisions of this section there is no prohibition against the use of the words “public accountant” by a person who has not received from the board of accountancy a certificate of his qualifications to practice as a “certified public accountant”. Colo. Ass’n of Accountants v. Colo. Soc’y of Cert. Pub. Accountants, 152 Colo. 563, 384 P.2d 94 (1963).

Where members of a corporation could not be prohibited from use of the term “public accountant” under this section, the addition of the words “society of Colorado” comprising the title “public accountants society of Colorado” was not, as a matter of law, confusingly similar to another corporate name “Colorado society of certified public accountants”. Colo. Ass’n of Accountants v. Colo. Soc’y of Cert. Pub. Accountants, 152 Colo. 563, 384 P.2d 94 (1963).

12-2-115.5. Retired certified public accountant. (1) Any person who has received from the board and holds a certificate of certified public accountant, including an expired certificate of certified public accountant that remains subject to renewal, reactivation, or reinstatement, may apply to the board for retired status. The board may grant such status by issuing a retired status certificate of certified public accountant to any person who meets established conditions prescribed by the board.

(2) Any person issued a retired status certificate of certified public accountant may be styled and known as a “retired certified public accountant” or “retired C.P.A.”

(3) During such time as a certified public accountant remains in a retired status, such person shall not perform those acts set forth in section 12-2-120 (6) (a) and (6) (b). The board shall retain jurisdiction over retired status certified public accountants.

12-2-117. Partnerships, professional corporations, and limited liability companies composed of certified public accountants - registration thereof - definitions. (1) Except as provided in section 12-2-121 (2), a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting as certified public accountants shall register with the board as a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company of certified public accountants and must meet the following requirements; and, as used in this article, “partnership” includes a registered limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability limited partnership, foreign limited partnership, foreign limited liability partnership, and foreign limited liability limited partnership:

(a) At least one partner, shareholder, or member who shall also be a director or manager thereof must be a certified public accountant or registered firm of this state in good standing.

(b) (I) A simple majority of the ownership of a certified public accounting firm doing business as a public accounting firm in Colorado, in terms of financial interests and voting rights of all partners, officers, shareholders, members, or managers, shall be licensed certified public accountants in good standing in this state or another state.

(c) Any other partner, shareholder, or member thereof may, but need not, be a certified public accountant of some state, in good standing, or registered firm in this state who at all times owns such person’s partnership interest, corporate share, or membership interest in such person’s own right.

(e) Each resident manager in charge of an office of the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company in this state must be a certified public accountant of this state in good standing.

(f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 1082, § 1, effective May 4, 1994.)

(2) (a) (I) Application for such registration shall be made upon the affidavit of a partner of such partnership, of a shareholder of such professional corporation, or of a member of such limited liability company who is a certified public accountant of this state in good standing and shall provide:

(A) The names and addresses of the persons who are practicing public accounting for the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company;

(B) The names and addresses of the persons who are not certified public accountants, but who are partners of a partnership, shareholders of a professional corporation, or members of a limited liability company;

(C) Disclosure of all of the states in which the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company is licensed, registered, or permitted to practice. The application shall also disclose all of the states in which licensure, registration, or permission to practice has been denied, suspended, or revoked.

(D) Any other information the board may reasonably request; and

(E) A registration fee, the amount of which shall be set by the board, to cover the board’s administrative costs.

(II) Each member of the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company may receive a copy of the application.

(III) The partner, shareholder, or member designated by the firm shall notify the board in writing within thirty days after any change in the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company, including:

(A) Identities and numbers of partners, shareholders, members, managers, or officers; and

(B) Location of places of business of the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company.

(IV) The board may suspend or revoke registration of or impose any other discipline the board sees fit to administer to a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company that fails to notify the board of any changes outlined in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a).

(2.2) Each firm registration expires pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies. The registrant shall renew or reinstate the registration. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a firm fails to renew its registration pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, the registration shall expire. A firm whose registration has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(2.5) As used in subsections (3) and (3.5) of this section, "employee" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability limited partnership or foreign limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability limited partnership.

(3) The corporation must be in compliance with the "Colorado Business Corporation Act", articles 101 to 117 of title 7, C.R.S., and, to the extent applicable under section 7-117-103, C.R.S., with the "Colorado Corporation Code", articles 1 to 10 of title 7, C.R.S., as said articles existed prior to their repeal on July 1, 1994. The limited liability company must be in compliance with the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S. The organizing documents of any partnership, the articles of incorporation of any such corporation, or the articles of organization of any such limited liability company shall contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The partnership, corporation, or limited liability company shall be organized solely for the purpose of practicing accountancy and such other activities as may from time to time be specifically found by the board to be activities suitable and proper to be performed by certified public accountants only through or under the supervision of at least one person who holds a certificate to practice public accounting as a certified public accountant.

(b) Each partner who is personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting shall be a certified public accountant of this state in good standing, and each partner not personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting may, but need not, be a certified public accountant of some state in good standing. The president of any such corporation shall be a shareholder and a director, and one or more of such directors shall be certified public accountants of this state in good standing. The manager or managers of any such limited liability company shall be a member or members and one or more of such managers shall be certified public accountants of this state in good standing. Lay directors and officers and managers shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over professional matters.

(c) All partners, shareholders of the corporation, or members of the limited liability company shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company except during periods of time when the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company maintains in good standing professional liability insurance, or designated or segregated moneys in lieu of such professional liability insurance, which meets the standards set forth in subparagraphs (I) to (V) of this paragraph (c):

(I) The insurance shall insure the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company against liability imposed upon the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company by law for damages resulting from any claim made against the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company arising out of acts, errors, and omissions committed in the performance of professional services for others by those employees of the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company who hold certificates to practice public accounting as certified public accountants.

(II) Such policies shall insure the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all other employees.

(III) The insurance shall be in an amount for each claim of at least fifty thousand dollars multiplied by the number of certified public accountants employed by or members of the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company within this state, and the policy may provide for an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of certified public accountants employed by or members of the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company within this state; except that no firm shall be required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate top limit of liability for all claims during the year of one million dollars and except that the board, in the public interest, may adopt regulations increasing the minimum amounts of insurance coverage required by this subsection (3). A policy of insurance obtained in accordance with this subparagraph (III) may be issued on a claims-made or occurrence basis.

(IV) (A) The policy may provide that it does not apply to: Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured partnership, corporation, or limited liability company or any partner, stockholder, member, or employee thereof; the conduct of any business enterprise in which the insured partnership, corporation, or limited liability company under this article is not permitted to engage but which nevertheless may be owned by the insured partnership, corporation, or limited liability company or in which the insured partnership, corporation, or limited liability company may be a partner or which may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured partnership, corporation, or limited liability company in its own or in a fiduciary capacity including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith; and bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of, any person, or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use thereof.

(B) The policy may be of a type reasonably available in the commercial insurance market and may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, exclusions, and other usual matters.

(C) The policy may provide for a deductible, or self-insured retained amount, and may provide for the payment of defense or other costs out of the stated limits of the policy, in either or both cases, all partners, shareholders of the corporation, or members of the limited liability company shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company to the extent of the amount of such deductible or retained self-insurance, and the amount, if any, by which the payment of defense costs reduces the insurance remaining available for the payment of claims below the minimum limit of insurance required by this paragraph (c).

(V) A partnership, corporation, or limited liability company may maintain, in lieu of the insurance specified in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), moneys specifically designated and segregated as security for the payment of liabilities imposed by law against the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, or its partners, shareholders, or members, arising out of claims of the type specified in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of this paragraph (c), in the amount of at least fifty thousand dollars multiplied by the number of certified public accountants employed by or members of the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company within this state; except that such amount is not required to exceed one million dollars and except that the board, in the public interest, may adopt rules increasing the minimum amount of designated and segregated moneys required by this subparagraph (V). The partnership, corporation, or limited liability company remains in compliance with this section notwithstanding amounts paid from the designated or segregated moneys in any one calendar year in settling or discharging such claims, so long as the amount of the designated and segregated moneys is increased to at least the minimum required amount as of the first business day of the next calendar year. A partnership, corporation, or limited liability company is in compliance with this subparagraph (V) if it maintains moneys in the required amount in trust or in bank escrow in the form of cash, bank certificates of deposit, or United States treasury obligations, or maintains in effect bank unconditional, irrevocable letters of credit in the required amount or insurance or surety company bonds in the required amount. Such moneys or equivalency shall be maintained in or issued by a qualified United States financial institution as defined by section 10-1-102 (17), C.R.S.

(d) A partnership name shall be ended by words or abbreviations permitted pursuant to the law under which the partnership is organized. The corporate name shall be ended by the word "Corporation" or "Incorporated" or by the words "Professional Corporation" or by the abbreviations "Corp.", "Inc.", or "P.C.". The name of any limited liability company shall be ended by the words "Limited Liability Company" or the abbreviation "LLC" or the word limited may be abbreviated as "Ltd.", and the word company may be abbreviated as "Co.". An assumed or trade name may be used if it is not misleading and clearly indicates that the firm is engaged in providing accounting services.

(3.5) No limited liability company, limited liability partnership, limited partnership, or limited liability limited partnership, or foreign limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability limited partnership engaged in the practice of public accounting in this state and in one or more other jurisdictions shall be required to include a provision in its articles of organization or organizing documents as otherwise required by subsection (3) of this section, but shall be subject, with respect to the practice of public accounting within this state, to the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of subsection (3) of this section.

(3.7) Effective on the first renewal period established by the board after May 31, 2011, the board shall not renew the registration of a firm that issues attest or compilation reports unless the registered partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company has undergone a peer review conducted according to rules promulgated by the board that meet the standards for performing and reporting on a peer review of the American institute of certified public accountants or an equivalent standard.

(4) The partnership, corporation, or limited liability company may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon partnerships, corporations, and limited liability companies by the laws of Colorado in furtherance of and subject to its partnership, corporate, or limited liability company purposes and may invest its funds in a manner not incompatible with the practice of public accounting as certified public accountants. Any stock purchased by the corporation, or membership interest purchased by the limited liability company or partnership interest purchased by the partnership may be made out of capital as well as surplus without regard to the impairment of the partnership capital, corporation capital, or limited liability company capital.

(5) The partnership, corporation, or limited liability company shall do nothing in this state which, if done by a person who holds a certificate as a certified public accountant within this state and employed by it, would violate the provisions of this article. Any violation by the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company of this article shall be grounds for the board to deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew its registration, or the board may fine, issue a confidential letter of concern to, issue a letter of admonition to, or place on probation the registrant.

(6) Nothing in this section shall diminish or change the obligation of each person who holds a certificate of certified public accountant employed by the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company within this state to conduct such person's practice in accordance with the provisions of this article. Any person who holds a certificate to practice public accounting as a certified public accountant who, by act or omission, causes the partnership, corporation, or limited liability company to act or fail to act in a way which violates this article is personally responsible for such act or omission and subject to discipline therefor.

(7) Foreign partnerships, corporations, limited partnerships, limited liability limited partnerships, or limited liability companies may engage in the practice of public accounting in this state as certified public accountants so long as their organizing documents, articles of incorporation, or articles of organization provide that such partnership, corporation, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership, or limited liability company is organized solely for the purpose of practicing accountancy and such other activities as may from time to time be specifically found by the board to be activities suitable and proper to be performed by certified public accountants and comply with and meet the requirements of subsection (3) of this section.

(8) Except as provided in this section, partnerships, professional corporations, and limited liability companies shall not practice public accounting as certified public accountants.

(9) Nothing in this section shall modify the accountant-client privilege specified in section 13-90-107 (1) (f), C.R.S.

(10) When any law of this state or any rule or regulation of any agency or other authority established under the constitution or laws of this state requires or authorizes any audit, financial report, or statement to be made, approved, or certified by a certified public accountant, such audit, report, or statement may be made, approved, or certified by a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company registered in this state.

(5) As a condition of renewing, reactivating, or reinstating a certificate of certified public accountant, every applicant shall comply with continuing education requirements adopted by the board.

(6) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the following:

(a) The basic requirements for continuing education; except that the board shall not require continuing education of more than eighty hours every two years;

(b) A delineation of qualifying programs;

(c) A system of control and reporting.

(7) In exercising its power under subsection (6) of this section, the board shall, as a basis for a high standard of practice by certified public accountants, establish requirements which will assure reasonable currency of knowledge. The requirements shall assure that a variety of alternative means of compliance with continuing education requirements are available to certificate holders and shall take cognizance of specialized areas of practice.

(8) The board shall make exceptions from continuing education requirements for holders of certificates who are not engaged in public practice or who cannot continue their education for reasons of health, military service, or other good cause. If such holders of certificates return to the practice of public accounting, the holders of certificates shall meet such continuing education requirements as the board may determine.

(9) The board shall determine in each case whether a holder of certificate of certified public accountant has complied with continuing education requirements adopted by the board.

(II) No person, partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company shall, without an active certificate of certified public accountant or a valid registration:

(A) As an independent auditor, make or conduct an investigation, examination, or audit of the financial statements or supporting records of any person, organization, or corporation, to determine the accuracy or fairness with which they present the financial position, changes in financial position, or financial results of operations of such person, organization, or corporation;

(B) Attest or express an opinion, as an independent auditor, as to the financial position, changes in financial position, or financial results of the operation of any person, organization, or corporation, or as to the accuracy or reliability of any financial information contained in any such accounting or financial statement.

(III) The requirement in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a) that a person, partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company have an active certificate of certified public accountant or a valid registration issued by the board shall not apply to a certified public accountant from another state or a foreign partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company practicing accountancy in this state pursuant to section 12-2-121 (2).

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall not prohibit any officer or employee of a corporation, partner or employee of a partnership, member or employee of a limited liability company, or individual or employee of an individual from:

(I) Making or conducting such investigation, examination, or audit; or

(II) Issuing or authoring an assessment or certificate utilizing any wording designating the position, title, or office that the person holds concerning the financial affairs of such corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or individual.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall not prohibit any act of a public official or public employee in the performance of his duties as such or affect the qualifications of any person to testify as a witness before any court or administrative agency of the state of Colorado who is determined to be qualified by such court or agency.

(d) The term "independent auditor" as used in this section shall mean any person or corporation engaged or employed to make or conduct an audit of the financial statements or supporting records of any person, organization, or corporation, to determine, on the basis of such audit, the accuracy or fairness with which they present the financial position, changes in financial position, or financial results of operations of such person, organization, or corporation, other than an officer, employee, or partner of the person, organization, or corporation under audit.

(e) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall not prohibit the performance by persons other than certified public accountants of other services involving the use of accounting skills, including the preparation of tax returns and the preparation of financial statements without the expression of opinions or assurances thereon.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any person from preparing or assisting in the preparation of any report or tax return to any agency of the federal, state, or local government or other political subdivision if such preparation or assistance is otherwise permissible under law or under the regulations of such agency or from affixing the signature of the person or firm so preparing or assisting in the preparation of any such report or return to said report or return.

State board of accountancy may not, by regulation, prohibit unlicensed accountants from performing "reviews" because subsection (6) (a) prohibits unlicensed accountants from performing "audits" and the board's regulation is in conflict with such subsection and therefore the regulation is beyond the board's authority. Cartwright v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 796 P.2d 51 (Colo. App. 1990).

12-2-121. Exceptions - acts not prohibited - rules. (1) Nothing in this article shall prohibit any person not a certified public accountant from serving as an employee of or an assistant to a certified public accountant holding an active certificate or serving as an employee or assistant of a validly registered partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company composed of certified public accountants. Such employee or assistant shall not issue any accounting or financial statement over his name.

(2) (a) Nothing in this article shall prohibit a certified public accountant whose principal place of business is located in another state or jurisdiction of the United States from practicing in this state on professional business, as defined by rules promulgated by the board. Such practice shall be conducted in conformity with rules promulgated by the board. Notwithstanding the requirements of section 12-2-117, a foreign partnership, corporation, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership, or limited liability company may engage in the practice of accountancy in this state without registering with the board.

(b) Nothing in this article shall prohibit:

(I) An accountant who holds a certificate, degree, or license in a foreign country, constituting a recognized qualification for the practice of public accounting in such country, from practicing in this state on professional business incident to his or her regular practice outside this state, as defined by the board. Such practice shall be conducted in conformity with rules promulgated by the board.

(II) and (III) Repealed.

(c) A certified public accountant from another state or jurisdiction of the United States who is practicing in this state pursuant to this subsection (2) and the firm that employs the certified public accountant simultaneously consent, as a condition of practicing in this state:

(I) To be subject to the jurisdiction of and disciplinary authority of the board;

(II) To comply with the requirements of this subsection (2) and rules promulgated by the board pursuant to this subsection (2);

(III) That if the certified public accountant's certificate, license, or registration issued by the state in which the certified public accountant's principal place of business is located is no longer valid, the certified public accountant will cease to offer or render professional services in this state, either individually or on behalf of a firm; and

(IV) To appoint the state board or entity that issued a certificate, license, or registration to the certified public accountant as the agent for service of process in any action or proceeding brought by the board against the certified public accountant.

(d) The board may recover its reasonable costs incurred as part of its investigative, administrative, and disciplinary proceedings against a certified public accountant from another state or jurisdiction of the United States or from a foreign country if the board:

(I) Enters a final order against the certified public accountant, finding that the certified public accountant violated a provision of this article, a rule adopted by the board, or an order of the board with which the certified public accountant is obligated to comply and the board has the authority to enforce; or

(II) Enters into a consent or settlement agreement in which the board finds, or the certified public accountant admits or does not contest, that he or she violated a provision of this article, a rule adopted by the board, or an order of the board with which the certified public accountant is obligated to comply and the board has the authority to enforce.

12-2-122. Single act evidence of practice. Any person who displays, utters, or causes to be displayed or uttered a card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved, or written instrument or device bearing such person's name in conjunction with the words "certified public accountant", the abbreviation "C.P.A.", or any title, designation, or abbreviation prohibited by section 12-2-115 may be presumed in any action brought under section 12-2-126 to have held himself or herself out to be a certified public accountant holding an active certificate of certified public accountant pursuant to section 12-2-108. In any legal action brought under this article, evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this article is sufficient to justify an injunction.

12-2-122.5. Inactive certificant. (1) The holder of a certificate of certified public accountant, upon written notice by first class mail to the board, shall have his or her name transferred to an inactive list and shall not be required to comply with the continuing education requirements for certificate renewal pursuant to section 12-2-119 so long as he or she remains inactive. Each inactive certificant shall register in the same manner as active certificate holders and pay a fee pursuant to section 12-2-108 (3). At such time as an inactive certificant wishes to resume the practice of public accounting as a certified public accountant, he or she shall file an application therefor, meet any education requirements imposed by the board, and pay a fee as established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies.

(2) During such time as a certified public accountant remains in an inactive status, the certified public accountant shall not perform those acts restricted to active certified public accountants pursuant to section 12-2-120 (6) (a). The board shall retain jurisdiction over inactive certified public accountants for the purposes of disciplinary action pursuant to section 12-2-123.

12-2-123. Grounds for disciplinary action - administrative penalties. (1) After notice and hearing as provided in section 12-2-125, the board may deny the issuance of, refuse to renew, revoke, or suspend any certificate of a certified public accountant issued under this article or any prior law of this state or may fine, issue a letter of admonition to, or place on probation the holder of any certificate and impose other conditions or limitations for any of the following causes:

(a) Fraud or deceit in obtaining or in attempting to obtain a certificate as a certified public accountant or in obtaining registration under this article;

(b) Fraud or negligence in the practice of public accounting in Colorado or any other state or in the filing of or failure to file the certified public accountant's own income tax returns;

(c) Violation of any provision of this article, of any final rule or regulation promulgated by the board, or of any valid agency order;

(d) Violation of a rule of professional conduct promulgated by the board under the authority granted by this article;

(e) Conviction of a felony under the laws of any state or of the United States, and, for the purposes of this paragraph (e), a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere accepted by the court shall be considered as a conviction;

(f) Conviction of any crime, an element of which is dishonesty or fraud, under the laws of any state or of the United States, and, for the purposes of this paragraph (f), a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere accepted by the court shall be considered as a conviction;

(g) Discipline taken against the person's authority to practice as a certified public accountant or a public accountant in any jurisdiction;

(h) Discipline taken against the person's right to practice before any state or federal agency or agency outside the United States or the public company accounting oversight board, created by the federal "Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002", 15 U.S.C. sec. 7201 et seq., for improper conduct or willful violation of the rules or regulations of such state or federal agency or the public company accounting oversight board;

(j) Providing public accounting services to the public for a fee without an active certificate of certified public accountant or a valid registration or acting as a member, partner, or shareholder of a partnership or professional corporation registered pursuant to section 12-2-117;

(k) and (l) Repealed.

(m) Failure to comply with the requirements for continuing education as prescribed by the board;

(n) An act or omission which fails to meet generally accepted accounting principles or generally accepted auditing standards in the profession;

(o) Use of false, misleading, or deceptive advertising;

(p) Habitual intemperance with respect to or excessive use of a habit-forming drug, controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or alcoholic beverage that renders the certified public accountant unfit to practice public accounting;

(q) Failure to retain records of the work performed for each client for a period of five years;

(r) Failure of a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company to register with the board pursuant to section 12-2-117 and to renew the registration as prescribed by the board.

(2) In considering the conviction of crimes, as provided in paragraphs (e) and (f) of subsection (1) of this section, the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1236), ch. 146, p. 497, § 9, effective July 1, 2010.)

(4) No certificant whose certificate is revoked shall be allowed to apply for reinstatement of such certificate earlier than two years after the effective date of the revocation.

(5) (a) In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this section, any person violating this article or any rules promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined upon a finding of misconduct by the board as follows, either:

(I) In a proceeding against a certificant, a fine not in excess of five thousand dollars per violation; or

(II) In a proceeding against a registrant, a fine not in excess of ten thousand dollars per violation.

(b) All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (5) shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

12-2-124. Revocation or suspension of partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company registration. (1) After notice and hearing as provided in section 12-2-125, the board shall revoke the registration of a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company if, at the time of such hearing, the partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company does not have all the qualifications prescribed by the section of this article under which it qualified for registration.

(2) After notice and hearing as provided in section 12-2-125, the board may deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the registration of a partnership, professional corporation, or limited liability company or the board may fine, issue a letter of admonition to, or place on probation a registrant for any of the causes enumerated in section 12-2-123 or for the following additional causes:

(a) The revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the certificate of any partner, shareholder, or member;

(b) The cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the authority of the partnership or any partner thereof to practice public accounting in any other jurisdiction;

(c) The cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the authority of the professional corporation, limited liability company, or foreign corporation or limited liability company or any shareholder or member thereof to practice public accounting by any other state or federal jurisdiction, or jurisdiction outside the United States or the public company accounting oversight board, created by the federal “Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 7201 et seq.

12-2-125. Hearings before board - notice - procedure - review. (1) (a) The board may initiate proceedings under this article, either on its own motion or on the complaint of any person.

(b) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ administrative law judges on a full-time or part-time basis to conduct hearings as provided by this article or on any matter within the board’s jurisdiction upon such conditions and terms as the board may determine.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this article, all proceedings before the board with respect to the denial, suspension, or revocation of certificates or registrations issued under this article shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(3) If, after having been served with the notice of hearing as provided for in this section, the accused fails to appear at the hearing and defend, the board may proceed to hear evidence against the accused and may enter such order as is justified by the evidence, which order shall be final unless the accused petitions for a review thereof as provided in this section. Within thirty days after the date of any order, upon a showing of good cause for failing to appear and defend, the board may reopen the proceedings and may permit the accused to submit evidence in his or her behalf.

(4) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(4.5) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(5) At all hearings, the attorney general of this state or one of the attorney general's designated assistants shall appear and represent the board.

(6) The decision of the board shall be by majority vote thereof.

ANNOTATION

Power to initiate proceedings involved prior to 1977 amendment. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

This section does not violate the defendant's right of due process as the state board of accountancy is required by statute to initiate proceedings, hear evidence, and render decisions and the board has no statutory authority to use a hearing officer for such proceedings. Mertsching v. Webb, 757 P.2d 1102 (Colo. App. 1988).

Notice held sufficient. The requirements of this section were met by the notice given where appellant was timely notified of the time and place of the hearing, his right to participate, and the possible suspension or revocation of his certificate which could result from the hearing, and the citation of the statutory sections under which the board was operating, and the language "for dishonesty in the practice of public accounting and conduct discreditable to the public accounting profession" adequately set out the "nature of the charges" as required by the statute. Due process requires no more, especially where there was adequate opportunity for appellant to learn the specific details of the charges, where he had ample time to prepare his defense, and where he was able to present those defenses. Hentges v. Bartsch, 35 Colo. App. 384, 533 P.2d 66 (1975).

Notice requirements of section control over administrative procedure act. Subsection (2) is in conflict with the more detailed notice requirements of the state administrative procedure act. Therefore, the notice requirements of this subsection control. Hentges v. Bartsch, 35 Colo. App. 384, 533 P.2d 66 (1975).

The notice and hearing requirements of the administrative procedure act, section 24-4-104(3), are of no significance where there is a specific statute concerning the notice and hearing requirements in proceedings before the board of accountancy. People ex rel. State Bd. of Accountancy v. McFarland, 37 Colo. App. 93, 543 P.2d 112 (1975).

Board of accountancy is not bound by technical rules on admission of documentary evidence. Hentges v. Bartsch, 35 Colo. App. 384, 533 P.2d 66 (1975).

The board is not bound by technical rules of evidence. People ex rel. State Bd. of Accountancy v. McFarland, 37 Colo. App. 93, 543 P.2d 112 (1975).

Copies of cancelled checks were competent evidence. Where two sets of copies of cancelled checks were put into evidence from separate disinterested sources, and the two sets were identical, the evidence is competent under the standards set out in the board statute and the state administrative procedure act. Hentges v. Bartsch, 35 Colo. App. 384, 533 P.2d 66 (1975).

Hearing alleviated profiling prejudice. The fact that one member of the board had expressed his opinion that defendant was guilty of negligence prior to the filing of charges would not justify invalidating the final judgment of the board revoking defendant's license where the record showed the defendant was given a full and fair hearing in which evidence was presented that abundantly supported the findings of the board. People ex rel. State Bd. of Accountancy v. McFarland, 37 Colo. App. 93, 543 P.2d 112 (1975).

12-2-126. Investigations, examinations, and cease-and-desist orders against unlawful act. (1) (a) (I) The board, on its own motion based on reasonable grounds or on the signed, written complaint of any person, may investigate any person who has engaged, is engaging, or threatens to engage in any act or practice that constitutes a violation of any provision of this article. The board or any member thereof may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(II) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(b) (I) Complaints of record that are dismissed by the board and the results of investigation of such complaints shall be closed to public inspection.

(II) Upon completing an investigation, the board shall make one of the following findings:

(C) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action and should be dismissed, but the investigation discloses indications of possible errant conduct that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected. If this finding is made, the board shall send a confidential letter of concern to the licensee or registrant.

(D) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action but should not be dismissed as being without merit. If this finding is made, the board may send a letter of admonition to the licensee or registrant by certified mail.

(E) The investigation discloses facts that warrant further proceedings by formal complaint. If this finding is made, the board shall refer the complaint to the attorney general for preparation and filing of a formal complaint.

(III) (A) When a letter of admonition is sent to a licensee or registrant, the board shall include in the letter a notice that the licensee or registrant has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(B) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition is vacated and the board shall proceed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(IV) The board shall conduct all proceedings pursuant to this subsection (1) expeditiously and informally so that no licensee or registrant is subjected to unfair and unjust charges and that no complainant is deprived of the right to a timely, fair, and proper investigation of a complaint.

(c) Complaints of record that are not dismissed by the board and are the results of investigations of such complaints shall be closed to public inspection and any meeting concerning such complaints shall be closed to the public during the investigatory period and until a stipulated agreement is reached between the applicant or certificate holder and the board or until notice of hearing and charges are filed and served on an applicant or certificate holder. Except for confidential books of account, financial records, advice, reports, or working papers provided by the client, the certified public accountant, or the certified public accounting firm, the board's records and papers shall be subject to the provisions of sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S., regarding public records and confidentiality.

(2) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a certificate holder or registered firm is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health, safety, and welfare of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required certificate or registration, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or uncertified or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(3) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or uncertified practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (3) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required certificate or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or uncertified practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(4) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any uncertified act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(5) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(6) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-2-127.

(7) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

ANNOTATION

An entity that has voluntarily relinquished its license is subject to discipline by the state board of accountancy, and, therefore, the board has jurisdiction to issue a subpoena duces tecum to the former licensee after the license is relinquished. Colo. State Bd. of Accountancy v. Arthur Andersen LLP, 116 P.3d 1245 (Colo. App. 2005).

The requirement that the state board investigate a member of the accounting profession's conduct and reach a tentative conclusion as to the gross negligence and dishonesty of that conduct is a proper function to be exercised prior to the bringing of charges. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

The board of accountancy must make an investigation of complaints prior to presenting a formal charge of misconduct. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

To say that making such an investigation thereby disqualifies the board is absurd. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

An administrative body would be derelict in its duties if it failed to conduct a preliminary investigation to determine whether there was some sound basis for a proposed charge against the person over whom it had supervision. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

The board's investigatory power does not create an exception to the accountant-client privilege created in § 13-90-107. Until the general assembly chooses to create an exception to accountant-client privilege, the board must obtain client consent for disclosure of any information otherwise privileged by the accountant-client relationship. Colo. Bd. of Accountancy v. Zaverla Boosalis Raisch, 960 P.2d 102 (Colo. 1998).

12-2-127. Judicial review. (1) Any person aggrieved by any final action or order of the board and affected thereby is entitled to a review thereof by the court of appeals by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(2) For the purposes of review, the residence of the board shall be the city and county of Denver.

ANNOTATION

Under the legislative requirements of investigation and notice, one who was called upon to answer charges could not invalidate the final order of the board following a full and open hearing on the ground that in the necessary preliminary investigation a member of the board had reached the conclusion that there was sufficient evidence to justify the filing of charges. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

Where the views of the member had been reached in the performance of his investigative duty as a member of the state board of accountancy, such an opinion by one of three members of the board which acted unanimously did not justify the supreme court in invalidating the final judgment of the board where the record further showed that petitioner had been given a full and fair hearing in which the evidence abundantly supported the findings of the board.

McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

A court would not be justified in interfering with helpful staff preliminary conferences to expedite the settlement of details without a very definite showing of prejudice to an aggrieved party or eventual denial of a fair hearing. McGee v. State Bd. of Accountancy, 169 Colo. 87, 453 P.2d 800 (1969).

12-2-128. Reconsideration and review of action of board. The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the imposition of any discipline as provided in section 12-2-123 (1), may reconsider its prior action and reinstate or restore such license or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action, or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto, shall rest in the sole discretion of the board.

12-2-129. Unauthorized practice - penalties. Any person who violates section 12-2-115 or 12-2-120 (6) (a) commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For article, "Justice Court Practice by the Laity", see 9 Dicta 65 (1932). For note, "May an Attorney Unlicensed in Colorado Incorporate a Company Here?", see 9 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 285 (1937). For article, "Statutes and Cases Concerning Unauthorized Practice of Law in Colorado", see 24 Dicta 257 (1947).

It is within the authority of the supreme court to promulgate rules governing the admission and regulation of lawyers. An attorney licensed to practice law in another state may not engage in the practice of law in Colorado without obtaining a license or authorization from the supreme court. Unauthorized Prac. of Law v. Bodhaine, 738 P.2d 376 (Colo. 1987).

II. ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONS.

Annotator's note. For other annotations concerning attorney-client relations, see the annotations for the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct contained in the appendix to chapters 18 to 20 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure.

An attorney must be held to the exercise of a reasonable degree of care and skill, and to possess the knowledge requisite to a proper performance of the duties of his profession, failing which, he must respond in damages to his client to the extent of the injury, caused by such failure. Radetsky v. Montgomery, 94 Colo. 411, 30 P.2d 858 (1934).

The highest degree of fairness and good faith is required from an attorney. Lewis v. Helm, 40 Colo. 17, 90 P. 97 (1907).

The courts will closely scrutinize the dealings between attorneys and their clients, and will relieve the latter from any undue consequences resulting from them whenever the good faith of the contract does not clearly appear. Lewis v. Helm, 40 Colo. 17, 90 P. 97 (1907).

Contracts with the client are construed most favorably to the interest of the client. Keeler v. Hoyt, 57 Colo. 120, 140 P. 191 (1914).

The attorney is held to a strict compliance with his undertaking. Keeler v. Hoyt, 57 Colo. 120, 140 P. 191 (1914).

The plaintiff is entitled to dismiss his action even though he has stipulated with his attorney that the latter shall receive, as his fee, a share of whatever is obtained by the litigation or the settlement thereof. McPhail v. Spore, 62 Colo. 307, 162 P. 151 (1916).

If the attorney is entitled to an action for the discontinuance of which he complains he is not to recover under the contract. McPhail v. Spore, 62 Colo. 307, 162 P. 151 (1916).

An attorney employed merely to try a litigated case has no implied authority to prosecute an appeal or writ of error or do anything on behalf of his client looking to the review of the judgment. Tobler v. Nevitt, 45 Colo. 231, 100 P. 416, (1909).

A recital in the record that the attorney appeared for defendant is only prima facie evidence of authority to appeal. Great W. Mining Co. v. Woodmas of Alston Mining Co., 12 Colo. 46, 20 P. 771 (1888).

It is within the general powers of an attorney at law to submit the suit of his client to arbitration. Lee v. Grimes, 4 Colo. 185 (1878).

An attorney has no authority to waive the statute of limitations for his client. Ferris v. Curtis, 53 Colo. 340, 127 P. 236 (1912).

It is the duty of counsel in a criminal case to watch the progress of the trial, be informed as to what forms of verdict are submitted to the jury, and request proper forms. Loos v. People, 84 Colo. 166, 268 P. 536 (1928).

A regularly licensed attorney must be held to know better than to inject into a legal argument irrelevant and scandalous denunciations of his opponent. People ex rel. Skelton v. Brown, 17 Colo. 431, 30 P. 338 (1892).

A legal argument may consist of an appeal to reason or authority. People ex rel. Skelton v. Brown, 17 Colo. 431, 30 P. 338 (1892).

The advocate, either orally or in writing, may freely exercise his talents, and employ all the resources of his learning and logic which the scope of the questions afford. People ex rel. Skelton v. Brown, 17 Colo. 431, 30 P. 338 (1892).

The advocate is not at liberty to go outside the record for purposes of scandal and abuse. People ex rel. Skelton v. Brown, 17 Colo. 431, 30 P. 338 (1892).

In an action against an attorney for damages for his alleged negligence in failing to collect an amount due on account stated, the debtor being insolvent nothing could be collected from her, therefore plaintiff suffered no damage even if the attorney was negligent. Lawson v. Sigfrid, 83 Colo. 116, 262 P. 1018 (1927).

In the absence of special authorization an attorney at law cannot accept anything but money in payment of a promissory note placed in his hands for collection, and, if he agrees otherwise, the agreement is void and not binding upon the client. McCaffrey v. Mitchell, 98 Colo. 467, 56 P.2d 926, 57 P.2d 900 (1936).

Where an attorney advised his client as to the necessity of purchasing an outstanding title against lands claimed by her, and she refused to do so, whereupon the attorney purchased such title himself, he does not hold the title in trust for the client. Webber v. Wannemaker, 39 Colo. 425, 89 P. 780 (1907).

III. CONSTRUCTION OF LICENSE PROVISION.

Law reviews. For comment on United Sec. Corp. v. Pantex Pressing Mach., Inc., appearing below, see 8 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 289 (1936).

This section is directed towards persons unlicensed to practice law appearing in courts of record. United Sec. Corp. v. Pantex Pressing Mach., Inc., 98 Colo. 79, 53 P.2d 653 (1935).

Under this section proceedings instituted and prosecuted by an unlicensed attorney are without authority, and a judgment resulting from such proceedings is void. Bennie v. Triangle Ranch Co., 73 Colo. 586, 216 P. 718 (1923).

The license furnishes the evidence that the law demands for the security of the public first that the holder thereof is a person of probity of character, and second, that he is skilled in the law, and, therefore, qualified to practice as an attorney and counselor. Hittson v. Browne, 3 Colo. 304 (1877).

In an action by an attorney for his fee, where no issue is raised by the pleadings on the point of plaintiff's right to practice law, evidence that he was not licensed to practice in the state at the time the services were rendered is inadmissible. Bachman v. O'Reilly, 14 Colo. 433, 24 P. 546 (1890).

The license to an attorney is "for and during his good behavior", and this condition would be implied, or attached, in the absence of any statute upon that subject. People ex rel. Bar Ass'n v. Weeber, 26 Colo. 229, 57 P. 1079 (1899).

The supreme court, having power by express law to grant a license to practice law, has an inherent right to see that the license is not abused or perverted to a use not contemplated by the grant. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. MacCabe, 18 Colo. 186, 32 P. 280 (1893).

Where an attorney from another state having settled here and applied for license, was advised by the district judge that he was entitled to appear in the courts, though the license had not yet issued, and acting upon this advice, and in constant expectation of receiving his license, he accepted employment as an attorney, but upon being informed that an information in contempt had been exhibited against him, he ceased to practice or hold himself out as an attorney, it was held that, though guilty of a contempt, the case did not require the imposition of any penalty. People ex rel. Bar Ass'n v. Ellis, 44 Colo. 176, 96 P. 783 (1908).

On the question whether one who was not a licensed attorney at the time of his election was eligible to the office of district attorney, the court was equally divided. People v. Hallett, 1 Colo. 352 (1871).

Applied in People ex rel. Bar Ass'n v. Taylor, 56 Colo. 441, 138 P. 762 (1914).

IV. PRACTICING LAW.

A. In General.

There is no all inclusive definition of what constitutes the practice of law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. Pub. Utils. Comm'n, 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Generally one who acts in a representative capacity in protecting, enforcing, or defending the legal rights and duties of another and in counseling, advising and assisting him in connection with these rights and duties is engaged in the practice of law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. Pub. Utils. Comm'n, 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Services of an attorney not licensed in Colorado are compensable as attorney fees where no court appearances made and the work performed consisted of obtaining a variance from a municipal zoning code. Catow v. Knox, 709 P.2d 964 (Colo. App. 1985).

Consulting services performed by an out-of-state lawyer do not constitute unauthorized practice of law under canon 3 of the Colorado code of professional responsibility and therefore may be compensated as attorney fees. Dietrich Corp. v. King Res. Co., 596 F.2d 422 (10th Cir. 1979).

The collection agency was not practicing law where it had not agreed to furnish, nor had it furnished, legal advice or legal services to the creditors, but, rather, as assignee of the accounts and notes, it was the one entitled to bring the action to collect alleged indebtednesses, and it engaged its own counsel. Thibodeaux v. Creditors Serv., Inc., 191 Colo. 215, 551 P.2d 714 (1976).

An independent civil action is not the only means by which an attorney can enforce the statutory charging lien. Gee v. Crabtree, 192 Colo. 550, 560 P.2d 835 (1977).

General partners appearing pro se may not represent partnership. A partnership must be considered as an entity separate and apart from the general partners for purposes of defining parties who may appear for others in courts of record. E & A Assoc. v. First Nat. Bank of Denver, 899 P.2d 243 (Colo. App. 1994).

Preparation and submission of pleadings, the cross-examination of witnesses in a trial court, and presentation of argument to the court all constitute the practice of law. People v. LaPorte Church of Christ, 830 P.2d 1150 (Colo. App. 1992).

A pastor who is not an attorney is prohibited from representing in court the church which he pastors. Preparation and submission of pleadings, cross-examination of witnesses, and presentation of argument to the court constitutes the unauthorized practice of law. People v. LaPorte Church of Christ, 830 P.2d 1150 (Colo. App. 1992).

Pastor who was neither a corporate officer nor an attorney could not represent defendant church on appeal from an order assessing fees for violating the financial disclosure requirements of the Colorado Reform Act under alternate theories that defendant church was a defacto corporation or an unincorporated association. People v. LaPorte Church of Christ, 830 P.2d 1150 (Colo. App. 1992).

A nonlawyer conservator or guardian in this state is a statutory legal representative only and is therefore prohibited from practicing law and serving as legal counsel in court. The powers granted to conservators under § 15-14-

425 and to guardians under §§ 15-14-315 and 15-14-315.5 do not establish an exception to this section regarding the practice of law. In re Kanefsky, 260 P.3d 327 (Colo. App. 2010).

B. Practicing Law Before Administrative Commission.

Law reviews. For note, "May a Layman Appear Before the Colorado Public Utilities Commission", see 9 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 188 (1937).

The following would constitute the practice of law before administrative commissions: (1) Where one instructs and advises another in regard to the applicable law on an agency matter so that he may properly pursue his affairs and be informed as to his rights and obligations. (2) Where one prepares for another documents requiring familiarity with legal principles beyond the ken of the ordinary layman. (3) Where one prepares for another, for filing before the administrative agency, applications, pleadings, or other procedural papers requiring legal knowledge and technique. (4) Where one appears for another before an administrative tribunal in adversary or public proceedings involving the latter's rights of life, liberty or property according to the law of the land. (5) Where one, on behalf of another, examines and cross-examines witnesses and makes objections or resists objections to the introduction of testimony, the exercise of which requires legal training, knowledge, and skill. (6) Where one represents another in a rate-making or rate-revision case and the question of deprivation of property without due process of law is present. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

As an arm of the general assembly, the public utilities commission may authorize by rule certain things, the doing of which does not constitute the practice of law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Among the more common of these activities, in which laymen may represent others, are: (1) The completion of forms which do not require any knowledge and skill beyond that possessed by the ordinarily experienced and intelligent layman. (2) Representation of another in a hearing relating to the making or revision of rates, except where the question of deprivation without due process of law is present. (3) Performing the services of engineers, experts, accountants and clerks. (4) Acting in an agency proceeding involving the adoption of a rule of future action which affects a group and where no vested rights of liberty or property are at stake. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

As to matters in which no legal principle is involved and the subject matter of the hearing has a value or represents an amount insufficient to warrant the employment of an attorney, permission is granted until withdrawn by the supreme court to permit laymen to represent others in accordance with rule 7(b) of the public utilities commission even though such representation may constitute practicing law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Although the public utilities commission is an administrative agency of the general assembly, its actions would be characterized as judicial where it resolves disputes of adjudicative facts, and persons appearing in representative capacities in respect thereto would be practicing law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

The public utilities commission's actions may be legislative or nonjudicial, and persons appearing in representative capacities in respect to these matters would not be practicing law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Whether one in representing another before the public utilities commission under its rule 7(b), is practicing law depends upon the circumstances of the particular case there under consideration. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

The character of the act done, rather than that it is performed before the commission, is the factor which is decisive of whether it constitutes the practice of law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

A ruling that under all circumstances a lay person could act in a representative capacity before the commission pursuant to the authority contained in its rule 7(b) was error and the judgment was reversed. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

A natural person may appear in his own behalf and represent himself, notwithstanding he may not be a lawyer. Denver Bar Ass'n v. P.U.C., 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Generally, a corporation may appear in a court of record only through an attorney. Subject to certain exceptions, proceedings commenced or prosecuted and pleadings filed by a corporation without an attorney are a nullity and will be stricken. In re Estate of Nagel, 950 P.2d 693 (Colo. App. 1997).

Pleadings executed and filed by a non-attorney employee on behalf of a corporation are void as a general rule; there is no statutory exception to the general rule, and the court declined to create a judicial exception. In re Estate of Nagel, 950 P.2d 693 (Colo. App. 1997).

C. Drafting Legal Documents.

The drafting of documents, when merely incidental to the work of a distinct occupation, is not the practice of law, although the documents have legal consequences. Conway-

Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

There are instruments that no one but a well-trained lawyer should ever undertake to draw. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

There are other documents common in the commercial world, and fraught with substantial legal consequences, that lawyers seldom are employed to draw, and that in the course of recognized occupations other than the practice of law are often drawn by laymen. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The actual practices of the community have an important bearing on the scope of the practice of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

When a person who gives legal advice to those for whom he draws instruments, or holds himself out as competent to do so, does work of a legal nature, when the instruments he prepares either define, set forth, limit, terminate, specify, claim or grant legal rights. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The drawing of wills, as a practice, is the practice of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

A layman or a corporation may prepare instruments to which he or it is a party without being guilty of the unauthorized practice of law. Title Guar. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 423, 312 P.2d 1011 (1957).

A person who is not a member of the bar may draw instruments such as simple deeds, mortgages, promissory notes, and bills of sale when these instruments are incident to transactions in which such person is interested, provided no charge is made therefor. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The preparation of receipts and options, deeds, promissory notes, deeds of trust, mortgages, releases of encumbrances, leases, notice terminating tenancies, demands to pay rent or vacate by completing standard and approved printed forms, coupled with the giving of explanation or advice as to the legal effect thereof, constitutes the practice of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Preparation of closing documents, real estate deeds, releases, deeds of trust, and promissory notes, where title insurance is not applied for or written has nothing whatsoever to do with the business of abstracting or insuring titles to real estate. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Preparation of closing documents, real estate deeds, releases, deeds of trust, and promissory notes constitutes the practice of law and a power not granted to title insurance companies expressly or by implication under the corporation laws of this state. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Preparation of closing documents, real estate deeds, releases, deeds of trust, and promissory notes is not necessary to the abstract or title insurance business, it is a separate, distinct and other business, much of which constitutes practice of law. Title Guar. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 423, 312 P.2d 1011 (1957).

It would not be in the interest of the public welfare to restrain brokers from drafting the ordinary instruments necessary to effectuate the closing of the ordinary real estate transaction in which they are acting. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Ordinary conveyancing, part of the every day business of the realtor, may also be done by others without wrongful invasion of the lawyers' field and consequently is something of which the legal profession cannot claim that the public welfare requires restraint by judicial decree. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

V. DISBARMENT FOR MISBEHAVIOR.

Annotator's note. For other annotations concerning the disbarment of attorneys, see the annotations for chapter 20 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure and for the Code of Professional Responsibility contained in the appendix to chapters 18 to 20 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure.

While a lawyer is admitted into a federal court by way of a state court, he is not automatically sent out of the federal court by the same route. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

The two judicial systems of courts, the state judiciatures and the federal judiciary, have autonomous control over the conduct of their officers, among whom, in the present context, lawyers are included. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

The federal courts do not have jurisdiction to review an order of the Colorado supreme court disbaring an attorney in that state for personal and professional misconduct. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

The federal courts have no jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus to direct state courts or their judicial officers in the performance of their duties, including disbarment proceedings. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

The limits of review of a disbarment by the Colorado supreme court are violations, in the course of disbarment proceedings, of the due process or equal protection clauses of the fourteenth amendment, and a petition for a writ of certiorari to the supreme court of the United States is the only method by which review may be had. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

VI. RESTRAINING ILLEGAL PRACTICE OF LAW.

Law reviews. For article, "Unauthorized Practice of Law", see 10 Dicta 284 (1933).

Annotator's note. For other annotations concerning the unauthorized practice of law, see the annotations for Chapter 19 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure and for the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct contained in the appendix to chapters 18 to 20 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure.

Duly licensed members of the bar may invoke the jurisdiction of the courts to restrain the illegal practice of law by others. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Attorneys, as officers of the court, may, both for themselves and all the affected members of their profession, institute and maintain a suit to challenge or enjoin the unlawful intrusion into their office and professional field by one who is not licensed to do so. Conway-

Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The fact that no property or pecuniary interest of the plaintiff is involved is not an answer to a suit for an injunction to enjoin the practice of a profession without a license, where the action is in behalf of the public. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

In general a court of equity will grant an injunction only where there is eminent danger or irreparable injury or damage to the plaintiff. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

In order to restrain an unlicensed person from practicing a profession it is not necessary to prove irreparable injury or the threat thereof, where the suit is in behalf of the public. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Plaintiffs, the Denver and Colorado bar associations, the chairmen of the unauthorized practices committee of each association and licensed attorneys who appear for themselves and all other licensed attorneys and on behalf of the public are entitled to an injunction to prevent the unlawful intrusion into their office and professional field of defendant. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

In such a case, the extent of the damage to the property right is unimportant. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The existence or threat of real damage is enough to warrant relief. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

ANNOTATION

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Grounds for Striking Name or Disbarment.
- III. Pleading and Practice.
- IV. Review of Disbarment.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For article, "Unauthorized Practice of Law", see 10 Dicta 284 (1933).

Annotator's note. For other annotations concerning disbarment, see the annotations for chapters 18 to 20 of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure and the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct contained in the appendix to said chapters.

The section is declaratory of the common law on the subject. In re Walkey, 26 Colo. 161, 56 P. 576 (1899).

This section not only vests this court with a discretion which may be exercised, but, by implication, it enjoins a solemn duty upon the court, which, in a proper case, must be exercised. People ex rel. Elliott v. Green, 7 Colo. 237, 3 P. 65 (1883).

The two judicial systems of courts, the state judicatures and the federal judiciary, have autonomous control over the conduct of their officers, among whom, in the present context, lawyers are included. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

II. GROUNDS FOR STRIKING NAME OR DISBARMENT.

Any misconduct of an attorney which would render his continuance in practice incompatible with the proper respect of the court for itself, or a proper regard for the integrity of the profession, is sufficient under this section to cause his disbarment. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Weeber, 26 Colo. 229, 57 P. 1079 (1899).

Conduct involving moral turpitude. Violation by attorneys of law intended for the protection of the public, or misapplication by them of funds in violation of the law, whether or not a loss results in the last analysis, constitutes conduct involving moral turpitude. People v. Salazar, 185 Colo. 331, 524 P.2d 298 (1974).

The right of the court to strike his name from its rolls exists for acts of misbehavior other than the commission of a crime. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Weeber, 26 Colo. 229, 57 P. 1079 (1899).

The court might disbar him for committing a crime, even though he was not convicted. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Weeber, 26 Colo. 229, 57 P. 1079 (1899).

Where an information in disbarment proceedings charged the respondent with the crime of embracery, an answer setting up his acquittal upon a criminal charge based upon the same facts was not a defense to the proceeding for disbarment, and a demurrer to the answer was sustained. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Thomas, 36 Colo. 126, 91 P. 36 (1906).

When an attorney has by his conduct shown himself unworthy of his office, it becomes the duty of the court to revoke the authority it gave him upon his admission. People ex rel. Maupin v. Keegan, 18 Colo. 237, 32 P. 424 (1893).

The conviction of a felony is ground for disbarment. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Bryce, 36 Colo. 125, 84 P. 816 (1906); People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Cowen, 88 Colo. 571, 298 P. 957 (1931); People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Kaufman, 90 Colo. 8, 5 P.2d 1114 (1931); People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Bentall, 97 Colo. 526, 51 P.2d 352 (1935).

An attorney will be disbarred under this section for procuring witnesses to a forged will. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Boutcher, 89 Colo. 497, 4 P.2d 910 (1931).

An attorney may be disbarred or suspended for publishing advertisements soliciting divorce cases. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. MacCabe, 18 Colo. 186, 32 P. 280 (1892).

Where an attorney at law receives money as collections for his clients by virtue of his employment as an attorney, and refuses and neglects to pay the same over to them upon demand and tender of his fees and expenses, his name will be stricken from the roll of attorneys in this state in disbarment proceedings. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Nicholas, 36 Colo. 42, 84 P. 67 (1906); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Kohn, 59 Colo. 353, 149 P. 249 (1915); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Cary, 80 Colo. 443, 251 P. 597 (1926); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Winograd, 87 Colo. 384, 287 P. 864 (1930); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Hillyer, 88 Colo. 428, 297 P. 1004 (1931).

For obtaining money under false pretenses, taking advantage of those who employed him in his professional capacity to defraud them of money which came into his hands by virtue of such employment, and making misrepresentations to a client for the purpose of inducing him to advance money which he appropriated to his own use, the respondent will be disbarred. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Sindlinger, 28 Colo. 258, 64 P. 191 (1901).

Attorney's actions in utilizing lien to overreach and force payment of more than he was owed warranted his disbarment. People v. Radinsky, 182 Colo. 259, 512 P.2d 627 (1973).

Subornation of perjury is another ground for disbarment. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. McCann, 80 Colo. 220, 249 P. 1093 (1926).

Abuse of process is a ground for disbarment. Civil liabilities may not be enforced by threats of criminal prosecution any more than by threats of physical violence, and conduct of an attorney which has the appearance of resort to such methods is as bad, in law, as the thing itself. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v., 90 Colo. 440, 9 P.2d 611 (1932).

Contempt of court is ground for disbarment. Under this section it is not necessary that the indignity of insult to a judge should occur in open court, nor that it constitute a statutory contempt of court, in order to confer on this court jurisdiction to disbar therefor. People ex rel. Elliott v. Green, 7 Colo. 237, 3 P. 65 (1883).

Regardless of the power to punish for contempt, there can be no doubt of the existence of a power to strike an offending attorney from the roll. People ex rel. Elliott v. Green, 7 Colo. 237, 3 P. 65 (1883).

If subsequent to admission an attorney is guilty of such conduct that he no longer possesses the qualification of good moral character, his name may be stricken from the rolls under the provisions of this section. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Sindlinger, 28 Colo. 258, 64 P. 191 (1901).

An attorney who, in a business transaction, is guilty of conduct involving moral turpitude will be disbarred. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Humbert, 51 Colo. 60, 117 P. 139 (1911).

An attorney who used his position as a director or officer of a bank to arrange financial transactions in a way prohibited by law is properly subject to disbarment. People v. Salazar, 185 Colo. 331, 524 P.2d 298 (1974).

Where an attorney having advised, and consented to, the illegal payment of dividends for the purpose of defrauding the public by the promotion of sales of stock, and being one of the promoters of a company operated as a stock selling swindle, is held guilty of unprofessional conduct, his name stricken from the roll of attorneys of Colorado. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Allen, 88 Colo. 283, 295 P. 1107 (1930).

Where attorney had commingled funds in direct violation of the code of professional responsibility and had used his clients' funds for his own personal purposes, disbarment was warranted. People v. Sarvas, 185 Colo. 329, 524 P.2d 304 (1974).

Attorney's action in making alterations in court papers with intent to deceive the court is ground for disbarment. People v. Atencio, 185 Colo. 326, 524 P.2d 613 (1974).

Where an attorney attempted to reap a benefit for his client through the alteration or destruction of written evidence, such conduct was characterized as reprehensible. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Attorney at Law, 88 Colo. 325, 295 P. 917 (1931).

An attorney who was instrumental in employing persons to wrongfully break into a clubhouse and remove goods therefrom was held guilty of unprofessional conduct and publicly reprimanded. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. White, 89 Colo. 306, 1 P.2d 577 (1931).

Where an attorney approached another with an offer, for a money consideration, to influence jurors to vote for an acquittal in a criminal case, he was disbarred and his name stricken from the roll of attorneys. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Powell, 87 Colo. 387, 287 P. 858 (1930).

Attorney's action in negligently failing to take measures to procure his client's release from jail after he had represented to client that he would do so is ground for disbarment. People v. Atencio, 185 Colo. 326, 524 P.2d 613 (1974).

III. PLEADING AND PRACTICE.

It is the privilege, if not the duty, of every attorney to call to the attention of the supreme court any act of a licensed attorney which may fairly be considered to disqualify him. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Class, 70 Colo. 381, 201 P. 883 (1921).

It is not the proper practice to entertain disbarment proceedings while the conduct complained of is already being investigated in an appropriate action. People ex rel. Eli v. Benson, 24 Colo. 358, 51 P. 481 (1897).

Where the alleged wrong is committed during or in connection with the judicial trial of an action, the disbarment proceedings should be postponed, or its hearing suspended until the termination of the action. People ex rel. Eli v. Benson, 24 Colo. 358, 51 P. 481 (1897).

Previous good standing and reputation is entitled to much consideration. People ex rel. Eli v. Benson, 24 Colo. 358, 51 P. 481 (1897).

In a proceeding to disbar upon charges made by the client, the burden is on the client to prove an attorney's guilt. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Johnson, 40 Colo. 460, 90 P. 1038 (1907).

As accusations of this kind are easy to make and difficult to defend, the court will not be quick to take the naked charge as a proof of guilt, and, acting upon that, not only deprive a member of the bar of the means of making a livelihood, but disgrace him as well. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Johnson, 40 Colo. 460, 90 P. 1038 (1907).

In disbarment proceedings, the burden, under the rule to show cause, is cast upon the respondent to justify his alleged unprofessional conduct. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Lindsey, 86 Colo. 458, 283 P. 539 (1929).

In disbarment proceedings, if respondent fails to deny the charges made against him, he in legal effect admits them to be true. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Powell, 87 Colo. 387, 287

P. 858 (1930); People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Cowen, 88 Colo. 571, 298 P. 957 (1931).

In disbarment proceedings where the petition is upon the relation of the Colorado bar association, neither the petition of the association nor the information of the attorney general is required to be under oath. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Mead, 29 Colo. 344, 68 P. 241 (1902).

In disbarment proceedings the practice is to have the evidence taken and reported by a referee. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Mead, 29 Colo. 344, 68 P. 241 (1902).

The charges should be established by clear, satisfactory and convincing evidence. People ex rel. Eli v. Benson, 24 Colo. 358, 51 P. 481 (1897); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Tanquary, 48 Colo. 122, 109 P. 260 (1910).

The fact that an attorney has been acquitted on an embezzlement charge does not affect the question as to whether he has been guilty of unprofessional conduct for which he should be disbarred. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Mead, 29 Colo. 344, 68 P. 241 (1902).

The fact that an attorney, who was convicted of a felony in a sister state, was restored to his civil rights by a pardon of the governor, is not a defense to disbarment proceedings against him for the same offense. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Burton, 39 Colo. 164, 88 P. 1063 (1907).

The court may consider the conduct of such attorney, and if satisfied that it has been of a nature to require his disbarment, may disbar him. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Burton, 39 Colo. 164, 88 P. 1063 (1907).

If an attorney honestly believes he is the owner of money in the hands of an officer taken from a person charged with robbery and held pending a prosecution, and believes it is not the money of the person alleged to have been robbed, although he is altogether wrong upon all points in his attempt to get the money, he is not guilty of attempting to defraud the claimant of the money, or of abuse of the process of the courts such as to cause his disbarment. People ex rel. Eli v. Benson, 24 Colo. 358, 51 P. 481 (1897).

In a disbarment proceeding against an attorney for refusing to pay over money collected for his client, it was no defense that the money was collected for the guardian of minor children, and that respondent loaned the money to prevent the husband of his client from getting and using the money for his personal benefit, even if such defense were true. People ex rel. Carr v. Selig, 25 Colo. 505, 55 P. 722 (1898).

An attorney at law who refuses to pay over money collected for a client cannot relieve himself from the consequences of the violation of professional duty by paying over the money after the commencement of disbarment proceedings, though in a proper case it may be considered in mitigation of the punishment. People ex rel. Carr v. Selig, 25 Colo. 505, 55 P. 722 (1898).

While ratification of an unauthorized act of an attorney by his client is for some purposes equivalent, in law, to antecedent authority, the principle has no application in disbarment proceedings where the character of the act must be considered as at the time it was committed. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Hillyer, 88 Colo. 428, 297 P. 1004 (1931).

If improper and immoral at that time, it does not become proper and moral by reason of a subsequent forgiveness by the victim. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Hillyer, 88 Colo. 428, 297 P. 1004 (1931).

Where lawyer with prior censures and suspension for dereliction of duty failed to prepare will of aged person for at least eight months after being employed to do so and failed to file written objections to disbarment, disbarment was warranted. People v. James, 180 Colo. 133, 502 P.2d 1105 (1972).

Where respondent fails to appear and answer, the proper motion to be filed by petitioner is for default and judgment, and not for judgment on the pleadings. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Kaufman, 90 Colo. 8, 5 P.2d 1114 (1931).

An attorney, by reason of his conduct subsequent to disbarment, may be held not entitled to reinstatement. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Lindsey, 93 Colo. 41, 23 P.2d 118 (1933).

IV. REVIEW OF DISBARMENT.

The federal courts do not have jurisdiction to review an order of the Colorado supreme court disbarring an attorney in that state for personal and professional misconduct. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

The federal courts have no jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus to direct state courts or their judicial officers in the performance of their duties, including disbarment proceedings. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

While a lawyer is admitted into a federal court by way of a state court, he is not automatically sent out of the federal court by the same route. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

Where the limits of review of a disbarment by the Colorado supreme court are violations, in the course of disbarment proceedings, of the due process or equal protection clauses of the fourteenth amendment, a petition for a writ of certiorari to the supreme court of the United States is the only method by which review may be had. Gately v. Sutton, 310 F.2d 107 (10th Cir. 1962).

12-5-109. Persons forbidden to practice. No coroner, sheriff, deputy sheriff, or jailer, though qualified, shall be permitted to practice as an attorney in the county in which he is commissioned or appointed, nor shall any clerk of the supreme court or district court be permitted to practice as an attorney- or counselor-at-law in the court in which he is clerk.

12-5-110. Judge not to act as attorney. It is unlawful for judges of the district, county, and municipal courts to counsel or advise in or write any petition or answer or other pleadings in any proceeding, or to perform any service as attorney- or counselor-at-law, or to be interested in any profits or emoluments arising out of any practice in any of said courts, except costs in their own courts; except that county judges in counties of such classes as may be specified by the laws relating to county courts, if licensed attorneys, may practice in courts other than the county court and in matters which have not come before the county court; and further, municipal judges, if licensed attorneys, may practice in courts other than the municipal court and in matters which have not come before the municipal court.

ANNOTATION

The appearance of a judge for one of the parties in an election contest before the general assembly is not a violation of this section. Such appearance does not constitute practicing law. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Class, 70 Colo. 381, 201 P. 883 (1921); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Class, 70 Colo. 381, 201 P. 883 (1921).

Judges may not express opinions on legal questions not judicially before them, in view of this section. Laizure v. Baker, 91 Colo. 292, 14 P.2d 486 (1932).

This section was not repealed by the declaratory judgment act. Gabriel v. Bd. of Re- gents of Univ. of Colo., 83 Colo. 582, 267 P. 407 (1928); City & County of Denver v. Lynch, 92 Colo. 102, 18 P.2d 907 (1932).

The trial court judge of a criminal action is in no sense a proper party to an appeal of the criminal action to the supreme court of Colorado. People v. Hopkins, 70 Colo. 163, 197 P. 1020 (1921).

The brief submitted by such judge is considered by the court solely as amicus curiae. People v. Hopkins, 70 Colo. 163, 197 P. 1020 (1921).

12-5-112. Practicing law without license deemed contempt. Any person who, without having a license from the supreme court of this state so to do, advertises, represents, or holds himself out in any manner as an attorney, attorney-at-law, or counselor-at-law or who appears in any court of record in this state to conduct a suit, action, proceeding, or cause for another person is guilty of contempt of the supreme court of this state and of the court in which said person appears and shall be punished therefor according to law. Nothing in this section shall prevent the special admission of counselors residing in other states, as provided in section 12-5-113.

- V. Enjoining Unlawful Practice of Law.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For article, "Justice Court Practice by the Laity", see 9 Dicta 65 (1932). For article, "Who May Practice, and What Constitutes the Practice of Law", see 9 Dicta 251 (1932). For article, "Effective and Ethical Use of Legal Assistants", see 15 Colo. Law. 659 (1986).

This section is not obnoxious to § 21 of art. V, Colo. Const., providing that no bill, except general appropriation bills, shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Erbaugh, 42 Colo. 480, 94 P. 349 (1908).

Applied in Unauthorized Prac. of Law Comm. v. Grimes, 654 P.2d 822 (Colo. 1982); Holter v. Moore & Co., 702 F.2d 854 (10th Cir.), cert. denied, 464 U.S. 937, 104 S. Ct. 347, 78 L. Ed.2d 313 (1983); Unauthorized Prac. of Law Comm. v. Grimes, 759 P.2d 1 (Colo. 1988).

II. JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT CONTROLS PRACTICE OF LAW.

It is inherent in the judicial department of government under the constitution to control the practice of the law, the admission to the bar of persons found qualified to act as attorneys at law and the removal from that position of those once admitted and found to be unfaithful to their trust. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

While the judicial department cannot be circumscribed or restricted in the performance of these duties, appropriate and essential assistance in discharging them may be afforded by the enactment of statutes. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

As a general proposition, valid permission to practice law cannot be given by the general assembly except subject to the requirements for admission to the bar established by the judicial department. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

This section is not a grant of power to the supreme court or a limitation upon its inherent powers. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The judiciary has inherent and plenary powers, with or without legislative enactment, to regulate and control the practice of law to the extent that is reasonably necessary to the proper functioning of the judiciary. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

III. PRACTICING LAW WITHOUT LICENSE.

Law reviews. For article, "Unauthorized Practice of Law", see 10 Dicta 284 (1933). For comment on United Sec. Corp. v. Pantex Pressing Mach., Inc., 98 Colo. 79, 53 P.2d 653 (1935), appearing below, see 8 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 289 (1936). For note, "May a Layman Appear Before the Colorado Public Utilities Commission", see 9 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 188 (1937). For comment on People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Newer, appearing below, see 29 Dicta 153 (1952).

The basic and initial question in determining whether a particular activity amounts to the unauthorized practice of law is whether the individual's appearance is in a representative capacity to protect, enforce, or defend the rights or duties of someone else. Watt, Tieder, Killian & Hoffar v. U.S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co., 847 P.2d 170 (Colo. App. 1992).

It will be observed that the gist of the offense against which the statute is directed is one not licensed as an attorney holding himself out in any manner as being licensed, or committing the overt act of appearing in a court of record to conduct legal proceedings for another. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Wicks, 101 Colo. 397, 74 P.2d 665 (1937).

One who, not having a license from the supreme court as provided by statute, advertises himself as a "lawyer", is guilty of a contempt under this section. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Taylor, 56 Colo. 441, 138 P. 762 (1914).

Under this section, one who, through the medium of state, city and telephone directories, falsely holds himself out as an attorney at law, is guilty of contempt. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Norton, 44 Colo. 253, 104 P. 605 (1908); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Humbert, 86 Colo. 426, 282 P. 263 (1929).

One, who, not being licensed to practice law, caused his name to be printed in the city directory, on his office signs, business cards, and letterheads, followed by the words "Attorney, Solicitor of American and Foreign Patents", or by the words "Attorney, Patent Law and Counsel in Patent Causes", and who, in reply to a letter as to a divorce, replied on one of such letterheads, without stating that he was not engaged in the practice of law, violates this section. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Erbaugh, 42 Colo. 480, 94 P. 349 (1908).

One may hold himself out as an attorney by writing, cards, signs, stationery, etc., but certainly may also, and perhaps even more effectively, hold himself out by his conduct. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Schmitt, 126 Colo. 546, 251 P.2d 915 (1952).

Where one engages in the business of advising others on those important and complicated legal problems usually falling within the practice of the profession, pretending that he is qualified to do so, does it openly and constantly, year after year, by conversation and writing, and charges and collects substantial fees therefor, he could no more effectively hold himself out as having the knowledge and the necessary authority to so act. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Schmitt, 126 Colo. 546, 251 P.2d 915 (1952).

Evidence showing unauthorized practice. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Schmitt, 126 Colo. 546, 251 P.2d 915 (1953).

The evidence adduced at the hearing established beyond a reasonable doubt that the respondent held himself out as being able to perform the services of incorporating business ventures generally required to be performed by a licensed attorney, that the respondent was not licensed to practice law in the state of Colorado, and that he prepared articles of incorporation for which he charged and received a fee in violation of this statute. People ex rel. Dunbar v. McClellan, 164 Colo. 202, 434 P.2d 126 (1967).

Since notaries public are by statute empowered to perform certain acts including making "declarations and protests" and taking "affidavits and depositions", where a notary advertises, "legal papers made", such fact is not sufficient or any proof that he intended to exceed the authority conferred upon him as a notary or of an intent to practice law. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Wicks, 101 Colo. 397, 74 P.2d 665 (1937).

As to matters in which no legal principle is involved and the subject matter of the hearing has a value or represents an amount insufficient to warrant the employment of an attorney, permission is granted until withdrawn by the supreme court to permit laymen to represent others before the public utilities commission in accordance with rule 7(b) of the public utilities commission even though such representation may constitute practicing law. Denver Bar Ass'n v. Pub. Utils. Comm'n, 154 Colo. 273, 391 P.2d 467 (1964).

Where a considerable portion of respondent's time had been devoted to consulting with inmates of Colorado State Hospital, investigations of the legal proceedings resulting in their commitment to the institution, and advice and activities designed to bring about a release of the patients from further detention at said hospital, respondent was practicing law in violation of this section. People ex rel. Zimmerman v. Flanders, 121 Colo. 25, 212 P.2d 502 (1949).

The drawing of wills, as a practice, is the practice of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Where a cashier of a county bank drafted, prepared and caused to be executed a will, he engaged in the practice of the law in Colorado without having the requisite license therefor and was held guilty of contempt of the supreme court. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Woodall, 128 Colo. 563, 265 P.2d 232 (1954).

For case where party was punished for contempt of the authority of the supreme court for holding himself out as an attorney at law, see People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Brown, 126 Colo. 222, 247 P.2d 682 (1952).

Under this section, a resident of Colorado licensed to practice law in another state, by accepting employment as an attorney in Colorado without a license to practice, is guilty of contempt. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Thomas, 87 Colo. 547, 290 P. 283 (1930).

At the time respondent accepted the legal employment, he disclosed he was not a resident of the state in which he was authorized to practice law, Ohio, but was a resident of the state of Colorado, by his own admission, for a substantial period of time he had engaged in the practice of law in the state of Colorado without having a license from the supreme court so to do, in violation of the provisions of this section. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Fitkin, 170 Colo. 388, 461 P.2d 436 (1969).

Services of an attorney not licensed in Colorado are compensable as attorney fees where no court appearances made and the work performed consisted of obtaining a variance from a municipal zoning code. Catoe v. Knox, 709 P.2d 964 (Colo. App. 1985).

Consulting services performed by an out-of-state lawyer do not constitute unauthorized practice of law under canon 3 of the Colorado code of professional responsibility and therefore may be compensated as attorney fees. Dietrich Corp. v. King Res. Co., 596 F.2d 422 (10th Cir. 1979).

Because a partnership is not a separate legal entity, but is only treated as such under partnership statutes for certain limited purposes, trial court should reconsider its finding of contempt based on theory that a Virginia partnership and individuals representing it in Colorado courts were engaged in the unauthorized practice of law. Watt, Tieder, Killian & Hoffar v.

A partnership must be considered as an entity separate and apart from the general partners for purposes of defining parties who may appear for others in courts of record. E & A Assoc. v. First Nat. Bank of Denver, 899 P.2d 243 (Colo. App. 1994) (disapproving any inference to the contrary in Watt, Tieder case, also annotated under this section).

Where respondent violated this section, but it is apparent he did not do so intentionally, the duty of the court does not require his punishment. People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Ellis, 44 Colo. 176, 96 P. 783 (1908).

A person is not amenable to discipline for contempt of court for practicing law without a license, for his belief that he had the right to do certain things, which might be construed as practicing law, his intent to do them, or even for an overt act, where the doing of such act was neither charged nor admitted. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Wicks, 101 Colo. 397, 74 P.2d 665 (1937).

Applied in People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Gregory, 135 Colo. 438, 312 P.2d 512 (1957).

IV. DRAFTING LEGAL DOCUMENTS.

The drafting of documents, when merely incidental to the work of a distinct occupation, is not the practice of law, although the documents have legal consequences. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

There are instruments that no one but a well trained lawyer should ever undertake to draw. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

There are other instruments common in the commercial world, and fraught with substantial legal consequences, that lawyers seldom are employed to draw, and that in the course of recognized occupations other than the practice of law are often drawn by laymen. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The actual practices of the community have an important bearing on the scope of the practice of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

A person who gives legal advice to those for whom he draws instruments, or holds himself out as competent to do so, does work of a legal nature, when the instruments he prepares either define, see forth, limit, terminate, specify, claim or grant legal rights. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

However, a person who is not a member of the bar may draw instruments such as simple deeds, mortgages, promissory notes, and bills of sale when these instruments are incident to transactions in which such person is interested, provided no charge is made therefor. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The preparation of simple real estate instruments, done without separate charge therefor by licensed real estate brokers only in connection with their established business, and in behalf of their customers and in connection with a bona fide real estate transaction which they are handling as brokers, should not be enjoined as unauthorized practices of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

It would not be in the interest of the public welfare to restrain brokers from drafting the ordinary instruments necessary to effectuate the closing of the ordinary real estate transaction in which they are acting. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Ordinary conveyancing, being part of the every day business of the realtor, may also be done by others without wrongful invasion of the lawyers' field and consequently is something of which the legal profession cannot claim that the public welfare requires restraint by judicial decree. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

V. ENJOINING UNLAWFUL PRACTICE OF LAW.

It is quite generally held that the right to practice law conferred by the state is a special privilege in the nature of a franchise and that the holder thereof may be protected from the invasion of the right thus vested in him. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The adequate remedy for such invasion is by injunction, and that is so whether the transgressor is an individual or a corporation, though, as to the latter, as contended, quo warranto would lie. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The right to practice law exists by virtue of a license from the state, and it may be protected from unlawful encroachment by injunction, though the act complained of is a violation of statute which prescribes a penalty. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

With or without statutory authorization or sanction, in a proper case, a person engaged in the unlawful practice may be punished for contempt and may also be enjoined from further similar unlawful action. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Duly licensed members of the bar may invoke the jurisdiction of the courts to restrain the illegal practice of law by others. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Attorneys, as officers of the court, may, both for themselves and all the affected members of their profession, institute and maintain a suit to challenge or enjoin the unlawful intrusion into their office and professional field by one who is not licensed to do so. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

In general a court of equity will grant an injunction only where there is imminent danger or irreparable injury or damage to the plaintiff. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

In order to restrain an unlicensed person from practicing a profession, it is not necessary to prove irreparable injury or the threat thereof where the suit is in behalf of the public. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Plaintiffs, the Denver and Colorado Bar Associations, the chairmen of the unauthoriized practices committee of each association and licensed attorneys who appear for themselves and all other licensed attorneys and on behalf of the public are entitled to an injunction to prevent the unlawful intrusion into their office and professional field of defendant. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The existence or threat of real damage is enough to warrant relief. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

The fact that no property or pecuniary interest of the plaintiff is involved is not an answer to a suit for an injunction to enjoin the practice of a profession without a license, where the action is in behalf of the public. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

12-5-113. Special admission of counselors from other states. Whenever any counselor-at-law residing in any of the adjacent states or territories has business in any of the courts of this state, he may be admitted, on motion, for the purpose of transacting such business and none other.

ANNOTATION

Where an attorney from a sister state is admitted to the bar of Colorado for the purpose of representing a defendant in a trial for murder in the first degree, the fact that such counsel does not have an associate resident counsel with him in the case does not nullify the arraignment of defendant or his plea of not guilty. Martinez v. People, 134 Colo. 82, 299 P.2d 510 (1956).

Where an attorney from a sister state is voluntarily chosen by a defendant to represent him, and the supreme court authorizes his admission to the Colorado bar for the purpose of conducting the defense, counsel has full power and authority to represent defendant. Martinez v. People, 134 Colo. 82, 299 P.2d 510 (1956).

12-5-114. Notice of charges - time to show cause. Every attorney, before his name is stricken off the roll, shall receive a written notice from the clerk of the supreme court stating distinctly the grounds of complaint or the charges exhibited against him, and after such notice he shall be heard in his defense and allowed reasonable time to collect and prepare testimony for his justification. Any attorney whose name, at any time, is stricken from the roll by order of the court shall be considered as though his name had never been written thereon until such time as the said justices, in open court, authorize him to sign or subscribe the same.

12-5-115.5. Solicitation of accident victims - waiting period. (1) Except as permitted by section 13-21-301 (3), 10-3-1104 (1) (h), or 10-4-706, C.R.S., no person shall engage in solicitation for professional employment or for any release or covenant not to sue concerning personal injury or wrongful death from an individual with whom the person has no family or prior professional relationship unless the incident for which employment is sought occurred more than thirty days prior to the solicitation.

(2) No person shall accept a referral for professional employment concerning personal injury or wrongful death from any person who engaged in solicitation of an individual with whom the person had no family or prior professional relationship unless the incident for which employment is sought occurred more than thirty days prior to the solicitation.

(3) As used in this section, "solicitation" means an initial contact initiated in person, through any form of written communication, or by telephone, telegraph, or facsimile, any of which is directed to a specific individual, unless requested by the individual, a member of the individual's family, or the authorized representative of the individual. "Solicitation" shall not include radio, television, newspaper, or yellow pages advertisements.

(4) Any agreement made in violation of this section is voidable at the option of the individual suffering the personal injury or death or such individual's personal or other authorized representative.

credited representative of a social service organization. Pilapil v. Immigration & Naturalization Serv., 424 F.2d 6, 9 A.L.R. Fed. 915 (10th Cir.), cert. denied, 400 U.S. 908, 91 S. Ct. 152, 27 L. Ed. 2d 147 (1970).

However, despite the language of this section, law students authorized to appear in court must have the approval of the judge of the court in which they propose to appear. People v. Coria, 937 P.2d 386 (Colo. 1997).

12-5-116.1. Practice by law student intern. (1) An eligible law student intern, as specified in section 12-5-116.2, may appear and participate in any civil proceeding in any municipal, county, or district court or before any administrative agency in this state or in any county or municipal court criminal proceeding, except when the defendant has been charged with a felony, or in any juvenile proceeding in any municipal or county court or before any magistrate in any juvenile or other proceeding or any parole revocation under the following circumstances:

(a) If the person on whose behalf he is appearing has indicated his consent to that appearance and the law student intern is under the supervision of a supervising lawyer, as specified in section 12-5-116.4;

(b) When representing the office of the state public defender and its clients, if the person on whose behalf he is appearing has indicated his consent to that appearance and the law student intern is under the supervision of the public defender or one of his deputies; and

(c) On behalf of the state or any of its departments, agencies, or institutions, a county, a city, or a town, with the written approval and under the supervision of the attorney general, attorney for the state, county attorney, district attorney, city attorney, town attorney, or authorized legal services organization. A general approval for the law student intern to appear, executed by the appropriate supervising attorney pursuant to this paragraph (c), shall be filed with the clerk of the applicable court and brought to the attention of the judge thereof.

(2) The consent or approval referred to in subsection (1) of this section, except a general approval, shall be made in the record of the case and shall be brought to the attention of the judge of the court or the presiding officer of the administrative tribunal.

(3) In addition to the activities authorized in subsection (1) of this section, an eligible law student intern may engage in other activities under the general supervision of a supervising lawyer, including but not limited to the preparation of pleadings, briefs, and other legal documents which must be approved and signed by the supervising lawyer and assistance to indigent inmates of correctional institutions who have no attorney of record and who request such assistance in preparing applications and supporting documents for postconviction relief.

12-5-116.2. Eligibility requirements for law student intern practice. (1) In order to be eligible to make an appearance and participate pursuant to section 12-5-116.1, a law student must:

(a) Be duly enrolled in or a graduate of any accredited law school;

(b) Have completed a minimum of two years of legal studies;

(c) Have the certification of the dean of such law school that he has no personal knowledge of or knows of nothing of record that indicates that the student is not of good moral character and, in addition, that the law student has completed the requirements specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) and is a student in good standing;

(d) Be introduced to the court or administrative tribunal in which he is appearing as a law student intern by a lawyer authorized to practice law in this state;

(e) Neither ask nor receive any compensation or remuneration of any kind for his services from the person on whose behalf he renders services; but such limitation shall not prevent the law student intern from receiving credit for participation in the program upon prior approval of the law school, nor shall it prevent the law school, the state, a county, a city, a town, or the office of the district attorney or the public defender from paying compensation to the law school intern, nor shall it prevent any agency from making such charges for its services as it may otherwise properly require; and

(f) State that he has read, is familiar with, and will be governed in the conduct of his activities under section 12-5-116.1 by the code of professional responsibility adopted by the supreme court.

(1) The certification by the law school dean, pursuant to section 12-5-116.2 (1) (c), required in order for a law student intern to appear and participate in proceedings:

(a) Shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court and, unless it is sooner withdrawn, shall remain in effect until the announcement of the results of the first bar examination following the student's graduation. For any student who passes said bar examination, the certification shall continue in effect until the date he is admitted to the bar.

(b) May be withdrawn by the dean at any time by mailing a notice to that effect to the clerk of the supreme court, and such withdrawal may be without notice or hearing and without any showing of cause; and

(c) May be terminated by the supreme court at any time without notice or hearing and without any showing of cause.

12-5-116.4. Qualifications of supervising lawyer. (1) A supervising lawyer, under whose supervision an eligible law student intern appears and participates pursuant to section 12-5-116.1, shall be authorized to practice law in this state and:

(a) Shall be a lawyer in the public sector as provided in section 12-5-116.1 (1) (b) and (1) (c);

(b) Shall assume personal professional responsibility for the conduct of the law student intern; and

(c) Shall assist the law student intern in his preparation to the extent the supervising lawyer considers it necessary.

All attorneys- and counselors-at-law shall have a lien on any money, property, choses in action, or claims and demands in their hands, on any judgment they may have obtained or assisted in obtaining, in whole or in part, and on any and all claims and demands in suit for any fees or balance of fees due or to become due from any client. In the case of demands in suit and in the case of judgments obtained in whole or in part by any attorney, such attorney may file, with the clerk of the court wherein such cause is pending, notice of his claim as lienor, setting forth specifically the agreement of compensation between such attorney and his client, which notice, duly entered of record, shall be notice to all persons and to all parties, including the judgment creditor, to all persons in the case against whom a demand exists, and to all persons claiming by, through, or under any person having a demand in suit or having obtained a judgment that the attorney whose appearance is thus entered has a first lien on such demand in suit or on such judgment for the amount of his fees. Such notice of lien shall not be presented in any manner to the jury in the case in which the same is filed. Such lien may be enforced by the proper civil action.

Validity and extent of attorney's lien in bankruptcy is determined by state law. In re Life Imaging Corp., 31 Bankr. 101 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

Unfounded claim of lien violates professional code. The assertion of an attorney's lien in circumstances where the attorney has no statutory or legal foundation for a lien and, in fact, has an uncertain claim to the fee being claimed through the lien violates the code of professional responsibility. People v. Razatos, 636 P.2d 666 (Colo. 1981), appeal dismissed, 455 U.S. 930, 102 S. Ct. 1415, 71 L. Ed.2d 639 (1982); People v. Smith, 830 P.2d 1003 (Colo. 1992); *People v. II. ATTORNEY'S LIENS IN COLORADO.

Law reviews. For article, "Update on Colorado Appellate Decisions in Colorado Workers' Compensation Law", see 30 Colo. Law. 69 (April 2001).

Under Colorado law, the common law attorney's lien is not preserved, and no lien exists apart from statute. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

No attorney's lien exists apart from this statute. In re Rosenberg, 690 P.2d 1293 (Colo. App. 1984).

Attorney's lien was not valid on funds paid directly to law firm by its client for legal services, and therefore fell within the trustee's avoidance power as a preferential transfer. In re Inv. Bankers, Inc., 136 Bankr. 1008 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1989).

There is no common-law attorney's lien in Colorado, and no lien exists apart from this section. Ranes v. Molen, 31 Bankr. 70 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

It was clear that an attorney's lien existed either by state statute or by the common law. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

The federal courts have consistently applied the law of the state in determining whether or not an attorney's lien exists in a given situation. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Homestead exemption statute includes attorney's liens within its ambit and the attorney's lien does not attach to the homestead. If the debtor has any net equity remaining after the sale of the property in question, the creditor's attorney's lien attaches to that net equity and his claim is unsecured for any amount over that sum. In re Dickinson, 185 Bankr. 840 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1995).

Where an attorney's right to a lien exists by virtue of a statute, such right cannot be extended beyond the fair intentment of such statute. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Colorado has two statutory provisions pertaining to attorney's liens, this section and §12-5-120. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Attorneys have two kinds of liens peculiar to them in their relationship with their client. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

One kind of lien is a lien which an attorney has upon all the papers of his client in his possession, by virtue of which he may retain all of such papers until full payment is made for his services, and it is called a "retaining lien". In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

An attorney also has a lien upon any money, property, choses in action or claims and demands in his hands and on any judgment he may have obtained, and that is denominated a "charging lien". In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

It was not the intention of the general assembly to abolish the well-established distinction between the two classes of liens (i.e. retaining liens and charging liens), and to create a lien upon a judgment and its proceeds to secure the payment of attorney's fees earned in matters not at all connected with the suit in which the judgment is rendered. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

This is true even though this section and §12-5-120 did not separate the two classes of liens as clearly as might be desired. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

The Colorado supreme court has declared that this section and §12-5-120 established two distinct classes of liens, each with its own limitation: a general retaining, or possessory lien, and a special, particular, or charging lien. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

Because “claims and demands in suit” is listed separately from judgments, it is clear that it is not necessary to obtain a judgment in order for an attorney’s lien to attach to the settlement proceeds. Cope v. Woznicki, 140 P.3d 239 (Colo. App. 2006).

Language in fee contract which would have granted an attorney’s lien against all assets owned by the client covered not only a retaining lien but also a charging lien and, thus, attorney waived the right to assert both types of liens when client had deleted such language from the contract. In re Rosenberg, 690 P.2d 1293 (Colo. App. 1984).

Plain language of this section indicates that a retaining lien may exist for fees “due or to become due from any client.” If an attorney who possessed funds of a client had a present interest only in fees already earned, this statutory language would be superfluous. Therefore, bankruptcy attorneys are entitled to prepetition cash retainers for their services following a chapter 11 petition. In re Printcrafters, Inc., 233 Bankr. 113 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1999).

There is no authority in Colorado for an equitable lien apart from this section and §12-5-120. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff’d sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

This is in accord with the general rule that where a charging lien is created by statute, the right to the lien exists only in cases specifically provided for by such statute. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff’d sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

A lien on the proceeds of litigation should be declared in favor of an attorney in a cause where equitable considerations require that such lien be recognized. de Bit v. Howard, 107 Colo. 51, 108 P.2d 1053 (1940).

The purpose of the charging lien is to satisfy the attorney’s equitable claim for services rendered; therefore, the attorney’s lien may attach even though the attorney did not negotiate the settlement. Cope v. Woznicki, 140 P.3d 239 (Colo. App. 2006).

Where attorneys do not have nor have they ever had any of the property in their possession upon which they are claiming an attorney’s lien, they are not entitled to a lien on the subject property under this section. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff’d sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Therefore, where an attorney’s representation is merely as attorney in fact, there is no basis upon which he can rightfully claim either a general or special attorney’s lien because there were no funds coming into his hands in the course of his professional employment. Moore v. People, 125 Colo. 306, 243 P.2d 425 (1952).

This section is not to be so construed as to prohibit the client from abandoning his claim, or adjusting the controversy with his adversary, acting in good faith, and with no intention of defeating the lien of the attorney. Gooding v. Lyon, 63 Colo. 328, 166 P. 564 (1917).

Applied in Graeber v. McMullin, 56 F.2d 497 (10th Cir. 1932); People ex rel. Eaton v. El Paso County Court, 74 Colo. 123, 219 P. 215 (1923).

III. NATURE OF LIEN.

All attorneys and counselors at law shall have a lien on any money, property, choses in action, or claims and demands in their hands, for any fees or balance of fees due or to become due from any client. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff’d sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

All attorneys and counselors at law shall have a lien on any judgment they may have obtained or assisted in obtaining in whole or in part, due or to become due from any client. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff’d sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

This section gives to attorneys a lien on all claims and demands in suit and a lien upon all judgments obtained for any fees or balance of fees due or to become due from any client. Miller v. Houston, 27 Colo. App. 89, 146 P. 786 (1915).

The attorney’s lien, whether under this section or at common law, is equitable in its nature. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

The lien is not property in the thing which gives a right of action at law. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

The lien is a charge upon the thing which is protected in equity. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

The lien is enforceable by a suit in equity directly against the property burdened therewith, and the amount of the attorney’s compensation, together with the controversies relating to the contract of employment, may be determined in such suit. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

This section provides no method of formally asserting the lien in the first instance. Colo. State Bank v. Davidson, 7 Colo. App. 91, 42 P. 687 (1895).

The lien attaches, upon the recovery of the judgment, by virtue of the statute itself and without action of any kind on the part of the attorney. Colo. State Bank v. Davidson, 7 Colo. App. 91, 42 P. 687 (1895).

When an attorney has obtained a judgment for his client, this section immediately operates to invest him with a lien thereon to the extent of his reasonable fees remaining due and unpaid for his professional services in obtaining the same. Johnson v. McMillan, 13 Colo. 423, 22 P. 769 (1889).

The employment of an attorney operates as an equitable assignment of the client's right to the extent of the agreed compensation, in view of this section. Dankwardt v. Kermode, 68 Colo. 225, 187 P. 519 (1920).

"Charging lien". A "charging lien" attaches to all the fruits due a client after a suit is commenced, and it attaches immediately upon the obtaining of the judgment. The lien, as between the attorney and the client, is automatic and nothing more need be done to cause the lien to be enforceable against the client. If the attorney files a notice with the court, the lien then becomes enforceable against third parties. Ranes v. Molen, 31 Bankr. 70 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

Charging lien not created where money paid to attorney on behalf of debtor in settlement of a lawsuit against a third party remained in attorney's possession when compensable work had been completed. In re Oiltech, Inc., 38 Bankr. 484 (Bankr. D. Nev. 1984).

"Any judgment" defined. "Any judgment", as used in the first sentence, means the fruits of any judgment, including the realty in which a client's interest is preserved. Dolan v. Flett, 41 Colo. App. 40, 582 P.2d 694 (1978).

Attachment and enforceability of lien. The statutory charging lien attaches immediately upon the obtainment of a judgment and, as between attorney and client, nothing more need be done to cause the lien to be enforceable; the lien becomes enforceable against third parties when notice is provided. Dolan v. Flett, 41 Colo. App. 40, 582 P.2d 694 (1978).

Enforceability of attorney's retaining lien against third parties, unlike a charging lien, is not conditioned upon the requirement of notice. In re Oiltech, Inc., 38 Bankr. 484 (Bankr. D. Nev. 1984).

Lien on fund allocated to payment of bankruptcy creditor. An attorney representing a creditor in a bankruptcy proceeding has a lien on the fund allocated to the payment of his client's claim. In re Campbell, 26 Bankr. 145 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

Creditor's statutory attorney's lien obtained pursuant to this section and § 12-5-120 was not merged into the judgment lien he subsequently obtained. In re Dickinson, 185 Bankr. 840 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1995).

Where there is a hospital lien and an attorney lien, the effect of the statute is that the attorney is compensated "off the top" absent a contractual arrangement otherwise, before the client receives his share of the proceeds from the tort settlement. Trevino v. HHL Fin. Servs., Inc., 928 P.2d 766 (Colo. App. 1996), aff'd on other grounds, 945 P.2d 1345 (Colo. 1997).

IV. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE OF LIEN.

A lien cannot be created by the mere fact that an attorney is entitled to be paid for his services. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

An attorney has no legal basis for the assertion of a lien simply to secure a fee obligation where the money being claimed is not in his hands nor involved in a suit. People v. Razatos, 636 P.2d 666 (Colo. 1981), appeal dismissed, 455 U.S. 930, 102 S. Ct. 1415, 71 L. Ed. 2d 639 (1982).

To allow such a lien would be to give the attorney creditor a preferred position which the law does not intend. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Where no suit was ever commenced by an attorney, no claim as lienor could have been filed. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

In order to determine the applicability of this section, the words "in suit" must be carefully considered and understood. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

It is clear from the sentence structure of this section that if there had been an intent to grant a charging lien on all claims turned over to the attorney even before suit is commenced it would necessitate the use of punctuation after the word "claims" or some method to distinguish it from "demands in suit". Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'd sub nom. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

The choice of punctuation lends emphasis to the view that the term "in suit" is intended to modify the word "claims" as well as "demands", and this construction is supported by the prior clause which refers to "claims and demands in their hands". Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'd In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

Where no judgment was ever obtained by an attorney, this section is not applicable. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

If a lien is not allowed for services in connection with matters that did not go to suit where a subsequent judgment was recovered for the same client, it would clearly be inconsistent to allow the lien to attach where there was no subsequent judgment. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

A "charging" lien is not allowed to attach prior to the commencement of the suit. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Where the parties to a writ of error had stipulated to a discontinuance thereof, the court was without jurisdiction to declare a lien upon the properties recovered in favor of the attorneys of the successful party, for securing the fees to which they may be entitled pursuant to contract with the client since the lien, under this section, must be predicated upon a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. Lane v. Lyon, 57 Colo. 166, 140 P. 197 (1914).

A claim does not become "in suit" through threat of actions nor preparatory services rendered in contemplation of suit. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

A claim is not "in suit" before a justice until he has issued summons thereon and delivered the same to an officer to be served, or by the appearance and agreement of the parties without summons and the case docketed, authorizing a justice to receive money only when tendered to him on any claim in a suit before him. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

The term "suit" is a very comprehensive one and is said to apply to any proceeding in a court of justice by which an individual pursues that remedy which the law affords him. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

The modes of proceeding may be various, but, if the right is litigated between the parties in the court of justice, the proceeding is a suit. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

This section recognizes no distinction between judgments for money or personal property and decrees of judgments by which the ownership or possession of land is awarded to plaintiff or his interest therein is preserved. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

It gives the attorney a lien upon any judgment obtained by him and belonging to his client. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

The attorney's lien attaches under this section, even though the land recovered by the judgment becomes part of a trust estate belonging to wards, and suit may be brought directly against this part of the trust estate without first obtaining individual judgments against the guardians. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

The phrase "first lien" creates a lien that takes priority over all other charges or encumbrances on the same property. N. Valley Bank v. McGloin, Davenport, 251 P.3d 1250 (Colo. App. 2010).

Attorney's lien, as a statutory first lien, has priority over a previously perfected security interest. N. Valley Bank v. McGloin, Davenport, 251 P.3d 1250 (Colo. App. 2010).

There is nothing in this section which indicates a purpose to exclude causes of action for personal injuries. Miller v. Houston, 27 Colo. App. 89, 146 P. 786 (1915); Dankwardt v. Kermod, 68 Colo. 225, 187 P. 519 (1920).

An attorney who, upon the retainer of the complaining party and upon an agreement that he shall receive as his compensation a specified share of the recovery, has instituted an action for a tort and has notified the defendant of his claim for a lien is entitled to a lien upon the cause of action for the value of his services. Miller v. Houston, 27 Colo. App. 89, 146 P. 786 (1915).

The attorney's lien reaches all fees due for services rendered, whether the amount of such fees has been agreed upon or is to be settled in suit as upon a quantum meruit. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

An attorney has a retaining lien on retained funds to the extent of and for so long as fees and expenses are owed by the client. In re Printcrafters, Inc., 208 Bankr. 968 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1997).

Unreimbursed costs of litigation advanced by attorney are included in attorney's lien. Kallsen v. Big Horn Harvestore Sys., 761 P.2d 291 (Colo. App. 1988).

The attorney's lien is not limited to compensation for services rendered by the attorney in procuring the judgment upon which he relies. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

The lien cannot be defeated by the setoff of a judgment against his client growing out of independent transactions prior to the attorney's employment. Dankwardt v. Kermod, 68 Colo. 225, 187 P. 519 (1920).

Because the opposing party had notice of the attorney lien prior to its motion to offset, the attorney lien takes priority over the opposing party's right to offset opposing judgments and obtain a single net judgment in its favor. Stiner v. Planned Mgmt. Servs., 923 P.2d 186 (Colo. App. 1995).

Where an attorney represented parties under an agreement by which he was to receive 33 1/3% of all money or the value of any property received in settlement or payment of their claim against third persons and a settlement of $5,000 was arrived at and the third persons agreed to pay the living expenses of his clients until the obligation was fully discharged, it was held that the payment of such living expenses for four years constituted valuable property to which the attorney's lien attached even though no money had been paid on the obligation. de Bit v. Howard, 107 Colo. 51, 108 P.2d 1053 (1940).

Attorney's lien upon award to client cannot exceed amount of award. In re Stewart, 632 P.2d 287 (Colo. App. 1981).

Since no prepetition fees were owed at the time of the bankruptcy filing, under Colorado law there was no retaining lien. In re Printcrafters, Inc., 208 Bankr. 968 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1997).

Misconduct in other cases not to affect assertion of lien. Misconduct in a particular case, if suspension or disbarment is not involved, should not result in the loss of an attorney's ability to assert his lien in other cases where professional misconduct is not involved. People ex rel. MacFarlane v. Harthun, 195 Colo. 38, 581 P.2d 716 (1978).

Lien not extinguished by bankruptcy. Under 11 U.S.C. § 101, an attorney's lien in Colorado is a "statutory" lien, and not a "judicial" lien and, thus, cannot be avoided by a bankruptcy debtor under 11 U.S.C. § 522(f). Ranes v. Molen, 31 Bankr. 70 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

An attorney's lien which is valid under state law is not extinguished when the client files bankruptcy. Further, there is no provision in the bankruptcy code for the voiding of a valid statutory attorney's lien. In re Life Imaging Corp., 31 Bankr. 101 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

V. ENFORCEMENT.

A. In General.

The lien under this section is a security, the benefit of which the attorney may or may not avail himself. Boston & Colo. Smelting Co. v. Pless, 9 Colo. 112, 10 P. 652 (1885).

Of course, he is not entitled to it unless there remains due him unpaid fees. Boston & Colo. Smelting Co. v. Pless, 9 Colo. 112, 10 P. 652 (1885).

An attorney may waive his right to the benefit of his lien under this section. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

If, without notice that he intends to enforce the lien, an innocent third person purchases the realty covered by the judgment or the judgment debtor make a bona fide settlement of the judgment, the attorney cannot hold the realty on the one hand or look to the debtor on the other. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887).

Lien may also be enforced in civil action giving rise to claim. The attorney's charging lien may not only be asserted but may be enforced in the civil action which gave rise to the lien claim or, in the alternative, in an independent action. Both are "proper civil actions" within the meaning of this section. Gee v. Crabtree, 192 Colo. 550, 560 P.2d 835 (1977); In re Mann, 697 P.2d 778 (Colo. App. 1984); In re Shapard, 129 P.3d 1007 (Colo. App. 2004).

To restrict the means of enforcement of an attorney's lien solely to independent civil actions would be a waste of judicial time as well as contrary to the legislative intent reflected by the statutory language. The trial judge who hears the proceedings which gave rise to the lien is in a position to determine whether the amount asserted as a lien is proper and can determine the means for the enforcement of the lien. Gee v. Crabtree, 192 Colo. 550, 560 P.2d 835 (1977).

The trial court may not adjudicate the rights of persons not actually or constructively before it; therefore it erred in divorce action by giving priority to parents' interest in parties' residence over the husband's attorney's charging lien in the proceeds from the sale of the residence. In re Weydert, 703 P.2d 1336 (Colo. App. 1985).

Filing a notice of an attorney's lien merely places others on notice that the attorney claims an interest in the funds subject to the lien and does not constitute the commencement of a "proper civil action" for the purpose of enforcing the lien. In re Mitchell, 55 P.3d 183 (Colo. App. 2002).

An attorney must enforce a charging lien within the limitation period applicable to enforcement of the underlying debt. Gold v. Duncan Ostrander & Dingess, P.C., 143 P.3d 1192 (Colo. App. 2006).

In a dissolution-of-marriage proceeding, the amount and allocation of fees between parties may not be challenged independently by lien claimant. In re Shapard, 129 P.3d 1007 (Colo. App. 2004).

There is no right to a jury trial in action to establish an attorney's lien since it is equitable in nature, and counterclaim for breach of contract does not change nature of the action. In re Rosenberg, 690 P.2d 1293 (Colo. App. 1984).

Court erred in enjoining enforcement of attorney's lien where it failed to give notice to all the parties involved and where it failed to determine the validity of the lien and whether there existed any property which could be reached to enforce it. Seitz v. Seitz, 33 Colo. App. 180, 516 P.2d 654 (1973).

Attorney lien statute does not create implied exception to protections offered to workers' compensation benefits, because the workers' compensation statute unequivocally exempts workers' compensation benefits from any remedy ordinarily available to satisfy a debt, with only one explicit exception. James E. Freemyer, P.C. v. Indus. Claim Appeals Office, 32 P.3d 564 (Colo. App. 2000).

B. Notice.

This section goes no further than to give the attorney the right to file a notice of lien, which filing only perfects his right, if any, in the subject matter of the action. In re Crabtree, 37 Colo. App. 149, 546 P.2d 505 (1975), rev'd on other grounds, 192 Colo. 550, 560 P.2d 835 (1977).

If the attorney expects satisfaction of his claim out of the judgment, he must so notify the judgment debtor, and the notice must be followed, within a reasonable time, by suit. Colo. State Bank v. Davidson, 7 Colo. App. 91, 42 P. 687 (1895).

The notice must be followed within a reasonable time by suit. Colo. State Bank v. Davidson, 7 Colo. App. 91, 42 P. 687 (1895).

The judgment debtor must be notified of the attorney's intention to take advantage of the statute. Boston & Colo. Smelting Co. v. Pless, 9 Colo. 112, 10 P. 652 (1885).

In order to render the lien valid as against the judgment debtor, he must have notice that their fees were unpaid in whole or in part, and that they relied upon the judgment as security therefor. Boston & Colo. Smelting Co. v. Pless, 9 Colo. 112, 10 P. 652 (1885); Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887); Johnson v. McMillan, 13 Colo. 423, 22 P. 769 (1889).

Since no particular form of notice is provided in this section, the common law rule of notice prevails. Boston & Colo. Smelting Co. v. Pless, 9 Colo. 112, 10 P. 652 (1885); Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887); Johnson v. McMillan, 13 Colo. 423, 22 P. 769 (1889).

In the case of demands in suit and in the case of judgments obtained in whole or in part by any attorney, an attorney may file with the clerk of the court wherein such cause is pending, notice of his claim as lienor. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

The statutory notice to the judgment debtor of the intention of such attorney to claim a lien on the judgment is unnecessary where the debtor has actual knowledge of such claim. Aleman v. Annable, 110 Colo. 61, 129 P.2d 987 (1942).

The notice that this section provides "may" be filed with the clerk of the court is not a prerequisite to the validity of the lien. Collins v. Thuringer, 92 Colo. 433, 21 P.2d 709 (1933).

As between attorney and client, the lien is valid without notice. Collins v. Thuringer, 92 Colo. 433, 21 P.2d 709 (1933).

The provision in this section concerning notice is intended to give constructive notice, so as to preserve the attorney's lien in the event that the judgment debtor should settle the judgment without having actual notice of the lien claim or some third person, without having such actual notice, should acquire an interest in the judgment or in its proceeds. Collins v. Thuringer, 92 Colo. 433, 21 P.2d 709 (1933).

In the former statute there was no provision permitting an attorney to file a notice of his lien claim and making it constructive notice thereof. Fillmore v. Wells, 10 Colo. 228, 15 P. 343 (1887); Collins v. Thuringer, 92 Colo. 433, 21 P.2d 709 (1933).

Perfection of an attorney's lien as to third parties is not retroactive so as to have priority over bona fide purchaser for value. In re Mailin Oil Co., 67 Bankr. 284 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1986).

Priority of liens. Where notice of the attorney's lien was properly filed before the entry of judgment and before the state's assertion of a lien, the attorney's lien had priority. Matter of Estate of Benney, 771 P.2d 7 (Colo. App. 1988).

If a judgment debtor, without notice that the attorney intends to enforce his lien, should make a bona fide settlement of the judgment or if an innocent third person, without such notice, should purchase the fruits of the judgment or should acquire an interest in the judgment, the attorney's lien would be lost. Collins v. Thuringer, 92 Colo. 433, 21 P.2d 709 (1933).

Lien can be enforced against settlement funds once the settlement agreement has been carried out, but only to the extent that the client has an interest in the funds. Any allegations regarding a breach of the settlement agreement must be disposed of before the court can enter an order enforcing the attorney's lien. MCI Constructors v. District Court, 799 P.2d 40 (Colo. 1990).

VI. POSSESSORY LIEN EXTINGUISHED BY SETTLEMENT.

The general, retaining, or possessory lien attaches to all papers, books, documents, securities, and money coming into an attorney's possession in the course of his professional employment. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'd In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

The attorney has a right to retain them in his possession until the general balance due him for legal services is paid, whether such services grew out of the special matters then in his hands or other legal matters. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'd In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

It does not create an equitable charge which follows the proceeds received in settlement of a claim, such as where a "claim" of the bankrupt against the leaders was extinguished by the agreed settlement. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'd In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

Where a settlement extinguished the claim by necessity, it also extinguished any "possessory" lien which attached to the claim itself. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

Moreover, even if it were held that a possessory lien attaches to any claim turned over to an attorney when that claim is placed in his hands, such a lien does not continue after the claim is extinguished so as to be transferred as an equitable charge against property received in settlement. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.) aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

To do so would violate the distinction between the "possessory" and "charge" liens and go contrary to the caution expressed that the two must not be confused. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

12-5-120. Other property to which lien attaches. An attorney has a lien for a general balance of compensation upon any papers of his client which have come into his possession in the course of his professional employment and upon money due to his client in the hands of the adverse party in an action or proceeding in which the attorney was employed from the time of giving notice of the lien to that party.

It was not the intention of the general assembly to abolish the well-established distinction between the two classes of liens (i.e. retaining liens and charging liens) and to create a lien upon a judgment and its proceeds to secure the payment of attorney's fees earned in matters not at all connected with the suit in which the judgment is rendered. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Under Colorado law, the common law attorney's lien is not preserved and no lien exists apart from statute. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

Colorado has two statutory provisions pertaining to attorney's liens, § 12-5-119 and this section. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Section 12-5-119 and this section did not separate the two classes of liens as clearly as might be desired. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

The Colorado supreme court has declared that § 12-5-119 and this section established two distinct classes of liens, each with its own limitation. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

Where an attorney's right to a lien exists by virtue of a statute, such right cannot be extended beyond the fair intentment of such statute. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

There is no authority in Colorado for an equitable lien apart from § 12-5-119 and this section. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

This is in accord with the general rule that where a charging lien is created by statute, the right to the lien exists only in cases specifically provided for by such statute. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Charging lien not created where money paid to attorney on behalf of debtor in settlement of a lawsuit against a third party remained in attorney's possession when compensable work had been completed. In re Oiltech, Inc., 38 Bankr. 484 (Bankr. D. Nev. 1984).

The right to the special, particular, or charging lien rests, not on possession, but on the equity of an attorney to be paid his fees and disbursements out of the judgment obtained as a result of his service and skill. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

This section intended to confer a right to a charging lien only when a claim becomes a "claim in suit". Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

A "charging lien" could not attach for services in matters not involved in the suit. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir.), aff'g In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo. 1958).

A charging lien under this section can be waived. Thus, attorney waived lien by virtue of assurances made by the attorney's associate to third parties to whom papers belonged that the papers would be returned to the parties. It was irrelevant whether the papers belonged to the attorney's client or to third parties. People v. Brown, 840 P.2d 1085 (Colo. 1992).

A lien cannot be created by the mere fact that an attorney is entitled to be paid for his services, for to allow such a lien would be to give this creditor a preferred position which the law does not intend. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

Federal court has no jurisdiction to adjudicate amount of fees properly owing between an attorney and his clients with respect to matters unrelated to litigation before the court. Jenkins v. Weinshienk, 670 F.2d 915 (10th Cir. 1982).

Adjudication of existence of lien separate from adjudication of amount. Adjudicating the amount of fees owing between lawyer and client is not essential to determining the existence of an attorney's retaining lien. Jenkins v. Weinshienk, 670 F.2d 915 (10th Cir. 1982).

An attorney has no legal basis for the assertion of a lien simply to secure a fee obligation. People v. Razatos, 636 P.2d 666 (Colo. 1981), appeal dismissed, 455 U.S. 930, 102 S. Ct. 1415, 71 L. Ed. 2d 639 (1982).

To allow such a lien would be to give this attorney creditor a preferred position which the law does not intend. In re Forrest A. Heath Co., 159 F. Supp. 632 (D. Colo.), aff'd sub nom. Donaldson v. Gaudio, 260 F.2d 333 (10th Cir. 1958).

In order for an attorney to assert a retaining lien, the client must owe the attorney a general balance of compensation. People v. Garnett, 725 P.2d 1149 (Colo. 1986).

Validity and extent of attorney's lien in bankruptcy is determined by state law. In re Life Imaging Corp., 31 Bankr. 101 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

Lien not extinguished by bankruptcy. Under 11 U.S.C. § 101, an attorney's lien in Colorado is a "statutory" and not a "judicial" lien, which cannot be avoided by a bankruptcy debtor under 11 U.S.C. § 522(f). Ranes v. Molen, 31 Bankr. 70 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

An attorney's lien which is valid under state law is not extinguished when the client files bankruptcy. Further, there is no provision in the bankruptcy code for the voiding of a valid statutory attorney's lien. In re Life Imaging Corp., 31 Bankr. 101 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

Creditor's statutory attorney's lien obtained pursuant to this section and § 12-5-120 was not merged into the judgment lien he subsequently obtained. In re Dickinson, 185 Bankr. 840 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1995).

Attorney's interest in bankruptcy debtor's files. An attorney is entitled to adequate protection of interest in a bankruptcy debtor's files if it is required to turn them over to the debtor. A form of adequate protection is to require the debtor to make cash payments to the attorney to the extent that the use of the property results in a decrease in the value of the attorney's interest in the property. The decrease in value of the attorney's interest is that portion of unpaid attorney's fees attributable to the creation of the specific documents involved. In re Life Imaging Corp., 31 Bankr. 101 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1983).

When substitute collateral is posted to replace books, records, and files which were the subject of an attorney's lien, the lien attaching to such collateral is of the same character as and is to be accorded no greater dignity than the lien on the original property. In re Oiltech, Inc., 38 Bankr. 484 (Bankr. D. Nev. 1984).

In order to determine the amount of the attorney's lien, evidentiary hearing is required to determine the value to the debtor of the books, records, and files once held by the attorney. In re Oiltech, Inc., 38 Bankr. 484 (Bankr. D. Nev. 1984).

Lien attaches to client's papers once attorney has completed compensable work. People ex rel. MacFarlane v. Harthun, 195 Colo. 38, 581 P.2d 716 (1978).

Homestead exemption statute includes attorney's liens within its ambit and the attorney's lien does not attach to the homestead. If the debtor has any net equity remaining after the sale of the property in question, the creditor's attorney's lien attaches to that net equity and his claim is unsecured for any amount over that sum. In re Dickinson, 185 Bankr. 840 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1995).

Lien continues during litigation over amount. The retaining lien exists if any fees are owed and apparently continues during litigation over the amount owing. Jenkins v. Weinshienk, 670 F.2d 915 (10th Cir. 1982).

Unconditional assurances that documents will be returned constitute an express waiver of lien. People v. Brown, 840 P.2d 1085 (Colo. 1992).

Priority of liens. Where notice of the attorney's lien was properly filed before the entry of judgment and before the state's assertion of a lien, the attorney's lien had priority. Matter of Estate of Benney, 771 P.2d 7 (Colo. App. 1988).

Enforceability of attorney’s retaining lien against third parties, unlike a charging lien, is not conditioned upon the requirement of notice. In re Oiltech, Inc., 38 Bankr. 484 (Bankr. D. Nev. 1984).

Attorney’s lien begins to accrue from the moment of commencement of services and may then be enforced against any monies or property due and owing the attorney’s client who receives judgment and is a lien on those items. In re Smith, 687 P.2d 519 (Colo. App. 1984).

Exception. In proceeding on counterclaim by attorney for recovery of attorney fees, trial court did not abuse discretion nor exceed jurisdiction by ordering production of files in attorney’s possession relating to legal work done for client, even though files were subject to retaining lien. Jenkins v. District Court, 676 P.2d 1201 (Colo. 1984).

For discussion of exceptions to retaining lien, see Jenkins v. Weinshienk, 670 F.2d 915 (10th Cir. 1982).

Misconduct in other cases not to affect assertion of lien. Misconduct in a particular case, if suspension or disbarment is not involved, should not result in the loss of an attorney’s ability to assert his lien in other cases where professional misconduct is not involved. People ex rel. MacFarlane v. Harthun, 195 Colo. 38, 581 P.2d 716 (1978).

Case involving misconduct affected. When an attorney is discharged or removed from a particular case for professional misconduct in the handling of his client’s affairs, he has no right to assert a “retaining lien” as to that client’s papers which are in his possession and must return those papers to that client upon request. People ex rel. MacFarlane v. Harthun, 195 Colo. 38, 581 P.2d 716 (1978).

Wrongful assertion of attorney’s lien may constitute misconduct. Wrongfully asserting an attorney’s lien under this section on stock certificates in the attorney’s possession, where no “general balance of compensation” was owed, constitutes professional misconduct. People ex rel. Goldberg v. Gordon, 199 Colo. 296, 607 P.2d 995 (Colo. 1980).

Unfounded claim of lien violates professional code. The assertion of an attorney’s lien in circumstances where the attorney has no statutory or legal foundation for a lien and, in fact, has an uncertain claim to the fee being claimed through the lien violates the code of professional responsibility. People v. Razatos, 636 P.2d 666 (Colo. 1981), appeal dismissed, 455 U.S. 930, 102 S. Ct. 1415, 71 L. Ed. 2d 639 (1982); People v. Smith, 830 P.2d 1003 (Colo. 1992); People v. Brown, 840 P.2d 1085, (Colo. 1992); People v. Mills, 861 P.2d 708 (Colo. 1993) (decided under DR 1-102 (A)(5)).

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS

Editor's note: This part 1 was numbered as article 11 of chapter 13, C.R.S. 1963. The provisions of this part 1 were repealed and reenacted in 1971, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 1 prior to 1971, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

12-6-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that:

(a) The sale and distribution of motor vehicles affects the public interest and a significant factor of inducement in making a sale of a motor vehicle is the trust and confidence of the purchaser in the retail dealer from whom the purchase is made and the expectancy that such dealer will remain in business to provide service for the motor vehicle purchased;

(b) Proper motor vehicle service is important to highway safety and the manufacturers and distributors of motor vehicles have an obligation to the public not to terminate or refuse to continue their franchise agreements with retail dealers unless the manufacturer or distributor has first established good cause for termination or noncontinuance of any such agreement, to the end that there shall be no diminution of locally available service;

(c) The licensing and supervision of motor vehicle dealers by the motor vehicle dealer board are necessary for the protection of consumers and therefore the sale of motor vehicles by unlicensed dealers or salespersons, or by licensed dealers or salespersons who have demonstrated unfitness, should be prevented; and

(d) Consumer education concerning the rules and regulations of the motor vehicle industry, the considerations when purchasing a motor vehicle, and the role, functions, and actions of the motor vehicle dealer board are necessary for the protection of the public and for maintaining the trust and confidence of the public in the motor vehicle dealer board.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-6-101 is similar to repealed § 13-11-1, CRS 53, and CSA, C.

16, § 420, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

It was held that there was no constitutional inhibition against the licensing and bonding requirements of this article. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

It was also held that any misconduct of a plaintiff corporation by violating the Sherman or Clayton acts, did not deprive it of the right to attack the constitutionality of some sections in this article. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

Earlier provision held unconstitutional. Jesse M. Chase Casper Co. v. Fugate, 128 F. Supp. 244 (D. Colo. 1955).

Such provision held incomplete. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

The title of this act clearly indicates that it deals with persons, because “providing penalties for the violation thereof” could scarcely be construed to relate to penalties imposed upon the vehicles. Corder v. Pond, 117 Colo. 463, 190 P.2d 582 (1948).

Multiple licensing permitted. The automobile dealer licensing statute, this section, does not expressly permit or disallow a salesman to be licensed to more than one dealer. However, § 12-6-118(5)(g) indicates a legislative intent that multiple licensing be permitted. United Buying Serv., Inc. v. State Dept. of Rev., 37 Colo. App. 465, 548 P.2d 1286 (1976).

12-6-102. Definitions. As used in this part 1 and in part 5 of this article, unless the context or section 12-6-502 otherwise requires:

(1.5) “Advertisement” means any commercial message in any newspaper, magazine, leaflet, flyer, or catalog, on radio, television, or a public address system, in direct mail literature or other printed material, on any interior or exterior sign or display, in any window display, on a computer display, or in any point-of-transaction literature or price tag that is delivered or made available to a customer or prospective customer in any manner whatsoever; except that such term does not include materials required to be displayed by federal or state law.

(2.4) “Business incidental thereto” means a business owned by the motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer related to the sale of motor vehicles, including, without limitation, motor vehicle part sales, motor vehicle repair, motor vehicle recycling, motor vehicle security interest assignment, and motor vehicle towing.

(2.5) (a) (I) “Buyer agent” means any person required to be licensed pursuant to this part 1 who is retained or hired by a consumer for a fee or other thing of value to assist, represent, or act on behalf of such consumer in connection with the purchase or lease of a motor vehicle.

(II) “Consumer”, as used in this subsection (2.5), means a purchaser or lessee of a motor vehicle, which vehicle is primarily used for business, personal, family, or household purposes. “Consumer” does not include a purchaser of motor vehicles who purchases said motor vehicles primarily for resale.

(b) (I) “Buyer agent” does not include a person whose business includes the purchase of motor vehicles primarily for resale or lease; except that nothing in this subsection (2.5) shall be construed to prohibit a buyer agent from assisting a consumer regarding the disposal of a trade-in motor vehicle that is incident to the purchase or lease of a vehicle if the buyer agent does not advertise the sale of, or sell, such vehicle to the general public, directs interested dealers and wholesalers to communicate their offers directly to the consumer or to the consumer via the buyer agent, does not handle or transfer titles or funds between the consumer and the purchaser, receives no compensation from a dealer or wholesaler purchasing a consumer’s vehicle, and identifies himself or herself as a buyer agent to dealers and wholesalers interested in the consumer’s vehicle.

(II) A “buyer agent” licensed pursuant to this part 1 shall not be employed by or receive a fee from a person whose business includes the purchase of motor vehicles primarily for resale or lease, a motor vehicle manufacturer, a motor vehicle dealer, or a used motor vehicle dealer.

(3) “Coerce” means to compel or attempt to compel by threatening, retaliating, economic force, or by not performing or complying with any terms or provisions of the franchise or agreement; except that recommendation, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument shall not be deemed to constitute coercion.

(4.5) (a) "Custom trailer" means any motor vehicle which is not driven or propelled by its own power and is designed to be attached to, become a part of, or be drawn by a motor vehicle and which is uniquely designed and manufactured for a specific purpose or customer.

(b) "Custom trailer" does not include manufactured housing, farm tractors, and other machines and tools used in the production, harvest, and care of farm products.

(5) "Distributor" means a person, resident or nonresident, who, in whole or in part, sells or distributes new motor vehicles to motor vehicle dealers or who maintains distributor representatives.

(6) and (7) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1300, § 1, effective April 22, 2003.)

(7.5) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of revenue charged with the administration, enforcement, and issuance or denial of the licensing of buyer agents, distributors, manufacturer representatives, and manufacturers.

(8) and (9) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1300, § 1, effective April 22, 2003.)

(9.5) "Fire truck" means a vehicle intended for use in the extermination of fires, with features that may include, but shall not be limited to, a fire pump, a water tank, an aerial ladder, an elevated platform, or any combination thereof.

(9.7) "Franchise" means the authority to sell or service and repair motor vehicles of a designated line-make granted through a sales, service, and parts agreement with a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

(10) "Good faith" means the duty of each party to any franchise and all officers, employees, or agents thereof to act in a fair and equitable manner toward each other so as to guarantee the one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party. Recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument shall not be deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(10.5) "Line-make" means a group or series of motor vehicles that have the same brand identification or brand name, based upon the manufacturer's trademark, trade name, or logo.

(11) "Manufacturer" means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who manufactures or assembles new and unused motor vehicles; except that "manufacturer" shall not include:

(a) Any person who only manufactures utility trailers that weigh less than two thousand pounds and does not manufacture any other type of motor vehicle; and

(b) Any person, other than a manufacturer operating a dealer pursuant to section 12-6-120.5, who is a licensed dealer selling motor vehicles that such person has manufactured.

(11.5) "Manufacturer representative" means a representative employed by a person who manufactures or assembles motor vehicles for the purpose of making or promoting the sale of its motor vehicles or for supervising or contacting its dealers or prospective dealers.

(12) "Motor vehicle" means every vehicle intended primarily for use and operation on the public highways which is self-propelled and every vehicle intended primarily for operation on the public highways which is not driven or propelled by its own power but which is designed to be attached to or become a part of or to be drawn by a self-propelled vehicle, not including farm tractors and other machines and tools used in the production, harvesting, and care of farm products. "Motor vehicle" includes, without limitation, a low-power scooter, as defined in section 42-1-102, C.R.S.

(12.6) "Motor vehicle auctioneer" means any person, not otherwise required to be licensed pursuant to this part 1, who is engaged in the business of offering to sell, or selling, used motor vehicles owned by persons other than the auctioneer at public auction only. Any auctioning of motor vehicles by an auctioneer shall be incidental to the primary business of auctioning goods.

(13) "Motor vehicle dealer" means a person who, for commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, sells, leases, exchanges, rents with option to purchase, offers, or attempts to negotiate a sale, lease, or exchange of an interest in new or new and used motor vehicles or who is engaged wholly or in part in the business of selling or leasing new or new and used motor vehicles, whether or not such motor vehicles are owned by such person. The sale or lease of three or more new or new and used motor vehicles or the offering for sale or lease of more than three new or new and used motor vehicles at the same address or telephone number in any one calendar year shall be prima facie evidence that a person is engaged in the business of selling or leasing new or new and used motor vehicles. "Motor vehicle dealer" includes an owner of real property who allows more than three new or new and used motor vehicles to be offered for sale or lease on such property during one calendar year unless said property is leased to a licensed motor vehicle dealer. "Motor vehicle dealer" does not include:

(a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by or acting under the judgment or order of any court;

(b) Public officers while performing their official duties;

(c) Employees of persons enumerated in the definition of "motor vehicle dealer" when engaged in the specific performance of their duties as such employees;

(d) A wholesaler, as defined in subsection (18) of this section, or anyone selling motor vehicles solely to wholesalers;

(e) Any person engaged in the selling of a fire truck;

(f) A motor vehicle auctioneer, as defined in subsection (12.6) of this section.

(14) "Motor vehicle salesperson" means a natural person who, for a salary, commission, or compensation of any kind, is employed either directly or indirectly, regularly or occasionally, by a motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer to sell, lease, purchase, or exchange or to negotiate for the sale, lease, purchase, or exchange of motor vehicles.

(15) "Person" means any natural person, estate, trust, limited liability company, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity, including, without limitation, a registered limited liability partnership.

(16) "Principal place of business" means a site or location devoted exclusively to the business for which the motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer is licensed and businesses incidental thereto, sufficiently designated to admit of definite description, with space thereon or contiguous thereto adequate to permit the display of one or more new or used motor vehicles, and on which there shall be located or erected a permanent enclosed building or structure large enough to accommodate the office of the dealer and to provide a safe place to keep the books and other records of the business of such dealer, at which site or location the principal portion of such dealer's business shall be conducted and the books and records thereof kept and maintained; except that a dealer may keep its books and records at an off-site location in Colorado after notifying the board in writing of such location at least thirty days in advance.

(16.6) "Sales, service, and parts agreement" means an agreement between a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative and a motor vehicle or powersports dealer authorizing the dealer to sell and service a line-make of motor or powersports vehicles or operating any duty on the dealer in consideration for the right to have or competitively operate a franchise, including any amendments or additional related agreements thereto.

(16.7) "Site control provision" means an agreement that applies to real property owned or leased by the franchisee and that gives a motor vehicle or powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative the right to:

(a) Control the use and development of the real property;

(b) Require the franchisee to establish or maintain an exclusive dealership facility at the real property; or

(c) Restrict the franchisee from transferring, selling, leasing, developing, or changing the use of the real property.

(17) "Used motor vehicle dealer" means any person who, for commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, sells, exchanges, leases, or offers an interest in used motor vehicles, or attempts to negotiate a sale, exchange, or lease of used and new motor vehicles or who is engaged wholly or in part in the business of selling used motor vehicles, whether or not such motor vehicles are owned by such person. The sale of three or more used motor vehicles or the offering for sale of more than three used motor vehicles at the same address or telephone number in any one calendar year shall be prima facie evidence that a person is engaged in the business of selling used motor vehicles. "Used motor vehicle dealer" includes any owner of real property who allows more than three used motor vehicles to be offered for sale on such property during one calendar year unless said property is leased to a licensed used motor vehicle dealer. "Used motor vehicle dealer" does not include:

(a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by or acting under the judgment or order of any court;

(b) Public officers while performing their official duties;

(c) Employees of persons enumerated in the definition of "used motor vehicle dealer" when engaged in the specific performance of their duties as such employees;

(d) A wholesaler, as defined in subsection (18) of this section, or anyone selling motor vehicles solely to wholesalers;

(e) Mortgagees or secured parties as to sales in any one year of not more than twelve motor vehicles constituting collateral on a mortgage or security agreement, if such mortgagees or secured parties shall not realize for their own account from such sales any moneys in excess of the outstanding balance secured by such mortgage or security agreement, plus costs of collection;

(f) Any person who only sells or exchanges no more than four motor vehicles that are collector's items under part 3 or 4 of article 12 of title 42, C.R.S.;

(g) A motor vehicle auctioneer, as defined in subsection (12.6) of this section;

(h) An operator, as defined in section 42-4-2102 (5), C.R.S., who sells a motor vehicle pursuant to section 42-4-2104, C.R.S.

(17.5) "Wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer" means any person or firm that provides auction services in wholesale transactions in which the purchasers are motor vehicle dealers licensed by this state or any other jurisdiction or in consumer transactions of government vehicles at a time and place that does not conflict with a wholesale motor vehicle auction conducted by that licensee.

(18) "Wholesaler" means a person who, for commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, sells, exchanges, or offers or attempts to negotiate a sale, lease, or exchange of an interest in new or new and used motor vehicles solely to motor vehicle dealers or used motor vehicle dealers.

ANNOTATION

Earlier provisions held invalid and unenforceable. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956) (case decided under repealed § 13-11-2, CRS 53).

This section requires all who sell trailers to be licensed as automobile dealers. State ex rel. Dept. of Rev. v. Modern Trailer Sales, Inc., 175 Colo. 296, 486 P.2d 1064 (1971).

This section defines trailers as motor vehicles. State ex rel. Dept. of Rev. v. Modern Trailer Sales, Inc., 175 Colo. 296, 486 P.2d 1064 (1971).

Mobile home not motor vehicle. Mobile homes fall within the statutory definition of "movable structure". This definition recognizes the general or common use of the product as being for residential purposes. A motor vehicle, on the other hand, is designed primarily for travel on the public highways. Shaw v. Aurora Mobile Homes & Real Estate, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 321, 539 P.2d 1366 (1975).

Movable structures cannot be considered to be "motor vehicles". Shaw v. Aurora Mobile Homes & Real Estate, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 321, 539 P.2d 1366 (1975).

Mobile home dealers are not subject to article. Since the definition of a motor vehicle dealer specifies motor vehicles as the exclusive subject matter bringing a person within the coverage of § 12-6-111, that bond does not cover activities in the sale of mobile homes, i.e., "movable structures". Shaw v. Aurora Mobile Homes & Real Estate, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 321, 539 P.2d 1366 (1975).

"Employed" in subsection (14). The general assembly intended that the term "employed", as used in subsection (14), not be restricted to technical employer-employee relationships. Instead, by including indirect and occasional employment, the general assembly intended to embrace all persons whose services are utilized in the furtherance of the business of the dealer. United Buying Serv., Inc. v. State Dept. of Rev., 37 Colo. App. 465, 548 P.2d 1286 (1976).

12-6-103. Motor vehicle dealer board. (1) There is hereby created and established the motor vehicle dealer board, consisting of nine members who have been residents of this state for at least five years, three of whom shall be licensed motor vehicle dealers, three of whom shall be licensed used motor vehicle dealers, and three of whom shall be members from the public at large. The members representing the public at large shall not have a present or past financial interest in a motor vehicle dealership. The board shall assume its duties July 1, 1992, and all terms of the board members shall commence on that date. The terms of office of the board members shall be three years. Any vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

(3) Each board member shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in the discharge of official duties.

ANNOTATION

It was reasonable to infer that, when this article was amended in 1955 to apply also to manufacturers and distributors, the general assembly considered that the denial, suspension, and revocation of their licenses should not be determined by a body made up exclusively of dealers. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956) (case decided under repealed § 13-11-4, CRS 53).

12-6-104. Board - oath - meetings - powers and duties - rules. (1) Each member of the board, before entering on the discharge of such member's duties and within thirty days after the effective date of such member's appointment, shall subscribe an oath for the faithful performance of such member's duties before any officer authorized to administer oaths in this state and shall file the same with the secretary of state.

(2) The board shall annually in the month of July elect from the membership thereof a president, a first vice-president, and a second vice-president. The board shall meet at such times as it deems necessary. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting or hearing.

(3) The board is authorized and empowered:

(a) To promulgate, amend, and repeal rules reasonably necessary to implement this part 1, including the administration, enforcement, issuance, and denial of licenses to motor vehicle dealers, motor vehicle salespersons, used motor vehicle dealers, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealers, and wholesalers, and the laws of the state of Colorado;

(a.5) To delegate to the board's executive secretary, employed pursuant to section 12-6-105 (1) (b), the authority to execute all actions within the power of the board, carry out the directives of the board, and make recommendations to the board on all matters within the authority of the board;

(a.7) To issue through the department of revenue a temporary license to any person applying for any license issued by the board. The temporary license shall permit the applicant to operate for a period not to exceed one hundred twenty days while the board is completing its investigation and determination of all facts relative to the qualifications of the applicant for such license. A temporary license is terminated when the applicant's license is issued or denied.

(d) (I) To issue through the department of revenue and, for reasonable cause shown or upon satisfactory proof of the unfitness of the applicant under standards established and set forth in this part 1, to refuse to issue to any applicant any license the board is authorized to issue by this part 1;

(II) To permit the executive director, or the executive director's designee, to issue licenses pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3);

(e) (I) After due notice and a hearing, to review the findings of an administrative law judge or a hearing officer from a hearing conducted pursuant to this part 1 to revoke and suspend or to order the executive director to issue or to reinstate, on such terms and conditions and for such period of time as to the board shall appear fair and just, any license issued under and pursuant to the terms and provisions of this part 1. The board may direct a letter of admonition for minor violations or may issue a letter of reprimand to any licensee for a violation of this part 1. A letter of admonition does not become a part of the licensee's record with the board. A letter of reprimand is a part of the licensee's record with the board for a period of two years after issuance and may be considered in aggravation of any subsequent violation by the licensee. When a letter of reprimand is sent to a licensee of the board, such licensee shall be notified in writing regarding the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of such letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated against such licensee to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of reprimand is based. If a request is made within such time period, the letter of reprimand is deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(II) The findings of the board pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (e) shall be final.

(f) (I) To investigate through the executive director, on its own motion or upon the written and signed complaint of any person, any suspected or alleged violation by any motor vehicle dealer, motor vehicle salesperson, used motor vehicle dealer, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer, or wholesaler licensee of any of the terms and provisions of this part 1 or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the board under the authority conferred upon it in this section. The board shall order an investigation of all written and signed complaints, shall have the authority to issue subpoenas and to delegate the authority to issue subpoenas to the executive director, and the executive director shall make an investigation of all such complaints transmitted by the board pursuant to section 12-6-105 (1) (d). The board has the authority to seek to resolve disputes before beginning an investigation or hearing through its own action or by direction to the executive director.

(II) After an investigation by the executive director or the executive director's designee, if the board determines that there is probable cause to believe a violation of this article has occurred, it may order that an administrative hearing be held pursuant to section 24-4-105,

C.R.S., or may designate one of the board's members as a hearing officer to conduct a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(f.5) To summarily issue cease-and-desist orders on such terms and conditions and for such period of time as to the board appears fair and just to any person who is licensed by the board pursuant to this part 1 if such orders are followed by notice and a hearing pursuant to section 12-6-119;

(g) To prescribe the forms to be used for applications for motor vehicle dealers', motor vehicle salespersons', used motor vehicle dealers', wholesale motor vehicle auction dealers', and wholesalers' licenses to be issued and to require of such applicants, as a condition precedent to the issuance of such licenses, such information concerning their fitness to be licensed under this part 1 as it may consider necessary. Every application for a motor vehicle dealer's license or used motor vehicle dealer's license shall contain, in addition to such information as the board may require, a statement of the following facts:

(I) The name and residence address of the applicant and the trade name, if any, under which such applicant intends to conduct such applicant's business and, if the applicant is a copartnership, the name and residence address of each member thereof, whether a limited or general partner, and the name under which the partnership business is to be conducted and, if the applicant is a corporation, the name of the corporation and the name and address of each of its principal officers and directors;

(II) A complete description, including the city, town, or village, the street and number, if any, of the principal place of business, and such other and additional places of business as shall be operated and maintained by the applicant in conjunction with the principal place of business;

(III) If the application is for a motor vehicle dealer's license, the names of the new motor vehicles that the applicant has been enfranchised to sell or exchange and the name and address of the manufacturer or distributor who has enfranchised the applicant;

(IV) The names and addresses of the persons who shall act as salespersons under the authority of the license, if issued.

(h) To adopt a seal with the words "motor vehicle dealer board" and such other devices as the board may desire engraved thereon by which it shall authenticate the acts of its office;

(i) To require that a motor vehicle dealer's or used motor vehicle dealer's principal place of business and such other sites or locations as may be operated and maintained by such dealers in conjunction with their principal place of business have erected or posted thereon such signs or devices providing information relating to the dealer's name, the location and address of such dealer's principal place of business, the type of license held by the dealer, and the number thereof, as the board shall consider necessary to enable any person doing business with such dealer to identify such dealer properly, and for this purpose to determine the size and shape of such signs or devices, the lettering thereon, and other details thereof and to prescribe rules and regulations for the location thereof;

(j) (I) To conduct or cause to be conducted written examinations as prescribed by the board testing the competency of all first-time applicants for a motor vehicle dealer's license, motor vehicle salesperson's license, used motor vehicle dealer's license, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's license, or wholesaler's license;

(II) and (III) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 592, § 4, effective July 1, 1998.)

(k) (I) To prescribe a form or forms to be used as a part of a contract for the sale of a motor vehicle by any motor vehicle dealer or motor vehicle salesperson, other than a retail installment sales contract subject to the provisions of the "Uniform Consumer Credit Code", articles 1 to 9 of title 5, C.R.S., which shall include the following information in addition to any other disclosures or information required by state or federal law:

(A) In twelve-point bold-faced type or a size at least three points larger than the smallest type appearing in the contract, an instruction that the form is a legal instrument and that, if the purchaser of the motor vehicle does not understand the form, such purchaser should seek legal assistance;

(B) In bold-faced type, of the size specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), an instruction that only those terms in written form embody the contract for sale of a motor vehicle and that any conflicting oral representations made to the purchaser are void;

(C) In bold-faced type, of the size specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), a notice that fraud or misrepresentation in the sale of a motor vehicle is punishable under the laws of this state;

(D) In bold-faced type, of the size specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), if the contract for the sale of a motor vehicle requires a single lump sum payment of the purchase price, a clear disclosure to the purchaser of that fact or, if the contract is contingent upon the approval of credit financing for the purchaser arranged by or through the motor vehicle dealer, in bold-faced type, a statement that the purchaser shall agree to purchase the motor vehicle which is the subject of the sale from the motor vehicle dealer at not greater than a certain annual percentage rate of financing, which annual percentage rate of financing shall be agreed upon by the parties and entered in writing on the contract;

(E) Except as otherwise provided under part 1 of article 1 of title 6, C.R.S., where the purchase price of the motor vehicle is not paid to the motor vehicle dealer in full at the time of consummation of the sale and the purchaser and motor vehicle dealer elect that the motor vehicle dealer shall deliver and the purchaser shall take possession of such motor vehicle at such time, in bold-faced type, a statement that in the event financing cannot be arranged in accordance with the provisions stated in the contract, and the sale is not consummated, the purchaser shall agree to pay a daily rate and a mileage rate for use of the motor vehicle until such time as financing of the purchase price of such motor vehicle is arranged for the obligor by or through the authorized motor vehicle dealer or until the purchase price is paid to the authorized motor vehicle dealer in full by or through the obligor, which daily rate and mileage rate shall be specified and agreed upon by the parties and entered in writing on the contract;

(II) The information required by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (k) shall be read and initialed by both parties at the time of the consummation of the sale of a motor vehicle;

(III) The use of the contract form required by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (k) shall be mandatory for the sale of any motor vehicle;

(IV) To require a licensee to include with a consumer sales contract a written notice that provides to the consumer the contact information of the board and information about the board's authority over consumer motor vehicle sales;

(m) (I) (A) If a hearing is held before an administrative law judge or a hearing officer designated by the board from within the board's membership, after due notice and a hearing by such judge or hearing officer pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., to review the findings of law and fact and the fairness of any fine imposed and to uphold such fine, to impose an administrative fine upon its own initiative, which shall not exceed ten thousand dollars for each separate offense by any licensee, or to vacate the fine imposed by the judge or hearing officer; except that, for motor vehicle dealers who sell primarily vehicles that weigh under one thousand five hundred pounds, the fine for each separate offense shall not exceed one thousand dollars. Whenever a hearing is heard by an administrative law judge, the maximum fine that may be imposed is ten thousand dollars for each separate offense by any person licensed by the board pursuant to this part 1; except that, for motor vehicle dealers who sell primarily vehicles that weigh under one thousand five hundred pounds, the fine for each separate offense may not exceed one thousand dollars. Whenever a licensing hearing is conducted by a hearing officer, the sanctions that may be recommended by the hearing officer are limited to the denial or grant of an unrestricted license or a restricted license under such terms as the hearing officer deems appropriate. Whenever a disciplinary hearing is conducted by a hearing officer, the hearing officer may only recommend a probationary period of no more than twelve months, a fine of no more than five hundred dollars, or both such probationary period and fine for each separate violation committed by a person licensed by the board.

(B) The board shall promulgate rules regarding circumstances in which a board member should not act as a hearing officer in a particular matter before the board because of business competition issues connected with the parties involved in such matter.

(II) The findings of the board pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (m) shall be final.

(o) (I) To impose a fine of up to one thousand dollars per day per violation for any person found, after notice and hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., to have violated the provisions of section 12-6-120 (2). For the purposes of this paragraph (o), the address for the notice to be given under section 24-4-105, C.R.S., is the last-known address for the person as indicated in the state motor vehicle records; the last-known address for the owner of the real property upon which motor vehicles are displayed in violation of section 12-6-120 (2) as indicated in the records of the county assessor's office; or an address for service of process in accordance with rule 4 of the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(II) Any person who fails to pay a fine ordered by the board for a violation of section 12-6-120 (2) under this paragraph (o) shall be subject to enforcement proceedings, by the board through the attorney general, in the county or district court pursuant to the Colorado rules of civil procedure. Any fines collected under the provisions of this paragraph (o) shall be disposed of pursuant to section 12-6-123.

(4) The board shall promulgate rules by January 1, 2008, establishing enforcement and compliance standards to ensure that administrative penalties are equitably assessed and commensurate with the seriousness of the violation.

ANNOTATION

The validity of motor vehicle salesperson's license hinges on the validity of the dealer's license. Motor Veh. Licensing v. Denver Truck Ctr., 885 P.2d 278 (Colo. App. 1994).

Notice to motor vehicle dealer, who was also salesperson, that the dealer license was in jeopardy, constituted notice regarding the salesperson's license. Motor Veh. Licensing v. Denver Truck Ctr., 885 P.2d 278 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-6-105. Powers and duties of executive director. (1) The executive director is hereby charged with the administration, enforcement, and issuance or denial of the licensing of buyer agents, distributors, manufacturer representatives, and motor vehicle manufacturers, and shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To promulgate, amend, and repeal reasonable rules and regulations relating to those functions the executive director is mandated to carry out pursuant to this part 1 and the laws of the state of Colorado that the executive director deems necessary to carry out the duties of the office of the executive director pursuant to this part 1;

(b) To employ, subject to the laws of the state of Colorado and after consultation with the board, an executive secretary for the board. The executive secretary shall be accountable to the board and shall, pursuant to delegation by the board, discharge the responsibilities of the board under this part 1. The executive director may also employ such clerks, deputies, and assistants as the executive director considers necessary to discharge the duties imposed upon the executive director by this part 1 and to designate the duties of such clerks, deputies, and assistants.

(c) To issue and, for reasonable cause shown or upon satisfactory proof of the unfitness of the applicant under standards established and set forth in this part 1, to refuse to issue to any applicant any license the executive director is authorized to issue by this part 1;

(d) (I) To investigate upon the executive director's own initiative, upon the written and signed complaint of any person, or upon request by the board pursuant to section 12-6-104 (3) (f) (I), any suspected or alleged violation by any person licensed by the executive director pursuant to this part 1 of any of the terms and provisions of this part 1 or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the executive director under the authority conferred upon the executive director in this section;

(II) The investigators and their supervisors utilized by the executive director, pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d), while actually engaged in performing their duties, shall have the authority as delegated by the executive director to issue subpoenas in relation to performance of their duties relating to licensees who are under the jurisdiction of the executive director and the authority as delegated by the executive director to issue summonses for violations of sections 12-6-120 (2) and 42-6-142, C.R.S., to issue misdemeanor summonses for violations of section 12-6-119.5 (1) (a), and to procure criminal records during an investigation.

(e) To prescribe the forms to be used for applications for licenses to be issued by the executive director under the provisions of this part 1 and to require of such applicants, as a condition precedent to the issuance of such licenses, such information concerning the applicant's fitness to be licensed under this part 1 as the executive director considers necessary;

(f) (I) To summarily issue cease-and-desist orders on such terms and conditions and for such period of time as to the executive director appears fair and just to any person who is licensed by the executive director pursuant to this part 1 if such orders are followed by notice and a hearing pursuant to section 12-6-104 (3) (e) (I).

(II) To issue cease-and-desist orders to persons acting as motor vehicle manufacturers without the manufacturer's license required by this part 1.

(III) To impose a fine, not to exceed one thousand dollars per day, for each violation of section 12-6-120 (1) after a notice and hearing subject to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) In the event any person fails to comply with a cease-and-desist order issued pursuant to this section, the executive director may bring a suit for injunction to prevent any further and continued violation of such order. In any such suit the final proceedings of the executive director, based upon evidence in record, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts found therein.

(3) The executive director may impose a civil fine of not less than ten thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars on a motor vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative who knowingly violates section 12-6-120.3 (5). Each day that a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative violates section 12-6-120.3 (5) by failing to offer the right of first refusal or failing to make a payment required by section 12-6-120.3 (5) is a separate offense.

12-6-107. Attorney general to advise and represent. (1) The attorney general of this state shall represent the board and executive director and shall give opinions on all questions of law relating to the interpretation of this part 1 or arising out of the administration thereof and shall appear for and in behalf of the board and executive director in all actions brought by or against them, whether under the provisions of this part 1 or otherwise.

(2) The board may request the attorney general to make civil investigations and enforce rules and regulations of the board in cases of civil violations and to bring and defend civil suits and proceedings for any of the purposes necessary and proper for carrying out the functions of the board.

12-6-108. Classes of licenses. (1) Licenses issued under the provisions of this part 1 shall be of the following classes:

(a) Motor vehicle dealer's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the business of selling, exchanging, leasing, or offering new and used motor vehicles, and this form of license shall permit not more than two persons named therein who shall be owners or part owners of the business of the licensee to act as motor vehicle salespersons.

(b) Used motor vehicle dealer's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the business of selling, exchanging, leasing, or offering used motor vehicles only. Such license shall also permit a licensee to negotiate for a consumer the sale, exchange, or lease of used and new motor vehicles not owned by the licensee, except those vehicles defined in section 42-1-102 (55), C.R.S., as motorcycles and section 33-14.5-101 (3), C.R.S., as off-highway vehicles; however, prior to completion of such sale, exchange, or lease of a motor vehicle not owned by the licensee, the licensee shall disclose in writing to the consumer whether the licensee will receive any compensation from the consumer and whether the licensee will receive any compensation from the owner of the motor vehicle as a result of such transaction. If the licensee receives compensation from the owner of the motor vehicle as a result of the transaction, the licensee shall include in the written disclosure the name of such owner from whom the licensee will receive compensation. This form of license shall permit not more than two persons named therein who shall be owners or part owners of the business of the licensee to act as motor vehicle salespersons.

(c) Motor vehicle salesperson's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a motor vehicle salesperson.

(d) Manufacturer's or distributor's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or distributor branch and to sell fire trucks.

(f) Manufacturer representative's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a manufacturer representative.

(g) Buyer agent's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a buyer agent.

(h) (I) Wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's license shall permit a licensee to engage in the activities of a wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer if the licensee provides auction services solely in connection with wholesale transactions in which the purchasers are motor vehicle dealers licensed by this state or any other jurisdiction or in connection with the sale of government vehicles to consumers at a time and place that does not conflict with a wholesale motor vehicle auction conducted by that licensee. A wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer shall abide by all laws and rules of the state of Colorado.

(II) A wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer shall maintain a check and title insurance policy for the benefit of such dealer's customers or, alternatively, a wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer shall provide written guarantees of title to such dealer's purchasing customers and written guarantees of payment to such dealer's selling dealers with coverage and exclusions that are customary in check and title insurance policies available to wholesale motor vehicle auction dealers.

(2) Any license issued by the executive director pursuant to law in effect prior to July 1, 1992, shall be valid for the period for which issued.

(3) The licensing requirements of this part 1 shall not apply to banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, industrial banks, or credit unions or an affiliate or subsidiary of such entities in offering to sell, or in the sale of, a motor vehicle that was subject to a lease or that has been repossessed or foreclosed upon if the repossession or foreclosure is in connection with a loan made or originated in Colorado.

(4) The licensing requirements of this part 1 shall not apply to an insurance company selling or offering to sell a motor vehicle through a motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer if the vehicle is obtained by the company as a result of an insurance claim.

ANNOTATION

The validity of motor vehicle salesperson's license hinges on the validity of the dealer's license. Motor Veh. Licensing v. Denver Truck Ctr., 885 P.2d 278 (Colo. App. 1994).

Notice to motor vehicle dealer, who was also salesperson, that the dealer license was in jeopardy, constituted notice regarding the salesperson's license. Motor Veh. Licensing v. Denver Truck Ctr., 885 P.2d 278 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-6-108.5. Temporary motor vehicle dealer license. (1) If a licensed vehicle dealer has entered into a written agreement to sell a dealership to a purchaser and the purchaser has been awarded a new dealership franchise, the board may issue a temporary motor vehicle dealer's license to such purchaser or prospective purchaser. The executive director shall issue the temporary license only after the board has received the applications for both a temporary motor vehicle dealer's license and a motor vehicle dealer's license, the appropriate application fee for the motor vehicle dealer's application, evidence of a passing test score, and evidence that the franchise has been awarded to the applicant by the manufacturer. Such temporary motor vehicle dealer's license shall authorize the licensee to act as a motor vehicle dealer. Such temporary licensees shall be subject to all the provisions of this article and to all applicable rules and regulations adopted by the executive director or the board. Such temporary motor vehicle dealer's license shall be effective for up to sixty days or until the board acts on such licensee's application for a motor vehicle dealer's license, whichever is sooner.

(2) For the purpose of enabling an out-of-state dealer to sell vehicles on a temporary basis during specifically identified events, the executive director may issue, upon direction by the board, a temporary dealer's license which shall be effective for thirty days. Such temporary license shall subject the licensee to compliance with rules and regulations adopted by the executive director or the board.

12-6-109. Display, form, custody, and use of licenses. The board and the executive director shall prescribe the form of the license to be issued by the executive director, and each license shall have imprinted thereon the seal of their offices. The license of each motor vehicle salesperson shall be mailed to the business address where the salesperson is licensed under this article and shall be kept by the salesperson at such salesperson's place of employment for inspection by employers, consumers, the executive director, or the board. It is the duty of each motor vehicle dealer, manufacturer, distributor, wholesaler, manufacturer representative, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer, or used motor vehicle dealer to display conspicuously such person's own license in such person's place of business. Each license issued pursuant to this part 1 is separate and distinct. It shall be a violation of this part 1 for a person to exercise any of the privileges granted under a license that such person does not hold, or for a licensee to knowingly allow such an exercise of privileges.

12-6-110. Fees - disposition - expenses - expiration of licenses. (1) There shall be collected with each application the fee established pursuant to subsection (5) of this section for each of the following licenses:

- (a) (I) Motor vehicle dealer's or used motor vehicle dealer's license;
- (II) Motor vehicle dealer's or used motor vehicle dealer's license, for each place of business in addition to the principal place of business;
- (III) Renewal or reissue of motor vehicle dealer's or used motor vehicle dealer's license after change in location or lapse in principal place of business;
- (b) Manufacturer's license;
- (c) Distributor's license;
- (d) Wholesaler's license;
- (e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1302, § 5, effective April 22, 2003.)
- (f) Manufacturer representative's license;
- (g) Motor vehicle salesperson's license including, but not limited to, reissuing a license;
- (h) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1851, § 11, effective July 1, 1992.)
- (i) Buyer agent's license;
- (j) Wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's license.
- (2) All such fees shall be paid to the state treasurer who shall credit the same to the auto dealers license fund.

(2.5) If an application for a buyer agent's, motor vehicle dealer's, used motor vehicle dealer's, wholesaler's, or salesperson's license is withdrawn by the applicant prior to issuance of the license, one-half of the license fee shall be refunded.

(3) (a) Such licenses, if the same have not been suspended or revoked as provided in this part 1, shall be valid until one year following the month of issuance thereof and shall then expire; except that any license issued under this part 1 shall expire upon the voluntary surrender thereof or upon the abandonment of the licensee's place of business for a period of more than thirty days.

(b) Thirty days prior to the expiration of such licenses, the executive director shall mail to any such licensee's business address of record a notice stating when such person's license is due to expire and the fee necessary to renew such license. For a salesperson or manufacturer representative, the notice shall be mailed to the address of the dealer or manufacturer where such person is licensed.

(c) Upon the expiration of such license, unless suspended or revoked, the same may be renewed upon the payment of the fees specified in this section, which shall accompany applications, and such renewal shall be made from year to year as a matter of right; except that, if a motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, or wholesaler voluntarily surrenders its license or abandons its place of business for a period of more than thirty days, the licensee is required to file a new application to renew its license.

(d) A transition procedure for licensees licensed prior to July 1, 1992, shall be established by the board or the executive director by rule and regulation.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), a person has a thirty-day grace period after his or her license expires, and the person may renew the license within such thirty days pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (3), so long as the person has a bond in full force and effect that complies with the applicable bonding requirements of section 12-6-111, 12-6-112, or 12-6-112.2 during such thirty-day period. A person applying during the thirty-day grace period shall pay a late fee established pursuant to subsection (5) of this section.

(5) (a) The board shall propose, as part of its annual budget request, an adjustment in the amount of each fee which the board is authorized by law to collect. The budget request and the adjusted fees for the board shall reflect direct and indirect costs.

(b) Based upon the appropriation made and subject to the approval of the executive director, the board shall adjust the fees collected by the executive director so that the revenue generated from said fees covers the direct and indirect costs of administering this article. Such fees shall remain in effect for the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made.

(c) Whenever moneys appropriated to the board for its activities for the prior fiscal year are unexpended, said moneys shall be made a part of the appropriation to the board for the next fiscal year, and such amount shall not be raised from fees collected by the board or the executive director. If a supplemental appropriation is made to the board for its activities, the fees of the board and the executive director, when adjusted for the fiscal year next following that in which the supplemental appropriation was made, shall be adjusted by an additional amount which is sufficient to compensate for such supplemental appropriation. Moneys appropriated to the board in the annual general appropriation bill shall be from the fund provided in section 12-6-123.

ANNOTATION

The license fee is required of both residents and nonresidents and makes no distinction between those engaged in interstate commerce and those engaged in intrastate commerce, hence, it is not discriminatory. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956) (decided under repealed § 13-11-8, CRS 53).

12-6-111. Bond of licensee. (1) Before any motor vehicle dealer's, wholesaler's, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's, or used motor vehicle dealer's license shall be issued by the board through the executive director to any applicant therefor, the said applicant shall procure and file with the board evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or a good and sufficient bond with corporate surety thereon duly licensed to do business within the state, approved as to form by the attorney general of the state, and conditioned that said applicant shall not practice fraud, make any fraudulent representation, or violate any of the provisions of this part 1 that are designated by the board by rule in the conduct of the business for which such applicant is licensed. A motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer shall not be required to furnish an additional bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under this section if such dealer furnishes a bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under section 12-6-512.

(2) (a) The purpose of the bond procured by the applicant pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and section 12-6-112.2 (1) is to provide for the reimbursement for any loss or damage suffered by any retail consumer caused by violation of this part 1 by a motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer, or wholesaler.

For a wholesale transaction, the bond is available to each party to the transaction; except that, if a retail consumer is involved, such consumer shall have priority to recover from the bond. The amount of the bond shall be fifty thousand dollars for a motor vehicle dealer applicant, used motor vehicle dealer applicant, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer applicant, or wholesaler applicant except the amount of the bond shall be five thousand dollars for those dealers who sell only small utility trailers that weigh less than two thousand pounds. The aggregate liability of the surety for all transactions shall not exceed the amount of the bond, regardless of the number of claims or claimants.

(b) No corporate surety shall be required to make any payment to any person claiming under such bond until a final determination of fraud or fraudulent representation has been made by the board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) All bonds required pursuant to this section shall be renewed annually at such time as the bondholder's license is renewed. Such renewal may be done through a continuation certificate issued by the surety.

(4) Nothing in this part 1 shall interfere with the authority of the courts to administer and conduct an interpleader action for claims against a licensee's bond.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "One Year Review of Contracts", see 37 Dicta 1 (1960).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-6-111 is similar to repealed § 13-11-9, CRS 53, and CSA, C. 16, § 428, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

There is no constitutional inhibition against the licensing and bonding requirements of this article. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

The bond is to protect the public from fraud, fraudulent representation, or violations of the law. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

This bond is an indemnification obligation, not a penal bond. Edmonds v. Western Sur. Co., 962 P.2d 323 (Colo. App. 1998).

Since this bond is legally mandated, obligation is limited to actual losses suffered by the obligee. Edmonds v. W. Sur. Co., 962 P.2d 323 (Colo. App. 1998).

Actual losses included attorney fees since § 13-21-109 allows for recovery of reasonable attorney fees. Edmonds v. W. Sur. Co., 962 P.2d 323 (Colo. App. 1998).

The general assembly did not intend that the amount of funds available for reimbursement should vary depending on whether the security was in the form of a bond or cash alternative. W. Sur. Co. v. Smith, 914 P.2d 451 (Colo. App. 1995).

Since this section is general, it is broad enough to cover loss from civil as well as criminal fraud. Kilbourn v. W. Sur. Co., 187 F.2d 567 (10th Cir. 1951).

Inapplicable to mobile home dealer. Since the definition of a dealer specifies motor vehicles as the exclusive subject matter bringing a person within the coverage of this section, that bond does not cover activities in the sale of mobile homes, i.e., "movable structures". Shaw v. Aurora Mobile Homes & Real Estate, Inc. 36 Colo. App. 321, 539 P.2d 1366 (1975).

Surety on an indemnifying bond, executed pursuant to the provisions of the motor vehicles dealers act, cannot be held liable for the payment of damages resulting from fraud, which actually took place prior to the date the bond became effective, upon the ground that, after the bond became effective, the wrongdoer made new false representations concerning the subject matter of his original transaction but upon the making of which the defrauded party did not part with value in reliance thereon. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. v. Bank of Aurora, 124 Colo. 485, 238 P.2d 872 (1951).

In an action against the surety on a used car dealer's bond executed pursuant to this section, it was held that it could not be said as a matter of law, from what was before the court on the hearing on a motion for summary judgment, that it was impossible to make out a case of fraud under this section on count one of the complaint. Kilbourn v. W. Sur. Co., 187 F.2d 567 (10th Cir. 1951).

The phrase "any person" in the pre-1992 version of this section refers only to those consumers or purchasers, including natural persons, firms, partnerships, and corporations, to whom a motor vehicle title is transferred by a bonded dealer. Consequently, the phrase does not encompass a corporation that, although not a consumer or purchaser of a motor vehicle, has a business relationship or contract with an automobile dealer. Southwest Cap. Inv. v. Pioneer Gen. Ins., 924 P.2d 1205 (Colo. App. 1996).

12-6-112. Motor vehicle salesperson's bond. (1) Before any motor vehicle salesperson's license is issued by the board through the executive director to any applicant therefor, the applicant shall procure and file with the board evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or a good and sufficient bond in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars with corporate surety thereon duly licensed to do business within the state, approved as to form by the attorney general of the state, and conditioned that said applicant shall perform in good faith as a motor vehicle salesperson without fraud or fraudulent representation and without the violation of any of the provisions of this part 1 that are designated by the board by rule. A motor vehicle salesperson shall not be required to furnish an additional bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under this section if such dealer furnishes a bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under section 12-6-513.

(2) No corporate surety shall be required to make any payment to any person claiming under such bond until a final determination of fraud or fraudulent representation has been made by the board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) All bonds required pursuant to this section shall be renewed annually at such time as the bondholder's license is renewed. Such renewal may be done through a continuation certificate issued by the surety.

12-6-112.2. Buyer agent bonds. (1) A buyer agent's license shall not be issued by the executive director to any applicant therefor until said applicant procures and files with the executive director evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or a good and sufficient bond in the amount of five thousand dollars with a corporate surety duly licensed to do business within the state and approved as to form by the attorney general. The bond shall be available to ensure that said applicant shall perform in good faith as a buyer agent without fraud or fraudulent representation and without violating any of the provisions of this part 1 that are designated by the executive director by rule.

(2) All bonds required pursuant to this section shall be renewed annually at such time as the bondholder's license is renewed. Such renewal may be done through a continuation certificate issued by the surety.

(3) No corporate surety shall be required to make any payment to any person claiming under such bond until a final determination of fraud or fraudulent representation has been made by the executive director or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

12-6-112.7. Notice of claims honored against bond. (1) Any corporate surety which has provided a bond to a licensee pursuant to the requirements of section 12-6-111, 12-6-112, or 12-6-112.2 shall provide notice to the board and executive director of any claim which is honored against such bond. Such notice shall be provided to the board and executive director within thirty days after a claim is honored.

(2) A notice provided by a corporate surety pursuant to the requirement of subsection (1) of this section shall be in such form as required by the executive director subject to approval by the board and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the name of the licensee, the name and address of the claimant, the amount of the honored claim, and the nature of the claim against the licensee.

12-6-113. Testing licensees. Persons applying for a motor vehicle dealer's, used motor vehicle dealer's, wholesaler's, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's, or motor vehicle salesperson's license under this part 1 shall be examined for their knowledge of the motor vehicle laws of the state of Colorado and the rules promulgated pursuant to this part 1. If the applicant is a corporation, the managing officer shall take such examination, and, if the applicant is a partnership, all the general partners shall take such examination. No license shall be issued except upon successful passing of the examination. The board shall implement by January 1, 2008, a psychometrically valid and reliable salesperson examination that measures the minimum level of competence necessary to practice. This section shall not apply to a powersports vehicle dealer, used powersports vehicle dealer, or powersports salesperson licensed pursuant to part 5 of this article.

12-6-114. Filing of written warranties. All licensed manufacturers shall file with the executive director all written warranties and changes in written warranties that such manufacturer makes on any motor vehicle or parts thereof. All licensed manufacturers shall file with the executive director a copy of the delivery and preparation obligations of a manufacturer's dealer, and these warranties and obligations shall constitute the dealer's only responsibility for product liability as between the dealer and the manufacturer. Any mechanical, body, or parts defects arising from any express or implied warranties of the manufacturer shall constitute the manufacturer's product or warranty liability, and the manufacturer shall reasonably compensate any authorized dealer who performs work to rectify said manufacturer's product or warranty defects.

12-6-115. Application - prelicensing education - rules. (1) Application for a motor vehicle dealer's, motor vehicle salesperson's, used motor vehicle dealer's, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's, or wholesaler's license shall be made to the board.

(2) Application for distributor's, manufacturer representative's, or manufacturer's licenses shall be made to the executive director.

(3) All fees for licenses shall be paid at the time of the filing of application for license.

(4) All persons applying for a motor vehicle dealer's license shall file with the board a certified copy of a certificate of appointment as a dealer from a manufacturer.

(5) All persons applying for a manufacturer's or distributor's license shall file with the executive director a certified copy of their typical written agreement with all motor vehicle dealers, and also evidence of the appointment of an agent for process in the state of Colorado shall be included with the application.

(6) All persons applying for a motor vehicle dealer's license, a used motor vehicle dealer's license, a wholesaler's license, a motor vehicle auctioneer's license, or a motor vehicle salesman's license shall file with the board a good and sufficient instrument in writing in which he shall appoint the secretary of the board as the true and lawful agent of said applicant upon whom all process may be served in any action which may thereafter be commenced against said applicant arising out of any claim for damages suffered by any firm, person, association, or corporation by reason of the violation of said applicant of any of the terms and provisions of this part 1 or any condition of the applicant's bond.

(7) (a) A person applying for a used motor vehicle dealer's license, a wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's license, or a wholesaler's license shall file with the board a certification that the applicant has met the educational requirements for licensure under this subsection (7). This subsection (7) shall not apply to a person who has held a license within the last three years as a motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer under this part 1 or part 5 of this article.

(b) An applicant for a used motor vehicle dealer's license, a wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's license, or a wholesaler's license shall not be licensed unless one of the following persons has completed an eight-hour preclicensing education program:

- (I) The managing officer if the applicant is a corporation or limited liability company;
- (II) All of the general partners if the applicant is any form of partnership; or
- (III) The owner or managing officer if the applicant is a sole proprietorship.

(c) The preclicensing education program shall include, without limitation, state and federal statutes and rules governing the sale of motor vehicles.

(d) A preclicensing education program shall not fulfill the requirements of this section unless approved by the board. The board shall approve any program with a curriculum that reasonably covers the material required by this section within eight hours.

(e) The board may adopt rules establishing reasonable fees to be charged for the preclicensing education program.

(f) The board may adopt reasonable rules to implement this section, including, without limitation, rules that govern:

- (I) The content and subject matter of education;
- (II) The criteria, standards, and procedures for the approval of courses and course instructors;
- (III) The training facility requirements; and
- (IV) The methods of instruction.

(g) An approved preclicensing program provider shall issue a certificate to a person who successfully completes the approved preclicensing education program. The current certificate of completion, or a copy of the certificate, shall be posted conspicuously at the dealership's principal place of business.

(h) An approved preclicensing program provider shall submit a certificate to the executive director for each person who successfully completes the preclicensing education program. The certificate may be transmitted electronically.

12-6-116. Notice of change of address or status. (1) The board, through the executive director, shall not issue a motor vehicle dealer's license or used motor vehicle dealer's license to any applicant therefor who has no principal place of business as is defined in this part 1. Should the motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer change the site or location of such dealer's principal place of business, such dealer shall immediately upon making such change so notify the board in writing, and thereupon a new license shall be granted for the unexpired portion of the term of such license at a fee established pursuant to section 12-6-110. Should a motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer, for any reason whatsoever, cease to possess a principal place of business, as defined in this part 1, from and on which such dealer conducts the business for which such dealer is licensed, such dealer shall immediately so notify in writing the board and, upon demand therefor by the board, shall deliver to it such dealer's license, which shall be held and retained until it appears to the board that such licensee again possesses a principal place of business; whereupon, such dealer's license shall be reissued. Nothing in this part 1 shall be construed to prevent a motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer from conducting the business for which such dealer is licensed at one or more sites or locations not contiguous to such dealer's principal place of business but operated and maintained in conjunction therewith.

(2) Should the motor vehicle dealer change to a new line of motor vehicles, add another franchise for the sale of new motor vehicles, or cancel or, for any cause whatever, otherwise lose a franchise for the sale of new motor vehicles, such dealer shall immediately so notify the board. In the case of a cancellation or loss of franchise, the board shall determine whether or not by reason thereof such dealer should be licensed as a used motor vehicle dealer, in which case the board shall take up and the motor vehicle dealer shall deliver to it such dealer's license, and the board shall direct the executive director to thereupon issue to such dealer a used motor vehicle dealer's license. Upon the cancellation or loss of a franchise to sell new motor vehicles and the relicensing of such dealer as a used motor vehicle dealer, such dealer may continue in the business for which a motor vehicle dealer is licensed for a time, not exceeding six months from the date of the relicensing of such dealer, to enable such dealer to dispose of the stock of new motor vehicles on hand at the time of such relicensing, but not otherwise.

(3) If a motor vehicle salesperson is discharged, leaves an employer, or changes a place of employment, the motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer who last employed the salesperson shall confiscate and return such salesperson's license to the board. Upon being reemployed as a motor vehicle salesperson, the motor vehicle salesperson shall notify the board. Upon receiving such notification, the board shall issue a new license for the unexpired portion of such returned license after collecting a fee set pursuant to section 12-6-110 (5). It shall be unlawful for such salesperson to act as a motor vehicle salesperson until a new license is procured.

(4) Should a wholesaler, for any reason whatsoever, change such wholesaler's place of business or business address during any license year, such wholesaler shall immediately so notify the board.

(5) Any wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer who changes a place of business or business address during any license year shall notify the board immediately of such dealer's new business address.

12-6-117. Principal place of business - requirements. (1) The building or structure required to be located on a principal place of business shall have electrical service and adequate sanitary facilities.

(2) (a) In no event shall a room in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or a part of any single or multiple unit dwelling house be considered a "principal place of business" within the terms and provisions of this part 1, unless the entire ground floor of such hotel, apartment house, or rooming house building or such dwelling house is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the office of the dealer is located on the ground floor thereof.

(b) A motor vehicle dealer who operates such motor vehicle dealer's business from his or her primary residence and who has been a resident of Colorado for the immediately preceding twelve-month period and is a motor vehicle dealer only because such dealer sells custom trailers for one or more manufacturers and maintains an inventory of fewer than four vehicles at all times shall be exempt from paragraph (a) of this subsection (2). Any motor vehicle dealer who is issued dealer plates in accordance with this paragraph (b) pursuant to section 42-3-116, C.R.S., shall only use such plates on trailers.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt a motor vehicle dealer from local zoning ordinances.

12-6-118. Licenses - grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation. (1) A manufacturer's or distributor's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked on the following grounds:

- (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1857, § 20, effective July 1, 1992.)
 - (b) Material misstatement in an application for a license;
 - (c) Willful failure to comply with this part 1, including the right of first refusal created in section 12-6-120.3 (5), or any rule or regulation promulgated by the executive director;
 - (d) Engaging, in the past or present, in any illegal business practice.
- (2) A manufacturer representative's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked on the following grounds:

- (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1857, § 20, effective July 1, 1992.)
- (b) Material misstatement in an application for a license;
- (c) Willful failure to comply with any provision of this part 1 or any rule or regulation promulgated by the executive director under this part 1;
- (d) Having indulged in any unconscionable business practice pursuant to title 4, C.R.S.;
- (e) Having coerced or attempted to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to accept delivery of any motor vehicle, parts or accessories therefor, or any other commodities or services which have not been ordered by said dealer;
- (f) Having coerced or attempted to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to enter into any agreement to do any act unfair to said dealer by threatening to cause the cancellation of the franchise of said dealer;

(g) Having withheld, threatened to withhold, reduced, or delayed without just cause an order for motor vehicles, parts or accessories therefor, or any other commodities or services which have been ordered by a motor vehicle dealer;

(3) A motor vehicle dealer's, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's, wholesaler's, buyer agent's, or used motor vehicle dealer's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked on the following grounds:

- (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1857, § 20, effective July 1, 1992.)
- (b) Material misstatement in an application for a license;
- (c) Violation of any of the terms and provisions of this part 1 or any rule or regulation promulgated by the board under this part 1;
- (d) Having been convicted of or pled nolo contendere to any felony, or any crime pursuant to article 3, 4, or 5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any like crime pursuant to federal law or the law of any other state. A certified copy of the judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be conclusive evidence of such conviction in any hearing held pursuant to this article.

- (e) Defrauding any buyer, seller, motor vehicle salesperson, or financial institution to such person's damage;
- (f) Intentional or negligent failure to perform any written agreement with any buyer or seller;
- (g) Failure or refusal to furnish and keep in force any bond required under this part 1;
- (h) Having made a fraudulent or illegal sale, transaction, or repossession;
- (i) Willful misrepresentation, circumvention, or concealment of or failure to disclose, through whatsoever subterfuge or device, any of the material particulars or the nature thereof required to be stated or furnished to the buyer;
- (j) Repealed.
- (k) To intentionally publish or circulate any advertising which is misleading or inaccurate in any material particular or which misrepresents any of the products sold or furnished by a licensed dealer;
- (l) To knowingly purchase, sell, or otherwise acquire or dispose of a stolen motor vehicle;
- (m) For any licensed motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer to engage in the business for which such dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining a principal place of business as required by this part 1 during reasonable business hours;
- (n) Engaging in such business through employment of an unlicensed motor vehicle salesperson;
- (o) To willfully violate any state or federal law respecting commerce or motor vehicles, or any lawful rule or regulation respecting commerce or motor vehicles promulgated by any licensing or regulating authority pertaining to motor vehicles, under circumstances in which the act constituting the violation directly and necessarily involves commerce or motor vehicles;
- (p) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1857, § 20, effective July 1, 1992.)
- (q) Repealed.
- (r) Representing or selling as a new and unused motor vehicle any motor vehicle which the dealer or salesperson knows has been used and operated for demonstration purposes or which the dealer or salesperson knows is otherwise a used motor vehicle;
- (s) Violating any state or federal statute or regulation issued thereunder dealing with odometers;
- (t) (I) Selling to a retail customer a motor vehicle which is not equipped or in proper condition and adjustment as required by part 2 of article 4 of title 42, C.R.S., unless such vehicle is sold as a tow away, not to be driven;
- (II) Repealed.
- (t.1) Repealed.
- (u) Committing a fraudulent insurance act pursuant to section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;
- (v) Failure to give notice to a prospective buyer of the acceptance or rejection of a motor vehicle purchase order agreement within a reasonable time period, as determined by the board, when the licensee is working with the prospective buyer on a finance sale or a consignment sale.
- (4) A wholesaler's or wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked for the selling, leasing, or offering or attempting to negotiate the sale, lease, or exchange of an interest in motor vehicles by such wholesaler or wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer to persons other than motor vehicle dealers, used motor vehicle dealers, or other wholesalers or wholesale motor vehicle auction dealers.
- (5) The license of a motor vehicle salesperson may be denied, revoked, or suspended on the following grounds:
 - (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 1857, § 20, effective July 1, 1992.)
 - (b) Material misstatement in an application for a license;
 - (c) Failure to comply with any provision of this part 1 or any rule or regulation promulgated by the board or executive director under this part 1;
 - (d) To engage in the business for which such licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a good and sufficient bond with corporate surety as provided in this part 1;

(e) To intentionally publish or circulate any advertising which is misleading or inaccurate in any material particular or which misrepresents any motor vehicle products sold or attempted to be sold by such salesperson;

(f) Having indulged in any fraudulent business practice;

(g) Selling, offering, or attempting to negotiate the sale, exchange, or lease of motor vehicles for any motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer for which such salesperson is not licensed; except that negotiation with a motor vehicle dealer for the sale, exchange, or lease of new and used motor vehicles, except those vehicles defined in section 42-1-102 (55), C.R.S., as motorcycles and section 33-14.5-101 (3), C.R.S., as off-highway vehicles, by a salesperson compensated for said negotiation by the used motor vehicle dealer for which such salesperson is licensed shall not be grounds for denial, revocation, or suspension;

(h) Representing oneself as a salesperson for any motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer when such salesperson is not so employed and licensed;

(j) Having been convicted of or pled nolo contendere to any felony, or any crime pursuant to article 3, 4, or 5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any like crime pursuant to federal law or the law of any other state. A certified copy of the judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be conclusive evidence of such conviction in any hearing held pursuant to this article.

(k) Having knowingly purchased, sold, or otherwise acquired or disposed of a stolen motor vehicle;

(l) Employing an unlicensed motor vehicle salesperson;

(m) Violating any state or federal statute or regulation issued thereunder dealing with odometers;

(o) Representing or selling as a new and unused motor vehicle any motor vehicle which the salesperson knows has been used and operated for demonstration purposes or which the salesperson knows is otherwise a used motor vehicle;

(p) (I) Selling to a retail customer a motor vehicle which is not equipped or in proper condition and adjustment as required by part 2 of article 4 of title 42, C.R.S., unless such vehicle is sold as a tow away, not to be driven;

(q) Willfully violating any state or federal law respecting commerce or motor vehicles, or any lawful rule or regulation respecting commerce or motor vehicles promulgated by any licensing or regulating authority pertaining to motor vehicles, under circumstances in which the act constituting the violation directly and necessarily involves commerce or motor vehicles;

(r) Improperly withholding, misappropriating, or converting to such salesperson's own use any money belonging to customers or other persons, received in the course of employment as a motor vehicle salesperson.

(6) Any license issued pursuant to this part 1 may be denied, revoked, or suspended if unfitness of such licensee or licensee applicant is shown in the following:

(a) The licensing character or record of the licensee or licensee applicant;

(b) The criminal character or record of the licensee or licensee applicant;

(c) The financial character or record of the licensee or licensee applicant;

(d) Violation of any lawful order of the board.

(7) (a) Any license issued or for which an application has been made pursuant to this part 1 shall be revoked or denied if the licensee or applicant has been convicted of or pleaded no contest to any of the following offenses in this state or any other jurisdiction during the previous ten years:

(I) A felony in violation of article 3, 4, or 5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any similar crime under federal law or the law of any other state; or

(II) A crime involving odometer fraud, salvage fraud, motor vehicle title fraud, or the defrauding of a retail consumer in a motor vehicle sale or lease transaction.

(b) A certified copy of a judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction of an offense under paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) is conclusive evidence of such conviction in any hearing held pursuant to this article.

ANNOTATION

As to unconstitutionality of former subsection (3)(j), specifying indulgence in any unconscionable practice relating to the motor vehicle dealer's, wholesaler's or used motor vehicle dealer's business as a ground for denial, suspension, or revocation of license, see Trail Ridge Ford, Inc., v. Colo. Dealer Licensing Bd., 190 Colo. 82, 543 P.2d 1245 (1975).

Application of section not overbroad. The application of this section with regard to the refusal to honor any written agreement with a retail buyer is not overbroad. Michael Motors, Inc. v. Colo. Dealer Licensing Bd., 200 Colo. 455, 616 P.2d 110 (1980), cert. denied, 450 U.S. 995, 101 S. Ct. 1696, 68 L. Ed.2d 194 (1981).

When accorded its common meaning, phrase "material particulars" of subsection (3)(i) means those details concerning a vehicle for sale that are essential or necessary for a reasonable prospective buyer to know. Phrase is thus readily understandable and is not unconstitutionally vague. Spedding v. Motor Vehicle Dealer Bd., 931 P.2d 480 (Colo. App. 1996).

Plain meaning of words used in subsection (3)(i) clearly requires a finding of "willful" failure to disclose material particulars to a buyer. Thus, board erred in suspending motor vehicle dealer's license without specifically finding conduct was "willful." Spedding v. Motor Vehicle Dealer Bd., 931 P.2d 480 (Colo. App. 1996).

Term "intentionally" in subsection (3)(k) applies to all elements of conduct proscribed. This paragraph prohibits the intentional publication or circulation of advertising which the motor vehicle dealer knows to be inaccurate or misleading. Bedford Motors, Inc. v. Harris, 714 P.2d 489 (Colo. 1986).

Multiple licenses permitted. The automobile dealer licensing statute, § 12-6-101, does not expressly permit or disallow a salesman to be licensed to more than one dealer. However, subsection (5)(g) of this section indicates a legislative intent that multiple licensing be permitted. United Buying Serv., Inc. v. State Dept. of Rev., 37 Colo. App. 465, 548 P.2d 1286 (1976).

If the general assembly had intended salesmen to be licensed to one dealer only, the portion of subsection (5)(g) of this section reading "while licensed under only one such dealer ..." would be superfluous, a condition contrary to proper statutory construction. United Buying Serv., Inc. v. State Dept. of Rev., 37 Colo. App. 465, 548 P.2d 1286 (1976).

Finding of enforceability of agreement not prerequisite to imposition of sanction. The enforceability of an agreement need not be found by the Colorado dealer licensing board before it may impose a sanction for violation of subsection (3)(f). Michael Motors, Inc. v. Colo. Dealer Licensing Bd., 200 Colo. 455, 616 P.2d 110 (1980), cert. denied, 450 U.S. 995, 101 S. Ct. 1696, 68 L. Ed.2d 194 (1981).

Mistake of law is no defense to culpable actions. The question regarding the contractual nature of a written agreement is a question of law, and it is axiomatic that a mistake of law is no defense to the culpability of a person's actions. Michael Motors, Inc. v. Colo. Dealer Licensing Bd., 200 Colo. 455, 616 P.2d 110 (1980), cert. denied, 450 U.S. 995, 101 S. Ct. 1696, 68 L. Ed.2d 194 (1981).

"Fraudulent business practice" is not so vague and uncertain as to be unenforceable. Beathune v. Colo. Dealer Licensing Bd., 198 Colo. 483, 601 P.2d 1386 (1979).

Plain meaning of "fraudulent" and "defrauding," in subsection (5)(f) and (5)(n) respectively, demonstrate general assembly's intent to require proof of common-law fraud. Colo. Motor Vehicle Dealer Bd. v. Butterfield, 9 P.3d 1148 (Colo. App. 2000).

Proof of damage is not required under subsection (5)(f), which prohibits fraudulent business practices, but is required under subsection (5)(n), which prohibits defrauding of a retail buyer to such person's damage. Colo. Motor Vehicle Dealer Bd. v. Butterfield, 9 P.3d 1148 (Colo. App. 2000).

Subsection (5)(g) does not apply to ordinary theft. Where the licensee was found to have violated criminal laws but not any law or regulation "respecting commerce or motor vehicles" specifically, license suspensions and fines under subsection (5)(q) were not justified. Colo. Motor Vehicle Dealer Bd. v. Brinker, 39 P.3d 1269 (Colo. App. 2001).

Subsection (7)(a)(I) is limited to specific felony convictions, and because such convictions may serve as a basis for delaying but not permanently denying a motor vehicle salesperson license, this section does not make a criminal conviction, without more, the basis for denying a license; therefore, there is no irreconcilable conflict between this section and § 24-5-101. Smith v. Colo. Motor Vehicle Dealer Bd., 200 P.3d 1115 (Colo. App. 2008).

12-6-119. Procedure for denial, suspension, or revocation of license - judicial review. (1) The denial, suspension, or revocation of licenses issued under this part 1 shall be in accordance with the provisions of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.; except that the discovery available under rule 26 (b) (2) of the Colorado rules of civil procedure is available in any proceeding.

(2) (a) (I) The board shall appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct any hearing concerning the licensing or discipline of a motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, buyer's agent, or wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer; except that the board may, upon a unanimous vote of the members present when the vote is taken, conduct the hearing in lieu of appointing an administrative law judge.

(II) Beginning July 1, 2008, the board shall issue an annual report to the executive director detailing the number of hearings held pursuant to this paragraph (a) and the number of such hearings conducted by the board. If the board conducts greater than forty percent of the hearings, the executive director shall analyze the hearing procedures and acts and issue a report to the general assembly, which shall include any recommendations of the executive director.

(b) The board shall assign a hearing concerning the licensing or discipline of a motor vehicle salesperson to the executive director who shall appoint an officer to conduct a hearing.

(3) Hearings conducted before an administrative law judge shall be in accordance with the rules of procedure of the office of administrative courts. Hearings conducted before an officer appointed by the executive director shall be in accordance with the rules of procedure established by the executive director.

(4) The board may summarily suspend a licensee required to post a bond under this article if such licensee does not have a bond in full force and effect as required by this article. The suspension shall become effective upon the earlier of the licensee receiving notice of the suspension or within three days after the notice of suspension is mailed to a licensee's last-known address on file with the board. The notice may be effected by certified mail or personal delivery.

(5) The court of appeals shall have initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the board. Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Applied in Harris v. District Court, 655 P.2d 398 (Colo. 1982).

12-6-119.5. Sales activity following license denial, suspension, or revocation - unlawful act - penalty. (1) (a) It shall be unlawful and a violation of this part 1 for any person whose motor vehicle dealer's, used motor vehicle dealer's, motor vehicle wholesaler's, or motor vehicle salesperson's license has been denied, suspended, or revoked to exercise any of the privileges of the license that was denied, suspended, or revoked.

(b) A violation of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be punishable in accordance with section 12-6-121; except that a second or subsequent violation of said paragraph (a) shall be a class 6 felony.

(c) In any trial for a violation of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1):

(I) A duly authenticated copy of the board's order of denial, suspension, or revocation shall constitute prima facie evidence of such denial, suspension, or revocation;

(II) A duly authenticated invoice, buyer's order, or other customary, written sales or purchase document or instrument proven to be signed by the defendant and indicating the defendant's role in the purchase or sale of a motor vehicle at any motor vehicle auction, wholesale motor vehicle sales location, or retail motor vehicle sales location, as applicable, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the defendant's exercise of a privilege of licensure;

(III) It shall be an affirmative defense that the defendant bought or sold a motor vehicle that was, at all relevant times, intended for the defendant's own use and not bought or sold for the purpose of profit or gain; and

(IV) The fact that the defendant has a motor vehicle dealer's, used motor vehicle dealer's, motor vehicle wholesaler's, or motor vehicle salesperson's license, or any other license to buy and sell motor vehicles, that is issued by a state or jurisdiction other than Colorado shall not constitute a defense.

(2) Upon the defendant's conviction by entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or judgment or verdict of guilt in connection with a violation of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section or of section 12-6-120 (2) or 42-6-142 (1), C.R.S., the court shall immediately give the executive director written notice of such conviction. In addition, the court shall forward to the executive director copies of documentation of any conviction on a lesser included offense and any amended charge, plea bargain, deferred prosecution, deferred sentence, or deferred judgment in connection with the original charge.

(3) Upon receiving notice of a conviction or other disposition pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the executive director or his or her designee shall forward such notice to the motor vehicle dealer board, which shall immediately examine its files to determine whether in fact the defendant's license was denied, suspended, or revoked at the time of the offense to which the conviction or other disposition relates. If in fact the defendant's license was denied, suspended, or revoked at the time of such offense, the board:

(a) Shall not issue or reinstate any license to the defendant until one year after the time the defendant would otherwise have been eligible to receive a new or reinstated license; and

(b) Shall revoke or suspend any other licenses held by the defendant until at least one year after the date of the conviction or other disposition.

12-6-120. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful and a violation of this part 1 for any manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative:

(a) To willfully fail to perform or cause to be performed any written warranties made with respect to any motor vehicle or parts thereof;

(b) To coerce or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to perform or allow to be performed any act that could be financially detrimental to the dealer or that would impair the dealer's goodwill or to enter into any agreement with a manufacturer or distributor that would be financially detrimental to the dealer or impair the dealer's goodwill, by threatening to cancel or not renew any franchise between a manufacturer or distributor and said dealer;

(c) To coerce or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to accept delivery of any motor vehicle, parts or accessories therefor, or any commodities or services which have not been ordered by said dealer;

(d) (I) To cancel or cause to be canceled, directly or indirectly, without just cause, the franchise of any motor vehicle dealer, and the nonrenewal of a franchise or selling agreement without just cause is a violation of this paragraph (d) and shall constitute an unfair cancellation.

(II) As used in this paragraph (d), "just cause" shall be determined in the context of all circumstances surrounding the cancellation or nonrenewal, including but not limited to:

(A) The amount of business transacted by the motor vehicle dealer;

(B) The investments necessarily made and obligations incurred by the motor vehicle dealer, including but not limited to goodwill, in the performance of its duties under the franchise agreement, together with the duration and permanency of such investments and obligations;

(C) The potential for harm to consumers as a result of disruption of the business of the motor vehicle dealer;

(D) The motor vehicle dealer's failure to provide adequate service of facilities, equipment, parts, and qualified service personnel;

(E) The motor vehicle dealer's failure to perform warranty work on behalf of the manufacturer, subject to reimbursement by the manufacturer; and

(F) The motor vehicle dealer's failure to substantially comply, in good faith, with requirements of the franchise that are determined to be reasonable and material.

(III) The following conduct by a motor vehicle dealer shall constitute just cause for termination without consideration of other factors:

(A) Conviction of, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony;

(B) A continuing pattern of fraudulent conduct against the manufacturer or consumers; or

(C) Continuing failure to operate for ten days or longer.

(e) To withhold, reduce, or delay unreasonably or without just cause delivery of motor vehicles, motor vehicle parts and accessories, commodities, or moneys due motor vehicle dealers for warranty work done by any motor vehicle dealer;

(f) To withhold, reduce, or delay unreasonably or without just cause services contracted for by motor vehicle dealers;

(g) To coerce any motor vehicle dealer to provide installment financing with a specified financial institution;

(h) To violate any duty imposed by, or fail to comply with, any provision of section 12-6-120.3, 12-6-120.5, or 12-6-120.7;

(i) (I) To fail to provide to the motor vehicle dealer, within twenty days after receipt of a notice of intent from a motor vehicle dealer, the list of documents and information necessary to approve the sale or transfer of the ownership of a dealership by sale of the business or by stock transfer or the change in executive management of the dealership;

(II) To fail to confirm within twenty days after receipt of all documents and information listed in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (i) that such documentation and information has been received;

(III) To refuse to approve, unreasonably, the sale or transfer of the ownership of a dealership by sale of the business or by stock transfer within sixty days after the manufacturer has received all documents and information necessary to approve the sale or transfer of ownership, or to refuse to approve, unreasonably, the change in executive management of the dealership within sixty days after the manufacturer has received all information necessary to approve the change in management; except that nothing in this part 1 shall authorize the sale, transfer, or assignment of a franchise or a change of the principal operator without the approval of the manufacturer or distributor unless the manufacturer or distributor fails to send notice of the disapproval within sixty days after receiving all documents and information necessary to approve the sale or transfer of ownership; or

(IV) To condition the sale, transfer, relocation, or renewal of a franchise agreement, or to condition sales, services, parts, or finance incentives, upon site control or an agreement to renovate or make improvements to a facility; except that voluntary acceptance of such conditions by the dealer shall not constitute a violation;

(j) (I) To fail or refuse to offer to its same line-make franchised dealers all models manufactured for that line-make except as a result of a strike or labor difficulty, lack of manufacturing capacity, shortage of materials, freight embargo, or other cause over which the manufacturer has no control; or

(II) To require a dealer to pay an unreasonable fee, purchase unreasonable advertising displays or other materials, or comply with unreasonable training or facilities requirements as a prerequisite to receiving any particular model of that same line-make. For purposes of this subparagraph (II), reasonableness shall be judged based on the circumstances of the individual dealer and the conditions of the market served by the dealer.

(III) This paragraph (j) shall not apply to manufacturers of recreational vehicles nor to manufacturers of vehicles with a passenger capacity of thirty-two or more.

(k) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to refrain from participation in the management of, investment in, or acquisition of any other line-make of new motor vehicles or related products; except that this paragraph (k) shall not apply unless the motor vehicle dealer:

(I) Maintains a reasonable line of credit for each make or line of new motor vehicle;

(II) Remains in compliance with reasonable capital standards and reasonable facilities requirements specified by the manufacturer; except that "reasonable facilities requirements" shall not include a requirement that a motor vehicle dealer establish or maintain exclusive facilities, personnel, or display space; and

(III) Provides written notice to the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer's representative, no less than ninety days prior to the dealer's intent to participate in the management of, investment in, or acquisition of another line-make of new motor vehicles or related products;

(l) (I) To fail to pay to a motor vehicle dealer, within ninety days after the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise, all of the following:

(A) The dealer cost, plus any charges made by the manufacturer for distribution, delivery, and taxes, less all allowances paid or credited to the motor vehicle dealer by the manufacturer, of unused, undamaged, and unsold motor vehicles in the motor vehicle dealer's inventory that were acquired from the manufacturer or from another motor vehicle dealer of the same line-make in the ordinary course of business within the previous twelve months;

(B) The dealer cost, less all allowances paid or credited to the motor vehicle dealer by the manufacturer, for all unused, undamaged, and unsold supplies, parts, and accessories in original packaging and listed in the manufacturer's current parts catalog;

(C) The fair market value of each undamaged sign owned by the motor vehicle dealer and bearing a common name, trade name, or trademark of the manufacturer if acquisition of such sign was required by the manufacturer;

(D) The fair market value of all special tools and equipment that were acquired from the manufacturer or from sources approved and required by the manufacturer and that are in good and usable condition, excluding normal wear and tear; and

(E) The cost of transporting, handling, packing, and loading the motor vehicles, supplies, parts, accessories, signs, special tools, equipment, and furnishings described in this paragraph (l).

(II) This paragraph (l) shall only apply to manufacturers of recreational vehicles in cases where the manufacturer terminates, cancels, or fails to renew the recreational vehicle dealer franchise; and this paragraph (l) shall not apply to manufacturers of vehicles with a passenger capacity of thirty-two or more.

(m) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to close or change the location of the motor vehicle dealer, or to make any substantial alterations to the dealer premises or facilities when doing so would be unreasonable or without written assurance of a sufficient supply of motor vehicles so as to justify such changes, in light of the current market and economic conditions;

(n) (I) To authorize or permit a person to perform warranty service repairs on motor vehicles unless the person is:

(A) A motor vehicle dealer with whom the manufacturer has entered into a franchise agreement for the sale and service of the manufacturer's motor vehicles; or

(B) A person or government entity that has purchased new motor vehicles pursuant to a manufacturer's fleet discount program and is performing the warranty service repairs only on vehicles owned by such person or entity.

(II) This paragraph (n) shall not apply to manufacturers of recreational vehicles nor to manufacturers of vehicles with a passenger capacity of thirty-two or more.

(o) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to prospectively agree to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel that would relieve any person of a duty or liability imposed under this article except in settlement of a bona fide dispute;

(p) To discriminate between or refuse to offer to its same line-make franchised dealers all models manufactured for that line-make based upon unreasonable sales and service standards;

(q) To fail to make practically available any incentive, rebate, bonus, or other similar benefit to a motor vehicle dealer that is offered to another motor vehicle dealer of the same line-make within this state;

(r) To fail to pay to a motor vehicle dealer:

(I) Within ninety days after the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise for the failure of a dealer to meet performance sales and service obligations or after the termination, elimination, or cessation of a line-make, the cost of the lease for the facilities used for the franchise or line-make for the unexpired term of the lease, not to exceed one year; except that:

(A) If the motor vehicle dealer owns the facilities, the value of renting such facilities for one year, prorated for each line-make based upon total sales volume for the previous twelve months before the involuntary termination;

(B) If the dealer sells recreational vehicles and a subsequent manufacturer or distributor that manufactures or distributes recreational vehicles replaces any portion of the vacated facilities, the lease or rental value shall be prorated on a monthly basis unless the dealer sells motor vehicles that are not recreational vehicles;

(C) Nothing in this subparagraph (I) shall be construed to limit the application of paragraph (d) of this subsection (1);

(II) Within ninety days after the termination, elimination, or cessation of a line-make or the termination of a franchise due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor, the fair market value of the motor vehicle dealer's goodwill for the line-make as of the date the manufacturer or distributor announces the action that results in the termination, elimination, or cessation, not including any amounts paid under sub-subparagraphs (A) to (E) of subparagraph (I) of paragraph (I) of this subsection (1);

(s) To condition a franchise agreement on improvements to a facility unless reasonably required by the technology of a motor vehicle being sold at the facility;

(t) To sell or offer for sale a low-speed electric vehicle, as defined by section 42-1-102, C.R.S., for use on a roadway unless the vehicle complies with part 2 of article 4 of title 42, C.R.S.;

(u) To charge back, deny motor vehicle allocation, withhold payments, or take other actions against a motor vehicle dealer if a motor vehicle sold by the motor vehicle dealer is exported from Colorado unless the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative proves that the motor vehicle dealer knew or reasonably should have known a motor vehicle was intended to be exported, which shall operate as a rebuttable presumption that the motor vehicle dealer did not have such knowledge;

(v) Within ninety days after the termination, elimination, or cessation of a line-make or the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, for any reason other than that the motor vehicle dealer commits fraud, makes a misrepresentation, or commits any other crime within the scope of the franchise agreement or in the operation of the dealership, to fail to reimburse a motor vehicle dealer for the cost depreciated by five percent per year of any upgrades or alterations to the motor vehicle dealer's facilities required by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative within the previous five years;

(w) To fail to notify a motor vehicle dealer at least ninety days before the following and to provide the specific reasons for the following:

(I) Directly or indirectly terminating, cancelling, or not renewing a franchise agreement; or

(II) Modifying, replacing, or attempting to modify or replace the franchise or selling agreement of a motor vehicle dealer, including a change in the dealer's geographic area upon which sales or service performance is measured, if the modification would substantially and adversely alter the rights or obligations of the dealer under the current franchise or selling agreement or would substantially impair the sales or service obligations or the dealer's investment; and

(x) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce a motor vehicle dealer to substantially alter a facility or premises if:

(I) The facility or premises has been altered within the last seven years at a cost of more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars and the alteration was required and approved by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative unless the motor vehicle dealer sells only motorcycles or motorcycles and powersports vehicles; except that this paragraph (x) does not apply to improvements made to comply with health or safety laws or to accommodate the technology requirements necessary to sell or service a line-make; or

(II) The motor vehicle dealer sells only motorcycles or motorcycles and powersports vehicles, the facility or premises has been altered within the last seven years at a cost of more than twenty-five thousand dollars, and the alteration was required and approved by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative; except that this paragraph (x) does not apply to improvements made to comply with health or safety laws or to accommodate the technology requirements necessary to sell or service a line-make.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to act as a motor vehicle dealer, manufacturer, distributor, wholesaler, manufacturer representative, used motor vehicle dealer, buyer agent, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer, or motor vehicle salesperson unless such person has been duly licensed under the provisions of this part 1, except for persons exempt from licensure as a manufacturer pursuant to section 12-6-102 (11); however, such persons shall comply with all other applicable requirements for manufacturers, including, but not limited to, those pertaining to vehicle identification numbers and manufacturers' statements of origin.

(3) It is unlawful and a violation of this part 1 for a buyer's agent to engage in the following:

(a) To make a material misstatement in an application for a license;

(b) To willfully fail to perform or cause to be performed any written agreement with respect to any motor vehicle or parts thereof;

(c) To defraud any buyer, seller, motor vehicle salesperson, or financial institution;

(d) To intentionally enter into a financial agreement with a seller of a motor vehicle for the buyer agent's own benefit;

(e) To coerce any motor vehicle dealer into providing installment financing with a specified financial institution.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-6-120 is similar to repealed § 13-11-14, CRS 53, as amended, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Subsection (1)(h) is unconstitutionally vague because persons of common intelligence must guess at the meaning of the term prohibiting the addition of a franchise if it "would be inequitable to the existing dealer". Mike Naughton Ford, Inc. v. Ford Motor Co., 862 F. Supp. 264 (D. Colo. 1994).

Former provisions violated the commerce clause of the United States constitution. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

While it may be conceded that, under its police power, a state may protect its people against coercion, inducement is another thing. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

There is nothing evil or wrong about inducing; it is simply the process of salesmanship. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

According to Webster's New International Dictionary, "induce" means "to lead on, to influence, to prevail on to move by persuasion or influence". GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

"Induce" is to persuade by legitimate argument or demonstration, and is distinguished from "coerce", which is to compel by threat or other wrongful action. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

Salesmanship is part of the American way of life, and the selling of new products requires inducement. GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

For failure to provide an ascertainable standard of guilt, see GMC v. Blevins, 144 F. Supp. 381 (D. Colo. 1956).

The appointment of a replacement dealership for a previously established distribution point does not fall within the definition of "additional franchise" under subsection (1)(h). The appointment would simply maintain the same number of dealerships authorized in the area prior to the dispute. Mike Naughton Ford, Inc. v. Ford Motor Co., 862 F. Supp. 264 (D. Colo. 1994).

Use of the phrase "including, but not limited to" in subsection (1)(d)(II) is not restrictive. Where dealer contract, by its terms, could be renewed only "upon joint agreement" of the dealer and manufacturer, manufacturer had "just cause" and did not violate subsection (1)(d) when it failed to renew dealer contract. Maehal Enters., Inc. v. Thunder Mtn. Custom Cycles, Inc., __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2011).

For purposes of the manufacturer's obligation to repurchase unsold motor vehicles as required in subsection (1)(I)(I)(A), "acquired" means the point at which the dealer takes possession of the motor vehicles, regardless of when the dealer obtains the certificates of title for the motor vehicles. Maehal Enters., Inc. v. Thunder Mtn. Custom Cycles, Inc., __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2011).

12-6-120.3. New, reopened, or relocated dealer - notice required - grounds for refusal of dealer license - definitions - rules. (1) No manufacturer or distributor shall establish an additional new motor vehicle dealer, reopen a previously existing motor vehicle dealer, or relocate an existing motor vehicle dealer without first providing at least sixty days' notice to all of its franchised dealers and former dealers whose franchises were terminated, cancelled, or not renewed by a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative in the previous five years due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor within whose relevant market area the new, reopened, or relocated dealer would be located. The notice shall state:

(a) The specific location at which the additional, reopened, or relocated motor vehicle dealer will be established;

(b) The date on or after which the manufacturer intends to be engaged in business with the additional, reopened, or relocated motor vehicle dealer at the proposed location;

(c) The identity of all motor vehicle dealers who are franchised to sell the same line-make of vehicles with licensed locations in the relevant market area where the additional, reopened, or relocated motor vehicle dealer is proposed to be located; and

(d) The names and addresses of the dealer-operator and principal investors in the proposed additional, reopened, or relocated motor vehicle dealer.

(1.5) A manufacturer shall reasonably approve or disapprove of a motor vehicle dealer facility initial site location or relocation request within sixty days after the request or after sending the notice required by subsection (1) of this section to all of its franchised dealers and former dealers whose franchises were terminated, cancelled, or not renewed in the previous five years due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor, whichever is later, but not to exceed one hundred days.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to:

(a) The relocation of an existing dealer within two miles of its current location; or

(b) The establishment of a replacement dealer, within two years, either at the former location or within two miles of the former location.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Manufacturer" means a motor vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

(b) "Relevant market area" means the greater of the following:

(I) The geographic area of responsibility defined in the franchise agreement of an existing dealer; or

(II) The geographic area within a radius of five miles of any existing dealer of the same line-make of vehicle that is located in a county with a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand or within a radius of ten miles of an existing dealer of the same line-make of vehicles that is located in a county with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less.

(c) "Right of first refusal area" means a five-mile radius extending from the location of where a motor vehicle dealer had a franchise terminated, cancelled, or not renewed if the franchise was in a county with a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand or a ten-mile radius if the franchise was in a county with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less.

(4) (a) If a licensee or former licensee whose franchise was terminated, cancelled, or not renewed by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative in the previous five years due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor brings an action or proceeding before the executive director or a court pursuant to this part 1, the manufacturer shall have the burden of proof on the following issues:

(I) The size and permanency of investment and obligations incurred by the existing motor vehicle dealers of the same line-make located in the relevant market area;

(II) Growth or decline in population and new motor vehicle registrations in the relevant market area;

(III) The effect on the consuming public in the relevant market area and whether the opening of the proposed additional, reopened, or relocated dealer is injurious or beneficial to the public welfare; and

(IV) Whether the motor vehicle dealers of the same line-make in the relevant market area are providing adequate and convenient customer care for motor vehicles of the same line-make in the relevant market area, including but not limited to the adequacy of sales and service facilities, equipment, parts, and qualified service personnel.

(b) (I) In addition to the powers specified in section 12-6-105, the executive director has jurisdiction to resolve actions or proceedings brought before the executive director pursuant to this part 1 that allege a violation of this part 1 or rules promulgated pursuant to this part 1. The executive director may promulgate rules to facilitate the administration of such actions or proceedings, including provisions specifying procedures for the executive director or the executive director's designee to:

(A) Conduct an investigation pursuant to section 12-6-105 (1) (d) of an alleged violation of this part 1 or rules promulgated pursuant to this part 1, including issuance of a notice of violation;

(B) Hold a hearing regarding the alleged violation to be held pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.;

(C) Issue an order, including a cease-and-desist order issued pursuant to section 12-6-105 (1) (f), to resolve the notice of violation; and

(D) Impose a fine pursuant to section 12-6-105 (1) (f) (III).

(II) The court of appeals has initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the executive director made pursuant to this subsection (4). Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(5) (a) No manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative shall offer or award a person a franchise or permit the relocation of an existing franchise to the right of first refusal area unless the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has complied with paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) or unless paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) does not apply.

(b) If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or the predecessor thereof, has terminated, cancelled, or not renewed a motor vehicle dealer's franchise for a line-make within the right of first refusal area due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor that was held by the motor vehicle dealer immediately prior to the franchise being terminated, cancelled, or not renewed within the amount of time the right of first refusal is granted under paragraph (c) of this subsection (5), the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or the successor thereof, shall offer the former motor vehicle dealer whose franchise was terminated, cancelled, or not renewed a franchise within the first refusal area prior to making the offer to any other person for the same line-make unless the former motor vehicle dealer elects to receive the payments required by section 12-6-120 (1) (l) and (1) (r) in lieu of the right of first refusal or the motor vehicle dealer has accepted compensation from the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise agreement.

(c) The duration of the right of first refusal granted in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) is equal to five years after the franchise is terminated, cancelled, or not renewed.

(d) If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or the predecessor thereof, has made any payment to the motor vehicle dealer in consideration for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise agreement and the motor vehicle dealer obtains a new franchise agreement through this subsection (5), the motor vehicle dealer shall reimburse the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative for such payments. The motor vehicle dealer may reimburse the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative with a commercially reasonable repayment installment plan.

(e) The right of first refusal survives a court voiding the payments required by section 12-6-120 (1) (l) and (1) (r).

(f) (I) The right of first refusal survives a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or predecessor thereof, awarding a franchise within the same right of first refusal for the same line-make to a person or entity other than the former motor vehicle dealer whose franchise was terminated, cancelled, or not renewed.

(II) If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or predecessor thereof, has awarded the franchise to another motor vehicle dealer in the same right of first refusal area without granting the right of first refusal under this section, the former motor vehicle dealer may elect to either receive a franchise agreement in the same area or the payments required by section 12-6-120 (1) (l) and (1) (r) from the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative unless the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or predecessor thereof, has paid compensation in consideration of the initial termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise agreement.

12-6-120.5. Independent control of dealer - definitions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no manufacturer shall own, operate, or control any motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer in Colorado.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the following activities are not prohibited:

(a) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), operation of a dealer for a temporary period, not to exceed twelve months, during the transition from one owner or operator to another independent owner or operator; except that the executive director may extend the period, not to exceed twenty-four months, upon showing by the manufacturer or distributor of the need to operate the dealership for such time to achieve a transition from an owner or operator to another independent third-party owner or operator;

(II) Operation of a dealer that sells recreational vehicles for not more than eighteen months during the transition from one owner or operator to another independent owner or operator;

(b) Ownership or control of a dealer while the dealer is being sold under a bona fide contract or purchase option to the operator of the dealer;

(c) Participation in the ownership of the dealer solely for the purpose of providing financing or a capital loan that will enable the dealer to become the majority owner of the dealer in less than seven years;

(d) Operation of a motor vehicle dealer if the manufacturer has no other dealers of the same line-make in this state;

(e) Ownership, operation, or control of a used motor vehicle dealer if the manufacturer owned, operated, or controlled the used motor vehicle dealer on January 1, 2009, and has continuously operated or controlled the used motor vehicle facilities after January 1, 2009; and

(f) Operation of a motor vehicle dealer if the manufacturer was operating the dealer on January 1, 2009, so long as the dealer is in continuous operation after January 1, 2009.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Control" means to possess, directly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise; except that "control" does not include the relationship between a manufacturer and a motor vehicle dealer under a franchise agreement.

(c) "Operate" means to directly or indirectly manage a motor vehicle dealer.

(d) "Own" means to hold any beneficial ownership interest of one percent or more of any class of equity interest in a dealer, whether as a shareholder, partner, limited liability company member, or otherwise. To "hold" an ownership interest means to have possession of, title to, or control of the ownership interest, either directly or through a fiduciary or agent.

(4) This section shall not apply to manufacturers of vehicles with a passenger capacity of thirty-two or more.

ANNOTATION

Subsection (1) does not prohibit a motor vehicle manufacturer from owning, operating, or controlling a used motor vehicle dealer. Int'l Truck & Engine Corp. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 155 P.3d 640 (Colo. App. 2007).

Use of the word "any" before the term motor vehicle dealer does not expand the definition of that term to include a "used motor vehicle dealer". Int'l Truck & Engine Corp. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 155 P.3d 640 (Colo. App. 2007).

12-6-120.7. Successor under existing franchise agreement - duties of manufacturer. (1) If a licensed motor vehicle dealer under franchise by a manufacturer dies or becomes incapacitated, the manufacturer shall act in good faith to allow a successor, which may include a family member, designated by the deceased or incapacitated motor vehicle dealer to succeed to ownership and operation of the dealer under the existing franchise agreement if:

(a) Within ninety days after the motor vehicle dealer's death or incapacity, the designated successor gives the manufacturer written notice of an intent to succeed to the rights of the deceased or incapacitated motor vehicle dealer in the franchise agreement;

(b) The designated successor agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of the existing franchise agreement; and

(c) The designated successor meets the criteria generally applied by the manufacturer in qualifying motor vehicle dealers.

(2) A manufacturer may refuse to honor the existing franchise agreement with the designated successor only for good cause. The manufacturer may request in writing from a designated successor the personal and financial data that is reasonably necessary to determine whether the existing franchise agreement should be honored, and the designated successor shall supply such data promptly upon request.

(3) (a) If a manufacturer believes that good cause exists for refusing to honor the requested succession, the manufacturer shall send the designated successor, by certified or overnight mail, notice of its refusal to approve the succession within sixty days after the later of:

(I) Receipt of the notice of the designated successor's intent to succeed the motor vehicle dealer in the ownership and operation of the dealer; or

(b) Failure to serve the notice pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall be considered approval of the designated successor, and the franchise agreement is considered amended to reflect the approval of the succession the day following the last day of the notice period specified in said paragraph (a).

(c) If the manufacturer gives notice of refusal to approve the succession, such notice shall state the specific grounds for the refusal and shall state that the franchise agreement shall be discontinued not less than ninety days after the date the notice of refusal is served unless the proposed successor files an action in the district court to enjoin such action.

(4) This section shall not be construed to prohibit a motor vehicle dealer from designating a person as the successor in advance, by written instrument filed with the manufacturer. If the motor vehicle dealer files such an instrument, that instrument governs the succession rights to the management and operation of the dealer subject to the designated successor satisfying the manufacturer's qualification requirements as described in this section.

(5) This section shall not apply to manufacturers of vehicles with a passenger capacity of thirty-two or more.

12-6-121. Penalty. Any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of this part 1 or who willfully commits any offense in this part 1 declared to be unlawful commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.; except that any person who violates the provisions of section 12-6-120 (2) commits a class 3 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars for each separate offense; except that, if the violator is a corporation, the fine shall be not less than five hundred dollars or more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each separate offense. A second conviction shall be punished by a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars.

12-6-121.6. Drafts not honored for payment - penalties. (1) If a motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, or used motor vehicle dealer issues a draft or check to a motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, used motor vehicle dealer, motor vehicle auction house, or consignor and fails to honor such draft or check, then the license of such licensee shall be subject to suspension pursuant to section 12-6-104 (3) (e) (I). The license suspension shall be effective upon the date of any final decision against such licensee based upon the unpaid draft or check. A licensee whose license has been suspended pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (1) shall not be eligible for reinstatement of such license and shall not be eligible to apply for any other license issued under this part 1 unless it is demonstrated to the board that the unpaid draft or check has been paid in full and that any fine imposed on the licensee pursuant to subsection (2) of this section has been paid in full.

(2) Any motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, or used motor vehicle dealer which issues a draft or check to a motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, used motor vehicle dealer, motor vehicle auction house, or consignor and who fails to honor such draft or check, causing loss to a third party, commits a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars. Any fine collected for a violation of this subsection (2) shall be awarded to the law enforcement agency which investigated and issued the citation for said violation.

12-6-122. Right of action for loss. (1) If any person suffers loss or damage by reason of any fraud practiced on such person or fraudulent representation made to such person by a licensed dealer or one of the dealer's salespersons acting for the dealer on such dealer's behalf or within the scope of the employment of the salesperson or suffers any loss or damage by reason of the violation by such dealer or salesperson of any of the provisions of this part 1 that are designated by the board by rule, whether or not such violation is the basis for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license, such person shall have a right of action against the dealer, such dealer's motor vehicle salespersons, and the sureties upon their respective bonds. The right of a person to recover for loss or damage as provided in this subsection (1) against the dealer or salesperson shall not be limited to the amount of their respective bonds.

(2) If any person suffers any loss or damage by reason of any unlawful act as provided in section 12-6-120 (1) (a), such person shall have a right of action against the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative. In any court action wherein a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has been found liable in damages to any person under this part 1, the amount of damages so determined shall be trebled and shall be recoverable by the person so damaged. Any person so damaged shall also be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees as part of his or her damages.

(3) If any licensee suffers any loss or damage because of a violation of section 12-6-120 (1) or 12-6-120.3 (5), the licensee shall have a right of action against the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative. In any court action wherein a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has been found liable in damages to any licensee under this part 1, any licensee so damaged shall also be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs as part of his or her damages.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-6-122 is similar to repealed § 13-11-11, C.R.S. 1963, and § 13-11-11, CRS 53, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Any person who suffers loss or damage by reason of a violation by any automobile dealer of any of the laws of this state respecting commerce in motor vehicles shall have a right of action not only against the automobile dealer but also against the surety on the dealer's bond. Nat'l Motors, Inc. v. Newman, 29 Colo. App. 380, 484 P.2d 125 (1971).

Where plaintiff elects to bring an original action against both the principal and the surety, he is bound by whatever takes place in said proceeding. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. v. Ginsberg, 131 Colo. 1, 278 P.2d 1018 (1955).

When the trial court in that suit enters a final judgment of dismissal, it becomes a final determination as to the nonliability of the bonding company. Massachusetts Bonding & Ins. Co. v. Ginsberg, 131 Colo. 1, 278 P.2d 1018 (1955).

An essential element of fraud is that the misrepresentation relied on must be of an existing or past material fact. United Fire & Cas. Co. v. Nissan Motor Corp. in U.S.A., 164 Colo. 42, 433 P.2d 769 (1967).

The trial court's findings that there was constructive fraud was erroneous because no showing was made that the automobile distributor had a right to rely on what the dealer said prior to the creation of the distributorship. United Fire & Cas. Co. v. Nissan Motor Corp. in U.S.A., 164 Colo. 42, 433 P.2d 769 (1967).

No fiduciary relationship existed, and the dealer was not the distributor's agent in a legal sense because he purchased the automobiles and parts from the former and sold them as he desired, apparently without any control, and no prior business agency nor professional or confidential relationship and no family ties were shown which might have impelled or induced the distributor to relax the care and vigilance it would and should have ordinarily exercised in dealing with a stranger. United Fire & Cas. Co. v. Nissan Motor Corp. in U.S.A., 164 Colo. 42, 433 P.2d 769 (1967).

Dealer may recover its loss or damage under subsection (3) where manufacturer violates independent control of dealer provision. Maehal Enters., Inc. v. Thunder Mtn. Custom Cycles, Inc., __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2011).

12-6-122.5. Contract disputes - venue - choice of law. (1) In the event of a dispute between a motor vehicle dealer and a manufacturer under a franchise agreement, notwithstanding any provision of the agreement to the contrary:

(a) At the option of the motor vehicle dealer, venue shall be proper in the county or judicial district where the dealer resides or has its principal place of business; and

12-6-123. Disposition of fees - auto dealers license fund. (1) All moneys received under this part 1, except fines awarded pursuant to section 12-6-121.5, shall be deposited with the state treasurer by the department of revenue, subject to the provisions of section 24-35-101, C.R.S., together with a detailed statement of such receipts, and such funds deposited with the state treasurer shall constitute a fund to be known as the auto dealers license fund, which fund is hereby created and which shall be used under the direction of the board in the following manner:

(b) (I) For the payment of the expenses of the administration of the board as the general assembly deems necessary by making an appropriation therefor on an annual fiscal-year basis commencing July 1, 1971, and thereafter.

(II) Any money remaining in said fund on December 31, 1971, and at the close of each calendar year thereafter, after costs of administration of the law as provided in this part 1 shall remain in the auto dealers license fund to be used for educational and enforcement purposes as appropriated by the general assembly.

(c) To pay the department of revenue for the administration of actions or proceedings brought before the executive director pursuant to section 12-6-120.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (1) of this section to the contrary, on March 27, 2002, the state treasurer shall deduct one million one hundred thousand dollars from the auto dealers license fund and transfer such sum to the general fund; except that, if the balance of moneys in the auto dealers license fund on March 27, 2002, is less than one million one hundred thousand dollars, the state treasurer shall transfer the balance of moneys in the fund to the general fund.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of subsection (1) of this section to the contrary and in addition to any amount transferred pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2):

(I) On May 28, 2002, the state treasurer shall transfer an amount equal to the balance of the auto dealers license fund as of April 30, 2002, to the general fund.

(II) Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph (II), for each succeeding calendar month of the 2001-02 fiscal year, through June 30, 2002, the state treasurer shall transfer the amount of moneys credited to the auto dealers license fund during such calendar month to the general fund no later than the last day of the month in which such moneys were credited to the auto dealers license fund. However, the aggregate amount of moneys transferred from the auto dealers license fund to the general fund pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), and this subparagraph (II) shall not exceed one million one hundred thousand dollars.

12-6-125. Advertisement - inclusion of dealer name. No motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer or any agent of either of said dealers shall advertise any offer for the sale, lease, or purchase of a motor vehicle or a used motor vehicle which creates the false impression that the vehicle is being offered by a private party or by a motor vehicle agent or which does not contain the name of the dealer or the word "dealer" or, if the name is contained in the offer and does not clearly reflect that the business is a dealer, both the name of the dealer and the word "dealer".

12-6-126. Audit reimbursement limitations - dealer claims. (1) (a) A manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative shall have the right to audit warranty, sales, or incentive claims of a motor vehicle dealer for nine months after the date the claim was submitted.

(b) A manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative shall not require documentation for warranty, sales, or incentive claims or audit warranty, sales, or incentive claims of a motor vehicle dealer more than fifteen months after the date the claim was submitted, nor shall the manufacturer require a charge back, reimbursement, or credit against a future transaction arising out of an audit or request for documentation arising more than nine months after the date the claim was submitted.

(2) The motor vehicle dealer shall have nine months after making a sale or providing service to submit warranty, sales, or incentive claims to the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section shall not limit any action for fraud instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) A motor vehicle dealer may request a determination from the executive director, within thirty days, that a charge back, reimbursement, or credit required violates subsection (1) of this section. If a determination is requested within the thirty-day period, then the charge back, reimbursement, or credit shall be stayed pending the decision of the executive director. If the executive director determines after a hearing that the charge back, reimbursement, or credit violates subsection (1) of this section, the charge back, reimbursement, or credit shall be void.

12-6-127. Reimbursement for right of first refusal. A manufacturer or distributor shall pay reasonable attorney fees, not to exceed the usual and customary fees charged for the transfer of a franchise, and reasonable expenses that are incurred by the proposed owner or transferee before the manufacturer or distributor exercised its right of first refusal in negotiating and implementing the contract for the proposed change of ownership or the transfer of assets. Payment of attorney fees and expenses is not required if the claimant has failed to submit an accounting of attorney fees and expenses within twenty days after the receipt of the manufacturer's or dealer's written request for an accounting. An expense accounting may be requested by the manufacturer or distributor before exercising its right of first refusal.

12-6-128. Payout exemption to execution. A motor vehicle dealer's right to receive payments from a manufacturer or distributor required by section 12-6-120 (1) (l) and (1) (r) is not liable to attachment or execution and may not otherwise be seized, taken, appropriated, or applied in a legal or equitable process or by operation of law to pay the debts or liabilities of the manufacturer or distributor. This section shall not prohibit a secured creditor from exercising rights accrued pursuant to a security agreement if the right arose as a result of the manufacturer or distributor voluntarily creating a security interest before paying existing debts or liabilities of the manufacturer or distributor. This section shall not prohibit a manufacturer or distributor from withholding a portion of such payments necessary to cover an amount of money owed to the manufacturer or distributor as an offset to such payments if the manufacturer or distributor provides the motor vehicle dealer written notice thereof.

12-6-129. Site control extinguishes. If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has terminated, eliminated, or not renewed a franchise agreement containing a site control provision, the motor vehicle dealer may void a site control provision of a franchise agreement by returning any money the dealer has accepted in exchange for site control prorated by the time remaining before the agreement expires over the time period between the agreement being signed and the agreement expiring. This section does not apply if the termination, elimination, or nonrenewal is for just cause in accordance with section 12-6-120 (1) (d).

12-6-130. Modification voidable. If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative fails to comply with section 12-6-120 (1) (w) (II), the motor vehicle dealer may void the modification or replacement of the franchise agreement.

12-6-131. Termination appeal. A motor vehicle dealer who has reason to believe that a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has violated section 12-6-120 (1) (d) or (1) (w) may appeal to the board by filing a complaint with the executive director. Upon receiving the complaint and upon a showing of specific facts that a violation has occurred, the executive director shall summarily issue a cease-and-desist order under section 12-6-105 (1) (f) staying the termination, elimination, modification, or nonrenewal of the franchise agreement. The cease-and-desist order remains in effect until the hearing required by section 12-6-105 (1) (f) is held. If a determination is made at the hearing required by section 12-6-105 (1) (f) that a violation occurred, the executive director shall make the cease-and-desist order permanent and take any actions authorized by section 12-6-104 (3). A motor vehicle dealer who appeals to the executive director maintains all rights under the franchise agreement until the later of the executive director issuing a decision or ninety days after the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer's representative provides the notice of termination unless the executive director finds that the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal was for fraud, a misrepresentation, or committing a crime within the scope of the franchise agreement or in the operation of the dealership, in which case the franchise rights terminate immediately.

ANTIMONOPOLY FINANCING LAW

12-6-201. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, trustee, receiver, or assignee for the benefit of creditors.
- (2) "Sell", "sold", "buy", and "purchase" include exchange, barter, gift, and offer or contract to sell or buy.

Source: L. 37: p. 322, § 13. CSA: C. 16, § 419. CRS 53: § 13-15-13. C.R.S. 1963: § 13-15-13.

12-6-202. Exclusive finance agreements void - when. It is unlawful for any person who is engaged, either directly or indirectly, in the manufacture or distribution of motor vehicles, to sell or enter into contract to sell motor vehicles, whether patented or unpatented, to any person who is engaged or intends to engage in the business of selling such motor vehicles at retail in this state, on the condition or with an agreement or understanding, either express or implied, that such person so engaged in selling motor vehicles at retail in any manner shall finance the purchase or sale of any one or number of motor vehicles only with or through a designated person or class of persons or shall sell and assign the conditional sales contracts, chattel mortgages, or leases arising from the sale of motor vehicles or any one or number thereof only to a designated person or class of persons, when the effect of the condition, agreement, or understanding so entered into may be to lessen or eliminate competition, or create or tend to create a monopoly in the person or class of persons who are designated, by virtue of such condition, agreement, or understanding to finance the purchase or sale of motor vehicles or to purchase such conditional sales contracts, chattel mortgages, or leases. Any such condition, agreement, or understanding is declared to be void and against the public policy of this state.

SUNDAY CLOSING LAW

12-6-301. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Motor vehicle" means every self-propelled vehicle intended primarily for use and operation on the public highways and every vehicle intended primarily for operation on the public highways which is not driven or propelled by its own power, but which is designed either to be attached to or become a part of a self-propelled vehicle; it does not include farm tractors and other machines and tools used in the production, harvesting, and care of farm products.

12-6-302. Sunday closing. No person, firm, or corporation, whether owner, proprietor, agent, or employee, shall keep open, operate, or assist in keeping open or operating any place or premises or residences, whether open or closed, for the purpose of selling, bartering, or exchanging or offering for sale, barter, or exchange any motor vehicle, whether new, used, or secondhand, on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday. This part 3 shall not apply to the opening of an establishment or place of business on the said first day of the week for other purposes, such as the sale of petroleum products, tires, or automobile accessories, or for the purpose of operating and conducting a motor vehicle repair shop, or for the purpose of supplying such services as towing or wrecking. The provisions of this part 3 shall not apply to the opening of an establishment or place of business on the said first day of the week for the purpose of selling, bartering, or exchanging or offering for sale, barter, or exchange any boat, boat trailer, snowmobile, or snowmobile trailer.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For comment on Mosko v. Dunbar, appearing below, see 34 Dicta 182 (1957). For article, "One Year Review of Constitutional and Administrative Law", see 35 Dicta 7 (1958).

The Sunday closing law did not violate the due process or equal protection clause of the fourteenth amendment of the United States constitution. Mosko v. Dunbar, 135 Colo. 172, 309 P.2d 581 (1957).

The Sunday closing law does not violate § 25 of art. V, Colo. Const., which prohibits special legislation. Mosko v. Dunbar, 135 Colo. 172, 309 P.2d 581 (1957).

The fact that the sale of motor vehicles is singled out for legislative treatment is no ground for complaint if there is any reasonable basis for such action. Mosko v. Dunbar, 135 Colo. 172, 309 P.2d 581 (1957).

12-6-303. Penalties. Any person, firm, partnership, or corporation who violates any of the provisions of this part 3 is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than seventy-five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or the court, in its discretion, may suspend or revoke the Colorado motor vehicle dealer's license issued under the provisions of part 1 of this article, or by such fine and imprisonment and suspension or revocation.

EVENT DATA RECORDERS

12-6-401. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Event data" means records of one or more of the following categories of information concerning a motor vehicle, which records are captured by an event data recorder:

- (a) Whether the vehicle's air bag deployed;
- (b) Vehicle speed;
- (c) Vehicle direction;

- (d) Vehicle location;
- (e) Vehicle steering performance or use;
- (f) Vehicle brake performance or use; or
- (g) Vehicle seatbelt status or use.
- (2) "Event data recorder" means a device or feature that is installed by the manufacturer of a motor vehicle for the purpose of capturing or transmitting retrievable event data.
- (3) "Owner" means:
 - (a) A person having all the incidents of ownership of a motor vehicle, including legal title to the motor vehicle, regardless of whether the person lends, rents, or creates a security interest in the vehicle;
 - (b) A person entitled to possession of a motor vehicle as the purchaser under a security agreement; or
 - (c) A person entitled to possession of a vehicle as lessee under a written lease agreement if the lease agreement is intended to last for more than three months at its inception.
- (4) "Owner's agent" means a natural person authorized by the owner within the last thirty days or the owner's representative as defined by section 13-20-702 (3), C.R.S.

12-6-402. Event data recorders. (1) A manufacturer of a motor vehicle that is sold or leased in Colorado with an event data recorder shall in bold-faced type disclose, in the owner's manual, that the vehicle is so equipped and, if so, the type of data recorded. A disclosure made by means of an insert into the owner's manual shall be deemed a disclosure in the owner's manual.

(2) Event data that is recorded on an event data recorder is the personal information of the motor vehicle's owner, and therefore, such information shall not be retrieved by a person who is not the owner of the motor vehicle, except in the following circumstances:

- (a) The owner of the motor vehicle or the owner's agent has consented to the retrieval of the data within the last thirty days;
- (b) The data is retrieved by a motor vehicle dealer or by an automotive technician to diagnose, service, or repair the motor vehicle at the request of the owner or the owner's agent;
- (c) The data is subject to discovery pursuant to the rules of civil procedure in a claim arising out of a motor vehicle accident;
- (d) A court or administrative agency having jurisdiction orders the data to be retrieved;
- (e) The event data recorder is installed after the manufacturer or motor vehicle dealer sells the motor vehicle; or
- (f) A peace officer retrieves the data pursuant to a court order as part of an investigation of a suspected violation of a law that has caused, or contributed to the cause of, an accident resulting in damage of property or injury to a person.

(3) (a) No person shall release event data unless authorized by paragraph (b) of this subsection (3).

(b) A person authorized to download or retrieve data from an event data recorder may release such data in the following circumstances:

- (I) The owner of the motor vehicle or the owner's agent has consented to the release of the data within the last thirty days;
- (II) The data is subject to discovery pursuant to the rules of civil procedure in a claim arising out of a motor vehicle accident;
- (III) The data is released pursuant to a court order as part of an investigation of a suspected violation of a law that has caused, or contributed to the cause of, an accident resulting in appreciable damage of property or injury to a person;
- (IV) If the identity of the owner or driver is not disclosed, the data is released to a motor vehicle safety and medical research entity in order to advance motor vehicle safety, security, or traffic management; or
- (V) The data is released to a data processor solely for the purposes permitted by this section if the identity of the owner or driver is not disclosed.

(4) (a) If a motor vehicle is equipped with an event data recorder that is capable of recording or transmitting event data that is part of a subscription service, the fact that the data may be recorded or transmitted and instructions for discontinuing the subscription service or for disabling the event data recorder by a trained service technician shall be prominently disclosed in the subscription service agreement. A disclosure made by means of an insert into the service agreement shall be deemed a disclosure in the service agreement.

(b) Subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall not apply to subscription services meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4).

(5) A person who violates subsection (2) or (3) of this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

PART 5

POWERSPORTS VEHICLES

12-6-501. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that:

(a) The sale and distribution of powersports vehicles affects the public interest, and a significant factor of inducement in making a sale of a powersports vehicle is the trust and confidence of the purchaser in the dealer from whom the purchase is made and the expectancy that the dealer will remain in business to provide service for the vehicle;

(b) The proper sale and service of a powersports vehicle are important to consumer safety, and the manufacturers and distributors of powersports vehicles have an obligation to the public not to terminate or refuse to continue their franchise agreements with retail powersports vehicle dealers unless the powersports vehicle manufacturer or distributor has first established good cause for termination of any such agreement, to the end that there shall be no diminution of locally available service;

(c) The licensing and supervision of powersports vehicle dealers by the motor vehicle dealer board are necessary for the protection of consumers, and, therefore, the sale of powersports vehicles by unlicensed dealers or salespersons, or by licensed dealers or salespersons who have demonstrated unfitness, should be prevented; and

(d) Consumer education concerning the rules and regulations of the powersports vehicle industry, the considerations when purchasing a powersports vehicle, and the role, functions, and actions of the motor vehicle dealer board are necessary for the protection of the public and for maintaining the trust and confidence of the public in the motor vehicle dealer board.

12-6-502. Definitions. As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “ANSI/SVIA-1-2001” means the American national standards institute’s, or its successor organization’s, provisions for four-wheel all-terrain vehicles, equipment configuration, and performance requirements, developed by the specialty vehicle institute of America, or its successor organization.

(3) “Consumer” means a purchaser, renter, or lessee of a powersports vehicle that is primarily used for business, personal, family, or household purposes. “Consumer” does not include a purchaser of powersports vehicles primarily for resale.

(4) "Custom trailer" means a vehicle that is not driven or propelled by its own power and is designed to be attached to, become a part of, or be drawn by a motor vehicle and that is uniquely designed and manufactured for a specific purpose or customer. "Custom trailer" does not include manufactured housing, farm tractors, and other machines and tools used in the production, harvest, and care of farm products.

(5.5) "Franchise" means the authority to sell or service and repair powersports vehicles of a designated line-make granted through a sales, service, and parts agreement with a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

(6) "Line-make" means a group or series of powersports vehicles that have the same brand identification or brand name, based upon the powersports vehicle manufacturer's trademark, trade name, or logo.

(7) "New powersports vehicle" mean a powersports vehicle that has been transferred on a manufacturer's statement of origin and for which an ownership registration card has been submitted by the original owner to the powersports vehicle manufacturer.

(8) "Off-highway vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle that is designed to travel on wheels or tracks in contact with the ground, designed primarily for use off of the public highways, and generally and commonly used to transport persons for recreational purposes. "Off-highway vehicle" does not include the following:

- (a) Military vehicles;
- (b) Golf carts;
- (c) Vehicles designed and used to carry persons with disabilities; and
- (d) Vehicles designed and used specifically for agricultural, logging, or mining purposes.

(9) "Personal watercraft" means a motorboat that is designed to be operated by a person sitting, standing, or kneeling on the vessel, rather than the conventional manner of sitting or standing inside the vessel, and that is designed primarily for use off of the public highways, and that uses either of the following as the primary source of motive power:

- (a) An inboard motor powering a water jet pump; or
- (b) An outboard motor-driven propeller.

(10) "Powersports vehicle" means any of the following:

- (a) An off-highway vehicle;
- (b) A personal watercraft; or
- (c) A snowmobile.

(11) "Powersports vehicle dealer" means a person who, for commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, sells, leases, exchanges, rents with option to purchase, offers, or attempts to negotiate a sale, lease, or exchange of an interest in new or new and used powersports vehicles or who is engaged wholly or in part in the business of selling or leasing new or new and used powersports vehicles, whether or not the powersports vehicles are owned by such person. The sale or lease of ten or more new or new and used powersports vehicles or the offering for sale or lease of more than ten new or new and used powersports vehicles at the same address or telephone number in any one calendar year shall be prima facie evidence that a person is engaged in the business of selling or leasing new or new and used powersports vehicles. "Powersports vehicle dealer" includes an owner of real property who allows more than ten new or new and used powersports vehicles to be offered for sale or lease on such property during one calendar year unless said property is leased to a licensed powersports vehicle dealer. "Powersports vehicle dealer" does not include:

- (a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by or acting under the judgment or order of any court;
- (b) Public officers while performing their official duties;
- (c) Employees of persons enumerated in the definition of "powersports vehicle dealer" when engaged in the specific performance of their duties as such employees;
- (d) A wholesaler or anyone selling powersports vehicles solely to wholesalers; or
- (e) A wholesale motor vehicle auctioneer.

(12) “Powersports vehicle distributor” means a person, resident or nonresident, who, in whole or in part, sells or distributes new powersports vehicles to powersports vehicle dealers or who maintains powersports vehicle distributor representatives.

(13) “Powersports vehicle manufacturer” means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who manufactures or assembles new powersports vehicles.

(14) “Powersports vehicle manufacturer representative” means a representative employed by a person who manufactures or assembles powersports vehicles for the purpose of making or promoting the sale of the person’s powersports vehicles or for supervising or contacting its dealers or prospective dealers.

(15) “Powersports vehicle salesperson” means a natural person who, for a salary, commission, or compensation of any kind, is employed either directly or indirectly, regularly or occasionally, by a powersports vehicle dealer to sell, lease, purchase, or exchange or to negotiate for the sale, lease, purchase, or exchange of powersports vehicles.

(16) “Principal place of business” means a site or location for which the powersports vehicle dealer is licensed, sufficiently designated to admit of definite description, with space thereon or contiguous thereto adequate to permit the display of one or more new or used powersports vehicles, and including a permanent enclosed building or structure to accommodate the office of the dealer and to provide a safe place to keep the books and other records of the business of such dealer, at which site or location the principal portion of such dealer’s business shall be conducted and the books and records thereof kept and maintained; except that a dealer may keep its books and records at an off-site location in Colorado after notifying the board in writing of such location at least thirty days in advance. Motor vehicle and used motor vehicle dealers shall be authorized to offer both motor vehicles and powersports vehicles from the same principal place of business. In the case of motor vehicle dealers, such principal place of business shall be at the address set forth in the dealer’s sales agreement.

(17) “Snowmobile” means a self-propelled vehicle primarily designed or altered for travel on snow or ice when supported in part by skis, belts, or cleats and designed primarily for use off of the public highways. “Snowmobile” shall not include machinery used strictly for the grooming of snowmobile trails or ski slopes.

(19) “Used powersports vehicle dealer” means any person who, for commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, sells, exchanges, leases, or offers an interest in used powersports vehicles, or attempts to negotiate a sale or lease of new and used powersports vehicles or who is engaged wholly or in part in the business of selling used powersports vehicles, whether or not such used powersports vehicles are owned by such person. The sale of ten or more used powersports vehicles or the offering for sale of more than ten used powersports vehicles at the same address or telephone number in any one calendar year shall be prima facie evidence that a person is engaged in the business of selling used powersports vehicles. “Used powersports vehicle dealer” includes an owner of real property who allows more than ten used powersports vehicles to be offered for sale on such property during one calendar year unless the property is leased to a licensed used powersports vehicle dealer. “Used powersports vehicle dealer” does not include:

(a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by or acting under the judgment or order of any court;

(b) Public officers while performing their official duties;

(c) Employees of used powersports vehicle dealers when engaged in the specific performance of their duties;

(d) Anyone selling powersports vehicles solely to wholesalers;

(e) Mortgagees or secured parties as to powersports vehicles constituting collateral on a mortgage or security agreement, if such mortgagees or secured parties shall not realize for their own account from such sales any moneys in excess of the outstanding balance secured by such mortgage or security agreement, plus costs of collection; or

(20) “Wholesaler” means a person who, for commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, sells, exchanges, or offers or attempts to negotiate a sale, lease, or exchange of an interest in a new or new and used powersports vehicle solely to powersports vehicle dealers or used powersports vehicle dealers.

12-6-504. Board - oath - meetings - powers and duties - rules. (1) In addition to the duties and powers of the board under section 12-6-104, the board may:

(a) Promulgate, amend, and repeal rules reasonably necessary to implement this part 5, including, without limitation, the administration, enforcement, issuance, and denial of licenses to wholesalers, powersports vehicle dealers, powersports vehicle salespersons, and used powersports vehicle dealers;

(b) Delegate to the board’s executive secretary, employed pursuant to section 12-6-105 (1) (b), the authority to execute all actions within the power of the board, carry out the directives of the board, and make recommendations to the board on all matters within the authority of the board;

(c) Issue through the department of revenue a temporary license to an applicant seeking a license issued by the board, which temporary license shall permit the applicant to operate for not more than one hundred twenty days, during which time the board may complete its investigation and determination of all facts relative to the qualifications of the applicant for such license;

(d) (I) Issue through the department of revenue and, for reasonable cause shown or upon satisfactory proof of the unfitness of the applicant under this part 5, to refuse to issue to any applicant any license the board is authorized to issue by this part 5;

(II) Permit the executive director to issue licenses pursuant to rules adopted by the board under paragraph (a) of this subsection (1);

(e) (I) After due notice and a hearing:

(A) Review the findings of an administrative law judge or hearing officer from a hearing conducted pursuant to this part 5; or

(B) Revoke and suspend or order the executive director to issue or to reinstate, on such terms and conditions and for such period of time as the board deems fair and just, any license issued pursuant to this part 5;

(II) Issue a letter of admonition for a minor violation of this part 5 that does not become a part of the licensee’s record with the board;

(III) Issue a letter of reprimand and a notice of the right to request formal disciplinary proceedings, in writing within twenty days, to a licensee for a violation of this part 5, which letter is a part of the licensee’s record with the board for a period of two years after issuance and may be considered in aggravation of any subsequent violation by the licensee; except that the letter shall be vacated and a formal disciplinary proceeding shall be instituted upon a written request within twenty days after the letter is issued;

(f) (I) Investigate, with the assistance of the executive director, on its own motion or upon a written and signed complaint from any person, a suspected or alleged violation by a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, used powersports vehicle dealer, or powersports vehicle salesperson of this part 5 or a rule promulgated by the board;

(II) Issue subpoenas or delegate the authority to issue subpoenas to the executive director;

(III) Require the executive director to investigate complaints transmitted by the board pursuant to section 12-6-505 (1) (e) and (1) (f);

(IV) Seek to resolve disputes before beginning an investigation or hearing through its own action or by direction of the executive director;

(V) If the board determines that there is probable cause to believe a violation of this article has occurred after an investigation by the executive director, order an administrative hearing be held pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., or designate one of the board's members as a hearing officer to conduct a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.;

(g) Summarily issue to any person who is licensed by the board pursuant to this part 5 cease-and-desist orders on such terms and conditions and for such time as the board deems fair and just, if such orders are followed by notice and a hearing pursuant to this section;

(h) (I) Prescribe the forms to be used for applications for persons licensed under this part 5;

(II) Require of an applicant, as a requisite to the issuance of a license, information concerning the applicant's fitness to be licensed under this part 5 as the board considers necessary;

(i) Adopt a seal with the words "motor vehicle dealer board" and such other devices as the board may desire engraved thereon by which it shall authenticate the acts of its office;

(j) Require that a powersports vehicle dealer's or used powersports vehicle dealer's principal place of business and such other sites or locations operated by the dealer have signs or devices giving notice of the dealer's name, the location and address of the dealer's principal place of business, and the type and number of license held by the dealer, as the board considers necessary to notify any person doing business with the dealer to identify such dealer, and for this purpose to promulgate rules determining the size, shape, lettering, and location of such signs or devices;

(k) Cause to be conducted written examinations, as prescribed by the board, to test the competency of all first-time applicants for a wholesaler's license, powersports vehicle dealer's license, used powersports vehicle dealer's license, or powersports vehicle salesperson's license;

(l) Promulgate rules requiring off-highway vehicles sold by persons licensed under this part 5 to comply with ANSI/SVIA-1-2001 or a successor standard promulgated by the American national standards institute or its successor organization if such rules do not conflict with the ANSI standards or set standards more stringent than those set by ANSI;

(m) (I) Prescribe forms to be used as a part of a contract for the sale of a powersports vehicle by a powersports vehicle dealer or powersports vehicle salesperson, other than a retail installment sales contract subject to the provisions of the "Uniform Consumer Credit Code", articles 1 to 9 of title 5, C.R.S., that shall include the following information in addition to any other disclosures or information required by state or federal law:

(A) In twelve-point, bold-faced type, or at least three points larger than the smallest type appearing in the contract, an instruction that the form is a legal instrument and that, if the purchaser of the powersports vehicle does not understand the form, such purchaser should seek legal assistance;

(B) In the type and size specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), an instruction that only those terms in written form embody the contract for sale of a powersports vehicle and that any conflicting oral representations made to the purchaser are void;

(C) In the type and size specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), a notice that fraud or misrepresentation in the sale of a powersports vehicle is punishable under the laws of this state;

(D) In the type and size specified in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (I), if the contract for the sale of a powersports vehicle requires a single, lump sum payment of the purchase price, a clear disclosure to the purchaser of this fact or, if the contract is contingent upon the approval of credit financing for the purchaser arranged by or through the powersports vehicle dealer, a statement that the purchaser shall agree to purchase the powersports vehicle that is the subject of the sale from the powersports vehicle dealer at not greater than a certain annual percentage rate of financing that shall be agreed upon by the parties and entered in writing on the contract;

(E) Except as otherwise provided under this part 5, if the purchase price of the powersports vehicle is not paid to the powersports vehicle dealer in full at the time of consummation of the sale and the vehicle dealer delivers and the purchaser takes possession of the vehicle at such time, a statement in bold-faced type that, if financing cannot be arranged in accordance with the contract and the sale is not consummated, the purchaser shall agree to pay a daily rate for use of the vehicle until financing of the purchase price of the vehicle is arranged for the obligor by or through the authorized powersports vehicle dealer or until the purchase price is paid in full by or through the obligor, which daily rate shall be agreed upon in writing on the contract.

(II) The information required by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (m) shall be read and initialed by both parties at the time of the consummation of the sale of a powersports vehicle.

(III) The use of the contract form required by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (m) shall be mandatory for the sale of a powersports vehicle.

(n) After final action is taken on a hearing held before an administrative law judge or a hearing officer designated by the board from within the board's membership, review the findings of law and fact and the fairness of any fine imposed and to uphold such fine, impose an administrative fine upon its own initiative that shall not exceed ten thousand dollars for each separate offense by any licensee, or vacate the fine imposed by the judge or hearing officer; except that, for powersports vehicle dealers who sell primarily vehicles that weigh under one thousand five hundred pounds, the fine for each separate offense shall not exceed one thousand dollars; and

(o) Impose a fine of up to one thousand dollars per day per violation for any person found, after notice and hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., to have violated the provisions of section 12-6-523 (2).

(2) The board shall:

(a) Order an investigation of all written and signed complaints;

(b) Require an application for a powersports vehicle dealer's license or used powersports vehicle dealer's license to contain, in addition to such information as the board may require, a statement of the following facts:

(I) The name and residence address of the applicant and any trade name under which the applicant intends to conduct business;

(II) If the applicant is a partnership, the name and residence address of each member, whether a limited or general partner, and the name under which the partnership business is to be conducted;

(III) If the applicant is a corporation, the name of the corporation and the name and address of each of its principal officers and directors;

(IV) A complete description, including the municipality, street, and number, if any, of the principal place of business, and any other additional places of business as shall be operated and maintained by the applicant;

(V) If the application is for a powersports vehicle dealer's license, the names of the new powersports vehicles that the applicant has been enfranchised to sell or exchange and the name and address of the powersports manufacturer or distributor who has enfranchised the applicant; and

(VI) The name and address of any person who will act as a salesperson under the authority of the license, if issued.

(3) The findings of the board under subsection (1) of this section shall be final.

(4) (a) For the purposes of paragraphs (e) and (g) of subsection (1) of this section, the address for the notice to be given under section 24-4-105, C.R.S., is the last-known address for the person as indicated in the state motor vehicle records; the last-known address for the owner of the real property upon which powersports vehicles are displayed in violation of section 12-6-523 (2), as indicated in the records of the county assessor's office; or any address for service of process in accordance with rule 4 of the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(b) A person who fails to pay a fine ordered by the board for a violation of section 12-6-523 (2) under paragraph (o) of subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to enforcement proceedings, by the board through the attorney general, in the county or district court pursuant to the Colorado rules of civil procedure. Fines collected under this subsection (4) shall be disposed of pursuant to section 12-6-528.

(5) (a) If a hearing is conducted by an administrative law judge, the maximum fine that may be imposed is ten thousand dollars for each separate offense by any person licensed by the board pursuant to this part 5; except that, for a powersports vehicle dealer who sells primarily vehicles that weigh under one thousand five hundred pounds, the fine for each separate offense may not exceed one thousand dollars.

(b) (I) If a licensing hearing is conducted by a hearing officer, the sanctions that may be recommended by the hearing officer are limited to the denial or grant of an unrestricted license or a restricted license under such terms as the hearing officer deems appropriate.

(II) If a disciplinary hearing is conducted by a hearing officer, the hearing officer may only recommend a probationary period of no more than twelve months, a fine of no more than five hundred dollars, or both such probationary period and fine for each separate violation committed by a person licensed by the board.

12-6-505. Powers and duties of executive director. (1) The executive director is hereby charged with the administration, enforcement, and issuance or denial of the licensing of powersports vehicle distributors, powersports vehicle manufacturer representatives, and powersports vehicle manufacturers, and shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To promulgate, amend, and repeal rules reasonably necessary to undertake the functions the executive director is mandated to carry out pursuant to this part 5 and to administer the laws of this state that the executive director deems necessary to carry out the duties of the office of the executive director pursuant to this part 5;

(b) To employ, subject to the laws of this state and after consultation with the board, an executive secretary for the board, who shall be accountable to the board and shall, pursuant to delegation by the board, discharge the responsibilities of the board under this part 5;

(c) To employ and assign duties to clerks, deputies, and assistants, which duties the executive director considers necessary to discharge the duties imposed upon the executive director by this part 5;

(d) To issue and, for reasonable cause shown or upon satisfactory proof of the unfitness of the applicant under this part 5, to refuse to issue to an applicant any license the executive director is authorized to issue by this part 5;

(e) To investigate, upon the executive director's own initiative, upon the written and signed complaint of any person, or upon request by the board pursuant to section 12-6-504 (1) (f) (I), any suspected or alleged violation of this part 5, or of any rule promulgated by the executive director under this section, by any person licensed by the executive director pursuant to this part 5;

(f) To delegate authority to persons for the purpose of investigating alleged or suspected violations of this part 5. The investigators and their supervisors utilized by the executive director, while actually engaged in performing their duties, shall have the authority as delegated by the executive director:

(I) To issue subpoenas, in accordance with the performance of their duties, to licensees who are under the jurisdiction of the executive director;

(II) To issue summonses for violations of section 12-6-523 (2);

(III) To issue misdemeanor summonses for violations of section 12-6-522 (1) (a); and

(IV) To procure criminal records during an investigation;

(g) To prescribe the forms to be used for applications for licenses to be issued by the executive director under this part 5 and to require of applicants, as a condition precedent to the issuance of a license, such information concerning the applicant's fitness to be licensed under this part 5 as the executive director considers necessary;

(h) (I) To summarily issue cease-and-desist orders on such terms and conditions, and for such period of time as the executive director deems fair and just, to any person who is licensed by the executive director pursuant to this part 5 if such orders are followed by notice and a hearing pursuant to section 12-6-504 (4) (a);

(II) To issue cease-and-desist orders to persons acting as powersports vehicle manufacturers without the powersports vehicle manufacturer's license required by this part 5; and

(III) To impose a fine, not to exceed one thousand dollars per day, for each violation of section 12-6-523 (1), after a notice and hearing subject to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) If a person fails to comply with a cease-and-desist order issued pursuant to this section, the executive director may bring a suit for injunction to prevent any further violation of such order. In any such suit, the final proceedings of the executive director, based upon evidence in record, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts found therein.

12-6-507. Attorney general to advise and represent. (1) The attorney general shall represent the board and executive director and shall give opinions on questions of law relating to the interpretation of this part 5 or arising out of the administration thereof and shall appear for and on behalf of the board and executive director in all actions brought by or against them, whether under the provisions of this part 5 or otherwise.

(2) The board may request the attorney general to make civil investigations and enforce rules and regulations of the board in cases of civil violations and to bring and defend civil suits and proceedings for any of the purposes necessary and proper for carrying out the functions of the board.

12-6-508. Classes of licenses. (1) Licenses issued under this part 5 shall be of the following classes:

(a) A powersports vehicle dealer's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the business of selling, exchanging, leasing, or offering new and used powersports vehicles, which license shall not permit more than two persons named therein as owners of the business of the licensee to act as powersports vehicle salespersons.

(b) A used powersports vehicle dealer's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the business of selling, exchanging, leasing, or offering used powersports vehicles only. Such license shall also permit a licensee to negotiate for a consumer the sale, exchange, or lease of used and new powersports vehicles not owned by the licensee. Prior to completion of a sale, exchange, or lease of a powersports vehicle not owned by the licensee, the licensee shall disclose in writing to the consumer whether the licensee will receive compensation from the consumer or the owner of the powersports vehicle as a result of such transaction. If the licensee receives compensation from the owner of the powersports vehicle as a result of the transaction, the licensee shall include in the written disclosure the name of such owner from whom the licensee will receive compensation. This license shall not permit more than two persons named therein who shall be owners of the business of the licensee to act as powersports vehicle salespersons.

(c) A powersports vehicle salesperson's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a powersports vehicle salesperson.

(d) A powersports vehicle manufacturer's or distributor's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a powersports manufacturer or distributor.

(e) A powersports vehicle manufacturer representative's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a powersports vehicle manufacturer representative.

(f) A wholesaler's license shall permit the licensee to engage in the activities of a wholesaler.

(2) (a) A person who is licensed as a motor vehicle salesperson pursuant to part 1 of this article shall be deemed to be licensed as a powersports vehicle salesperson under this part 5.

(b) A person who is licensed as a motor vehicle manufacturer or distributor pursuant to part 1 of this article shall be deemed to be licensed as a powersports vehicle manufacturer or distributor under this part 5.

(c) A person who is licensed as a motor vehicle manufacturer pursuant to part 1 of this article shall be deemed to be licensed as a powersports vehicle manufacturer under this part 5.

12-6-509. Temporary powersports vehicle dealer license. (1) If a licensed powersports vehicle dealer has entered into a written agreement to sell a dealership to a purchaser and the purchaser has been awarded a new franchise, the board may issue a temporary powersports vehicle dealer's license to such purchaser or prospective purchaser. The executive director shall issue the temporary license only after the board has received the applications for both a temporary powersports vehicle dealer's license and a powersports vehicle dealer's license, the appropriate application fee for the powersports vehicle dealer's application, evidence of a passing score of the written examination described in section 12-6-515, and evidence that the franchise has been awarded to the applicant by the powersports vehicle manufacturer. A temporary powersports vehicle dealer's license shall authorize the licensee to act as a powersports vehicle dealer and subject the licensee to this article and to all rules adopted by the executive director or the board. A temporary powersports vehicle dealer's license shall be effective for up to sixty days or until the board acts on such licensee's application for a powersports vehicle dealer's license, whichever is sooner.

(2) For the purpose of enabling an out-of-state dealer to sell powersports vehicles on a temporary basis during specifically identified events, the executive director may issue, upon direction by the board, a temporary powersports vehicle dealer's license that shall be effective for thirty days. The temporary license shall subject the licensee to compliance with rules adopted by the executive director or the board.

12-6-510. Display, form, custody, and use of licenses. The board and the executive director shall prescribe the form of the license to be issued by the executive director, and each license shall have imprinted thereon the seal of their offices. The license of each powersports vehicle salesperson shall be mailed to the business address where the salesperson is licensed and shall be kept by the salesperson at such salesperson's place of employment for inspection by employers, consumers, the executive director, or the board. A powersports vehicle dealer or wholesaler shall display conspicuously the person's license in the person's place of business. Each license issued pursuant to this part 5 is separate and distinct. It shall be a violation of this part 5 for a person to exercise any of the privileges granted under a license that such person does not hold, or for a licensee to knowingly allow such an exercise of privileges.

12-6-511. Fees - disposition - expenses - expiration of licenses. (1) The fee established pursuant to subsection (5) of this section shall be collected with each application for each of the following:

(a) (I) Powersports vehicle dealer's license or used powersports vehicle dealer's license;

(II) Powersports vehicle dealer's or used powersports vehicle dealer's license for each place of business in addition to the principal place of business;

(III) Renewal or reissue of powersports vehicle dealer's license or used dealer's license after change in location or lapse in principal place of business;

(b) Powersports vehicle manufacturer's license;

(c) Powersports vehicle distributor's license;

(d) Powersports vehicle manufacturer representative's license;

(e) Powersports vehicle salesperson's license including, without limitation, reissuing a license;

(2) Fees shall be paid to the state treasurer who shall credit the same to the auto dealers license fund created in section 12-6-123.

(3) If an application for a wholesaler's license, powersports vehicle dealer's, used powersports vehicle dealer's, or powersports salesperson's license is withdrawn by the applicant prior to issuance of the license, one-half of the license fee shall be refunded.

(4) (a) Licenses issued under this part 5, if not suspended or revoked, shall be valid until one year following the month of issuance thereof and shall then expire; except that any license issued under this part 5 shall expire upon the voluntary surrender thereof or upon the abandonment of the licensee's place of business for a period of more than thirty days.

(b) Thirty days prior to the expiration of a license, the executive director shall mail to the licensee's business address of record a notice stating when the person's license is due to expire and the fee necessary to renew such license. For a powersports vehicle salesperson or powersports vehicle manufacturer representative, the notice shall be mailed to the address of the powersports vehicle dealer, used powersports vehicle dealer, or powersports vehicle manufacturer where the person is licensed.

(c) Upon the expiration of a license, unless suspended or revoked, it may be renewed upon the payment of the application fees specified in this section and renewal shall be made from year to year as a matter of right; except that, if a wholesaler or powersports vehicle dealer voluntarily surrenders its license or abandons its place of business for a period of more than thirty days, the licensee is required to file a new application to renew its license.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), a person has a thirty-day grace period after the license expires in which the license may be renewed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (4), so long as the person has a bond in full force and effect that complies with the applicable bonding requirements of section 12-6-512 or 12-6-513 during the thirty-day period. A person applying during the thirty-day grace period shall pay a late fee established pursuant to subsection (5) of this section.

(5) (a) The board shall propose, as part of its annual budget request, an adjustment in the amount of each fee that the board is authorized by law to collect. The budget request and the adjusted fees for the board shall reflect direct and indirect costs.

(b) Based upon any appropriation made and subject to the approval of the executive director, the board shall adjust the fees collected by the executive director so that the revenue generated from fees covers the direct and indirect costs of administering this part 5. Such fees shall remain in effect for the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made.

(c) In any year, if moneys appropriated by the general assembly to the board for its activities for the prior fiscal year are unexpended, the moneys shall be made a part of the appropriation to the board for the next fiscal year, and the amount shall not be raised from fees collected by the board or the executive director. If a supplemental appropriation is made by the general assembly to the board for its activities, the fees of the board and the executive director, when adjusted for the fiscal year next following that in which the supplemental appropriation was made, shall be adjusted by an additional amount that is sufficient to compensate for such supplemental appropriation. Moneys appropriated to the board in the annual general appropriation bill shall be from the fund provided in section 12-6-123.

12-6-512. Bond of licensee. (1) A wholesaler's license, powersports vehicle dealer's license, or used powersports vehicle dealer's license shall not be issued to any applicant unless the applicant procures and files with the board evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or a good and sufficient bond with corporate surety thereon duly licensed to do business within the state, approved as to form by the attorney general, and conditioned that the applicant shall not make any fraudulent representation or violate any of the provisions of this part 5 or any rule promulgated by the board under this part 5. A powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer shall not be required to furnish an additional bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under this section if such dealer furnishes a bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under section 12-6-111.

(2) (a) The purpose of the bond procured by the applicant pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and section 12-6-513 is to provide for the reimbursement for any loss or damage suffered by any retail consumer caused by violation of this part 5 by a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer. For a wholesale transaction, the bond is available to each party to the transaction; except that, if a retail consumer is involved, such consumer shall have priority to recover from the bond. The amount of the bond shall be fifty thousand dollars for each wholesaler applicant, powersports vehicle dealer applicant, and used powersports vehicle dealer applicant. The aggregate liability of the surety for all transactions shall not exceed the amount of the bond, regardless of the number of claims or claimants.

(b) No corporate surety shall be required to make a payment to any person making a claim under such bond until a final determination of fraud or fraudulent representation has been made by the board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Bonds required pursuant to this section shall be renewed annually when the bondholder's license is renewed. Bonds may be renewed through a continuation certificate issued by the surety.

(4) Nothing in this part 5 shall interfere with the authority of the courts to administer and conduct an interpleader action for claims against a licensee's bond.

12-6-513. Powersports vehicle salesperson's bond. (1) A powersports vehicle salesperson's license shall not be issued unless the applicant has procured and filed with the board evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or a good and sufficient bond in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars with corporate surety thereon duly licensed to do business within the state, approved as to form by the attorney general, and conditioned that the applicant shall perform in good faith as a powersports vehicle salesperson without fraud or fraudulent representation and without violating this part 5 or any rule promulgated by the board under this part 5. The board shall implement by January 1, 2008, a psychometrically valid and reliable salesperson exam that measures the minimum level of competence necessary to practice. A powersports vehicle salesperson shall not be required to furnish an additional bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under this section if such salesperson furnishes a bond, savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit under section 12-6-112.

(2) No corporate surety shall be required to make a payment to any person claiming under such bond until a final determination of fraud or fraudulent representation has been made by the board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Bonds required under this section shall be renewed annually when the bondholder's license is renewed. Bonds may be renewed through a continuation certificate issued by the surety.

12-6-514. Notice of claims honored against bond. (1) A corporate surety that has provided a bond to a licensee pursuant to section 12-6-512 or 12-6-513 shall provide notice to the board and executive director of any claim that is honored against the bond. The notice shall be provided to the board and executive director within thirty days after a claim is honored.

(2) A notice provided by a corporate surety pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be in the form required by the executive director, subject to approval by the board, and shall include, without limitation, the name of the licensee, the name and address of the claimant, the amount of the honored claim, and the nature of the claim against the licensee.

12-6-515. Testing licensees. All persons applying for a wholesaler's, powersports vehicle dealer's, used powersports vehicle dealer's, or powersports vehicle salesperson's license under this part 5 shall be examined for their knowledge of the powersports vehicle laws of the state of Colorado and the rules promulgated pursuant to this part 5. If the applicant is a corporation, the managing officer shall take the examination, and, if the applicant is a partnership, all the general partners shall take such examination. No license shall be issued except upon successful passing of the examination. This section shall not apply to a motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, or motor vehicle salesperson licensed pursuant to part 1 of this article.

12-6-516. Filing of written warranties. A licensed powersports vehicle manufacturer shall file with the executive director all written warranties and changes in written warranties the manufacturer makes on powersports vehicle or parts thereof. A licensed powersports vehicle manufacturer shall file with the executive director a copy of the delivery and preparation obligations of a powersports vehicle manufacturer's dealer, and these warranties and obligations shall constitute the powersports vehicle dealer's only responsibility for product liability as between the powersports vehicle dealer and the powersports vehicle manufacturer. Any mechanical, body, or parts defects arising from express or implied warranties of the powersports vehicle manufacturer shall constitute the powersports vehicle manufacturer's product or warranty liability, and the powersports vehicle manufacturer shall reasonably compensate any authorized powersports vehicle dealer who performs work to rectify a powersports vehicle manufacturer's product or warranty defects.

12-6-517. Application - rules. (1) An application for a wholesaler's license, powersports vehicle dealer's license, used powersports vehicle dealer's license, or powersports vehicle salesperson's license shall be submitted to the board.

(2) An application for a powersports vehicle distributor, powersports vehicle manufacturer representative, or powersports vehicle manufacturer license shall be submitted to the executive director.

(3) Fees for licenses shall be paid at the time of the filing of application for license.

(4) Persons applying for a powersports vehicle dealer's license shall file with the board a certified copy of a certificate of appointment as a powersports vehicle dealer from a powersports vehicle manufacturer.

(5) A person applying for a powersports vehicle manufacturer's or distributor's license shall file with the executive director a certified copy of a typical written agreement with all powersports vehicle dealers, and also evidence of the appointment of an agent for process in the state of Colorado shall be included with the application.

(6) Persons applying for a wholesaler's, powersports vehicle dealer's, used powersports vehicle dealer's, or a powersports vehicle salesperson's license shall file with the board a written instrument in which the applicant shall appoint the secretary of the board as the agent of the applicant upon whom all process may be served in any action against the applicant arising out of a claim for damages suffered by a violation of this part 5, rules promulgated under this part 5, or any condition of the applicant's bond.

(7) (a) A person applying for a wholesaler's license or used powersports vehicle dealer's license shall file with the board a certification that the applicant has met the educational requirements for licensure under this subsection (7), unless the applicant is licensed as a motor vehicle dealer or a used motor vehicle dealer. This subsection (7) shall not apply to a person who has held a license, within the last three years, as a motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, wholesale motor vehicle auction dealer, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer under this part 5 or part 1 of this article.

(b) An applicant for a wholesaler's license or used powersports vehicle dealer's license shall not be licensed unless one of the following persons has completed an eight-hour prelicensing education program:

- (I) The managing officer if the applicant is a corporation or limited liability company;
- (II) All of the general partners if the applicant is any form of partnership; or
- (III) The owner or managing officer if the applicant is a sole proprietorship.

(c) The prelicensing education program shall include, without limitation, state and federal statutes and rules governing the sale of powersports vehicles.

(d) A prelicensing education program shall not fulfill the requirements of this section unless approved by the board. The board shall approve any program with a curriculum that reasonably covers the material required by this section within eight hours.

(e) The board may adopt rules establishing reasonable fees to be charged for the prelicensing education program.

(f) The board may adopt reasonable rules to implement this section, including, without limitation, rules that govern:

- (I) The content and subject matter of education;
- (II) The criteria, standards, and procedures for the approval of courses and course instructors;
- (III) The training facility requirements; and
- (IV) The methods of instruction.

(g) An approved prelicensing program provider shall issue a certificate to a person who successfully completes the approved prelicensing education program. The current certificate of completion, or a copy of the certificate, shall be posted conspicuously at the dealership's principal place of business.

(h) An approved prelicensing program provider shall submit a certificate to the executive director for each person who successfully completes the prelicensing education program. The certificate may be transmitted electronically.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (1) by Senate Bill 09-292 and House Bill 09-1026 were harmonized.

12-6-518. Notice of change of address or status. (1) The board, through the executive director, shall not issue a powersports vehicle dealer's license or used powersports vehicle dealer's license to an applicant who has no principal place of business.

If a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer changes the site or location of the dealer's principal place of business, the dealer shall immediately notify the board in writing, and thereupon, a new license shall be granted for the unexpired portion of the term of the existing license at a fee established pursuant to section 12-6-511. If a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer ceases to possess a principal place of business where the dealer conducts the business for which the dealer is licensed, the dealer shall immediately notify the board in writing and, upon demand by the board, shall deliver the dealer's license, which shall be held and retained until it appears to the board that the licensee possesses a principal place of business; whereupon, the dealer's license shall be reissued. Nothing in this part 5 shall be construed to prevent a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer from conducting the business for which the dealer is licensed at one or more sites or locations not contiguous to the dealer's principal place of business but operated and maintained in conjunction therewith.

(2) Should the powersports vehicle dealer change to a new line of powersports vehicles, add another franchise for the sale of new powersports vehicles, or cancel or otherwise lose a franchise for the sale of new powersports vehicles, the dealer shall immediately notify the board. If a franchise is canceled or lost, the board shall determine whether the dealer should be licensed as a used powersports vehicle dealer. If so, the board shall cancel and the powersports vehicle dealer shall deliver to it the dealer's license, and the board shall direct the executive director to issue to the dealer a used powersports vehicle dealer's license. Upon the cancellation or loss of a franchise to sell new powersports vehicles and the relicensing of the dealer as a used powersports vehicle dealer, the dealer may continue in the business for which a powersports vehicle dealer is licensed for a time, not exceeding six months after the relicensing of the dealer, to enable the dealer to dispose of the stock of new powersports vehicles on hand at the time of the relicensing, but not otherwise.

(3) If a powersports vehicle salesperson is discharged, leaves an employer, or changes a place of employment, the powersports vehicle dealer who last employed the salesperson shall confiscate and return the salesperson's license to the board. Upon being reemployed as a powersports vehicle salesperson, the powersports vehicle salesperson shall notify the board. Upon receiving the notification, the board shall issue a new license for the unexpired portion of the returned license after collecting a fee set pursuant to section 12-6-511 (5). It shall be unlawful for the salesperson to act as a powersports vehicle salesperson until a new license is procured.

(4) Upon a change of place of business or business address, a wholesaler shall immediately notify the board of the change.

12-6-519. Principal place of business - requirements. (1) The building or structure required to be located on a principal place of business shall have electrical service and adequate sanitary facilities.

(2) A room in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or a part of any single or multiple unit dwelling house shall not be used as a principal place of business unless the entire ground floor of the hotel, apartment house, or rooming house building or the dwelling house is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the office of the dealer is located on the ground floor thereof.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer from local zoning ordinances.

12-6-520. Licenses - grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation. (1) A powersports vehicle manufacturer's or distributor's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked on the following grounds:

(a) Material misstatement in an application for a license;

(b) Willful failure to comply with this part 5 or any rule promulgated by the executive director under this part 5;

(c) Engaging, in the past or present, in any illegal business practice.

(2) A powersports vehicle manufacturer representative's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked on the following grounds:

(a) Material misstatement in an application for a license;

(b) Willful failure to comply with this part 5 or any rules promulgated by the executive director under this part 5;

(c) Committing any unconscionable business practice under title 4, C.R.S.;

(d) Having coerced or attempted to coerce a powersports vehicle dealer to accept delivery of any powersports vehicle, parts or accessories therefore, or any other commodities or services that have not been ordered by the dealer;

(e) Having coerced or attempted to coerce a powersports vehicle dealer to enter into any agreement to do an act unfair to the dealer by threatening to cause the cancellation of the dealer's franchise;

(f) Having withheld, threatened to withhold, reduced, or delayed without just cause an order for powersports vehicles, parts or accessories therefore, or any other commodities or services that have been ordered by a powersports vehicle dealer; or

(g) Engaging, in the past or present, in any illegal business practice.

(3) A wholesaler's license, powersports vehicle dealer's license, or a used powersports vehicle dealer's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked on the following grounds:

(a) Material misstatement in an application for a license;

(b) Willful failure to comply with this part 5 or any rule promulgated by the executive director under this part 5;

(c) Having been convicted of or pled nolo contendere to any felony or crime pursuant to article 3, 4, or 5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any like crime pursuant to federal law or the law of another state. A certified copy of the judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction in a hearing held pursuant to this article.

(d) Defrauding any buyer, seller, powersports vehicle salesperson, or financial institution to the person's damage;

(e) Intentionally or negligently failing to perform any written agreement with any buyer or seller;

(f) Failing or refusing to furnish and keep in force a bond required under this part 5;

(g) Making a fraudulent or illegal sale, transaction, or repossession;

(h) Willfully misrepresenting, circumventing, concealing, or failing to disclose, through subterfuge or device, any of the material particulars or the nature thereof required to be stated or furnished to the buyer;

(i) Intentionally publishing or circulating advertising that is misleading or inaccurate in any material particular or that misrepresents a product sold or furnished by a licensed dealer;

(j) Knowingly purchasing, selling, or otherwise acquiring or disposing of a stolen powersports vehicle;

(k) Engaging in the business for which the dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining a principal place of business as required by this part 5 during reasonable business hours;

(l) Engaging in the business through employment of an unlicensed powersports vehicle salesperson;

(m) Willfully violating any state or federal law respecting commerce or powersports vehicles, or any lawful rule respecting commerce or powersports vehicles promulgated by any licensing or regulating authority pertaining to powersports vehicles, under circumstances in which the act constituting the violation directly and necessarily involves commerce or powersports vehicles;

(n) Representing or selling as a new and unused powersports vehicle any powersports vehicle that the dealer or salesperson knows is otherwise a used powersports vehicle;

(o) Committing a fraudulent insurance act pursuant to section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(p) Failing to give notice to a prospective buyer of the acceptance or rejection of a powersports vehicle purchase order agreement within a reasonable time period, as determined by the board, when the licensee is working with the prospective buyer on a finance sale or a consignment sale.

(3.5) A wholesaler's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked for the selling, leasing, or offering or attempting to negotiate the sale, lease, or exchange of an interest in motor vehicles to persons other than powersports vehicle dealers, used powersports vehicle dealers, or other wholesalers.

(4) The license of a powersports vehicle salesperson may be denied, revoked, or suspended on the following grounds:

- (a) Material misstatement in an application for a license;
- (b) Failure to comply with any provision of this part 5 or any rule promulgated by the board or executive director under this part 5;
- (c) Engaging in the business for which the licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a good and sufficient bond with corporate surety as provided in this part 5;
- (d) Intentionally publishing or circulating an advertisement that is misleading or inaccurate in any material particular or that misrepresents a powersports vehicle product sold or attempted to be sold by the salesperson;
- (e) Having indulged in any fraudulent business practice;
- (f) Selling, offering, or attempting to negotiate the sale, exchange, or lease of powersports vehicles for a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer for which the salesperson is not licensed; except that negotiation with a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer for the sale, exchange, or lease of new and used powersports vehicles, by a salesperson compensated for the negotiation by a powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer for which the salesperson is licensed shall not be grounds for denial, revocation, or suspension;
- (g) Representing oneself as a salesperson for a powersports vehicle dealer when the salesperson is not so employed and licensed;
- (h) Having been convicted of or pled nolo contendere to any felony or any crime pursuant to article 3, 4, or 5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any like crime pursuant to federal law or the law of another state. A certified copy of the judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction in a hearing held pursuant to this article.
- (i) Having knowingly purchased, sold, or otherwise acquired or disposed of a stolen powersports vehicle;
- (j) Employing an unlicensed powersports vehicle salesperson;
- (k) Defrauding any retail buyer to the person's damage;
- (l) Representing or selling as a new and unused powersports vehicle a powersports vehicle that the salesperson knows is otherwise a used powersports vehicle;
- (m) Willfully violating any state or federal law respecting commerce or powersports vehicles, or any lawful rule respecting commerce or powersports vehicles promulgated by any licensing or regulating authority pertaining to powersports vehicles, under circumstances in which the act constituting the violation directly and necessarily involves commerce or powersports vehicles;

(n) Improperly withholding, misappropriating, or converting to the salesperson's own use any money belonging to customers or other persons received in the course of employment as a powersports vehicle salesperson.

(5) A license issued pursuant to this part 5 may be denied, revoked, or suspended if unfitness of the licensee or licensee applicant is shown in the following:

- (a) The licensing character or record of the licensee or licensee applicant;
 - (b) The criminal character or record of the licensee or licensee applicant;
 - (c) The financial character or record of the licensee or licensee applicant;
 - (d) A violation of any lawful order of the board.
- (6) (a) A license issued or applied for pursuant to this part 5 shall be revoked or denied if the licensee or applicant has been convicted of or pleaded no contest to any of the following offenses in this state or another jurisdiction during the previous ten years:

(I) A felony in violation of article 3, 4, or 5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any similar crime under federal law or the law of another state; or

(II) A crime involving salvage fraud or the defrauding of a retail consumer in a powersports vehicle sale or lease transaction.

(b) A certified copy of a judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction of an offense under subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) is conclusive evidence of the conviction in any hearing held pursuant to this article.

12-6-521. Procedure for denial, suspension, or revocation of license - judicial review. (1) The denial, suspension, or revocation of licenses issued under this part 5 shall be in accordance with the provisions of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.; except that the discovery available under rule 26 (b) (2) of the Colorado rules of civil procedure is available in any proceeding.

(2) The board shall appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct any hearing concerning the licensing or discipline of a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, used powersports vehicle dealer, powersports vehicle manufacturer, powersports vehicle manufacturer representative, or powersports vehicle distributor; except that the board may, upon a unanimous vote of the members present when the vote is taken, conduct the hearing in lieu of appointing an administrative law judge.

(3) (a) The board shall assign a hearing concerning the licensing or discipline of a powersports vehicle salesperson to the executive director, who shall appoint an officer to conduct a hearing.

(b) Hearings conducted before an administrative law judge shall be in accordance with the rules of procedure of the office of administrative courts. Hearings conducted before an officer appointed by the executive director shall be in accordance with the rules of procedure established by the executive director.

(4) The board may summarily suspend a licensee required to post a bond under this article if such licensee does not have a bond in full force and effect as required by this article. The suspension shall become effective upon the earlier of the licensee receiving notice of the suspension or within three days after the notice of suspension is mailed to a licensee's last-known address on file with the board. The notice may be effected by certified mail or personal delivery.

(5) The court of appeals shall have initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the board. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

12-6-522. Sales activity following license denial, suspension, or revocation - unlawful act - penalty. (1) (a) It shall be unlawful and a violation of this part 5 for any person whose wholesaler's, powersports vehicle dealer's, used powersports vehicle dealer's, or powersports vehicle salesperson's license has been denied, suspended, or revoked to exercise the privileges of the license that was denied, suspended, or revoked.

(b) A violation of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be punishable in accordance with section 12-6-527; except that a second or subsequent violation of said paragraph (a) shall be a class 6 felony.

(c) In any trial for a violation of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1):

(I) A duly authenticated copy of the board's order of denial, suspension, or revocation shall constitute prima facie evidence of the denial, suspension, or revocation;

(II) A duly authenticated invoice, buyer's order, or other customary, written sales or purchase document or instrument proven to be signed by the defendant and indicating the defendant's role in the purchase or sale of a powersports vehicle at a retail or wholesale powersports vehicle sales location shall constitute prima facie evidence of the defendant's exercise of a privilege of licensure;

(III) It shall be an affirmative defense that the defendant bought or sold a powersports vehicle that was, at all relevant times, intended for the defendant's own use and not bought or sold for the purpose of profit or gain; and

(IV) The fact that the defendant has a powersports vehicle dealer's, used powersports vehicle dealer's, or powersports vehicle salesperson's license, or another license to buy and sell powersports vehicles, that is issued by a state or jurisdiction other than Colorado, shall not constitute a defense.

(2) Upon the defendant's conviction by entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or judgment or verdict of guilt in connection with a violation of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section or of section 12-6-523 (2) or 42-6-142 (1), C.R.S., the court shall immediately give the executive director written notice of the conviction. In addition, the court shall forward to the executive director copies of documentation of any conviction on a lesser included offense and any amended charge, plea bargain, deferred prosecution, deferred sentence, or deferred judgment in connection with the original charge.

(3) Upon receiving notice of a conviction or other disposition pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the executive director or his or her designee shall forward the notice to the motor vehicle dealer board, which shall immediately examine its files to determine whether the defendant's license was denied, suspended, or revoked at the time of the offense. If in fact the defendant's license was denied, suspended, or revoked at the time of the offense, the board shall:

(a) Not issue or reinstate any license to the defendant until one year after the time the defendant would otherwise have been eligible to receive a new or reinstated license; and

(b) Revoke or suspend any other licenses held by the defendant until at least one year after the date of the conviction or other disposition.

12-6-523. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful and a violation of this part 5 for any powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative:

(a) To willfully fail to cause to not be performed any written warranties made with respect to a powersports vehicle or parts thereof;

(b) To coerce or attempt to coerce any powersports vehicle dealer to perform or allow to be performed an act that could be financially detrimental to the dealer or that would impair the dealer's goodwill or to enter into an agreement with a powersports vehicle manufacturer or distributor that would be financially detrimental to the dealer or impair the dealer's goodwill, by threatening to cancel or not renew a franchise between a powersports vehicle manufacturer or distributor and the dealer;

(c) To coerce or attempt to coerce any powersports vehicle dealer to accept delivery of a powersports vehicle, parts or accessories thereof, or any commodities or services that have not been ordered by the dealer;

(d) (I) To cancel or cause to be canceled, directly or indirectly, without just cause, the franchise of a powersports vehicle dealer, and the nonrenewal of a franchise or selling agreement without just cause is a violation of this paragraph (d) and shall constitute an unfair cancellation.

(II) As used in this paragraph (d), "just cause" shall be determined in the context of all circumstances surrounding the cancellation or nonrenewal, including but not limited to:

(A) The amount of business transacted by the powersports vehicle dealer;

(B) The investments necessarily made and obligations incurred by the powersports vehicle dealer, including but not limited to goodwill, in the performance of its duties under the franchise agreement, together with the duration and permanency of the investments and obligations;

(C) The potential for harm to consumers as a result of disruption of the business of the powersports vehicle dealer;

(D) The powersports vehicle dealer's failure to provide adequate service of facilities, equipment, parts, and qualified service personnel;

(E) The powersports vehicle dealer's failure to perform warranty work on behalf of the powersports vehicle manufacturer, subject to reimbursement by the powersports vehicle manufacturer; and

(F) The powersports vehicle dealer's failure to substantially comply, in good faith, with requirements of the franchise that are determined to be reasonable and material.

(III) The following conduct by a powersports vehicle dealer shall constitute just cause for termination without consideration of other factors:

(A) Conviction of, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony;

(B) A continuing pattern of fraudulent conduct against the powersports vehicle manufacturer or consumers; or

(C) Continuing failure to operate for ten days or longer.

(e) To withhold, reduce, or delay unreasonably or without just cause delivery of powersports vehicles, powersports vehicle parts and accessories, commodities, or moneys due powersports vehicle dealers for warranty work done by any powersports vehicle dealer;

(f) To withhold, reduce, or delay unreasonably or without just cause services contracted for by powersports vehicle dealers;

(g) To coerce any powersports vehicle dealer to provide installment financing with a specified financial institution;

(h) To violate any duty imposed by, or fail to comply with, any provision of section 12-6-524, 12-6-525, or 12-6-526;

(i) (I) To fail to provide to the powersports vehicle dealer, within twenty days after receipt of a notice of intent from a powersports vehicle dealer, the list of documents and information necessary to approve the sale or transfer of the ownership of a dealership by sale of the business or by stock transfer or the change in executive management of the dealership;

(II) To fail to confirm within twenty days after receipt of all documents and information listed in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (i) that such documentation and information has been received;

(III) To refuse to approve, unreasonably, the sale or transfer of the ownership of a dealership by sale of the business or by stock transfer within sixty days after the manufacturer has received all documents and information necessary to approve the sale or transfer of ownership, or to refuse to approve, unreasonably, the change in executive management of the dealership within sixty days after the manufacturer has received all information necessary to approve the change in management; except that nothing in this part 5 shall authorize the sale, transfer, or assignment of a franchise or a change of the principal operator without the approval of the powersports vehicle manufacturer or distributor unless the manufacturer or distributor fails to send notice of the disapproval within sixty days after receiving all documents and information necessary to approve the sale or transfer of ownership; or

(IV) To condition the sale, transfer, relocation, or renewal of a franchise agreement or to condition sales, services, parts, or finance incentives upon site control or an agreement to renovate or make improvements to a facility; except that voluntary acceptance of such conditions by the dealer shall not constitute a violation;

(j) (I) To fail or refuse to offer to its same line-make franchised dealers all models manufactured for that line-make except as a result of a strike or labor difficulty, lack of manufacturing capacity, shortage of materials, freight embargo, or other cause over which the powersports vehicle manufacturer has no control; or

(II) To require a dealer to pay an unreasonable fee, purchase unreasonable advertising displays or other materials, or comply with unreasonable training or facilities requirements as a prerequisite to receiving any particular model of that same line-make, which shall be judged based on the circumstances of the individual dealer and the conditions of the market served by the dealer;

(k) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce any powersports vehicle dealer to refrain from participation in the management of, investment in, or acquisition of another line-make of new powersports vehicles or related products; except that this paragraph (k) shall not apply unless the powersports vehicle dealer:

(I) Maintains a reasonable line of credit for each make or line of new powersports vehicle;

(II) Remains in compliance with reasonable capital standards and reasonable facilities requirements specified by the powersports vehicle manufacturer; but "reasonable facilities requirements" shall not include a requirement that a powersports vehicle dealer establish or maintain exclusive facilities, personnel, or display space; and

(III) Provides written notice to the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer's representative, no less than ninety days prior to the dealer's intent to participate in the management of, investment in, or acquisition of another line-make of new powersports vehicles or related products;

(l) To fail to pay to a powersports vehicle dealer, within ninety days after the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise, all of the following:

(I) The dealer cost, plus any charges made by the powersports vehicle manufacturer for distribution, delivery, and taxes, less all allowances paid or credited to the powersports vehicle dealer by the powersports vehicle manufacturer, of unused, undamaged, and unsold powersports vehicles in the powersports vehicle dealer's inventory that were acquired from the powersports vehicle manufacturer or from another powersports vehicle dealer of the same line-make in the ordinary course of business within the previous twelve months;

(II) The dealer cost, less all allowances paid or credited to the powersports vehicle dealer by the powersports vehicle manufacturer, for all unused, undamaged, and unsold supplies, parts, and accessories in original packaging and listed in the powersports vehicle manufacturer's current parts catalog;

(III) The fair market value of each undamaged sign owned by the powersports vehicle dealer and bearing a common name, trade name, or trademark of the powersports vehicle manufacturer if acquisition of the sign was required by the powersports vehicle manufacturer;

(IV) The fair market value of all special tools and equipment that were acquired from the powersports vehicle manufacturer or from sources approved and required by the powersports vehicle manufacturer and that are in good and usable condition, excluding normal wear and tear; and

(V) The cost of transporting, handling, packing, and loading the powersports vehicles, supplies, parts, accessories, signs, special tools, equipment, and furnishings described in this paragraph (l).

(m) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce a powersports vehicle dealer to close or change the location of the powersports vehicle dealer, or to make any substantial alterations to the dealer premises or facilities when doing so would be unreasonable or without written assurance of a sufficient supply of powersports vehicles so as to justify the changes, in light of the current market and economic conditions;

(n) To authorize or permit a person to perform warranty service repairs on powersports vehicles unless the person is:

(I) A powersports vehicle dealer with whom the powersports vehicle manufacturer has entered into a franchise agreement for the sale and service of the manufacturer's powersports vehicles; or

(II) A person or government entity that has purchased new powersports vehicles pursuant to a powersports vehicle manufacturer's fleet discount program and is performing the warranty service repairs only on vehicles owned by the person or entity;

(o) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce a powersports vehicle dealer to prospectively agree to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel that would relieve any person of a duty or liability imposed under this article except in settlement of a bona fide dispute;

(p) To discriminate between or refuse to offer to its same line-make franchised dealers all models manufactured for that line-make based upon unreasonable sales and service standards;

(q) To fail to make practically available an incentive, rebate, bonus, or other similar benefit to a powersports vehicle dealer that is offered to another powersports vehicle dealer of the same line-make within this state;

(r) To fail to pay to a powersports vehicle dealer:

(I) Within ninety days after the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise for the failure of a dealer to meet performance sales and service obligations or after the termination, elimination, or cessation of a line-make, the cost of the lease for the facilities used for the franchise or line-make for the unexpired term of the lease, not to exceed one year; except that:

(A) If the powersports vehicle dealer owns the facilities, the value of renting such facilities for one year, prorated for each line-make based upon total sales volume for the previous twelve months before the involuntary termination;

(B) Nothing in this subparagraph (I) shall be construed to limit the application of paragraph (d) of this subsection (1);

(II) Within ninety days after the termination, elimination, or cessation of a line-make or the termination of a franchise due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor, the fair market value of the powersports vehicle dealer's goodwill for the line-make as of the date the manufacturer or distributor announces the action that results in the termination, elimination, or cessation, not including any amounts paid under subparagraphs (I) to (V) of paragraph (I) of this subsection (1);

(s) To condition a franchise agreement on improvements to a facility unless reasonably required by the technology of a powersports vehicle being sold at the facility;

(t) To charge back, deny powersports vehicle allocation, withhold payments, or take other actions against a powersports vehicle dealer if a powersports vehicle sold by the powersports vehicle dealer is exported from Colorado unless the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative proves that the powersports vehicle dealer knew or reasonably should have known a powersports vehicle was intended to be exported, which shall operate as a rebuttable presumption that the powersports vehicle dealer did not have such knowledge;

(u) Within ninety days after the termination, elimination, or cessation of a line-make or the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, for any reason other than that the powersports vehicle dealer commits fraud, makes a misrepresentation, or commits any other crime within the scope of the franchise agreement or in the operation of the dealership, to fail to reimburse a powersports vehicle dealer for the cost depreciated by five percent per year of any upgrades or alterations to the powersports vehicle dealer's facilities required by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative within the previous five years;

(v) To fail to notify a powersports vehicle dealer at least ninety days before the following and to provide the specific reasons for the following:

(I) Directly or indirectly terminating, cancelling, or not renewing a franchise agreement; or

(w) To require, coerce, or attempt to coerce a powersports dealer to substantially alter a facility or premises if the facility or premises has been altered within the last seven years at a cost of more than twenty-five thousand dollars, and the alteration was required and approved by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative; except that this paragraph (w) does not apply to improvements made to comply with health or safety laws or to accommodate the technology requirements necessary to sell or service a line-make.

(2) It is unlawful for a person to act as a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, used powersports vehicle dealer, powersports vehicle manufacturer, powersports vehicle distributor, powersports vehicle manufacturer representative, or powersports vehicle salesperson unless the person has been duly licensed under the provisions of this part 5.

12-6-524. New, reopened, or relocated dealer - notice required - grounds for refusal of dealer license - definitions - rules. (1) No powersports vehicle manufacturer or distributor shall establish an additional new powersports vehicle dealer, reopen a previously existing powersports vehicle dealer, or relocate an existing powersports vehicle dealer without first providing at least sixty days' notice to all of its franchised dealers and former dealers whose franchises were terminated, cancelled, or not renewed by a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative in the previous five years due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor within whose relevant market area the new, reopened, or relocated dealer would be located. The notice shall state:

(a) The specific location at which the additional, reopened, or relocated powersports vehicle dealer will be established;

(b) The date on or after which the powersports vehicle manufacturer intends to be engaged in business with the additional, reopened, or relocated powersports vehicle dealer at the proposed location;

(c) The identity of all powersports vehicle dealers who are franchised to sell the same line-make of vehicles with licensed locations in the relevant market area where the additional, reopened, or relocated powersports vehicle dealer is proposed to be located; and

(d) The names and addresses of the dealer and principal investors in the proposed additional, reopened, or relocated powersports vehicle dealer.

(1.5) A powersports vehicle manufacturer shall reasonably approve or disapprove of a powersports vehicle dealer facility initial site location or relocation request within sixty days after the request or after sending the notice required by subsection (1) of this section to all of its franchised powersports vehicle dealers and former dealers whose franchises were terminated, cancelled, or not renewed in the previous five years due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor, whichever is later, but not to exceed one hundred days.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to:

(a) The relocation of an existing dealer within two miles of its current location; or

(b) The establishment of a replacement dealer, within two years, either at the former location or within two miles of the former location.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Powersports manufacturer" means a powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

(b) "Relevant market area" means the greater of the following:

(I) The geographic area of responsibility defined in the franchise agreement of an existing dealer; or

(II) The geographic area within a radius of five miles of any existing dealer of the same line-make of powersports vehicle that is located in a county with a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand or within a radius of ten miles of an existing dealer of the same line-make of vehicles that is located in a county with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less.

(c) "Right of first refusal area" means a five-mile radius extending from the location of where a powersports vehicle dealer had a franchise terminated, cancelled, or not renewed if the franchise was in a county with a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand or a ten-mile radius if the franchise was in a county with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less.

(4) (a) If a licensee or former licensee whose franchise was terminated, cancelled, or not renewed by the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative in the previous five years due to the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor brings an action or proceeding before the executive director or a court pursuant to this part 5, the powersports vehicle manufacturer shall have the burden of proof on the following issues:

(I) The size and permanency of investment and obligations incurred by the existing powersports vehicle dealers of the same line-make located in the relevant market area;

(II) Growth or decline in population in the relevant market area;

(III) The effect on the consuming public in the relevant market area and whether the opening of the proposed additional, reopened, or relocated dealer is injurious or beneficial to the public welfare; and

(IV) Whether the powersports vehicle dealers of the same line-make in the relevant market area are providing adequate and convenient customer care for powersports vehicles of the same line-make in the relevant market area, including but not limited to the adequacy of sales and service facilities, equipment, parts, and qualified service personnel.

(b) (I) In addition to the powers specified in section 12-6-505, the executive director has jurisdiction to resolve actions or proceedings brought before the executive director pursuant to this part 5 that allege a violation of this part 5 or rules promulgated pursuant to this part 5. The executive director may promulgate rules to facilitate the administration of the actions or proceedings, including provisions specifying procedures for the executive director or the executive director's designee to:

(A) Conduct an investigation pursuant to section 12-6-505 (1) (e) and (1) (f) of an alleged violation of this part 5 or rules promulgated pursuant to this part 5, including issuance of a notice of violation;

(B) Hold a hearing regarding the alleged violation to be held pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.;

(C) Issue an order, including a cease-and-desist order issued pursuant to section 12-6-505 (1) (h), to resolve the notice of violation; and

(D) Impose a fine pursuant to section 12-6-505 (1) (h) (III).

(II) The court of appeals has initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the executive director made pursuant to this subsection (4). The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(5) (a) No manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative shall offer or award a person a franchise or permit the relocation of an existing franchise to the relevant right of first refusal area unless the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has complied with paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) or unless paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) does not apply.

(b) If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or the predecessor thereof, has terminated, cancelled, or not renewed a powersports vehicle dealer's franchise for a line-make within the relevant right of first refusal area on account of the insolvency of the manufacturer or distributor that was held by the powersports vehicle dealer immediately prior to the franchise being terminated, cancelled, or not renewed within the amount of time the right of first refusal is granted under paragraph (c) of this subsection (5), the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or the successor thereof, shall offer the former powersports vehicle dealer whose franchise was terminated, cancelled, or not renewed a franchise within the same first refusal area prior to making the offer to any other person for the same line-make unless the former powersports vehicle dealer elects to receive the payments required by section 12-6-523 (1) (l) and (1) (r) in lieu of the right of first refusal or the powersports vehicle dealer has accepted compensation from the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise agreement.

(c) The duration of the right of first refusal granted in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) is equal to five years after the franchise is terminated, cancelled, or not renewed.

(d) If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or the predecessor thereof, has made any payment to the powersports vehicle dealer in consideration for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise agreement and the powersports vehicle dealer obtains a new franchise agreement through this subsection (5), the powersports vehicle dealer shall reimburse the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative for such payments. The powersports vehicle dealer may reimburse the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative with a commercially reasonable repayment installment plan.

(e) The right of first refusal survives a court voiding the payments required by section 12-6-523 (1) (l) and (1) (r).

(f) (I) The right of first refusal survives a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or predecessor thereof, awarding a franchise within the same right of first refusal area for the same line-make to a person or entity other than the former powersports vehicle dealer whose franchise was terminated, cancelled, or not renewed.

(II) If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or predecessor thereof, has awarded the franchise to another powersports vehicle dealer in the same right of first refusal area without granting the right of first refusal under this section, the former powersports vehicle dealer may elect to either receive a franchise agreement in the same area or the payments required by section 12-6-523 (1) (l) and (1) (r) from the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative unless the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative, or predecessor thereof, has paid compensation in consideration of the initial termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise agreement.

12-6-525. Independent control of dealer - definitions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no powersports vehicle manufacturer shall own, operate, or control any powersports vehicle dealer or used powersports vehicle dealer in Colorado.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the following activities are not prohibited:

(a) Operation of a powersports vehicle dealer for a temporary period, not to exceed twelve months, during the transition from one owner or operator to another independent owner or operator; except that the executive director may extend the period, not to exceed twenty-four months, upon a showing by the manufacturer or distributor of the need to operate the dealership for such time to achieve a transition from an owner or operator to another independent third-party owner or operator;

(b) Ownership or control of a powersports vehicle dealer while the dealer is being sold under a bona fide contract or purchase option to the operator of the dealer;

(c) Participation in the ownership of the powersports vehicle dealer solely for the purpose of providing financing or a capital loan that will enable the dealer to become the majority owner of the dealer in less than seven years; and

(d) Operation of a powersports vehicle dealer if the powersports vehicle manufacturer has no other franchised dealers of the same line-make in this state.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Control" means to possess, directly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise; except that "control" does not include the relationship between a powersports vehicle manufacturer and a powersports vehicle dealer under a franchise agreement.

(c) "Own" means to hold any beneficial ownership interest of one percent or more class of equity interest in a powersports vehicle dealer, whether as a shareholder, partner, limited liability company member, or otherwise. To "hold" an ownership interest means to have possession of, title to, or control of the ownership interest, either directly or through a fiduciary or agent.

(d) "Powersports vehicle manufacturer" means a powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

12-6-526. Successor under existing franchise agreement - duties of powersports vehicle manufacturer. (1) If a licensed powersports vehicle dealer under franchise by a powersports vehicle manufacturer dies or becomes incapacitated, the powersports vehicle manufacturer shall act in good faith to allow a successor, which may include a family member, designated by the deceased or incapacitated powersports vehicle dealer to succeed to ownership and operation of the dealer under the existing franchise agreement if:

(a) Within ninety days after the powersports vehicle dealer's death or incapacity, the designated successor gives the powersports vehicle manufacturer written notice of an intent to succeed to the rights of the deceased or incapacitated powersports vehicle dealer in the franchise agreement;

(b) The designated successor agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of the existing franchise agreement; and

(c) The designated successor meets the criteria generally applied by the powersports vehicle manufacturer in qualifying powersports vehicle dealers.

(2) A powersports vehicle manufacturer may refuse to honor the existing franchise agreement with the designated successor only for good cause. The powersports vehicle manufacturer may request in writing from a designated successor the personal and financial data that is reasonably necessary to determine whether the existing franchise agreement should be honored, and the designated successor shall supply the data promptly upon request.

(3) (a) If a powersports vehicle manufacturer believes that good cause exists for refusing to honor the requested succession, the powersports vehicle manufacturer shall send the designated successor, by certified or overnight mail, notice of its refusal to approve the succession within sixty days after the later of:

(I) Receipt of the notice of the designated successor's intent to succeed the powersports vehicle dealer in the ownership and operation of the dealer; or

(b) Failure to serve the notice pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall be considered approval of the designated successor, and the franchise agreement is considered amended to reflect the approval of the succession the day following the last day of the notice period specified in said paragraph (a).

(c) If the powersports vehicle manufacturer gives notice of refusal to approve the succession, the notice shall state the specific grounds for the refusal and shall state that the franchise agreement shall be discontinued not less than ninety days after the date the notice of refusal is served unless the proposed successor files an action in the district court to enjoin the action.

(4) This section shall not be construed to prohibit a powersports vehicle dealer from designating a person as the successor in advance, by written instrument filed with the powersports vehicle manufacturer. If the powersports vehicle dealer files the instrument, that instrument governs the succession rights to the management and operation of the dealer subject to the designated successor satisfying the powersports vehicle manufacturer's qualification requirements as described in this section.

12-6-526.5. Audit reimbursement limitations - dealer claims. (1) (a) A manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative shall have the right to audit warranty, sales, or incentive claims of a powersports vehicle dealer for nine months after the date the claim was submitted.

(b) A manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative shall not require documentation for warranty, sales, or incentive claims or audit warranty, sales, or incentive claims of a powersports vehicle dealer more than fifteen months after the date the claim was submitted, nor shall the manufacturer require a charge back, reimbursement, or credit against a future transaction arising out of an audit or request for documentation arising more than nine months after the date the claim was submitted.

(2) The powersports vehicle dealer shall have nine months after making a sale or providing service to submit warranty, sales, or incentive claims to the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section shall not limit any action for fraud instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) A powersports vehicle dealer may request a determination from the executive director, within thirty days, that a charge back, reimbursement, or credit required violates subsection (1) of this section. If a determination is requested within the thirty-day period, then the charge back, reimbursement, or credit shall be stayed pending the decision of the executive director. If the executive director determines after a hearing that the charge back, reimbursement, or credit violates subsection (1) of this section, the charge back, reimbursement, or credit shall be void.

12-6-526.7. Reimbursement for disapproving sale. A manufacturer or distributor shall pay reasonable attorney fees, not to exceed the usual and customary fees charged for the transfer of a franchise, and reasonable expenses that are incurred by the proposed owner or transferee before the manufacturer or distributor exercised its right of first refusal in negotiating and implementing the contract for the proposed change of ownership or the transfer of assets. Payment of attorney fees and expenses is not required if the claimant has failed to submit an accounting of attorney fees and expenses within twenty days after the receipt of the manufacturer's or dealer's written request for an accounting. An expense accounting may be requested by the manufacturer or distributor before exercising its right of first refusal.

12-6-529. Drafts or checks not honored for payment - penalties. (1) If a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer issues a draft or check to a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer and fails to honor the draft or check, then the license of the licensee shall be subject to suspension pursuant to section 12-6-520. The license suspension shall be effective upon the date of a final decision against the licensee. A licensee whose license has been suspended pursuant to this subsection (1) shall not be eligible for reinstatement of the license and shall not be eligible to apply for another license issued under this part 5 unless it is demonstrated to the board that the unpaid draft or check has been paid in full and that any fine imposed on the licensee pursuant to subsection (2) of this section has been paid in full.

(2) A wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer that issues a draft or check to a wholesaler, powersports vehicle dealer, or used powersports vehicle dealer and who fails to honor the draft or check, causing loss to a third party, commits a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars. Any fine collected for a violation of this subsection (2) shall be awarded to the law enforcement agency that investigated and issued the citation for the violation.

12-6-530. Right of action for loss. (1) A person shall have a right of action against the dealer, the dealer's salespersons, and the sureties upon their respective bonds if the person suffers loss or damage by reason of fraud practiced on the person or fraudulent representation made to the person by a licensed powersports vehicle dealer or a licensed used powersports vehicle dealer, or one of the dealer's salespersons acting on the dealer's behalf or within the scope of the employment, or suffers loss or damage by reason of the violation by the dealer or salesperson of any of the provisions of this part 5 that are designated by the board by rule, whether or not the violation is the basis for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license. The right of a person to recover for loss or damage as provided in this subsection (1) against the dealer or salesperson shall not be limited to the amount of their respective bonds.

(2) If a person suffers any loss or damage by reason of any unlawful act under section 12-6-523 (1) (a), the person shall have a right of action against the powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative. In a court action wherein a powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has been found liable in damages to any person under this part 5, the amount of damages so determined shall be trebled and shall be recoverable by the person so damaged. Any person so damaged shall also be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees.

(3) If a licensee suffers loss or damage by reason of an unlawful act under section 12-6-523 (1), the licensee shall have a right of action against the powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative. In a court action wherein a powersports vehicle manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has been found liable in damages to a licensee under this part 5, the licensee so damaged shall also be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees.

12-6-531. Contract disputes - venue - choice of law. (1) In the event of a dispute between a powersports vehicle dealer and a powersports vehicle manufacturer under a franchise agreement, notwithstanding any provision of the agreement to the contrary:

(a) At the option of the powersports vehicle dealer, venue shall be proper in the county or judicial district where the dealer resides or has its principal place of business; and

12-6-534. Payout exemption to execution. A powersports vehicle dealer's right to receive payments from a manufacturer or distributor required by section 12-6-523 (1) (l) and (1) (r) is not liable to attachment or execution and may not otherwise be seized, taken, appropriated, or applied in a legal or equitable process or by operation of law to pay the debts or liabilities of the manufacturer or distributor. This section shall not prohibit a secured creditor from exercising rights accrued pursuant to a security agreement if the right arose as a result of the manufacturer or distributor voluntarily creating a security interest before paying existing debts or liabilities of the manufacturer or distributor. This section shall not prohibit a manufacturer or distributor from withholding a portion of the payments necessary to cover an amount of money owed to the manufacturer or distributor as an offset to the payments if the manufacturer or distributor provides the motor vehicle dealer written notice thereof.

12-6-535. Site control extinguishes. If a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has terminated, eliminated, or not renewed a franchise agreement containing a site control provision, the powersports vehicle dealer may void a site control provision of a franchise agreement by returning any money the dealer has accepted in exchange for site control prorated by the time remaining before the agreement expires over the time period between the agreement being signed and the agreement expiring. This section does not apply if the termination, elimination, or nonrenewal is for just cause in accordance with section 12-6-523 (1) (d).

12-6-537. Termination appeal. A powersports vehicle dealer who has reason to believe that a manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer representative has violated section 12-6-523 (1) (d) or (1) (v) may appeal to the board by filing a complaint with the executive director. Upon receiving the complaint and upon a showing of specific facts that a violation has occurred, the executive director shall summarily issue a cease-and-desist order under section 12-6-105 (1) (h) staying the termination, elimination, modification, or nonrenewal of the franchise agreement. The cease-and-desist order remains in effect until the hearing required by section 12-6-105 (1) (h) is held. If a determination is made at the hearing required by section 12-6-105 (1) (h) that a violation occurred, the executive director shall make the cease-and-desist order permanent and take any actions authorized by section 12-6-504 (1). A motor vehicle dealer who appeals to the executive director maintains all rights under the franchise agreement until the later of the executive director issuing a decision or ninety days after the manufacturer, distributor, or manufacturer's representative provides the notice of termination unless the executive director finds that the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal was for fraud, a misrepresentation, or committing a crime within the scope of the franchise agreement or in the operation of the dealership, in which case the franchise rights terminate immediately.

ANNOTATION

Constitutional regulation. That barber and beauty shops or schools and the public practice of barbering and cosmetology can constitutionally be regulated by the state is not questioned. People v. Taylor, 189 Colo. 202, 540 P.2d 320 (1975).

- 12-8-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
- (1) “Barber” means a person who engages in any of the practices of barbering.
 - (2) “Barbering” means any one or combination of the following practices when done upon the upper part of the human body for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental ailments and when done for payment either directly or indirectly or when done without payment for the public generally: Shaving or trimming the beard; cutting the hair; giving facial or scalp massage or treatment with oils, creams, or lotions, or other chemical preparations, either by hand or with mechanical appliances; dyeing the hair or applying hair tonic; applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, or lotions to the scalp, face, neck, or shoulders.
 - (3) “Barber school” means an establishment operated by a person for the purpose of teaching barbering that is certified by the private occupational school division or the Colorado community college system, or is an accredited technical school that teaches barbering.
 - (4) “Barbershop” or “beauty salon” means a fixed establishment, temporary location, or place in which one or more persons engage in the practice of barbering or cosmetology. The term “temporary location” includes a motor home as defined in section 42-1-102 (57), C.R.S.
 - (5) “Beauty school” means an establishment operated by a person for the purpose of teaching cosmetologists, estheticians, and manicurists that is certified by the private occupational school division or the Colorado community college system, or is an accredited technical school that teaches cosmetology.

- (6) Repealed.
- (7) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2005, p. 560, § 2, effective July 1, 2005.)
- (8) "Cosmetologist" means a person who engages in any of the practices of cosmetology.
- (9) "Cosmetology" means any one act or practice, or any combination of acts or practices, when done for payment either directly or indirectly or when done without payment for the public generally, usually performed by and included in or known as the profession of beauty culturists, beauty operators, beauticians, estheticians, cosmetologists, or hairdressers or of any other person, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity holding itself out as practicing cosmetology by whatever designation and within the meaning of this article. In particular, "cosmetology" includes, but is not limited to, any one or a combination of the following acts or practices: Arranging, dressing, curling, waving, cleansing, cutting, singeing, bleaching, coloring, or similar work upon the hair of any person by any means and, with hands or mechanical or electrical apparatus or appliances or by the use of cosmetic or chemical preparations, manicuring or pedicuring the nails of any person; giving facials, applying makeup, giving skin care, or applying eyelashes involving physical contact with any person; beautifying the face, neck, arms, bust, or torso of the human body by use of cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, tonics, lotions, or creams; massaging, cleaning, or stimulating the face, neck, arms, bust, or torso of the human body with the use of antiseptics, tonics, lotions, or creams; removing superfluous hair from the body of any person by the use of depilatories or waxing or by the use of tweezers; and the trimming of the beard.
- (9.3) "Director" means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.
- (9.4) "Esthetician" means any person who engages in any one or more of the following practices:
 - (a) Giving facials, applying makeup, giving skin care, or applying eyelashes, involving physical contact, to any person;
 - (b) Beautifying the face, neck, arms, bust, or torso of the human body by the use of cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, tonics, lotions, or creams;
 - (c) Massaging, cleaning, or stimulating the face, neck, arms, bust, or torso of the human body by means of the hands, devices, apparatus, or appliances with the use of cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, tonics, lotions, or creams;
 - (d) Removing superfluous hair from the body of any person by the use of depilatories or waxing or by the use of tweezers.
- (9.5) "Free lance shop operator" means an individual who engages in barbering, hairstyling, or cosmetology or practices as an esthetician or manicurist at locations other than fixed or mobile barbershops or beauty shops.
- (9.7) "Hairstyling" means providing one or more of the following hair care services upon the upper part of the human body for cosmetic purposes for payment either directly or indirectly, or when done without payment for the public generally:
 - (a) Cleansing, massaging, or stimulating the scalp with oils, creams, lotions, or other cosmetic or chemical preparations, using the hands or with manual, mechanical, or electrical implements or appliances;
 - (b) Applying cosmetic or chemical preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, or lotions to the scalp;
 - (c) Cutting, arranging, braiding, applying hair extensions to, or styling the hair by any means using the hands or with manual, mechanical, or electrical implements or appliances;
 - (d) Cleansing, coloring, lightening, waving, or straightening the hair with cosmetic or chemical preparations, using manual, mechanical, or electrical implements or appliances;
 - (e) Trimming the beard.
- (9.8) "Hairstylist" means a person who engages in any of the practices of hairstyling.
- (10) Repealed.
- (10.5) "Manicuring" means any one act or practice, or combination of acts or practices, when done for direct or indirect payment or when done without payment for the public generally. "Manicuring" includes, but is not limited to, the filing, buffing, polishing, cleansing, extending, protecting, wrapping, covering, building, pushing, or trimming of nails or any other similar work upon the nails of any person by any means, including the softening of the hands, arms, ankles, or feet of any person by use of hands, mechanical or electrical apparatus or appliances, cosmetic or chemical preparations, antiseptics, lotions, or creams or by massaging, cleansing, stimulating, manipulating, or exercising the arms, hands, feet, or ankles of any person. Manicuring also includes waxing or the use of depilatories on the leg up to the knee, and the waxing or the use of depilatories on the arm up to the elbow.

(11) "Manicurist" means a person who engages in the limited practices of cosmetology known as manicuring. Unless otherwise licensed under this article, a manicurist shall not engage in the practice of cosmetology, barbering, or hairstyling or practice as an esthetician.

(12) "Owner" includes any person who has a financial interest in a barbershop or beauty salon or any other place of business entitling such person to participate in the promotion, management, or proceeds thereof. It does not include a person whose connection with the barbershop, beauty salon, or other place of business entitles such person only to reasonable salary or wages for services actually rendered. The owner of a place of business is the person responsible for registering such place of business with the director.

(13) "Place of business" means a fixed establishment, temporary location, or place, including any mobile barber shop or beauty salon, in which one or more persons engage in the practice of barbering, hairstyling, or cosmetology or practice as a manicurist or an esthetician. The term "temporary location" includes a motor home as defined in section 42-1-102 (57), C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-8-103 is similar to repealed § 12-17-103, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Public haircutting may be practiced both by licensed barbers and licensed cosmetologists. People v. Taylor, 189 Colo. 202, 540 P.2d 320 (1975).

Cosmetologists meeting the standards for the cutting of hair have a right to engage in that business, subject only to such restrictions as are rationally related to a legitimate state purpose. People v. Taylor, 189 Colo. 202, 540 P.2d 320 (1975).

The relationship between a beauty school and those enrolled for the purpose of learning the practices of cosmetology is that of school and student. Indus. Comm'n v. Am. Beauty Coll., Inc., 167 Colo. 269, 447 P.2d 531 (1968).

This precludes the relationship of master and servant or employer and employee. Indus. Comm'n v. Am. Beauty Coll., Inc., 167 Colo. 269, 447 P.2d 531 (1968).

Since statutory provisions concerning minimum wages of women and children, as a prerequisite to its operation, contemplates the relationship of employer and employee, a minimum wage order was null and void as to beauty schools and their students. Indus. Comm'n v. Am. Beauty Coll., Inc., 167 Colo. 269, 447 P.2d 531 (1968).

12-8-108. Powers and duties of the director - advisory committee - rules - repeal.

(1) The director has the following powers and duties:

(a) To promulgate, in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., such rules and regulations as are necessary for the administration of this article;

(b) To revoke, suspend, deny, or make probationary licenses upon proof of violation of the rules and regulations established by the director or violation of the statutes of this state;

(c) To prescribe, with the approval of the department of public health and environment, such safety and sanitary rules as the director may deem necessary to protect the health and safety of the public and of employees;

(d) To supervise and regulate the industries of barbering, hairstyling, and cosmetology and the practices of estheticians and manicurists of this state in accordance with this article, but nothing contained in this article shall be construed to abrogate the status, force, or operation of any provisions of any public health law of this state or any local health ordinance or regulation;

(e) To establish criteria for applicant eligibility for examination and to establish procedures for the registration of places of business;

(f) (I) To investigate upon his or her own initiative or upon receiving a complaint all suspected or alleged violations of this article, unless the director or his or her designee determines that a complaint or alleged violation is without merit, and to enter premises in which violations are alleged to have occurred during business hours.

(II) The director or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the director pursuant to this article. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the director.

(III) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(g) By and through the attorney general of this state, to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order enjoining any act or practice which constitutes a violation of this article. Upon a showing to the satisfaction of the court that a person is engaging or intends to engage in any such act or practice, an injunction, temporary restraining order, or other appropriate order shall be granted by such court, regardless of the existence of another remedy therefor. The requirements for notice, hearing, duration of any injunction or temporary restraining order issued pursuant to this paragraph (g), or other similar matter shall be in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(h) (I) To send letters of admonition. When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(II) When a letter of admonition is sent by the director, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(III) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(i) To issue cease-and-desist orders pursuant to section 12-8-127.5;

(j) To issue confidential letters of concern. When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee or registrant that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee or registrant.

(2) (a) The director shall appoint a five-member advisory committee to assist in the performance of the director's duties. The advisory committee shall consist of at least three licensees who have expertise in the area under review, a representative from a Colorado licensed school that provides training for licensees in the industry, and a member of the public. Members of the advisory committee shall be compensated for their services in accordance with the provisions of section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S. The advisory committee shall meet at least four times a year and prior to the adoption of rules, and at the request of the director.

(b) This subsection (2) is repealed, effective July 1, 2015. Prior to such repeal, the advisory committee shall be reviewed as provided for in section 2-3-1203, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

The entire article adequately provides standards and guidelines under which the board could and did promulgate and adopt its rules. State Bd. of Cosmetology v. Maddux, 162 Colo. 550, 428 P.2d 936 (1967) (decided under repealed § 32-1-18, C.R.S. 1963).

12-8-109. Rules and orders adopted by the state board of barbers and cosmetologists under previous law - persons licensed or registered under previous law. (1) All rules, regulations, rates, orders, and awards of the state board of barbers and cosmetologists lawfully adopted prior to July 1, 2000, shall continue to be effective until revised, amended, repealed, or nullified pursuant to law.

(2) All licenses issued by the state board of barbers and cosmetologists to practice barbering or cosmetology prior to July 1, 2000, shall remain valid and shall be subject to renewal by the director pursuant to section 12-8-115.

12-8-110. Examinations. (1) For the benefit of applicants, the director shall hold examinations as often as necessary, subject to appropriation constraints.

(2) The respective examinations of applicants for licenses to practice barbering, hair-styling, or cosmetology under this article shall be conducted under rules prescribed by the director and shall include practical demonstrations, written tests in reference to the practices to which a license is applied, and such related studies or subjects as the director may determine necessary for the proper and efficient performance of such practices, and such examinations shall not be confined to any specific system or method. The practical demonstrations shall be conducted under conditions that are as similar to actual operating conditions as possible. The director is authorized to rent adequate facilities in which to hold such examinations.

(3) Such examinations shall be consistent with the practical and theoretical requirements of the practices of barbering, hairstyling, cosmetology, manicurist services, or esthetician services as provided by this article, and such examinations shall be reviewed, revised, and updated periodically on a reasonable basis by the director in consultation with the advisory committee created pursuant to section 12-8-108. Examinations shall be graded promptly, and the results of the examinations shall be made available to the applicants promptly. The examination shall emphasize health and safety issues.

(4) The director shall offer a separate and complete testing station and facility for each applicant, and no oral examination shall be given in connection with practical demonstrations.

(5) No person shall be permitted to examine applicants in any of the practical portions for barbers, hairstylists, cosmetologists, cosmeticians, or manicurists in which said person has not had practical experience and received a license as provided in this article.

ANNOTATION

Evidence was sufficient to sustain the finding of the trial court that the plaintiff had satisfactorily passed the examination which was given him and that the board was satisfied that plaintiff possessed the required skill and knowledge to practice the trade of barbering. Battaglia v. Moore, 128 Colo. 326, 261 P.2d 1017 (1953) (decided under § 12-8-109 as it existed prior to the 1977 repeal and reenactment of this article).

12-8-113. When the director admits applicant. If the director finds that the applicant meets the qualifications of sections 12-8-111 and 12-8-114 and has submitted any other credentials required by the director for admission to the examination and has paid the required fee, the director shall admit such applicant to examination.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-17-115 as it existed prior to 1977.

12-8-114. Qualifications of applicants - requirements. (1) An applicant for any license provided in this article or for examination shall be at least sixteen years of age.

(2) An applicant for examination shall furnish proof of graduation from a barber school or beauty school approved by the private occupational school division pursuant to article 59 of this title; approved by the state board for community colleges and occupational education

pursuant to article 60 of title 23, C.R.S.; or, if the school is located in another state or country, approved by the governmental agency responsible for approving such schools in that state or country. The applicant shall also furnish proof that the applicant has successfully completed educational requirements equal to those set by the director. If the applicant has graduated from a school located outside Colorado, the applicant shall furnish proof that the applicant has successfully completed educational requirements substantially equal to those set by the director.

(3) An applicant for examination shall furnish proof of training of not less than the number of hours of course completion in the subject area in which the applicant seeks licensure as follows:

- (a) Sixty credit hours for a cosmetologist;
- (b) Fifty credit hours for a barber;
- (c) Twenty credit hours for an esthetician;
- (d) Twenty credit hours for a manicurist;
- (e) Forty credit hours for a hairstylist.

(4) Every person desiring to obtain a license to practice the occupation of a barber, cosmetologist, esthetician, hairstylist, or manicurist in this state shall apply therefor and pay to the director an examination fee. Applicants who successfully pass such examination and who otherwise qualify shall be issued a license upon the payment of the required fee.

(5) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no examinations for a hairstylist license and no hairstylist licenses shall be issued until on or after January 15, 2001.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-8-114 is similar to § 12-8-109 as it existed prior to the 1977 repeal and reenactment of this article, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Any legislation purporting to restrict one's right to follow any lawful, useful calling, business or profession, will be strictly construed in favor of the existence of the right, and against the limitation. Battaglia v. Moore, 128 Colo. 326, 261 P.2d 1017 (1953).

The right to work in useful employment, and to receive the fruits thereof, is a natural and fundamental right under our system of free enterprise. Battaglia v. Moore, 128 Colo. 326, 261 P.2d 1017 (1953).

The right of regulation of any useful occupation arises out of the police power of the state to legislate in the protection of the public health, safety and general welfare. Battaglia v. Moore, 128 Colo. 326, 261 P.2d 1017 (1953).

It should be the policy of the law to encourage thrift and industry among its citizens and not to close the door of opportunity to work in any calling unless the regulation imposing the limitation can be said to be reasonably necessary in promotion of the public health, safety or general welfare. Battaglia v. Moore, 128 Colo. 326, 261 P.2d 1017 (1953).

12-8-118. Licensure by endorsement. (1) The director shall issue a license by endorsement to engage in the practice of barbering, cosmetology, hairstyling, manicuring, or esthetician services in this state to an individual who possesses an active license in good standing to practice in that profession in another state or territory of the United States or in a foreign country if the applicant presents proof that is satisfactory to the director, that the applicant:

(a) Possesses a valid license from another state or jurisdiction that is substantially equivalent to the requirements in Colorado for licensure and meets all other requirements for licensure pursuant to this article. The director may specify by rule what shall constitute substantially equivalent licensure and qualifications; and

12-8-121. Exemptions. (1) Nothing in this article shall prohibit services by:

(a) Persons authorized under the laws of this state to practice medicine, surgery, dentistry, podiatry, osteopathy, or chiropractic nor services by employees, agents, or volunteers of a health care facility when performing duties incidental to patient care;

(b) Licensed or unlicensed volunteers in the performance of charitable services for washing and setting the hair of:

(I) Patients confined to hospitals or nursing, convalescent, or boarding homes;

(II) Persons confined to their homes by reason of age, physical or mental infirmity, or physical disability;

(c) Therapists permitted to practice their occupations under the laws of this state;

(d) A student of a barbering, hairstyling, or cosmetology school or of esthetician or manicurist services who has received more than twenty percent of the hours of instruction required in section 12-8-114 (3) and who is rendering services at such school under supervision of a licensee within the school setting.

(4) Lectures and demonstrations on beauty culture, hairdressing, and the use of beauty preparations in retail stores performed without compensation shall not constitute the practice of cosmetology, and nothing in this article shall prevent the giving of such lectures to and demonstrations on any person in retail stores.

12-8-127.5. Cease-and-desist orders. (1) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(2) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or registration or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(4) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in section 12-8-131 (7).

12-8-129.1. Immunity. The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-8-131. Disciplinary proceedings - administrative law judges - judicial review.

(1) The director may, through the department of regulatory agencies, employ administrative law judges to conduct hearings as provided by this section or on any matter within the director's jurisdiction upon such conditions and terms as the director may determine.

(2) A proceeding for discipline of a licensee shall be commenced when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee has committed acts which may violate the provisions of this article. Such grounds may be established by an investigation begun by the director on the director's own motion or by an investigation pursuant to a written complaint.

(3) Notice of the commencement of disciplinary proceedings pursuant to this section shall be given to the licensee or applicant in the manner prescribed by section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(4) Any hearing on the revocation or suspension of a license, or on the denial of an application for a new license, or for renewal of a previously issued license shall be conducted by an administrative law judge, and such administrative law judge shall be vested with all powers and authority prescribed by article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) The administrative law judge shall make an initial decision, which shall include a statement of findings and conclusions upon all the material issues of fact and law presented by the record and the appropriate order, sanction, or relief. In the absence of an appeal to the director or a review upon motion of the director within thirty days after service of the initial decision of the administrative law judge, the initial decision shall become the decision of the director.

(6) Review by the director of the initial decision of the administrative law judge upon appeal or upon the director's own motion shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S. The findings of fact made by the administrative law judge shall not be set aside by the director on review unless such findings are contrary to the weight of the evidence. The director may remand the matter to the administrative law judge for such further proceedings as the director may direct, or the director may affirm, set aside, or modify the order, sanction, or relief entered, in conformity with the facts and the law. Each decision shall be served as prescribed by section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(7) Final action by the director may be judicially reviewed. The court of appeals shall have initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review. Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(8) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

12-8-132. Grounds for denial, revocation, or suspension of license. (1) The director may deny, revoke, suspend, or make probationary any license issued under the director’s authority pursuant to this article upon proof that the licensee:

- (a) Has been convicted of or has entered a plea of nolo contendere to a felony. In considering the conviction of or such plea to any such crime, the director shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.
- (b) Has made any misstatement on his or her application for licensure to practice as a barber, hairstylist, cosmetologist, esthetician, or manicurist;
- (c) Is incompetent to practice a profession licensed under this article, which shall include performing services outside of the person’s area of training, experience, or competence;
- (d) Excessively or habitually uses or abuses alcohol or controlled substances;
- (e) Has violated any of the provisions of this article or any valid order of the director;
- (f) Is guilty of unprofessional or dishonest conduct;
- (g) Advertises by means of false or deceptive statement;
- (h) Fails to display the license as provided in section 12-8-119;
- (i) Fails to comply with the rules promulgated by the director as provided in section 12-8-108 (1) (a); or
- (j) Is guilty of willful misrepresentation.

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-8-132 is similar to § 12-8-114 as it existed prior to the 1977 repeal and reenactment of this article and repealed § 32-1-18, C.R.S. 1963, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Misdemeanor penalties are not the exclusive penalties that can be imposed against those who fail to maintain the required minimum standards. State Bd. of Cosmetology v. Maddux, 162 Colo. 550, 428 P.2d 936 (1967).

To so hold would mean that our citizens would be without protection in a matter of public health and safety because a violator could keep his establishment open merely by paying an occasional fine or by having others operate his school during his incarceration. State Bd. of Cosmetology v. Maddux, 162 Colo. 550, 428 P.2d 936 (1967).

Revocation cannot be arbitrary, and it must be for good cause shown after due notice and fair hearing in accordance with constitutional due process. State Bd. of Cosmetology v. Maddux, 162 Colo. 550, 428 P.2d 936 (1967).

The trial court correctly ruled that the board exceeded its statutory authority in adopting the rules governing demonstrations and advanced or upgrade training classes, and since there was no evidence that either barber was in violation of any statutory provisions or any other rules or regulations, it was error for the board to have suspended their licenses. PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-9-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Bingo and Raffles Law”.

Source: L. 99: Entire article RC&RE, p. 1406, § 1, effective June 5.

ANNOTATION

This article permits certain organizations, e.g., religious and charitable, to obtain a license under specified conditions for conducting bingo games and raffles. S Maldone v. People, 173 Colo. 385, 479 P.2d 973 (1971).

The fact that certain types of gambling were allowed pursuant to this article did not deny the petitioner, who was charged with gambling violations equal protection of the law, especially, where § 18-10-101 et seq. under which charges of gambling were issued against the petitioner applied equally to all persons and made no classifications or distinctions. S Maldone v. People, 173 Colo. 385, 479 P.2d 973 (1971).

12-9-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) “Bingo” means a game of chance played, with or without the aid of an electronic device, for prizes using cards or sheets containing five rows of five squares bearing numbers, except for the center square which is a free space. Traditional bingo also requires that the letters “B I N G O” appear in order over each column. The holder of a card or sheet matches the numbers on such card or sheet to numbers randomly drawn. The game is won when a previously designated arrangement of numbers on such card or sheet is covered.
- (1.1) “Bingo aid computer system” means a computer system that interfaces with and controls the use of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo.
- (1.2) “Bingo-raffle licensee” means any qualified organization to which a bingo-raffle license has been issued by the licensing authority.
- (1.3) “Bingo-raffle manufacturer” means a person, other than a bingo-raffle licensee, who makes, assembles, produces, or otherwise prepares pull tabs, bingo cards or sheets, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, or other equipment or parts thereof for games of chance, as defined in subsection (7) of this section. “Bingo-raffle manufacturer” does not include a person who prints raffle tickets, other than pull tabs, for and at the request of a bingo-raffle licensee.
- (1.4) “Bingo-raffle supplier” means a person, other than a bingo-raffle licensee, who sells, distributes, or otherwise furnishes pull tabs, bingo cards or sheets, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, or other games of chance equipment, as defined in subsection (5) of this section. “Bingo-raffle supplier” does not include a person who prints raffle tickets, other than pull tabs, for and at the request of a bingo-raffle licensee.
- (1.5) “Board” means the Colorado bingo-raffle advisory board created in section 12-9-201.
- (1.6) “Card” means either a disposable and nonreusable paper bingo card identified by color, serial number, and card number, or a reusable bingo card intended for repeated use, including but not limited to a hard card or shutter card. “Card” does not include an electronic representation or electronic image of a bingo card.

(1.7) "Charitable gaming" means bingo, pull tab games, and raffles, as defined in subsections (1), (18.1), and (19.3) of this section.

(1.8) "Charitable organization" means any organization, not for pecuniary profit, that is operated for the relief of poverty, distress, or other condition of public concern within this state and that has been so engaged for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

(2) "Chartered branch or lodge or chapter of a national or state organization" means any such branch or lodge or chapter that is a civic or service organization, not for pecuniary profit, and authorized by its written constitution, charter, articles of incorporation, or bylaws to engage in a fraternal, civic, or service purpose within this state and that has been so engaged for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

(2.3) "Commercial bingo facility" means premises rented by a bingo-affle licensee for the purpose of conducting games of chance.

(2.5) "Commercial landlord" means any person renting or offering to rent a commercial bingo facility to any bingo-affle licensee.

(2.7) "Deal" means each separate package or series of packages of pull tabs with the same name, form number, serial number, and color code.

(3) "Dues-paying membership" means those members of an organization who pay regular monthly, annual, or other periodic dues or who are excused from paying such dues by the bylaws, articles of incorporation, or charter of the organization and those who contribute voluntarily to the corporation or organization to which they belong for the support of such corporation or organization.

(4) "Educational organization" means any organization within this state, not organized for pecuniary profit, whose primary purpose is educational in nature and designed to develop the capabilities of individuals by instruction and that has been in existence for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

(5) "Equipment" means: With respect to bingo or lotto, the receptacle and numbered objects drawn from it, the master board upon which such objects are placed as drawn, the cards or sheets bearing numbers or other designations to be covered and the objects used to cover them, the board or signs, however operated, used to announce or display the numbers or designations as they are drawn, public address system, and all other articles essential to the operation, conduct, and playing of bingo or lotto; or, with respect to raffles, implements, devices, and machines designed, intended, or used for the conduct of raffles and the identification of the winning number or unit and the ticket or other evidence or right to participate in raffles. "Equipment" includes electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo.

(5.5) "Exempt organization" means an organization that complies with each of the following criteria:

(a) That is exempt from taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1954", as amended through December 31, 1984;

(b) Of the type commonly known as a community chest, which organizes and carries out intensive, limited-time, and community-wide fund drive campaigns by volunteer workers soliciting charitable contributions from a broad base of citizens and businesses in the community with the objective of providing financial support to other organizations that are exempt from taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1954", as amended through December 31, 1984, and that provides charitable, educational, civic, health, or human services within the same community and that has the further objective of minimizing the necessity for multiple, overlapping, and competing fund drives by such recipient organizations to enable them to deliver such services;

(c) That assists in acquiring noncash prizes donated by participating private businesses or government agencies as an ancillary means of creating interest in a charitable fund-raising drive held by such business or agency;

(d) That collects voluntary contributions and distributes more than eighty percent of such contributions to other organizations that are exempt from taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1954", as amended through December 31, 1984, and that provide charitable, educational, civic, health, or human services;

(e) On behalf of whose fund-raising drives drawings are held by participating private businesses or government agencies, which drawings are open only to the employees of such businesses or agencies and are not open to the general public;

(f) Whose fund-raising drives are jointly planned and managed by the participating private businesses and government agencies; and

(g) Whose fund-raising drives include only the awarding of noncash prizes by the participating private businesses or government agencies.

(6) "Fraternal organization" means any organization within this state, including college and high school fraternities, not for pecuniary profit, that is a branch, lodge, or chapter of a national or state organization and exists for the common business, brotherhood, or other interests of its members and that has so existed for five years prior to making application for a license under this article. "Fraternal organization" also includes a graduate or alumni division or branch of a college fraternity, which division or branch holds a charter issued by the state of Colorado and that meets all other criteria set forth in this subsection (6). As used in this subsection (6), "fraternity" includes a sorority.

(7) "Game of chance" means that specific kind of game of chance commonly known as bingo or lotto in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and that specific kind of game of chance commonly known as raffles that is conducted by drawing for prizes or the allotment of prizes by chance, by the selling of shares or tickets or rights to participate in such a game.

(8) "Gross receipts" means receipts from the sale of shares, tickets, or rights in any manner connected with participation in a game of chance or the right to participate therein, including any admission fee or charge, the sale of equipment or supplies, the sale or lease of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, and all other miscellaneous receipts.

(9) "Labor organization" means any organization, not for pecuniary profit, within this state that exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work and that has existed for such purpose and has been so engaged for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

(10) "Lawful purposes" means the lawful purposes of organizations permitted to conduct games of chance, as provided in section 2 of article XVIII of the state constitution.

(11) "Lawful use" means the devotion of the entire net proceeds of a game of chance exclusively to lawful purposes.

(11.5) "License" means any license or certification issued by the licensing authority pursuant to this article, including, without limitation, the certification of a games manager pursuant to section 12-9-105.1.

(12) "Licensed agent" means an individual who holds a current, valid agent's license for a bingo-raffle manufacturer or supplier.

(12.5) "Licensee" means the holder of any license or certification issued by the licensing authority pursuant to this article. "Licensee" includes the former holder of such license or certification for purposes of investigation of activities that took place during the period in which such license or certification was effective.

(13.3) "Manufacturer's agent" means an individual who represents a manufacturer in any of its activities in connection with the presales, driver sales, or distribution with excess stock of pull tabs, bingo cards or sheets, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, or other games of chance equipment; except employees of commercial delivery services.

(14) "Member" means an individual who has qualified for membership in a qualified organization pursuant to its bylaws, articles of incorporation, charter, rules, or other written statement.

(15) "Net proceeds" means the receipts less such expenses, charges, fees, and deductions as are specifically authorized under this article.

(16) "Occasion" means a single gathering or session at which a series of successive bingo or lotto games is played, not to exceed thirty-five in number.

(17) "Person" means a natural person, firm, association, corporation, or other legal entity.

(18) "Premises" means any room, hall, enclosure, or outdoor area used for the purpose of playing a game of chance.

(18.1) "Pull tab game" means a type of game of chance commonly known as a pickle, break-open, jar raffle, last sale ticket, or seal card for which tickets are preprinted with markings distinguishing winners and nonwinners, each ticket so made that its markings and winning or nonwinning status cannot be known or revealed until the ticket is broken or torn apart.

(19) (a) "Qualified organization" means any bona fide chartered branch, lodge, or chapter of a national or state organization or any bona fide religious, charitable, labor, fraternal, educational, voluntary firefighters', or veterans' organization operating without profit to its members that has been in existence continuously for a period of five years immediately prior to the making of an application for a license under this article and that has had, during the entire five-year period, a dues-paying membership engaged in carrying out the objects of said corporation or organization.

(b) "Qualified organization" includes, without limitation:

(I) A political party; and

(19.3) "Raffle" means a game in which a participant buys a ticket for a chance at a prize with the winner determined by a random method of selecting numbers, as determined by rules of the licensing authority, or a pull tab ticket as described in subsection (18.1) of this section. The term "raffle" does not mean and shall not be interpreted to include any activity that is authorized or regulated by the state lottery division pursuant to part 2 of article 35 of title 24, C.R.S., or the "Limited Gaming Act of 1991", article 47.1 of this title.

(20) "Religious organization" means any organization, church, body of communicants, or group, not for pecuniary profit, gathered in common membership for mutual support and edification in piety, worship, and religious observances or a society, not for pecuniary profit, of individuals united for religious purposes at a definite place that organization, church, body of communicants, group, or society has been so gathered or united for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

(20.3) "Supplier's agent" means an individual who represents a bingo-raffle supplier in the course of the bingo-raffle supplier's presales, driver sales, or distribution with excess bingo-supplier stock, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, or chance equipment on hand; except employees of commercial delivery services.

(21) "Veterans' organization" means any organization within this state or any branch, lodge, or chapter of a national or state organization within this state, not for pecuniary profit, the membership of which consists of individuals who were members of the armed services or forces of the United States, that has been in existence for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

(22) "Voluntary firefighters' organization" means any organization within this state, not for pecuniary profit, established by the state or any of its political subdivisions that has been in existence for five years prior to making application for a license under this article.

ANNOTATION

Organizations which operate outside the state are excluded from obtaining licenses for games of chance. Only the branches, lodges, or chapters of such organizations, if otherwise qualified, are eligible for licenses. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989).

Any reference in this article to games of chance includes raffles, except as otherwise specified, since raffles is a game of chance. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989).

12-9-102.3. Fraud and deception prohibited. (1) No bingo-raffle licensee, landlord licensee, bingo-raffle supplier, bingo-raffle manufacturer, or any member or agent thereof engaged in any charitable gaming activity shall directly or indirectly:

- (a) Employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud or deceive;
- (b) Intentionally make any untrue or misleading statement of fact; or
- (c) Engage in any act, practice, or course of conduct constituting fraud or deceit.

12-9-102.5. Legislative declaration - consideration for tickets - conditions - rules.

(1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that prize promotions involving the conduct of free product giveaways through the use of free chances for purposes of commercial advertisement, the creation of goodwill, the promotion of new products or services, or the collection of names should not be subject to regulation under this article. Such giveaways shall be exempt from regulation under this article when all of the conditions set forth in this section are satisfied.

(2) No award of prizes by chance for a purpose set forth in subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed a lottery or game of chance, nor shall any share or ticket or right to participate in such award of prizes be deemed to have been sold or charged for, notwithstanding that such award is made to persons who have paid a fee entitling them to general admission to the grounds or premises on which such award is made, if each share or ticket by means of which the award is made is given away free of charge and without any obligation on the part of the person receiving it.

(4) (a) Within ten days after the award of any prize, the licensee shall file with the licensing authority a written report containing a description of the prize, the value of the prize, and such other information as the licensing authority may require by rule. Any prize offered pursuant to this section shall be awarded by the end of the calendar quarter in which it was offered.

(b) (I) A licensee may conduct a prize promotion on the licensed premises, whether such premises are rented or owned by the licensee. The promotion and its cost, if any, to the licensee shall be clearly disclosed, in the rental agreement or otherwise, pursuant to rules adopted by the licensing authority.

(II) A landlord licensee shall not require a bingo-raffle licensee to participate in or conduct a promotion under this section, nor may a games manager for any occasion assist in any such promotion conducted during an occasion by a landlord licensee. Prizes offered as part of a promotion shall not be considered as part of the prizes subject to limitation under section 12-9-107 (13).

(c) Before conducting a promotion under this section, the licensee shall provide evidence of ownership, free and clear, of the prizes to be offered unless all such prizes are available for viewing on the premises on the day they are to be awarded. The licensee offering any promotional prize shall disclose, at the beginning of the promotion, full and complete information identifying the prizes to be awarded and the method by which such prizes may be won. This disclosure need not be made separately or personally to each participant, but may be made by conspicuously posting or displaying, at the premises where the promotion is being conducted, either the available prizes themselves or a list and complete description of the prizes and the method by which they may be won.

(d) The licensing authority may establish by rule the maximum amount or value of a cash prize or a prize of a product or service that may be awarded; except that such maximum amount shall not be less than one thousand dollars.

12-9-103. Licensing and enforcement authority - powers - rules - duties - license suspension or revocation proceedings - definitions. (1) The secretary of state is hereby designated as the “licensing authority” of this article. As licensing authority, the secretary of state’s powers and duties are as follows:

(a) (I) To grant or refuse to grant bingo-raffle licenses under this article and to grant or refuse to grant licenses to landlords, manufacturers, manufacturers’ agents, suppliers, and suppliers’ agents. If any such license application has not been approved or disapproved within forty-five days after the licensing authority has received all information that constitutes a complete application, the license shall be deemed to be approved. The licensing authority shall notify the applicant upon receipt of all information that the licensing authority deems a complete application. Such notification shall be the start of the forty-five-day period in which the licensing authority shall affirmatively act upon the application. The licensing authority’s failure to act upon an application within forty-five days after receipt shall not preclude the licensing authority from later filing a complaint challenging the application on the ground that it is in conflict with the Colorado constitution or this article. All such licenses and applications for such licenses shall be made available for inspection by the public. In addition, the licensing authority has the power and the responsibility, after investigation and hearing before an administrative law judge, to suspend or revoke any license issued by the licensing authority, in accordance with any order of such administrative law judge. When a license is ordered suspended or revoked, the licensee shall surrender the license to the licensing authority on or before the effective date of the suspension or revocation. No license is valid beyond the effective date of the suspension or revocation, whether surrendered or not. Any bingo-raffle license may be temporarily suspended for a period not to exceed ten days pending any prosecution, investigation, or public hearing.

(II) In lieu of seeking a suspension or revocation of any license issued by the licensing authority, the licensing authority may impose a reasonable fine for any violation of this article or any rule adopted pursuant to this article, not to exceed one hundred dollars per citation. The imposition of any such fine may be appealed to an administrative law judge.

(III) The refusal of the licensing authority to grant or renew a license shall entitle the applicant to administrative review of such refusal by an administrative law judge in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

(IV) If a licensee or bingo-raffle affiliate fails within forty-five days after a written request by the licensing authority to voluntarily produce records at the office of the licensing authority, or if a licensee fails to file a report within the time required by this article, or if such report is not properly verified or is not fully, accurately, and truthfully completed on its face, the licensing authority may refuse to renew the licensee’s license until the licensee has corrected such failure or deficiency. If the licensing authority refuses to renew a license pursuant to this subparagraph (IV), the licensee shall not engage in activity authorized by such license until such license is renewed.

(b) To supervise the administration and enforcement of this article and, in consultation with the board, to adopt, amend, and repeal rules governing the holding, operating, and conducting of games of chance, the purchase of equipment, the establishment of a schedule of reasonable fines, not to exceed one hundred dollars per citation, for violation by licensees of this article or of rules adopted pursuant to this article, to the end that games of chance shall be held, operated, and conducted only by licensees for the purposes and in conformity with the state constitution and the provisions of this article;

(c) To provide forms for and supervise the filing of any reports made by mail, computer, electronic mail, or any other electronic device by any licensee. As soon as possible after July 1, 2006, the licensing authority shall ensure that delivery of a document subject to this article by an applicant or a licensee may be accomplished electronically without the necessity for presentation of a physical original document, report, or image, if all required information is included and is readily retrievable from the data transmitted. The licensing authority may, by rule, require certain organizations to file reports and other documents electronically. All electronically filed documents shall be stored by the licensing authority in an electronic or other medium and shall be retrievable by the licensing authority in an understandable and readable form. Notwithstanding any other provision of law requiring the signature of, or execution by, a person on a document, no such signature shall be required when the document is submitted electronically. Causing a document to be delivered to the licensing authority by an applicant or a licensee shall constitute the affirmation or acknowledgment of the individual causing the delivery, under penalty of perjury, that the document is the individual's act and deed or the act and deed of the organization or entity on whose behalf the document was delivered and that the facts stated in the document are true.

(d) Upon application by any licensee, to issue a letter ruling granting approval for any new concept, method, technology, practice, or procedure that may be applied to, or used in the conduct of, games of chance that are not in conflict with the constitution or this article. Application for such approval shall be submitted in a form prescribed by the licensing authority. If an application is not acted upon within forty-five days after receipt by the licensing authority, the licensee may implement such concept, method, technology, practice, or procedure so long as it is not in conflict with the constitution or this article; except that the licensing authority's failure to act upon an application within forty-five days after receipt shall not preclude the licensing authority from later filing a complaint challenging such concept, method, technology, practice, or procedure on the ground that it is in conflict with the constitution or this article. An adverse ruling on such application may be appealed to an administrative law judge.

(e) To keep records of all actions and transactions relating to licensing and enforcement activity;

(f) To prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S., a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the authority, and to issue publications of the authority intended for circulation in quantity outside the executive branch in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S.;

(g) To license devices for reading pull tabs as provided in section 12-9-107.7; except that the licensing authority shall not impose or collect any fee for the issuance of such a license.

(1.5) For the purpose of any investigation or examination of records, the licensing authority or any officer designated by the licensing authority may require, at the office of the licensing authority, the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records that the licensing authority deems relevant or material to the inquiry. In case of refusal to obey a request for the production of documents issued to any licensee or an affiliate of a licensee, the district court of the city and county of Denver, upon application by the licensing authority, may issue an order requiring that person to appear before the licensing authority or the officer designated by the licensing authority to produce documents or to give evidence touching upon the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(2) The licensing authority may revoke, suspend, annul, limit, or modify a license pursuant to section 24-4-104, C.R.S. Hearings that are held for the purpose of determining whether a licensee's license should be revoked, suspended, annulled, limited, or modified shall be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be held in the manner and pursuant to the rules and procedures described in sections 24-4-104, 24-4-105, and 24-4-106, C.R.S. Hearings shall be held and concluded, in accordance with such rules, with reasonable dispatch and without unnecessary delay, and a decision shall be issued within ten days after such hearing.

(3) (a) Upon a finding by an administrative law judge of a violation of this article, the rules adopted pursuant to this article, or any other provision of law, such as would warrant the revocation, suspension, annulment, limitation, or modification of a license, in addition to any other penalties that may be imposed, the licensing authority may declare the violator ineligible to conduct a game of bingo and to apply for a license pursuant to this article for a period not exceeding five years after the date of such declaration or a shorter period designated by the licensing authority pursuant to this subsection (3). The licensing authority shall designate a shorter period of license ineligibility only in the absence of aggravating factors associated with the violation for which the revocation was imposed. Aggravating factors shall include willfulness, intent, a previous intentional violation of this article, and violations involving theft or fraud. Such declaration of ineligibility may be extended to include, in addition to the violator, any of its subsidiary organizations, its parent organization, or otherwise, affiliated with the violator when, in the opinion of the licensing authority, the circumstances of the violation warrant such action.

(b) The decision of the administrative law judge in any controversy concerning licensing, the imposition of a fine, or the approval of any proposed new concept, method, technology, practice, or procedure shall be final and subject to review by the court of appeals, pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(5) Upon an administrative or judicial finding of a violation of this article, the rules adopted pursuant to this article, or any other provision of law, such as would warrant the suspension or revocation of a license, the licensing authority, in addition to any other penalties that may be imposed, may issue an order excluding the violator or any owner, officer, director, or games manager of the violator from the licensed premises during the conduct of games of chance.

(6) (a) The secretary of state shall confer with the executive director of the department of revenue or his or her designee concerning:

(I) The desirability and practicability of transferring the responsibility for enforcement, licensing, or both under this article from the secretary of state to the department of revenue;

(II) The constitutional and statutory changes that would be necessary to effectuate such transfer; and

(III) The recommendations of the secretary of state and the executive director of the department of revenue for any other or additional constitutional or statutory changes to improve the regulation of bingo and raffles in Colorado.

(b) On or before December 31, 2008, the secretary of state and the executive director of the department of revenue shall jointly prepare and transmit a report of their findings and recommendations to the house and senate committees on finance and the house and senate committees on state, veterans, and military affairs, or their successor committees.

ANNOTATION

Under circumstances in which the secretary of state stopped the operation of a raffles game, former subsection (2)(a) required that the hearing be held within ten days after the notice of suspension. Because the hearing was not held within this period, the secretary of state lost jurisdiction to proceed with the suspension hearing and to suspend the licensee's license. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989) (decided prior to 1993 amendment).

12-9-103.5. Fees - department of state cash fund. (1) All fees collected by the licensing authority pursuant to this article shall be transmitted to the state treasurer who shall credit the same to the department of state cash fund created in section 24-21-104 (3) (b), C.R.S., also referred to in this section as the “fund”. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the purposes of financing the licensing and enforcement activities of the secretary of state as specified in this article.

(3) (a) Fees authorized by this article shall be established by the licensing authority, in consultation with the board, in amounts sufficient to ensure that the total revenue generated by the collection of such fees approximates the direct and indirect costs incurred by the licensing authority in carrying out its duties under this article. The amounts of all fees shall be reviewed annually. The licensing authority shall furnish to the board both an annual and a quarterly accounting of all fee and fine revenues received and expenditures made pursuant to this article, together with a list of all fees in effect.

(b) The cost of implementing the electronic application and report filing system required by section 12-9-103 (1) (c), including the cost of promulgating any new or amended rules for use of the system, shall be recovered through a temporary fee increase or surcharge assessed on licensees during the first five years of operation of the system. The licensing authority shall establish the temporary fee or surcharge on a sliding or graduated scale, based on the quarterly gross receipts of each licensee that is required to file quarterly reports or pay fees under section 12-9-107.5 (5) or section 12-9-108 (6) (b), and in an amount sufficient to recover all of such costs within the five-year period.

(4) All fines assessed pursuant to this article shall be paid to the state treasurer who shall credit the same to the general fund of the state.

12-9-104. Bingo-raffle license - fee. (1) A bona fide chartered branch, lodge, or chapter of a national or state organization or any bona fide religious, charitable, labor, fraternal, educational, voluntary firefighters’, or veterans’ organization or any association, successor, or combination of association and successor of any of the said organizations that operates without profit to its members and that has been in existence continuously for a period of five years immediately prior to the making of application for a bingo-raffle license under this article and has had during the entire five-year period dues-paying members engaged in carrying out the objects of said corporation or organization is eligible for a bingo-raffle license to be issued by the licensing authority under this article. If a license is revoked, the bingo-raffle licensee and holder thereof is not eligible to apply for another license under subsection (2) of this section until after the expiration of the period of five years after the date of such revocation.

(2) The bingo-raffle licenses provided by this article shall be issued by the licensing authority to applicants qualified under this article upon payment of a fee established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3). Licenses shall expire at the end of the calendar year in which they were issued by the licensing authority and may be renewed by the licensing authority upon the filing of an application for renewal thereof provided by the licensing authority and the payment of the fee established for such renewal. No license granted under this article or any renewal thereof shall be transferable. The fees required to be paid for a new or renewal license shall be deposited in the bingo-raffle cash fund.

ANNOTATION

Licensees, if otherwise qualified, are entitled to only one license each and are limited to one location for each license. All licensees, except exempt umbrella charitable organizations, must hold their games of chance at one location. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989).

Five-year period of operation requirement not met by charitable organization that had separated from another charitable organization two years before applying for a bingo-raffle license. Applicant organization was not a "successor" because it did not completely take the place of the organization it separated from. Ginny's Kids Int'l, Inc. v. Office of the Sec'y of State, 29 P.3d 333 (Colo. App. 2000).

12-9-104.5. Landlord licensees - stipulations. (1) No person except a landlord licensee shall rent or offer to rent to any bingo-raffle licensee any premises to be used to conduct games of chance. A lease of the premises for a bingo occasion shall be for a period of at least five consecutive hours unless the landlord licensee and bingo-raffle licensee agree to a shorter or longer period. The amount of rent to be charged, and the method used to calculate such rent, shall be established by agreement between the parties.

(2) No landlord licensee or any employee of a landlord licensee shall require, induce, or coerce a bingo-raffle licensee to enter into any contract, agreement, or lease contrary to the provisions of this article.

(3) No landlord licensee or any employee of a landlord licensee shall require, induce, or coerce a bingo-raffle licensee to purchase supplies or equipment, or to purchase or lease electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, from a particular supplier, distributor, or manufacturer as a condition of conducting games of chance at a commercial bingo facility.

(4) Rent charged to a bingo-raffle licensee by a landlord licensee for the use of a commercial bingo facility shall cover all expenses and items reasonably necessary for the use of the commercial bingo facility for a bingo occasion including, but not limited to, insurance and maintenance for such facility, adequate and secure storage space, restrooms, janitorial services, and utilities.

(5) No activity or business other than licensed games of chance may be conducted in a commercial bingo facility within space leased to a bingo-raffle licensee during the time allocated to the bingo-raffle licensee with the exception of the sale of food, beverages, bingo-related merchandise and supplies, the operation of an automated cash service device, and such other activities and businesses as the bingo-raffle licensee may agree to. A landlord licensee may conduct other businesses and activities in space not included in the bingo-raffle licensee's rental agreement and in which games of chance are not held.

(6) No landlord licensee or any employee or agent of a landlord licensee shall be a party responsible for or assisting with the conduct, management, or operation of any game of chance within Colorado; except that a landlord licensee that is also a bingo-raffle licensee may conduct such activities as its bingo-raffle license allows exclusively on its own behalf.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6) of this section, a landlord, supplier, or manufacturer licensee may instruct and train a bingo-raffle licensee in the repair, operation, and maintenance of bingo-raffle equipment, subject to specific criteria established by rule.

(8) Every landlord licensee shall file with the licensing authority all leases, agreements, and other documents required in order for a bingo-raffle licensee to lease its commercial bingo facility.

12-9-105. Application for bingo-raffle license. (1) Each applicant for a bingo-raffle license to be issued under the provisions of this section shall file with the licensing authority a written application in the form prescribed by the licensing authority, duly executed and verified, and in which shall be stated:

- (a) The name and address of the applicant;
 - (b) Sufficient facts relating to its incorporation and organization to enable the licensing authority to determine whether or not it is a bona fide chartered branch, lodge, or chapter of a national or state organization or a bona fide religious, charitable, labor, fraternal, educational, voluntary firefighters', or veterans' organization that operates without profit to its members, has been in existence continuously for a period of five years immediately prior to the making of said application for such license, and has had during the entire five-year period dues-paying members engaged in carrying out the objectives of said applicant;
 - (c) The names and addresses of its officers;
 - (d) The specific kind of games of chance intended to be held, operated, and conducted by the applicant;
 - (e) (I) The place where such games of chance are intended to be held, operated, and conducted by the applicant under the license applied for; or
 - (II) In the case of the application of an exempt organization, the place or places where drawings are intended to be held, operated, and conducted by the organization under the license applied for;
 - (f) A statement that no commission, salary, compensation, reward, or recompense will be paid to any person for holding, operating, or conducting such games of chance or for assisting therein except as otherwise provided in this article;
 - (g) Such other information deemed advisable by the licensing authority to insure that the applicant falls within the restrictions set forth by the state constitution.
- (2) (a) In each application there shall be designated active members of the applicant organization under whom the games of chance described in the application are to be held, operated, and conducted, and to the application shall be appended a statement executed by the applicant and by the members so designated that they will be responsible for the holding, operation, and conduct of such games of chance in accordance with the terms of the license and the provisions of this article.
- (b) Each designated games manager shall have been an active member of the applicant for at least the six months immediately preceding his or her designation and shall be certified by the licensing authority pursuant to section 12-9-105.1 before assuming games management duties.
- (3) In the event any premises are to be leased or rented in connection with the holding, operating, or conducting of any game of chance under this article, a written statement shall accompany the application signed and verified by the applicant, which shall state the address of the leased or rented premises and the amount of rent that will be paid for said premises and which shall certify that the premises are to be rented from a landlord licensee.

ANNOTATION

Jar raffle games may not be supervised or operated by employees of members of the non-profit organization which is licensed to hold the jar raffle game. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989).

12-9-105.1. Games managers - certification. (1) The licensing authority shall issue a games manager certification to any qualified applicant who has demonstrated sufficient knowledge of this article, as determined by the licensing authority, and who has paid the fee established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3). A games manager certification shall be valid for a time period to be determined by the licensing authority by rule, and may be denied, suspended, or revoked for any violation of this article or any rule or order of the licensing authority promulgated or issued pursuant to this article.

(1.5) A person shall not be eligible for certification or act as a games manager in the conduct of a game of chance pursuant to this article unless the person is eighteen years of age or older.

(2) A person shall not be eligible for certification or act as a games manager in the conduct of any game of chance pursuant to this article if such person has been convicted of any felony or any offense involving gambling.

(3) A person shall not be designated or serve as a games manager for more than three bingo-raffle licensees simultaneously. The licensing authority may promulgate rules establishing the circumstances under which a person may be designated and serve as games manager for more than three, but in no event more than five, bingo-raffle licensees within a specified period of time.

12-9-105.3. Application for landlord license - fee. (1) Each applicant for a landlord license shall file with the licensing authority a written application, duly executed and verified, in the form presented by the licensing authority, which application shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The name and address of the landlord and, if such commercial landlord is a corporation, partnership, association, or other business entity, the names and addresses of all partners, associates, and persons holding an ownership interest of ten percent or more;

(b) The name and address of the landlord's resident agent if the commercial landlord does not reside in Colorado and the location in Colorado where its records will be available to the licensing authority;

(c) The location of the premises for which the applicant is seeking such license;

(d) A statement by the landlord or the chief executive officer of the landlord that the landlord is familiar with the provisions of this article as to commercial bingo facilities and landlords thereof and accepts responsibility for compliance with such provisions;

(f) A statement by the landlord or the chief executive of the landlord that the primary purpose of the premises described in paragraph (e) of this subsection (1) is the conduct of bingo occasions.

(2) Each application shall designate an individual who shall act as agent for the landlord and who shall receive all communications concerning the license.

(3) There shall be attached to each application an affidavit signed by the applicant stating that the landlord has not been convicted of any felony or any gambling-related offense as defined in article 10 of title 18, C.R.S. If the landlord is a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, such affidavit shall make such verification as to each officer and director of such corporation, each member and manager of such limited liability company, or each partner and associate of such partnership.

(4) A landlord license shall expire at the end of the calendar year in which it was issued. Each license issued shall be conspicuously displayed at the premises for which the license has been issued. No landlord license is transferable. The annual fee for each landlord license shall be established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3).

12-9-105.5. Application for manufacturer license. (1) Each application for a manufacturer license shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The name and address of the applicant;

(b) The name and address of the manufacturer and, if the manufacturer is a corporation, the name and address of each officer, director, and shareholder holding an ownership interest of ten percent or more;

(c) A description of the equipment manufactured in connection with games of chance activities in Colorado;

(d) The name and address of the resident agent of the manufacturer if the applicant does not reside in Colorado and the location in Colorado where the records of the manufacturer will be available to the licensing authority;

(e) The names and addresses of the Colorado suppliers and agents of the manufacturer; and

(f) A statement by the manufacturer or the chief executive officer of the manufacturer that such manufacturer is familiar with the provisions of this article as to bingo-raffle manufacturers and accepts responsibility for compliance with such provisions.

(2) To each application for a manufacturer license shall be attached a statement that the applicant or its owners or its officers or directors if a corporation, or its members, managers, partners, or associates if another business entity, has not been convicted of any felony or any offense involving gambling as defined in article 10 of title 18, C.R.S.

(3) Any bingo-raffle manufacturer, as defined in section 12-9-102 (1.3), upon filing a true, complete, written, verified application in the form presented by the licensing authority, together with the fee for the license, is eligible for a manufacturer license. A manufacturer license shall be renewed annually, on or before March 31 of each year in which such licensee engages in or anticipates engaging in a licensed activity. A manufacturer license is nontransferable. The annual fee for each license shall be established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3).

12-9-105.7. Application for supplier license. (1) Each application for a supplier license shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The name and address of the applicant;

(b) The name and address of the supplier and, if the supplier is a corporation, the name and address of each officer, director, and shareholder holding an ownership interest of ten percent or more;

(c) A description of the equipment and supplies sold or distributed in connection with games of chance activities in Colorado;

(d) The name and address of the resident agent of the supplier if the applicant does not reside in Colorado and the location in Colorado where the records of the supplier will be available to the licensing authority;

(e) The names and addresses of the Colorado agents of the supplier; and

(f) A statement by the supplier or the chief executive officer of the supplier that such supplier is familiar with the provisions of this article as to bingo-raffle suppliers and accepts responsibility for compliance with such provisions.

(2) To each application for a supplier license shall be attached a statement that the applicant or its owners or its officers or directors if a corporation, or its members, managers, partners, or associates if another business entity, has not been convicted of any felony or any offense involving gambling as defined in article 10 of title 18, C.R.S.

(3) Any bingo-raffle supplier, as defined in section 12-9-102 (1.4), upon filing a true, complete, written, verified application in the form presented by the licensing authority, together with the fee for the license, is eligible for a supplier license. A supplier license shall be renewed annually, on or before March 31 of each year in which such licensee engages in or anticipates engaging in a licensed activity. A supplier license is nontransferable. The annual fee for each license shall be established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3).

12-9-105.9. Application for manufacturer's agent license or supplier's agent license. (1) Each application for a manufacturer's agent license or supplier's agent license shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

- (a) The name and address of the applicant;
- (b) The name and address of the supplier or manufacturer represented by the applicant;
- (c) A statement by the applicant that he or she has read, understands, and will comply with the provisions of this article as to manufacturer's and supplier's agents and the conditions of the agent's license;
- (d) A statement by the chief executive officer of the manufacturer or supplier represented by the agent, which statement acknowledges consent to representation by the applicant; and
- (e) The location in Colorado where the agent's records of sales and distributions of bingo and raffle equipment and supplies will be available to the licensing authority.

(2) To each agent's application shall be attached a statement that the applicant has not been convicted of any felony or any offense involving gambling as defined in article 10 of title 18, C.R.S.

(3) Any supplier's agent or manufacturer's agent as defined in section 12-9-102 (13.3) and (20.3), upon filing a complete, written, verified application in the form presented by the licensing authority, together with the fee for the license, is eligible for a manufacturer's or supplier's agent license. A manufacturer's or supplier's agent license shall be renewed annually, on or before March 31 of each year in which such licensee engages in or anticipates engaging in a licensed activity. Neither a manufacturer's agent license nor a supplier's agent license is transferable. The annual fee for each license shall be established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3).

12-9-106. Form of bingo-raffle licenses - display. (1) Each bingo-raffle license shall contain a statement of the name and address of the licensee and the place where such bingo or lotto games or the drawing of the raffles is to be held. If the bingo-raffle licensee moves from the games or drawing location listed on its license, the bingo-raffle licensee shall notify the licensing authority in writing prior to commencing bingo or conducting a raffle drawing at the new location. The licensing authority may issue a letter of authorization to move the location of the bingo or lotto games or the drawing of the raffles. Any such letter of authorization shall remain with the original license and be available for inspection at the place where such games or drawings are to be held. Any such license issued for an exempt organization shall provide for the inclusion of the place or places where drawings are to be held. Each bingo-raffle license issued for the conduct of any such games of chance shall be conspicuously displayed at the place where the game is to be conducted or the drawings held at all times during the conduct thereof. An exempt organization may comply with the requirements of this section by providing written notice of such a license to all employees of a participating private business or government agency holding a fund-raising drive that includes a drawing on behalf of such organization. Such notice shall state that the exempt organization shall make such license available for public inspection during reasonable business hours and shall specify where such license shall be maintained for inspection.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a bingo-raffle licensee conducting a pull tab game for the benefit of its members and guests on premises that are owned by it, or leased by it for purposes other than the conduct of a bingo occasion, may display a copy of its license, in a format approved by the licensing authority, on such premises during any time the licensee is also conducting a bingo or raffle occasion at a separate location.

12-9-106.5. Form of landlord license - display - fee. (1) Each landlord license shall contain a statement of the name and address of the licensee and the location of the premises. Each license issued shall be conspicuously displayed at the premises for which the license has been issued.

(2) A landlord license shall be issued to qualified applicants by the licensing authority upon payment of a fee and completion and approval of the landlord license application pursuant to section 12-9-105.3. Such license shall expire at the end of the calendar year in which it was issued by the licensing authority and may be renewed upon the filing and approval of an application for renewal provided by the licensing authority and the payment of a fee. No landlord license is transferable. The fees required to be paid for new and renewed licenses shall be established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3).

12-9-107. Persons permitted to conduct games of chance - premises - equipment - expenses. (1) (a) No games of chance shall be conducted by any person, firm, or organization within this state, unless a bingo-affle license as provided in this article has been issued by the licensing authority. No person shall hold, operate, or conduct games of chance under a license issued under this article except an active member of the organization to which the bingo-affle license is issued, and no person shall assist in the holding, operating, or conducting of any games of chance under such license, except such an active member or a member of an organization or association that is an auxiliary to the licensee, a member of an organization or association of which such licensee is an auxiliary, or a member of an organization or association that is affiliated with the licensee by being, with it, auxiliary to another organization or association. No item of expense shall be incurred or paid in connection with the holding, operating, or conducting of a game of chance held, operated, or conducted pursuant to a license issued under this article, except bona fide expenses in a reasonable amount for goods, wares, and merchandise furnished or services rendered, reasonably necessary for the holding, operating, or conducting thereof.

(b) No games of chance shall be conducted with any equipment unless it is owned by a bingo-affle licensee, owned or leased by a landlord licensee, or owned or leased by a bingo-affle licensee operating such equipment on premises that are owned, leased, or rented by the bingo-affle licensee, used as its principal place of business, and controlled so that admittance to the premises is limited to the bingo-affle licensee's members and bona fide guests. Nothing in this paragraph (b) shall prohibit a bingo-affle licensee from leasing electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo.

(2) (a) The officers of a bingo-affle licensee shall designate one or more bona fide, active members of the licensee as its games managers to be in charge and primarily responsible for the conduct of the games of bingo or lotto on each occasion. The games managers shall supervise all activities on the occasion for which they are in charge and are responsible for the making of the required report thereof. The games managers, governing board of the licensee, and the individual acting in the role of a treasurer on behalf of the licensee shall be familiar with the provisions of the state laws, the rules of the licensing authority, and the provisions of the license. The governing board of the licensee shall be ultimately responsible for the maintenance of books and records and the filing of the reports pursuant to this section. At least one games manager shall be present on the premises continuously during the games and for a period sufficient to ensure that all books and records for the occasion have been closed and that all supplies and equipment have been secured.

(b) An exempt organization may designate more than one of its bona fide, active members in order to comply with the requirements of this subsection (2).

(3) The officers of a bingo-raffle licensee shall designate an officer to be in full charge and primarily responsible for the proper utilization of the entire net proceeds of any game in accordance with the state law.

(4) The entire net proceeds of any game shall be devoted to a lawful use or uses.

(5) (a) Each license issued for the conduct of games of chance shall be conspicuously displayed at the place where any game is being conducted at all times during the conduct of the game and for at least thirty minutes after the last game has been concluded.

(b) An exempt organization may comply with the requirements of this subsection (5) by providing written notice of such a license to all employees of a participating private business or government agency holding a fund-raising drive that includes a drawing on behalf of such organization. Such notice shall state that the exempt organization shall make such license available for public inspection during reasonable business hours and shall specify where such license shall be maintained.

(6) The premises where any game of chance is being held, operated, or conducted, where it is intended that any game of chance be held, operated, or conducted, or where it is intended that any equipment be used, at all times, shall be open to inspection by the licensing authority, its agents and employees, and by peace officers of any political subdivision of the state.

(7) No licensee may hold, operate, or conduct a game of bingo or lotto more often than as specified by the licensing authority by rule, after consultation with the board.

(8) When any merchandise prize is awarded in a game of bingo, its value shall be its current retail price. No merchandise prize shall be redeemable or convertible into cash directly or indirectly.

(9) (a) Equipment, prizes, and supplies for games of bingo shall not be purchased or sold at prices in excess of the usual price thereof. A licensee shall not sell or offer for sale any game of chance or supplies for a game of chance that is not authorized by this article or by rules adopted by the licensing authority pursuant to this article.

(b) Cards and sheets that are designed or intended for use with electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo shall not be purchased or sold at prices in excess of the usual price of cards and sheets that are not so designed or intended. Charges imposed by any manufacturer, supplier, agent thereof, or bingo-raffle licensee for cards and sheets that are designed or intended for use with electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo shall be stated and imposed separately from any charges imposed by such manufacturer, supplier, agent thereof, or bingo-raffle licensee for the purchase, lease, or use of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo. Manufacturers, suppliers, and agents thereof shall not include costs attributable to the manufacture or distribution of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo in charges imposed for the purchase or lease of equipment, including cards and sheets.

(11) The net proceeds derived from the holding of games of chance must be devoted, within one year, to the lawful purposes of the organization permitted to conduct the same. Any organization desiring to hold the net proceeds of games of chance for a period longer than one year shall apply to the licensing authority for special permission and, upon good cause shown, the licensing authority may grant the request.

(12) Any licensee that does not report, during any one-year period, net proceeds will be required to show cause before the licensing authority why its right to conduct games of chance should not be revoked.

(13) (a) The licensing authority shall establish by rule the method of play and amount of prizes that may be awarded; except that the maximum prize that may be awarded shall be at least five hundred dollars.

(b) Notwithstanding the limitations stated in paragraph (a) of this subsection (13), during a bingo occasion a bingo-raffle licensee may also start a single game of progressive bingo, in an amount established by rule by the licensing authority, in which the game is won when a previously designated arrangement of numbers or spaces on the card or sheet is covered within a previously designated number of objects or balls drawn. If the game is not won within the drawing of the previously designated number of objects or balls, the game shall be replayed during each occasion the licensee conducts at the same location, using the previously designated arrangement of numbers or spaces.

(c) A bingo-raffle licensee may award a consolation prize for a game of progressive bingo in which the progressive prize is not won. The amount of the consolation prize shall be an amount determined by the bingo-raffle licensee. Notice of the amount shall be conspicuously displayed prior to the beginning of the bingo-raffle occasion, and the amount shall be included as part of the aggregate amount of all prizes offered or given in games played on a single occasion, as set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (13). If a consolation prize is offered, the game shall be continued until the previously designated arrangement of numbers or spaces on the card or sheet is covered, regardless of the number of balls drawn, in order to determine the winner of the consolation prize. If no consolation prize is offered, the progressive game shall end without a prize awarded when the last of the previously designated number of balls is drawn and shall be replayed at the next occasion the licensee conducts, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subsection (13).

(d) A bingo-raffle licensee may fund a secondary jackpot from ten percent of the gross proceeds collected from the sale of progressive cards or sheets at the occasion where the game is offered. Notwithstanding the limitation stated in paragraph (b) of this subsection (13), the amount in the secondary jackpot may be used to start a single game of progressive bingo after a previous progressive jackpot is won.

(e) The licensing authority may establish by rule the maximum jackpot that may be awarded in a progressive bingo game; except that such maximum may not be less than fifteen thousand dollars.

(f) The licensing authority may establish by rule the maximum number of progressive bingo games, not less than one, that may be conducted during an occasion. In order to ensure that all prizes offered are timely awarded, the licensing authority may limit by rule the number of occasions in which a progressive bingo game may be conducted before a prize must be awarded; except that such number of occasions shall be not less than thirty.

(g) A bingo-raffle licensee may offer a progressive pull tab game in which a prize may be carried over and increased from one deal to another until a prize is awarded. Such game may include a subsequent pull tab deal bearing a different serial number from that offered in a previous deal. No prize greater, in amount or value, than five thousand dollars shall be offered or given in any progressive pull tab game. The licensing authority may limit by rule the types of progressive pull tab games allowed to be sold by supplier licensees. A bingo-raffle licensee may offer an event pull tab series. For the purposes of this paragraph (g):

(I) "Event pull tab series" means a pull tab series that includes a predetermined number of pull tabs that allow a player to advance to an event round.

(II) "Event round" means a secondary element of chance where the prizes are determined based on pull tabs that match specific winning numbers drawn in a bingo game and the winning numbers shall fall within numbers one to seventy-five, inclusive.

(h) When a deal of progressive pull tabs is received in two or more packages, boxes, or other containers, all of the progressive pull tabs from the respective packages, boxes, or other containers shall be placed out for play at the same time.

(i) A bingo-raffle licensee may offer a prize to the purchaser of a last sale ticket in a pull tab game, deal, or series without regard to its winning or nonwinning status as revealed if broken or torn apart.

(j) The licensing authority shall establish, by rule, safeguards to protect the bingo-raffle licensee's players against defaults in charitable gaming debts owed or to become payable by the bingo-raffle licensee.

(14) The equipment used in the playing of bingo and the method of play shall be such that each card has an equal opportunity to be a winner. The objects or balls to be drawn shall be essentially the same as to size, shape, weight, balance, and all other characteristics that may influence their selection. All objects or balls shall be present in the receptacle before each game is begun. All numbers announced shall be plainly and clearly audible to all the players present. Where more than one room is used for any one game, the receptacle and the caller must be present in the room where the greatest number of players are present, and all numbers announced shall be plainly audible to the players in the aforesaid room and also audible to the players in the other rooms.

(15) The receptacle and the caller must be visible to all the players at all times except where more than one room is used for any one game, in which case the provisions of subsection (14) of this section shall prevail.

(16) The particular arrangement of numbers required to be covered in order to win the game and the amount of the prize shall be clearly and audibly described and announced to the players immediately before each game is begun.

(17) Any player is entitled to call for a verification of all numbers drawn at the time a winner is determined and for a verification of the objects or balls remaining in the receptacle and not yet drawn. The verification shall be made in the immediate presence of the member designated to be in charge of the occasion, but if such member is also the caller, then in the immediate presence of any officer of the licensee.

(18) In the playing of bingo, no person who is not physically present on the premises where the game is actually conducted shall be allowed to participate as a player in the game.

(19) (a) No person shall act as a caller or assistant to the caller in the conduct of any game of bingo unless such person has been a member in good standing of the bingo-affle licensee conducting such game or one of its licensed auxiliaries for at least three months immediately prior to the date of such game, is of good moral character, and never has been convicted of a felony or a crime involving gambling.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 991, § 11, effective May 25, 2006.)

(20) No owner, co-owner, or lessee of premises or, if a corporation is the owner of the premises, any officer, director, or stockholder owning more than ten percent of the outstanding stock shall be a person responsible for or assisting in the holding, operating, or conducting of any game of bingo.

(21) The licensing authority shall not require an exempt organization to use raffle tickets in any particular form or displaying any particular information that would cause undue expense to the exempt organization and therefore interfere with the charitable fund-raising drive of such organization.

(21.5) Effective September 1, 1999:

(a) No licensee shall possess, use, sell, offer for sale, or put into play any computerized or electromechanical facsimile of a pull tab game.

(b) No licensee shall possess, use, sell, offer for sale, or put into play any device that reveals the winning or nonwinning status of a pull tab ticket unless such device has been tested, approved, and licensed pursuant to section 12-9-107.7 and not subsequently altered or tampered with.

(c) Any of the following persons that are found to have violated paragraph (b) of this subsection (21.5) shall be subject to immediate and permanent revocation of all licenses issued under this article:

(I) The manufacturer of the device;

(II) The supplier through which the device was supplied;

(III) The landlord licensee on whose premises the device was found; and

(IV) The bingo-affle licensee of the occasion during which the device was present.

(22) No licensee shall possess, use, sell, offer for sale, or put into play any bingo or pull tab game, ticket, card, or sheet unless it conforms to the definitions and requirements of this article, and was purchased by the licensee from a licensed bingo-affle manufacturer or supplier or licensed agent thereof. No licensee shall possess, use, sell, offer for sale, or put into play any electronic device used as an aid in the game of bingo unless it conforms to the requirements of this article and was purchased or leased by the licensee from a licensed bingo-affle manufacturer or supplier or licensed agent thereof.

(23) No licensee shall possess, use, sell, offer for sale, or put into play any bingo or pull tab game, ticket, card, or sheet for which it does not have, at the location of the game, an invoice from its licensed supplier showing at least the name, description, color code (if any), and serial number of the pull tab, card, or sheet.

(24) No licensee shall sell, offer for sale, or put into play any pull tab ticket except at the location of and during its licensed bingo occasions or upon premises that are:

(a) Owned, leased, or rented by the bingo-raffle licensee, used as its principal place of business, and controlled so that admittance to the premises is limited to the bingo-raffle licensee's members and bona fide guests; or

(25) No person or licensee shall permit any person who has not attained the age of eighteen years to purchase the opportunity to participate in any game of chance or purchase pull tab games.

(26) No person or licensee shall permit any person who has not attained the age of fourteen years to assist in the conduct of bingo or pull tabs.

(27) No operator shall reserve or allow to be reserved any bingo cards for use by players except braille cards or other cards for use by legally blind players. Legally blind players may use their personal braille cards when a licensed organization does not provide such cards. A licensed organization has the right to inspect and to reject any personal braille card. A legally blind or disabled person may use a braille card or hard card in place of a purchased disposable paper bingo card.

(28) (a) If a card or sheet is played with the aid of an electronic device, a winning bingo may be determined and verified by reference to such card or sheet or may be determined and verified by reference to the electronic device. Nothing in this article shall be construed to authorize the playing of bingo solely by means of an electronic device.

(b) A bingo-raffle licensee shall adequately mark, destroy, or dispose of cards or sheets played with the aid of an electronic device in order to prevent the reuse of such cards or sheets.

(c) The licensing authority may establish by rule the maximum number of bingo cards that a bingo player who plays using the aid of an electronic device shall be permitted to use with the aid of such a device per game; except that such maximum number shall not be less than thirty-six.

(d) A bingo-raffle licensee shall not be required to use or offer the use of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo during a bingo session.

(29) (a) With the application for a letter ruling pursuant to section 12-9-103 (1) (d) for the approval of a new type of electronic device used in the aid of bingo, the manufacturer of such device shall provide the following to the licensing authority:

(I) A prototype of the new type of electronic device used in the aid of bingo with a prototype bingo aid computer system and a user's manual used for such electronic device; and

(II) A certification by the manufacturer that the new type of electronic device used in the aid of bingo and all such electronic devices used in the state meet the following standards:

(A) The electronic device provides a means for the input of numbers announced by a bingo caller;

(B) The electronic device compares the numbers entered to the numbers contained on bingo cards previously stored in the electronic data base of such electronic device;

(C) The electronic device identifies winning bingo patterns; and

(b) The licensing authority shall return the prototype electronic device used in the aid of bingo, the prototype bingo aid computer system, and the user's manual submitted pursuant to subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (29) no later than forty-five days after receiving such items.

(c) When a complaint regarding an electronic device used in the aid of bingo that is in use in the state of Colorado has been filed with the licensing authority, the manufacturer of such device shall provide to the licensing authority a sample of such device and bingo aid computer system to assist the investigation by the licensing authority. The licensing authority shall return such electronic device and bingo aid computer system no later than forty-five days after receiving such items, unless the licensing authority needs such electronic device longer to complete the investigation.

(d) Any electronic device used in the aid of bingo, any bingo aid computer system, and any user's manual for such a device that is in the custody of the licensing authority pursuant to this section shall not be construed to be public records.

(30) A bingo aid computer system used by a bingo-affle licensee for bingo sessions shall meet the following standards:

(a) Such system shall contain a record of all transactions occurring during a bingo-affle session. Such record shall be retained in memory until the transactions have been totaled, printed, and cleared by the bingo-affle licensee, regardless of whether the power supply has been interrupted.

(b) Such system shall be able to compute and total all transactions processed by the system during a bingo-affle session and to print all information required by the secretary of state, in the form prescribed by the secretary of state.

(c) Such system shall maintain and control the transaction number, time, and date of sale. Such information shall be secure enough that only a manufacturer's qualified personnel can change or reset such information. A detailed record, supported by service documents, shall be retained by such personnel for each service call that involves a change of the time, date of sale, or transaction number.

(31) If an electronic device used as an aid in the game of bingo complies with sub-subparagraphs (A) to (D) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of subsection (29) of this section, and if the bingo aid computer system for such electronic device substantially complies with the requirements of subsection (30) of this section, the licensing authority shall approve such electronic device and computer system for use by a letter ruling pursuant to section 12-9-103 (1) (d).

hold the jar raffle game. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989).

12-9-107.5. Persons permitted to manufacture and distribute games of chance equipment - reporting requirements. (1) No person other than a manufacturer licensee or licensed agent shall act as a bingo-affle manufacturer within Colorado. The manufacture of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, and the printing of raffle tickets other than pull tabs, as designed and requested by a licensee, does not constitute the manufacture of games of chance equipment; except that such electronic devices shall be subject to the reporting requirements of subsections (5) and (6) of this section, and the fees established by the licensing authority in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3) and subsection (5) of this section.

(3) No individual shall act for or represent a landlord, manufacturer, or supplier licensee with respect to an activity covered by such license unless such individual is the licensee's owner, officer, director, partner, member, or ten percent or more shareholder of record with the licensing authority, or is the manufacturer's or supplier's licensed agent. No manufacturer or supplier licensee shall allow any person not authorized by this subsection (3) to represent it or serve as its agent with regard to any Colorado transaction.

(4) Except to the extent otherwise provided in section 12-9-107 (1), no manufacturer or supplier licensee or licensed agent shall buy, receive, sell, lease, furnish, or distribute any pull tabs, bingo cards or sheets, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, or other games of chance equipment from or to any person within Colorado other than manufacturer or supplier licensees or agents and bingo-raffle licensees; except that:

(a) A landlord licensee, supplier, or manufacturer or its agent may sell or distribute cards, sheets, equipment, or electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo for the playing of bingo not for resale to nursing homes and other entities that distribute the cards, sheets, or electronic devices and allow playing of the game free of charge, without consideration given or received by any person for the privilege of playing; and

(5) Every manufacturer and supplier licensee shall file, upon forms prescribed by the licensing authority, quarterly reports on its licensed activities within Colorado. Such reports shall be accompanied by quarterly fees established by the licensing authority in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3) and deposited in the bingo-raffle cash fund. Such reports shall be filed with the licensing authority no later than April 30, July 31, October 31, and January 31 of each year licensed, and each report shall cover the preceding calendar quarter. Reports shall enumerate by quantity, purchaser or lessee, and price the pull tabs, bingo cards or sheets, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, and other games of chance equipment manufactured, conveyed, or distributed within Colorado or for use or distribution in Colorado and shall include the licensee's total sales, including amounts realized from leases, of equipment as defined in section 12-9-102 (5) and electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo and the names and addresses of all Colorado suppliers or agents of the licensee and shall be signed and verified by the owner or the chief executive officer of the licensee. These quarterly reports shall not be public records as defined in section 24-72-202, C.R.S.

(6) Every manufacturer or supplier licensee, and every licensed agent for such licensee, shall keep and maintain complete and accurate records, in accord with generally accepted accounting principles, of all licensed activities. The records shall include invoices for all games of chance equipment or electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo conveyed or distributed within Colorado, or for use or distribution in Colorado, which invoices are specific as to the nature, description, quantity, and serial numbers of the pull tabs, bingo cards or sheets, electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo, and other equipment so conveyed or distributed. The records shall also show all receipts and expenditures made in connection with licensed activities, including, but not limited to, records of sales by dates, purchasers, and items sold or leased, monthly bank account reconciliations, disbursement records, and credit memos for any returned items. These records shall be maintained for a period of at least three years.

(7) No manufacturer or supplier licensee or licensed agent shall be a person responsible for or assisting in the conduct, management, or operation of any game of chance within Colorado.

ANNOTATION

Secretary of state was not required to promulgate rules under the "State Administrative Procedure Act" in order to implement the reporting requirement under this section. Bingo Games Supply Co., Inc. v. Meyer, 895 P.2d 1125 (Colo. App. 1995).

12-9-107.7. Pull tab reading devices - approval required - tracking of transactions.

(1) Every mechanical, electronic, or electromechanical device that reveals the winning or nonwinning status of a pull tab ticket shall be tested, inspected, and licensed by the licensing authority before being used in charitable gaming. The licensing authority shall employ an independent contractor to conduct such tests and inspections, the cost of which shall be borne by the manufacturer or supplier seeking approval of the device. No license shall be issued for a device until the device is secured in a manner prescribed by the licensing authority and the contractor receives payment in full for the cost of such tests and inspections.

(2) Every person shipping or importing into Colorado a device subject to subsection (1) of this section shall provide the licensing authority with a copy of the shipping invoice at the time of shipment. Such invoice shall contain, at a minimum, the destination of the shipment and the serial number and description of each device being transported.

(3) Every person receiving a device subject to subsection (1) of this section shall, upon receipt of the device, provide the licensing authority with the serial number and description of each device received and information describing the location of each such device. The requirements of this subsection (3) shall apply regardless of whether the device is received from a licensed supplier or from any other source.

(4) A device licensed pursuant to this section shall be licensed for and may only be used in one specific licensed location identified by the licensing authority. Any movement of the device from such licensed location for use at another licensed location shall be reported to the licensing authority in advance.

(5) The licensing authority may adopt rules and prescribe all necessary forms in furtherance of this section.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the licensing authority shall not license:

(a) A pull tab game that is stored, electronically or otherwise, within a device and designed to be played on such device; or

(b) Any device that qualifies as a slot machine pursuant to section 9(4)(c) of article XVIII of the Colorado constitution.

(7) The prohibition contained in subsection (6) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the licensing of:

(a) A device that merely dispenses pull tab tickets to players; or

(b) A device that merely reads or validates a pull tab ticket inserted by a player, if:

(I) The pull tab ticket itself displays its winning or nonwinning status so that use of the device is not required to determine such status; and

(II) The device cannot be used in a manner that would qualify it as a slot machine pursuant to section 9(4)(c) of article XVIII of the Colorado constitution.

12-9-108. Bingo-raffle licensee's statement of receipts - expenses - fee. (1) (a) On or before April 30, July 31, October 31, and January 31 of each year, every bingo-raffle licensee shall file with the licensing authority upon forms prescribed by the licensing authority a duly verified statement covering the preceding calendar quarter showing the amount of the gross receipts derived during said periods from games of chance, the expenses incurred or paid, and a brief description of the classification of such expenses, the net proceeds derived from games of chance, and the uses to which such net proceeds have been or are to be applied. It is the duty of each licensee to maintain and keep such books and records as may be necessary to substantiate the particulars of each such report.

(b) Exempt organizations shall not be subject to the requirements of this subsection (1), except to the extent that they shall file with the licensing authority statements showing the amount of the gross proceeds from their fund-raising drives and identifying all organizations receiving portions of such proceeds and the amounts received by each such organization.

(2) (a) If a bingo-raffle licensee fails to file reports within the time required or if reports are not properly verified or not fully, accurately, and truthfully completed, any existing license may be suspended until such time as the default has been corrected.

(b) Exempt organizations shall be subject to the requirements of this subsection (2) only to the extent that such requirements apply to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (a) All moneys collected or received from the sale of admission, extra regular cards, special game cards, sale of supplies, and all other receipts from the games of bingo, raffles, and pull tab games shall be deposited in a special checking or savings account, or both, of the licensee, which shall contain only such money. All funds shall be withdrawn from said account by consecutively numbered checks or withdrawal slips or by electronic transactions referenced by transaction number or date. No check or withdrawal slip shall be drawn to "cash" or a fictitious payee. The licensee shall maintain all of its books and records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(4) No part of the net proceeds, after they have been given over to another organization, shall be used by the donee organization to pay any person for services rendered or materials purchased in connection with the conducting of bingo by the donor organization.

(5) No item of expense shall be incurred or paid in connection with holding, operating, or conducting a game of chance pursuant to a bingo-affle license except bona fide expenses of a reasonable amount. Such expenses include those incurred in connection with all games of chance, for the following purposes:

(a) Advertising and marketing;

(b) Legal fees related to any action brought by the licensing authority against the bingo-affle licensee in connection with games of chance;

(c) The purchase of goods, wares, and merchandise furnished to the licensee for the purpose of operating games of chance pursuant to this article;

(d) The purchase or lease of electronic devices used as aids in the game of bingo;

(e) Payment for services rendered that are reasonably necessary for repairs of equipment and operating or conducting games of chance;

(f) Rent, if the premises are rented, or for janitorial services if not rented;

(g) Accountant's fees; and

(6) (a) For the purposes enumerated in subsection (5) of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(I) "Goods, wares, and merchandise" means prizes, equipment as defined in section 12-9-102 (5), and articles of a minor nature.

(II) "Services rendered" means:

(A) The repair of equipment;

(B) Compensation to bookkeepers or accountants for services in preparing financial reports for a reasonable amount as determined by the licensing authority by rule. No landlord, manufacturer, or supplier licensee, or employee of a landlord, manufacturer, or supplier licensee, shall act as a bookkeeper or accountant for a bingo-affle licensee, nor shall a landlord, manufacturer, or supplier licensee offer or provide accounting or bookkeeping services in connection with the preparation of financial reports on bingo-affle activities, except for the transfer or encoding of data necessitated by the sale, upgrade, or maintenance of accounting software sold or leased to a bingo-affle licensee by a landlord, manufacturer, or supplier licensee. A landlord licensee that is also a bingo-affle licensee may act as a bookkeeper or accountant on such licensee's own behalf.

(C) The rental of premises;

(D) A reasonable amount for janitorial service as determined by the licensing authority in rules for each occasion; and

(E) A reasonable amount for security expense based on established need as determined by the licensing authority in rules for each occasion.

(b) There shall be paid to the licensing authority an administrative fee, established in accordance with section 12-9-103.5 (3), upon the gross receipts of any game of chance held, operated, or conducted under the provisions of this article; except that an exempt organization shall not be charged more than twenty dollars per year. All administrative fees collected by the licensing authority under this article shall be deposited in the department of state cash fund created in section 24-21-104, C.R.S.

(7) Each licensee, at the time each financial report is submitted to the licensing authority, shall pay to the order of the licensing authority the amount of administration expense provided in subsection (6) of this section.

ANNOTATION

Rent is a legitimate permitted expense for all games of chance, including raffles. A reasonable rental may be paid to an establishment for a licensee's jar raffles operations. Am. Hist. Soc. of Germans v. Meyer, 794 P.2d 1025 (Colo. App. 1989).

The administrative fee imposed on a bingo-raffle licensee under subsection (6) is required to be calculated on the aggregate profit from all games of chance conducted by the licensee. Catholic Media Groups, Inc. v. Meyer, 879 P.2d 480 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-9-109. Examination of books and records. The licensing authority and its agents have power to examine or cause to be examined the books and records of any licensee to which any license is issued pursuant to this article insofar as they may relate to any transactions connected with activities under the license. The licensing authority may require by rule that licensees that have failed to keep proper books and records, or to maintain their books and records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, adopt certain internal financial controls and attend training to ensure the integrity of the reporting of games of chance activities pursuant to this article.

12-9-110. Forfeiture of license - ineligibility to apply for license. Any person who makes any false statement in any application for any such license or in any statement annexed thereto, fails to keep sufficient books and records to substantiate the quarterly reports required under section 12-9-108, falsifies any books or records insofar as they relate to any transaction connected with the holding, operating, and conducting of any game of chance under any such license, or violates any of the provisions of this article or of any term of such license, if convicted, in addition to suffering any other penalties that may be imposed, shall forfeit any license issued to it under this article and shall be ineligible to apply for a license under this article for at least one year thereafter.

12-9-111. Volunteer services - legislative declaration - immunity. (1) The Colorado constitution recognizes that the conduct of charitable gaming activities is directly related to the need of nonprofit organizations to fulfill their lawful purposes. Notwithstanding this recognition, however, the willingness of bingo-raffle volunteers to offer their services has been increasingly deterred by a perception that they put personal assets at risk should a tort action be filed seeking damages arising from their volunteer activities.

(2) All bingo-raffle volunteers shall be immune from civil actions and liabilities pursuant to section 13-21-115.5, C.R.S., which provides that volunteers shall not be personally liable for their acts or omissions if they are acting in good faith and within the scope of their official function and duty for a charitable organization, with respect to such organization's conduct of games of chance. Bingo-raffle volunteers shall not be liable under this section if the harm is not caused by willful and wanton misconduct, gross negligence, reckless misconduct, or a conscious, flagrant indifference to the rights or safety of the individual harmed.

12-9-112. Unfair trade practices. (1) The provisions of the “Unfair Practices Act”, article 2 of title 6, C.R.S., and the “Colorado Antitrust Act of 1992”, article 4 of title 6, C.R.S., are specifically applicable to charitable gaming activities conducted by any licensee. Within thirty days after receiving a complaint alleging a violation of either of said acts, the licensing authority shall transmit such complaint to the attorney general.

(2) A licensee that violates any provision of article 2 of title 6, C.R.S., or article 4 of title 6, C.R.S., shall have its license revoked by the licensing authority for a period of one year from the date of the finding of such violation. Upon the expiration of such period, the licensee may apply for the issuance of a new license.

12-9-112.5. Common members - bingo-raffle licensees. (1) For the purposes of this section, “bingo-raffle licensee affiliate” means the following:

(a) Any person that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, a bingo-raffle licensee specified; or

(b) Any person that has an officer, director, member, manager, partner, games manager, salaried employee, or member of their immediate families in common with a bingo-raffle licensee.

(2) Proceeds from a bingo or raffle game that are transferred from a bingo-raffle licensee to a bingo-raffle licensee’s affiliate shall not be used to pay the salary, remuneration, or expenses of any officer, director, member, manager, partner, games manager, or employee of such affiliate. All such transferred proceeds shall be deposited by the donee entity or organization in a segregated account that contains only such donations, and such transferred proceeds shall not be commingled with other funds of the donee entity or organization. The licensing authority and its agents may examine or cause to be examined the books and records of any donee entity or organization insofar as they may relate to account or to any transactions connected with bingo or raffle proceeds.

12-9-113. Enforcement. It is the duty of all sheriffs and police officers to enforce the provisions of this article, to receive complaints, to initiate investigations, and to arrest and complain against any person violating any provisions of this article. It is the duty of the district attorney of the respective districts of this state to prosecute all violations of this article in the manner and form as is now provided by law for the prosecutions of crimes and misdemeanors, and it is a violation of this article for any such person knowingly to fail to perform his duty under this section.

12-9-114. Penalties for violation. Every licensee and every officer, agent, or employee of the licensee and every other person or corporation who willfully violates or who procures, aids, or abets in the willful violation of this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.; except that, if the underlying factual basis of the violation constitutes a crime as defined by any other provision of law, then such person may be charged, prosecuted, and punished in accordance with such other provision of law.

COLORADO BINGO-RAFFLE ADVISORY BOARD

12-9-201. Colorado bingo-raffle advisory board - creation. (1) There is hereby created, within the department of state, the Colorado bingo-raffle advisory board.

(2) The board shall consist of nine members, all of whom shall be citizens of the United States who have been residents of the state for at least the past five years. No member shall have been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S. No more than five of the nine members shall be members of the same political party. At the first meeting of each fiscal year, a chair and vice-chair of the board shall be chosen from the membership by a majority of the members. Membership and operation of the board shall additionally meet the following requirements:

(a) (I) Three members of the board shall be bona fide members of a bingo-raffle licensee that is classified as a religious organization, a charitable organization, a labor organization, an educational organization, or a voluntary firefighter's organization; except that no more than one member shall be appointed from any one such classification;

(II) One member of the board shall be a bona fide member of a bingo-raffle licensee that is a veterans' organization;

(III) One member of the board shall be a bona fide member of a bingo-raffle licensee that is a fraternal organization;

(IV) One member of the board shall be a supplier licensee;

(V) Two members of the board shall be landlord licensees; and

(VI) One member of the board shall be a registered elector of the state who is not employed by or an officer or director of a licensee, does not have a financial interest in any license, and does not have an active part in the conduct or management of games of chance by any bingo-raffle licensee.

(b) (I) Of the five members of the board who are categorized as bona fide members of a bingo-raffle licensee, two shall be appointed by the president of the senate, two shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and one shall be appointed jointly by the president and the speaker.

(II) Of the two members of the board who are categorized as landlord licensees, one shall be appointed by the president of the senate and one shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(III) The president of the senate shall appoint the member of the board who is a supplier licensee. The speaker of the house shall appoint the member of the board who is a registered elector.

(c) Initial members shall be appointed to the board as follows: Two members to serve until July 1, 2000, two members to serve until July 1, 2001, two members to serve until July 1, 2002, and three members to serve until July 1, 2003. All subsequent appointments shall be for terms of four years. No member of the board shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms.

(d) Any vacancy on the board shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment. The member appointed to fill such vacancy shall be from the same category described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) as the member vacating the position.

(e) Any member of the board having a direct personal or private interest in any matter before the board shall disclose such fact on the board's record. A member may disqualify himself or herself for any cause deemed by him or her to be sufficient.

(f) The term of any member of the board who misses more than two consecutive regular board meetings without good cause, or who no longer meets the requirements for membership imposed by this section, shall be terminated by the appointing officer. Such member's successor shall be appointed in the manner provided for appointments under this section.

(g) Board members shall receive as compensation for their services fifty dollars for each day spent in the conduct of board business, not to exceed five hundred dollars per member per year, and shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(h) Prior to commencing his or her term of service, each person nominated to serve on the board shall file with the secretary of state a financial disclosure statement in the form required and prescribed by the secretary of state and as commonly used for other Colorado boards and commissions. Such statement shall be renewed as of each January 1 during the member's term of office.

(i) The board shall hold at least six meetings each year and such additional meetings as the members may deem necessary. In addition, special meetings may be called by the chair, any three board members, or the secretary of state if written notification of such meeting is delivered to each member at least seventy-two hours prior to such meeting. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-6-402, C.R.S., in emergency situations in which a majority of the board certifies that exigencies of time require that the board meet without delay, the requirements of public notice and of seventy-two hours' actual advance written notice to members may be dispensed with, and board members as well as the public shall receive such notice as is reasonable under the circumstances.

(j) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of a majority of the members present shall be required for any final determination by the board.

12-9-202. Board - duties. (1) In addition to any other duties set forth in this part 2, the board shall have the following duties:

(a) To conduct a continuous study of charitable gaming throughout the state for the purpose of ascertaining any defects in this article or in the rules promulgated pursuant to this article;

(b) To formulate and recommend changes to this article to the general assembly.

(c) Repealed.

(2) The board shall offer advice to the licensing authority upon subjects which shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) The types of charitable gaming activities to be conducted, the rules for those activities, and the number of occasions per year upon which a licensee may hold, operate, or conduct a game of bingo or lotto;

(b) The requirements, qualifications, and grounds for the issuance of all types of permanent and temporary licenses required for the conduct of charitable gaming;

(c) The requirements, qualifications, and grounds for the revocation, suspension, and summary suspension of all licenses required for the conduct of charitable gaming;

(d) Activities that constitute fraud, cheating, or illegal activities;

(e) The granting of licenses with special conditions or for limited periods, or both;

(f) The establishment of a schedule of reasonable fines to be assessed in lieu of license revocation or suspension for violations of this article or any rule adopted pursuant to this article;

(g) The amount of fees for licenses issued by the licensing authority and for the performance of administrative services pursuant to this article;

(h) The establishment of criteria under which a person may serve as a games manager;

(i) The content and conduct of classes or training seminars to benefit bingo-raffle charitable licensees, officers, and volunteers to better account for funds collected from games of chance;

(j) Standardized rules, procedures, and policies to clarify and simplify the auditing of licensees' records;

(k) The types of charitable gaming activities to be conducted in the future, based upon a continuing review of the available state of the art of equipment in Colorado and elsewhere, and the policies and procedures approved and implemented by other states for the conduct of their charitable gaming activities; and

(l) The conditions for a licensee's plan for disposal of any equipment and the distribution of any remaining net proceeds upon termination of a bingo-raffle license for the licensee's failure to timely or sufficiently renew such license.

12-10-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the federal “Professional Boxing Safety Act of 1996” requires the state of Colorado to establish a state boxing commission. Because there is no state boxing commission, any professional boxing match held in Colorado has to be supervised by another state’s boxing commission, using safety guidelines and procedures implemented by that state.

(2) The general assembly further finds and declares that it is in the best interests of the residents of Colorado, professional boxing participants, and the future of the sport of boxing in Colorado that the conduct of the sport be subject to an effective and efficient system of strict control designed by the general assembly. Such system shall, at a minimum:

(a) Protect the safety of the participants; and

(3) To further public confidence and trust, this article and rules promulgated pursuant to this article shall regulate all persons, practices, and associations that relate to the operation of live professional boxing events, performances, or contests held in Colorado.

12-10-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(2) “Boxing” means fighting, striking, forcing an opponent to submit, or disabling an opponent, including the disciplines of kickboxing and mixed martial arts.

(5) “Department” means the department of regulatory agencies.

(6) “Director” means the director of the office of boxing created in section 12-10-104.

(7) “Exhibition” means a match in which the participants display their boxing skills and techniques without striving earnestly to win.

(8) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1245), ch. 131, p. 432, § 5, effective July 1, 2010.)

(9) “Kickboxing” means engaging in martial arts fighting techniques using the hands and feet, the object of which is to win by a decision, knockout, or technical knockout.

(10) “Match” means a professional boxing contest or exhibition, the object of which is to win by a decision, knockout, or technical knockout, and includes an event, engagement, sparring or practice session, show, or program where the public is admitted and there is intended to be physical contact. “Match” does not include a training or practice session when no admission is charged.

(10.5) “Mixed martial arts” means the combined techniques of boxing and martial arts disciplines such as grappling, kicking, and striking, including the use of full, unrestrained physical force.

(13) “Physician” means an individual licensed to practice medicine pursuant to article 36 of this title.

(13.5) “Place of training” means a facility where alcohol beverages are not permitted, an admission fee is not charged for nonstudents, instructors of particular disciplines train students in the art of physical disciplines, and students pay a fee to be enrolled in classes and receive instruction.

(14) “Professional” means a participant who has received or competed for a purse or any other thing of value for participating in a match.

(15) “Toughperson fighting” means a physical contest, match, tournament, exhibition, or bout, or any activity that involves physical contact between two or more individuals engaging in combative skills using the hands, feet, or body, whether or not prizes or purses are awarded at the event or promised in future events or spectator admission fees are charged or received, and the contest, match, tournament, exhibition, bout, or activity is not recognized by and not sanctioned by any state, regional, or national boxing sanctioning authority that is recognized by the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies. "Toughperson fighting" does not mean activities occurring under a martial arts instructor at a place of training or other types of instructor-student or student-student contact occurring under the supervision of an instructor at a place of training. "Toughperson fighting" does not mean a sanctioned boxing event approved by the commission.

12-10-105. Colorado state boxing commission - creation. (1) There is hereby created, within the office of boxing, the Colorado state boxing commission. The commission shall regulate matches in Colorado.

(2) (a) The commission shall consist of five voting members and two nonvoting advisory members. All members shall be residents of Colorado, be of good character and not have been convicted of any felony or match-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., and be appointed as follows:

(I) Three voting members shall be appointed by the governor. One shall serve for an initial term of three years, one for an initial term of two years, and one for an initial term of one year.

(II) One voting member shall be appointed by the president of the senate for an initial term of one year.

(III) One voting member shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives for an initial term of one year.

(IV) (A) Two nonvoting advisory members who are licensed physicians shall be appointed, one by the speaker of the house of representatives and one by the president of the senate. Both nonvoting members shall be appointed for an initial term of one year.

(B) The two nonvoting advisory members shall advise the commission on matters concerning the health and physical condition of boxers and health issues relating to the conduct of matches. The nonvoting members may prepare and submit to the commission for its consideration and approval any rules that in their judgment will safeguard the physical welfare of the participants engaged in boxing.

(b) The terms for all members except the initial appointees shall be three years.

(c) The commission shall designate by majority vote which member is to serve as chair. Any member may be removed from office by the person making the appointment for misfeasance, malfeasance, willful neglect of duty, or other cause.

(d) Members shall serve until their successors are appointed and have been qualified. Any vacancy in the membership of the commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. A vacancy in the membership of the commission other than by expiration of term shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term only.

(3) Meetings of the commission shall be held at least annually and shall be called by the chair or by any two members of the commission and shall be open to the public. Any three voting members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. Action may be taken and motions and resolutions may be adopted at any meeting at which a quorum exists by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members present. Members may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all members participating may simultaneously hear one another at all times during the meeting. A member participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

12-10-106. General powers and duties of the commission. (1) In addition to any other powers specifically granted to the commission in this article, the commission shall issue such rules as are necessary for the regulation of the conduct, promotion, and performance of live boxing matches in this state. Such rules shall be consistent with this article and applicable federal law and shall include:

- (a) Requirements for issuance of licenses and permits for boxers, seconds, inspectors, promoters, judges, and referees;
 - (b) Regulation of ticket sales;
 - (c) Physical requirements for participants, including classification by weight and skill;
 - (d) Provisions for supervision of contests and exhibitions by referees and licensed physicians;
 - (e) Requirements for insurance covering participants and bonding of promoters;
 - (f) Guidelines for compensation of participants and licensees;
 - (g) Guidelines for contracts and financial arrangements between promoters and participants;
 - (h) Prohibition of dishonest, unethical, and injurious practices;
 - (i) Guidelines for reports of fraud;
 - (j) Responsibilities of participants, including female boxers; and
 - (k) Regulation of facilities.
- (2) No member shall receive compensation for serving on the commission; however, a member may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of such services.

12-10-106.5. Renewal and reinstatement of licenses. All licenses shall expire pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-10-107. Director - appointment - qualification - powers and duties. (1) The director shall be appointed by the director of the division and shall be under the supervision of the director of the division.

(2) The director shall:

(a) Be of good character and not have been convicted of any felony or match-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.; and

(b) Not be engaged in any other profession or occupation that could present a conflict of interest with the duties of director of the office.

(3) In addition to the duties imposed upon the director elsewhere in this article, the director shall:

(a) Direct and supervise the administrative and technical activities of the commission and supervise and administer the operation of matches in accordance with the provisions of this article and the rules of the commission;

(b) Attend meetings of the commission or appoint a designee to attend in the director's place;

(c) Repealed.

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1245), ch. 131, p. 434, § 9, effective July 1, 2010.)

(f) Advise the commission and recommend to the commission such rules and other procedures as the director deems necessary and advisable to improve the conduct of boxing;

(g) Repealed.

(h) Furnish any documents of the commission that may be required by the state auditor in the performance of audits performed in conformance with part 1 of article 3 of title 2, C.R.S.;

(i) to (k) Repealed.

12-10-107.1. Grounds for discipline. (1) The director may deny, suspend, revoke, place on probation, or issue a letter of admonition against a license or an application for a license if the applicant or licensee:

(a) Violates any order of the commission or the director or any provision of this article or the rules established under this article;

(b) Fails to meet the requirements of this article or the rules of the commission;

(c) Is convicted of or has entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to a felony; except that the director shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., in considering such conviction or plea;

(d) Is addicted to or dependent upon alcohol or any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or is a habitual user of said controlled substance, if the use, addiction, or dependency is a danger to other participants or officials;

(e) Has incurred disciplinary action related to professional boxing in another jurisdiction. Evidence of such disciplinary action shall be prima facie evidence for denial of a license or other disciplinary action if the violation would be grounds for such disciplinary action in this state; or

(2) (a) Any proceeding to deny, suspend, revoke, or place on probation a license shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(b) Upon completing an investigation, the director shall make one of the following findings:

(II) There is no reasonable cause to warrant further action.

(III) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action and should be dismissed, but the director notices indications of possible errant conduct that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected. If this finding is made, the director shall send a confidential letter of concern to the licensee.

(IV) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action but should not be dismissed as being without merit. If this finding is made, the director may send a letter of admonition to the licensee by certified mail.

(V) The investigation discloses facts that warrant further proceedings by formal complaint. If this finding is made, the director shall refer the complaint to the attorney general for preparation and filing of a formal complaint.

(c) (I) When a letter of admonition is sent by certified mail to a licensee, the director shall include in the letter a notice that the licensee has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(II) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition is vacated and the director shall proceed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(e) The director shall conduct all proceedings pursuant to this subsection (2) expeditiously and informally so that no licensee is subjected to unfair and unjust charges and that no complainant is deprived of the right to a timely, fair, and proper investigation of a complaint.

(3) (a) The director or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the director pursuant to this article. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the commission or the director.

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(4) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(5) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(6) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (6) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (6) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(7) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(8) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

12-10-109. Fees - boxing cash fund - created. (1) The director of the division shall establish and collect nonrefundable license fees and may establish and collect surcharges and other moneys as the director of the division deems necessary; except that such fees and surcharges shall not exceed the amount necessary to implement this article.

(2) Moneys collected under this article other than civil penalties shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of professions and occupations cash fund created in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for expenditures of the office incurred in the performance of its duties under this article. Such expenditures shall be made from such appropriations upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law. Civil penalties collected under this article shall be transferred to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund.

12-10-110. Violations. (1) Civil penalties. The director may issue an order against any person who willfully violates this article, after providing prior notice and an opportunity for a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S. The director may impose a civil penalty in an amount up to five thousand dollars for a single violation or twenty-five thousand dollars for multiple violations in a proceeding or a series of related proceedings.

(2) Criminal penalties. Any person who engages in or offers or attempts to engage in the conduct, promotion, or performance of live boxing matches without an active license or permit issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(3) Injunction. Whenever it appears to the director that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice that violates this article or a rule or order issued under this article, the director may bring an action to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this article or any rule or order.

- (4) Enforcement. The commission and director may assist local law enforcement agencies in their investigations of violations of this article and may initiate and carry out such investigations in coordination with local law enforcement agencies.
- (5) Judicial review. Final director actions and orders appropriate for judicial review may be judicially reviewed in the court of appeals in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(1) "Burial memorial" means any type of gravestone, tombstone, headstone, memorial, monument, or marker that commemorates the permanent disposition of the remains of a human body either below or above the surface of the ground.

(1.5) "Cemetery" means any place, including a mausoleum, in which there is provided space either below or above the surface of the ground for the interment of the remains of human bodies. "Cemetery" does not include a cemetery that is owned, operated, or maintained by a government or governmental agency, by a church or synagogue, by a labor organization, by a cooperative association as defined in section 7-55-101, C.R.S., by a corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, or by a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system and exempt from the payment of state income tax and that has as its main business something other than the ownership, operation, or maintenance of any business connected with the burial of the dead.

(3) "Endowment care cemetery" means any cemetery, the authority of which does, or represents to the public that it does, collect funds for the purpose of caring for, maintaining, or embellishing the cemetery to preserve it from becoming unkempt or a place of reproach and desolation. It does not include a cemetery which is owned, operated, or maintained by a government or governmental agency, by a church, by a labor organization, by a cooperative association as defined in section 7-55-101, C.R.S., by a corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, or by a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system and exempt from the payment of state income tax and which has as its main purpose something other than the ownership, operation, or maintenance of any business connected with burial of the dead.

(5) "Interment" means the permanent disposition of the remains of a deceased person by cremation, inurnment, entombment, or burial.

(6) "Niche" or "crypt" means a space in any structure above the ground for the interment of the remains of a human body.

12-12-109. Endowment care fund. (1) A cemetery authority of an endowment care cemetery shall establish an irrevocable endowment care fund for each endowment care cemetery owned, maintained, or operated by it in a state bank or trust company authorized to act as fiduciary and under the supervision of the banking board or in a national banking association authorized to act as fiduciary or in a state or federally chartered savings and loan association authorized to act as a fiduciary. Such endowment care fund shall be invested in investments lawful for trustees, which shall not include investments in nor mortgages on property owned or contracted for by the cemetery authority or any owned or affiliated company.

(2) (a) A cemetery authority of an endowment care cemetery shall make deposits in the endowment care fund or, if it operates more than one endowment care fund, in the appropriate endowment care fund, in accordance with one of the following plans:

(1) Plan A:

It shall deposit in such fund not more than thirty days after any sale is completed at least fifteen percent of the sales price of any grave space and at least ten percent of the sales price of any crypt or niche, and in case any sale has not been completed within sixty months after date of first payment, it shall deposit in such fund, not later than one month after the sixtieth month, at least fifteen percent of the sales price of any grave space and at least ten percent of the sales price of any crypt or niche. A sale is completed at the time the final payment is made and no balance remains due to the cemetery authority, whether or not a deed has been issued. If a contract of sale is rewritten, the date of the first payment under the original contract of sale shall be the date of first payment under the rewritten contract of sale.

(II) Plan B:

It shall deposit, not later than thirty days after the end of the fiscal year in which such payments are received, fifteen percent of all payments received on account of the sale of any grave space and at least ten percent of all payments received on account of the sale of a niche or crypt. This deposit requirement applies to all uncompleted sales contracts which carry an endowment care provision.

(III) Plan C: (applicable only to sale of niches or crypts in a mausoleum)

It shall deposit in its endowment care fund for such mausoleum, not later than thirteen months after the end of its fiscal year in which any sale is completed, at least ten percent of the sale price of any niche or crypt, and in case any sale has not been completed within twenty-four months after date of first payment, it shall deposit in such fund, not later than one month after the end of its fiscal year in which the last day of such twenty-four month period occurs, at least ten percent of the sales price of any niche or crypt. A sale is completed at the time the final payment is made and no balance remains due to the cemetery authority, whether or not a deed has been issued. If a contract of sale is rewritten, the date of first payment under the original contract of sale shall be the date of first payment under the rewritten contract of sale.

(b) As to any endowment care cemetery in operation on July 1, 1965, this subsection (2) shall only apply to all sales contracts entered into on or after said date.

(3) (a) The cemetery authority of an endowment care cemetery, before commencing operation, on or after July 1, 1965, shall have on deposit in the endowment care fund a sum in accordance with the following scale:

For 10,000 or less population	$10,000
For more than 10,000 but less than 20,000 population	$15,000
For 20,000 but less than 25,000 population	$20,000
For 25,000 or more population	$25,000

(b) "Population" means the people residing within a twenty-mile radius of the location of the endowment care cemetery, the population figure to be taken from the latest federal decennial census.

(c) The cemetery authority for such endowment care cemetery shall thereafter make deposits in accordance with subsection (2) of this section. When such deposits have reached twice the amount stated in the above table, the cemetery authority may withdraw the sum of the initial deposit in amounts equal to the amounts deposited thereafter until the initial deposit has been withdrawn.

(4) A cemetery authority of a nonendowment care cemetery which converts to operation as an endowment care cemetery on or after July 1, 1965, shall deposit in its endowment care fund the sum of ten thousand dollars before making any further sale of any grave space or niche or crypt. The cemetery authority for such cemetery shall thereafter make deposits in accordance with subsection (2) of this section until total deposits into the endowment care fund have reached twenty thousand dollars. It may thereafter withdraw from the initial ten thousand dollar deposit amounts equal to the amounts of deposits thereafter made until the entire ten thousand dollar initial deposit has been withdrawn and replaced by deposits in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The cemetery authority of an endowment care cemetery that constructs foundations for the setting of markers or memorials and receives payment for the care of such markers or memorials as part of the cost of foundation construction, setting charges, or itemized endowment requirements shall deposit all of said care payments in their irrevocable endowment care fund not later than one month after the end of its fiscal year in which such payments are received.

(6) The cemetery authority of an endowment care cemetery shall keep in its principal office a copy of the report referred to in section 12-12-110, which shall be available to any grave space, niche, or crypt owner or his duly authorized representative for inspection and study.

(7) The endowment care fund, for all purposes, shall constitute a nonprofit irrevocable trust fund. Endowment care is a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping cemeteries from becoming unkempt and places of reproach and desolation in the communities in which they are situated. The income and increments and gains from such funds are for the benefit of the public for the purposes provided for in such trusts.

12-12-110. Reports. (1) Each cemetery authority shall keep on file annually, within three months after the end of its fiscal year, a written report setting forth:

(a) The total amount deposited in the endowment care fund, listing separately the total amounts paid for endowment of grave spaces, for niches, and for crypts, in accordance with the provisions of section 12-12-109;

(b) The total amount of endowment care funds invested in each of the investments authorized by law and the amount of cash on hand not invested;

(c) Any other facts necessary to show the actual financial condition of the fund; and

(2) Each such report shall be verified by the owner or by the president or the vice-president and one other officer of the cemetery authority and shall be attested to by the accountant, auditor, or other person preparing the same.

12-12-116. Abandoned graves - right to reclaim. (1) If there is a lot, grave space, niche, or crypt in a cemetery in which no remains have been interred, no burial memorial has been placed, and no other improvement has been made for a continuous period of no less than seventy-five years, a cemetery authority may initiate the process of reclaiming title to the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt in accordance with this section.

(2) A cemetery authority seeking to reclaim a lot, grave space, niche, or crypt shall:

(a) Send written notice of the cemetery authority's intent to reclaim title to the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt to the owner's last-known address by first-class mail; and

(b) Publish a notice of the cemetery authority's intent to reclaim title to the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the cemetery is located once per week for four weeks.

(3) The notice required by subsection (2) of this section shall clearly indicate that the cemetery authority intends to terminate the owner's rights and title to the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt and include a recitation of the owner's right to notify the cemetery authority of the owner's intent to retain ownership of the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt.

(4) If the cemetery authority does not receive from the owner of the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt a letter of intent to retain ownership of the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt within sixty days after the last publication of the notice required by paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, all rights and title to the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt shall transfer to the cemetery authority. The cemetery authority may then sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt without risk of liability to the prior owner of the lot, grave space, niche, or crypt.

(5) A cemetery authority that reclaims title to a lot, grave space, niche, or crypt in accordance with this section shall retain in its records for no less than one year a copy of the notice sent pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section and a copy of the notice published pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

(6) If a person submits to a cemetery authority a legitimate claim to a lot, grave space, niche, or crypt that the cemetery authority has reclaimed pursuant to this section, the cemetery authority shall transfer to the person at no charge a lot, grave space, niche, or crypt that, to the extent possible, is equivalent to the reclaimed lot, grave space, niche, or crypt.

(7) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, on and after August 7, 2006, a cemetery authority shall not convey title to the real property surveyed as a lot in a cemetery for use as a burial space. A cemetery authority may grant interment rights to a lot, grave space, niche, or crypt in a cemetery.

12-13-104. Escrow account for entrance fees. (1) Each provider shall establish an escrow account which provides that all of any entrance fee received by the provider prior to the date the resident is permitted to occupy his or her living unit in the facility be placed in escrow with a bank, trust company, or other licensed corporate escrow agent located in Colorado and approved by the commissioner, subject to the condition that such funds may be released only as follows:

(a) If the entrance fee applies to a living unit which has been previously occupied in the facility, the entrance fee shall be released to the provider at such time as the living unit becomes available for occupancy by the new resident and is in compliance with local government regulations applicable to living units, as certified by the provider.

(b) If the entrance fee applies to a living unit which has not previously been occupied by any resident, the entrance fee shall be released to the provider at such time as the commissioner is satisfied that all of the following conditions exist:

(I) Construction or purchase of the facility has been substantially completed, and an occupancy permit covering the living unit has been issued by the local government having authority to issue such permits;

(II) A commitment has been received by the provider for any permanent mortgage loan or other long-term financing described in the statement of anticipated source and application of funds submitted by the provider and any conditions of the commitment prior to disbursement of funds thereunder have been substantially satisfied;

(III) Aggregate entrance fees received or receivable by the provider pursuant to binding life care contracts, plus the anticipated proceeds of any first mortgage loan or other long-term financing commitment, are equal to not less than ninety percent of the aggregate cost of constructing, equipping, and furnishing, or purchasing the facility and not less than ninety percent of the funds estimated in the statement of anticipated source and application of funds submitted by the provider to be necessary to fund start-up losses and assure full performance of the obligations of the provider pursuant to life care contracts.

(2) If the funds in an escrow account required to be established under subsection (1) of this section are not released within such time as provided by rules and regulations issued by the commissioner, then such funds shall be returned by the escrow agent to the persons who had made payment to the provider.

(3) An entrance fee held in escrow may be returned by the escrow agent to the person or persons who had made payment to the provider at any time upon receipt by the escrow agent of notice from the provider that such person is entitled to a refund of the entrance fee.

12-13-105. Withdrawal or dismissal of person - refund. (1) If the agreement permits withdrawal or dismissal of the resident from the life care institution prior to the expiration of the agreement, with or without cause, an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in and the amount used for the care of the resident during the time he remained in the institution, based upon the per capita cost to the institution as determined in a manner acceptable to the commissioner, shall be refunded to the resident; but in cases where a consideration greater than the minimum charge has been paid for accommodations above standard, a sum equal to the difference between the amount paid in and the ratio of the amount paid to the minimum consideration for standard accommodations times the current per capita cost to the institution applied to the period the resident remained in the institution shall be refunded to the resident. If the per capita cost to the institution during the period cannot be established otherwise, the cost during the period shall be deemed to be the cost at the time of the withdrawal or dismissal. For refund purposes "cost" shall include a reasonable profit to the provider.

(2) If the provider is an organization described in section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and exempt from income taxation under section 501 (a) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, it shall be entitled to make refund according to a schedule provided in its agreement with the resident so long as such schedule provides for amortization of the amount paid by such resident over a period of not less than sixty months or over the life expectancy of the resident if such expectancy is less than sixty months. In such case, the refund may be delayed for a reasonable period thereafter until the securing by the provider of a substitute fee from another resident or prospective resident. The provider may also deduct from any such refund amounts due it from the resident for damage done or for any other legitimate offsetting item.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-13-108 as it existed prior to 1981.

12-13-106. Recording of lien by commissioner. (1) The commissioner shall record with the county clerk and recorder of any county a notice of lien on behalf of all residents who enter into life care contracts with a provider to secure performance of the provider's obligations to residents pursuant to life care contracts. All reasonable costs of recording such lien shall be paid by the provider.

(2) From the time of such recording, there exists a lien for an amount equal to the reasonable value of services to be performed under a life care contract in favor of each resident on the land and improvements owned by the provider, not exempt from execution, which are listed in the notice of lien filed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and which are located in the county in which the notice of lien is recorded.

(3) The lien shall be perfected by the commissioner by executing by affidavit the notice and claim of lien, which shall contain:

- (a) The legal description of the lands and improvements to be charged with a lien;
- (b) The name of the owner of the property affected;
- (c) A statement providing that the lien has been filed by the commissioner pursuant to this section.

(4) The lien may be foreclosed by civil action.

(5) Any number of persons claiming liens against the same property pursuant to this section may join in the same action. If separate actions are commenced, the court may consolidate such actions. The court shall, as part of the costs, allow reasonable attorney fees for each claimant who is a party to the action.

(6) In a civil action filed pursuant to this section, the judgment shall be given in favor of each resident having a lien who has joined in the foreclosure action for the amount equal to the reasonable value of services to be performed under a life care contract in favor of each resident. The court shall order the sheriff to sell any property subject to the lien at the time judgment is given, in the same manner as real and personal property is sold on execution. The lien for the reasonable value of services to be performed under a life care contract shall be on equal footing with claims of other residents. If a sale is ordered and the property sold and the proceeds of the sale are not sufficient to discharge all liens of residents against the property, the proceeds shall be prorated among the respective residents.

(7) The liens provided for in this section are preferred to all liens, mortgages, or other encumbrances upon the property attaching subsequently to the time the lien is recorded and are preferred to all unrecorded liens, mortgages, and other encumbrances. The amount secured by any lien having priority to the lien filed pursuant to this section may not be increased without prior approval of the commissioner.

(8) The commissioner shall file a release of the lien upon proof of complete performance of all obligations to residents pursuant to life care contracts.

(9) The commissioner may subordinate any lien filed pursuant to this section to the lien of a first mortgage or other long-term financing obtained by the provider, regardless of the time at which the subsequent lien attaches.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-13-112 as it existed prior to 1981.

12-13-107. Reserve requirements. (1) Any provider shall maintain reserves covering obligations under all life care agreements. The reserves shall be equivalent to the sum of the following:

(a) (I) For those debt obligations that are collateralized by the provider's facility and that require a balloon payment, the amount of interest due and payable or accrued in the next eighteen months.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (a), any amounts held in reserve or escrow to fulfill debt agreements shall be considered eligible to meet the requirements of this paragraph (a).

(b) (I) For all other debt obligations that are collateralized by the provider's facility, an amount equal to the next twelve months' principal and interest.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (b), any amounts held in reserve or escrow to fulfill debt agreements shall be considered eligible to meet the requirements of this paragraph (b).

(c) (I) An amount not less than twenty percent of the facility's operating expenses for the immediately preceding year.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (c), "operating expenses":

(A) Includes all expenses of the facility, except interest included in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (1) and depreciation or amortization expenses; and

(B) Means budgeted expenses pursuant to a budget approved by the governing board of the provider, for providers in operation less than twelve months.

(2) The reserves shall consist of the following:

(a) Savings accounts or certificates of deposit in state or national banks located in this state which are members of the federal deposit insurance corporation or any successor agency thereto;

(b) Savings accounts or savings certificates in state or federal savings or loan associations located in this state which are members of the federal deposit insurance corporation or any successor agency thereto;

(c) Notes receivable from residents to the extent of the portion due and payable within twelve months;

(d) Bonds and stocks selected from an approved list, as determined by the commissioner. If stocks, bonds, and securities that are not on the approved list are part of the reserves, and if they are to be retained as part of the reserves, it shall not be necessary that such unapproved stocks, bonds, and securities be disposed of immediately, but they shall be disposed of in accordance with rules promulgated pursuant to this article, which disposal shall be accomplished in a gradual manner so as to avoid loss to providers. Securities which, although not on the approved list, should be retained in the reserve for reasons acceptable to the commissioner may be retained with the specific approval of the commissioner. Investments in stocks and bonds will be valued at their fair market value.

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 150, § 1, effective April 7, 1995.)

(f) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (f), accounts receivable with respect to life care contracts that are:

(A) Not considered past due by the provider if owed to the provider by a natural person;

(B) Due from the United States or any agency thereof, any state in the United States or any agency thereof, or any institution, pension fund, or trust fund from which collection is reasonably assured.

(II) Accounts receivable that are eligible under this paragraph (f) may be used to fulfill no more than fifty percent of the provider's total reserve requirement.

(g) and (h) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 150, § 1, effective April 7, 1995.)

(i) Investment certificates or shares in open-end investment trusts whose management has been managing a mutual fund registered under the federal "Investment Company Act of 1940" or whose management has been registered as an investment adviser under the federal "Investment Advisers Act of 1940", and in either case currently has at least one hundred million dollars under its supervision, is qualified for sale in Colorado, has at least forty percent of its directors or trustees not affiliated with the fund's management company or principal underwriter or any of their affiliates, is registered under the federal "Investment Company Act of 1940", and is a fund listed as qualifying under rules maintained by the secretary of state in cooperation with the division of insurance.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 150, § 1, effective April 7, 1995.)

(4) Any person or organization which entered into life care contracts prior to January 1, 1974, but which was not required prior to such date to obtain a license, is not required to maintain reserves covering obligations assumed under any such contract entered into prior to January 1, 1974.

12-13-108. Annual report by providers - fee. (1) Each provider shall file an annual report with the commissioner within ninety days after the end of its fiscal year that contains the certified financial statements for each facility and such other information as may be required by the commissioner. The annual report shall be made in a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(2) A provider shall amend its annual report on file with the commissioner if an amendment is necessary to prevent the report from containing a material misstatement of fact or omission of a material fact.

(4) The failure to file an annual report within the time prescribed in subsection (1) of this section shall constitute a violation of this article.

12-13-110. Examination - fees. The commissioner may conduct an examination of the affairs of any provider as often as the commissioner deems it necessary for the protection of the interests of the people of this state. Providers shall maintain copies of their books and records in Colorado to provide access for the purposes of this article. The commissioner shall assess each provider at least semiannually, to cover the annual direct and indirect costs of examinations, supervision, and administration conducted pursuant to the provisions of this section. Such assessments shall be calculated in terms of cents per thousand dollars of total escrowed entrance fees and reserves maintained. The assessment calculation, or ratio of the assessment charged to total escrowed entrance fees and reserves maintained, shall be alike in all cases. On or before the dates specified by the commissioner, each association shall pay its assessment. If deemed necessary, the commissioner may estimate a per diem rate to be charged for examinations and charge a provider for the actual cost of any examination documented by the commissioner.

12-13-114. Life care contract - content. (1) Each life care contract shall be written in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meanings and shall:

(a) Show the value of all property transferred, including but not limited to donations, subscriptions, fees, and any other amounts initially paid or payable by or on behalf of the prospective resident;

(b) Show all the services which are to be provided by the provider to the prospective resident, including, in detail, all items which the prospective resident will receive, such as board, room, clothing, incidentals, medical care, transportation, and burial, and whether the items will be provided for a designated time period or for life and the monthly charge for such services;

(c) Be accompanied by a financial statement showing in reasonable detail the financial condition of the provider, including a statement of earnings for the previous twenty-four-month period, or such shorter period if the facility has been in operation for a lesser period, which shall be furnished to the prospective resident;

(d) Specify the monthly service fee and whether such fee is subject to adjustment;

(e) Explicitly state what rights, if any, a resident will have to participate either individually or as part of a group of residents in management and financial decisions affecting the facility.

12-13-115. Register. (1) Every provider shall maintain a register setting forth the following facts concerning each person residing in the life care institution:

- (a) Name;
- (b) Last previous address;
- (c) Age;
- (d) Nearest of kin, if any;
- (e) Mother's maiden name;
- (f) The person responsible for each resident's care and maintenance;
- (g) Such other data as the commissioner may reasonably require.

12-13-117. Injunction against violations - prosecution. (1) The commissioner may bring an action, through the attorney general, to enjoin the threatened violation or continued violation of the provisions of this article or of any of the rules promulgated pursuant to this article, in the district court for the county in which the violation occurred or is about to occur. Any proceeding under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the Colorado rules of civil procedure; except that the commissioner shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show the lack of an adequate remedy at law or to show or tending to show irreparable damage or loss. The court may award the attorney general all costs incurred in bringing any action under this section.

(2) Upon application by the commissioner, the attorney general or the district attorney of any judicial district in this state shall institute and prosecute an action for the criminal violation of any provision of this article.

ANNOTATION

For purposes of the federal “Fair Debt Collection Practices Act”, 15 U.S.C. § 1692-1692o, if an attorney fits the definition of debt collectors found in the first sentence of section

1692a(6), they are debt collectors and therefore subject to the regulations contained in the federal act. Shapiro and Meinhold v. Zartman, 823 P.2d 120 (Colo. 1992).

12-14-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Administrator” means the administrator of the “Uniform Consumer Credit Code”, articles 1 to 9 of title 5, C.R.S., whose office is created in the department of law in section 5-6-103, C.R.S.

(2) (a) “Collection agency” means any:

(I) Person who engages in a business the principal purpose of which is the collection of debts; or

(II) Person who:

(A) Regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another;

(B) Takes assignment of debts for collection purposes;

(C) Directly or indirectly solicits for collection debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another;

(D) Collects debt for the department of personnel, but only for the purposes specified in paragraph (d) of this subsection (2);

(b) “Collection agency” does not include:

(I) Any officer or employee of a creditor while, in the name of the creditor, collecting debts for such creditor;

(II) Any person while acting as a collection agency for another person, both of whom are related by common ownership or affiliated by corporate control, if the person acting as a collection agency does so only for creditors to whom it is so related or affiliated and if the principal business of such person is not the collection of debts;

(III) Any officer or employee of the United States or any state to the extent that collecting or attempting to collect any debt is in the performance of such officer’s or employee’s official duties, except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of this section;

(IV) Any person while serving or attempting to serve legal process on any other person in connection with the judicial enforcement of any debt;

(V) Any debt-management services provider operating in compliance with or exempt from the “Uniform Debt-Management Services Act”, part 2 of article 14.5 of title 12, C.R.S.;

(VI) Repealed.

(VII) Any person collecting or attempting to collect any debt owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another to the extent that:

(A) Such activity is incidental to a bona fide fiduciary obligation or a bona fide escrow arrangement;

(B) Such activity concerns a debt which was extended by such person;

(C) Such activity concerns a debt which was not in default at the time it was obtained by such person; or

(D) Such activity concerns a debt obtained by such person as a secured party in a commercial credit transaction involving the creditor;

(VIII) Any person whose principal business is the making of loans or the servicing of debt not in default and who acts as a loan correspondent, or seller and servicer for the owner, or holder of a debt which is secured by a deed of trust on real property whether or not such debt is also secured by an interest in personal property;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (VII) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), "collection agency" includes any person who, in the process of collecting his or her own debts, uses another name which would indicate that a third person is collecting or attempting to collect such debts.

(d) For the purposes of section 12-14-108 (1) (f), "collection agency" includes any person engaged in any business the principal purpose of which is the enforcement of security interests. For purposes of sections 12-14-104, 12-14-105, 12-14-106, 12-14-107, 12-14-108, and 12-14-109 only, "collection agency" includes a debt collector for the department of personnel.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), "collection agency" includes any person who engages in any of the following activities; except that such person shall be exempt from provisions of this article that concern licensing and licensees:

(II) Is an attorney-at-law and regularly engages in the collection or attempted collection of debts in this state;

(III) Is a person located outside this state whose collection activities are limited to collecting debts not incurred in this state from consumers located in this state and whose collection activities are conducted by means of interstate communications, including telephone, mail, or facsimile transmission, and who is located in another state that regulates and licenses collection agencies but does not require Colorado collection agencies to obtain a license to collect debts in their state if such agencies' collection activities are limited in the same manner.

(3) "Communication" means conveying information regarding a debt in written or oral form, directly or indirectly, to any person through any medium.

(4.5) (a) "Consumer reporting agency" means any person that, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the practice of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties.

(b) "Consumer reporting agency" shall not include any business entity that provides check verification or check guarantee services only.

(c) "Consumer reporting agency" shall include any persons defined in 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681a (f) or section 12-14.3-102 (4).

(5) "Creditor" means any person who offers or extends credit creating a debt or to which a debt is owed, but such term does not include any person to the extent such person receives an assignment or transfer of a debt in default solely for the purpose of facilitating collection of such debt for another.

(6) (a) "Debt" means any obligation or alleged obligation of a consumer to pay money arising out of a transaction, whether or not such obligation has been reduced to judgment.

(b) "Debt" does not include a debt for business, investment, commercial, or agricultural purposes or a debt incurred by a business.

(7) "Debt collector" means any person employed or engaged by a collection agency to perform the collection of debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to another, and includes any person employed by the department of personnel, or any division of said department, when collecting debts due to the state on behalf of another state agency.

(8) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 935, § 2, effective July 1, 2000.)

(9) “Location information” means a consumer’s place of abode and his telephone number at such place or his place of employment.

(9.5) “Principal” means any individual having a position of responsibility in a collection agency, including but not limited to any manager, director, officer, partner, owner, or shareholder owning ten percent or more of the stock.

(10) “Solicitor” means any person employed or engaged by a collection agency who solicits or attempts to solicit debts for collection by such person or any other person.

(11) “State” means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any political subdivision of any of them.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 12-14-101 as it existed prior to 1985.

ANNOTATION

Entity which originally extends credit to a debtor is not subject to the provisions of this Act but a collection agency which takes a complete assignment of such a debt which is in default is subject to the provisions of this act even though the entity which made such assignment retains no further rights. Debt is still “owed or due another” for purposes of this act. Commercial Serv. v. Fitzgerald, 856 P.2d 58 (Colo. App. 1993).

When an obligation arises outside the scope of a consumer transaction, the obligation is not a “debt” under this article. The regulation of metered parking is an exercise of a city’s police power not a rendering of a service to consumers. Rector v. City & County of Denver, 122 P.3d 1010 (Colo. App. 2005).

“Debt collector” includes a person who is regularly engaged to solicit information from a debtor to aid a debt collector. Defendant mailed the debtor a telegram notification that invited the debtor to call a number. Upon making such call, the debtor’s phone number was electronically captured and sold to a debt collector. This practice was sufficient to qualify as a “debt collector” under the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. Udis v. Universal Commc’ns Co., 56 P.3d 1177 (Colo. App. 2002).

A person who collects a debt that is not in default is not a “collection agency”. Therefore, a person who purchases a debt before it is in default is not acting as a collection agency when attempting to collect the debt. PurCo Fleet Servs., Inc. v. Koenig, 240 P.3d 435 (Colo. App. 2010).

Applied in B.C. Inv. Co. v. Thom, 650 P.2d 1333 (Colo. App. 1982) (decided under former § 12-14-101).

12-14-104. Location information - acquisition. (1) Any debt collector or collection agency communicating with any person other than the consumer for the purpose of acquiring location information about the consumer shall:

(a) Identify himself, state that he is confirming or correcting location information concerning the consumer, and, only if expressly requested, identify his employer;

(b) Not state that such consumer owes any debt;

(c) Not communicate with any such person more than once unless requested to do so by such person or unless the debt collector or collection agency reasonably believes that the earlier response of such person is erroneous or incomplete and that such person now has correct or complete location information;

(d) Not communicate by postcard;

(e) Not use any language or symbol on any envelope or in the contents of any communication effected by the mails or telegram that indicates that the debtor collector or collection agency is in the debt collection business or that the communication relates to the collection of a debt; and

(f) After the debt collector or collection agency knows the consumer is represented by an attorney with regard to the subject debt and has knowledge of, or can readily ascertain, such attorney's name and address, not communicate with any person other than that attorney, unless the attorney fails to respond within a reasonable period of time, not less than thirty days, to communication from the debt collector or collection agency.

12-14-105. Communication in connection with debt collection. (1) Without the prior consent of the consumer given directly to the debt collector or collection agency or the express permission of a court of competent jurisdiction, a debt collector or collection agency shall not communicate with a consumer in connection with the collection of any debt:

(a) At any unusual time, place, or manner known or which should be known to be inconvenient to the consumer. In the absence of knowledge of circumstances to the contrary, a debt collector or collection agency shall assume that the convenient time for communicating with a consumer is after 8 a.m. and before 9 p.m. local time at the consumer's location.

(b) If the debt collector or collection agency knows the consumer is represented by an attorney with respect to such debt and has knowledge of, or can readily ascertain, such attorney's name and address, unless the attorney fails to respond within a reasonable period of time to a communication from the debt collector or collection agency or unless the attorney consents to direct communication with the consumer; or

(c) At the consumer's place of employment if the debt collector or collection agency knows or has reason to know that the consumer's employer prohibits the consumer from receiving such communication.

(2) Except as provided in section 12-14-104, without the prior consent of the consumer given directly to the debt collector or collection agency or the express permission of a court of competent jurisdiction or as reasonably necessary to effectuate a postjudgment judicial remedy, a debt collector or collection agency shall not communicate, in connection with the collection of any debt, with any person other than the consumer, his attorney, a consumer reporting agency if otherwise permitted by law, the creditor, the attorney of the creditor, or the attorney of the collection agency.

(3) (a) If a consumer notifies a debt collector or collection agency in writing that the consumer refuses to pay a debt or that the consumer wishes the debt collector or collection agency to cease further communication with the consumer, the debt collector or collection agency shall not communicate further with the consumer with respect to such debt, except to:

(I) Advise the consumer that the debt collector's or collection agency's further efforts are being terminated;

(II) Notify the consumer that the collection agency or creditor may invoke specified remedies that are ordinarily invoked by such collection agency or creditor; or

(III) Notify the consumer that the collection agency or creditor intends to invoke a specified remedy.

(b) If such notice from the consumer is made by mail, notification shall be complete upon receipt.

(c) In its initial written communication to a consumer, a collection agency shall include the following statement: "FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE COLORADO FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT, SEE WWW.AGO.STATE.CO.US/CADC/CADCMAIN.CFM." If the web site address is changed, the notification shall be corrected to contain the correct address. If the notification is placed on the back of the written communication, there shall be a statement on the front notifying the consumer of such fact.

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1865, § 2, effective May 21, 2003.)

(e) In its initial written communication to a consumer, a collection agency shall include the following statement: "A consumer has the right to request in writing that a debt collector or collection agency cease further communication with the consumer. A written request to cease communication will not prohibit the debt collector or collection agency from taking any other action authorized by law to collect the debt." If the notification is placed on the back of the written communication, there shall be a statement on the front notifying the consumer of such fact.

(4) For the purpose of this section, "consumer" includes the consumer's spouse, parent (if the consumer is a minor), guardian, executor, or administrator.

(5) It shall be an affirmative defense to any action based upon failure of a debt collector or collection agency to comply with this section that the debt collector or collection agency believed, in good faith, that the debtor was other than a natural person.

ANNOTATION

Use of automated mailing service not prohibited as third party communication. The intention of the prohibition against communicating with a third party is to protect a consumer's reputation and privacy. The highly automated mailing system did not threaten to coerce or embarrass the consumer. Flood v. Mercantile Adjustment Bureau, LLC, 176 P.3d 769 (Colo. 2008).

12-14-106. Harassment or abuse. (1) A debt collector or collection agency shall not engage in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt, including, but not limited to, the following conduct:

(a) The use or threat of use of violence or other criminal means to harm the physical person, reputation, or property of any person;

(b) The use of obscene or profane language or language the natural consequence of which is to abuse the hearer or reader;

(c) The publication of a list of consumers who allegedly refuse to pay debts, except to a consumer reporting agency or to persons meeting the requirements of 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681b (a) (3) and section 12-14.3-103 (1) (c);

(d) The advertisement for sale of any debt to coerce payment of the debt or agreeing to do so for the purpose of solicitation of claims;

(e) Causing a telephone to ring or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person at the called number;

(f) Except as provided in section 12-14-104, the placement of telephone calls without meaningful disclosure of the caller's identity within the first sixty seconds after the other party to the call is identified as the debtor.

12-14-107. False or misleading representations. (1) A debt collector or collection agency shall not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt, including, but not limited to, the following conduct:

(a) The false representation or implication that the debt collector or collection agency is vouched for, bonded by, or affiliated with the United States government or any state government, including the use of any misleading name, badge, uniform, or facsimile thereof;

(b) The false representation of:

(I) The character, amount, or legal status of any debt; or

(II) Any services rendered or compensation which may be lawfully received by any debt collector for the collection of a debt;

(c) The false representation or implication that any individual is an attorney or that any communication is from an attorney;

(d) The representation or implication that nonpayment of any debt will result in the arrest or imprisonment of any person or in the seizure, garnishment, attachment, or sale of any property or wages of any person unless such action is lawful and the debt collector, collection agency, or creditor intends to take such action;

(e) The threat to take any action that cannot legally be taken or that is not intended to be taken;

(f) The false representation or implication that a sale, referral, or other transfer of any interest in a debt shall cause the consumer to:

(I) Lose any claim or defense to payment of the debt; or

(II) Become subject to any practice prohibited by this article;

(g) The false representation or implication that the consumer committed any crime;

(h) The false representation or implication that the consumer has engaged in any disgraceful conduct;

(i) Communicating or threatening to communicate to any person credit information which is known or which should be known to be false, including the failure to communicate that a disputed debt is disputed;

(j) The use or distribution of any written communication which simulates or is falsely represented to be a document authorized, issued, or approved by any court, official, or agency of the United States or any state or which creates a false or misleading impression as to its source, authorization, or approval;

(k) The use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer;

(l) Except as otherwise provided for communications to acquire location information under section 12-14-104, the failure to disclose clearly, in the initial written communication made to collect a debt or obtain information about a consumer and also, if the initial communication with the consumer is oral, in the initial oral communication, that the debt collector or collection agency is attempting to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose, and, in subsequent communications, that the communication is from a debt collector or collection agency; except that this paragraph (l) shall not apply to a formal pleading made in connection with a legal action;

(m) The false representation or implication that accounts have been turned over to innocent purchasers for value;

(n) The false representation or implication that documents are legal process;

(o) The use of any business, company, or organization name other than the true name of the collection agency's business, company, or organization;

(p) The false representation or implication that documents are not legal process forms or do not require action by the consumer;

(q) The false representation or implication that a debt collector or collection agency operates or is employed by a consumer reporting agency.

12-14-108. Unfair practices. (1) A debt collector or collection agency shall not use unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt, including, but not limited to, the following conduct:

(a) The collection of any amount, including any interest, fee, charge, or expense incidental to the principal obligation, unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law;

(b) The acceptance by a debt collector or collection agency from any person of a check or other payment instrument postdated by more than five days unless such person is notified in writing of the debt collector's or collection agency's intent to deposit such check or instrument not more than ten nor less than three business days prior to such deposit;

(c) The solicitation by a debt collector or collection agency of any postdated check or other postdated payment instrument for the purpose of threatening or instituting criminal prosecution;

(d) Depositing or threatening to deposit any postdated check or other postdated payment instrument prior to the date on such check or instrument;

(e) Causing charges to be made to any person for communications by concealment of the true purpose of the communication. Such charges include, but are not limited to, collect telephone calls and telegram fees.

(f) Taking or threatening to take any nonjudicial action to effect dispossession or disablement of property if:

(I) There is no present right to possession of the property claimed as collateral through an enforceable security interest;

(II) There is no present intention to take possession of the property; or

(III) The property is exempt by law from such dispossession or disablement;

(g) Communicating with a consumer regarding a debt by postcard;

(h) Using any language or symbol, other than the debt collector's or collection agency's address, on any envelope when communicating with a consumer by use of the mails or by telegram; except that a debt collector or collection agency may use his business name if such name does not indicate that he is in the debt collection business;

(i) Failing to comply with the provisions of section 13-21-109, C.R.S., regarding the collection of checks, drafts, or orders not paid upon presentment;

(j) Communicating credit information to a consumer reporting agency earlier than thirty days after the initial notice to the consumer has been mailed, unless the consumer's last-known address is known to be invalid. This paragraph (j) shall not apply to checks, negotiable instruments, or credit card drafts.

12-14-109. Validation of debts. (1) Within five days after the initial communication with a consumer in connection with the collection of any debt, a debt collector or collection agency shall, unless the following information is contained in the initial communication or the consumer has paid the debt, send the consumer a written notice with the disclosures specified in paragraphs (a) to (e) of this subsection (1). If such disclosures are placed on the back of the notice, the front of the notice shall contain a statement notifying consumers of that fact. Such disclosures shall state:

(a) The amount of the debt;

(b) The name of the creditor to whom the debt is owed;

(c) That, unless the consumer, within thirty days after receipt of the notice, disputes the validity of the debt, or any portion thereof, the debt will be assumed to be valid by the debt collector or collection agency;

(d) That, if the consumer notifies the debt collector or collection agency in writing within the thirty-day period that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, the debt collector or collection agency will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against the consumer and a copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collector or collection agency;

(e) That upon the consumer's written request within the thirty-day period, the debt collector or collection agency will provide the consumer with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

(f) and (g) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1866, § 4, effective May 21, 2003.)

(2) If the consumer notifies the debt collector or collection agency in writing within the thirty-day period described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed or that the consumer requests the name and address of the original creditor, the debt collector or collection agency shall cease collection of the debt, or any disputed portion thereof, until the debt collector or collection agency obtains verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment or the name and address of the original creditor and mails a copy of such verification or judgment or name and address of the original creditor to the consumer.

(3) The failure of a consumer to dispute the validity of a debt under this section shall not be construed by any court as an admission of liability by the consumer.

(4) It shall be an affirmative defense to any action based upon failure of a debt collector or collection agency to comply with this section that the debt collector or collection agency believed, in good faith, that the debtor was other than a natural person.

ANNOTATION

The sufficiencies of the notice are judged under the least sophisticated consumer standard. Notice insufficient because statement on the front of the letter appeared to conflict with the required notice. Flood v. Mercantile Adjustment Bureau, LLC, 176 P.3d 769 (Colo. 2008).

12-14-110. Multiple debts. If any consumer owes multiple debts and makes any single payment to any collection agency with respect to such debts, such collection agency shall not apply such payment to any debt which is disputed by the consumer and when so informed shall apply such payment in accordance with the consumer's directions.

12-14-111. Legal actions by collection agencies. (1) Any debt collector or collection agency who brings any legal action on a debt against any consumer shall:

(a) In the case of an action to enforce an interest in real property securing the consumer's obligation, bring such action only in a judicial district or similar legal entity in which such real property is located; or

(b) In the case of an action not described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), bring such action only in the judicial district or similar legal entity in which:

(I) Such consumer signed the contract sued upon;

(II) Such consumer resides at the commencement of the action; or

(III) Such action may be brought pursuant to article 13 or 13.5 of title 26, C.R.S., section 14-14-104, C.R.S., or article 4 or 6 of title 19, C.R.S., if the action is by a private collection agency acting on behalf of a delegate child support enforcement unit.

12-14-112. Deceptive forms. (1) It is unlawful for any person to design, compile, and furnish any form knowing that such form would be used to create the false belief in a consumer that a person other than the creditor of such consumer is participating in the collection or in the attempted collection of a debt that such consumer allegedly owes such creditor when in fact such person is not so participating.

(2) Any person who violates this section shall be liable to the same extent and in the same manner as a debt collector or collection agency under section 12-14-113 for failure to comply with this article.

(3) This section shall apply if the person supplying or using the forms or the consumer receiving the forms is located within this state.

12-14-113. Civil liability. (1) In addition to administrative enforcement pursuant to section 12-14-114 and subject to section 12-14-134 and the limitations provided by subsection (9) of this section, and except as otherwise provided by this section, any debt collector or collection agency who fails to comply with any provision of this article or private child support collector, as defined in section 12-14.1-102 (9), who fails to comply with any provision of this article or article 14.1 of this title, with respect to a consumer is liable to such consumer in an amount equal to the sum of:

(a) Any actual damage sustained by such consumer as a result of such failure;

(b) (I) In the case of any action by an individual, such additional damages as the court may allow, but not to exceed one thousand dollars;

(II) In the case of a class action, such amount for each named plaintiff as could be recovered under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) and such amount as the court may allow for all other class members, without regard to a minimum individual recovery, not to exceed five hundred thousand dollars or one percent of the net worth of the debt collector or collection agency, whichever is the lesser; and

(c) In the case of any successful action to enforce such liability, the costs of the action, together with such reasonable attorney fees as may be determined by the court.

(1.5) In the case of any unsuccessful action brought under this section, the plaintiff shall be liable to each defendant in an amount equal to that defendant's cost incurred in defending the action, together with such reasonable attorney fees as may be determined by the court.

(2) In determining the amount of liability in any action under subsection (1) of this section, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors:

(a) In any individual action under subparagraph (I) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section, the frequency and persistence of noncompliance by the debt collector or collection agency, the nature of such noncompliance, and the extent to which such noncompliance was intentional;

(b) In any class action under subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section, the frequency and persistence of noncompliance by the debt collector or collection agency, the nature of such noncompliance, the resources of the debt collector or collection agency, the number of persons adversely affected, and the extent to which the debt collector's or collection agency's noncompliance was intentional.

(3) A debt collector, private child support collector, as defined in section 12-14.1-102 (9), or collection agency may not be held liable in any action brought pursuant to the provisions of this article if the debt collector or collection agency shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional or grossly negligent and which violation resulted from a bona fide error, notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error.

(4) An action to enforce any liability created by the provisions of this article may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction within one year from the date on which the violation occurs.

(5) No provision of this section imposing any liability shall apply to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any advisory opinion of the administrator, notwithstanding that, after such act or omission has occurred, such opinion is amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(6) The policy of this state is not to award double damages under this article and the federal "Fair Debt Collection Practices Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1692 et seq. No damages under this section shall be recovered if damages are recovered for a like provision of said federal act.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, harassment of the employer or the family of a consumer shall be considered an invasion of privacy and a civil action may be brought which is not subject to the damage limitations of said subsection (1).

(8) It shall be an affirmative defense to any action based upon failure of a debt collector, private child support collector, as defined in section 12-14.1-102 (9), or collection agency to comply with this section that the debt collector or collection agency believed, in good faith, that the debtor was other than a natural person.

(9) There shall be no private cause of action under this section for any alleged violation of section 12-14-128 (4) (a). Violations of section 12-14-128 (4) (a) may be prosecuted only through administrative enforcement pursuant to section 12-14-114.

(10) (a) No provision of this section imposing any liability shall apply to any efforts by a state agency or state employee to recover moneys owed to the state as provided in section 24-30-202.4, C.R.S.

(b) If the state controller, or such designee as he or she designates to recover moneys owed to the state, fails to comply with any provision of this article, the controller, or such designee, shall be subject to disciplinary action as specified in the rules promulgated by the executive director of the department of personnel pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

12-14-115. License - registration - unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful for any person to:

(a) Conduct the business of a collection agency or advertise or solicit, either in print, by letter, in person, or otherwise, the right to make collection or obtain payment of any debt on behalf of another without having obtained a license under this article; or

(b) Conduct the business of a collection agency under any name other than that under which licensed.

(3.5) It is unlawful for a person to act as a collections manager without having complied with sections 12-14-119 and 12-14-122.

(4) It is unlawful for any person to employ any person as a solicitor, collections manager, or debt collector under this article without complying with this section.

fore, a person who purchases a debt before it is in default is not required to be licensed under the Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act to attempt to collect the debt or bring suit to collect a debt. PurCo Fleet Servs., Inc. v. Koenig, 240 P.3d 435 (Colo. App. 2010).

12-14-116. Collection agency board - created. (1) For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article subject to section 12-14-117 (1), the governor shall appoint five members to the collection agency board, which board is hereby created. The members of the board serving on July 1, 2003, shall continue to serve their appointed terms, and their successors shall be appointed for three-year terms. Upon the death, resignation, or removal of any member of the board, the governor shall appoint a member to fill the unexpired term. Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for misconduct, neglect of duty, or incompetence. No member may serve more than two consecutive terms without first a lapse of at least one term before being appointed to any additional terms.

(2) No person shall be appointed as a member of such board unless such person is a bona fide resident of the state of Colorado. Effective July 1, 2000, board appointments shall ensure that three members of the board have been engaged in the collection business within the state of Colorado, either as a collections manager, owner, or part owner of a licensed collection agency. Two members of the board shall be representatives of the general public and not engaged in the collection business.

(3) Each member of the board shall be allowed a per diem compensation of fifty dollars and actual expenses for each day of active service, payable from the moneys appropriated to the board.

(4) The board shall meet annually for the purpose of organization by electing a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary of the board for the ensuing year.

(5) The board shall meet regularly at such times and places as the business of the board may necessitate upon full and timely notice to each of the members of the board of the time and place of such meeting. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum of said board.

ANNOTATION

Corporation which is in the business of debt collection which takes a complete assignment of a debt owed to an entity located in Colorado is subject to the licensure provisions of this section even though the corporation is located outside of Colorado and the assignor of the debt retains no further rights in such debt. Commercial Serv. v. Fitzgerald, 856 P.2d 58 (Colo. App. 1993).

12-14-119. Collection agency license - requirements - application - fee - expiration.

(1) As requisites for licensure, the applicant for a collection agency license shall:

(a) (I) Be owned by, or employ as collections manager or an executive officer of the agency, at least one individual who has been engaged in a responsible position in an established collection agency for a period of at least two years.

(II) Notwithstanding the requirements of subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), the administrator may substitute other business experience for such requirements where such business experience has provided comparable experience in collections.

(b) (I) Employ a collections manager who shall:

(II) The collections manager may be the same individual specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) if the collections manager also meets the qualifications of said paragraph (a).

(c) File a bond in the amount and manner specified in section 12-14-124;

(d) If a foreign corporation, comply fully with the laws of this state so as to entitle it to do business within the state.

(2) Each applicant for a collection agency license shall submit an application providing all information in the form and manner the administrator shall designate, including, but not limited to:

(a) The location, ownership, and, if applicable, the previous history of the business and the name, address, age, and relevant debt-collection experience of each of the principals of the business;

- (b) A duly verified financial statement for the previous year;
 - (c) If a corporation, the name of the shareholder and the number of shares held by any shareholder owning ten percent or more of the stock; and
 - (d) For the principals and the collections manager of the applicant:
 - (I) The conviction of any felony or the acceptance by a court of competent jurisdiction of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any felony;
 - (II) The denial, revocation, or suspension of any license issued to any collection agency which employed or was owned by such persons, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, and a statement of their position and authority at such collection agency:
 - (A) For any license issued pursuant to this article; or
 - (B) For any comparable license issued by any other jurisdiction;
 - (III) The taking of any other disciplinary or adverse action or the existence of any outstanding complaints against any collection agency which employed or was owned in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by such persons, and a statement of their position and authority at such collection agency:
 - (A) For any license issued pursuant to this article; or
 - (B) When such action was taken by any other jurisdiction or such complaint exists in any other jurisdiction, whether or not a license was issued by that jurisdiction;
 - (IV) The suspension or termination of approval of any collections manager under this article or any other disciplinary or adverse action taken against the applicant, principal, or collections manager in any jurisdiction.
- (3) At the time the application is submitted, the applicant shall pay a nonrefundable investigation fee in an amount to be determined by the administrator.
- (4) When the administrator approves the application, the applicant shall pay a nonrefundable license fee in an amount to be determined by the administrator.
- (5) The administrator shall establish procedures for the maintenance of license lists and the establishment of initial and renewal license fees and schedules. The administrator may change the renewal date of any license issued pursuant to this article to the end that approximately the same number of licenses are scheduled for renewal in each month of the year. Where any renewal date is so changed, the fee for the license shall be proportionately increased or decreased, as the case may be. Every licensee shall pay the administrator a license fee to be determined and collected pursuant to section 12-14-121 and subsection (4) of this section, and shall obtain a license certificate for the current license period. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a licensee, at any time, may voluntarily surrender the license to the administrator to be cancelled, but such surrender shall not affect the licensee's liability for violations of this article that occurred prior to the date of surrender.
- (6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1868, § 8, effective May 21, 2003.)
- (7) A collection agency must obtain a license for its principal place of business, but its branch offices, if any, need not obtain separate licenses. A collection agency with branch offices must notify the administrator in writing of the location of each branch office within thirty days after the branch office commences business.

12-14-120. License - issuance - grounds for denial - appeal - contents. (1) Upon the approval of the license application by the administrator and the satisfaction of all application requirements, the administrator shall issue the applicant a license to operate as a collection agency.

(2) The administrator may deny any application for a license or its renewal if any grounds exist that would justify disciplinary action under section 12-14-130, for failure to meet the requirements of section 12-14-119, or if the applicant, the applicant's principals, or the applicant's collections manager have fraudulently obtained or attempted to obtain a license.

(3) If any application for a license or its renewal is denied, the applicant may appeal the decision pursuant to section 24-4-104, C.R.S.

(4) The license shall state the name of the licensee, location by street and number or office building and room number, city, county, and state where the licensee has his principal place of business, together with the number and date of such license and the date of expiration of the license, and shall further state that it is issued pursuant to this article and that the licensee is duly authorized under this article.

(6) The administrator may deny any application for a license or its renewal if the collection agency has failed to perform the duties enumerated in section 12-14-123.

(7) The administrator may deny any application for a license or its renewal if the collection agency does not have a positive net worth.

12-14-122. Collection agency license - notification of change and reapplication requirements. (1) (a) Upon any of the following changes, the licensee shall notify the administrator in writing of such change within thirty days after its occurrence:

(I) Change of business name or address;

(II) If a corporation or limited liability company, change in ownership of ten or more percent but less than fifty percent of the corporate stock or ownership interest.

(b) If the licensee fails to provide such written notification, the license shall automatically expire on the thirtieth day following such change.

(2) (a) Upon any of the changes specified in paragraph (c) of this subsection (2), the licensee shall apply for a new license within thirty days of said change. The administrator shall have twenty-five days to review the application and issue or deny the new license. If the administrator denies the license, the administrator shall provide to the licensee a written statement stating why the application for the license was denied, and the licensee shall have fifteen days to cure any defects in said application. The administrator shall approve or deny the resubmitted application within fifteen days.

(b) If the licensee fails to file an application for a new license, the license shall expire on the thirtieth day following the change which necessitated the new license application. If the application is denied and the licensee fails to resubmit the application within fifteen days of said denial, the license shall expire on the fifteenth day following the denial.

(c) The changes which require a new license application are:

(I) In a sole proprietorship or partnership, any change in the persons owning the collection agency;

(II) In a corporation or limited liability company, any change of ownership of fifty percent or more of the stock or ownership interest in any one transaction or a cumulative change of ownership of fifty percent or more from the date of the issuance of the license or from the date of the latest renewal of the license;

(III) Any change of ownership structure, including but not limited to a change to or from a sole proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation. No investigation fee shall be required in the event of such a change and the application required may be more abbreviated than that required for an initial license, as determined by the administrator.

(3) (a) Upon a change of collections manager, the licensee shall notify the administrator in the form and manner designated by the administrator. The licensee shall appoint a new collections manager within thirty days of such change.

(b) The administrator, within fifteen days, shall approve or disapprove the qualifications of the new collections manager.

(c) The licensee may continue to operate as a collection agency unless and until the administrator disapproves the qualifications of the new collections manager.

(4) Any licensee which has submitted an application for a new license may continue to operate as a collection agency until the final decision of the administrator.

(5) The licensee may appeal the final decision of the administrator pursuant to section 24-4-104, C.R.S.

12-14-123. Duties of collection agencies. (1) A licensee shall:

(a) Maintain, at all times, liquid assets in the form of deposit accounts in the total sum of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars more than all sums due and owing to all of its clients;

(b) (I) (A) Maintain, at all times, an office within this state that is open to the public during normal business hours, is staffed by at least one full-time employee, keeps a record of all moneys collected and remitted by the agency for residents of Colorado, and accepts payments physically made at the office for any debt the agency is attempting to collect.

(B) Notify, in each written communication, the consumer from whom the agency is attempting to collect a debt of the address and telephone number of the local office required by this subparagraph (I).

(II) Maintain, at all times, a toll-free telephone number that shall be available to any consumer who needs to make a toll call to reach the licensee in connection with a debt.

(c) Maintain, at all times, a trust account for the benefit of its clients which shall contain, at all times, sufficient funds to pay all sums due or owing to all of its clients. The trust account shall be maintained in a commercial bank, industrial bank, or savings and loan association account in this state or accessible in a branch in this state until disbursed to the creditor. Such account shall be clearly designated as a trust account and shall be used only for such purposes and not as an operating account. A deposit of all funds received to a trust account followed by a transfer of the agency share of the collection to an operating account is not a violation of this section.

(d) Within thirty days after the last day of the month in which any collections are made for a client, account to the client for all collections made during that month and remit to the client all moneys owed to the client pursuant to the agreement between the client and the collection agency;

(e) Upon written demand of the administrator, within five days of receipt of such demand, produce a complete set of all form notices or form letters used by the licensee in the collection of accounts;

(f) Be responsible, pursuant to this article, for violations of this article that are caused by its collections manager, debt collectors, or solicitors.

(2) (a) No collection agency shall employ any collections manager, debt collector, or solicitor who has been convicted of or who has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any crime specified in part 4 of article 4, in part 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, or 9 of article 5, or in article 5.5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any similar crime under the jurisdiction of any federal court or court of another state.

(b) No collection agency shall be owned or operated by the following persons who have been convicted of or who have entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any crime specified in part 4 of article 4, in part 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, or 9 of article 5, or in article 5.5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any similar crime under the jurisdiction of any federal court or court of another state:

(I) The owner of a sole proprietorship;

(II) A partner of a partnership;

(III) A member of a limited liability company; or

(IV) An officer or director of a corporation.

(3) Paragraphs (a), (c), and (d) of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to a person collecting or attempting to collect a debt owned by the person collecting or attempting to collect such debt.

12-14-124. Bond. (1) Each licensee shall maintain at all times and each applicant shall file, prior to the issuance of any license to such applicant, a bond in the sum of twelve thousand dollars plus an additional two thousand dollars for each ten thousand dollars or part thereof by which the average monthly sums remitted or owed to all of its clients during the previous year exceed fifteen thousand dollars; or, in the alternative, an applicant or licensee shall present evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit of the same sum and meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S. The total amount of the bond shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars and shall be in favor of the attorney general of the state of Colorado for use of the people of the state of Colorado and the administrator. Such bond shall be executed by the applicant or licensee as principal and by a corporation that is licensed by the commissioner of insurance to transact the business of fidelity and surety insurance as surety. If any such surety, during the life of the bond, cancels the bond or reduces the penal sum of the bond, the surety immediately shall notify the administrator in writing. The administrator shall give notice to the licensee that the bond has been cancelled or reduced and that the licensee's license shall automatically expire unless a new or increased bond with proper sureties is filed within thirty days after the date the administrator received the notice, or on such later date as is stated in the surety's notice.

(2) The bond shall include a condition that the licensee shall, upon demand in writing made by the administrator, pay over to the administrator for the use of any client from whom any debt is taken or received for collection by the licensee the proceeds of such collection, less the charges for collection in accordance with the terms of the agreement made between the licensee and the client.

(3) A client may file with the administrator a duly verified claim as to money due such client for money collected by a licensee. If the administrator makes a preliminary determination that a claim meets the requirements of this section, the administrator shall make a demand for the amount claimed. Such demand may be made on the licensee, the surety, or both.

(4) If a receiver has been appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of Colorado to take charge of the assets of any licensee, such receiver, upon the written consent of the administrator, may demand and receive payment on the bond from the surety and, upon order of the court, may bring suit upon the bond in the name of such receiver, without joining the administrator as a party to the action.

(5) If a client has filed a duly verified claim with the administrator, who has refused to make demand upon the licensee or surety, the client may bring suit against the licensee or surety on the bond for the recovery of money due from such licensee without assignment of such bond to the client. Nothing in this section shall preclude a client from making a demand on both the licensee and the surety.

(6) (a) Said bond shall include a condition that the licensee shall, upon written demand, turn over to the client any and all notes, valuable papers, or evidence of indebtedness which may have been deposited with said licensee by the client, but such licensee shall not be required to return any such papers, notes, or evidence of indebtedness on debts in process of collection, unless reimbursed by the client for the services performed on the debt so evidenced.

(b) "Debts in process of collection" means any debts which have been in said licensee's hands for less than nine months, debts on which payments are being made, or on which payments have been promised, debts on which suit has been brought, and claims which have been forwarded to any other collection agency or attorney.

(7) Such bond shall cover all matters placed with the licensee during the term of the license granted and any renewal, except as provided in this section. Such bond may be enforced in the manner described in this section, by a receiver appointed to take charge of the assets of any licensee, or by any client if the administrator refuses to act. The aggregate liability of the surety, for any and all claims that may arise under such bond, shall not exceed the penalty of such bond.

(8) Any licensee, at any time, may file a new bond with the administrator. Any surety may file with the administrator notice of withdrawal as surety on the bond of any licensee. Upon filing of such new bond or on expiration of thirty days after the filing of notice of withdrawal as surety by the surety, the liability of the former surety for all future acts of the licensee shall terminate, except as provided in subsection (9) of this section. The administrator shall cancel the bond given by any surety company upon being advised its license to transact the business of fidelity and surety insurance has been revoked by the commissioner of insurance and shall notify the licensee.

(9) No action shall be brought upon any bond required to be given and filed, after the expiration of two years from the surrender, revocation, or expiration of the license issued thereunder. After the expiration of said period of two years, all liability of the surety upon the said bond shall cease if no action has been commenced upon said bond before the expiration of the period.

(10) In lieu of an individual surety bond, the administrator may authorize a blanket bond covering qualifying licensees in the sum of two million dollars in favor of the attorney general of the state of Colorado for use of the people of the state of Colorado and the administrator. Each new and renewal applicant shall pay a fee in an amount determined by the administrator to offset the applicant's share of the blanket bond. Conditions and procedures regarding the bond shall be as set forth in this section for individual bonds.

(11) This section does not apply to a person collecting or attempting to collect a debt owned by the person collecting or attempting to collect such debt.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. A case material to § 12-14-124, decided prior to the earliest source of its predecessor, § 12-14-107, L. 37, p. 443, § 7, has been included in the annotations to this section.

Parties who pay money to a collection agency to be applied upon debts owing by them cannot recover on the bond of such agency given under the provisions of this section, on the ground that such money was not turned over to their creditors. Young v. Cox, 96 Colo. 205, 40 P.2d 621 (1935).

The bond given by a collection agency under the provisions of this section does not cover failure of the agency to pay over to an assignee funds owing by the agency to the assignor on a deposit or money made by the assignor with the agency. Young v. Cox, 96 Colo. 205, 40 P.2d 621 (1935).

Board's refusal to take any further action was tantamount to a denial and constituted a final order subject to judicial review. United Fin. Credit v. Colo. Collection Agency Bd., 892 P.2d 446 (Colo. App. 1995).

12-14-128. Unlawful acts. (1) In addition to the unlawful acts specified in sections 12-14-112 and 12-14-115, it is unlawful and a violation of this article for any person:

(a) To refuse or fail to comply with section 12-14-104, 12-14-105, 12-14-106, 12-14-107, 12-14-108, 12-14-109, 12-14-110, 12-14-118, 12-14-119 (1), or 12-14-123 (1) (b) to (1) (e) or (2);

(b) To aid or abet any person operating or attempting to operate in violation of this article, including but not limited to section 12-14-115; except that nothing in this article shall prevent any licensed collection agency from accepting, as forwarder, claims for collection from any collection agency or attorney whose place of business is outside this state;

(c) To recover or attempt to recover treble damages for any check, draft, or order not paid on presentment without complying with the provisions of section 13-21-109, C.R.S.

(2) It is unlawful and a violation of this article for any licensee or any attorney representing a licensee to invoke a cognovit clause in any note so as to confess judgment.

(3) It is unlawful and a violation of this article for any licensee to render or to advertise that it will render legal services; except that a licensee may solicit claims for collection and take assignments and pursue the collection thereof subject to the provisions of law concerning the unauthorized practice of law.

(4) It is unlawful and a violation of this article for any licensee, collections manager, debt collector, or solicitor:

(a) To refuse or fail to comply with a rule adopted pursuant to this article or any lawful order of the administrator; or

(b) To aid or abet any person in such refusal or failure.

(5) It is unlawful and a violation of this article for any person to falsify any information or make any misleading statements in any application authorized under this article.

(6) Any officer or agent of a corporation who personally participates in any violation of this article shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 12-14-129 for individuals.

12-14-130. Complaint - investigations - powers of administrator - sanctions.
(1) Upon the filing with the administrator by any interested person of a written complaint charging any person with a violation of this article, any rule adopted pursuant to this article, or any lawful order of the administrator, the administrator shall conduct an investigation thereof.

(2) For reasonable cause, the administrator may, on its own motion, conduct an investigation of the conduct of any person concerning compliance with this article.

(3) If any licensee or one of its principals or collections managers is convicted of or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any crime specified in part 4 of article 4, in part 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, or 9 of article 5, or in article 5.5 of title 18, C.R.S., or any similar crime under the jurisdiction of any federal court or court of another state, the conviction or plea shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action under this section.

(4) In any proceeding held under this section, the administrator may accept as prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary or adverse action any disciplinary or adverse action taken against a licensee, the licensee's principals, debt collector, solicitor, or collections manager by another jurisdiction that issues professional, occupational, or business licenses, if the conduct that prompted the disciplinary or adverse action by that jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this section.

(5) For reasonable cause, the administrator or the administrator's designee has the right, during normal business hours without resort to subpoena, to examine the books, records, and files of any licensee. If the books, records, and files are located outside Colorado, the licensee shall bear all expenses in making them available.

(6) (a) For reasonable cause, the administrator may require the making and filing, by any licensee, at any time, of a written, verified statement of the licensee's assets and liabilities, including, if requested, a detailed statement of amounts due claimants. The administrator may also require an audited statement when cause has been shown that an audited statement is needed.

(b) Any financial statement of any applicant or licensee required to be filed with the administrator shall not be a public record but may be introduced in evidence in any court action or in any administrative action involving the applicant or licensee.

(7) For the purpose of any proceeding under this article, the administrator may subpoena witnesses and compel them to give testimony under oath. If any subpoenaed witness fails or refuses to appear or testify, the subpoenaing authority may petition the district court, and, upon proper showing, the court may order the witness to appear and testify. Disobedience of the order of court may be punished as a contempt of court.

(8) The administrator may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct any proceedings authorized under this article.

(9) If the administrator finds cause to believe a licensee or collections manager has violated this article, the rules adopted pursuant to this article, or any lawful order of the administrator, the administrator shall so notify the licensee or collections manager and hold a hearing. Any proceedings conducted pursuant to this section shall be in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(10) (a) If the administrator or the administrative law judge finds that the licensee or collections manager has violated this article, the rules adopted pursuant to this article, or any lawful order of the administrator, or if the licensee fraudulently obtained a license, the administrator may issue letters of admonition; deny, revoke, or suspend the license of such licensee or approval of the collections manager; place such licensee or collections manager on probation; or impose administrative fines in an amount up to one thousand five hundred dollars per violation on the licensee or collections manager.

(b) The administrator may issue letters of admonition pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10) without a hearing; except that the licensee or collections manager receiving the letter of admonition may request a hearing before the administrator to appeal the issuance of the letter.

(c) A letter of admonition may be issued to a licensee or collections manager whether or not a license or approval has been surrendered prior to said issuance.

(d) No person whose license has been revoked shall be licensed again under the terms of this article for five years. No person hired as a collections manager whose approval has been terminated by the administrator for a violation of this article shall be hired again as a collections manager for five years.

(11) The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the administrator. Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(12) Members of the collection agency board, the administrator, expert witnesses, and consultants shall be immune from civil suit when they perform any duties in connection with any proceedings authorized under this section in good faith. Any person who files a complaint in good faith under this section shall be immune from civil suit.

ANNOTATION

Board's refusal to take any further action was tantamount to a denial and constituted a final order subject to judicial review. United Fin. Credit v. Colo. Collection Agency Bd., 892 P.2d 446 (Colo. App. 1995).

Applied in B.C. Inv. Co. v. Throm, 650 P.2d 1333 (Colo. App. 1982) (decided under former § 12-14-121).

12-14-130.1. Debt collectors for the department of personnel - complaint - disciplinary procedures. (1) Any interested person may file a written complaint with the executive director of the department of personnel charging a debt collector in the employ of the department of personnel with a violation of:

- (a) This article or a rule promulgated pursuant thereto;
- (b) A lawful order of the state board of ethics; or
- (c) The standards of conduct set forth in the code of conduct developed by the department of personnel for such debt collectors.

(2) Each complaint filed pursuant to this section shall be referred to the executive director of the department of personnel who shall conduct an investigation to determine if a violation of subsection (1) of this section occurred. If the executive director makes a determination that a violation did occur, the debt collector who is the subject of the complaint shall be subject to the disciplinary procedures set forth in rules adopted by the state personnel board. If a determination made pursuant to this subsection (2) is unsatisfactory to any party, an appeal may be made to the board of ethics for the executive branch of state government in the office of the governor.

(3) If the executive director of the department of personnel, or the board of ethics in the case of an appeal, makes a determination that a debt collector in the employ of the department of personnel has acted in violation of this article or a rule promulgated pursuant thereto, a lawful order of the state board of ethics, or the code of conduct described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, such determination shall be made a part of the personnel file of the debt collector against whom the complaint was filed.

12-14-131. Records. The administrator shall keep a suitable record of all license applications and bonds required to be filed. Such record shall state whether a license has been issued under such application and bond and, if revoked, the date of the filing of the order of revocation. The administrator shall keep a list of each person who has had a license revoked or has been terminated as a collections manager for a violation of this article. In such record, all licenses issued shall be indicated by their serial numbers and the names and addresses of the licensees. This section shall apply to renewal applications and renewal licenses. Such record shall be open for inspection as a public record in the office of the administrator.

ANNOTATION

Because it apparently was not the general assembly's intention to abrogate pre-existing common law duties and remedies by the enactment of this statutory scheme, plaintiff suing a collection agency under § 12-14-113 may recover exemplary damages in addition to damages provided under the statute. Virdanco, Inc. v. MTS Int'l 820 P.2d 352 (Colo. App. 1991).

12-14-135. Injunction - receiver. The district court in and for the city and county of Denver, upon application of the administrator, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining any person from a violation of this article and may appoint a receiver or award other relief to effectuate the provisions of this article; order restitution for consumers or creditors for violations of this article; impose civil penalties up to one thousand five hundred dollars per violation of this article; and award reasonable costs and attorney fees to the administrator if the administrator prevails in an action brought under this article. This provision shall be in addition to any other remedy and shall not prohibit the enforcement of any other law. The administrator shall not be required to show irreparable injury or to post a bond.

12-14-136. Disposition of fees and fines. (1) (a) All revenue, except fines, collected pursuant to this article shall be collected by the administrator and transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the collection agency cash fund, which fund is hereby created. The general assembly shall make annual appropriations from such fund for the uses and purposes of this article. All revenue credited to such fund, including earned interest, shall be used for the administration and enforcement of this article.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) to the contrary, on March 27, 2002, the state treasurer shall deduct four hundred sixty-two thousand dollars from the collection agency cash fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) to the contrary, on March 5, 2003, the state treasurer shall deduct one hundred twenty thousand dollars from the collection agency cash fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

(2) All fines collected pursuant to this article, including but not limited to fines collected pursuant to section 12-14-130, shall be collected by the administrator and transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund.

12-14.1-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires: (1) "Arrears" or "arrearages" shall have the same meaning as provided in section 26-13.5-102 (2), C.R.S.

(2) "Child support" means any amount required to be paid pursuant to a judicial or administrative child support order.

(3) "Child support debt" shall have the same meaning as provided in section 26-13.5-102 (3), C.R.S.

(4) "Child support enforcement service" means a service, including related financial accounting services, performed directly or indirectly for the purpose of causing a payment required, or allegedly required, by a child support order to be made to the obligee to whom the payment is owed or to an agent of that individual.

(5) “Child support order” means any judgment, decree, order, or administrative order of support in favor of an obligee, whether temporary, permanent, final, or subject to modification, revocation, or remission, regardless of the kind of action or proceeding in which it is entered, requiring the payment of current child support, child support arrears, child support debt, retroactive support, or medical support, whether or not such order is combined with an order for maintenance.

(6) “Current child support” means the ongoing periodic support obligation that an obligor is required to pay pursuant to a child support order.

(7) “Obligee” means an individual who is owed child support under a child support order and who has entered or may enter into a contract with a collector.

(8) “Obligor” means any person owing or alleged to owe a duty of child support or against whom a proceeding for the establishment or enforcement of a duty to pay child support is commenced.

(9) (a) “Private child support collector” or “collector”, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (9), means a person or entity who performs, or offers to perform, a child support enforcement service for an obligee under one or more of the following conditions:

(I) The obligee lives in Colorado at the time the contract is signed;

(II) The collector has a place of business or is licensed to conduct business in Colorado; or

(III) The collector contacts more than twenty-five obligors per year who live in Colorado.

(b) The term “private child support collector” does not include:

(I) A person or entity described in section 12-14-103 (2) (b);

(II) A nonprofit organization that is exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986” and charges no more than a nominal fee for providing assistance to any obligee with regard to the collection of child support;

(III) An attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Colorado;

(IV) An entity operating as an independent contractor with a county government agency that contracts to provide services that a delegate child support enforcement unit is required by law to provide; or

(V) A delegate child support enforcement unit acting pursuant to article 13.5 of title 26, C.R.S.

(10) “Private child support enforcement service contract” or “contract” means a contract or agreement, as described in section 12-14.1-106, pursuant to which a collector agrees to perform a child support enforcement service for an obligee for a fee.

(11) “State agency” means a government agency or its contractual agent administering a state plan approved under Title IV-D of the federal “Social Security Act”, as amended.

12-14.1-103. Application of the “Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act”.

(1) Except as otherwise provided by the particular provisions of this article, this article supplements the requirements of the “Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act”, article 14 of this title, including but not limited to prohibited practices, licensing, and administrative and legal enforcement as it is applied to private child support collectors.

12-14.1-104. Prohibited practices. (1) A collector may not engage in any fraudulent, unfair, deceptive, or misleading act or practice in soliciting an obligee to enter into a contract for the provision of child support enforcement services or in offering or performing a service pursuant to such a contract, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Imposing a fee or charge, including costs, for any payment collected through the efforts of or as a result of actions taken by a federal, state, or county agency, including but not limited to support collected from federal or state income tax refunds, unemployment benefits, or social security benefits. If the collector discovers, or is notified by the obligee or the federal, state, or county agency, that a payment was collected through the efforts of a federal, state, or county agency, the collector shall not assess fees on the payment. Any fees improperly retained shall be refunded to the obligee within seven business days.

(b) Designating a current child support payment as arrears, interest, or other amount owed;

(c) Intercepting or redirecting from the obligor, the obligor's employer, or on the behalf of the obligor to the collector any child support paid to the obligee if payment is ordered to be made through a central payment registry;

(d) Intercepting, redirecting, or collecting any amounts owed to a government agency under an assignment of rights resulting from the payment of public assistance to the obligee or owed to a state agency;

(e) When a child support order directs that payment be made through a central payment registry, suggesting or instructing that the obligor or the obligor's employer send the payment to the collector;

(f) Making a misleading representation or omitting a material disclosure that, as a result, is misleading with respect to the identity of any entity that has performed or may perform a child support enforcement service for any obligee;

(g) Requiring an obligee to sign a private child support enforcement contract that does not conform to the provisions of section 12-14.1-106;

(h) Sending an income-withholding order to an entity, unless the collector is authorized by state law to send the income-withholding order;

(i) Accepting a settlement offer made by an obligor before:

(I) The collector has reviewed all settlement offers with the obligee; and

(II) The obligee has expressly authorized the collector to accept the settlement offer;

(j) Requesting or requiring an obligee to waive the right of the obligee to accept a settlement offer; or

(k) Collecting or attempting to collect child support after the obligor notifies the collector pursuant to the procedure provided in section 12-14.1-108 (1) (a) (III) and (1) (a) (IV) that the obligor disputes the existence or amount of the child support obligation and the collector has not obtained written verification of the existence or amount of the obligation or a copy of the judgment against the obligor and mailed the obligor a copy of the verification of judgment.

12-14.1-105. Fees. (1) A private child support collector may not charge an obligee a fee unless:

(a) Before the obligee authorizes the fee, the amount of the fee, including the basis upon which the amount of the fee is calculated, is described accurately to the obligee in simple, easy-to-understand language; and

(b) Before the obligee incurs the fee, the obligee has authorized the fee in writing.

(2) A collector's contract with an obligee shall be for a specific dollar amount of child support to be collected. The contract shall explain in easy-to-understand language how the amount is to be calculated and may include any statutory interest to which the obligee is entitled and other amounts ordered by the court.

(3) A collector may charge a contingency fee for the collection of child support that is based on a percentage of the total child support collected.

(4) The maximum fee that may be charged by a collector as specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not exceed thirty-five percent of any amount collected.

(5) No other fees, charges, or costs may be assessed against the obligee, including an application fee.

12-14.1-106. Requirements relating to private child support enforcement service contracts. (1) In order to perform a child support enforcement service for an obligee, a collector shall enter into a written private child support enforcement service contract that:

- (a) Meets the requirements of this section;
- (b) Has been delivered to the obligee in a form that the obligee may keep;
- (c) Is dated and signed by the obligee and an authorized representative of the collector;
- (d) Fully discloses each term of the contract, any fees that may be imposed pursuant to the contract, and any amount that the obligee would be required to pay to the collector for services performed under section 12-14.1-109 if the contract were to be canceled or terminated by the obligee; and

- (e) Includes a copy of any other document the collector requires the obligee to sign.

(2) Before a collector offers or proposes to perform a child support enforcement service for an obligee, the collector shall deliver to the obligee the notice developed pursuant to the rule-making described in section 12-14.1-113 and shall obtain signed verification from the obligee that the obligee received the notice described in section 12-14.1-113.

(3) A private child support enforcement service contract shall contain the following:

- (a) A clear and accurate explanation of the amount of child support that will be collected;

- (b) A clear description of the child support enforcement services that may be provided pursuant to the contract;

- (c) A clear and accurate explanation of the fees that will be deducted and an example of how they are deducted;

- (d) A good faith estimate of the total amount of fees that will be charged pursuant to the contract;

- (e) The full legal name, principal business address, and telephone number of the collector and any agents who assist the collector in providing a child support enforcement service and any separate name, address, and telephone number that the obligee may need for communication about the case;

- (f) A complete and accurate copy of each disclosure and notice required by this article to be provided to the obligee before the obligee signs the contract;

- (g) A conspicuous statement in bold-faced type, in immediate proximity to and on the same page as the space reserved for the signature of the obligee, which shall read as follows:

You may cancel this contract at any time within thirty days of signing the contract or after any twelve consecutive months in which the collector fails to make a collection.

- (h) An explanation that the contract may be in effect for an extended period of time because of the difficulty in estimating how long it will take to collect the full amount of child support due under the contract; and

- (i) A statement that a collector may not assess fees on collections attributable to a federal, state, or county agency. Fees improperly retained shall be refunded within seven business days.

(4) A private child support enforcement service contract shall not include:

- (a) A mandatory arbitration clause that limits the rights of a person to seek judicial relief for a claim arising under the contract or this article;

- (b) A clause that requires the obligee to change the payee or redirect child support payments that would otherwise be payable to the obligee, a state agency administering a state plan approved under title IV-D of the federal "Social Security Act", as amended, or a central payment registry, if payment is ordered to be made through a central payment registry;

- (c) A clause that requires the obligee to close, or not open, a child support case with a county delegate child support enforcement unit or state agency administering a state plan approved under title IV-D of the federal "Social Security Act", as amended; and

(d) A clause that requires the obligee to waive his or her rights to review and consent to any modification of a contract entered into by the obligee.

(5) A private child support enforcement contract may not be modified by subsequent agreement unless the obligee has signed the subsequent agreement after receiving a written copy of the modifications.

(6) A private child support enforcement service contract shall be accompanied by a form, in duplicate, that has the heading "notice of cancellation" and contains a description of, in easy-to-understand language, the cancellation and termination provisions contained in section 12-14.1-109, the cancellation rights of the consumer obligee contained in section 12-14.1-109, and the principal business address of the collector.

(7) A collector who enters into a contract with an obligee shall retain a copy of the signed contract and the statement signed by the obligee acknowledging receipt of the preliminary notice required by subsection (2) of this section for a period of five years after the completion or settlement of the collection efforts by the collector or termination of the contract, whichever event occurs first.

12-14.1-107. Accounting for collections. (1) A collector shall, on a monthly basis, provide to the obligee an accurate and up-to-date accounting that meets the requirements of rules promulgated by the administrator under section 12-14.1-113. The accounting shall be provided to the obligee by mail, telephone, or secure internet connection. The obligee shall request in writing the preferred method that the collector should use to provide the accounting to the obligee.

(2) In addition to the monthly accounting required pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, on request of the obligee at any time, the collector shall provide the obligee with any information pertaining to the case of the obligee, including the information described in this section, not more than five business days after the date the collector receives the request.

12-14.1-108. Verification of account information. (1) In lieu of section 12-14-109, the following verification provisions shall apply to the collection of child support by a collector:

(a) Not later than five days after a collector initially communicates with an obligor on behalf of an obligee with respect to the collection of child support due, unless the obligor has paid the child support, the collector shall send the obligor a written notice containing the following:

(I) The name of the obligee;

(II) A statement of the amount of the child support arrears, including any associated interest, late payment fee, or other charge authorized by law, and of the amount of the current child support owed by the obligor to the obligee;

(III) A statement that the collector assumes that the obligor owes child support to the obligee and that the amounts owed as described in the statement pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a) are correct, unless the obligor disputes the existence or amount of the child support obligation within thirty days after receipt of the notice;

(IV) A statement that if, within the thirty-day period described in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a), the obligor notifies the collector in writing that the obligor disputes the existence or amount of the child support obligation, the collector will cease efforts to collect the child support, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), until the collector:

(A) Obtains written verification of the existence or amount of the obligation or a copy of the judgment against the obligor; and

(B) Mails to the obligor a copy of the verification or judgment; and

(V) A statement that the arrears balance reflected does not include any amounts owed to a county delegate child support enforcement unit or state agency administering a state plan approved under title IV-D of the federal "Social Security Act", as amended.

(b) A statement made by a collector pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall not affect the enforceability of a valid income-withholding order or assignment issued by an appropriate authority under state law for child support collection purposes.

(c) The failure of an obligor to dispute the amount or existence of child support pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall not be construed as an admission of liability by the obligor.

12-14.1-109. Cancellation or termination of private child support enforcement service contract. (1) An obligee may cancel a private child support enforcement service contract with a collector at any time within thirty days of signing the contract or after any twelve consecutive months in which the collector fails to make a collection. The notification of cancellation shall be in writing and shall be effective upon receipt of the notice by the collector. If the notification of cancellation is received by the collector subsequent to the thirty-day time period following the signing of the contract, the notification shall be valid if post-marked within the thirty-day time period.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, a private child support enforcement service contract may provide that, notwithstanding the cancellation of the contract by the obligee, the collector shall have the right to receive a fee for arrears collected under the contract if, as a result of the efforts of the collector, the obligee subsequently receives child support arrears or interest subject to collection pursuant to the contract. No other fees or costs shall be assessed for the cancellation of the contract.

(3) An obligee shall have no obligation pursuant to the private child support enforcement service contract if:

(a) The obligee cancels the contract:

(I) At any time before midnight of the thirtieth business day after signing the contract; or

(II) After any twelve consecutive months in which the private child support collector fails to make a collection; or

(b) The collector violates this article with respect to the contract.

(4) A contract shall terminate without action by either party when the contract amount has been collected.

12-14.1-112. Statute of limitations. (1) An action to enforce any liability under this article may be brought before the later of:

(a) The end of the five-year period beginning on the date of the occurrence of the violation involved; or

(b) In a case in which a collector willfully misrepresents any information that the collector is required by any provision of this article to disclose to an obligee and the misrepresentation is material to the establishment of the liability of the collector to the obligee under this article, five years after the date the obligee discovers the misrepresentation.

12-14.1-113. Notice - rules. (1) The administrator shall promulgate rules related to the notice required to be provided to the obligee in section 12-14.1-106 (2) and the accounting required to be provided in section 12-14.1-107.

(2) The notice required by section 12-14.1-106 (2) shall, at a minimum, address the following:

(a) The option that child support collection services are offered at minimal or no cost through government child support collection services in every county in Colorado and in every state;

(b) A statement that the collector cannot require a government child support collection service to send payments to any person but the obligee;

(c) A statement that the collector will not provide legal advice or act as legal counsel for the obligee;

(d) A statement related to the rights the obligee has pursuant to this article; and

(e) A statement that the obligee may have the private child support enforcement service contract reviewed by an attorney.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "New Limitations and Requirements in Reviewing Applicants' and Employees' Credit Records", see 27 Colo. Law. 95 (July 1998).

12-14.3-101.5. Legislative declaration. The general assembly finds and declares that the use of consumer reporting agencies is increasing rapidly as consumer credit transactions become the rule rather than the exception in every-day consumer purchasing. Consumer credit reports by consumer reporting agencies may report on a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, debts, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living as factors to establish a consumer's eligibility for credit insurance or employment. When a consumer reporting agency undertakes a business that has the potential to profoundly affect an individual consumer's life, whether for good or ill, it is incumbent upon such agencies to ensure that the information they are providing is accurate. Inaccurate consumer credit reports directly impair the efficiency of the banking system and unfair credit reporting methods undermine the public confidence in the banking system. There is a need to ensure that consumer reporting agencies exercise their responsibilities with fairness, impartiality, and respect for the consumer's rights. The general assembly further finds and declares that, in the event the information provided by a consumer reporting agency in a consumer credit report is inaccurate, the consumer has the right to have that information corrected in a swift and uncomplicated way.

12-14.3-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Adverse action" includes:

- (a) The denial of, increase in any charge for, or reduction in the amount of insurance for personal, family, or household purposes;
- (b) The denial of employment or any other decision for employment purposes that adversely affects a current or prospective employee; and
- (c) An action or determination with respect to a consumer's application for credit under a credit arrangement that is adverse to the consumer's interests.

(3) (a) "Consumer report" means any written, oral, or other communication or any information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, debts, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, which is used or expected to be used or collected, in whole or in part, as a factor to establish a consumer's eligibility for credit or insurance to be used for personal, family, or household purposes, employment purposes, or any other purpose authorized pursuant to applicable provisions of the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. secs. 1681a and 1681b, as amended.

(b) "Consumer report" does not include:

(I) Any report containing information solely as to a transaction between the consumer and the person making the report;

(II) Any authorization or approval of a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly by the issuer of a credit card or similar device;

(III) Any report in which a person who has been requested by a third party to make a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly to a consumer conveys a decision with respect to the request, if the third party advises the consumer of the name and address of the person to whom the request was made and the person makes the disclosures that must be made to the consumer pursuant to the provisions of the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681m, as amended, in the event of adverse action.

(4) "Consumer reporting agency" means any person which, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the practice of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties. "Consumer reporting agency” shall not include any business entity that provides check verification or check guarantee services only.

(4.3) “Credit scoring” means the practice of quantifying the credit risk a person presents using such person’s history, characteristics, or attributes in a formula designed to objectively rate credit risk or insurance risk of loss.

(4.5) “Creditworthiness” means any entry in a consumer’s credit file that impacts the ability of a consumer to obtain and retain credit, employment, business or professional licenses, investment opportunities, or insurance. Entries contained in a consumer file or in a consumer report that affect creditworthiness shall include, but not be limited to, payment information, defaults, judgments, liens, bankruptcies, collections, records of arrest and indictments, and multiple-credit inquiries.

(4.7) “Dwelling” means a residential structure that contains one to four units, whether or not that structure is attached to real property. The term includes any individual condominium unit, cooperative unit, mobile home, or trailer, if it is used as a residence.

(5) “Employment purposes”, when used in connection with a consumer report, means a report used for the purpose of evaluating a consumer for employment, promotion, reassignment, or retention as an employee.

(6) “File” means all of the information on the consumer which is recorded and retained by a consumer reporting agency regardless of how the information is stored.

(7) “Investigative consumer report” means a consumer report or portion thereof in which information on a consumer’s character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer, reported on or with others with whom the consumer is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any such items of information. The term does not include specific factual information on a consumer’s credit record obtained directly from a creditor of the consumer or from a consumer reporting agency when such information was obtained directly from a creditor of the consumer or from the consumer.

(7.5) “Key factors” means all relevant elements or reasons adversely affecting a specific credit score assigned to a consumer, listed in the order of their importance, based on their respective effects on the credit score.

(8) “Person” means any natural person, firm, corporation, or partnership.

(9) “Proper identification” means information generally deemed sufficient to identify a person. If the consumer is unable to reasonably identify himself or herself with the information described above, a consumer reporting agency may require additional information concerning the consumer’s employment and personal or family history in order to verify his or her identity.

(10) “Reviewing the account” means activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

(11) “Security freeze” or “freeze” means a notice placed in a consumer report, at the request of a consumer and subject to certain exemptions, that prohibits the consumer reporting agency from releasing the consumer report or any information from it without the express authorization of the consumer.

12-14.3-103. Permissible purposes - prohibition. (1) A consumer reporting agency may furnish a consumer report only under the following circumstances:

(a) In response to an order of a court having jurisdiction to issue such an order;

(b) In accordance with the written instructions of the consumer to whom it relates; and

(c) To a person which the consumer reporting agency has reason to believe:

(I) Intends to use the information in connection with a credit transaction involving the consumer on whom the information is to be furnished and involving an extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the consumer and if the consumer chooses to provide their social security number to the user, the user shall include the social security number with, or as a supplement to, a request for a consumer report, and include the social security number when transmitting subsequent credit information to a consumer reporting agency; or

(II) Intends to use the information for employment purposes only if an applicant or employee is first informed that a credit report may be requested in connection with his or her application for employment and the consumer consents in writing to the same; or

(III) Intends to use credit scoring information in connection with the underwriting or rating of insurance involving the consumer and such person establishes that the consumer has received written notification, or notification in the same medium as the application for insurance, that a credit report may be requested in connection with his or her application for insurance, and that credit scoring information may be used to determine either the consumer's eligibility for insurance or the premium to be charged to the consumer; or

(IV) Intends to use the information in connection with a determination of the consumer's eligibility for a license or other benefit granted by a governmental instrumentality required by law to consider an applicant's financial responsibility or status; or

(V) Otherwise has a legitimate business need for the information in connection with a business transaction involving the consumer; or

(VI) Intends to use the information for any purpose allowed under the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act" and rules promulgated pursuant to such act.

(2) A consumer reporting agency may not, by contract or otherwise, prohibit a user of any consumer report or investigative consumer report from, upon request of the consumer, disclosing and explaining the contents of such report or providing a copy of the report to the consumer to whom it relates if adverse action against the consumer has been taken or is contemplated by the user of the consumer report or investigative consumer report, based in whole or in part on such report. No user or consumer reporting agency shall be held liable or otherwise responsible for a disclosed or copied report when acting pursuant to this subsection (2) nor shall such disclosure or provision of a copy of the report, by themselves, make the user a consumer reporting agency.

12-14.3-103.5. Consumer reports - accuracy of information. Whenever a consumer reporting agency prepares a consumer report, the agency shall follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy of the information concerning the consumer about whom the report relates, including the use of the consumer's social security number if, in accordance with section 12-14.3-103 (1) (c) (I), the consumer's social security number is provided to the consumer reporting agency by a person intending to use the information contained in a consumer report in connection with a credit transaction involving the consumer and the social security number was initially provided to the user by the consumer in connection with such transaction.

12-14.3-104. Disclosures to consumers. (1) A consumer reporting agency shall, upon written or verbal request and proper identification of any consumer, clearly, accurately, and in a manner that is understandable to the consumer, disclose to the consumer, in writing, all information in its files at the time of the request pertaining to the consumer, including but not limited to:

(a) The names of all persons requesting credit information pertaining to the consumer during the prior twelve-month period and the date of each request;

(b) A set of instructions, presented in a manner that is understandable to the consumer, describing how information is presented on its written disclosure of the file; and

(c) A toll-free number for use in resolving the dispute if the consumer submitted a written dispute to the consumer reporting agency, which operates on a nationwide basis.

(2) (a) A consumer reporting agency shall notify a consumer, by letter sent by first-class mail, that the consumer reporting agency will provide the consumer with a disclosure copy of his or her consumer file at no charge and a toll-free telephone number to call to provide the consumer reporting agency with the information necessary to request such copy, when one of the following events occurs within a twelve-month period:

(I) The consumer reporting agency has received eight credit inquiries pertaining to the consumer; or

(II) The consumer reporting agency has received a report that would add negative information to a consumer's file.

(b) A consumer reporting agency need only send one letter to a consumer per twelve-month period pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) even if more than one such event occurs in that period.

(c) Any letter mailed to a consumer pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall not contain any identifying information particular to that consumer including, but not limited to, social security number, place of employment, date of birth, or mother's maiden name.

(d) Any letter mailed to a consumer pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) may be a form letter; except that each letter shall advise the consumer of the number and type of events that occurred relating to the consumer that initiated the letter. Such letter shall also include a notice or separate form the consumer may complete and return to the consumer reporting agency to request a free copy of such consumer's credit report.

(e) Each consumer reporting agency shall, upon request of a consumer, provide the consumer with one disclosure copy of his or her file per year at no charge whether or not the consumer has made the request in response to the notification required in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2). If the consumer requests more than one disclosure copy of his or her file per year pursuant to this paragraph (e), the consumer reporting agency may charge the consumer up to eight dollars for each additional disclosure copy.

12-14.3-104.3. Credit scoring related to the extension of credit secured by a dwelling. (1) In connection with an application for an extension of credit for a consumer purpose that is to be secured by a dwelling, the consumer reporting agency shall, upon the written request of the consumer, contained either in the application for an extension of credit or in a separate document, disclose to the consumer the following:

(a) The consumer's current credit score or the most recent credit score of the consumer that was previously calculated by the consumer reporting agency;

(b) The range of possible credit scores under the model used;

(c) The key factors, if any, not to exceed four, that adversely affected the credit score of the consumer in the model used;

(d) The date on which the credit score was created; and

(e) The name of the person or entity that provided the credit score or the credit file on the basis of which the credit score was created.

(2) (a) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed to compel a consumer reporting agency to develop or disclose a credit score if the agency does not:

(I) Distribute scores that are used in connection with extensions of credit secured by residential real estate; or

(II) Develop credit scores that assist creditors in understanding the general credit behavior of the consumer and predicting future credit behavior.

(b) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed to require a consumer reporting agency that distributes credit scores developed by another person or entity to provide further explanation of those scores or to process a dispute that may arise about information; except that the consumer reporting agency shall be required to provide to the consumer the name of, and current contact information for, the person or entity that developed the score or developed the methodology for the score.

(c) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed to require a consumer reporting agency to maintain credit scores in its files.

(d) Nothing in subsection (3) of this section shall be construed to compel disclosures of a credit score except upon specific request of a consumer. If a consumer requests a credit file and not the credit score, then the consumer shall be provided with the credit file together with a statement that the consumer may request and obtain a credit score.

(3) Pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, a consumer reporting agency shall supply to a consumer:

(a) A credit score that is derived from a credit scoring model that is widely distributed to users of credit scores by that consumer reporting agency in connection with any extension of credit secured by a dwelling; or

(b) A credit score accompanied by information specifically required to be disclosed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section that assists the consumer in understanding the credit scoring assessment of the credit behavior of the consumer and predictions about future credit behavior.

(4) For purposes of this section, "credit score" means a numerical value or a categorization derived from a statistical tool or modeling system used by a person who makes or arranges a loan to predict the likelihood of certain credit behaviors, including default. The numerical value or the categorization derived from this analysis may also be referred to as a "risk predictor" or "risk score". "Credit score" does not include any mortgage score or rating of an automated underwriting system that considers one or more factors in addition to credit information, including, but not limited to, the loan value ratio, the amount of down payment, or a consumer's financial assets. "Credit score" does not include other elements of the underwriting process or underwriting decision.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article to the contrary, a consumer reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee for disclosing a credit score.

12-14.3-105. Charges for certain disclosures. (1) A consumer reporting agency shall not impose a charge for:

(a) A request for a copy of the consumer's file made within sixty days after adverse action is taken; or

(b) Notifying any person designated by the consumer, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681i, as amended, of the deletion of information which is found to be inaccurate or which can no longer be verified; or

(c) A set of instructions for understanding the information presented on the consumer report and a toll free telephone number that consumers may utilize to obtain additional assistance concerning the consumer report; or

(d) The first copy of a consumer disclosure provided to a consumer each calendar year pursuant to section 12-14.3-104 (2) (a).

(2) For all other disclosures to consumers of information pertaining to the consumer, the consumer reporting agency may impose a reasonable charge, not to exceed the retail price of a written report rendered in the normal course of business to the customers of such agency for each request for information.

Source: L. 95: Entire article added, p. 535, § 3, effective January 1, 1996. L. 97: (1)(d) added, p. 388, § 5, effective August 1.

12-14.3-105.3. Reporting of information prohibited. (1) Except as authorized under subsection (2) of this section, no consumer reporting agency shall make any consumer report containing any of the following items of information:

(a) Cases under title 11 of the United States Code, or under the federal bankruptcy act that, from the date of entry of the order for relief or the date of adjudication, predate the report by more than ten years;

(b) Suits and judgments that, from the date of entry, predate the report by more than seven years or by more than the governing statute of limitations, whichever is the longer period;

(c) Paid tax liens that, from the date of payment, predate the report by more than seven years;

(d) Accounts placed for collection or charged to profit and loss that predate the report by more than seven years;

(e) Records of arrest, indictment, or conviction of a crime that, from the date of disposition, release, or parole, predate the report by more than seven years;

(f) Any other adverse item of information that predates the report by more than seven years.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to the case of any consumer report to be used in connection with:

(a) A credit transaction involving, or that may reasonably be expected to involve, a principal amount of one hundred fifty thousand dollars or more;

(b) The underwriting of life insurance involving, or that may reasonably be expected to involve, a face amount of one hundred fifty thousand dollars or more; or

(c) The employment of an individual at an annual salary that equals or is reasonably expected to equal seventy-five thousand dollars or more.

(3) A consumer reporting agency shall not furnish for employment purposes, or in connection with a credit or insurance transaction or a direct marketing transaction, a consumer report that contains medical information about a consumer unless the consumer consents to the furnishing of the report.

(4) A consumer reporting agency shall not include, in a consumer report made to a person requesting credit information pertaining to a consumer, the names of any other persons who have requested credit information pertaining to that consumer or the number of such inquiries made more than one year preceding the date of the consumer report; except that such information shall be retained for two years and provided to the consumer as provided in this article.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, a consumer reporting agency shall not furnish to any person, including a developer of credit scoring, a record of inquiries in connection with a credit or insurance transaction that is not initiated by the consumer. The term "credit or insurance transaction that is not initiated by the consumer" does not include inquiries resulting from the collection of an account or for purposes of reviewing an account.

12-14.3-106. Procedure for disputed information. (1) If the completeness or accuracy of any item of information contained in the consumer's file is disputed by the consumer and the consumer notifies the consumer reporting agency directly of such dispute, the agency shall reinvestigate the item free of charge and record the current status of the disputed information on or before thirty business days after the date the agency receives notice conveyed by the consumer. The consumer reporting agency shall provide the consumer with the option of speaking directly to a representative of the agency to notify the agency of disputed information contained in the consumer's file.

(2) On or before five business days after the date a consumer reporting agency receives notice of a dispute from a consumer in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the agency shall provide notice of the dispute to all persons who provided any item of information in dispute.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a consumer reporting agency may terminate a reinvestigation of information disputed by a consumer under such subsection (1) if the agency reasonably determines that such dispute by the consumer is frivolous or irrelevant. Upon making such a determination, a consumer reporting agency shall promptly notify the consumer of such determination and the reasons therefor, by mail, or if authorized by the consumer for that purpose, by telephone. The presence of contradictory information in the consumer's file does not in and of itself constitute reasonable grounds for determining the dispute is frivolous or irrelevant.

(4) If, after a reinvestigation under subsection (1) of this section of any information disputed by a consumer, the information is found to be inaccurate or cannot be verified, the consumer reporting agency shall promptly delete such information from the consumer's file, revise the file, provide the consumer and, at the request of the consumer, any person that, within the last twelve months, requested the disputed information with a revised consumer report indicating that it is a revised consumer report, and refrain from reporting the information in subsequent reports. The consumer reporting agency shall advise the consumer that he or she has the right to have a copy of the revised consumer report sent by the consumer reporting agency to any person that requested the disputed information within the last twelve months.

(5) Information deleted pursuant to subsection (4) of this section may not be reinserted in the consumer's file unless the person who furnishes the information reinvestigates and states in writing or by electronic record to the consumer reporting agency that the information is complete and accurate.

(6) A consumer reporting agency shall provide written notice of the results of any reinvestigation or reinsertion made pursuant to this section within five business days of the completion of the reinvestigation or reinsertion. Such notice shall include:

- (a) A statement that the reinvestigation is complete;
- (b) A statement of the determination of the consumer reporting agency on the completeness or accuracy of the disputed information;
- (c) A copy of the consumer's file or consumer report and a description of the results of the reinvestigation;

(d) A notice that, if requested by the consumer, a description of the procedure used to determine the accuracy and completeness of the information shall be provided to the consumer by the consumer reporting agency, including the name, business address, and, if available, the telephone number of any person contacted in connection with such information;

(e) A notification that the consumer has the right, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681i, as amended, to add a statement to the consumer's file disputing the accuracy or completeness of the information; and

(f) A notification of the consumer's rights to dispute resolution under section 12-14.3-107, which are available after the consumer has followed all dispute procedures described in this section and has received the notice specified under this subsection (6).

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a person who obtains a consumer report for resale to alter or correct any inaccuracy in such consumer report if the consumer report was not assembled or prepared by such person.

(8) The consumer reporting agency shall provide a person who provides credit information to the agency with the option to speak directly with a representative of the agency or to submit corrections to previously reported information by facsimile or other automated means when inaccurate information that was reported by such credit information provider appears on a consumer's file. The consumer reporting agency shall, in a period not to exceed five business days from the receipt of such faxed or automated information regarding such corrections, correct such inaccuracies on the consumer's file and, upon request, communicate such corrections to the person who submitted the initial request for corrections. The credit information provider's communication shall include information established by the consumer reporting agency that identifies him or her as the credit information provider who provided the original inaccurate information. Nothing in this subsection (8) shall be construed to prohibit a consumer reporting agency from correcting inaccurate information in a consumer's file or a consumer report at any time.

12-14.3-106.5. Consumer report information block. (1) (a) A consumer reporting agency shall, within thirty days after the receipt of a police report or order pursuant to this paragraph (a), permanently block the reporting of any information that a consumer identifies on his or her consumer report as being subject to either a police report or a court order referenced in subparagraph (I) or (II) of this paragraph (a) if the consumer provides a consumer reporting agency with proof of the consumer's identification and a copy of:

(I) A police report that alleges that a person other than the consumer obtained or recorded, by means of fraud, theft, or other violation of the "Colorado Criminal Code", personal identifying information of the consumer without authorization from the consumer and that the person used the information to obtain, or attempt to obtain, credit, goods, services, or moneys in the name of the consumer without the consumer's consent; or

(b) The consumer reporting agency shall promptly notify the person who furnished the information that a police report or court order has been filed, that a block has been requested, and of the effective date of the block.

(2) (a) A consumer reporting agency may decline to block or may rescind any block of consumer information if, in the exercise of good faith and reasonable judgment, the consumer reporting agency believes:

(I) The information was blocked due to a misrepresentation of fact by the consumer relevant to the request to block under this section;

(II) The consumer agrees that the blocked information or portions of the blocked information were blocked in error;

(III) The consumer knowingly obtained possession of goods, services, or moneys as a result of the blocked transaction or transactions or the consumer should have known that he or she obtained possession of goods, services, or moneys as a result of the blocked transaction or transactions; or

(IV) The consumer so requests in writing and presents proof of the consumer's identity.

(b) A consumer reporting agency shall decline to block or shall rescind any block of consumer information if, in the case of a block or block request based upon the filing of an order, the sentencing court amends, dismisses, or withdraws its prior order to correct records issued pursuant to section 18-1.3-603 (7), C.R.S., and the consumer provides such documentation from the court and proof of the consumer's identity.

(3) If a block of credit information is declined or rescinded pursuant to this section, the consumer reporting agency shall promptly notify the consumer in the same manner as consumers are notified of the reinsertion of information pursuant to section 12-14.3-106. The prior presence of the blocked information in the consumer reporting agency's file on the consumer is not evidence of whether the consumer knew or should have known that he or she obtained possession of any goods, services, or moneys.

(4) This section does not apply to a consumer reporting agency that acts as a reseller of information by assembling and merging information contained in the data base of one or more other consumer reporting agencies and that does not maintain a data base of the assembled or merged information from which new consumer reports are produced.

12-14.3-106.6. Security freeze - timing - covered entities - cost. (1) (a) A consumer may elect to place a security freeze on his or her consumer report by making a request in writing by certified mail to a consumer reporting agency.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (11) and paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of this section, if a security freeze is in place, information from a consumer report may not be released to a third party without prior, express authorization from the consumer.

(c) This section does not prevent a consumer reporting agency from advising a third party that a security freeze is in effect with respect to the consumer report.

(2) (a) A consumer reporting agency shall place a security freeze on a consumer report no later than five business days after receiving the request from the consumer.

(b) The consumer reporting agency shall send a written confirmation of the security freeze to the consumer within ten business days and, with the confirmation, shall provide the consumer with a unique personal identification number or password to be used by the consumer when providing authorization for the release of his or her consumer report to a specific party or for a specific period of time.

(3) If a consumer wishes to allow his or her consumer report to be accessed by a specific party or for a specific period of time while a freeze is in place, he or she shall contact the consumer reporting agency, request that the freeze be temporarily lifted, and provide the following:

(a) Proper identification;

(b) The unique personal identification number or password provided by the consumer reporting agency pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) The proper information regarding the third party who is to receive the consumer report or the time period that the report shall be available to users of the consumer report.

(4) A consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to temporarily lift a freeze on a consumer report pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, shall comply with the request no later than three business days after receiving the request.

(5) A consumer reporting agency may develop procedures involving the use of telephone, fax, internet, or other electronic media to receive and process a request from a consumer to place a freeze or to temporarily lift a freeze on a consumer report pursuant to subsection (3) of this section in an expedited manner.

(6) A consumer reporting agency shall remove or temporarily lift a freeze placed on a consumer report only in the following cases:

(a) Upon consumer request, pursuant to subsection (3) or (9) of this section; or

(b) If the consumer report was frozen due to a material misrepresentation of fact by the consumer or somebody purporting to be the consumer. If a consumer reporting agency intends to remove a freeze on a consumer report pursuant to this paragraph (b), the consumer reporting agency shall notify the consumer in writing prior to removing the freeze placed on the consumer report.

(7) If a third party requests access to a consumer report on which a security freeze is in effect, and the request is in connection with an application for credit or other use, and the consumer does not allow his or her consumer report to be accessed by that specific party or during that period of time, the third party may treat the application as incomplete.

(8) If a consumer requests a security freeze, the consumer reporting agency shall disclose the process of placing and temporarily lifting a freeze and the process for allowing access to information from the consumer report to a specific party or for a specific period of time while the freeze is in place.

(9) Except as otherwise provided pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of this section, a security freeze shall remain in place until the consumer requests that the security freeze be removed. A consumer reporting agency shall remove a security freeze within three business days of receiving a request for removal from the consumer, who provides both of the following:

(a) Proper identification; and

(b) The unique personal identification number or password provided by the consumer reporting agency pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

(10) A consumer reporting agency shall require proper identification of the person making a request to place a security freeze in a manner consistent with the requirements of this section.

(11) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the use of a consumer report by or for any of the following:

(a) A person or entity, or a subsidiary, affiliate, or agent of that person or entity that owns a financial obligation owing by the consumer to that person or entity, including a demand deposit account, or to whom the consumer issued a negotiable instrument, for the purposes of reviewing the account or collecting the financial obligation owing for the account, contract, debt, or negotiable instrument, and lawful associated costs;

(b) An assignee or a prospective assignee of a financial obligation owing by the consumer to a person or entity in paragraph (a) of this subsection (11);

(c) A subsidiary, affiliate, agent, assignee, or prospective assignee of a person to whom access has been granted under subsection (3) of this section for purposes of facilitating the extension of credit or other permissible use;

(d) A state or local agency, law enforcement agency, trial court, private collection agency, or person acting pursuant to a court order, warrant, or subpoena authorizing the use of the consumer report;

(e) A child support enforcement agency acting to enforce child support obligations;

(f) The department of health care policy and financing or its agents or assigns acting to investigate fraud;

(g) The department of human services or its agents or assignees acting to investigate fraud;

(h) The department of revenue or its agents or assigns acting to investigate or collect delinquent taxes or unpaid court orders or to fulfill any of its other statutory responsibilities or exercise any of its statutory authority;

(i) The use of credit information for the purposes of prescreening as provided for by the "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681 et seq.;

(j) Any person or entity administering a credit file monitoring subscription service to which the consumer has subscribed;

(k) Any person or entity for the purpose of providing a consumer with a copy of his or her consumer report upon the consumer's request;

(l) Any person or entity for use in setting or adjusting a rate, adjusting a claim, or underwriting for insurance purposes;

(m) A pension plan acting to determine the consumer's eligibility for plan benefits or payments authorized by law or to investigate fraud;

(n) A person conducting a pre-sentence investigation in a criminal matter or a probation officer using this information for supervision of an offender;

(o) A collections investigator or other person engaged in the collecting of fees, fines, or restitution assessed in a court proceeding;

(p) A licensed hospital with which the consumer has or had a contract, or a debtor-creditor relationship for the purposes of reviewing the account or collecting the financial obligation owing for the contract, account, or debt;

(q) A law enforcement agency or its agents acting to investigate a crime or conducting a criminal background check.

(12) (a) Fees for requesting a security freeze, temporarily lifting a security freeze, and permanently removing a security freeze from consumer reports may be charged only in accordance with this subsection (12).

(b) A consumer reporting agency may not charge a fee for a consumer's first request to place a security freeze on his or her consumer report.

(c) Except as provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (12), a consumer reporting agency may charge a consumer a reasonable fee of no more than ten dollars for:

(I) A temporary lift for a period of time or permanent removal of a security freeze from the consumer report; or

(II) A subsequent request for a security freeze of the consumer report after the consumer's first request for a security freeze has been permanently removed from his or her consumer report.

(d) Except as provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (12), a consumer reporting agency may charge a fee not to exceed twelve dollars for temporarily lifting a security freeze on the consumer report for a specific party.

12-14.3-106.7. Notice of rights. (1) At any time that a consumer is required to receive a summary of rights required under section 609 of the "Fair Credit Reporting Act" or under state law, the following notice shall be included:

State Consumers Have the Right to Obtain a Security Freeze

You may obtain a security freeze on your consumer report to protect your privacy and ensure that credit is not granted in your name without your knowledge, except as provided by law. You have a right to place a security freeze on your consumer report to prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing any information in your consumer report without your express authorization or approval, except as the law allows.

You will not be initially charged to place a security freeze on your consumer report. However, you will be charged a fee of no more than ten dollars to temporarily lift the freeze for a period of time, to permanently remove the freeze from your consumer report, or when you make a subsequent request for a freeze to be placed on your consumer report. As well, you may be charged a fee of no more than twelve dollars to temporarily lift the freeze for a specific party.

The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. When you place a security freeze on your consumer report, within five business days you will be provided procedures for the temporary release of your consumer report to a specific party or parties or for a period of time after the security freeze is in place. To provide that authorization, you must contact the consumer reporting agency and provide the proper information regarding the third party or parties who are to receive the consumer report or the period of time for which the report shall be available to users of the consumer report.

A consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to temporarily lift a security freeze on a consumer report shall comply with the request no later than three business days after receiving the request.

A security freeze does not apply to circumstances where you have an existing account relationship, and a copy of your report is requested by your existing creditor or its agents or affiliates for certain types of account review, collection, fraud control, or similar activities.

You should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gains access to the personal and financial information in your consumer report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding new loans, credit, mortgage, insurance, government services or payments, rental housing, employment, investment, license, cellular phone, utilities, digital signature, internet credit card transaction, or other services, including an extension of credit at the point of sale. You should plan ahead and lift a security freeze either completely if you are shopping around, or specifically for a certain creditor a few days before actually applying for new credit.

You have the right to bring a civil action or submit to binding arbitration against a consumer reporting agency to enforce an obligation under the security freeze law after following specified dispute procedures and having received the necessary notice.

12-14.3-106.8. Security freeze - prohibition of changing official information in credit report. If a security freeze is in place, a consumer reporting agency shall not change any of the following official information in a consumer report without sending a written notice of the change to the consumer within thirty days of the change being posted to the consumer's file: Name, date of birth, social security number, and address. Written notice is not required for technical modifications of a consumer's official information, including name and street abbreviations, complete spellings, or transposition of numbers or letters. In the case of an address change, the written notice shall be sent to both the new address and the former address.

12-14.3-106.9. Security freeze - exemptions. (1) Sections 12-14.3-106.6 to 12-14.3-106.8 shall not apply to a consumer reporting agency that acts only as a reseller of credit information by assembling and merging information contained in the database of another consumer reporting agency or multiple consumer reporting agencies, and that does not maintain a permanent database of credit information from which new consumer reports are produced. However, a consumer reporting agency shall honor any security freeze placed on a consumer report by another consumer reporting agency.

(2) The following entities are not required to place in a consumer report a security freeze:

(a) A check service or company or fraud prevention service or company that issues reports on incidents of fraud or authorizations for the purpose of approving or processing negotiable instruments, electronic funds transfers, or similar methods of payments;

(b) A deposit account information service or company that issues reports regarding account closures due to fraud, substantial overdrafts, or automatic teller machine abuse or similar negative information regarding a consumer to inquiring banks or other financial institutions for use only in reviewing a consumer request for a deposit account at the inquiring bank or financial institution;

(c) A fraud prevention service or company issuing reports to prevent or investigate fraud.

12-14.3-107. Consumer's right to file action in court or arbitrate disputes. An action to enforce any obligation of a consumer reporting agency to a consumer under this article may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction as provided by the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act" or submitted to binding arbitration after the consumer has followed all dispute procedures in section 12-14.3-106 and has received the notice specified in subsection (6) of said section, or has followed all of the block procedures in section 12-14.3-106.5, or has followed all of the freeze procedures in section 12-14.3-106.6, in the manner set forth in the rules of the American arbitration association to determine whether the consumer reporting agency met its obligations under this article. No decision by an arbitrator pursuant to this section shall affect the validity of any obligations or debts owed to any party. A successful party to any such arbitration proceeding shall be compensated for the costs and attorney fees of the proceeding as determined by the court or arbitration. No consumer may submit more than one action to arbitration against any consumer reporting agency during any one-hundred-twenty-day period. The results of an arbitration action brought against a consumer reporting agency doing business in this state shall be communicated in a timely manner with all other consumer reporting agencies doing business in this state. If, as a result of an arbitration a determination is made in favor of the consumer, any adverse information in such consumer's file or record shall be blocked, removed, or stricken in a timely manner, or the consumer report shall be frozen within five days of receipt of such determination by the consumer reporting agency. If such adverse information is not so blocked, removed, or stricken, or the file is not frozen, the consumer may bring an action against the noncomplying agency pursuant to this section notwithstanding the one-hundred-twenty-day waiting period.

12-14.3-108. Violations. (1) Any consumer reporting agency that willfully violates any provision of this article, or the federal “Fair Credit Reporting Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681c, as amended, shall be liable for three times the amount of actual damages or one thousand dollars for a violation of section 12-14.3-106.6, or for each inaccurate or unblocked entry in the consumer’s file that was disputed or alleged to be unauthorized in accordance with section 12-14.3-106.5 by the consumer, whichever is greater, reasonable attorney fees, and costs.

(2) (a) Any consumer reporting agency that negligently violates this article, or the federal “Fair Credit Reporting Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681c, as amended, shall be liable for the greater of actual damages or one thousand dollars for each violation of section 12-14.3-106.6, or for each inaccurate or unblocked entry in the consumer’s file that was disputed or alleged to be unauthorized in accordance with section 12-14.3-106.5 by the consumer that affects the consumer’s creditworthiness, as defined in section 12-14.3-102 (4.5), plus reasonable attorney fees, and costs, if within thirty days after receiving notice of dispute from a consumer, in accordance with section 12-14.3-106, the consumer reporting agency does not correct the complained of items or activities and does not send the consumer and, upon request of the consumer, any person who has requested the consumer information, written notification of such corrective action, in accordance with section 12-14.3-106 (6), or section 12-14.3-106.6 or if, within thirty days after receiving a copy of a police report alleging, or a certified court order finding, unauthorized activity, the consumer reporting agency does not block the information in accordance with section 12-14.3-106.5.

(b) Any consumer reporting agency that negligently violates this article, or the federal “Fair Credit Reporting Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681c, as amended, shall be liable for the greater of actual damages or one thousand dollars for all violations of section 12-14.3-106.6 or all inaccurate or unblocked entries in the consumer’s file that were disputed or alleged to be unauthorized in accordance with section 12-14.3-106.5 or section 12-14.3-106.6 by the consumer that did not affect the consumer’s creditworthiness, plus reasonable attorney fees, and costs, if within thirty days after receiving notice of dispute from a consumer, in accordance with section 12-14.3-106, the consumer reporting agency does not correct the complained of items or activities and does not send the consumer and, if requested by the consumer, any person who has requested the consumer information, written notification of such corrective action, in accordance with section 12-14.3-106 (6) or section 12-14.3-106.6 or if, within thirty days after receiving a copy of a police report alleging, or a certified court order finding, unauthorized activity, the consumer reporting agency does not block the information in accordance with section 12-14.3-106.5.

(3) In addition to the damages assessed under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, if, ten days after the entry of any judgment for damages, the consumer’s file is still not corrected, blocked, or frozen by the consumer reporting agency, such assessed damages shall be increased to one thousand dollars per day per unfrozen consumer report or inaccurate or unblocked entry that remains in the consumer’s file until the inaccurate entry is corrected or blocked, or the consumer report is frozen.

COLORADO CREDIT SERVICES ORGANIZATION ACT

12-14.5-101. Short title. This part 1 shall be known and may be cited as the “Colorado Credit Services Organization Act”.

Source: L. 90: Entire article added, p. 798, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2007: Entire section amended, p. 1964, § 3, effective January 1, 2008.

12-14.5-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that:

(a) The ability to obtain and use credit has become of great importance to consumers, who have a vital interest in establishing and maintaining their creditworthiness and credit standing. The extension or receipt of credit has value and should be protected. As a result, consumers who have experienced credit problems may seek assistance from credit services organizations which offer to obtain credit or improve the credit standing of such consumers.

(b) Certain advertising and business practices of some credit services organizations have worked a financial hardship upon the people of this state, often those who are of limited economic means and inexperienced in credit matters. Credit services organizations have significant impact upon the economy and well-being of this state and its people.

(c) The purposes of this part 1 are to provide prospective buyers of services of credit services organizations with the information necessary to make an intelligent decision regarding the purchase of those services and to protect the public from unfair or deceptive advertising and business practices;

(d) This part 1 shall be construed liberally to achieve these purposes; and

(e) It is the intent of the general assembly to further regulate the conduct of persons who provide credit services in accordance with this part 1 by adopting the regulatory requirements contained in part 2 of this article.

Source: L. 90: Entire article added, p. 798, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2007: (1)(c) and (1)(d) amended and (1)(e) added, p. 1964, § 4, effective January 1, 2008.

(1) “Buyer” means any individual who is solicited to purchase or who purchases the services of a credit services organization.

(2) “Credit services organization” means any person, including a nonprofit organization exempt from taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, who, with respect to the extension of credit by others, represents that such person can or will, in return for the payment of money or other valuable consideration by the buyer, improve or attempt to improve a buyer’s credit record, history, or rating. The term “credit services organization” does not include the following:

(b) Any person licensed to practice law in this state if such person renders such credit services within the course and scope of said person’s practice as an attorney.

(3) “Extension of credit” means the right to defer payment of debt or to incur debt and defer its payment offered or granted primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(4) “Person” includes any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, or any business entity.

12-14.5-104. Prohibited acts. (1) A credit services organization; its salespersons, agents, and representatives; and independent contractors who sell or attempt to sell the services of a credit services organization shall not:

(a) Charge or receive any money or other valuable consideration prior to full and complete performance of the services the credit services organization has agreed to perform for the buyer;

(b) Make, counsel, or advise any buyer to make any statement that is untrue or misleading to a credit reporting agency or to any person who has extended credit to a buyer or to whom a buyer is applying for an extension of credit with respect to a buyer’s creditworthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity;

(c) Make or use any untrue or misleading representations in the offer or sale of the services of a credit services organization or engage, directly or indirectly, in any act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as fraud or deception upon any person in connection with the offer or sale of the services of a credit services organization; or

(d) Make, counsel, or advise any buyer to make a request to a credit reporting agency to verify information contained in a consumer credit report, unless the buyer states in writing to the credit services organization that the buyer believes the information to be verified is incorrect or inaccurate, and states specifically the basis of the inaccuracy or incorrectness of each disputed item of information.

12-14.5-107. Content of written disclosure. (1) The information statement required pursuant to section 12-14.5-106 shall be printed in at least ten-point type and shall include:

(a) The following statements concerning consumer credit reports and consumer credit agencies:

RIGHTS UNDER COLORADO AND FEDERAL LAW

You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit report from a credit bureau at no charge once per year with additional copies available for a small fee. You have a right to dispute inaccurate information by contacting the credit bureau directly. However, you have no right to have accurate information removed from your credit bureau report. Under the federal “Fair Credit Reporting Act”, the credit bureau must remove accurate negative information from your report only if it is over 7 years old. Bankruptcy can be reported for 10 years. Even when a debt has been completely repaid, your report can show that it was paid late if that is accurate. You have a right to sue a credit repair company that violates the "Colorado Credit Services Organization Act". This law prohibits deceptive practices by repair companies. The "Colorado Credit Services Organization Act" also gives you a right to cancel your contract for any reason within 5 working days from the date you sign it.

The Federal Trade Commission enforces the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act". For more information, call or write the Federal Trade Commission. The administrator of the "Uniform Consumer Credit Code" enforces the "Colorado Credit Services Organization Act". For more information, call or write the Colorado attorney general's office.

(b) A complete and detailed description of the services to be performed by the credit services organization for the buyer and the total amount the buyer will have to pay, or become obligated to pay, for the services.

12-14.5-108. Written contracts required. (1) Each contract between the buyer and a credit services organization for the purchase of the services of the credit services organization shall be in writing, dated, signed by the buyer, and include the following:

(a) A conspicuous statement in bold-faced type, in immediate proximity to the space reserved for the signature of the buyer, as follows: "You, the buyer, may cancel this contract at any time prior to midnight of the fifth working day after the date of the transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right."

(b) The terms and conditions of payment, including the total of all payments to be made by the buyer, whether to the credit services organization or to some other person;

(c) A full and detailed description of the services to be performed by the credit services organization for the buyer, including:

(I) All guarantees and all promises of full or partial refunds;

(II) The estimated date by which the services are to be performed, or the estimated length of time for performing the services;

(III) A list of the adverse information appearing on the buyer's credit report that is to be modified and a description of the precise nature of each modification. A copy of the consumer's current credit report issued by a consumer credit reporting agency shall be annexed to the contract with the adverse entries and proposed modifications clearly marked.

(d) The credit services organization's principal business address which shall be the actual office location of the organization and the name and address of its agent in the state authorized to receive service of process.

(2) The contract shall be accompanied by a completed form in duplicate, captioned "Notice of Cancellation", that shall be attached to the contract, shall be easily detachable, and shall contain in bold-faced type the following statement written in the same language as used in the contract:

Notice of Cancellation

You may cancel this contract, without any penalty or obligation, within five (5) working days from the date the contract is signed.

If you cancel any payment made by you under this contract, it will be returned within ten (10) days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice.

To cancel this contract, mail or deliver a signed, dated copy of this cancellation notice, or any other written notice to _____ (name of seller) at

____ (address of seller) (place of business) not later than midnight

I hereby cancel this transaction,

(3) The credit services organization shall give to the buyer a copy of the completed contract and all other documents the credit services organization requires the buyer to sign at the time they are signed.

12-14.5-110. Criminal penalties and injunctive relief. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this part 1 commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. Violating any provision of this part 1 with respect to any buyer shall constitute a class 1 public nuisance subject to the provisions of part 3 of article 13 of title 16, C.R.S.

(2) The administrator of the uniform consumer credit code, designated pursuant to section 5-6-103, C.R.S., or the district attorney of any judicial district may maintain an action to enjoin violations of this part 1 and for restitution and penalties in an amount not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars per violation. The state treasurer shall transfer the penalties collected pursuant to this subsection (2) to the general fund.

(3) Costs and reasonable attorney fees shall be awarded to the administrator of the uniform consumer credit code or a district attorney in all injunctive actions where the administrator of the uniform consumer credit code or district attorney successfully enforces this part 1.

12-14.5-111. Damages. (1) Any buyer injured by a violation of this part 1 or by a credit services organization's breach of contract subject to this part 1 may maintain an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for recovery of actual damages, plus cost of suit and reasonable attorney fees. In case of an action brought by a buyer, actual damages shall not be less than the amount paid by the buyer to the credit services organization.

(2) In the event of a willful violation by a credit services organization of this part 1 or of a contract subject to this part 1, a person who is injured thereby shall be awarded, in addition to the damages allowable under subsection (1) of this section, an additional amount equal to twice the actual damages awarded under subsection (1) of this section.

(18) "Settlement fee" means a charge imposed on or paid by an individual in connection with a creditor's assent to accept in full satisfaction of a debt an amount less than the principal amount of the debt.

(19) "Sign" means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(A) To execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(B) To attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

(20) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(21) (A) "Trust account" means an account held by a provider that is:

(i) Established in an insured bank;

(ii) Separate from other accounts of the provider or its designee;

(iii) Designated as a trust account or other account designated to indicate that the money in the account is not the money of the provider; and

(iv) Used to hold money of one or more individuals for disbursement to creditors of the individuals.

(B) For a plan under which creditors will settle debts for less than the principal amount of the debt, nothing in this act prohibits a provider from requesting or requiring an individual to place funds in an account, separate from the individual's then-existing bank account, to be used for the provider's fees and for payments to creditors or debt collectors in connection with the debt management services, if:

(i) The funds are held in an account at an insured financial institution;

(ii) The individual owns the funds held in the account and is paid accrued interest on the account, if any;

(iii) The entity administering the account is not owned, controlled by, or in any way affiliated with the provider;

(iv) The entity administering the account does not give or accept any money or other compensation in exchange for referrals of business involving the debt management provider or plan; and

(v) The individual may withdraw from the debt management plan at any time without penalty, and immediately receives all funds in the account, other than fees earned in compliance with section 12-14.5-223, as required by section 12-14.5-226.

12-14.5-206. Application for registration - required information. An application for registration shall be signed under penalty of false statement and include:

(1) The applicant's name, principal business address and telephone number, and all other business addresses in this state, electronic-mail addresses, and internet web site addresses;

(2) All names under which the applicant conducts business;

(3) The address of each location in this state at which the applicant will provide debt-management services or a statement that the applicant will have no such location;

(4) The name and home address of each officer and director of the applicant and each person that owns at least ten percent of the applicant;

(5) Identification of every jurisdiction in which, during the five years immediately preceding the application:

(A) The applicant or any of its officers or directors has been licensed or registered to provide debt-management services; or

(B) Individuals have resided when they received debt-management services from the applicant;

(6) A statement describing, to the extent it is known or should be known by the applicant, any material civil or criminal judgment or litigation and any material administrative or enforcement action by a governmental agency in any jurisdiction against the applicant, any of its officers, directors, owners, or agents, or any person who is authorized to initiate transactions to the trust account required by section 12-14.5-222;

(7) The applicant's financial statements, audited by an accountant licensed to conduct audits, for each of the two years immediately preceding the application or, if it has not been in operation for the two years preceding the application, for the period of its existence;

(10) A description of the three most commonly used educational programs that the applicant provides or intends to provide to individuals who reside in this state and a copy of any materials used or to be used in those programs;

(11) A description of the applicant's financial analysis and initial plan, including any form or electronic model, used to evaluate the financial condition of individuals. The description shall be deemed to be confidential commercial data under section 24-72-204 (3) (a) (IV), C.R.S.

(12) A copy of each form of agreement that the applicant will use with individuals who reside in this state;

(13) The schedule of fees and charges that the applicant will use with individuals who reside in this state;

(14) At the applicant's expense, the results of a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history records check, conducted within the immediately preceding twelve months, covering every officer of the applicant and every employee or agent of the applicant who is authorized to initiate transactions to the trust account required by section 12-14.5-222. The administrator shall be the authorized agency to receive information regarding the result of the national criminal history records check.

(15) The names and addresses of all employers of each director during the five years immediately preceding the application; except that if a director receives no compensation from the provider, the applicable period shall be two years. The names and addresses shall be deemed to be confidential.

(16) A description of any ownership interest of at least ten percent by a director, owner, or employee of the applicant in:

(A) Any affiliate of the applicant; or

(B) Any entity that provides products or services to the applicant or any individual relating to the applicant's debt-management services;

(17) For not-for-profit providers, a statement of the amount of compensation of the applicant's five most highly compensated employees for each of the three years immediately preceding the application or, if it has not been in operation for the three years immediately preceding the application, for the period of its existence;

(18) The identity of each director who is an affiliate, as defined in section 12-14.5-202 (2) (A) or (2) (B) (i), (2) (B) (ii), (2) (B) (iv), (2) (B) (v), (2) (B) (vi), or (2) (B) (vii), of the applicant; and

(19) Any other information that the administrator reasonably requires to perform the administrator's duties under section 12-14.5-209.

12-14.5-209. Certificate of registration - issuance or denial. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the administrator shall issue a certificate of registration as a provider to a person that complies with sections 12-14.5-205 and 12-14.5-206.

(b) The administrator may deny registration if:

(1) The application contains information that is materially erroneous or incomplete;

(2) An officer, director, or owner of the applicant has been convicted of a crime, or suffered a civil judgment, involving dishonesty or the violation of state or federal securities laws;

(3) The applicant or any of its officers, directors, or owners has defaulted in the payment of money collected for others; or

(4) The administrator upon reasonable belief finds that the financial responsibility, experience, character, or general fitness of the applicant or its owners, directors, employees, or agents does not warrant belief that the business will be operated in compliance with this part 2.

(c) The administrator shall deny registration if:

(1) The application is not accompanied by the fee established by the administrator; or

(2) With respect to an applicant that is organized as a not-for-profit entity or has obtained tax-exempt status under the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", 26 U.S.C. sec. 501, as amended, the applicant's board of directors is not independent of the applicant's employees and agents.

(d) A board of directors is not independent for purposes of subsection (c) of this section if more than one-fourth of its members:

(1) Are affiliates of the applicant, as defined in section 12-14.5-202 (2) (A), (2) (B) (i), (2) (B) (ii), (2) (B) (iv), (2) (B) (v), (2) (B) (vi), or (2) (B) (vii); or

(2) After the date ten years before first becoming a director of the applicant, were employed by or directors of a person that received from the applicant more than twenty-five thousand dollars in either the current year or the preceding year.

(e) The administrator may temporarily approve a certificate of registration in the event an applicant has made a timely effort to obtain a criminal records check as required in section 12-14.5-206 (14), but for which a timely return of information has not occurred, for a reasonable period of time but no longer than one hundred twenty days, provided that the applicant has provided all other required information in the application for registration and the administrator finds no reason to believe from the information that has been provided that the applicant may not provide fair and honest services to debtors under this part 2.

12-14.5-210. Certificate of registration - timing. (a) The administrator shall approve or deny an initial registration as a provider within ninety days after an application is filed. In connection with a request pursuant to section 12-14.5-206 (19) for additional information, the administrator may extend the ninety-day period for not more than thirty days. Within seven days after denying an application, the administrator, in a record, shall inform the applicant of the reasons for the denial.

(b) If the administrator denies an application for registration as a provider or does not act on an application within the time prescribed in subsection (a) of this section, the applicant may appeal and request a hearing pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(c) Repealed.

12-14.5-211. Renewal of registration. (a) A provider shall obtain a renewal of its registration annually before the expiration date of the registration to be renewed, as specified in this section.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 351, § 7, effective July 1, 2011.)

(c) An application for renewal of registration as a provider shall be in a form prescribed by the administrator, signed under penalty of false statement, and:

(1) Be filed before the registration expires;

(2) Be accompanied by the fee established by the administrator and the bond required by section 12-14.5-213;

(3) Contain a financial statement, reviewed by an accountant licensed to conduct audits, for the applicant's fiscal year immediately preceding the application; except that the third renewal after initial registration and every fourth renewal thereafter shall be audited rather than reviewed;

(4) Disclose any changes in the information contained in the applicant's application for registration or its immediately previous application for renewal, as applicable;

(5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 351, § 7, effective July 1, 2011.)

(6) Disclose the total amount of money received by the applicant pursuant to plans during the preceding twelve months from or on behalf of individuals who reside in this state and the total amount of money distributed to creditors of those individuals during that period;

(7) If the applicant does not hold money on behalf of any debtor, disclose for business done with debtors in the state of Colorado during the preceding twelve months, the number of debtors with whom the applicant has had agreements, the number of fully settled debt agreements with creditors that applicant concluded for debtors, and an estimate of the total amount of debt under contract between applicant and debtors; and

(8) Provide any other information that the administrator reasonably requires to perform the administrator's duties under this section.

(d) Except for the information required by section 12-14.5-206 (7), (11), (14), (15), and (17) and the addresses required by section 12-14.5-206 (4), the administrator shall make the information in an application for renewal of registration as a provider available to the public.

(e) If a registered provider files a timely and complete application for renewal of registration, the registration remains effective until the administrator, in a record, notifies the applicant of a denial and states the reasons for the denial.

(f) If the administrator denies an application for renewal of registration as a provider, the applicant, within thirty days after receiving notice of the denial, may appeal and request a hearing pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. Subject to section 12-14.5-234, while the appeal is pending, the applicant shall continue to provide debt-management services to individuals with whom it has agreements. If the denial is affirmed, subject to the administrator's order and section 12-14.5-234, the applicant shall continue to provide debt-management services to individuals with whom it has agreements until, with the approval of the administrator, it transfers the agreements to another registered provider or returns to the individuals all unexpended money that is under the applicant's control.

(g) If a registered provider fails to file by July 1 a complete application for renewal of registration and the required renewal fee, the registration shall automatically expire on that date.

12-14.5-212. Registration in another state. If a provider holds a license or certificate of registration in another state authorizing it to provide debt-management services, the provider may submit a copy of that license or certificate and the application for it instead of an application in the form prescribed by section 12-14.5-205 (a), 12-14.5-206, or 12-14.5-211 (c). The administrator shall accept the application and the license or certificate from the other state as an application for registration as a provider or for renewal of registration as a provider, as appropriate, in this state if:

(1) The application in the other state contains information substantially similar to, or more comprehensive than, that required in an application submitted in this state;

(2) The applicant provides the information required by section 12-14.5-206 (1), (3), (10), (12), and (13);

(3) The applicant, under penalty of false statement, certifies that the information contained in the application is current or, to the extent it is not current, supplements the application to make the information current; and

12-14.5-213. Bond required. (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 12-14.5-214, a provider that is required to be registered under this part 2 shall file a surety bond with the administrator, which shall:

(1) Be in effect during the period of registration and for two years after the provider ceases providing debt-management services to individuals in this state; and

(2) Run to this state for the benefit of this state and of individuals who reside in this state when they agree to receive debt-management services from the provider, as their interests may appear.

(b) A surety bond filed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall:

(1) Be in the amount of fifty thousand dollars or other larger or smaller amount that the administrator determines is warranted by the financial condition and business experience of the provider, the history of the provider in performing debt-management services, the risk to individuals, and any other factor the administrator considers appropriate;

(2) Be issued by a bonding, surety, or insurance company authorized to do business in this state and rated at least A by a nationally recognized rating organization; and

(3) Have payment conditioned upon noncompliance of the provider or its agent with this part 2.

(c) If the principal amount of a surety bond is reduced by payment of a claim or a judgment, the provider and the surety shall notify the administrator immediately and, within thirty days after notice by the administrator, the provider shall file a new or additional surety bond in an amount set by the administrator. The amount of the new or additional bond shall be at least the amount of the bond immediately before payment of the claim or judgment. If for any reason a surety terminates a bond, the surety shall provide written notice of the termination to the administrator immediately, and the provider shall immediately file a new surety bond in the amount of fifty thousand dollars or other amount determined pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(d) The administrator or an individual may obtain satisfaction out of the surety bond procured pursuant to this section if:

(1) The administrator assesses expenses under section 12-14.5-232 (b) (1), issues a final order under section 12-14.5-233 (a) (2), or recovers a final judgment under section 12-14.5-233 (a) (4), (a) (5), or (d); or

(2) An individual recovers a final judgment pursuant to section 12-14.5-235 (a), (b), (c) (1), (c) (2), or (c) (4).

(e) If claims against a surety bond exceed or are reasonably expected to exceed the amount of the bond, the administrator, on the initiative of the administrator or on petition of the surety, shall, unless the proceeds are adequate to pay all costs, judgments, and claims, distribute the proceeds in the following order:

(1) To satisfaction of a final order or judgment under section 12-14.5-233 (a) (2), (a) (4), (a) (5), or (d);

(2) To final judgments recovered by individuals pursuant to section 12-14.5-235 (a), (b), (c) (1), (c) (2), or (c) (4), pro rata;

(3) To claims of individuals established to the satisfaction of the administrator, pro rata; and

(4) If a final order or judgment is issued under section 12-14.5-233 (a), to the expenses charged pursuant to section 12-14.5-232 (b) (1).

12-14.5-214. Bond required - substitute. (a) Instead of the surety bond required by section 12-14.5-213, a provider may deliver to the administrator, in the amount required by section 12-14.5-213 (b), and, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection (a), payable or available to this state and to individuals who reside in this state when they agree to receive debt-management services from the provider, as their interests may appear, if the provider or its agent does not comply with this part 2:

(2) With the approval of the administrator, an irrevocable letter of credit, issued or confirmed by a bank approved by the administrator, payable upon presentation of a certificate by the administrator stating that the provider or its agent has not complied with this part 2.

(b) If a provider furnishes a substitute pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the provisions of section 12-14.5-213 (a), (c), (d), and (e) apply to the substitute.

12-14.5-217. Prerequisites for providing debt-management services. (a) Before providing or contracting to provide debt-management services, a registered provider shall give the individual an itemized list of goods and services and the charges for each. The list shall be clear and conspicuous, be in a record the individual may keep whether or not the individual assents to an agreement, and describe the goods and services the provider offers:

- (1) Free of additional charge if the individual enters into an agreement;
- (2) For a charge if the individual does not enter into an agreement; and
- (3) For a charge if the individual enters into an agreement, using the following terminology, as applicable, and format:

Set-up fee _____ dollar amount of fee

Monthly service fee _____ dollar amount of fee or method of determining amount

Settlement fee _____ dollar amount of fee or method of determining amount

Goods and services in addition to those provided in connection with a plan:

(item) dollar amount or method of determining amount

(item) dollar amount or method of determining amount.

(b) A provider may not furnish or contract to furnish debt-management services unless the provider, through the services of a counselor or debt specialist:

- (1) Provides the individual with reasonable education about the management of personal finance;
- (2) Has prepared a financial analysis; and
- (3) If the individual is to make regular, periodic payments:
 - (A) Has prepared a plan for the individual;
 - (B) Has made a determination, based on the provider's analysis of the information provided by the individual and otherwise available to it, that the plan is suitable for the individual and the individual will be able to meet the payment obligations under the plan; and
 - (C) Believes that each creditor of the individual listed as a participating creditor in the plan will accept payment of the individual's debts as provided in the plan.
- (c) Before an individual assents to an agreement to engage in a plan, a provider shall:
 - (1) Provide the individual with a copy of the analysis and plan required by subsection (b) of this section in a record that identifies the provider and that the individual may keep whether or not the individual assents to the agreement;
 - (2) Inform the individual of the availability, at the individual's option, of assistance by a toll-free communication system or in person to discuss the financial analysis and plan required by subsection (b) of this section; and

(3) With respect to all creditors identified by the individual or otherwise known by the provider to be creditors of the individual, provide the individual with a list of:

(A) Creditors that the provider expects to participate in the plan and grant concessions;
(B) Creditors that the provider expects to participate in the plan but not grant concessions;

(C) Creditors that the provider expects not to participate in the plan; and

(D) All other creditors.

(d) Before an individual assents to an agreement to engage in a plan, the provider shall inform the individual, in a record that contains nothing else, that is given separately, and that the individual may keep whether or not the individual assents to the agreement:

(1) Of the name and business address of the provider;

(2) That plans are not suitable for all individuals and the individual may ask the provider about other ways, including bankruptcy, to deal with indebtedness;

(3) That establishment of a plan may adversely affect the individual's credit rating or credit scores;

(4) That nonpayment of debt may lead creditors to increase finance and other charges or undertake collection activity, including litigation;

(5) Unless it is not true, that the provider may receive compensation from the creditors of the individual; and

(6) That, unless the individual is insolvent, if a creditor settles for less than the full amount of the debt, the plan may result in the creation of taxable income to the individual, even though the individual does not receive any money.

(e) If a provider may receive payments from an individual's creditors and the plan contemplates that the individual's creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency, the provider may comply with subsection (d) of this section by providing the following disclosure, surrounded by black lines:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU TO CONSIDER

(1) Debt-management plans are not right for all individuals, and you may ask us to provide information about other ways, including bankruptcy, to deal with your debts.

(2) Using a debt-management plan may hurt your credit rating or credit scores.

(3) We may receive compensation for our services from your creditors.

Name and business address of provider

(f) If a provider will not receive payments from an individual's creditors and the plan contemplates that the individual's creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency, a provider may comply with subsection (d) of this section by providing the following disclosure, surrounded by black lines:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU TO CONSIDER

(1) Debt-management plans are not right for all individuals, and you may ask us to provide information about other ways, including bankruptcy, to deal with your debts.

(2) Using a debt-management plan may hurt your credit rating or credit scores.

Name and business address of provider

(g) If a plan contemplates that creditors will settle debts for less than the full principal amount of debt owed, a provider may comply with subsection (d) of this section by providing the following disclosure, surrounded by black lines:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU TO CONSIDER

(1) Our program is not right for all individuals, and you may ask us to provide information about bankruptcy and other ways to deal with your debts.

(2) Nonpayment of your debts under our program may:

Hurt your credit rating or credit scores;

Lead your creditors to increase finance and other charges; and Lead your creditors to undertake activity, including lawsuits, to collect the debts.

(3) Reduction of debt under our program may result in taxable income to you, even though you will not actually receive any money.

12-14.5-218. Communication by electronic or other means. (a) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Consumer” means an individual who seeks or obtains goods or services that are used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(2) “Federal act” means the federal “Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 7001 et seq., as amended.

(b) A provider may satisfy the requirements of section 12-14.5-217, 12-14.5-219, or 12-14.5-227 by means of the internet or other electronic means if the provider obtains a consumer’s consent in the manner provided by section 101 (c) (1) of the federal act.

(c) The disclosures and materials required by sections 12-14.5-217, 12-14.5-219, and 12-14.5-227 shall be presented in a form that is capable of being accurately reproduced for later reference.

(d) With respect to disclosure by means of an internet web site, the disclosure of the information required by section 12-14.5-217 (d) shall appear on one or more screens that:

(1) Contain no other information; and

(2) The individual must see before proceeding to assent to formation of a plan.

(e) At the time of providing the materials and agreement required by sections 12-14.5-217 (c) and (d), 12-14.5-219, and 12-14.5-227, a provider shall inform the individual that upon electronic, telephonic, or written request, it will send the individual a written copy of the materials, and shall comply with a request as provided in subsection (f) of this section.

(f) If a provider is requested, before the expiration of ninety days after a plan is completed or terminated, to send a written copy of the materials required by section 12-14.5-217 (c) and (d), 12-14.5-219, or 12-14.5-227, the provider shall send them at no charge within three business days after the request, but the provider need not comply with a request more than once per calendar month or if it reasonably believes the request is made for purposes of harassment. If a request is made more than ninety days after a plan is completed or terminated, the provider shall send within a reasonable time a written copy of the materials requested.

(g) A provider that maintains an internet web site shall disclose on the home page of its web site or on a page that is clearly and conspicuously connected to the home page by a link that clearly reveals its contents:

(1) Its name and all names under which it does business;

(2) Its principal business address, telephone number, and electronic mail address, if any; and

(3) The names of its principal officers.

(h) Subject to subsection (i) of this section, if a consumer who has consented to electronic communication in the manner provided by section 101 of the federal act withdraws consent as provided in the federal act, a provider may terminate its agreement with the consumer.

(i) If a provider wishes to terminate an agreement with a consumer pursuant to subsection (h) of this section, it shall notify the consumer that it will terminate the agreement unless the consumer, within thirty days after receiving the notification, consents to electronic communication in the manner provided in section 101 (c) of the federal act. If the consumer consents, the provider may terminate the agreement only as permitted by section 12-14.5-219 (a) (6) (G).

12-14.5-219. Form and contents of agreement. (a) An agreement shall:

- (1) Be in a record;
 - (2) Be dated and signed by the provider and the individual;
 - (3) Include the name of the individual and the address where the individual resides;
 - (4) Include the name, business address, and telephone number of the provider;
 - (5) Be delivered to the individual immediately upon formation of the agreement; and
 - (6) Disclose:
 - (A) The services to be provided;
 - (B) In a clear and conspicuous manner, the amount, percentage, or method of determining the amount, of all fees, individually itemized, to be paid by the individual, using only the terminology contained in section 12-14.5-223;
 - (C) The schedule of payments to be made by or on behalf of the individual, including the amount of each payment, the date on which each payment is due, an estimate of the date of the final payment, and an estimate of the total of all payments to be made under the plan;
- (C.5) In a clear and conspicuous manner, the following information:
- (i) The amount of time necessary to achieve the represented results;
 - (ii) If the plan includes a settlement offer to any of the individual's creditors or debt collectors, the time by which the provider will make a bona fide settlement offer to each of them and the amount of money or the percentage of each outstanding debt that the individual must accumulate before the provider will make a bona fide settlement offer to each of them; and
 - (iii) If the provider requests or requires the individual to place funds in an account at an insured financial institution, that the individual owns the funds held in the account, the individual may withdraw from the plan at any time without penalty, and, if the individual withdraws, the individual must receive all funds in the account, other than funds earned by the provider in compliance with section 12-14.5-222 (h);
- (D) If a plan provides for regular periodic payments to creditors:
- (i) Each creditor of the individual to which payment will be made, the amount owed to each creditor, and any concessions the provider reasonably believes each creditor will offer; and
 - (ii) The schedule of expected payments to each creditor, including the amount of each payment and the date on which it will be made;
- (E) If the provider holds money on behalf of the individual, each creditor that the provider believes will not participate in the plan and to which the provider will not direct payment;
- (F) How the provider will comply with its obligations under section 12-14.5-227 (a);
- (G) If the provider holds money on behalf of the individual, that the provider may terminate the agreement for good cause, upon return of unexpended money of the individual;
- (H) That the individual may cancel the agreement as provided in section 12-14.5-220;
- (I) That the individual may contact the administrator with any questions or complaints regarding the provider; and
- (J) The address, telephone number, and internet address or web site of the administrator.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (5) of subsection (a) of this section, delivery of an electronic record occurs when it is made available in a format in which the individual may retrieve, save, and print it, and the individual is notified that it is available.

(c) If the administrator supplies the provider with any information required under subparagraph (J) of paragraph (6) of subsection (a) of this section, the provider may comply with that requirement only by disclosing the information supplied by the administrator.

(d) An agreement shall provide that:

(1) The individual has a right to terminate the agreement at any time, without penalty or obligation, by giving the provider written or electronic notice, in which event:

(A) The provider will refund all unexpended money that the provider or its agent has received from or on behalf of the individual for the reduction or satisfaction of the individual's debt; and

(B) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 353, § 12, effective July 1, 2011.)

(C) All powers of attorney granted by the individual to the provider are revoked and ineffective;

(2) The individual authorizes any bank in which the provider or its agent has established a trust account to disclose to the administrator any financial records relating to the trust account; and

(3) The provider will notify the individual within five days after learning of a creditor's decision to reject or withdraw from a plan and that this notice will include:

(A) The identity of the creditor; and

(B) The right of the individual to modify or terminate the agreement.

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 353, § 12, effective July 1, 2011.)

(f) An agreement may not:

(1) Provide for application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the United States and this state;

(2) Except as permitted by the uniform arbitration act, part 2 of article 22 of title 13, C.R.S., contain a provision that modifies or limits otherwise available forums or procedural rights, including the right to trial by jury, that are generally available to the individual under law other than this part 2;

(3) Contain a provision that restricts the individual's remedies under this part 2 or law other than this part 2; or

(4) Contain a provision that:

(A) Limits or releases the liability of any person for not performing the agreement or for violating this part 2; or

(B) Indemnifies any person for liability arising under the agreement or this part 2.

(g) All rights and obligations specified in subsection (d) of this section and section 12-14.5-220 exist even if not provided in the agreement. A provision in an agreement that violates subsection (d), (e), or (f) of this section is void.

12-14.5-220. Cancellation of agreement - waiver. (a) An individual may cancel an agreement before midnight of the third business day after the individual assents to it, unless the agreement does not comply with subsection (b) of this section or section 12-14.5-219 or 12-14.5-228, in which event the individual may cancel the agreement within thirty days after the individual assents to it. To exercise the right to cancel, the individual shall give notice in a record to the provider. Notice by mail is given when mailed.

(b) An agreement shall be accompanied by a separate form that contains in bold-faced type, surrounded by bold black lines:

Notice of Right to Cancel

You may cancel this agreement, without any penalty or obligation, at any time before midnight of the third business day that begins the day after you agree to it by electronic communication or by signing it.

To cancel this agreement during this period, send an e-mail to (E-mail address of provider) or mail or deliver a signed, dated copy of this notice, or any other written notice to (Name of provider) at (Address of provider) before midnight on (Date).

If you cancel this agreement within the 3-day period, we will refund all money you already have paid us.

You also may terminate this agreement at any later time, but we are not required to refund fees you have paid us.

12-14.5-222. Trust account. (a) All money paid to a provider by or on behalf of an individual pursuant to a plan for distribution to creditors is held in trust. Within two business days after receipt, the provider shall deposit the money in a trust account established for the benefit of individuals to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services.

(b) Money held in trust by a provider is not property of the provider or its designee. The money is not available to creditors of the provider or designee, except an individual from whom or on whose behalf the provider received money, to the extent that the money has not been disbursed to creditors of the individual.

(c) A provider shall:

(1) Maintain separate records of account for each individual to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services;

(2) Disburse money paid by or on behalf of the individual to creditors of the individual as disclosed in the agreement; except that:

(A) The provider may delay payment to the extent that a payment by the individual is not final; and

(B) If a plan provides for regular periodic payments to creditors, the disbursement shall comply with the due dates established by each creditor; and

(3) Promptly correct any payments that are not made or that are misdirected as a result of an error by the provider or other person in control of the trust account and reimburse the individual for any costs or fees imposed by a creditor as a result of the failure to pay or misdirection.

(d) A provider may not commingle money in a trust account established for the benefit of individuals to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services with money of other persons.

(e) A trust account shall at all times have a cash balance equal to the sum of the balances of each individual's account.

(f) If a provider has established a trust account pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the provider shall reconcile the trust account at least once a month. The reconciliation shall compare the cash balance in the trust account with the sum of the balances in each individual's account. If the provider or its designee has more than one trust account, each trust account shall be individually reconciled.

(g) If a provider discovers, or has a reasonable suspicion of, embezzlement or other unlawful appropriation of money held in trust, the provider immediately shall notify the administrator by a method approved by the administrator. Unless the administrator by rule provides otherwise, within five days thereafter, the provider shall give notice to the administrator describing the remedial action taken or to be taken.

(h) If an individual terminates an agreement or it becomes reasonably apparent to a provider that a plan has failed, the provider shall promptly refund to the individual all money paid by or on behalf of the individual that has not been paid to creditors, less fees that are payable to the provider under section 12-14.5-223.

(i) Before relocating a trust account from one bank to another, a provider shall inform the administrator of the name, business address, and telephone number of the new bank. As soon as practicable, the provider shall inform the administrator of the account number of the trust account at the new bank.

12-14.5-223. Fees and other charges. (a) A provider may not impose directly or indirectly a fee or other charge on an individual or receive money from or on behalf of an individual for debt-management services except as permitted by this section.

(b) A provider may not impose charges or receive payment for debt-management services until the provider and the individual have signed an agreement that complies with sections 12-14.5-219 and 12-14.5-228.

(c) If an individual assents to an agreement, a provider may not impose a fee or other charge for educational or counseling services, or the like, except as otherwise provided in this subsection (c) and section 12-14.5-228 (d). The administrator may authorize a provider to charge a fee based on the nature and extent of the educational or counseling services furnished by the provider.

(d) The following rules apply:

(1) If an individual assents to a plan that contemplates that creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency, the provider may charge:

(A) A fee not exceeding fifty dollars for consultation, obtaining a credit report, and setting up an account; and

(B) A monthly service fee, not to exceed ten dollars times the number of creditors remaining in a plan at the time the fee is assessed, but not more than fifty dollars in any month.

(2) If an individual assents to a plan that contemplates that creditors or debt collectors will settle debts for less than the principal amount of the debt:

(A) A provider may not request or receive payment of any fee or consideration until and unless:

(i) The provider has settled the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement or other valid contractual agreement executed by the individual;

(ii) The individual has made at least one payment pursuant to that settlement agreement or other valid contractual agreement between the individual and the creditor or debt collector; and

(iii) The fee or consideration either: Bears the same proportional relationship to the total fee for settling the terms of the entire debt balance as the individual debt amount bears to the entire debt amount, in which case the individual debt amount and the entire debt amount are those owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the service; or is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the settlement. The percentage charged cannot change from one individual debt to another. The amount saved is the difference between the amount owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the plan and the amount actually paid to satisfy the debt.

(B) and (C) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 354, § 14, effective July 1, 2011.)

(D) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A) of this paragraph (2), no individual who completes all of his or her obligations under the agreement may be charged fees such that those fees, when added to the aggregate of offers of settlement obtained by the provider for the debtor, exceeds the principal amount of the debt.

(3) A provider may not impose or receive fees under both paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection (d).

(4) Except as otherwise provided in section 12-14.5-228 (d), if an individual does not assent to an agreement, a provider may receive for educational and counseling services it provides to the individual a fee not exceeding one hundred dollars or, with the approval of the administrator, a larger fee. The administrator may approve a fee larger than one hundred dollars if the nature and extent of the educational and counseling services warrant the larger fee.

(5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 354, § 14, effective July 1, 2011.)

(e) If, before the expiration of ninety days after the completion or termination of educational or counseling services, an individual assents to an agreement, the provider shall refund to the individual any fee paid pursuant to paragraph (4) of subsection (d) of this section.

(f) If a payment to a provider by an individual under this part 2 is dishonored, a provider may impose a reasonable charge on the individual, not to exceed the lesser of twenty-five dollars and the amount permitted by law other than this part 2.

12-14.5-224. Voluntary contributions. A provider may not solicit a voluntary contribution from an individual or an affiliate of the individual for any service provided to the individual. A provider may accept voluntary contributions from an individual but, until thirty days after completion or termination of a plan, the aggregate amount of money received from or on behalf of the individual may not exceed the total amount the provider may charge the individual under section 12-14.5-223.

12-14.5-225. Voidable agreements. (a) If a provider imposes a fee or other charge or receives money or other payments not authorized by section 12-14.5-223 or 12-14.5-224, the individual may void the agreement and recover as provided in section 12-14.5-235.

(b) If a provider is not registered as required by this part 2 when an individual assents to an agreement, the agreement is voidable by the individual.

(c) If an individual voids an agreement under subsection (b) of this section, the provider does not have a claim against the individual for breach of contract or for restitution.

12-14.5-226. Termination of agreements. (a) If an individual who has entered into an agreement fails for sixty days to make payments required by the agreement, a provider may terminate the agreement.

(b) If a provider or an individual terminates an agreement, the provider shall immediately return to the individual:

(1) Any money of the individual held in trust for the benefit of the individual.

12-14.5-227. Periodic reports - retention of records. (a) A provider shall provide the accounting required by subsection (b) of this section:

(1) Upon cancellation or termination of an agreement; and

(2) Before cancellation or termination of any agreement:

(A) At least once each month; and

(B) Within five business days after a request by an individual, but the provider need not comply with more than one request from an individual in any calendar month.

(b) A provider, in a record, shall provide each individual for whom it has established a plan an accounting of the following information:

(1) The amount of money received from the individual since the last report;

(2) The amounts and dates of disbursement made on the individual's behalf, or by the individual upon the direction of the provider, since the last report to each creditor listed in the plan;

(3) The amounts deducted from the amount received from the individual;

(4) The amount held in reserve; and

(5) If, since the last report, a creditor has agreed to accept as payment in full an amount less than the principal amount of the debt owed by the individual:

(A) The total amount and terms of the settlement;

(B) The amount of the debt when the individual assented to the plan;

(C) The amount of the debt when the creditor agreed to the settlement; and

(c) A provider shall maintain records for each individual for whom it provides debt-management services for five years after the final payment made by the individual and produce a copy of them to the individual within a reasonable time after a request for them. The provider may use electronic or other means of storage of the records.

12-14.5-228. Prohibited acts and practices. (a) A provider may not, directly or indirectly:

(1) Misappropriate or misapply money held in trust;

(2) Settle a debt on behalf of an individual without the individual's agreement to the settlement terms pursuant to a settlement agreement or other valid contractual agreement executed by the individual;

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1206), ch. 113, p. 356, § 16, effective July 1, 2011.)

(4) Exercise or attempt to exercise a power of attorney after an individual has terminated an agreement;

(5) Initiate a transfer from an individual's account at a bank or with another person unless the transfer is:

(A) A return of money to the individual; or

(B) Before termination of an agreement, properly authorized by the agreement and this part 2, and for:

(i) Payment to one or more creditors pursuant to a plan; or

(ii) Payment of a fee;

(6) Offer a gift or bonus, premium, reward, or other compensation to an individual for executing an agreement;

(7) Offer, pay, or give a gift or bonus, premium, reward, or other compensation to a person for referring a prospective customer, except for a sales lead, if the person making the referral has a financial interest in the outcome of debt-management services provided to the customer, unless neither the provider nor the person making the referral communicates to the prospective customer the identity of the source of the referral;

(8) Receive a bonus, commission, or other benefit for referring an individual to a person;

(9) Structure a plan in a manner that would result in a negative amortization of any of an individual's debts, unless a creditor that is owed a negatively amortizing debt agrees to refund or waive the finance charge upon payment of the principal amount of the debt;

(10) Compensate its employees on the basis of a formula that incorporates the number of individuals the employee induces to enter into agreements;

(11) Settle a debt or lead an individual to believe that a payment to a creditor is in settlement of a debt to the creditor unless, at the time of settlement, the individual receives a certification by the creditor that the payment is in full settlement of the debt;

(12) Make a representation that:

(A) The provider will furnish money to pay bills or prevent attachments;

(B) Payment of a certain amount will permit satisfaction of a certain amount or range of indebtedness; or

(C) Participation in a plan will or may prevent litigation, collection activity, garnishment, attachment, repossession, foreclosure, eviction, or loss of employment;

(13) Misrepresent that it is authorized or competent to furnish legal advice or perform legal services;

(14) Represent that it is a not-for-profit entity unless it is organized and properly operating as a not-for-profit under the law of the state in which it was formed or that it is a tax-exempt entity unless it has received certification of tax-exempt status from the federal internal revenue service; except that, if the provider represents that it is a not-for-profit entity and the provider does not have tax-exempt status under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, the provider shall state, in a clear and conspicuous manner and in close proximity to the representation: "We are not an educational, charitable, or religious organization granted tax-exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service."

(15) Take a confession of judgment or power of attorney to confess judgment against an individual;

(16) Employ an unfair, unconscionable, or deceptive act or practice, including the knowing omission of any material information; or

(17) Advise, encourage, or suggest to the individual not to make a payment to creditors under the plan.

(b) If a provider furnishes debt-management services to an individual, the provider may not, directly or indirectly:

(1) Purchase a debt or obligation of the individual;

(2) Receive from or on behalf of the individual:

(A) A promissory note or other negotiable instrument other than a check or a demand draft; or

(B) A post-dated check or demand draft;

(3) Lend money or provide credit to the individual, except as a deferral of a settlement fee at no additional expense to the individual;

(4) Obtain a mortgage or other security interest from any person in connection with the services provided to the individual;

(5) Except as permitted by federal law, disclose the identity or identifying information of the individual or the identity of the individual's creditors, except to:

(A) The administrator, upon proper demand;

(B) A creditor of the individual, to the extent necessary to secure the cooperation of the creditor in a plan; or

(C) The extent necessary to administer the plan;

(6) Except as otherwise provided in section 12-14.5-223 (d) (2), provide the individual less than the full benefit of a compromise of a debt arranged by the provider;

(7) Charge the individual for or provide credit or other insurance, coupons for goods or services, membership in a club, access to computers or the internet, or any other matter not directly related to debt-management services or educational services concerning personal finance; or

(8) Furnish legal advice or perform legal services, unless the person furnishing that advice to or performing those services for the individual is licensed to practice law.

(c) This part 2 does not authorize any person to engage in the practice of law.

(d) A provider may not receive a gift or bonus, premium, reward, or other compensation, directly or indirectly, for advising, arranging, or assisting an individual in connection with obtaining an extension of credit or other service from a lender or service provider, except for educational or counseling services required in connection with a government-sponsored program.

(e) Unless a person supplies goods, services, or facilities generally and supplies them to the provider at a cost no greater than the cost the person generally charges to others, a provider may not purchase goods, services, or facilities from the person if an employee or a person that the provider should reasonably know is an affiliate of the provider:

(1) Owns more than ten percent of the person; or

(2) Is an employee or affiliate of the person.

12-14.5-229. Notice of litigation. No later than thirty days after a provider has been served with notice of a civil action for violation of this part 2 by or on behalf of an individual who resides in this state at either the time of an agreement or the time the notice is served, the provider shall notify the administrator in a record that it has been sued.

12-14.5-231. Liability for the conduct of other persons. If a provider delegates any of its duties or obligations under an agreement or this part 2 to another person, including an independent contractor, the provider is liable for conduct of the person that, if done by the provider, would violate the agreement or this part 2.

12-14.5-232. Powers of administrator - rules. (a) The administrator may act on its own initiative or in response to complaints and may receive complaints, take action to obtain voluntary compliance with this part 2, and seek or provide remedies as provided in this part 2.

(b) The administrator may investigate and examine, in this state or elsewhere, by subpoena or otherwise, the activities, books, accounts, and records of a person that provides or offers to provide debt-management services, or a person to which a provider has delegated its obligations under an agreement or this part 2, to determine compliance with this part 2. Information that identifies individuals who have agreements with the provider shall not be disclosed to the public. In connection with the investigation, the administrator may:

(1) Charge the person the reasonable expenses necessarily incurred to conduct the examination;

(2) Require or permit a person to file a statement under oath as to all the facts and circumstances of a matter to be investigated; and

(3) Seek a court order authorizing seizure from a bank at which the person maintains a trust account required by section 12-14.5-222, any or all money, books, records, accounts, and other property of the provider that is in the control of the bank and relates to individuals who reside in this state.

(c) The administrator may adopt rules to implement the provisions of this part 2 in accordance with section 24-4-103, C.R.S.

(d) The administrator may enter into cooperative arrangements with any other federal or state agency having authority over providers and may exchange with any of those agencies information about a provider, including information obtained during an examination of the provider.

(e) The administrator, by rule, shall establish reasonable fees to be paid by providers for the expense of administering this part 2.

12-14.5-233. Administrative and legal remedies. (a) The administrator may enforce this part 2 and rules adopted under this part 2 by taking one or more of the following actions:

(1) Ordering a provider or a director, employee, or other agent of a provider to cease and desist from any violations;

(2) Ordering a provider or a person that has caused a violation to correct the violation, including making restitution of money or property to a person aggrieved by a violation;

(3) Imposing on a provider or a person that has caused a violation a civil penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars for each violation;

(4) Prosecuting a civil action to:

(A) Enforce an order; or

(B) Obtain restitution, a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars per violation, an injunction, or other equitable relief;

(5) Intervening in an action brought under section 12-14.5-235.

(b) If a person violates or knowingly authorizes, directs, or aids in the violation of a final order issued under paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a) of this section, the administrator or court may impose a civil penalty not exceeding twenty thousand dollars for each violation.

(c) The administrator may maintain an action to enforce this part 2 in any county.

(d) The administrator may recover the reasonable costs of enforcing this part 2 under subsections (a) to (c) of this section, including attorney fees based on the hours reasonably expended and the hourly rates for attorneys of comparable experience in the community.

(e) In determining the amount of a civil penalty to impose under subsection (a) or (b) of this section, the administrator or the court shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the good faith of the violator, any previous violations by the violator, the deleterious effect of the violation on the public, the net worth of the violator, and any other factor the administrator or the court considers relevant to the determination of the civil penalty.

12-14.5-234. Suspension, revocation, or nonrenewal of registration. (a) In this section, “insolvent” means:

(1) Having generally ceased to pay debts in the ordinary course of business other than as a result of good-faith dispute;

(2) Being unable to pay debts as they become due; or

(3) Being insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law, 11 U.S.C. sec. 101 et seq., as amended.

(b) In addition to the remedies otherwise available under this article, the administrator may suspend, revoke, or deny renewal of a provider’s registration if:

(1) A fact or condition exists that, if it had existed when the registrant applied for registration as a provider, would have been a reason for denying registration;

(2) The provider has committed a material violation of this part 2 or a rule or order of the administrator under this part 2;

(3) The provider is insolvent;

(4) The provider or an employee or affiliate of the provider has refused to permit the administrator to make an examination authorized by this part 2, failed to comply with section 12-14.5-232 (b) (2) within fifteen days after request, or made a material misrepresentation or omission in complying with section 12-14.5-232 (b) (2); or

(5) The provider has not responded within a reasonable time and in an appropriate manner to communications from the administrator.

(c) If a provider does not comply with section 12-14.5-222 (f) or if the administrator otherwise finds that the public health, safety, or general welfare requires emergency action, the administrator may order a summary suspension of the provider’s registration, effective on the date specified in the order.

(d) If the administrator suspends, revokes, or denies renewal of the registration of a provider, the administrator may seek a court order authorizing seizure of any or all of the money in a trust account required by section 12-14.5-222, books, records, accounts, and other property of the provider that are located in this state.

(e) If the administrator suspends or revokes a provider’s registration, the provider may appeal and request a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

12-14.5-235. Private enforcement. (a) If an individual voids an agreement pursuant to section 12-14.5-225 (b), the individual may recover in a civil action all money paid or deposited by or on behalf of the individual pursuant to the agreement, except amounts paid to creditors, in addition to the recovery under paragraphs (3) and (4) of subsection (c) of this section.

(b) If an individual voids an agreement pursuant to section 12-14.5-225 (a), the individual may recover in a civil action three times the total amount of the fees, charges, money, and payments made by the individual to the provider, in addition to the recovery under paragraph (4) of subsection (c) of this section.

(c) Subject to subsection (d) of this section, an individual with respect to whom a provider violates this part 2 may recover in a civil action from the provider and any person that caused the violation:

(1) Compensatory damages for injury, including noneconomic injury, caused by the violation;

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, with respect to a violation of section 12-14.5-217, 12-14.5-219 to 12-14.5-224, 12-14.5-227, or 12-14.5-228 (a), (b), or (d), the greater of the amount recoverable under paragraph (1) of this subsection (c) or five thousand dollars;

- (3) Punitive damages; and
- (4) Reasonable attorney fees and costs.
- (d) In a class action, except for a violation of section 12-14.5-228 (a) (5), the minimum damages provided in paragraph (2) of subsection (c) of this section do not apply.
- (e) In addition to the remedy available under subsection (c) of this section, if a provider violates an individual's rights under section 12-14.5-220, the individual may recover in a civil action all money paid or deposited by or on behalf of the individual pursuant to the agreement, except for amounts paid to creditors.
- (f) A provider is not liable under this section for a violation of this part 2 if the provider proves that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a good-faith error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error. An error of legal judgment with respect to a provider's obligations under this part 2 is not a good-faith error. If, in connection with a violation, the provider has received more money than authorized by an agreement or this part 2, the defense provided by this subsection (f) is not available unless the provider refunds the excess within two business days after learning of the violation.
- (g) The administrator shall assist an individual in enforcing a judgment against the surety bond or other security provided under section 12-14.5-213 or 12-14.5-214.

12-14.5-237. Statute of limitations. (a) An action or proceeding brought pursuant to section 12-14.5-233 (a), (b), or (c) shall be commenced within four years after the conduct that is the basis of the administrator's complaint.

(b) An action brought pursuant to section 12-14.5-235 shall be commenced within two years after the latest of:

- (1) The individual's last transmission of money to a provider;
- (2) The individual's last transmission of money to a creditor at the direction of the provider;
- (3) The provider's last disbursement to a creditor of the individual;
- (4) The provider's last accounting to the individual pursuant to section 12-14.5-227 (a);
- (5) The date on which the individual discovered or reasonably should have discovered the facts giving rise to the individual's claim; or
- (6) Termination of actions or proceedings by the administrator with respect to a violation of this part 2.

(c) The period prescribed in paragraph (5) of subsection (b) of this section is tolled during any period during which the provider or, if different, the defendant has materially and willfully misrepresented information required by this part 2 to be disclosed to the individual, if the information so misrepresented is material to the establishment of the liability of the defendant under this part 2.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The case annotated below was decided under CSA, C. 15, § 12(1), the subject matter of which was similar to this section.

This article is a valid exercise of the police power and is constitutional. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

It does not violate the provision of the federal constitution guaranteeing equal protection of the laws to citizens of a state. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

It also does not violate "due process of law" in that it abridges the right of freedom to contract between parties in matters personal to themselves, and deprives them of power to fix mode by which compensation shall be ascertained. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

12-16-103. Definitions - rules. As used in this part 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Agent" means any person who, on behalf of any dealer or small-volume dealer, buys, receives, contracts for, or solicits any farm products from or sells farm products for the owner thereof or who negotiates the consignment or purchase of any farm products on behalf of any dealer or small-volume dealer.

(1.5) "Commercial feeding" means the feeding of livestock by a person who receives compensation from the owner of the livestock for such feeding.

(2) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of agriculture or his designee.

(2.5) "Commodity" means unprocessed small, hard seeds or fruits such as wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, sunflower seeds, soybeans, beans, grain sorghums, and such other seeds or fruits as may be determined by the commissioner.

(3) "Consignor" includes any person who ships or delivers to any dealer or small-volume dealer any farm products for handling, sale, or resale.

(3.5) "Credit sale contract" means a contract for the sale of a farm product when the sale price is to be paid on a date later than sixty days after delivery of the farm product to the buyer and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as deferred payment contracts, deferred pricing contracts, and price later contracts.

(4) (a) "Dealer" means:

(I) Any person engaged in buying any farm products from the owner for processing or resale;

(II) Any person engaged in receiving and taking possession of any farm products from the owner for storage or safekeeping;

(III) Any person engaged in soliciting or negotiating sales of farm products between the vendor and purchaser respectively;

(IV) Any person who receives on consignment or solicits from the owner thereof any kind of farm product for sale on commission on behalf of such owner, or who accepts any farm product in trust from the owner thereof for the purpose of resale, or who sells or offers for sale on commission any farm product or in any way handles any farm product for the account of, or as an agent of, the owner thereof; or

(V) Any person engaged in buying any farm products from the owner thereof for the commercial feeding of livestock that are owned wholly or in part by another, at an animal feeding operation with a capacity of more than two thousand five hundred head of livestock. The commissioner shall establish rules to determine the capacity of animal feeding operations for purposes of this article.

(b) "Dealer" does not include bona fide retail grocery merchants or restaurateurs having a fixed or established place of business in Colorado as long as the use of farm products by any such person is directly related to the operation of the person's retail grocery or restaurant.

(5) (a) (I) "Farm products" includes the following unprocessed products produced in Colorado or owned by any Colorado resident, dealer, or small-volume dealer:

(A) Agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, fruit, and vegetable products of the soil;

(B) Livestock and livestock products, except livestock held by the purchaser and not resold or processed within ninety days after the purchase date;

(C) Milk; and

(II) The term also includes ensiled corn and baled, cubed, or ground hay.

(b) "Farm products" does not include poultry and poultry products, timber products, nursery stock, or commodities.

(5.5) "Livestock" has the same meaning as set forth in section 35-1-102 (6), C.R.S.

(6) "Owner" means any person in whom legal title to any farm product is vested, whether produced by him or acquired by purchase.

(7) "Person" includes an individual, a firm, an association, a partnership, a corporation, or the commissioner.

(8) "Processing" means the operation of drying, canning, fermenting, distilling, extracting, preserving, grinding, crushing, flaking, mixing, or otherwise changing the form of a farm product for the purpose of reselling the product.

(9) “Producer” means any person engaged in growing or producing any farm product.

(10) “Retail grocery merchant” means any person whose sales are more than fifty percent non-farm product grocery household merchandise.

(10.5) “Small-volume dealer” means any person who:

(a) Does not qualify as a “dealer” under subparagraph (II), (III), (IV), or (V) of paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section;

(b) Has a fixed or established place of business in Colorado;

(c) Buys less than twenty thousand dollars’ worth of farm products or commodities, in aggregate, per year from the owners for processing or resale;

(d) Does not purchase in a single transaction two thousand five hundred dollars’ worth or more of farm products or commodities, in aggregate; and

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 12-16-101 as it existed prior to 1985.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. The case annotated below was decided under CSA, C. 15, § 12(1), the subject matter of which was similar to this section, even though the definition of “cash buyer” was not included in the 1985 recodification.

The act of 1937, the origin of this article, enlarged the type of person brought under it, namely, dealers as well as commission merchants, brokers, and agents. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

The act of 1937 also added livestock and livestock products in its classification of farm produce coming under the subject matter of the act. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

It also added and defined the term, “cash buyer”. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

The definition of “cash buyer” does not include a person who pays by check. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

The definition itself does not include payment by check, and the history of the development of the act indicates a definite intent to exclude payment by check. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

The omission of the words “or its equivalent” after “lawful money of the United States” in the 1937 act would indicate a definite legislative intent to narrow the term “cash buyer” to one who actually pays for farm produce solely in lawful money of the United States or by exchange of farm products. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

12-16-104. Application for license - rules. (1) No person shall act as a dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent without having obtained a license as provided in this part 1. Every person acting as a dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent shall file an application in writing with the commissioner for a license to transact the business of dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent, and such application shall be accompanied by the license fee provided for in section 12-16-105 for each specified class of business.

(2) The application in each case shall state the class or classes of farm products the applicant proposes to handle, the full name of the person applying for such license, and, if the applicant is a firm, exchange, association, or corporation, the full name of each member of the firm or the names of the officers of the exchange, association, or corporation. Such application shall further state the principal business address of the applicant in the state of Colorado and elsewhere and the names of the persons authorized to receive and accept service of summons and legal notices of all kinds for the applicant. The applicant shall further satisfy the commissioner of his character, responsibility, and good faith in seeking to carry on the business stated in the application. In determining a person's character, the commissioner shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(3) In addition to the general requirements applicable to all classes of applications, as set forth in this section, each application for an agent's license shall include such information as the commissioner may consider proper or necessary, and such application shall include the name and address of the applicant and the name and address of each dealer or small-volume dealer represented or sought to be represented by said agent and the written endorsement or nomination of such dealer or small-volume dealer. No person shall be licensed as an agent unless all of such agent's principals are licensed under this part 1.

(4) Upon the applicant's filing of the proper application with the commissioner, accompanied by the proper fee, and when the commissioner is satisfied that the convenience and necessity of the industry and the public will be served thereby, the commissioner shall issue to such applicant a license entitling the applicant to conduct the business described in the application at the place named in the application until the date specified by the commissioner by rule or until the license has been suspended or revoked. The license of an agent shall expire upon the date of expiration of the license of the principal for whom the agent acts. The commissioner may also issue a license to each agent, with a separate agent's license being required for each principal. Any dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent shall show said license upon the request of any interested person. Each licensed dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent shall post such person's license or a copy thereof in the person's office or salesroom in plain view of the public.

(5) Fraud or misrepresentation in making any application shall ipso facto work a revocation of any license granted pursuant thereto. All indicia of the possession of a license shall be at all times the property of the state of Colorado, and each licensee is entitled to the possession thereof only for the duration of said license.

(6) Any person licensed under part 2 of this article may apply for a license as a dealer or small-volume dealer without paying the license fee otherwise required by section 12-16-105.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The case cited below was decided under CSA, C. § 15, 12(3), the subject matter of which was similar to this section.

The provision of this section that requires the commissioner, when he is satisfied that the convenience and necessity of the industry and the public will be served thereby, to issue a license entitling the applicant to conduct the business described does not render the act violative of "due process of law" on the grounds that the commissioner of agriculture is given arbitrary power to determine whether or not a license shall be granted. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

A survey of the entire article gives no intimation that it shall or can be administered and licenses issued in accordance with the personal or arbitrary whim of the commissioner of agriculture, but rather it appears that it shall be administered for the welfare of the public. Zeigler v. People, 109 Colo. 252, 124 P.2d 593 (1942).

12-16-105. License fee - renewal - rules. (1) (a) For filing the application described in section 12-16-104, each applicant for a license in each of the following categories shall pay to the commissioner a fee as determined by the agricultural commission, which fee shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for credit to the inspection and consumer services cash fund created in section 35-1-106.5, C.R.S.:

(I) Dealers; except that a dealer who signs an affidavit stating that such dealer shall make payment in cash or by one of the other means specified in section 12-16-106 (1) (f) for each transaction for farm products shall pay the same application fee as a small-volume dealer;

(II) Agents; and

(III) Small-volume dealers.

(b) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b), for each fiscal year, commencing on July 1, twenty-five percent of the direct and indirect costs of administering and enforcing this article shall be funded from the general fund. The agricultural commission shall establish a fee schedule to cover any direct and indirect costs not funded from the general fund.

(2) If any licensee fails for any reason to apply for the renewal of a license before an annual date specified by the commissioner by rule, such licensee shall, upon application for a renewal license and before such license is issued, pay a penalty as established by the agricultural commission, which shall be in addition to the license fee.

(3) Any person against whose surety a claim has been collected or any person against whom an irrevocable letter of credit has been drawn by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this part 1 shall not be licensed by the commissioner during the period of three years from the date of such collection; except that the commissioner may, in his discretion and consistent with the purpose of this part 1, issue a temporary license to such person for such period, subject to such restrictions as the commissioner deems reasonable and necessary.

(4) Any licensee who has a verified complaint pending against him with the commissioner shall not be issued a renewal license until the complaint has been settled to the satisfaction of the commissioner.

(5) Upon the failure of an applicant to file a bond or an irrevocable letter of credit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101.5, C.R.S., within ninety days of the date of application, the application will be rendered void, and the license fee will not be refunded. Any subsequent application for a license shall require a new license fee.

(6) Whenever the commissioner deems it appropriate, the commissioner may require of any applicant for an initial license, any applicant for a renewal of a license, or any licensee the submission of a financial statement or an audit, prepared by a certified public accountant, or any other information to determine whether such person is in an adequate financial position to carry out his or her duties as a licensee.

(3) Subsection (1)(b)(II)(B) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(b)(II), effective July 1, 2012. (See L. 2010, p. 923.)

12-16-106. Bonds and irrevocable letters of credit - exemptions. (1) (a) Before any license is issued to any dealer, the applicant shall file with the commissioner a bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state as a surety or an irrevocable letter of credit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101.5, C.R.S., in the sum of not less than two thousand dollars nor more than two hundred thousand dollars, at the discretion of the commissioner.

(c) The bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall be conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this part 1 and upon the faithful and honest handling of farm products in accordance with the terms of this part 1 and shall cover any and all fees due the people of the state of Colorado by the dealer and all costs and reasonable attorney fees incident to any suit upon the bond or irrevocable letter of credit. The bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall be to the state in favor of every producer, dealer, small-volume dealer, or owner and, in the instance of a bond, shall remain in full force and effect until cancelled by the surety upon thirty days' prior written notice to the commissioner.

(d) (I) Any producer, owner, small-volume dealer, or other dealer within the state of Colorado claiming to be injured by the fraud, deceit, willful negligence, or failure to comply with the provisions of this part 1 of any dealer may seek to recover the damages caused by such fraud, deceit, willful negligence, or failure to comply with the provisions of this part 1. If the licensee has elected to file a bond pursuant to this section, the injured party may bring an action, with the prior written consent of the commissioner, for collection against both principal and surety in any court of competent jurisdiction. If the licensee has elected to file an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to this section, the injured party may request the department of agriculture, as beneficiary, to demand payment on the irrevocable letter of credit.

(II) The surety on the bond or the person who filed the letter of credit shall not be liable to pay any claim pursuant to any action brought under the provisions of this part 1 if such action is not commenced within twenty-four months after the date of the transaction on which the claim is based.

(e) When any action is commenced on said bond or irrevocable letter of credit, the commissioner may require the filing of a new bond or irrevocable letter of credit, and failure of the licensee to file the new bond or irrevocable letter of credit within ten days after the commencement of said action constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of his license.

(f) No bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall be required of a dealer who pays for farm products in cash or with a bank-certified check, a bank cashier's check, an irrevocable electronic funds transfer, or a money order at the time the dealer obtains from the owner thereof possession or control of the farm products, or of an applicant for a license or a licensee operating under a bond required by the United States to secure the performance of his or her obligations; except that the bond shall include all obligations pertaining to Colorado farm products, and documentary evidence shall be furnished to the commissioner that the bond required by the United States is in full force and effect.

(g) The bond or irrevocable letter of credit required by section 12-16-218 shall apply to the activities as a dealer of any person licensed pursuant to part 2 of this article. Such persons shall also be subject to the provisions of this section and section 12-16-107.

(2) Whenever the commissioner determines that a previously approved bond or irrevocable letter of credit is, or for any cause has become, insufficient, he may require an additional bond or irrevocable letter of credit or other evidence of financial responsibility to be given by a dealer to conform to the requirements of this part 1 or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this part 1. The failure of the dealer to comply with the commissioner's requirement within thirty days after written demand therefor constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of his license.

(3) A bond is not required for credit sale contracts.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-16-106 is similar to § 12-16-105 as it existed prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article, a relevant case construing the provisions of that section has been included in the annotations to this section.

Liability continues after cancellation for preexisting rights. A surety remains liable upon cancellation of a bond for any rights acquired by the obligee prior to cancellation. Home Indem. Co. v. Famularo, 530 F. Supp. 797 (D. Colo. 1982).

The Farm Products Act creates a private right of action where the plaintiffs are producers and the defendants are dealers; plaintiffs' claims arise from defendants' alleged failure to comply with the provisions of the act; and plaintiffs received the written consent of the commissioner of agriculture to bring an action and they seek to recover the damages caused by defendants' fraud, deceit, and willful negligence. Gorsich v. Double B Trading Co., Inc., 893 P.2d 1357 (Colo. App. 1994) (decided under former law).

12-16-107. Investigations, hearings, and examinations. (1) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this part 1, the commissioner may receive complaints from persons against any dealer, small-volume dealer, agent, or person assuming or attempting to act as such and, upon the receipt of such a complaint, may make any and all necessary investigations relative to said complaint.

(2) The commissioner upon his own motion may, and upon the verified complaint of any person shall, investigate any transactions involving any provisions of this part 1.

(3) (a) The commissioner, upon consent of the licensee or upon obtaining an administrative search warrant, shall have free and unimpeded access to all buildings, yards, warehouses, and storage facilities owned by a licensee in which any farm products are kept, stored, handled, processed, or transported.

(b) The commissioner, upon consent of the licensee or upon obtaining a search warrant, shall have free and unimpeded access to all records required to be kept and may make copies of such records.

(c) The commissioner shall have full authority to administer oaths and take statements, to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses before him and the production of all books, memoranda, papers, and other documents, articles, or instruments, and to compel the disclosure by such witnesses of all facts known to them relative to the matters under investigation. Upon the failure or refusal of any witness to obey any subpoena, the commissioner may petition the district court, and, upon a proper showing, the court may enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. Failure to obey such an order of the court shall be punishable as a contempt of court.

(4) The commissioner may examine the ledgers, books, accounts, memoranda, and other documents and the farm products, scales, measures, and other items in connection with the business of any licensee relating to whatever transactions may be involved.

(5) The commissioner shall not be required to investigate or act upon complaints regarding transactions which occurred more than one hundred twenty days prior to the date upon which the commissioner received the written complaint.

(6) If the investigation is against a licensee, the commissioner shall proceed to ascertain the names and addresses of all producers, dealers, small-volume dealers, or owners of farm products, together with the accounts unaccounted for or due and owing to them by said licensee, and shall request all such producers, dealers, small-volume dealers, or owners to file verified statements of their respective claims with the commissioner. If a producer, dealer, small-volume dealer, or owner so requested fails, refuses, or neglects to file a verified statement in the office of the commissioner within thirty days after the date of such request, the commissioner shall thereupon be relieved of any further duty or action under this part 1 on behalf of said producer, dealer, small-volume dealer, or owner.

(7) In the course of any investigation, the commissioner may attempt to effectuate a settlement between the respective parties.

(8) (a) If the commissioner determines, after concluding an investigation on any complaint, that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a licensee has violated any of the provisions of this part 1, he shall notify the licensee that such complaint is valid and shall inform the licensee of his opportunity to request a hearing, in writing, on such complaint within ten days after the date of such notice.

(b) Upon the receipt of a request for a hearing from a licensee or if the commissioner determines that a hearing concerning any licensee is necessary, he shall cause a copy of the complaint or the grounds specified in section 12-16-108, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing, to be served personally or by mail upon such licensee. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated, or in which the transactions involved allegedly occurred, or at the location deemed by the commissioner to be most convenient.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct such hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S. Thereafter, the commissioner shall enter in his office a decision specifying the relevant facts established at such hearing. If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has not violated any of the provisions of this part 1, the complaint shall be dismissed. If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this part 1, and that the licensee has not yet made complete restitution to the person complaining, he shall determine the amount of damages, if any, to which such person is entitled as the result of such violation, and he shall enter an order directing the offender to pay the person complaining such amount on or before the date fixed in the order. A copy of the decision shall be furnished to all the respective parties to the complaint.

(9) As a result of such hearing, the commissioner may also enter any order suspending or revoking the license of a licensee or may place the licensee on probation if the commissioner determines that the licensee has committed any of the unlawful acts specified in section 12-16-115 or that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this part 1.

(10) (a) If a person against whom an order, as specified in paragraph (c) of subsection (8) of this section, is made and issued fails, neglects, or refuses to obey said order within the time specified in the order, the commissioner may thereupon issue a further order to that person directing him to show cause why his license should not be suspended or revoked for failure to comply with said order.

(b) In such case, a copy of said order to show cause, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing thereupon, shall be served personally or by mail upon the person involved. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated or at any convenient place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct such hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S., and thereafter shall enter in his office an order and decision specifying the facts established at the hearing and either dismissing the order to show cause, or directing the suspension or revocation of the license held by the licensee, or making such other conditional or probationary orders as may be proper. A copy of said order and decision shall be furnished to the licensee.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the power of the commissioner to revoke or suspend a license when he is satisfied of the existence of any of the facts specified in section 12-16-115.

(11) Whenever the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the commissioner to ascertain the names and addresses of all persons specified in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner, after exercising due diligence and making a reasonable inquiry to secure said information from all reasonable and available sources, shall not be liable or responsible for the claims or the handling of claims which may subsequently appear or be discovered. After ascertaining all claims, assessments, and statements in the manner set forth in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner may then demand payment on the bond or irrevocable letter of credit on behalf of those claimants whose claims have been determined by the commissioner as valid and, in the instance of a bond, may settle or compromise said claims with the surety company on the bond and execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond involved. Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand, the commissioner may bring an action on the bond on behalf of the producer, dealer, small-volume dealer, or owner.

(12) For the purpose of this section, a transaction is deemed to have occurred:

- (a) On the date that possession of farm products is transferred by a claimant;
- (b) On delayed payment transactions, on the contractual date of payment or, if there is no contractual date of payment, thirty days following the transfer of title.

(13) Complaints of record made to the commissioner and the results of his investigations may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be closed to public inspection during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges is served on a licensee, unless otherwise provided by court order.

12-16-108. Disciplinary powers - licenses. (1) The commissioner may deny any application for a license, or may refuse to renew a license, or may revoke or suspend a license, or may place a licensee on probation, as the case may require, if the licensee or applicant has:

(a) Violated any of the provisions of this part 1 or violated any of the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to this part 1;

(b) Been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of any other state, or of the United States; except that, in considering a conviction of a felony, the commissioner shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(c) Committed fraud or deception in the procurement or attempted procurement of a license;

(d) Failed or refused to file with the commissioner a surety bond or an irrevocable letter of credit, as required by section 12-16-106;

(e) Been determined by the commissioner to be in an inadequate financial position to meet liability obligations;

(f) Failed to comply with any lawful order of the commissioner concerning the administration of this part 1;

(g) Had a license revoked, suspended, or not renewed or has been placed on probation in another state for cause, if such cause could be the basis for the same or similar disciplinary action in this state.

(2) All proceedings concerning the denial, refusal to renew, revocation, or suspension of a license or the placing of a licensee on probation shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of section 12-16-107 and article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) Any previous violation of the provisions of this part 1 by the applicant or any person connected with him in the business for which he seeks to be licensed, or in the case of a partnership or corporation applicant any previous violations of the provisions of this part 1 by a partner, officer, director, or stockholder of more than thirty percent of the outstanding shares, is sufficient grounds for the denial of a license.

12-16-109. Cease-and-desist order - suit for restraining order. (1) If the commissioner determines that there exists a violation of any provision of this part 1 or of any rule or regulation promulgated under the authority of this part 1, the commissioner may issue a cease-and-desist order, which may require any person to cease functioning as a dealer or small-volume dealer, except for those functions necessary to prevent spoilage of products stored in such dealer's warehouse. Such order shall set forth the provisions alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all functions, except those necessary to prevent spoilage, be ceased forthwith. At any time after the date of the service of the order to cease and desist, the person may request a hearing on the question of whether or not any such violation has occurred. Such hearing shall be concluded in not more than ten days after such request and shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(2) In the event that any person fails to comply with a cease-and-desist order within twenty-four hours after service, the commissioner may bring a suit pursuant to section 12-16-114 (2) to prevent any further or continued violation of such order.

(3) No stay of a cease-and-desist order shall be issued before a hearing thereon involving both parties.

(4) Matters brought before a court pursuant to this section shall have preference over other matters on the court's calendar.

12-16-110.5. Credit sale contracts. (1) When a dealer or small-volume dealer receives farm products for which payment has not been made, the dealer or small-volume dealer, within sixty days after the receipt of such farm products, shall provide the producer or owner of the farm products with a credit sale contract. The credit sale contract shall contain the following information:

- (a) The type of farm products received, the quantity received, and the date of receipt;
- (b) The charges for handling, if any;
- (c) The name and address of the producer or owner and the signature of the dealer or small-volume dealer or the authorized agent thereof;
- (d) The contract number required pursuant to subsection (4) of this section; and
- (e) The statement, "This contract constitutes a voluntary extension of credit by the owner to the dealer and is not protected by the surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit of the dealer." Such statement shall be conspicuously printed on the upper one-third of the first page of the contract, set off by solid lines on all four sides, and shall include a signature block for the signature of the seller.

(2) Records of a dealer or small-volume dealer shall be retained for a period of two years and shall reflect those credit sale contracts that have been cancelled and those that are still open. Such records shall be kept at the dealer's or small-volume dealer's place of business at all times.

(3) An annual report of the status of all of a dealer's or small-volume dealer's credit sale contracts may be required by the commissioner.

(4) All credit sale contracts entered into by a dealer or small-volume dealer shall be consecutively numbered by the dealer, and copies thereof shall be made available for inspection by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized agents.

12-16-111. Records of dealers. (1) Every dealer handling farm products for any consignor having received any farm products on commission for sale shall promptly make and keep a correct record, showing in detail the following with reference to the handling, sale, or storage of such farm products:

- (a) The name and address of the consignor;
- (b) The date received;
- (c) The condition and quantity upon arrival;
- (d) The date of such sale for the account of the consignor;
- (e) The price for which sold;
- (f) An itemized statement of the charges to be paid by the consignor in connection with the sale;
- (g) The names and addresses of the purchasers if said dealer has any financial interest in the business of said purchasers or if said purchasers have any financial interest in the business of said dealer, directly or indirectly, as a holder of the other's corporate stock, as a copartner, as a lender or borrower of money to or from the other, or in any other capacity;
- (h) A lot number or other identifying mark for each consignment, which number or mark shall appear on all sales tags or other essential records needed to show what the product actually sold for;
- (i) Any claims which have been or may be filed by the dealer against any person for overcharges or for damages resulting from the injury or deterioration of such farm products by the act, neglect, or failure of such person; and such records shall be open to the inspection of the commissioner and the consignor for whom such claims are made.

12-16-112. Daily reports and settlements. (1) When requested by his consignor, a dealer, before the close of the next business day following the sale of any farm products consigned to him, shall transmit or deliver to the owner or consignor a true written report of such sale, showing the amount sold and the selling price. Remittance in full of the amount realized from such sale, including all collections, overcharges, and damages, less the agreed commission and other charges together with a complete account of sales, shall be made to the consignor within ten days after the receipt of the moneys by the dealer unless otherwise agreed to in writing. In the account, the names and addresses of purchasers need not be given, except as required in section 12-16-111.

(2) Every dealer shall retain a copy of the record covering each consignment transaction for a period of one year after the date thereof, which copy shall, at all times, be available for, and open to, the inspection of the commissioner and the consignor or the authorized representative of either.

(3) Every dealer shall pay for farm products delivered to him on the date and in the manner specified in the contract with the owner or, if no date is set by the contract or on the date of the delivery, within thirty days after the date of the delivery or the taking possession of such farm products.

12-16-113. Pooled consignment. Local produce or fruit associations or other shippers located in the neighborhood where products are grown may receive a reasonable compensation for loading, shipping, and securing persons to handle the same on commission in markets away from the locality where grown. Dealers receiving consignments of farm products from a number of consignors under written agreements or under written authority from them to market such products in season and prorate the net proceeds of such consignments among all consignors or to market the same in connection with other products of the same class may withhold such proportion of the net returns of sales of the consignments as may be necessary to carry out the agreements pertaining to said consignments until final sales have been made. In every case, final settlement shall be made within fifteen days after the final sale of the consignment, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the consignor.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-16-112 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-16-114. Enforcement. (1) The commissioner shall be the enforcing authority of this part 1, and the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative shall have free and unimpeded access to all places of business and all business records of a licensee pertinent to any proper inquiry in the administration of this part 1. Any person in whom the enforcement of any provision of this part 1 is vested has the power of a peace officer as to such enforcement.

(2) Whenever, upon sufficient evidence satisfactory to the commissioner, the commissioner determines a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this part 1 or of any rule or of any order promulgated under this part 1, he may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to temporarily or permanently restrain or enjoin the act or practice in question and to enforce compliance with this part 1 or any rule or order pursuant to this part 1. In any such action, the commissioner shall not be required to plead or prove irreparable injury or the inadequacy of a remedy at law. Under no circumstances shall the court require the commissioner to post a bond.

12-16-114.5. Civil penalties. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this part 1 or any regulation enacted pursuant to this part 1 is subject to a civil penalty as determined by the commissioner. The maximum penalty shall not exceed one thousand dollars per violation per day.

(2) No civil penalty may be imposed unless the person charged is given notice and an opportunity for a hearing pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) If the commissioner is unable to collect a civil penalty or if any person fails to pay all or any portion of a civil penalty, the commissioner may recover such amount, plus costs and attorney fees, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Under circumstances where the commissioner did not have probable cause to impose a civil penalty, the person charged may recover his costs and attorney fees from the department of agriculture.

(5) All moneys collected from civil penalties pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the inspection and consumer services cash fund created in section 35-1-106.5, C.R.S.

(6) Before imposing a civil penalty, the commissioner may consider the effect of such penalty on the ability of the person charged to stay in business.

12-16-115. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful and a violation of this part 1 for any person to:

(a) Make fraudulent charges or returns for the handling, sale, or storage or for the rendering of any service in connection with the handling, sale, or storage of any farm products. Violation of this paragraph (a) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(b) Willfully fail or refuse to render a true account of sales or storage or to make a settlement thereon or to pay for farm products received within the time and in the manner required by this part 1. Violation of this paragraph (b) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(c) Intentionally make false or misleading statements as to the market conditions for farm products or false or misleading statements as to the condition, quality, or quantity of farm products received, handled, sold, or stored. Violation of this paragraph (c) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(d) Engage in fictitious sales, in collusion, or in unfair practices to defraud the owners. Violation of this paragraph (d) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(e) Act as a dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent without having obtained a license or act as a dealer without having filed a surety bond or an irrevocable letter of credit, as provided in this part 1. Violation of this paragraph (e) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(f) Willfully convert to his own use or benefit the farm products of another. Violation of this paragraph (f) shall constitute theft, as defined in section 18-4-401, C.R.S.

(g) Commit fraud or deception in the procurement or attempted procurement of a license. Violation of this paragraph (g) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(h) Fail to comply with any lawful order of the commissioner concerning the administration of this part 1. Violation of this paragraph (h) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(i) Interfere with or hinder an authorized representative of the commissioner while performing his duties under this part 1. Violation of this paragraph (i) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(j) If licensed as a dealer or small-volume dealer, sell farm products for less than the current market price to any person with whom such dealer has any financial connection, directly or indirectly, either as an owner of the corporate stock of a corporation, as a copartner, or in any other capacity, or sell any farm products out of the purchase price of which said dealer or small-volume dealer receives, directly or indirectly, any portion thereof other than the commission allowed in section 12-16-112. Violation of this paragraph (j) shall constitute theft, as defined in section 18-4-401, C.R.S.

(k) Act as a dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent and, with intent to defraud, make, draw, utter, or deliver any check, draft, or order for the payment of money upon any bank or other depository to the owner for the purchase price of any farm products or any part thereof upon obtaining possession or control thereof, when at the time of the making, drawing, uttering, or delivery the maker or drawer has not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank or other depository for the payment of such check, draft, or order in full upon its presentation. The making, drawing, uttering, or delivery of such check, draft, or order shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to defraud. "Credit", as used in this paragraph (k), means an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository for the payment of such check, draft, or order. Violation of this paragraph (k) shall constitute fraud by check, as defined in section 18-5-205, C.R.S.

(l) If acting as a dealer who has signed an affidavit in accordance with section 12-16-105 (1) (a) (I), fail to make payment in cash or by one of the other means specified in section 12-16-106 (1) (f) for any transaction without first complying with the bonding requirements of section 12-16-106. Violation of this paragraph (l) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(m) If licensed as a small-volume dealer, purchase twenty thousand dollars' worth or more of farm products in one year from the owner for processing or resale or purchase two thousand five hundred dollars' worth or more of farm products in any single transaction from the owner for processing or resale. Violation of this paragraph (m) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

ANNOTATION

Because subsection (1)(e) does not require proof of venue as an element of the offense, the prosecution does not need to establish the venue to prove the offense. People v. Felgar, 58 P.3d 1122 (Colo. App. 2002).

12-16-116. Penalties. (1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 12-16-115 (1) (a), (1) (b), (1) (c), (1) (d), or (1) (e) commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S. Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 12-16-115 (1) (f) or (1) (j) commits theft, as defined in section 18-4-401, C.R.S. Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 12-16-115 (1) (g), (1) (h), (1) (i), (1) (l), or (1) (m) commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 12-16-115 (1) (k) commits fraud by check, as defined in section 18-5-205, C.R.S.

(2) Any person who violates any other provision of this part 1 commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(3) Civil suits and criminal prosecutions arising by virtue of any of the provisions of this part 1 may be commenced and tried either in the county in which the farm products were received by the dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent, or in the county in which the principal place of business of such dealer, small-volume dealer, or agent is located, or in the county in which the violation of this part 1 occurred. The attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which a violation of any of the provisions of this part 1 occurs shall, upon the request of any enforcing officer or other interested person, prosecute such violation.

ANNOTATION

Former provisions of this section held to completely ignore § 12 of art. II, Colo. Const. Trujillo v. People, 158 Colo. 362, 407 P.2d 36 (1965) (decided under § 7-5-15, CRS 53).

12-16-117. Administration - rules and regulations - delegation of duties. (1) The commissioner may promulgate such rules and regulations in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., as are necessary for the administration of this part 1.

(2) The powers and duties of the commissioner in this part 1 may be delegated to qualified employees of the department of agriculture.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-16-116 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-16-118. Penalties for theft of farm products. (1) If farm products are contracted for sale to an out-of-state purchaser, the purchaser shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state in accordance with the provisions of section 13-1-124 (1) (a), C.R.S. The seller shall be entitled to all remedies at law in seeking the return of such farm products when the purchaser takes delivery of the products but is unable or refuses to make payment for said products and the products have been physically removed to another state. Any such action shall be given priority on the court's docket.

(2) If any person purchases farm products in this state and removes such products to another state and issues a check in payment for those products knowing there are insufficient funds, as defined in section 18-5-205 (1) (d), C.R.S., to pay for said products, he commits theft of farm products and shall be punished as provided in section 18-4-401 (2), C.R.S.

PART 2

COMMODITY WAREHOUSES

12-16-201. Short title. This part 2 shall be known and may be cited as the "Commodity Handler Act".

Source: L. 85: Entire article R&RE, p. 449, § 1, effective July 1. L. 91: Entire section amended, p. 175, § 5, effective March 1.

12-16-202. Definitions - rules. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-114), ch. 111, p. 464, § 11, effective April 9, 2009.)

(1.5) "Bailee" means a person who, by a negotiable warehouse receipt or other document of title, acknowledges possession of goods and contracts to deliver them.

(2) "Bailment" means the act of delivering goods or personal property to another in trust.

(2.5) "Commercial feeding" means the feeding of livestock by a person who receives compensation from the owner of the livestock for such feeding.

(3) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of agriculture or his designee.

(4) "Commodity" means unprocessed small, hard seeds or fruits such as wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, sunflower seeds, soybeans, beans, grain sorghum, and such other seeds or fruits as may be determined by the commissioner.

(4.5) (a) "Commodity handler" means:

- (I) Any person engaged in buying any commodities from the owner for processing or resale;
- (II) Any person engaged in receiving and taking possession of any commodities from the owner for storage or safekeeping;
- (III) Any person engaged in soliciting or negotiating sales of commodities between the vendor and purchaser respectively;
- (IV) Any person who receives on consignment or solicits from the owner thereof any kind of commodity for sale on commission on behalf of such owner, or who accepts any commodity in trust from the owner thereof for the purpose of resale, or who sells or offers for sale on commission any commodity or in any way handles any commodity for the account of the owner thereof; or
- (V) Any person engaged in buying any commodity from the owner thereof for the commercial feeding of livestock that are owned wholly or in part by another, at an animal feeding operation with a capacity of more than two thousand five hundred head of livestock. The commissioner shall establish rules to determine the capacity of animal feeding operations for purposes of this article.
- (b) "Commodity handler" does not include bona fide retail grocery merchants or restaurateurs having a fixed or established place of business in Colorado as long as the use of commodities by any such person is directly related to the operation of the person's retail grocery or restaurant.
- (5) "Compensation" means something of value or benefit, whether in cash, in kind, or in any other form.
- (6) "Credit sale contract" means a contract for the sale of a commodity when the sale price is to be paid on a date later than sixty days after delivery of the commodity to the buyer and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as deferred payment contracts, deferred pricing contracts, and price later contracts.
- (7) "Department" means the department of agriculture.
- (8) "Financial statement" means a statement that accurately presents the financial condition of an applicant or licensee and that includes, at a minimum, a balance sheet and a statement of income.
- (8.5) "Forwarded commodities" means commodities sent to a terminal warehouse and put on open storage in the name of the forwarding warehouse operator.
- (8.6) "Functional unit" means one or more warehouses that constitute a single operating unit if:
- (a) The same warehouse operator operates each warehouse in conjunction with any other;
- (b) All the warehouses are functioning under the same name and with the same personnel, office, books, and records; and
- (c) Together the warehouses have the capability to weigh, grade, receive, store, and load out commodities.
- (9) "Handling" means buying commodities for resale or processing, brokering commodities, or receiving and loading out commodities tendered for storage.
- (9.5) "Livestock" has the same meaning as set forth in section 35-1-102 (6), C.R.S.
- (10) "Loss" means any monetary loss to a producer or owner which is of an extraordinary nature and which includes, but is not limited to, bankruptcy, embezzlement, theft, fraud, or negligence.
- (11) "Market value" means the value required by law to be used by insurance underwriters in paying for losses of commodities insured for their actual value.
- (12) "Negotiable warehouse receipt" means a receipt which specifies by its terms that the goods are to be delivered to the bearer or to the order of a named person. Any other receipt is nonnegotiable.
- (13) "Owner" means any person in whom legal title to any commodity is vested, whether produced by him or acquired by purchase.
- (14) "Person" includes any individual, firm, association, partnership, or corporation or the commissioner.

(15) “Processing” means the operation of canning, fermenting, distilling, extracting, preserving, grinding, crushing, flaking, mixing, or otherwise changing the form of a commodity for the purpose of selling any of the resulting products.

(16) “Producer” means any grower of commodities.

(17) “Provisional insurance coverage” means a certificate or any other satisfactory evidence of fire and extended coverage insurance issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state insuring every commodity in the custody of a warehouse operator, whether held for others or owned by the warehouse operator, at the full local market value of each commodity.

(18) “Public warehouse” includes any elevator, mill, warehouse, or other structure in which commodities are received from one or more members of the public for storage.

(19) “Scale ticket” means a receipt issued for a commodity which names the person to whom it is issued and the kind and grade of the commodity stored.

(20) “Settlement sheet” means a summary of the commodity handler’s transactions with an owner.

(21) “Storage” means the holding of a commodity for another by a person who does not directly own the commodity. “Storage” does not include transportation of a commodity.

(21.5) “Terminal warehouse” means any public warehouse licensed by the Colorado department of agriculture, the United States department of agriculture, or any state that has a warehouse examination cooperative agreement with Colorado or the United States department of agriculture.

(22) “Warehouse operator” includes any person or existing legal entity owning, operating, or controlling any public warehouse.

ANNOTATION

The reasonable expectation that a person engaged in a licensed occupation is properly licensed and that transactions with the person, therefore, will be subject to the various protections that come with governmental regulation establishes proximate cause for purposes of the restitution statute. People v. Leonard, 167 P.3d 178 (Colo. App. 2007).

Defendant obtained possession of the victims’ commodities by purporting to act as a licensed commodity handler; then, as defendant admitted at his restitution hearing, he used the proceeds from the sale of the seed to repay his own creditors rather than pay the victims. Limiting the victims' restitution to the amount of the bond that defendant failed to post would not take account of the full scope of the criminal conduct to which defendant pleaded guilty. People v. Leonard, 167 P.3d 178 (Colo. App. 2007).

12-16-204. Exemptions. (1) The provisions of this part 2 that apply to warehouse operators do not apply to the owner or operator of any public warehouse or other facility where the owner or operator:

(a) Operates a public warehouse in this state with a valid license issued either by the United States department of agriculture or under the provisions of the "United States Warehouse Act", 7 U.S.C. section 241 et seq.;

(b) Receives only commodities that he has purchased, or that he is processing or cleaning for the owners of the commodities, or that he is maintaining for such other purposes as the department may, by rule, prescribe; and

(c) Keeps written evidence, as required by the department, which clearly shows that the warehouse operator maintains the commodities for one or more of the purposes set forth in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection (1). The department shall consider a commodity left or deposited with a warehouse operator whose records do not include evidence that the commodity was left or deposited for one or more of the purposes set forth in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection (1) as a commodity deposited for storage and handling.

12-16-205. Commodity handler licenses - application requirements - fee.

(1) (a) Each applicant for a commodity handler license shall pay, for each year in which such license is to be valid, a license fee established by the agricultural commission, which license fee the department shall collect and transmit to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the inspection and consumer services cash fund created in section 35-1-106.5, C.R.S.

(b) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b), for each fiscal year, commencing on July 1, twenty-five percent of the direct and indirect costs of administering and enforcing this article shall be funded from the general fund. The agricultural commission shall establish a fee schedule to cover any direct and indirect costs not funded from the general fund.

(2) Application for a commodity handler license under this section shall be made to the department upon forms furnished by the department. The application shall include the following information:

(a) The name and address of the applicant; and, if the applicant is a firm, exchange, association, or corporation, the full name of each member of the firm or the names of the officers of the exchange, association, or corporation. The application shall also state the principal business address of the applicant in the state of Colorado and in every other state in which the applicant does business and the names of the persons authorized to receive and accept service of summons and legal notices of all kinds on behalf of the applicant in each state. The applicant shall further satisfy the commissioner of its character, responsibility, and good faith in seeking to carry on the business stated in the application. In determining a person's character, the commissioner shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(b) The location of each public warehouse of the applicant;

(c) The total rated storage capacity in bushels of each public warehouse;

(d) The tariff schedule of charges to be made at each public warehouse for the handling, storage, and shipment of commodities during the license year;

(e) Any other information that the commissioner deems reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this part 2.

(2.5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-114), ch. 111, p. 464, § 13, effective April 9, 2009.)

(3) Repealed.

(4) Fraud or misrepresentation in making any application shall in and of itself work a revocation of any license granted pursuant to such application. All indicia of the possession of a license shall at all times be the property of the state of Colorado, and each licensee is entitled to the possession of such indicia only while said license remains valid and current.

12-16-206. Licenses - requirements - rules. (1) To receive or maintain a license, each applicant or licensee shall satisfy the following requirements:

(a) The applicant or licensee shall furnish the commissioner with evidence of minimum provisional insurance coverage in an amount sufficient to protect the applicant's storage obligations. If, at any time, the commissioner evaluates an applicant's provisional insurance coverage to be insufficient, the commissioner may require such additional insurance as the commissioner considers sufficient. Failure to provide evidence of the additional insurance within thirty days after written notice from the commissioner constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of the license.

(b) The applicant or licensee shall furnish the commissioner with a financial statement that presents accurately his or her financial condition. The commissioner may promulgate rules that clearly state the information required from each applicant or licensee under this section. Any financial statement submitted to the commissioner in support of a license application made pursuant to the provisions of this part 2 shall be confidential. Whenever the commissioner deems it appropriate, he or she may require any applicant for an initial license, any applicant for a renewal of a license, or any licensee to submit a financial statement or an audit, prepared by a certified public accountant, or any other information the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether such person is in an adequate financial position to carry out his or her duties as a licensee.

(2) If any licensee fails to apply for license renewal before an annual date specified by the commissioner by rule, such licensee shall, upon application for a renewal license and before such license is issued, pay a penalty fee as established by the agricultural commission. Such penalty fee shall be in addition to the license fee.

12-16-206.5. Disciplinary powers - licenses. (1) The commissioner may deny any application for a license, or may refuse to renew a license, or may revoke or suspend a license, or may place a licensee on probation, as the case may require, if the licensee or applicant has:

(a) Violated any of the provisions of this part 2 or violated any of the rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to this part 2;

(b) Failed to place and keep the premises where he conducts the licensed business in the manner required under this part 2;

(c) Been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of any other state, or of the United States; except that, in consideration of the conviction of a felony, the commissioner shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(d) Committed fraud or deception in the procurement or attempted procurement of a license;

(e) Failed or refused to execute and deliver to the commissioner a surety bond as required by section 12-16-218;

(f) Been determined by the commissioner to be in an inadequate financial position to meet liability obligations;

(g) Failed to comply with any lawful order of the commissioner concerning the administration of this part 2;

(h) Had a license revoked, suspended, or not renewed or has been placed on probation in another state for cause, if such cause could be the basis for similar disciplinary action in this state.

(2) All proceedings concerning the denial, refusal to renew, revocation, or suspension of a license or the placing of a licensee on probation shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) Any previous violation of the provisions of this part 2 by the applicant or any person connected with him in the business for which he seeks to be licensed, or in the case of a partnership or corporation applicant any previous violations of the provisions of this part 2 by a partner, officer, director, or stockholder of more than thirty percent of the outstanding shares, is sufficient grounds for the denial of a license.

12-16-207. Bailment of commodities. (1) Acceptance of commodities for storage by a warehouse operator shall constitute a bailment and not a sale. Stored commodities shall not be liable to seizure upon process of a court in an action against the bailee, except upon action by owners of the stored commodities or the commissioner to enforce the terms thereof; but, in the event of the failure or insolvency of a bailee, commodities shall be first applied exclusively to the settlement on an equal basis of all outstanding negotiable warehouse receipts and other open storage obligations for commodities so stored with the bailee.

(2) Forwarded commodities shall be used only to meet the storage obligation to the forwarding warehouse operator.

(3) The purchase of a commodity does not constitute a bailment.

12-16-208. Credit sale contracts. (1) When a commodity handler receives commodities in a manner which is not pursuant to storage for which payment has not been made, the commodity handler, not more than sixty days after the receipt of such commodities, shall provide the producer or owner of the commodities with the credit sale contract. The credit sale contract shall contain the following information:

(a) The class and grade of the commodities received, the quantity received, and the date of the receipt;

- (b) The charges for handling, if any;
 - (c) The name and address of the producer or owner and the signature of the commodity handler;
 - (d) The contract number;
 - (e) The words “not a storage contract” printed in block capital letters in bold-faced type, conspicuously on the first page of the contract;
 - (f) The statement “This contract constitutes a voluntary extension of credit by the owner to the commodity handler and is not protected by the surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit of the commodity handler.” Such statement shall be conspicuously printed on the upper third of the first page of the contract, set off by solid lines on all four sides, including a signature block for the signature of the seller.
- (2) A commodity handler’s records shall be retained for a period of two years and shall reflect those credit sale contracts that have been cancelled and those that are still open. Such records shall be kept at the commodity handler’s place of business at all times.
- (3) An annual report of the status of the credit sale contracts may be required by the commissioner along with the financial statement required in section 12-16-206.
- (4) All credit sale contracts entered into by a commodity handler shall be consecutively numbered by such commodity handler, and copies thereof shall be made available by the commodity handler for inspection and examination by the commissioner or his authorized agents.
- (5) A commodity handler issuing credit sale contracts shall maintain allowable net assets of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars and shall maintain reserves in an amount equaling or exceeding fifty percent of the value of all of that commodity handler’s open credit sale contracts, which value shall be determined with reference to the daily bid price. Such reserves may be in the form of any one or a combination of the following:
- (a) Cash;
 - (b) Commodity assets, including commodities and warehouse receipts or other evidences of storage of commodities;
 - (c) Credit sale contracts with other commodity handlers licensed by the department of agriculture;
 - (d) An irrevocable letter of credit in favor of the commissioner, which letter of credit shall be subject to the provisions of section 12-16-218; or
 - (e) Net worth of the commodity handler of at least four times the value of the open credit sale contracts.

12-16-210. Commissioner - rules - delegation of powers and duties. (1) The commissioner may promulgate such rules and regulations in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., as are necessary for the administration of this part 2.

(2) The commissioner shall be the enforcing authority of this part 2, and the commissioner or the commissioner’s authorized representative shall have free and unimpeded access to all places of business and all business records of the licensee pertinent to any proper inquiry in the administration of this part 2. Any person in whom the enforcement of any provision of this part 2 is vested has the power of a peace officer as to such enforcement.

(3) The powers and duties of the commissioner set forth in this part 2 may be delegated to qualified employees of the department.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-16-116 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-16-211. Obtaining negotiable warehouse receipts. (1) Upon written notice, the department shall print, bind, and deliver a sufficient number of negotiable warehouse receipts to any person operating a public warehouse. No person shall use these forms for any purpose other than in connection with the receipt of commodities for storage.

(2) Negotiable warehouse receipts shall conform to the terms set forth in section 4-7-202, C.R.S. The warehouse operator shall maintain a file of all voided, issued, and unused warehouse receipts.

(3) The department shall be the sole source of negotiable warehouse receipts and shall furnish those receipts at cost. Orders for receipts shall specify the number required and shall be submitted at least fifteen days prior to the time the receipts are needed.

12-16-212. Use of scale tickets and negotiable warehouse receipts. (1) It is unlawful to issue negotiable warehouse receipts other than those furnished by the department. These receipts shall be issued consecutively, as numbered, and each receipt shall be stamped with the date on which it is actually issued.

(2) Nothing in this part 2 shall be construed to prevent the issuance of nonnegotiable scale tickets or other nonnegotiable evidences of a similar nature showing the date on which the commodities were received, the quantities received, and the condition of such commodities upon their delivery.

(3) When partial withdrawal of a commodity is made by an owner, the warehouse operator shall make an appropriate notation thereof on the depositor's nonnegotiable warehouse receipt or on such other records as may be prescribed by the department. If the warehouse operator has theretofore issued a negotiable warehouse receipt to the owner, the warehouse operator shall claim, cancel, and replace it with a new negotiable warehouse receipt, showing the amount of such owner's commodity remaining in the public warehouse.

(4) Every commodity handler receiving commodities for storage or handling shall immediately, upon receipt of each load, issue to every person delivering the commodity a scale ticket, which shall contain the net weight of each separate draft or load of the commodity and the dockage, if any, to be levied at the time of delivery, and such other information as may be required by the department.

(5) Acceptance of commodities for storage by a warehouse operator for which a negotiable warehouse receipt is issued shall constitute a bailment process and not a sale. If a warehouse operator fails to claim and cancel a negotiable warehouse receipt issued on delivery for commodities stored in the warehouse operator's public warehouse and the negotiation of which would transfer the right of possession of that commodity, the warehouse operator shall be liable, to a good faith purchaser for value, for his failure to deliver to the purchaser all the commodities specified in the receipt. This liability shall apply whether the purchaser acquired title to the negotiable warehouse receipt before, on, or after the delivery of any part of the commodity by the warehouse operator.

12-16-213. Commodity handler records - separate and distinct - time of maintenance. (1) A commodity handler operating another business in conjunction with, or in proximity to, the handler's commodity handling business shall keep a complete set of records for the commodity handling business, entirely separate and distinct from the accounts and records of that other business. The deposits of commodities for the account of another business or for commodities owned by the commodity handler shall be entered in the books of the commodity handler in the same manner as those of other depositors. For the purpose of this section, "other business" shall mean any other separate and legally established enterprise which is distinct and separate from the legal and financial transactions of the commodity handling business.

(2) Commodity handlers shall maintain adequate records and systems for the filing and accounting of negotiable warehouse receipts, cancelled negotiable warehouse receipts, scale tickets, and other documents and transactions necessary or common to the commodity handling industry. Cancelled negotiable warehouse receipts, copies of scale tickets, and copies of other documents evidencing ownership or ownership liability shall be retained by the commodity handler for a period of at least three years after the date of cancellation.

(3) A position report shall be posted daily by the commodity handler; however, if a daily position report poses a substantial hardship, the commissioner may authorize, in writing, a weekly position report. The position report shall include, but need not be limited to, total stocks by commodities received or loaded out, forwardings of commodities to terminal storage, conversions of whole commodities to feed, negotiable warehouse receipt obligations, open storage obligations, credit sale contracts, and public warehouse-owned commodities.

(4) A scale ticket shall be issued for each receipt of commodities. A copy of the scale ticket shall be given to the owner. The commodity handler's copy shall be filed with all other such copies in numerical sequence. Voided scale tickets shall be filed and retained at the commodity handler's place of business. Scale tickets shall be issued in numerical sequence. An issued scale ticket shall contain the following: Sequential number; date; owner's name; commodity handler's name; commodity; test weight with dockage, if applicable; grade, if assigned; gross weight; tare weight; and net weights, in the case of weights from hopper scales.

(5) A settlement sheet shall be maintained for each owner and shall contain the following: Owner's name, scale ticket numbers, total receipts, total withdrawals, test weight, and grade if assigned. A copy of a current settlement sheet shall be provided the owner upon request.

12-16-214. Warehouse operator's liability for disposal of tainted commodities.

(1) A warehouse operator shall be liable for any loss or deterioration of commodities in a public warehouse caused by the warehouse operator's failure to exercise reasonable care of the commodities.

(2) If a warehouse operator discovers that, as a result of a condition of a commodity placed in the warehouse operator's public warehouse of which he or she had no notice at the time of deposit, such commodity is a hazard to other commodities or to persons or to the public warehouse and if such commodity is not immediately removed by the owner upon the warehouse operator's request, the warehouse operator may sell the commodity after reasonable notice to all persons known to claim an interest in the commodity. If the warehouse operator is unable to sell the commodity after a reasonable effort, the warehouse operator may dispose of it in any other lawful manner and shall incur no liability to the owner for such disposition.

(3) At any time before the sale or disposition authorized in this section, the warehouse operator shall deliver the commodity to any person entitled to it upon proper demand and payment of all charges incurred for the specific lot of that commodity.

(4) The commissioner may reject as unsuitable for storage any area of the warehouse operator's premises, unless that area is used for storing the warehouse operator's own commodities.

12-16-215. Enforcement - inspection of commodity handlers' property - confidentiality. (1) The department has the power to inspect commodity handlers' places of business. The department shall investigate any complaint concerning the operation of any commodity handler, or any person attempting or offering to act as such, subject to the provisions of this part 2.

(1.5) Complaints of record made to the commissioner and the results of his investigations may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be closed to public inspection during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges is served on a licensee, unless otherwise provided by court order.

(2) The commissioner, upon consent of the licensee or upon obtaining an administrative search warrant, has the right to inspect any commodity handler's place of business where commodities are stored, handled, or received and any records pertaining to storage obligations and commodity positions kept by the commodity handler that pertain to the operation thereof. The property, books, records, accounts, and papers pertaining to storage obligations and commodity positions of every commodity handler shall be subject to inspection and copying by the commissioner.

(3) The commissioner shall have full authority to administer oaths and take statements, to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses before him and the production of all books, memoranda, papers, and other documents, articles, or instruments, and to compel the disclosure by such witnesses of all facts known to them relative to the matters under investigation. Upon the failure or refusal of any witness to obey any subpoena, the commissioner may petition the district court, and, upon a proper showing, the court may enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. Failure to obey such an order of the court shall be punishable as a contempt of court.

(4) The commissioner may examine the ledgers, books, accounts, memoranda, and other documents and the commodities, scales, measures, and other items in connection with the business of any licensee relating to whatever transactions may be involved.

(5) The commissioner shall not be required to investigate or act upon complaints regarding transactions which occurred more than one hundred twenty days prior to the date upon which the commissioner received the written complaint.

(6) If the investigation is against a licensee, the commissioner shall proceed to ascertain the names and addresses of all producers, dealers, or owners of commodities, together with the accounts unaccounted for or due and owing to them by said licensee, and shall request all such producers, dealers, or owners to file verified statements of their respective claims with the commissioner. If a producer, dealer, or owner so requested fails, refuses, or neglects to file a verified statement in the office of the commissioner within thirty days after the date of such request, the commissioner shall thereupon be relieved of any further duty or action under this part 2 on behalf of said producer, dealer, or owner.

(7) In the course of any investigation, the commissioner may attempt to effectuate a settlement between the respective parties.

(8) (a) If the commissioner determines, after concluding an investigation on any complaint, that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a licensee has violated any of the provisions of this part 2, he shall notify the licensee that such complaint is valid and shall inform the licensee of his opportunity to request a hearing, in writing, on such complaint within ten days after the date of such notice.

(b) Upon the receipt of a request for a hearing from a licensee or if the commissioner determines that a hearing concerning any licensee is necessary, he shall cause a copy of the complaint or the grounds specified in section 12-16-206.5, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing, to be served personally or by mail upon such licensee. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated, or in which the transactions involved allegedly occurred, or at any convenient place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct such hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S. Thereafter, the commissioner shall enter a decision specifying the relevant facts established at such hearing. If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has not violated any of the provisions of this part 2, the complaint shall be dismissed. If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this part 2, and that the licensee has not yet made complete restitution to the person complaining, he shall determine the amount of damages, if any, to which such person is entitled as the result of such violation, and he shall enter an order directing the offender to pay such amount to the person complaining on or before the date fixed in the order. A copy of the decision shall be furnished to all the respective parties to the complaint.

(9) As a result of such hearing, the commissioner may also enter any order suspending or revoking the license of a licensee or may place the licensee on probation if the commissioner determines that the licensee has committed any of the unlawful acts specified in section 12-16-221 or that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this part 2.

(10) (a) If a person against whom an order, as specified in paragraph (c) of subsection (8) of this section, is made and issued fails, neglects, or refuses to obey said order within the time specified in the order, the commissioner may thereupon issue a further order to that person directing the person to show cause why his or her license should not be suspended or revoked for failure to comply with said order.

(b) In such case, a copy of said order to show cause, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing thereupon, shall be served personally or by mail upon the person involved. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated or at any convenient place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct such hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S., and thereafter shall enter an order and decision specifying the facts established at the hearing and either dismissing the order to show cause, or directing the suspension or revocation of the license held by the licensee, or making such other conditional or probationary orders as may be proper. A copy of said order and decision shall be furnished to the licensee.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the power of the commissioner to revoke or suspend a license when he is satisfied of the existence of any of the facts specified in section 12-16-221.

(11) Whenever the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the commissioner to ascertain the names and addresses of all persons specified in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner, after exercising due diligence and making a reasonable inquiry to secure said information from all reasonable and available sources, shall not be liable or responsible for the claims or the handling of claims which may subsequently appear or be discovered. After ascertaining all claims, assessments, and statements in the manner set forth in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner may then demand payment on the bond or irrevocable letter of credit on behalf of those claimants whose claims have been determined by the commissioner as valid and, in the instance of a bond, may settle or compromise said claims with the surety company on the bond and execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond involved. Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand, the commissioner may bring an action on the bond on behalf of the producer, dealer, or owner.

(12) For the purpose of this section, a transaction is deemed to have occurred:

(a) On the date that possession of commodities is transferred by a claimant; or

(b) In the case of delayed payment transactions, on the contractual date of payment or, if there is no contractual date of payment, thirty days following the transfer of title.

(13) A public warehouse shall be maintained by the commodity handler in a manner adequate to provide a convenient and safe means of ingress and egress to the various storage bins and compartments by those persons authorized to make inspections.

(14) (a) Each warehouse shall be kept open for the purpose of receiving commodities for storage and delivering commodities out of storage every business day for a period of not less than six hours between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. except as provided in paragraph

(b) of this subsection (14). The commodity handler shall post conspicuously on the door of the public entrance to his office and to his licensed warehouse a notice showing the hours during which the warehouse will be kept open; except that such notice is not necessary when a warehouse is kept open continuously from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

(b) Whenever a warehouse is not to be kept open as required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (14), the notice posted as prescribed in said paragraph (a) shall state the period during which the warehouse is to be closed and the name, address, and telephone number, if any, of the person who shall be authorized to deliver commodities stored in such warehouse upon lawful demand by the depositor thereof or the holder of the receipt thereof, as the case may be.

12-16-216. Procedure on shortage - refusal to submit to inspection. (1) Whenever it appears probable after investigation that a licensed warehouse operator does not possess sufficient commodities to cover the outstanding negotiable warehouse receipts, scale tickets, or other evidences of storage liability issued or assumed by the warehouse operator, the department may give notice to the warehouse operator that he or she is required to do all or any of the following:

- (a) Cover such shortage;
- (b) Give an additional bond or irrevocable letter of credit;
- (c) Submit to such inspection as the department may deem necessary.

(2) If the warehouse operator fails to comply with the terms of the notice within twenty-four hours after the date of its issuance or within such further time as the department may allow, the department may do all or any of the following:

- (a) Issue a cease-and-desist order pursuant to section 12-16-219;
- (b) Take possession of all commodities in the public warehouse owned, operated, or controlled by the warehouse operator and of all books, papers, records, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or operation of the warehouse operator's public warehouse business, whether such books, papers, records, and property pertain specifically, exclusively, directly, or indirectly to that business or are related to his or her handling, storage, or use of commodities in any other business;

(c) Apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for an order to enjoin the warehouse operator from interfering with the department in the discharge of its duties as required by this section;

(d) Petition any court of competent jurisdiction for an order requiring the warehouse operator or any person who has possession of any commodities, books, papers, records, or property of any kind used in connection with the conduct or operation of the public warehouse business who has refused to surrender possession to the department to surrender possession of the same to the department.

(3) Upon its taking possession of the commodities, the department may give written notice of its action to the holders of all negotiable warehouse receipts or other evidences of deposits issued for commodities to present their negotiable warehouse receipts or other evidences of deposits for inspection or to account for the same. Thereupon, the department shall cause an audit to be made of the affairs of such public warehouse with respect to any commodity in which there is an apparent shortage, determine the amount of such shortage, and compute the shortage as to each owner of the commodity. The department shall attempt to notify the warehouse operator of the amount of such shortage and attempt to notify each owner thereby affected. If the owner cannot be notified after a reasonable attempt by the department, the department shall not be held liable for any losses incurred by such owner.

(4) The department shall retain possession of the commodity in the public warehouse and of the books, papers, records, and property of the warehouse operator until such time as the warehouse operator or the warehouse operator's bond or irrevocable letter of credit has satisfied the claims of all holders of negotiable warehouse receipts or other evidences of deposits. In case the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond or irrevocable letter of credit, the warehouse operator's bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall satisfy such claims pro rata. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the department from complying with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction to surrender possession.

(5) If during or after the audit provided for in this section or at any other time the department is of the opinion that the warehouse operator is insolvent or in danger of becoming so or is unable to satisfy the claims of all holders of negotiable warehouse receipts or other evidences of deposits, the department may petition a court of competent jurisdiction in such county for the appointment of a receiver to operate or liquidate the business of the warehouse operator in accordance with applicable law.

(6) At any time within ten days after the department takes possession of any commodities or the books, papers, records, and property of any public warehouse, the warehouse operator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order requiring the department to show cause why such commodities, books, papers, records, and property should not be restored to the warehouse operator's possession. Upon its being served notice, the department shall have not more than ten days to respond.

(6.1) (a) If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that all or any part of the commodities, books, papers, records, and property should not be restored to the possession of the warehouse operator, the court may:

(I) Appoint a receiver for all or any part of the commodities, books, papers, records, and property; or

(II) Determine the disposition of the commodities, books, papers, records, and property which were in the public warehouse and seized pursuant to this part 2.

(b) Pending determination of the ownership of the commodities, any funds received from the disposition of the commodities shall be placed in an interest-bearing escrow account.

(6.5) If the warehouse operator does not apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a show-cause order under subsection (6) of this section, the department's action is presumed valid, and the commissioner may determine the disposition of the commodities, books, papers, records, and property that were in the public warehouse and seized pursuant to this part 2. Pending determination of the ownership of the commodities, any funds received from the disposition of the commodities shall be placed in an interest-bearing escrow account.

(7) All expenses incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section shall be a first charge and lien upon the assets of the warehouse operator; and such expenses may be recovered in a separate civil action brought by the department, represented by the attorney general, in a court in the county in which the public warehouse is located, or they may be recovered at the same time and as a part of an action filed under subsection (5) of this section.

(8) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department or the receiver is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out the provisions of this section.

12-16-217. Inspection fees. (1) The state agricultural commission, after conferring with interested industry groups, is authorized to fix, assess, and collect fees for the inspection of commodity handlers.

(2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), for each fiscal year, commencing on July 1, twenty-five percent of the direct and indirect costs of administering and enforcing this article shall be funded from the general fund. The agricultural commission shall establish a fee schedule to cover any direct and indirect costs not funded from the general fund. The inspection fee shall be paid by the person, firm, corporation, or other organization requesting the service at the time it is rendered or as otherwise provided and authorized by the commission.

(3) All moneys collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the inspection and consumer services cash fund created in section 35-1-106.5, C.R.S.

Editor's note: Subsection (2)(b)(II) provided for the repeal of subsection (2)(b), effective July 1, 2012. (See L. 2010, p. 924.)

12-16-218. Bonds or irrevocable letters of credit - exemptions. (1) (a) Before any license is issued to any commodity handler, the applicant shall file with the commissioner a bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state as a surety or an irrevocable letter of credit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101.5, C.R.S., in the sum of not less than ten thousand dollars nor more than one million dollars, at the discretion of the commissioner.

(b) The bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall be conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this part 2 and upon the faithful and honest handling of commodities in accordance with the terms of this part 2 and shall cover any and all inspection fees due the people of the state of Colorado by the commodity handler and all costs and reasonable attorney fees incident to any suit upon said bond or irrevocable letter of credit. Said bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall be to the state in favor of every producer or owner and, in the instance of a bond, shall remain in full force and effect until cancelled by the surety upon thirty days' prior written notice to the commissioner.

(c) (I) Any producer or owner within the state of Colorado claiming to be injured by the fraud, deceit, willful negligence, or failure to comply with the provisions of this part 2 of any commodity handler may seek to recover the damages caused by such fraud, deceit, willful negligence, or failure to comply with the provisions of this part 2. If the licensee has elected to file a bond pursuant to this section, the injured party may bring an action, with prior written consent of the commissioner, for collection against both principal and surety in any court of competent jurisdiction. If the licensee has elected to file an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to this section, the injured party may request the department of agriculture, as beneficiary, to demand payment on the irrevocable letter of credit.

(II) The surety on the bond or the person who filed the letter of credit shall not be liable to pay any claim pursuant to any action brought under the provisions of this part 2 if such action is not commenced within twenty-four months after the date of the transaction on which the claim is based.

(d) When any action is commenced on said bond or irrevocable letter of credit, the commissioner may require the filing of a new bond or irrevocable letter of credit, and the commodity handler's failure to file the new bond or irrevocable letter of credit within ten days after the commencement of said action constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of his license.

(e) Any person licensed pursuant to part 1 of this article may apply for a license as a commodity handler and shall not be subject to the license fee required by section 12-16-205. The bond or irrevocable letter of credit required by section 12-16-106 shall also apply to such person's activities as a commodity handler and shall be subject to the provisions of this section and section 12-16-215.

(2) Whenever the commissioner determines that a previously approved bond or irrevocable letter of credit is or for any cause has become insufficient, he may require an additional bond or irrevocable letter of credit or other evidence of financial responsibility to be given by a commodity handler to conform to the requirements of this part 2 or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this part 2. The commodity handler's failure to comply with the commissioner's requirement within thirty days after written demand therefor constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of his license.

(3) A bond is not required for credit sale contracts.

(2) Amendments to this section by Senate Bill 87-78 and Senate Bill 87-50 were harmonized.

ANNOTATION

Limiting victims' restitution to the amount of the bond that defendant failed to post would not take account of the full scope of the criminal conduct to which defendant pleaded guilty. People v. Leonard, 167 P.3d 178 (Colo. App. 2007).

12-16-219. Cease-and-desist order - restraining order. (1) If the commissioner determines that there exists a violation of any provision of this part 2 or of any rule or regulation promulgated under the authority of this part 2, the commissioner may issue a cease-and-desist order, which may require any person to cease functioning as a commodity handler, except for those functions necessary to prevent spoilage of products stored in his public warehouse. Such order shall set forth the provision alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all functions, except those necessary to prevent spoilage, be ceased forthwith. At any time after the date of the service of the order to cease and desist, the person may request a hearing on the question of whether or not any such violation has occurred. Such hearing shall be concluded in not more than ten days after such request and shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(2) In the event that any person fails to comply with a cease-and-desist order within twenty-four hours after service, the commissioner may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to temporarily or permanently restrain or enjoin the act or practice in question and to enforce compliance with this part 2 or any rule or order pursuant to this part 2. In any such action, the commissioner shall not be required to plead or prove irreparable injury or the inadequacy of a remedy at law. Under no circumstances shall the court require the commissioner to post a bond.

(3) No stay of a cease-and-desist order shall be issued before a hearing thereon involving both parties.

(4) Matters brought before a court pursuant to this section shall have preference over other matters on the court's calendar.

ANNOTATION

The reasonable expectation that a person engaged in a licensed occupation is properly licensed and that transactions with the person, therefore, will be subject to the various protections that come with governmental regulation establishes proximate cause for purposes of the restitution statute. People v. Leonard, 167 P.3d 178 (Colo. App. 2007).

Defendant obtained possession of the victims' commodities by purporting to act as a licensed commodity handler; then, as defendant admitted at his restitution hearing, he used the proceeds from the sale of the seed to repay his own creditors rather than pay the victims. Limiting the victims' restitution to the amount of the bond that defendant failed to post would not take account of the full scope of the criminal conduct to which defendant pleaded guilty. People v. Leonard, 167 P.3d 178 (Colo. App. 2007).

12-16-219.5. Civil penalties. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this part 2 or any regulation enacted pursuant to this part 2 is subject to a civil penalty as determined by the commissioner. The maximum penalty shall not exceed one thousand dollars per violation per day.

(2) No civil penalty may be imposed unless the person charged is given notice and an opportunity for a hearing pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) If the commissioner is unable to collect a civil penalty or if any person fails to pay all or any portion of a civil penalty, the commissioner may recover such amount, plus costs and attorney fees, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Under circumstances where the commissioner did not have probable cause to impose a civil penalty, the person charged may recover his costs and attorney fees from the department of agriculture.

(5) All moneys collected from civil penalties pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the inspection and consumer services cash fund created in section 35-1-106.5, C.R.S.

(6) Before imposing a civil penalty, the commissioner may consider the effect of such penalty on the ability of the person charged to stay in business.

12-16-220. Appeal. Any action of the commissioner with reference to the administration of this part 2 may be reviewed by any court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-106, C.R.S., only after all administrative remedies have been exhausted.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-16-109 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-16-221. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful and a violation of this part 2 for any person to:

(a) Make fraudulent charges or returns for the handling, sale, or storage or for the rendering of any service in connection with the handling, sale, or storage of any commodities. Violation of this paragraph (a) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(b) Willfully fail or refuse to render a true account of sales or storage or to make a settlement thereon or to pay for commodities received on the date and in the manner specified in the contract with the owner or, if no date is specified in the contract or on delivery, within thirty days after the date of delivery or the date on which the person took possession of such commodities. Violation of this paragraph (b) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(c) Intentionally make false or misleading statements as to the market conditions for commodities or false or misleading statements as to the condition, quality, or quantity of commodities received, handled, sold, or stored. Violation of this paragraph (c) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(d) Engage in fictitious sales, in collusion, or in unfair practices to defraud the owners. Violation of this paragraph (d) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(e) Act as a commodity handler without having obtained a license or act as a commodity handler without having filed a surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit, as provided in this part 2. Violation of this paragraph (e) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(f) Willfully convert to his own use or benefit the commodities of another. Violation of this paragraph (f) shall constitute theft, as defined in section 18-4-401, C.R.S.

(g) Commit fraud or deception in the procurement or attempted procurement of a license. Violation of this paragraph (g) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(h) Fail to comply with any lawful order of the commissioner concerning the administration of this part 2. Violation of this paragraph (h) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(i) Interfere with or hinder an authorized representative of the department while performing his duties under this part 2. Violation of this paragraph (i) shall constitute a class 1 misdemeanor.

(j) Willfully alter or destroy any negotiable warehouse receipt or the record of such negotiable warehouse receipt or issue a negotiable warehouse receipt without preserving a record thereof; or issue a negotiable warehouse receipt when the commodity described is not in the building certified in the receipt; or, with intent to defraud, issue a second or other negotiable warehouse receipt for any commodity for which, or for any part of which, a valid negotiable warehouse receipt is already outstanding and in force; or, while any valid negotiable warehouse receipt is outstanding and in force, sell, pledge, mortgage, encumber, or transfer a commodity in violation of the provisions of this part 2 or permit the same to be done without the written consent of the holder of the negotiable warehouse receipt or receive such property or help to dispose of the same. Violation of this paragraph (j) shall constitute a class 6 felony.

(k) Sell commodities for less than the current market price to any person with whom he or she has any financial connection, directly or indirectly, either as an owner of the corporate stock of a corporation, as a copartner, or in any other capacity, or sell any commodities out of the purchase price of which said handler, directly or indirectly, retains any portion thereof other than the commission allowed and reported pursuant to section 12-16-112. Violation of this paragraph (k) shall constitute theft, as defined in section 18-4-401, C.R.S.

(l) Act as a commodity handler and, with intent to defraud, make, draw, utter, or deliver any check, draft, or order for the payment of money upon any bank or other depository to the owner for the purchase price of any commodities or any part thereof upon obtaining possession or control thereof, when at the time of the making, drawing, uttering, or delivery the maker or drawer has not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank or other depository for the payment of such check, draft, or order in full upon its presentation. The making, drawing, uttering, or delivery of such check, draft, or order shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to defraud. "Credit", as used in this paragraph (l), means an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository for the payment of such check, draft, or order. Violation of this paragraph (l) shall constitute fraud by check, as defined in section 18-5-205, C.R.S.

(2) Any person who violates any other provision of this part 2 commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(3) Civil suits and criminal prosecutions arising by virtue of any of the provisions of this part 2 may be commenced and tried either in the county in which the commodities were received by the commodity handler, or in the county in which the principal place of business of such commodity handler is located, or in the county in which the violation of this part 2 occurred. The attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the violation of any of the provisions of this part 2 occurs shall, upon the request of any enforcing officer or other interested person, prosecute such violation.

12-18-101. License required. No person, partnership, or corporation shall operate, conduct, carry on, or maintain a public dance hall, booth, pavilion, or other place where public dances are held without first obtaining a license therefor. Any person, firm, or corporation desiring such license shall make application therefor in writing to the board of county commissioners of the county in which such public dance hall, booth, pavilion, or other place is proposed to be located. Such application shall state the name and address of the applicant, if a person, the names and addresses of all the persons composing the partnership, if a partnership, and the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation, if a corporation, a full description of the place and premises at which it is proposed to conduct and carry on such public dances, and the term for which such license is desired. The board of county commissioners has the authority, within its discretion, to grant such license to such applicant for the current calendar year or part thereof unexpired upon the payment by said applicant of a fee of twenty-five dollars to the county treasurer. Such license shall authorize the person, firm, or corporation receiving it to operate, conduct, and carry on a public dance hall, booth, or pavilion at such place for the term from the date of its issue to the end of the current calendar year for which it is issued. This article shall not apply to incorporated cities and towns.

(1) "Apprentice" means a person who is required to be registered as such under section 12-23-110.5 (3) (a), who is in compliance with the provisions of this article, and who is working at the trade in the employment of a registered electrical contractor and is under the direct supervision of a licensed master electrician, journeyman electrician, or residential wireman.

(1.3) "Electric light, heat, and power" means the standard types of electricity that are supplied by an electric utility, regardless of whether the source is an electric utility or the inverter output circuit of a photovoltaic system or a similar circuit from another type of renewable energy system, and used and consumed in a real estate improvement or real estate fixture.

(1.5) "Electrical contractor" means any person, firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or combination thereof who undertakes or offers to undertake for another the planning, laying out, supervising, and installing or the making of additions, alterations, and repairs in the installation of wiring apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power. A licensed professional engineer who plans or designs electrical installation shall not be classed as an electrical contractor.

(1.7) "Electrical work" means wiring for, installing, and repairing electrical apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power.

(2) “Journeyman electrician” means a person having the necessary qualifications, training, experience, and technical knowledge to wire for, install, and repair electrical apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power, and for other purposes, in accordance with standard rules governing such work.

(3) “Master electrician” means a person having the necessary qualifications, training, experience, and technical knowledge to properly plan, lay out, and supervise the installation and repair of wiring apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power, and for other purposes, in accordance with standard rules governing such work, such as the national electrical code.

(3.2) “National electrical code” means the code for the safe installation of electrical wiring and equipment, as amended, published by the national fire protection association and approved by the American national standards institute, or successor organizations.

(3.5) “Permanent state highway tunnel facilities” means all permanent state highway tunnels, shafts, ventilation systems, and structures and includes all structures, materials, and equipment appurtenant to such facilities. Said term includes all electrical equipment, materials, and systems to be constructed, furnished, and installed as part of the final construction features specified by the applicable contract plans and specifications or by the national electrical code. For the purposes of this article and article 20 of title 34, C.R.S., such state highway tunnel facilities shall be deemed to be mines during the construction of such facilities.

(4) “Residential wireman” means a person having the necessary qualifications, training, experience, and technical knowledge to wire for, and install, electrical apparatus and equipment for wiring one-, two-, three-, and four-family dwellings.

12-23-102. State electrical board. (1) There is hereby established a state electrical board, which shall consist of nine members appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, who shall be residents of the state of Colorado:

- (a) Two members shall be electrical contractors who have masters’ licenses;
 - (b) Two members shall be master or journeymen electricians who are not electrical contractors;
 - (c) One member shall be a representative of private, municipal, or cooperative electric utilities rendering electric service to the ultimate public;
 - (d) One member shall be a building official from a political subdivision of the state performing electrical inspections;
 - (e) One member shall be a general contractor actively engaged in the building industry; and
 - (f) Two members shall be appointed from the public at large.
- (2) All members of the board shall serve for three-year terms and all appointees shall be limited to two full terms each. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the board shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term of the member. The governor may remove any member of the board for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

12-23-104. Board powers and duties - rules. (1) (a) The board, annually in the month of July, shall elect from its membership a chair and vice-chair. The board shall meet at least annually and at such other times as it deems necessary.

(b) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

(2) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the board by this article, the board is authorized to:

(a) Adopt, and from time to time revise, such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this article. In adopting such rules and regulations, the board shall be governed when appropriate by the standards in the most current edition of the national electrical code or by any modifications to such standards made by the board after a hearing is held pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. These standards are adopted as the minimum standards governing the planning, laying out, and installing or the making of additions, alterations, and repairs in the installation of wiring apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power in this state. A copy of such code shall be kept in the office of the board and open to public inspection. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit any city, town, county, or city and county from making and enforcing any such standards that are more stringent than the minimum standards adopted by the board, and any city, town, county, or city and county which adopts such more stringent standards shall furnish a copy thereof to the board. The standards adopted by the board shall be prima facie evidence of minimum approved methods of construction for safety to life and property. The affirmative vote of two-thirds of all appointed members of the board shall be required to set any standards that are different from those set forth in the national electrical code. If requested in writing, the board shall send a copy of newly adopted standards and rules and regulations to any interested party at least thirty days before the implementation and enforcement of such standards or rules and regulations. Such copies may be furnished for a fee established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(c) Register apprentices and register and renew the registration of qualified electrical contractors and examine, license, and renew licenses of journeymen electricians, master electricians, and residential wiremen as provided in this article;

(d) (I) Administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(II) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the commission or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(e) Cause the prosecution and enjoinder, in any court of competent jurisdiction, of all persons violating this article and incur necessary expenses therefor. When seeking an injunction, the board shall not be required to prove that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damages would result if an injunction is not granted.

(f) Inspect and approve or disapprove the installation of electrical wiring, renewable energy systems, apparatus, or equipment for electric light, heat, and power according to the minimum standards in the national electrical code or as prescribed in this article;

(g) Review and approve or disapprove requests for exceptions to the national electrical code in unique construction situations where a strict interpretation of the code would result in unreasonable operational conditions or unreasonable economic burdens, as long as public safety is not compromised;

(h) Conduct hearings in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.; except that the board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct such hearings;

(j) Enter into reciprocal licensing agreements with the electrical board, or its equivalent, of another state or states where the qualifications for electrical licensing are substantially equivalent to licensure requirements in Colorado;

(k) Find, upon holding a hearing, that an incorporated town or city, county, or city and county fails to meet the minimum requirements of this article if the local inspection authority has failed to adopt or adhere to the minimum standards required by this article within twelve months after the board has adopted the standards by rule pursuant to this subsection (2);

(l) Issue an order to cease and desist from issuing permits or performing inspections under this article to an incorporated town or city, county, or city and county upon finding that the public entity fails to meet the minimum requirements of this article pursuant to paragraph (k) of this subsection (2);

(m) Apply to a court to enjoin an incorporated town or city, county, or city and county from violating an order issued pursuant to paragraph (l) of this subsection (2).

12-23-106. License requirements - rules. (1) Master electrician. (a) An applicant for a master electrician's license shall furnish written evidence that:

(I) The applicant is a graduate electrical engineer of an accredited college or university and has one year of practical electrical experience in the construction industry;

(II) The applicant is a graduate of an electrical trade school or community college and has at least four years of practical experience in electrical work; or

(III) The applicant has had at least one year of practical experience in planning, laying out, supervising, and installing wiring, apparatus, or equipment for electric light, heat, and power beyond the practical experience requirements for the journeyman's license.

(b) Each applicant for a license as a master electrician shall file an application on forms prepared and furnished by the board, together with the application fee provided in section 12-23-112 (1). The board shall notify each applicant that the evidence submitted with the application is sufficient to qualify the applicant to take the written examination or that the evidence is insufficient and the application is rejected. In the event that the application is rejected, the board shall set forth the reasons for the rejection in the notice to the applicant.

(2) Journeyman electrician. (a) An applicant for a journeyman electrician's license shall furnish written evidence that the applicant has had the following:

(I) At least four years' apprenticeship in the electrical trade or four years' practical experience in wiring for, installing, and repairing electrical apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power;

(II) At least two of the applicant's years' experience required by subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) has been in commercial, industrial, or substantially similar work; and

(III) Effective January 1, 2011, during the last four years of training, apprenticeship, or practical experience in wiring for, installing, and repairing electrical apparatus and equipment for electric light, heat, and power, at least two hundred eighty-eight hours of training in safety, the national electrical code and its applications, and any other training required by the board that is provided by an accredited college or university, an established industry training program, or any other provider whose training is conducted in compliance with rules promulgated by the board, in collaboration with established industry training programs and industry representatives.

(b) Any applicant for such license shall be permitted to substitute for required practical experience evidence of academic training or practical experience in the electrical field, which shall be credited as follows:

(I) If the applicant is a graduate electrical engineer of an accredited college or university or the graduate of a community college or trade school program approved by the board, the applicant shall receive one year of work experience credit.

(II) If the applicant has academic training, including military training, that does not qualify under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), the board shall provide work experience credit for such training or for substantially similar training established by rule.

(c) Any application for a license and notice to the applicant shall be made and given as provided for in the case of a master electrician's license.

(3) Residential wireman. (a) An applicant for a residential wireman's license shall furnish written evidence that the applicant has at least two years of accredited training or two years of practical experience in wiring one-, two-, three-, and four-family dwellings.

(b) Any applicant for such license shall be permitted to substitute for required practical experience evidence of academic training in the electrical field which shall be credited as follows:

(I) If the applicant is a graduate electrical engineer of an accredited college or university or the graduate of a community college or trade school program approved by the board, the applicant shall receive one year of work experience credit.

(II) If the applicant has academic training, including military training, which is not sufficient to qualify under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), the board shall provide work experience credit for such training according to a uniform ratio established by rule.

(c) Any residential wireman's license issued under this section shall be clearly marked as such across its face.

(4) (a) The board shall provide for licensing examinations. Any examination that is given for master electricians, journeymen electricians, and residential wiremen shall be subject to board approval. The board, or its designee, shall conduct and grade the examination and shall set the passing score to reflect a minimum level of competency. If it is determined that the applicant has passed the examination, the division of professions and occupations, upon written notice from the board or the program director, acting as an agent thereof, and upon payment by the applicant of the fee provided in section 12-23-112, shall issue to the applicant a license that authorizes him or her to engage in the business, trade, or calling of a master electrician, journeyman electrician, or residential wireman.

(b) All license and registration expiration and renewal schedules shall be in accord with the provisions of section 24-34-102, C.R.S. Fees in regard to such renewals shall be those set forth in section 12-23-112.

(c) Licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(d) (I) On or after January 1, 2011, the department shall not renew a license unless the applicant has demonstrated competency through an assessment of competency, which may be performed by private entities in accordance with rules promulgated by the board.

(II) The board, in collaboration with established industry training programs and industry representatives, shall adopt rules establishing continuing competency standards. The rules shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following elements:

(A) Assessment of the knowledge and skills required to renew a license;

(B) The methods to obtain the required knowledge and skills; and

(C) The documentation necessary to demonstrate compliance with this subparagraph (II).

(III) The assessment required by sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d) shall provide sufficient information to each licensee to allow the licensee to address any areas of deficiency. If the licensee fails to demonstrate competency, the license may be renewed if the licensee provides evidence that the licensee has complied with the requirements of the continuing competency program.

(5) (a) No person, firm, copartnership, association, or combination thereof shall engage in the business of an electrical contractor without having first registered with the board. The board shall register such contractor upon payment of the fee as provided in section 12-23-112, presentation of evidence that the applicant has complied with the applicable workers' compensation and unemployment compensation laws of this state, and satisfaction of the requirements of paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection (5).

(b) If either the owner or the part owner of any firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or combination thereof has been issued a master electrician's license by the division of professions and occupations and is in charge of the supervision of all electrical work performed by such contractor, upon written notice from the board or the program director, acting as the agent thereof, the division shall promptly, upon payment of the fee as provided in section 12-23-112, register such licensee as an electrical contractor.

(c) If any person, firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or combination thereof engages in the business of an electrical contractor and does not comply with paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), it shall employ at least one licensed master electrician, who shall be in charge of the supervision of all electrical work performed by such contractor.

(d) No holder of a master's license shall be named as the master electrician, under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection (5), for more than one contractor, and a master name shall be actively engaged in a full-time capacity with that contracting company. The qualifying master license holder shall be required to notify the board within fifteen days after his or her termination as a qualifying master license holder. The master license holder is responsible for all electrical work performed by the electrical contracting company. Failure to comply with a notification may lead to discipline of the master license holder as provided in section 12-23-118.

ANNOTATION

Constitutional challenge of provisions controlling board assertable on appeal. Section 12-23-120 contemplates that facial constitutional challenges to the provisions under which the state electrical board acts may be asserted on appeal, even though such challenges are not cognizable by the board. Clasby v. Klapper, 636 P.2d 682 (Colo. 1981).

12-23-106.5. Credit for experience not subject to supervision of a licensed electrician. For all applicants seeking work experience credit toward licensure, the board shall give credit for electrical work that is not required to be performed by or under the supervision of a licensed electrician if the applicant can show that the particular experience received or the supervision under which the work has been performed is adequate.

12-23-109. License by endorsement or reciprocity. (1) The board shall issue an electrical license by endorsement in this state to any person who is licensed to practice in another jurisdiction if such person presents proof satisfactory to the board that, at the time of application for a Colorado license by endorsement, the person possesses credentials and qualifications that are substantially equivalent to requirements in Colorado for licensure.

(2) The board shall issue an electrical license by reciprocity where a reciprocal agreement for an equivalent license exists, pursuant to section 12-23-104 (2) (j), between the board and the electrical board, or its equivalent, of the state or states where the applicant is licensed. The board shall strive to reduce barriers for Colorado licensees to be licensed by endorsement or through reciprocity in other states.

(3) The board may specify by rule what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications.

12-23-110. Temporary permits. The board or the program director or the director's agent, as provided in the rules promulgated by the board, shall issue temporary permits to engage in the work of a master electrician in cases where an electrical contractor no longer has the services of any master electrician as required under this article and shall issue temporary permits to engage in the work of a journeyman electrician or residential wireman to any applicant who furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant has the required experience to qualify for the examination provided in this article and who pays the fee provided in section 12-23-112 for such permits. In addition, and in a similar manner, the board or the program director or the director's agent shall issue temporary permits to any applicant who furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant qualifies for a master electrician's license and who pays the required fee. Temporary permits shall continue in effect for no more than thirty days after issuance and may be revoked by the board at any time.

12-23-110.5. Apprentices - supervision - registration - discipline. (1) Any person may work as an apprentice but shall not do any electrical wiring for the installation of electrical apparatus or equipment for light, heat, or power except under the supervision of a licensed electrician. The degree of supervision required shall be no more than one licensed electrician to supervise no more than three apprentices at the jobsite.

(2) Any electrical contractor, journeyman electrician, master electrician, or residential wireman who is the employer or supervisor of any electrical apprentice working at the trade shall be responsible for the work performed by such apprentice. The board may take disciplinary action against any such contractor or any such electrician or residential wireman under the provisions of section 12-23-118 for any improper work performed by an electrical apprentice working at the trade during the time of his employment while under the supervision of such person. The registration of such apprentice may also be subject to disciplinary action under the provisions of section 12-23-118.

(3) (a) Upon employing an electrical apprentice to work at the trade, the electrical contractor, within thirty days after such initial employment, shall register such apprentice with the board. The employer shall also notify the board within thirty days after the termination of such employment.

(b) Such apprentice shall be under the supervision of either a licensed electrician or a residential wireman as set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

ANNOTATION

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) does not preempt the Colorado apprentice supervision requirement set forth in this section. The Colorado law is one of myriad state laws of general applicability that impose some burdens on the administration of ERISA plans but nevertheless do not relate to them within the meaning of the governing statute. Willmar Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Cooke, 212 F.3d 533 (10th Cir. 2000) (decided under law in effect prior to the 1999 amendment).

12-23-111. Exemptions. (1) Employees of public service corporations, rural electrification associations, or municipal utilities generating, distributing, or selling electrical energy for light, heat, or power or for operating street railway systems, or telephone or telegraph systems, or their corporate affiliates and their employees or employees of railroad corporations, or lawfully permitted or franchised cable television companies and their employees shall not be required to hold licenses while doing electrical work for such purposes.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any individual to hold a license before doing electrical work on his or her own property or residence if all such electrical work, except for maintenance or repair of existing facilities, is inspected as provided in this article; if, however, the property or residence is intended for sale or resale by a person engaged in the business of constructing or remodeling such facilities or structures or is rental property that is occupied or is to be occupied by tenants for lodging, either transient or permanent, or is generally open to the public, the owner shall be responsible for, and the property shall be subject to, all of the provisions of this article pertaining to inspection and licensing, unless specifically exempted therein.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any regular employee of any firm or corporation to hold a license before doing any electrical work on the property of such firm or corporation, whether or not such property is owned, leased, or rented: If the firm or corporation employing any employee performing such work has all such electrical work installed in conformity with the minimum standards as set forth in this article and all such work is subject to inspection by the board or its inspectors by request in writing in accordance with subsection (14) of this section; and if the property of any such firm or corporation is not generally open to the public. No license for such firm or corporation, nor inspection by the board or its inspectors, nor the payment of any fees thereon shall be required, with the exception of inspection by the board or its inspectors when performed by written request. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to require any license, any inspection by the board or its inspectors, or the payment of any fees for any electrical work performed for maintenance, repair, or alteration of existing facilities which shall be exempt as provided in this section.

(4) If the property of any person, firm, or corporation is rental property or is developed for sale, lease, or rental, or is occupied or is to be occupied by tenants for lodging, either transient or permanent, or is generally open to the public, then such property of any such person, firm, or corporation shall be subject to all the provisions of this article pertaining to inspection and licensing, except for the maintenance, repair, or alteration of existing facilities which shall be exempt as provided in this section.

(5) Nothing in this article shall be construed to cover the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of vertical transportation or passenger conveyors, elevators, escalators, moving walks, dumbwaiters, stage lifts, man lifts, or appurtenances thereto beyond the terminals of the controllers. Furthermore, elevator contractors or constructors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article.

(6) (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require an individual to hold a license before doing any maintenance or repair of existing facilities on his or her own property or residence, nor to require inspection by the board or its inspectors, nor to pay any fees connected therewith.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any firm or corporation or its regular employees to be required to hold a license before doing maintenance or repair of existing facilities on the property of said firm or corporation, whether or not the property is generally open to the public; nor shall inspection by the board or its inspectors or the payment of any fees connected therewith be required.

(c) For the purposes of this subsection (6), "maintenance or repair of existing facilities" means to preserve or keep in good repair lawfully installed facilities by repairing or replacing components with new components that serve the same purpose.

(7) to (9) Repealed.

(10) An individual, firm, copartnership, or corporation may engage in business as an electrical contractor without an electrician's license if all electrical work performed by such individual, firm, copartnership, or corporation is under the direction and control of a licensed master electrician.

(11) Any person who plugs in any electrical appliance where approved electrical outlet is already installed shall not be considered an installer.

(12) No provision of this article shall in any manner interfere with, hamper, preclude, or prohibit any vendor of any electrical appliance from selling, delivering, and connecting any electrical appliance, if the connection of said appliance does not necessitate the installation of electrical wiring of the structure where said appliance is connected.

(13) The provisions of this article shall not be applicable to the installation or laying of metal or plastic electrical conduits in bridge or highway projects where such conduits must be laid according to specifications complying with applicable electrical codes.

(14) Nothing in this article shall be construed to exempt any electrical work from inspection under the provisions of this article except that which is specifically exempted in this article, and nothing in this article shall be construed to exempt any electrical work from inspection by the board or its inspectors upon order of the board or from any required corrections connected therewith. However, no fees or charges may be charged for any such inspection except as set forth in this article, unless request for inspection has been made to the board or its inspectors in writing, in which case, unless otherwise covered in this article, the actual expenses of the board and its inspectors of the inspection involved shall be charged by and be paid to the board. The board is directed to make available and mail minimum standards pertaining to specific electrical installations on request and to charge a fee for the same, such fee not to exceed the actual cost involved, and in no case more than one dollar. Requests for copies of the national electrical code shall be filled when available, costs thereof not to exceed the actual cost to the board.

(15) Inasmuch as electrical licensing and the examination of persons performing electrical work is a matter of statewide concern, no examination, certification, licensing, or registration of electrical contractors, master electricians, journeymen electricians, residential wiremen, or apprentices who are licensed, registered, or certified under this article shall be required by any city, town, county, or city and county; however, any such local governmental authority may impose reasonable registration requirements on any electrical contractor as a condition of performing services within the jurisdiction of such authority. No fee shall be charged for such registration.

(16) The provisions of this article shall not be applicable to any surface or subsurface operation or property used in, around, or in conjunction with any mine which is inspected pursuant to the "Federal Mine Safety and Health Amendments Act of 1977", Pub.L. 95-164, except permanent state highway tunnel facilities, which shall conform to standards based on the national electrical code. Nothing contained in this subsection (16) shall prohibit the department of transportation from adopting more stringent standards or requirements than those provided by the minimum standards specified in the national electrical code, and the department of transportation shall furnish a copy of such more stringent standards to the board.

(17) (a) The permit and inspection provisions of this article shall not apply to:

(I) Installations under the exclusive control of electric utilities for the purpose of communication or metering or for the generation, control, transformation, transmission, or distribution of electric energy, whether such installations are located in buildings used exclusively for utilities for such purposes or located outdoors on property owned or leased by the utility or on public highways, streets, or roads or outdoors by virtue of established rights on private property; or

(II) Load control devices for electrical hot water heaters that are owned, leased, or otherwise under the control of, and are operated by, an electric utility, and are on the load side of the single-family residential meter, if such equipment was installed by a registered electrical contractor. The contractor will notify appropriate local authorities that the work has been completed in order that an inspection may be made at the expense of the utility company. The applicable permit fee imposed by the local authorities shall not exceed ten dollars.

(b) This subsection (17) does not exempt any premises wiring on buildings, structures, or other premises not owned by or under the exclusive control of the utility nor wiring in buildings used by the utility for purposes other than those listed in this subsection (17), such as office buildings, garages, warehouses, machine shops, and recreation buildings. This subsection (17) exempts all of the facilities, buildings, and the like inside the security fence of a generating station, substation, control center, or communication facility.

(18) Nothing in this article shall be construed to cover the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of security systems of fifty volts or less, lawn sprinkler systems, environmental controls, or remote radio-controlled systems beyond the terminals of the controllers. Furthermore, the contractors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article.

(19) Nothing in this article shall be construed to cover the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of electronic computer data processing equipment and systems beyond the terminals of the controllers. Furthermore, the contractors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article.

(20) Nothing in this article shall be construed to cover the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of communications systems, including telephone and telegraph systems not exempted as utilities in subsection (1) of this section, radio and television receiving and transmitting equipment and stations, and antenna systems other than community antenna television systems beyond the terminals of the controllers. Furthermore, the contractors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article.

(21) Nothing in this article shall be construed to cover the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of electric signs, cranes, hoists, electroplating, industrial machinery, and irrigation machinery beyond the terminals of the controllers. Furthermore, the contractors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article.

(22) Nothing in this article shall be construed to cover the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of equipment and wiring for sound recording and reproduction systems, centralized distribution of sound systems, public address and speech-input systems, or electronic organs beyond the terminals of the controllers. Furthermore, the contractors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article.

(23) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require either that employees of the federal government who perform electrical work on federal property shall be required to be licensed before doing electrical work on such property or that the electrical work performed on such property shall be regulated pursuant to this article.

(24) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require licensing that covers the installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration of fire alarm systems operating at fifty volts or less. Furthermore, the contractors performing any installation, maintenance, repair, or alteration under this exemption, or their employees, shall not be covered by the licensing requirements of this article but shall be subject to all provisions of this article pertaining to inspections and permitting.

Editor's note: In subsection (6)(a), "of existing facilities on his or her own property or residence," was inadvertently dropped from the introduced version of House Bill 10-1225 in the preparation of the engrossed version of the bill. There were no amendments to subsection (6)(a); therefore, to accurately reflect the intent of the House Bill 10-1225, this language has been restored.

ANNOTATION

State law not superseded by licensing ordinance. The state has a clear concern in ensuring that Colorado electricians have free access to markets throughout the state, in eliminating duplicative and expensive licensing and in establishing a statewide policy on the required competence of electricians, and therefore the licensing ordinance of a home-rule city could not supersede state law. Century Elec. Serv. & Repair, Inc. v. Stone, 193 Colo. 181, 564 P.2d 953 (1977).

Master's duty to direct and control work done under his license. Although subsection (10) does not provide literally for vicarious liability of a master electrician, there exists a relationship between a master and an electrician working under the master's license which imposes upon the master the duty to direct and control the work done under his license. Stocker v. Stitt, 643 P.2d 793 (Colo. App. 1982).

12-23-112. Fees. (1) As established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., fees shall be charged by the state electrical board for the following:

- (a) Master electrician's license or permit;
- (b) Renewal of master electrician's license;
- (c) Journeyman electrician's license or permit;
- (d) Renewal of journeyman electrician's license;
- (e) Examination for master electrician;
- (f) Examination for journeyman electrician;
- (g) Electrical contractor registration;
- (h) Renewal of electrical contractor registration;
- (i) Residential wireman's license or permit;
- (j) Renewal of residential wireman's license;
- (k) Examination for residential wireman;
- (l) Apprentice registration.

ANNOTATION

Constitutional challenge of provisions controlling board assertable on appeal. Section 12-23-120 contemplates that facial constitutional challenges to the provisions under which the state electrical board acts may be asserted on appeal, even though such challenges are not cognizable by the board. Clasby v. Klapper, 636 P.2d 682 (Colo. 1981).

12-23-113. Disposition of fees and expenses of board. All moneys collected under this article, except for fines collected pursuant to section 12-23-118 (7) (a), shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for expenditures of the board incurred in the performance of its duties under this article, which expenditures shall be made from such appropriations upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law.

12-23-115. Inspectors - qualifications. (1) (a) (I) The director of the division of professions and occupations is hereby authorized to appoint or employ, with the power of removal, competent persons licensed under this article as journeymen or master electricians as state electrical inspectors. The division director is also authorized to appoint or employ, with the power of removal, for the purpose of inspecting one-, two-, three-, or four-family dwellings, competent persons with the following qualifications:

(A) Persons who have passed the written residential wireman's examination described in section 12-23-106; or

(B) Persons who have been certified as residential electrical inspectors by a national certification authority approved by the board and who have furnished satisfactory evidence of at least two years' practical experience in the electrical inspection of residential dwellings.

(II) Such inspectors may be employed either on a full-time or on a part-time basis as the circumstances in each case shall warrant; except that the division director may contract with any electrical inspector regularly engaged as such and certify him to make inspections in a designated area at such compensation as shall be fixed by the division director. State electrical inspectors have the right of ingress and egress to and from all public and private premises during reasonable working hours where this law applies for the purpose of making electrical inspections or otherwise determining compliance with the provisions of this article. In order to avoid conflicts of interest, a state electrical inspector hired under this section shall not inspect any electrical work in which such inspector has any financial or other personal interest and shall not be engaged in the electrical business by contracting, supplying material, or performing electrical work as defined in this article.

(b) Any employee of a private, municipal, or cooperative electric utility rendering service to the ultimate public shall be prohibited from employment as an electrical inspector only when in the performance of any electrical work as defined in this article. Electrical inspectors performing electrical inspections who are employed by any city, town, county, or city and county shall possess the same qualifications required of state electrical inspectors under this section, shall be registered with the board prior to the assumption of their duties, shall not inspect any electrical work in which such inspector has any financial or other personal interest, and shall not be engaged, within the jurisdiction employing such inspector, in the electrical business by contracting, supplying material, or performing electrical work as defined in this article.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit any inspector from qualifying as an inspector in other construction specialties.

(2) Repealed.

(3) State electrical inspectors appointed or employed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may:

(a) Conduct inspections and investigations pursuant to section 12-23-118 (4) on behalf of the program director;

(b) Provide service of process for a citation served pursuant to section 12-23-118 (6) (b) in compliance with rule 4 of the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

12-23-116. Inspection - application - standards. (1) (a) An individual required to have electrical inspection under this article shall apply to the board for an electrical permit, except where an incorporated town or city, county, or city and county of this state has a building department that meets the minimum standards of this article and that processes applications for building permits and inspections, in which case the individual shall apply to such building department.

(b) Upon final inspection and approval by the state electrical inspector, notice shall be issued by the board to the utility, and the office of the board shall retain one copy of the record of approval.

(c) A utility shall not provide service to any person required to have electrical inspection under this article without proof of final approval as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1); except that service shall be provided in those situations determined by the local electrical inspection authority, or by the board, whichever has jurisdiction, to be emergency situations for a maximum period of seven days or until the inspection has been made.

(2) (a) The owner of an electrical installation in any new construction, other than manufactured units certified by the division of housing pursuant to section 24-32-3311, C.R.S., or remodeling or repair of an existing construction, except in any incorporated town or city, county, or city and county having its own electrical code and inspection program equal to the minimum standards as are provided in this article, shall have the electrical portion of the installation, remodeling, or repair inspected by a state electrical inspector.

(b) A state electrical inspector shall inspect any new construction, remodeling, or repair subject to this subsection (2) within three working days after the receipt of the application for inspection. Prior to the commencement of any electrical installation, the person making the installation shall apply for an electrical permit and pay the required permit fee.

(c) A manufactured home, mobile home, or movable structure owner shall have the electrical installation for the manufactured home, mobile home, or movable structure inspected prior to obtaining electric service.

(3) A state electrical inspector shall inspect the work performed, and, if such work meets the minimum standards set forth in the national electrical code referred to in section 12-23-104 (2) (a), a certificate of approval shall be issued by the inspector. If such installation is disapproved, written notice thereof together with the reasons for such disapproval shall be given by the inspector to the applicant. If such installation is hazardous to life or property, the inspector disapproving it may order the electrical service thereto discontinued until such installation is rendered safe and shall send a copy of the notice of disapproval and order for discontinuance of service to the supplier of electricity. The applicant may appeal such disapproval to the board and shall be granted a hearing by the board within seven days after notice of appeal is filed with the board. After removal of the cause of such disapproval, the applicant shall make application for reinspection in the same manner as for the original inspection and pay the required reinspection fee.

(4) The person or inspector making an application, certificate of approval, or notice of disapproval shall include the name of the property owner, if known, the location and a brief description of the installation, the name of the electrical contractor and state registration number, the state electrical inspector, and the fee charged for the permit. The notice of disapproval and corrective actions to be taken shall be submitted to the board, and a copy of the notice shall be submitted to the electrical contractor within two working days after the date of inspection. The inspector shall post a copy of the notice at the installation site. The board shall furnish the forms. A copy of each application, certificate, and notice made or issued shall be filed with the board.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any utility as defined in this article to collect or enforce collection or in any way handle the payment of any fee connected with such application.

(6) (a) All inspection permits issued by the board shall be valid for a period of twelve months, and the board shall cancel the permit and remove it from its files at the end of the twelve-month period, except in the following circumstances:

(I) If an applicant makes a showing at the time of application for a permit that the electrical work is substantial and is likely to take longer than twelve months, the board may issue a permit to be valid for a period longer than twelve months, but not exceeding three years.

(II) If the applicant notifies the board prior to the expiration of the twelve-month period of extenuating circumstances, as determined by the board, during the twelve-month period, the board may extend the validity of the permit for a period not to exceed six months.

(b) If an inspection is requested by an applicant after a permit has expired or has been cancelled, a new permit must be applied for and granted before an inspection is performed.

(7) Notwithstanding the fact that any incorporated town or city, any county, or any city and county in which a public school is located or is to be located has its own electrical code and inspection authority, any electrical installation in any new construction or remodeling or repair of a public school shall be inspected by a state electrical inspector.

(8) In the event that any incorporated town or city, any county, or any city and county intends to commence or cease performing electrical inspections in its respective jurisdiction, it shall commence or cease the same only as of July 1 of any year, and written notice of such intent shall be given to the board on or before October 1 of the preceding calendar year. If such notice is not given and the use of state electrical inspectors is required within such notice requirement, the respective local government of the jurisdiction requiring such inspections shall reimburse the state electrical board for any expenses incurred in performing such inspections, in addition to transmitting the required permit fees.

(9) (a) A person claiming to be aggrieved by the failure of a state electrical inspector to inspect property after proper application or by notice of disapproval without setting forth the reasons for rejecting the inspection may request the program director to review the actions of the state electrical inspector or the manner of the inspection. The request may be made by an authorized representative and shall be in writing.

(b) Upon the filing of such a request, the program director shall cause a copy to be served upon the state electrical inspector complained of, together with an order requiring the inspector to answer the allegations of said request within a time fixed by the program director.

(c) If the request is not granted within ten days after it is filed, it may be treated as rejected. Any person aggrieved by the action of the program director in refusing the review requested or in failing or refusing to grant all or part of the relief requested may file a written complaint and request for a hearing with the board, specifying the grounds relied upon.

(d) Any hearing before the board shall be held pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(10) An inspector performing an inspection for the state, an incorporated town or city, a county, or a city and county may verify compliance with any provision of this article and may file a complaint with the board for a violation of this article.

Editor's note: Amendments to subsection (2) by House Bill 75-1508 and Senate Bill 75-305 were harmonized.

12-23-117. Permit fees. (1) As established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., inspection fees shall be charged by the board and shall be set and categorized based upon the actual expense of inspecting each type of electrical installation.

(2) Because electrical inspections are matters of statewide concern, the maximum fees, established annually, chargeable for electrical inspections by any city, town, county, or city and county shall not be more than fifteen percent above those provided for in this section, and no such local government shall impose or collect any other fee or charge related to electrical inspections or permits.

(3) If an application is not filed in advance of the commencement of an installation, the inspection fee shall be twice the amount of the inspection fee set by the board pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

12-23-118. Violations - citations - settlement agreements - hearings - fines.

(1) The board may deny, suspend, revoke, refuse to renew, or issue a letter of admonition in regard to any license or registration issued or applied for under the provisions of this article, may place a licensee or registrant on probation, or may issue a citation to a licensee, registrant, or applicant for licensure for any of the following reasons:

(a) Violation of or aiding or abetting in the violation of any of the provisions of this article;

(b) Violation of the rules and regulations or orders promulgated by the board in conformity with the provisions of this article or aiding or abetting in such violation;

(c) Failure or refusal to remove within a reasonable time the cause of the disapproval of any electrical installation as reported on the notice of disapproval, but such reasonable time shall include time for appeal to and a hearing before the board;

(d) Failure or refusal to maintain or adhere to the minimum standards set forth in rules and regulations adopted by the board pursuant to section 12-23-104 (2) (a);

(e) Any cause for which the issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the board;

(f) Commitment of one or more acts or omissions that do not meet generally accepted standards of electrical practice;

(g) Conviction of or acceptance of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere by a court to a felony. In considering the disciplinary action, the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(h) Advertising by any licensee or registrant which is false or misleading;

(i) Deception, misrepresentation, or fraud in obtaining or attempting to obtain a license;

(j) Failure of a master electrician who is charged with supervising all electrical work performed by a contractor pursuant to section 12-23-106 (5) (c) to adequately supervise such work or failure of any licensee to adequately supervise an apprentice who is working at the trade pursuant to section 12-23-110.5;

(k) Employment of any person required by this article to be licensed or registered or to obtain a permit who has not obtained such license, registration, or permit;

(l) Disciplinary action against an electrician's license or registration in another jurisdiction. Evidence of such disciplinary action shall be prima facie evidence for denial of licensure or registration or other disciplinary action if the violation would be grounds for such disciplinary action in this state.

(m) Providing false information to the board during an investigation with the intent to deceive or mislead the board;

(n) Practicing as a residential wireman, journeyman, master, contractor, or apprentice during a period when the licensee's license or the registrant's registration has been suspended or revoked;

(o) Selling or fraudulently obtaining or furnishing a license to practice as a residential wireman, journeyman, or master or aiding or abetting therein;

(p) In conjunction with any construction or building project requiring the services of any person regulated by this article, willfully disregarding or violating:

- (I) Any building or construction law of this state or any of its political subdivisions;
 - (II) Any safety or labor law;
 - (III) Any health law;
 - (IV) Any workers' compensation insurance law;
 - (V) Any state or federal law governing withholdings from employee income, including but not limited to income taxes, unemployment taxes, or social security taxes; or
 - (VI) Any reporting, notification, or filing law of this state or the federal government.
- (2) and (3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 36, § 3, effective July 1, 1994.)

(4) (a) If, pursuant to an inspection or investigation by a state electrical inspector, the board concludes that any licensee, registrant, or applicant for licensure has violated any provision of subsection (1) of this section and that disciplinary action is appropriate, the program director or the program director's designee may issue a citation in accordance with subsection (6) of this section to such licensee, registrant, or applicant.

(b) (I) The licensee, registrant, or applicant to whom a citation has been issued may make a request to negotiate a stipulated settlement agreement with the program director or the program director's designee, if such request is made in writing within ten working days after issuance of the citation that is the subject of the settlement agreement.

(II) All stipulated settlement agreements shall be conducted pursuant to rules adopted by the board pursuant to section 12-23-104 (2) (a). The board shall adopt a rule to allow any licensee, registrant, or applicant unable, in good faith, to settle with the program director to request an administrative hearing pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (4).

(III) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(c) (I) The licensee, registrant, or applicant to whom a citation has been issued may request an administrative hearing to determine the propriety of such citation if such request is made in writing within ten working days after issuance of the citation that is the subject of the hearing or within a reasonable period after negotiations for a stipulated settlement agreement pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) have been deemed futile by the program director.

(II) For good cause the board may extend the period of time in which a person who has been cited may request a hearing.

(III) All hearings conducted pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) shall be conducted in compliance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(d) Any action taken by the board pursuant to this section shall be deemed final after the period of time extended to the licensee, registrant, or applicant to contest such action pursuant to this subsection (4) has expired.

(5) (a) The board shall adopt a schedule of fines pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) as penalties for violating subsection (1) of this section. Such fines shall be assessed in conjunction with the issuance of a citation, pursuant to a stipulated settlement agreement, or following an administrative hearing. Such schedule shall be adopted by rule in accordance with section 12-23-104 (2) (a).

(b) In developing the schedule of fines, the board shall:

- (I) Provide that a first offense may carry a fine of up to one thousand dollars;
 - (II) Provide that a second offense may carry a fine of up to two thousand dollars;
 - (III) Provide that any subsequent offense may carry a fine of up to two thousand dollars for each day that subsection (1) of this section is violated;
 - (IV) Consider how the violation impacts the public, including any health and safety considerations;
 - (V) Consider whether to provide for a range of fines for any particular violation or type of violation; and
 - (VI) Provide uniformity in the fine schedule.
- (c) Repealed.

(6) (a) (I) Any citation issued pursuant to this section shall be in writing, shall adequately describe the nature of the violation, and shall reference the statutory or regulatory provision or order alleged to have been violated.

(II) Any citation issued pursuant to this section shall clearly state whether a fine is imposed, the amount of such fine, and that payment for such fine must be remitted within the time specified in such citation if such citation is not contested pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(III) Any citation issued pursuant to this section shall clearly set forth how such citation may be contested pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, including any time limitations.

(b) A citation or copy of a citation issued pursuant to this section may be served by certified mail or in person by a state electrical inspector or the program director's designee upon a person or the person's agent in accordance with rule 4 of the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(c) If the recipient fails to give written notice to the board that the recipient intends to contest such citation or to negotiate a stipulated settlement agreement within ten working days after service of a citation by the board, such citation shall be deemed a final order of the board.

(d) (I) The board may suspend or revoke a license or registration or may refuse to renew any license or registration issued or may place on probation any licensee or registrant if the licensee or registrant fails to comply with the requirements set forth in a citation deemed final pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6).

(II) Upon completing an investigation, the board shall make one of the following findings:

(B) There is no reasonable cause to warrant further action.

(C) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action and should be dismissed, but the investigation also discloses indications of possible errant conduct that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected. If this finding is made, the board shall send a confidential letter of concern to the licensee or registrant.

(D) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action but should not be dismissed as being without merit. If this finding is made, the board may send a letter of admonition to the licensee or registrant by certified mail.

(E) The investigation discloses facts that warrant further proceedings by formal complaint. If this finding is made, the board shall refer the complaint to the attorney general for preparation and filing of a formal complaint.

(III) (A) When a letter of admonition is sent by certified mail to a licensee or registrant, the board shall include in the letter a notice that the licensee or registrant has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(B) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition is vacated and the board shall proceed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(IV) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1225), ch. 198, p. 866, § 18, effective July 1, 2010.)

(V) The board shall conduct all proceedings pursuant to this subsection (6) expeditiously and informally so that no licensee or registrant is subjected to unfair and unjust charges and that no complainant is deprived of the right to a timely, fair, and proper investigation of a complaint.

(e) The failure of an applicant for licensure to comply with a citation deemed final pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6) is grounds for denial of a license.

(f) No citation may be issued under this section unless the citation is issued within the six-month period following the occurrence of the violation.

(7) (a) Any fine collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit one-half of the amount of any such fine to the general fund, and one-half of the amount of any such fine shall be shared with the appropriate city, town, county, or city and county, which amounts shall be transmitted to any such entity on an annual basis.

(b) Any fine assessed in a citation or an administrative hearing or any amount due pursuant to a stipulated settlement agreement that is not paid may be collected by the program director through a collection agency or in an action in the district court of the county in which the person against whom the fine is imposed resides or in the county in which the office of the program director is located.

(c) The attorney general shall provide legal assistance and advice to the program director in any action to collect an unpaid fine.

(d) In any action brought to enforce this subsection (7), reasonable attorney fees and costs shall be awarded.

(8) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(9) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (9) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (9) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (9). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (9) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (9) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (9), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(10) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(11) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(12) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order in a court of competent jurisdiction.

ANNOTATION

Constitutional challenge of provisions controlling board assertable on appeal. This section contemplates that facial constitutional challenges to the provisions under which the state electrical board acts may be asserted on appeal, even though such challenges are not cognizable by the board. Clasby v. Klapper, 636 P.2d 682 (Colo. 1981).

Appeal exclusive vehicle for constitutional challenge. The statutory appeal procedure is intended to provide the exclusive means of asserting constitutional challenges to decisions of the state electrical board. Clasby v. Klapper, 636 P.2d 682 (Colo. 1981).

Not declaratory or injunctive relief actions.

A party cannot circumvent the limitations on his right of review by attempting to obtain declaratory or injunctive relief where the prescribed avenue of review is adequate. Clasby v. Klapper, 636 P.2d 682 (Colo. 1981).

Appeal must be timely. Failure to bring a proceeding to appeal a decision of the board within the applicable time limit is a jurisdictional defect. Clasby v. Klapper, 636 P.2d 682 (Colo. 1981).

Applied in Bonacci v. City of Aurora, 642 P.2d 4 (Colo. 1982).

PART 1

ENGINEERS

12-25-101. General provisions. In order to safeguard life, health, and property and to promote the public welfare, the practice of engineering is declared to be subject to regulation in the public interest. It shall be deemed that the right to engage in the practice of engineering is a privilege granted by the state through the state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors, created in section 12-25-106; that the profession involves personal skill and presupposes a period of intensive preparation, internship, due examination, and admission; and that a professional engineer's license is solely such professional engineer's own and is nontransferable.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For comment on Prouty v. Heron, appearing below, see 26 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 91 (1953).

Annotator's note. The case annotated below was decided under repealed CSA, C. 62, § 42, the subject matter of which was similar to this section.

Right to practice protected by due process clause. One who has qualified for admittance and license to practice engineering without restriction, under the standards applicable at the time of admission, thereby acquires a valuable right fully protected and covered by the due process clause of the federal and state constitutions. Prouty v. Heron, 127 Colo. 168, 255 P.2d 755 (1953).

It follows, therefore, that the general assembly cannot by statute deny or abridge that right in any manner except for cause, and after due notice and a fair and impartial hearing before an unbiased tribunal. Prouty v. Heron, 127 Colo. 168, 255 P.2d 755 (1953).

12-25-102. Definitions. As used in this part 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Board" means the state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors, created in section 12-25-106.

(2) "Certificate" means the media issued by the board to evidence licensing of a professional engineer.

(3) "Engineer" means a person who, by reason of intensive preparation in the use of mathematics, chemistry, physics, and engineering sciences, including the principles and methods of engineering analysis and design, is qualified to perform engineering work as defined in this part 1.

(4) “Engineering” means analysis or design work requiring intensive preparation and experience in the use of mathematics, chemistry, and physics and the engineering sciences.

(5) “Engineering experience”, in addition to the practice of engineering as defined in subsection (10) of this section, may include:

(a) Up to four years of undergraduate engineering study, as approved by the board, in mathematics, basic science, engineering science, engineering design, and engineering practice;

(b) Up to two years of graduate engineering study as approved by the board if the study results in the award of an advanced degree;

(c) Teaching at the instructor level, or at a higher level, of courses in engineering science, design, or engineering practice at a college or university offering an engineering curriculum of four or more years which is approved by the board or at a college offering courses transferable to a board-approved college. This experience must result from a full-time position in teaching or teaching and research.

(d) Engineering research, including that performed by a teacher at the instructor level or at a higher level. The research done by the teacher must be part of his assigned duties in a full-time position in teaching and research.

(6) “Engineer-intern” means a person who has complied with the requirements of sections 12-25-111 and 12-25-112 and is duly enrolled as an “engineer-intern”.

(7) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1293, § 8, effective May 28, 2004.)

(8) “License” means the formal legal permission to practice engineering granted by the board.

(9) Repealed.

(10) (a) “Practice of engineering” means the performance for others of any professional service or creative work requiring engineering education, training, and experience and the application of special knowledge of the mathematical and engineering sciences to such professional services or creative work, including consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, and the observation of construction to evaluate compliance with plans and specifications in connection with the utilization of the forces, energies, and materials of nature in the development, production, and functioning of engineering processes, apparatus, machines, equipment, facilities, structures, buildings, works, or utilities, or any combination or aggregations thereof, employed in or devoted to public or private enterprise or uses.

(b) An individual shall be construed as practicing or offering to practice “professional engineering” within the meaning and intent of this section if the individual, by verbal claim, sign, advertisement, letterhead, card, or in any other way, represents himself or herself to be a professional engineer; through the use of any other means implies that the individual is licensed under this part 1; or performs engineering services.

(12) and (13) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1293, § 8, effective May 28, 2004.)

(14) “Responsible charge” means personal responsibility for the control and direction of engineering work within a professional engineer’s scope of competence. Experience may only be classified as “responsible charge” if the engineer is licensed pursuant to this part 1, unless the work involves an activity exempted pursuant to section 12-25-103.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 12-25-102 as it existed prior to 1985.

ANNOTATION

Formerly, engineers were confined to the industrial and structural field, while architects were committed to the field of public or semipublic buildings. Heron v. City of Denver, 131 Colo. 501, 283 P.2d 647 (1955) (decided under repealed § 51-1-2, CRS 53).

12-25-103. Exemptions. (1) This part 1 shall not be construed to affect any of the following:

- (a) Individuals who normally operate and maintain machinery or equipment;
- (b) Individuals who perform engineering services for themselves;
- (c) Partnerships, professional associations, joint stock companies, limited liability companies, or corporations, or the employees of any such organizations, who perform engineering services for themselves or their affiliates;
- (d) Individuals who perform engineering services under the responsible charge of a professional engineer;
- (e) Work of a strictly agricultural nature which is not required to be of public record;
- (f) Professional land surveying as defined in section 12-25-202 (6);
- (g) Individuals who are employed by and perform engineering services solely for a county, city and county, or municipality;
- (h) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 1482, § 3, effective July 1, 1994.)
- (i) Individuals who are employed by and perform engineering services solely for the federal government;
- (j) Individuals who practice architecture as defined in section 12-25-302 (6); or
- (k) Utilities or their employees or contractors when performing services for another utility during times of natural disasters or emergency situations.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-25-115 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-25-104. Forms of organizations permitted to practice. (1) No partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or joint stock association shall be licensed under this part 1. No partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or joint stock association shall practice or offer to practice engineering in the state except under the following conditions:

(a) Professional engineers may practice under this part 1 as individuals or partners or through joint stock associations, registered limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies, or corporations.

(b) In the case of practice through a partnership, at least one of the partners shall be a professional engineer licensed under this part 1, and all engineering plans, designs, drawings, specifications, or reports issued by or for the partnership shall bear the seal of said professional engineer partner or a professional engineer in responsible charge of, and directly responsible for, such engineering work when issued.

(c) In the case of the practice of engineering through a joint stock association, limited liability company, or corporation, engineering services or work involving the practice of engineering may be offered through such joint stock association, limited liability company, or corporation if the person in responsible charge of the engineering activities of the joint stock association, limited liability company, or corporation is a professional engineer licensed pursuant to this part 1. All engineering plans, designs, drawings, specifications, or reports that are involved in such practice, issued by or for such joint stock association, limited liability company, or corporation, shall bear the seal and signature of a professional engineer in responsible charge of, and directly responsible for, such engineering work when issued.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-25-103 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-25-105. Unlawful practice - penalties - enforcement. (1) It is unlawful for any individual to hold himself or herself out to the public as a professional engineer unless such individual has complied with the provisions contained in this part 1.

(2) It is unlawful for any individual, partnership, professional association, joint stock company, limited liability company, or corporation to practice, or offer to practice, engineering in this state unless the individual in responsible charge has complied with the provisions of this part 1.

(3) Unless licensed or exempted pursuant to this part 1, it is unlawful for any individual, partnership, professional association, joint stock company, limited liability company, or corporation to use any of the following titles: Civil engineer, structural engineer, chemical engineer, petroleum engineer, mining engineer, mechanical engineer, or electrical engineer. In addition, unless licensed pursuant to this part 1, it is unlawful for any individual, partnership, professional association, joint stock company, limited liability company, or corporation to use the words "engineer", "engineered", or "engineering" in any offer to the public to perform the services set forth in section 12-25-102 (10). Nothing in this subsection (3) shall prohibit the general use of the words "engineer", "engineered", and "engineering" so long as such words are not being used in an offer to the public to perform the services set forth in section 12-25-102 (10).

(5) It is unlawful for any individual to use in any manner a certificate or certificate number which has not been issued to such individual by the board.

(6) The practice of professional engineering in violation of any of the provisions of this part 1 shall be either:

(a) Restrained by injunction in an action brought by the attorney general or by the district attorney of the proper district in the county in which the violation occurs; or

(b) (I) Ceased by order of the board pursuant to section 12-25-109 (8.2) to (8.9).

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 782, § 16, effective July 1, 2006.)

(7) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice professional engineering without an active license issued under this part 1 commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(8) Repealed.

(9) After finding that an individual, partnership, professional association, joint stock company, limited liability company, or corporation has unlawfully engaged in the practice of engineering, the board may jointly and severally assess a fine against such unlawfully engaged party in an amount not less than fifty dollars and not more than five thousand dollars for each violation proven by the board. Any moneys collected as an administrative fine pursuant to this subsection (9) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

(10) An individual practicing professional engineering who is not licensed or exempt shall not collect compensation of any kind for such practice, and, if compensation has been paid, the compensation shall be refunded in full.

12-25-106. State board of licensure - subject to termination - repeal of article.

(1) A state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors is hereby created, the duty of which shall be to administer the provisions of this article. Duties of the board shall include those provided in sections 12-25-107, 12-25-207, and 12-25-307.

(2) (a) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state, unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the board created by this section.

(b) This article is repealed, effective July 1, 2013.

(3) The board shall consist of thirteen members. Four members shall be professional engineers, with no more than two of the four engaged in the same discipline of engineering service or practice; three members shall be practicing professional land surveyors; three members shall be practicing licensed architects; and three members shall be citizens of the United States and residents of this state for at least one year who have not practiced architecture, engineering, or land surveying.

(4) Each professional engineer member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state for at least one year and shall have been licensed as a professional engineer and practicing as such for at least five years. Professional land surveyor members of the board shall have the qualifications outlined in section 12-25-206.

(5) Appointments to the board shall be made by the governor and shall be made to provide for staggering of terms of members so that not more than three members' terms expire each year. Thereafter appointments shall be for terms of four years. Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor has been duly appointed and qualified. Appointees shall be limited to two full terms. The governor may remove any member of the board for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

(7) The director of the division of professions and occupations shall appoint a program director for the board and such other personnel as are deemed necessary for the board to perform its statutory duties, pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

12-25-107. Powers and duties of the board. (1) In order to carry into effect the provisions of this part 1, the board shall:

(a) Adopt and promulgate, under the provisions of section 24-4-103, C.R.S., such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this article;

(b) Adopt rules of professional conduct for professional engineers under the provisions of section 24-4-103, C.R.S., which rules shall be published. Such publication shall constitute due notice to all professional engineers.

(c) Keep a record of its proceedings and of all applications. The application record for each applicant shall include:

(I) Name, age, and residence of the applicant;

(II) Date of application;

(III) Place of business of the applicant;

(IV) Education of the applicant;

(V) Engineering experience of the applicant;

(VI) Date and type of action taken by the board;

(VII) Such other information as may be deemed necessary by the board;

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1294, § 12, effective May 28, 2004.)

(e) (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1305, § 1, effective April 22, 2003.)

(II) Make available through printed or electronic means the following:

(A) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1294, § 12, effective May 28, 2004.)

(B) Statutes administered by the board;

(C) A list of the names and addresses, of record, of all professional engineers;

(D) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1305, § 1, effective April 22, 2003.)

(E) Rules of the board;

(F) Such other pertinent information as the board deems necessary;

(G) The rules of professional conduct adopted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1);

(f) Provide information to the public regarding the requirements for compliance with this part 1;

(g) Provide for written examinations in the "fundamentals of engineering" and the "principles and practice of engineering". Examinations shall be given as often as practicable, at such locations as the board shall determine. The board shall ensure that the passing score for any examination shall be set to measure the level of minimum competency. An applicant who fails to pass the prescribed examination may be reexamined at the next regularly scheduled examination.

(h) Adopt and have an official seal;

(i) Hold at least six regular meetings each year. Special meetings shall be held at such times as the bylaws of the board may provide. The board shall elect annually a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary. A quorum of the board shall consist of not less than five members.

(j) Participate in the affairs of the national council of engineering examiners and send a minimum of one delegate to the national meeting annually.

(2) The division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies may employ at least one investigator qualified to investigate complaints relative to the provisions of this part 1.

A license may be revoked for any reason that would have justified a refusal to issue it in the first instance. State Bd. of Registration for Prof'l Eng'rs v. Antonio, 159 Colo. 51, 409 P.2d 505 (1966).

It may be revoked for unfitness of the licensee to engage in the particular occupation or privilege or for fraud or deceit in obtaining the license. State Bd. of Registration for Prof'l Eng'rs v. Antonio, 159 Colo. 51, 409 P.2d 505 (1966).

A misstatement of the applicant as to a matter which would not have justified refusal of the license is not a ground for revocation, particularly where the misstatement is the result of a misunderstanding. State Bd. of Registration for Prof'l Eng'rs v. Antonio, 159 Colo. 51, 409 P.2d 505 (1966).

12-25-108. Disciplinary actions - grounds for discipline. (1) The board has the power to deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license and certificate of licensure or enrollment of, limit the scope of practice of, or place on probation, any professional engineer or engineer-intern who is found guilty of:

(a) Engaging in fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in obtaining or attempting to obtain a certificate of licensure or enrollment;

(b) Failing to meet the generally accepted standards of engineering practice whether through act or omission;

(c) A felony that is related to the ability to practice engineering; except that the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., in considering such conviction or plea. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be presumptive evidence of such conviction or plea for the purposes of any hearing under this part 1. A plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, accepted by the court shall be considered as a conviction.

(e) Violating, or aiding or abetting in the violation of, the provisions of this part 1, any rule or regulation adopted by the board in conformance with the provisions of this part 1, or any order of the board issued in conformance with the provisions of this part 1;

(f) Using false, deceptive, or misleading advertising;

(g) Performing services beyond one's competency, training, or education;

(h) Failing to report to the board any professional engineer known to have violated any provision of this part 1 or any board order or rule;

(i) Being addicted to or dependent upon alcohol or habit-forming drugs or controlled substances as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(j) Using any schedule I controlled substance, as set forth in section 18-18-203, C.R.S.;

(k) Failing to report to the board any malpractice claim against such professional engineer or any partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or joint stock association of which such professional engineer is a member, that is settled or in which judgment is rendered, within sixty days of the effective date of such settlement or judgment, if such claim concerned engineering services performed or supervised by such engineer;

(l) Failing to pay any fine assessed pursuant to this article;

(m) Violating any law or regulation governing the practice of engineering in another state or jurisdiction. A plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent accepted by the board of another state or jurisdiction may be considered to be the same as a finding of guilty for purposes of any hearing under this part 1.

(n) Using in any manner an expired, suspended, or revoked license, certificate, or seal, practicing or offering to practice when not qualified, or falsely claiming that the individual is licensed.

(2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the professional engineer or engineer-intern.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a professional engineer or engineer-intern, the professional engineer or engineer-intern shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 1486, § 8, effective July 1, 1994.)

(4) (a) In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this article, any professional engineer violating any provision of this article or any rule promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined for each violation proven by the board as follows:

(I) In the first administrative proceeding against a professional engineer, a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars;

(II) In any subsequent administrative proceeding against a professional engineer determining that a violation of this article has occurred, a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than five thousand dollars for each violation proven by the board.

(b) All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be credited to the general fund.

(5) The board may issue a letter of concern to a professional engineer or an engineer-intern based on any of the grounds specified in subsection (1) of this section without conducting a hearing as specified in section 12-25-109 (4) when an instance of potentially unsatisfactory conduct comes to the board's attention but, in the board's judgment, does not warrant formal action by the board. Letters of concern shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to members of the public or in any court action unless the board is a party.

12-25-109. Disciplinary proceedings - injunctive relief procedure. (1) The board upon its own motion may, and upon the receipt of a signed complaint in writing from any person shall, investigate the activities of any professional engineer, engineer-intern, or other person who presents grounds for disciplinary action as specified in this part 1.

(3) All charges, unless dismissed by the board, shall be referred to an administrative hearing by the board within five years after the date on which they were filed.

(4) Disciplinary hearings shall be conducted by the board or by an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be held in the manner prescribed in article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) and (6) Repealed.

(7) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board pursuant to this part 1.

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(8) (a) The board is authorized to apply for injunctive relief, in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure, to enforce the provisions of this part 1 or to restrain any violation thereof. In such proceedings, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. The members of the board, its staff, and the attorney general shall not be held personally liable in any such proceeding.

(b) (I) If the board has reason to believe that any individual has engaged in, or is engaging in, any act or practice which constitutes a violation of any provision of this article, the board may initiate proceedings to determine if such a violation has occurred. Hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(c) In any action brought pursuant to this subsection (8), evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this article shall be sufficient to justify the issuance of an injunction or a cease-and-desist order.

(8.2) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8.2), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 1 have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(8.4) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this part 1, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this part 1, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8.4) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (8.4) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8.4). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8.4) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (8.4) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or registration or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8.4), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of paragraph (c) of this subsection (8.4) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(8.5) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(8.7) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(8.9) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in subsection (10) of this section.

(9) Repealed.

(10) The court of appeals shall have initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the board. Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(11) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(12) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee or registrant that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee or registrant.

12-25-109.5. Reconsideration and review of board action. The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the imposition of any discipline as provided in section 12-25-109, may reconsider its prior action and reinstate or restore such license or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action, or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto, shall rest in the sole discretion of the board.

12-25-110. Application for license and certificates. (1) The board shall prescribe and furnish application forms. All applications shall be made under oath and shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee. Each application shall contain a statement indicating whether the applicant has ever been convicted of a felony in this or any other state, or has ever had a license to practice engineering revoked or suspended in this or any other state. Applications that are not complete shall be deemed defective and shall not be accepted by the board. The board shall take no action on defective applications, except to give notice to the applicant of defects. The board shall retain all fees submitted with applications, whether or not such applications are acted upon.

(2) No new application shall be required of any individual requiring reexamination by the board, and any such individual shall be notified when the next examination will be held.

(3) When considering applications, personal interviews may be required by the board only if the application fails to demonstrate that the applicant possesses the minimum qualifications necessary to qualify to take the written examination.

(4) Whenever the board is reviewing or considering the conviction of a crime, it shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(5) No individual whose license or enrollment has been revoked shall be allowed to reapply for licensure or enrollment earlier than two years after the effective date of the revocation.

12-25-112. Qualifications for engineer-intern. (1) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as an engineer-intern by endorsement if such applicant is enrolled in good standing in another jurisdiction requiring qualifications substantially equivalent to those currently required of applicants under this part 1 or if, at the time of initial enrollment in such jurisdiction, such applicant met the requirements for enrollment then in existence under Colorado law.

(b) Upon completion of the application and approval by the board, the applicant shall be enrolled as an engineer-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-111.

(2) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as an engineer-intern by graduation and examination if such applicant passes the fundamentals of engineering examination.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the applicant must:

(I) Have graduated from a board-approved engineering or engineering technology curriculum of four or more years; or

(II) Have senior status in a board-approved engineering or engineering technology curriculum of four or more years.

(c) Upon passing the examination and the submission of official transcripts verifying graduation or impending graduation, the applicant shall be enrolled as an engineer-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-111.

(3) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as an engineer-intern by graduation, experience, and examination if such applicant passes the fundamentals of engineering examination and possesses a total of six years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the applicant must:

(I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1295, § 13, effective May 28, 2004.)

(II) (A) Have graduated from an engineering curriculum of four or more years not approved by the board or from a related science curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have four years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part.

(c) Upon passing the examination and the submission of evidence of experience satisfactory to the board, the applicant shall be enrolled as an engineer-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-111.

(4) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as an engineer-intern by experience and examination if such applicant passes the fundamentals of engineering examination.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the applicant must:

(I) Have graduated from high school or its equivalent; and

(II) Have six years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part.

(c) Upon passing the examination and the submission of evidence of experience satisfactory to the board, the applicant shall be enrolled as an engineer-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-111.

12-25-114. Qualifications for professional engineer. (1) (a) An applicant may qualify for licensing as a professional engineer by endorsement if such applicant is licensed in good standing in another jurisdiction requiring qualifications substantially equivalent to those currently required of applicants under this part 1 or if, at the time of initial licensure in such jurisdiction, such applicant met the requirements for licensure then in existence under Colorado law.

(b) Upon completion of the application and approval by the board, the applicant shall be licensed as a professional engineer if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-113.

(2) (a) An applicant may qualify for licensing as a professional engineer by graduation, experience, and examination if such applicant passes the principles and practice of engineering examination.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the applicant must:

(I) (A) Have graduated from a board-approved engineering curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have eight years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part; and

(C) Have been enrolled as an engineer-intern in this state; or

(II) (A) Have graduated from a board-approved engineering technology curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have ten years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part; and

(C) Have been enrolled as an engineer-intern in this state; or

(III) (A) Have graduated from an engineering curriculum of four or more years not approved by the board or from a related science curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have ten years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part; and

(C) Have been enrolled as an engineer-intern in this state; or

(IV) (A) Have graduated from an engineering curriculum of four or more years or from a related science curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have twenty years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part.

(c) Upon passing the examination and the submission of evidence of experience satisfactory to the board, the applicant shall be licensed as a professional engineer if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-113.

(3) (a) An applicant may qualify for licensing as a professional engineer by experience and examination if such applicant passes the principles and practice of engineering examination.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the applicant must:

(I) Have twelve years of progressive engineering experience, of which educational study may be a part; and

(II) Have been enrolled as an engineer-intern in this state.

(c) Upon passing the examination and the submission of evidence of experience satisfactory to the board, the applicant shall be licensed as a professional engineer if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-113.

(4) (a) A professional engineer who has been duly licensed to practice engineering in this state and who is over sixty-five years of age, upon application, may be classified as a retired professional engineer. Individuals who are so classified shall lose their licensure and shall not practice engineering and shall pay a fee to retain retired professional engineer status.

(b) (I) A retired professional engineer shall be reinstated to the status of a professional engineer upon payment of the renewal fee. No other fee shall be assessed against such retired professional engineer as a penalty.

(II) For any professional engineer who has been retired for two or more years, the board may require reexamination or recertification, unless the board is satisfied of such retired professional engineer's continued competence.

12-25-117. Professional engineer seal. (1) Upon receipt of a certificate of licensure, the newly licensed professional engineer may obtain a seal. A crimp type seal, a rubber stamp type seal, or an electronic type seal may be used. The seal shall be of a design approved by the board and shall contain the professional engineer's name and license number and the designation "Colorado licensed professional engineer". Colorado professional engineers licensed before July 1, 2004, may continue to use their prior existing seals.

(3) The seal and signature shall be used by an engineer only when the work being stamped was under the engineer's responsible charge.

12-25-119. Prior actions. (1) The board shall take over, assume, and continue all actions and requirements regarding engineers from its predecessor, the state board of registration for professional engineers and land surveyors. There shall be no legal discontinuity, and previously licensed engineers shall continue their licensure as professional engineers.

(2) The name change from the state board of licensure for professional engineers and professional land surveyors to the state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors shall not be construed to change the entity. There shall be no legal discontinuity, and previously licensed engineers shall continue their licensure as professional engineers, and any obligations of the board or of persons to the board shall not be affected by the name change.

SURVEYORS

12-25-201. General provisions. In order to safeguard life, health, and property and to promote the public welfare, the practice of professional land surveying in Colorado is hereby declared to be subject to regulation. It shall be unlawful for any individual to practice professional land surveying in Colorado or to use in connection with such individual's name, or to otherwise assume, or to advertise any title or description tending to convey the impression that such individual is a professional land surveyor, unless such individual has been duly licensed or is exempted under the provisions of this part 2. The practice of professional land surveying shall be deemed a privilege granted by the state of Colorado based on the qualifications of the individual as evidenced by such individual's licensing.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-25-201 as it existed prior to 1985.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-25-201 is similar to § 12-25-202 as it existed prior to the 1981 repeal and reenactment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

To practice a profession is to hold one's self out as following that profession as a calling, as one's usual business. Beaver Brook Resort Co. v. Stevens, 76 Colo. 131, 230 P. 121 (1924) (decided under repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 62, § 18).

Surveyors are licensed to protect the public from unqualified work. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Licensee not required to revoke certification on changed documents. The statutes governing the licensing of surveyors and engineers do not require that where documents prepared by one licensed under their authority have been changed without the licensee's knowledge or approval before they become of public record, the licensee has an obligation to revoke his certification on them. Such a duty is nowhere mentioned in any of the statutes. S. Park Land &

Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Such action was arbitrary and unreasonable. Where landowner, who had contracted for survey and platting of land, altered two plats without surveyor's knowledge or permission, surveyor's revocation of its certificate for all the plats filed with the county planning commission, which action rendered its work totally valueless to landowner, was arbitrary and unreasonable. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

12-25-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Basic control for engineering projects" means survey markers set on or in the vicinity of a construction project to enable all components of the project to be built in compliance with plans and specifications with respect to the project location, orientation, elevation, and relationship to property, easement, or right-of-way boundaries.

(1.5) "Board" means the state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors, created by section 12-25-106.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1297, § 20, effective May 28, 2004.)

(3) "Certificate" means the media issued by the board under seal to evidence licensing or enrollment.

(3.3) "Geodetic surveying" means the performance of surveys in which measure or account is taken of the shape, size, and gravitational forces of the earth to determine or predetermine the horizontal or vertical positions of points, monuments, or stations for use in the practice of professional land surveying or for stating the geodetic position of control points, monuments, or stations by using a coordinate system or derivative thereof recognized by the national geodetic survey.

(3.5) "Land surveyor-intern" means an individual certified by the board after demonstrating such individual's competency, as required by section 12-25-212.

(4) "License" means the formal legal permission to practice land surveying granted by the board.

(5) Repealed.

(6) (a) "Professional land surveying" means the application of special knowledge of principles of mathematics, methods of measurement, and law for the determination and preservation of land boundaries. "Professional land surveying" specifically includes:

(I) Restoration and rehabilitation of corners and boundaries in the United States public land survey system;

(II) Obtaining and evaluating boundary evidence;

(III) Determination of the areas and elevations of land parcels;

(IV) Subdivision of land parcels into smaller parcels and layout of alignment and grades for streets or roads to serve such smaller parcels;

(V) Measuring and platting underground mine workings;

(VI) Preparation of the boundary control portions of geographic information systems and land information systems except as allowed otherwise by section 38-51-109.3, C.R.S.;

(VII) Establishment, restoration, and rehabilitation of land survey monuments and bench marks;

(VIII) Preparation of land survey plats, condominium plats, monument records, property descriptions that result from the practice of professional land surveying, and survey reports;

(IX) Surveying, monumenting, and platting of easements and rights-of-way;

(X) Geodetic surveying;

(X.5) Basic control for engineering projects; and

(XI) Any other activities incidental to and necessary for the adequate performance of the services described in this paragraph (a).

(b) An individual shall be construed as practicing or offering to practice “professional land surveying” within the meaning and intent of this part 2 if such individual engages therein or, by verbal claim, sign, letterhead, or card or in any other way holds himself or herself out to be a professional land surveyor or as being able to perform any professional land surveying service or if such individual does perform any professional land surveying service or work.

(c) Professional land surveying may include other types of surveying.

(7) “Professional land surveyor” means an individual who practices professional land surveying and who is currently licensed with the board after demonstrating competency to practice, as required by section 12-25-214.

(8) and (9) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1297, § 20, effective May 28, 2004.)

(10) “Responsible charge” means personal responsibility for the control and direction of professional land surveying work.

(11) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 1495, § 20, effective July 1, 1994.)

(12) “Surveyor quorum of the board” means not less than the three professional land surveyor members of the board and one of the nonengineering, non-land surveyor members of the board.

12-25-203. Exemptions. (1) This part 2 shall not be construed to prevent or to affect:

(a) The work of an employee or subordinate of a professional land surveyor if such work is performed under the responsible charge of the professional land surveyor;

(b) The practice of employees of the federal government duly authorized under 43 U.S.C. sec. 772 and 43 CFR 9180.0-3, while engaged in the practice of surveying within the course of their federal employment in the state of Colorado; or

(c) The rights of any other legally recognized profession.

12-25-205. Unlawful practice - penalties - enforcement. (1) It is unlawful for any individual to practice or offer to practice professional land surveying in Colorado without being licensed in accordance with the provisions of this part 2, or for any individual or entity to use or employ the words "land surveyor", "land surveying", or "professional land surveyor" or words of similar meaning or any modification or derivative except as authorized in this part 2.

(2) It is unlawful for any individual, partnership, professional association, joint stock company, limited liability company, or corporation to practice, or offer to practice, land surveying in this state unless the individual in responsible charge has complied with the provisions of this part 2.

(3.5) The practice of professional land surveying in violation of any of the provisions of this part 2 shall be either:

(a) Restrained by injunction in an action brought by the attorney general or by the district attorney of the proper district in the county in which the violation occurs; or

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2006, p. 784, § 18, effective July 1, 2006.)

(4) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice professional land surveying without an active license issued under this part 2 commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(5) It is the duty of all duly constituted officers of the law of Colorado, or any political subdivision thereof, to enforce the provisions of this part 2 and to prosecute any person violating this part 2.

(6) The attorney general or the attorney general's assistant shall act as legal advisor to the board and render such timely legal assistance as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this part 2. With the concurrence of the attorney general, the board may employ counsel and assistance necessary to aid in the enforcement of this part 2, and the compensation and expenses therefor shall be paid from the funds of the board.

(7) Any individual practicing professional land surveying, as defined in this part 2, who is not licensed or exempt shall not collect compensation of any kind for such practice, and, if compensation has been paid, such compensation shall be refunded in full.

(8) After finding that an individual has unlawfully engaged in the practice of professional land surveying, the board may assess a fine against such unlawfully engaged individual in an amount not less than fifty dollars and not more than five thousand dollars for each violation proven by the board. Any moneys collected as an administrative fine pursuant to this subsection (8) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-25-205 is similar to § 12-25-212 as it existed prior to the 1981 repeal and reenactment of this article, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

This section provides express criminal sanctions should a surveyor, or an outsider, violate seal certification. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Section 38-51-104 similar. Section 38-51-104 contains both criminal sanctions for a violation of the minimum standards for land surveys and plats, and prosecutorial commands similar to this section and § 12-25-213. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Prosecutors. The attorney general and assistants and the district attorney are authorized to prosecute violations or institute proceedings by injunction. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

12-25-206. Board - composition - appointments - terms. (1) A professional land surveyor who is a member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of Colorado for at least one year.

(2) A professional land surveyor who is designated as a land surveyor member of the board shall have been licensed as a land surveyor for at least five years.

(3) The board shall have a surveyor quorum of the board, as defined in section 12-25-202 (12). The surveyor quorum shall advise the board concerning issues relating to land surveyors.

(4) The governor, in making appointments of professional land surveyors to the board, shall endeavor to select the highest qualified members of the profession willing to serve on the board. Staggered appointments shall be made so that not more than one member's term expires in any one year, and thereafter appointments shall be for terms of four years each. Appointees shall be limited to two full terms each. Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor has been duly appointed.

(5) In the event of a professional land surveyor vacancy on the board due to resignation, death, or any cause resulting in an unexpired term, the governor shall fill such vacancy promptly to allow the surveyor quorum of the board to function.

(6) The governor may remove any professional land surveyor member of the board for official misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

(7) The surveyor quorum of the board shall elect or appoint annually a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary.

12-25-207. Powers and duties of the board. (1) In order to carry into effect this part 2, the board shall:

(a) Promulgate under the provisions of section 24-4-103, C.R.S., such rules as it may deem necessary and proper;

(b) Require each applicant for licensing or certification to demonstrate competence by means of examination and education and may require work examples as it deems necessary and sufficient for licensing or certification;

(c) Keep a record of its proceedings and of all applications for licensing or certification under this part 2. The application record for each applicant shall include:

(I) Name, age, and residence of the applicant;

(II) Date of application;

(III) Place of business;

(IV) Education of the applicant;

(V) Surveying and other applicable experience of the applicant;

(VI) Type of examination required;

(VII) Date and type of action by the board;

(VIII) Repealed.

(IX) Such other information as may be deemed necessary by the board.

(d) (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 1306, § 2, effective April 22, 2003.)

(II) Make available through printed or electronic means the following:

(A) The surveying statutes administered by the board;

(B) A list of the names and addresses of record of all currently licensed professional land surveyors;

(C) A list containing the license numbers in numerical sequence and the names of all current and previously licensed professional land surveyors;

(D) The rules of conduct for professional land surveyors adopted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); and

(E) The rules of the board and such other pertinent information as the board deems necessary.

(e) Provide for and administer written examinations to be given as often as practicable at such times and locations as the board shall designate. Written examination papers shall be identified only by numbers and shall be anonymously graded. After review and approval by the board, all examination results shall be recorded, and each examinee's examination results shall be sent to such examinee by first-class mail. The board shall ensure that the passing score on surveying examinations shall be set to measure the level of minimum competency. The board shall publish and make available to interested applicants a list of the subjects included in the surveying examinations that are developed by the board, such subjects being consistent with and related to the various aspects of surveying.

(f) Adopt and have an official seal.

(2) The division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies may employ at least one investigator to investigate complaints relative to the provisions of this part 2.

12-25-208. Disciplinary actions - grounds for discipline. (1) The board has the power to deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license of, or place on probation, limit the scope of practice of, or require additional training of any professional land surveyor or land surveyor-intern who is found guilty of:

(a) Engaging in fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in obtaining or attempting to obtain a license or enrollment;

(b) Failing to meet the generally accepted standards of the practice of land surveying through act or omission;

(c) A felony that is related to the ability to practice land surveying. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be presumptive evidence of such conviction or plea for the purposes of any hearing under this part 2. A plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, accepted by the court shall be considered as a conviction.

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 88, p. 510, § 18, effective July 1, 1988.)

(e) Violating, attempting to violate, or aiding or abetting the violation or attempted violation of:

(I) Any provision of this part 2 or article 50, 51, 52, or 53 of title 38, C.R.S.;

(II) Any rule adopted by the board in conformance with the provisions of this part 2; or

(III) Any order of the board issued in conformance with the provisions of this part 2;

(f) Using false, deceptive, or misleading advertising;

(g) Performing services beyond one's competency, training, or education;

(h) Failing to report to the board any professional land surveyor known to have violated any provision of this part 2 or any board order or rule;

(i) Being addicted to or dependent upon alcohol or any habit-forming drugs or controlled substances as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(j) Using any schedule I controlled substance, as set forth in section 18-18-203, C.R.S.;

(k) Failing to report to the board any malpractice claim against such professional land surveyor or any partnership, limited liability company, corporation, or joint stock association of which such professional land surveyor is a member, which claim is settled or in which judgment is rendered, within sixty days after the effective date of such settlement or judgment, if such claim concerned surveying services performed or supervised by such land surveyor;

(l) Failing to pay any fine assessed pursuant to this article;

(m) Violating any law or regulation governing the practice of professional land surveying in another state or jurisdiction. A plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent accepted by the board of another state or jurisdiction may be considered to be the same as a finding of guilty for purposes of any hearing under this part 2.

(n) Attempting to use an expired, revoked, suspended, or nonexistent license, practicing or offering to practice when not qualified, or falsely claiming that the individual is licensed; or

(o) Using in any manner a certificate or certificate number that has not been issued to the individual by the board.

(2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the professional land surveyor or land surveyor-intern.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a professional land surveyor or land surveyor-intern, such professional land surveyor or land surveyor-intern shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 1499, § 26, effective July 1, 1994.)

(4) (a) In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this section, any professional land surveyor violating any provision of this article or any rule promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined for each violation proven by the board as follows:

(I) In the first administrative proceeding against a professional land surveyor, a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars;

(II) In any subsequent administrative proceeding against a professional land surveyor determining that a violation of this article has occurred, a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than five thousand dollars for each violation proven by the board.

(b) All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be credited to the general fund.

(5) The board may issue a letter of concern to a professional land surveyor or land surveyor-intern based on any of the grounds specified in subsection (1) of this section without conducting a hearing as specified in section 12-25-209 (4) when an instance of potentially unsatisfactory conduct comes to the board's attention but, in the board's judgment, does not warrant formal action by the board. Letters of concern shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to members of the public or in any court action unless the board is a party.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-25-208 is similar to § 12-25-211 as it existed prior to the 1981 repeal and reenactment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Responsibility to public. The required seal specified in § 12-25-209(3) acknowledges the surveyor's responsibility to protect the public for any mistakes or negligence in the survey which bears the seal. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Licensee not required to revoke certification on changed documents. The statutes governing the licensing of surveyors and engineers do not require that where documents prepared by one licensed under their authority have been changed without the licensee's knowledge or approval before they become of public record, the licensee has an obligation to revoke his certification on them. Such a duty is nowhere mentioned in any of the statutes. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Such action was arbitrary and unreasonable. Where landowner, who had contracted for survey and platting of land, altered two plats without surveyor's knowledge or permission, surveyor's revocation of its certificate for all the plats filed with the county planning commission, which action rendered its work totally valueless to landowner, was arbitrary and unreasonable. S. Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enters., Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

There is nothing in the statute that provides for the tolling of the three-month limit by investigations of the board, and it is incumbent upon the board to comply with the terms of the act which created it. Fenwick v. Colo. State Bd. of Registration for Prof'l Eng'rs & Land Surveyors, 31 Colo. App. 501, 503 P.2d 1038 (1972).

12-25-209. Disciplinary proceedings - injunctive relief procedure. (1) The board upon its own motion may, and upon the receipt of a signed complaint in writing from any person shall, investigate the activities of any professional land surveyor, land surveyor-intern, or other person who presents grounds for disciplinary action as specified in this part 2.

(3) All charges, unless dismissed by the board, shall be referred to administrative hearing by the board within five years after the date on which said charges were filed.

(4) Disciplinary hearings shall be conducted by the board or by an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be held in the manner prescribed in article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) and (6) Repealed.

(7) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board pursuant to this part 2.

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(8) (a) The board is authorized to apply for injunctive relief, in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure, to enforce the provisions of this part 2, or to restrain any violation thereof. In such proceedings, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. The members of the board, its staff, and the attorney general shall not be held personally liable in any such proceeding.

(b) (I) If the board has reason to believe that any individual has engaged in, or is engaging in, any act or practice which constitutes a violation of any provision of this article, the board may initiate proceedings to determine if such a violation has occurred. Hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(c) In any action brought pursuant to this subsection (8), evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this article shall be sufficient to justify the issuance of an injunction or a cease-and-desist order.

(8.2) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or certificate holder is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or certificate, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or uncertified practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8.2), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 2 have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(8.4) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this part 2, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this part 2, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed or uncertified practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8.4) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (8.4) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8.4). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8.4) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (8.4) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or certificate or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 2, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or uncertified practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8.4), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(8.5) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or uncertified act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 2, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 2, any order issued pursuant to this part 2, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 2, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(8.7) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(8.9) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in subsection (10) of this section.

(9) Repealed.

(10) The court of appeals shall have initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders that are subject to judicial review of the board. Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(11) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(12) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee or certificate holder that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee or certificate holder.

12-25-209.5. Reconsideration and review of board actions. The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the imposition of any discipline as provided in section 12-25-209, may reconsider its prior action and reinstate or restore such license or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action, or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto, shall rest in the sole discretion of the board. The professional land surveyor or land surveyor-intern in any action before the board shall have the right to appeal any decision of the board to a court of competent jurisdiction.

12-25-210. Application for licensing or certification. (1) Each application for licensing or certification shall be on a form furnished by the board and shall contain statements made under oath showing the applicant's education and showing a detailed summary of such applicant's surveying experience. Each application shall contain a statement indicating whether the applicant has ever been convicted of a felony in this or in any other state, or has ever had a surveyor's license or registration revoked, suspended, or not renewed, or has been reprimanded or fined relative to surveying in this or any other state. Applications that are not complete shall be deemed defective, and the board shall take no action on defective applications except to give notice to the applicant of the defects. A nonrefundable application fee in an amount set by the board shall accompany each application.

(2) No new application shall be required of an individual requiring reexamination by the board, and such individual shall be notified when the next examination will be held.

(3) Whenever the board is reviewing or considering the conviction of a crime, it shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(4) No individual whose license or enrollment has been revoked shall be allowed to reapply for licensure or enrollment earlier than two years after the effective date of the revocation.

12-25-212. Qualifications for land surveyor-interns. (1) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as a land surveyor-intern by endorsement if the applicant is enrolled in good standing in another jurisdiction requiring qualifications substantially equivalent to those currently required of applicants under this part 2 or if, at the time of initial enrollment in such jurisdiction, the applicant met the requirements for enrollment then in existence under Colorado law.

(b) Upon completion of the application and approval by the board, the applicant shall be enrolled as a land surveyor-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-211.

(2) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as a land surveyor-intern by graduation and examination if the applicant passes the fundamentals of surveying examination.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the applicant must have satisfied either of the following requirements:

(I) The applicant graduated from a board-approved surveying or surveying technology curriculum that is at least four years.

(II) The applicant has senior status in a board-approved surveying or surveying technology curriculum that is at least four years.

(c) Upon passing the examination and upon submission of official transcripts to the board verifying graduation or impending graduation, the applicant shall be enrolled as a land surveyor-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-211.

(3) (a) An applicant may qualify for enrollment as a land surveyor-intern by education, experience, and examination if such applicant passes the fundamentals of surveying examination.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the applicant must:

(I) (A) Have graduated from high school or the equivalent; and

(B) Have a cumulative record of four years or more of progressive land surveying experience, of which a maximum of one year of educational credit may be substituted; or

(II) (A) Have graduated from a board-approved two-year surveying curriculum; and

(B) Have a cumulative record of two years or more of progressive land surveying experience.

(c) Upon passing the examination and the submission of evidence of experience satisfactory to the board, the applicant shall be enrolled as a land surveyor-intern if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-211.

12-25-214. Qualifications for professional land surveyor - repeal. (1) (a) An applicant may qualify for licensing as a professional land surveyor by endorsement and examination if such applicant passes the required examination or examinations pertaining to Colorado law.

(b) In order to be admitted to the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the applicant shall be licensed in good standing in another jurisdiction requiring qualifications substantially equivalent to those currently required of applicants under this part 2 or, at the time of initial licensure in such jurisdiction, have met the requirements for licensure then in existence under Colorado law.

(c) Upon passing the examination, the applicant shall be licensed as a professional land surveyor if the applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-213.

(2) (a) An applicant may qualify for licensing as a professional land surveyor by education, experience, and examination if such applicant passes the principle and practice of surveying examination and the examination pertaining to Colorado law.

(b) To be admitted to an examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the applicant shall meet the requirements stated in at least one of the following:

(I) (A) Have graduated from a board-approved surveying curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have two years of progressive land surveying experience under the supervision of a professional land surveyor or an exempted federal employee defined in section 12-25-203 (1) (b); and

(C) Have been certified as a land surveyor-intern in this state; or

(II) (A) Have graduated from a nonboard-approved surveying curriculum of four or more years; and

(B) Have four years of progressive land surveying experience of which at least two must be under the supervision of a professional land surveyor or an exempted federal employee as defined in section 12-25-203 (1) (b); and

(C) Have been certified as a land surveyor-intern in this state; or

(III) (A) Have graduated from a board-approved two-year surveying curriculum or from a four-year engineering curriculum that included surveying course work as specified by the board by rule; and

(B) Have six years of progressive land surveying experience of which four years shall have been under the supervision of a professional land surveyor or an exempt federal employee as defined under 12-25-203 (1) (b); and

(C) Have been enrolled as a land surveyor-intern in this state; or

(IV) (A) Have obtained a bachelor's degree in a nonsurveying curriculum;

(B) Have completed surveying and other related course work, as specified by the board by rule;

(C) Have six years of progressive land surveying experience, of which four years shall have been under the supervision of a professional land surveyor or an exempted federal employee as defined in section 12-25-203; and

(D) Have been enrolled as a land surveyor-intern in this state.

(c) Upon passing the examinations and the submission of evidence of experience satisfactory to the board, the applicant shall be licensed as a professional land surveyor if such applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-213.

(3) The board may allow an applicant to substitute for one year of experience the satisfactory completion of one academic year in a curriculum approved by the board. The substitution of education for experience shall not exceed three years.

(4) (a) An applicant may qualify for licensure as a professional land surveyor by experience and examination if such applicant passes the principles and practice of land surveying examination and the examination pertaining to Colorado law.

(b) In order to be admitted to an examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the applicant shall:

(I) Have graduated from high school or its equivalent;

(II) Have ten years of progressive land surveying experience of which at least six years must have been under the supervision of a professional land surveyor or an exempted federal employee as defined in section 12-25-203 (1) (b); and

(III) Have been enrolled as a land surveyor-intern in this state.

(c) Upon passage of the examination pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the applicant shall be licensed as a professional land surveyor if such applicant is otherwise qualified pursuant to section 12-25-213.

(d) The board may allow an applicant to substitute for one year of experience the satisfactory completion of one academic year in a curriculum approved by the board. The substitution of education for experience shall not exceed three years.

(5) (a) A professional land surveyor who has been duly licensed to practice professional land surveying in this state and who is over sixty-five years of age, upon application, may be classified as a retired professional land surveyor. Individuals who are so classified shall lose their licensure, shall not practice professional land surveying, and shall pay a fee to retain retired professional land surveyor status.

(b) (I) A retired professional land surveyor shall be reinstated to the status of a professional land surveyor upon payment of the renewal fee. No other fee shall be assessed against such retired professional land surveyor as a penalty.

(II) For any professional land surveyor who has been retired for two or more years, the board may require reexamination or recertification, unless the board is satisfied of such retired professional land surveyor's continued competence.

12-25-215. Licenses - certificates. (1) The board, upon acceptance of an applicant who has demonstrated competence in professional land surveying and upon receipt of payment of the required fee, shall license and issue a numbered certificate of licensure to said applicant.

(2) The board, upon acceptance of a qualified land surveyor-intern and upon receipt of payment of the required fee, shall certify said qualified land surveyor-intern.

(3) A license may be issued at any time but shall expire in conformance with section 24-34-102, C.R.S. A license shall be renewed at the time of such expiration.

(4) All licenses and registrations shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license or registration pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license or registration shall expire. Any person whose license or registration has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(6) A professional land surveyor shall give immediate notice to the board, in writing, of any change of address.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-25-215 is similar to § 12-25-209 as it existed prior to the 1981 repeal and reenactment of this article, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Plats must be certified by a licensed engineer or surveyor before they may be filed for public record. South Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enterprises, Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

The required seal specified in subsection (3) certifies expertise. South Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enterprises, Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Acknowledgment of responsibility to public. The required seal specified in subsection (3) acknowledges the surveyor's responsibility to protect the public for any mistakes or negligence in the survey which bears the seal. South Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enterprises, Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Licensee not required to revoke certification on changed documents. The statutes governing the licensing of surveyors and engineers do not require that where documents prepared by one licensed under their authority have been changed without the licensee's knowledge or approval before they become of public record, the licensee has an obligation to revoke his certification on them. Such a duty is nowhere mentioned in any of the statutes. South Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enterprises, Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

Such action was arbitrary and unreasonable. Where landowner, who had contracted for survey and platting of land, altered two plats without surveyor's knowledge or permission, surveyor's revocation of its certificate for all the plats filed with the county planning commission, which action rendered its work totally valueless to landowner, was arbitrary and unreasonable. South Park Land & Livestock Co. v. Hamilton Enterprises, Ltd., 189 Colo. 157, 538 P.2d 444 (1975).

12-25-216. Fees - disposition. (1) Pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., the board shall charge and collect fees for the following:

- (a) With respect to professional land surveyors:
 - (I) Renewal of a license;
 - (II) Replacement of a license, certificate of licensure, or renewal card;
 - (III) Application for licensure by endorsement and examination;
 - (IV) Application for the principles and practice of surveying examination or the legal aspects of surveying examination;
 - (V) Issuance of a certificate of licensure as a professional land surveyor;
 - (VI) Late renewal of a license;
 - (VII) Reexamination for the principles and practice of surveying examination or the legal aspects of surveying examination;
 - (VIII) Renewal of an expired license;
 - (IX) Listing as a retired professional land surveyor;
- (b) With respect to land surveyor-interns:
 - (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1303, § 32, effective May 28, 2004.)
 - (II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 94, p. 1506, § 34, effective July 1, 1994.)
 - (III) Application for the fundamentals of surveying examination;
 - (IV) Reexamination for the fundamentals of surveying examination;
 - (V) Application for enrollment as a land surveyor-intern by endorsement.

(2) All moneys collected by the board in administering this part 2 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for expenditures required for the administration of this part 2, which expenditures shall be made from such appropriations upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law. The division shall employ, subject to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, such clerical or other assistants as are necessary for the performance of its duties.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 12-25-116 and 12-25-207 as they existed prior to 1985.

12-25-217. Professional land surveying seals. (1) Upon receipt of a certificate of licensure, the newly licensed professional land surveyor may obtain a seal. A crimp type seal, a rubber stamp type seal, or an electronic type seal may be used. The seal shall be of a design approved by the board and shall contain the professional land surveyor's name and license number and the designation "Colorado licensed professional land surveyor". Colorado land surveyors licensed before July 1, 2004, may continue to use their prior existing seals.

(2) All documents, plats, and reports resulting from the practice of land surveying shall be identified with and bear the seal or facsimile and signature of the land surveyor in responsible charge.

(3) The seal and signature shall be used by a professional land surveyor only when the work being stamped was under such professional land surveyor's responsible charge.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-25-214 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-25-218. Immunity in professional review. Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this part 2, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this part 2 shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this part 2 shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-25-221 as it existed prior to 1985.

12-25-219. Prior actions. (1) The board shall take over, assume, and continue all actions and requirements regarding land surveyors from its predecessor, the state board of registration for professional engineers and professional land surveyors. There shall be no legal discontinuity, and previously licensed land surveyors shall continue their licensure as professional land surveyors.

(2) The name change from the state board of licensure for professional engineers and professional land surveyors to the state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors shall not be construed to change the entity. There shall be no legal discontinuity, and previously licensed land surveyors shall continue their licensure as land surveyors, and any obligations of the board or of persons to the board shall not be affected by the name change.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "The Validity of Exculpatory Clauses in Architectural Service Contracts", see 25 Colo. Law. 39 (March 1996).

A contract whereby the plaintiff was to secure architectural contracts for defendant, assist governing boards in preparing and submitting P. W. A. applications, and supply supervision of work in return for part of architects' fees, is not inherently vulnerable to the objection that it is in contravention of public policy. Mitchell v. Jones, 104 Colo. 62, 88 P.2d 557 (1939) (decided under repealed CSA, C. 10, § 2).

12-25-302. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Architect" means a person licensed under this part 3 and entitled thereby to conduct a practice of architecture in the state of Colorado.

(2) "Board" means the state board of licensure for architects, professional engineers, and professional land surveyors, created in section 12-25-106.

(3) "Buildings" means buildings of any type for public or private use, including the structural, mechanical, and electrical systems, utility services, and other facilities required for said buildings.

(4) "Drawings" means the original documents produced to describe a project. Such original documents may be produced by computer assisted design and drafting software, commonly known as "CADD", or other means.

(5) "Dwellings" means private residences intended for permanent occupancy by one or more families but does not include apartment houses, lodging houses, hotels, or motels.

(6) (a) The "practice of architecture" means the performance of the professional services of planning and design of buildings, preparation of construction contract documents including working drawings and specifications for the construction of buildings, and the observation of construction pursuant to an agreement between an architect and any other person, but does not include the performance of the construction of buildings.

(b) An architect's professional services, unless performed pursuant to the exemptions set forth in section 12-25-303 by a person who is not an architect, may include any or all of the following:

(I) Investigations, evaluations, schematic and preliminary studies, designs, working drawings, and specifications for construction, or for one or more buildings, and for the space within and surrounding the buildings or structures;

(II) Coordination of the work of technical and special consultants;

(III) Compliance with generally applicable codes and regulations, and assistance in the governmental review process;

(IV) Technical assistance in the preparation of bid documents and agreements between clients and contractors;

(V) Contract administration; and

(VI) Construction observation.

(7) "Responsible control" means that amount of control over and detailed knowledge of the content of technical submissions as defined in section 12-25-304 (3) (c) during their preparation as is ordinarily exercised by a licensed architect applying the required standard of care.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under former provisions similar to this section.

Formerly, engineers were confined to the industrial and structural field, while architects only were committed to the field of public or semi-public buildings. Heron v. City of Denver, 131 Colo. 501, 283 P.2d 647 (1955).

The statutory definition of the practice of architecture does not outlaw the practice of architecture by an employee. Neverdahl v. Linder, 141 Colo. 186, 347 P.2d 512 (1959).

Had the general assembly intended to limit the definition of the practice of architecture to outlaw the practice of architecture by an employee, it would have been relatively easy to state that one who is employed by a firm which has performed work requiring the services of an architect is not engaged in the practice of architecture. Neverdahl v. Linder, 141 Colo. 186, 347 P.2d 512 (1959).

12-25-303. Exemptions. (1) Nothing in this part 3 shall prevent any person, firm, corporation, or association from preparing plans and specifications for, designing, planning, or administering the construction contracts for construction, alterations, remodeling, additions to, or repair of, any of the following:

(a) One-, two-, three-, and four-family dwellings, including accessory buildings commonly associated with such dwellings;

(b) Garages, industrial buildings, offices, farm buildings, and buildings for the marketing, storage, or processing of farm products, and warehouses, that do not exceed one story in height, exclusive of a one-story basement, and, under applicable building codes, are not designed for occupancy by more than ten persons;

(c) Additions, alterations, or repairs to the buildings referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (1) that do not cause the completed buildings to exceed the applicable limitations set forth in this subsection (1);

(d) Nonstructural alterations of any nature to any building if such alterations do not affect the life safety of the occupants of the building.

(2) Nothing in this part 3 shall prevent, prohibit, or limit any municipality or county of this state, home rule or otherwise, from adopting such building codes as may, in the reasonable exercise of the police power of said governmental unit, be necessary for the protection of the inhabitants of said municipality or county.

(3) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed as curtailing or extending the rights of any other profession or craft.

(4) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed as prohibiting the practice of architecture by any employee of the United States government or any bureau, division, or agency thereof while in the discharge of his or her official duties.

(5) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed to prevent the independent employment of a licensed professional engineer practicing pursuant to part 1 of this article.

(6) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), nothing in this part 3 shall be construed to prevent an interior designer from preparing interior design documents and specifications for interior finishes and nonstructural elements within and surrounding interior spaces of a building or structure of any size, height, and occupancy and filing such documents and specifications for the purpose of obtaining approval for a building permit as provided by law from the appropriate city, city and county, or regional building authority, which may approve or reject any such filing in the same manner as for other professions.

(b) Interior designers shall not be engaged in the construction of the structural frame system supporting a building; mechanical, plumbing, heating, air conditioning, ventilation, or electrical vertical transportation systems; fire-rated vertical shafts in any multi-story structure; fire-related protection of structural elements; smoke evacuation and compartmentalization; emergency sprinkler systems; emergency alarm systems; or any other alteration affecting the life safety of the occupants of a building. Any interior designer shall, as a condition of filing interior design documents and specifications for the purpose of obtaining approval for a building permit, provide to the responsible building official of the jurisdiction a current copy of the interior designer's professional liability insurance coverage that is in force. No interior designer shall be subject to any of the restrictions set forth in paragraphs (b) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section.

(c) As used in this subsection (6), "interior designer" means a person who:

(I) Engages in:

(A) Consultation, study, design analysis, drawing, space planning, and specification for nonstructural or nonseismic interior construction with due concern for the life safety of the occupants of the building;

(B) Preparing and filing interior design documents for the purpose of obtaining approval for a building permit as provided by law for nonstructural or nonseismic interior construction, materials, finishes, space planning, furnishings, fixtures, equipment, lighting, and reflected ceiling plans;

(C) Designing for fabrication nonstructural elements within and surrounding interior spaces of buildings; or

(D) The administration of design construction and contract documents, as the clients' agent, relating to the functions described in sub-subparagraphs (A) to (C) of this subparagraph (I), and collaboration with specialty consultants and licensed practitioners in other areas of technical expertise; and

(II) Possesses written documentation that he or she:

(A) Has graduated with a degree in interior design from a college or university offering such program consisting of four or more years of study and has completed two years of interior design experience; or

(B) Has graduated with a degree in interior design from a college or university offering such program consisting of two or more years of study and has completed four years of interior design experience; and

(C) Has met the education and experience requirements of, and has subsequently passed, the qualification examination promulgated by the national council for interior design qualification or its successor organization.

(d) As used in this subsection (6), “nonstructural or nonseismic” includes interior elements or components that are not load-bearing or that do not assist in the seismic design and do not require design computations for a building’s structure. Common nonstructural or nonseismic elements or components include, but are not limited to, ceiling and partition systems that employ normal and typical bracing conventions and are not part of the structural integrity of the building.

(7) Nothing in this article shall prohibit a person who is licensed to practice architecture in another jurisdiction of the United States from soliciting work in Colorado. The person shall not perform the practice of architecture in this state without first having obtained a license from the board or having associated with an architect licensed in this state who is associated with the project at all stages of the project.

Editor’s note: (1) This section is similar to former § 12-4-112 as it existed prior to 2006.

(2) Subsection (7) is similar to former § 12-4-113 (1.5). It was then renumbered as § 12-4-112 (7) in House Bill 06-1048. Due to the repeal and relocation of § 12-4-112 in House Bill 06-1196, House Bill 06-1048 was harmonized with House Bill 06-1196 and § 12-4-112 (7) was relocated to subsection (7) of this section.

12-25-304. Forms of organizations permitted to practice - requirements. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no firm, partnership, entity, or group of persons shall be licensed to practice architecture; except that a partnership, entity, or group of persons may use the term “architects” in its business name if a majority of the individual officers and directors or members or partners are either licensed architects under this part 3 or persons who qualify for a license by endorsement under section 12-25-314 (3).

(2) The practice of architecture by the following entities is permitted, subject to subsection (3) of this section:

(a) A corporation that complies with the “Colorado Business Corporation Act”, articles 101 to 117 of title 7, C.R.S.;

(b) A limited liability company that complies with the “Colorado Limited Liability Company Act”, article 80 of title 7, C.R.S.;

(c) A registered limited liability partnership that has registered in accordance with section 7-60-144, C.R.S., or qualified in accordance with section 7-64-1002, C.R.S.

(3) An entity listed in subsection (2) of this section may practice architecture, but only if:

(a) The practice of architecture by such entity is under the direct supervision of an architect, licensed in the state of Colorado, who is an officer of the corporation, a member of the limited liability company, or a partner in the registered limited liability partnership;

(b) Such architect remains individually responsible to the board and the public for his or her professional acts and conduct; and

(c) All architectural plans, designs, drawings, specifications, or reports that are involved in such practice, issued by or for such entity, bear the seal and signature of an architect in responsible control of, and directly responsible for, such architectural work when issued.

(4) (a) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed as prohibiting the formation of a corporation, limited liability company, registered limited liability partnership, joint venture, partnership, or association consisting of one or several architects or corporations meeting the requirements of subsection (3) of this section and one or several professional engineers, all duly licensed under the respective provisions of the applicable laws of this state.

(b) It is lawful for such an entity to use in its title the words “architects and engineers”.

(c) No identifying media used by any member of such entity shall mislead the public as to the fact that such member is licensed as an architect or as a professional engineer.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Operating a Personal Service Corporation", see 17 Colo. Law. 2011 (1988).

Formerly practice by corporations of architecture was not approved of. Johnson-

Olmosted Realty Co. v. City & County of Denver, 89 Colo. 250, 1 P.2d 928 (1931) (decided under repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 10, § 14).

12-25-305. Unauthorized practice - penalties - enforcement. (1) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice architecture without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(3) The attorney general or the attorney general's assistant shall act as legal advisor to the board and render such timely legal assistance as may be necessary in carrying out this part 3. With the concurrence of the attorney general, the board may employ counsel and assistance necessary to aid in the enforcement of this part 3, and the compensation and expenses therefor shall be paid from the funds of the board.

(4) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the licensee or person alleged to have acted without a license may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 3 have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(5) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other provision of this part 3, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this part 3, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (5) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify such person, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 3, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(6) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in an unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 3, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 3, any order issued pursuant to this part 3, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 3, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(7) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(8) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Editor's note: (1) Certain provisions of § 12-4-113 were repealed and relocated to this section by House Bill 06-1196. Section 12-4-113 (1), (1.5), (2), and (2.5) were renumbered and relocated to subsections (1), (1.5), (2), and (4) respectively of this section. In addition, § 12-4-113 (1), (1.5), and (2) were amended and repealed in House Bill 06-1048. Due to the repeal and relocation of § 12-4-113 in House Bill 06-1196, House Bill 06-1048 was harmonized with House Bill 06-1196 and § 12-4-113 (1), (1.5), and (2) were relocated to subsections (1), (1.5), and (2) respectively of this section.

(2) Subsection (2.5) was amended and subsections (4) to (8) were enacted in House Bill 06-1264. That amendment and those enactments were superseded by the enactment of this section in House Bill 06-1196.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "Licensing of Occupations and Professions in Colorado", see 35 Dicta 235 (1958).

12-25-306. Board - composition - appointments - terms. (1) To be eligible for membership on the board, an architect shall be:

- (a) A United States citizen and a resident of Colorado for at least one year; and
- (b) A licensed architect in the state of Colorado and have practiced architecture for at least three years prior to their appointment.

(2) The governor, in making appointments of architects to the board, shall endeavor to stagger the most highly qualified members of the profession willing to serve on the board. Staggered appointments shall be made so that not more than one member's term expires in any one year, and thereafter appointments shall be for terms of four years each. Appointees shall be limited to two full terms each. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, each board member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor has been duly appointed, whichever occurs first.

(3) In the event of an architecture vacancy on the board due to resignation, death, or any cause resulting in an unexpired term, the governor shall fill such vacancy promptly.

(4) The governor may remove an architect member of the board for official misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

12-25-307. Powers and duties of the board. (1) The board is authorized to:

(a) Adopt such rules as may be necessary to implement this part 3, including rules for disciplining licensed architects;

(b) Examine and license duly qualified applicants, and renew the licenses of duly qualified architects;

(c) Conduct hearings upon complaints concerning the conduct of architects;

(d) Cause the prosecution of all persons violating this part 3 by the district attorney or by the attorney general pursuant to section 12-25-305;

(e) Require every licensed architect to have a stamp as prescribed by the board.

(2) The board shall:

(a) Keep a record of its proceedings and of all applications for licensing or certification under this part 3. The application record for each applicant shall include:

(I) Name, age, and residence of the applicant;

(II) Date of application;

(III) Place of business;

(IV) Education of the applicant;

(V) Architecture and other applicable experience of the applicant;

(VI) Type of examination required;

(VII) Date and type of action by the board; and

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under former provisions similar to this section.

Board cannot modify statute by rule or regulation. Unless expressly or impliedly authorized by statute the board cannot change or modify existing statutes by the adoption of rules and regulations. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Exam'rs of Architects, 35 Colo. App. 177, 532 P.2d 382 (1974).

Subsection (2)(a) does not include power to create an offense other than those set forth by the general assembly. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Exam'rs of Architects, 35 Colo. App. 177, 532 P.2d 382 (1974).

The determination of facts relating to the consideration of those desiring to practice architecture in Colorado has been entrusted under the statute to the board of examiners. Neverdahl v. Linder, 141 Colo. 186, 347 P.2d 512 (1959).

The board of examiners of architects is empowered to conduct hearings upon complaints concerning architects. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Exam'rs of Architects, 31 Colo. App. 332, 505 P.2d 47 (1972).

Where the board of examiners of architects, in instituting disciplinary action and in scheduling a hearing on the charges which had been filed against the architect, was carrying out its statutory function, the courts will not interfere with such action of an administrative board until final action has been taken. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Exam'rs of Architects, 31 Colo. App. 332, 505 P.2d 47 (1972).

A judicial determination of the validity of the regulation of the board of examiners of architects is not available to an architect against whom charges are pending until final action has been taken by the board. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Exam'rs of Architects, 31 Colo. App. 332, 505 P.2d 47 (1972).

It is the duty of the board, following a hearing, to enter detailed findings of fact with respect to the matters presented to it and with relationship to the definitions contained in § 12-4-102. Neverdahl v. Linder, 141 Colo. 186, 347 P.2d 512 (1959).

12-25-308. Disciplinary actions - grounds for discipline. (1) The board may deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license of, place on probation, or limit the scope of practice of a licensee for the following:

(a) Fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, or material misstatement of fact in procuring or attempting to procure a license;

(b) Any act or omission that fails to meet the generally accepted standards of the practice of architecture, as evidenced by conduct that endangers life, health, property, or the public welfare;

(c) Conviction of, or pleading guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony in Colorado concerning the practice of architecture or an equivalent crime outside Colorado. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be presumptive evidence of such conviction or plea in any hearing under this part 3. The board shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S., in considering such conviction or plea.

(d) Affixing a seal or allowing a seal to be affixed to any document of which the architect was neither the author nor in responsible control of preparation;

(e) Violation of, or aiding or abetting in the violation of, this part 3 or any rule promulgated by the board in conformance with this part 3 or any order of the board issued in conformance with this part 3;

(f) Use of false, deceptive, or misleading advertising;

(g) Performing services beyond one's competency, training, or education;

(h) Failure to render adequate professional control of persons practicing architecture under the responsible control of a licensed architect;

(i) Habitual intemperance with respect to, or excessive use of, any habit-forming drug, any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or any alcoholic beverage, any of which renders him or her unfit to practice architecture;

(j) Any use of a schedule I controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-203, C.R.S.;

(k) Violation of the notification requirements in section 12-25-312;

(l) Failure to pay a fine assessed under this part 3;

(m) Failure to report to the board any architect known to have violated any provision of this article or any board order or rule or regulation;

(n) Fraud or deceit in the practice of architecture;

(o) Mental incompetency;

(p) Making or offering to make any gift (other than a gift of nominal value such as reasonable entertainment or hospitality), donation, payment, or other valuable consideration to influence a prospective or existing client or employer regarding the employment of the architect; except that nothing in this paragraph (p) shall restrict an employer's ability to reward an employee for work obtained or performed;

(q) Selling or fraudulently obtaining or furnishing a license or renewal of a license to practice architecture;

(r) Engaging in conduct that is intended or reasonably might be expected to mislead the public into believing that the person is an architect; or

(s) Engaging in the practice of an architect as a corporation or partnership or group of persons, unless such entity meets the requirements of section 12-25-304.

(2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(d) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

(3) Any disciplinary action in another state or jurisdiction on grounds substantially similar to those that would constitute a violation under this part 3 shall be prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action, including denial of licensure, under this section.

(4) (a) In addition to the penalties provided for in subsection (2) of this section, any person violating any provision of this part 3 or any standards or rules promulgated pursuant to this part 3 may be punished upon a finding of misconduct by the board, made pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. In an administrative proceeding against a licensee, the board may impose a fine of not more than five thousand dollars.

(b) All fines collected pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

(5) If, as a result of a proceeding held pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., the board determines that a person licensed to practice architecture pursuant to this part 3 has acted in such a manner as to be subject to disciplinary action, the board may, in lieu of or in addition to other forms of disciplinary action that may be authorized by this section, require a licensee to take courses of training or education relating to his or her profession. The board shall determine the conditions that may be imposed on such licensee, including, but not limited to, the type and number of hours of training or education. All training or education courses are subject to approval by the board, and the licensee shall be required to furnish satisfactory proof of completion of any such training or education.

Editor's note: (1) Certain provisions of § 12-4-111 were repealed and relocated to this section by House Bill 06-1196. Section 12-4-111 (2), (3)(b), (2.5), (5), and (4) were renumbered and relocated to subsections (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of this section. In addition, § 12-4-113 (1)(a), (1)(b), and (1)(c)(IV) were amended and relocated to § 12-4-111 (2)(p), (2)(q), and (2)(r) in House Bill 06-1048. Due to the repeal and relocation of § 12-4-111 in House Bill 06-1196, House Bill 06-1048 was harmonized with House Bill 06-1196 and § 12-4-111 (2)(p), (2)(q), and (2)(r) were relocated to subsections (1)(q), (1)(r), and (1)(s) of this section.

(2) Subsection (2)(d) is similar to former § 12-4-111 (3)(c) in House Bill 06-1264. Due to the repeal and relocation of § 12-4-111 in House Bill 06-1196, House Bill 06-1264 was harmonized with House Bill 06-1196, and § 12-4-111 (3)(c) was relocated to subsection (2)(d) of this section.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "Licensing of Occupations and Professions in Colorado", see 35 Dicta 235 (1958).

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under former provisions similar to this section.

Phrase "fraud or deceit" cannot be redefined by board. The phrase "fraud or deceit" as contained in subsection (2)(d) refers to an established legal concept with a definite meaning, and this legal standard cannot be redefined by the board. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Colo. of Architects, 35 Colo. App. 177, 532 P.2d 382 (1974).

The general assembly has designated the state board of examiners of architects as the initial authority for issuance, denial, revocation, or suspension of an architect's license.

Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Colo. of Architects, 31 Colo. App. 332, 505 P.2d 47 (1972).

Where the board of examiners of architects, in instituting disciplinary action and in scheduling a hearing on the charges which had been filed against architect, was carrying out its statutory function, the courts will not interfere with such action of an administrative board until final action has been taken. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Colo. of Architects, 31 Colo. App. 332, 505 P.2d 47 (1972).

The judicial determination of the validity of the regulation of board of examiners of architects is not available to an architect against whom charges are pending until final action has been taken by the board. Lorance v. Colo. State Bd. of Colo. of Architects, 31 Colo. App. 332, 505 P.2d 47 (1972).

12-25-309. Disciplinary proceedings - injunctions. (1) The board upon its own motion may, and upon the receipt of a signed complaint in writing from any person shall, investigate the activities of any licensee or other person that present grounds for disciplinary action as specified in this part 3.

(2) Disciplinary hearings shall be conducted by the board or by an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be held in the manner prescribed in article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board.

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(4) The board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, through the attorney general of the state of Colorado, apply for an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person from committing any act declared to be a misdemeanor by this part 3. In order to obtain such injunction the board need not prove irreparable injury.

(5) The court of appeals shall have initial jurisdiction to review all final actions and orders of the board that are subject to judicial review. Such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(6) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

12-25-309.5. Reconsideration and review of board actions. The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the imposition of any discipline as provided in this section, may reconsider its prior action and reinstate or restore such license or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action, or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto, shall rest in the sole discretion of the board.

12-25-310. Application for licensing. (1) An applicant shall submit an application that includes evidence of education and practical experience as required by section 12-25-314 and the rules of the board. Such application shall also include a signed statement that the applicant has never been denied licensure as an architect or been disciplined with regard to the practice of architecture or practiced architecture in violation of the law. If the board determines that an applicant has committed any of the acts specified as grounds for discipline under section 12-25-308 (1), it may deny an application for examination or licensure. If the applicant has not complied with subsection (3) of this section, the board shall deny an application for examination or licensure.

(2) When the board is reviewing or considering conviction of a crime, it shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(3) No licensee whose license is revoked shall be allowed to apply for licensure earlier than two years after the effective date of the revocation.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-25-310 is similar to repealed § 10-1-12, CRS 53, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

The general assembly is authorized to prescribe only such qualifications as are reasonably necessary to protect the public interest. Linder v. Copeland, 137 Colo. 53, 320 P.2d 972 (1958).

An administrative board which is charged with a duty to hear and determine applications for licenses to follow an occupation involving personal skill, specialized training and expert knowledge in a particular field, and which presupposes a period of novitiate, is not thereby empowered to shut the door of opportunity in that field to any person who possesses the required qualifications. Linder v. Copeland, 137 Colo. 53, 320 P.2d 972 (1958).

12-25-311. Professional liability. (1) The shareholders, members, or partners of an entity that practices architecture are liable for the acts, errors, and omissions of the employees, members, and partners of the entity except when the entity maintains a qualifying policy of professional liability insurance as set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) (a) A qualifying policy of professional liability insurance shall meet the following minimum standards:

(I) The policy insures the entity against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the negligent acts, errors, and omissions of all professional and nonprofessional employees, members, and partners; and

(II) The insurance is in a policy amount of at least seventy-five thousand dollars multiplied by the total number of architects and engineers in or employed by the entity, up to a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars.

(b) In addition, the policy may include:

(I) A provision that it shall not apply to the following:

(A) A dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured entity or any stockholder, employee, member, or partner;

(B) The conduct of a business enterprise that is not the practice of architecture by the insured entity;

(C) The conduct of a business enterprise in which the insured entity may be a partner or that may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured entity in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including, but not limited to, the ownership, maintenance, or use of property;

(D) Bodily injury, sickness, disease, or death of a person; or

(E) Damage to, or destruction of, tangible property owned by the insured entity;

(II) Any other reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and ministerial matters.

12-25-313. Eligibility for architect. To be eligible for licensing as an architect, an applicant shall provide documentation of technical competence.

12-25-314. Qualifications for architect licensure. (1) The board shall set minimum educational and experience requirements for applicants within the following guidelines:

(a) The board may require:

(I) No more than three years of practical experience under the direct supervision of a licensed architect or an architect exempt under the provisions of section 12-25-303 (4) and either:

(A) A professional degree from a program accredited by the national architectural accrediting board or its successor; or

(B) Substantially equivalent education or experience approved by the board, with the board requiring no more than five years of such education and experience; or

(II) No more than ten years of practical experience under the direct supervision of a licensed architect or an architect exempt under the provisions of section 12-25-303 (4); or

(III) A combination of such practical experience and education, which combination shall not exceed ten years.

(b) Up to one year of the required experience may be in on-site building construction operations, physical analyses of existing buildings, or teaching or research in a program accredited by the national architectural accreditation board or its successor.

(c) Full credit shall be given for education obtained in four-year baccalaureate programs in architecture or environmental design.

(2) (a) An applicant shall pass an examination or examinations developed or adopted by the board. The board shall ensure that the passing score for any examination is set to measure the level of minimum competency.

(b) The examination shall be given at least twice a year. The board shall designate a time and location for examinations and shall notify applicants of this time and location in a timely fashion and, as necessary, may contract for assistance in administering the examination.

(3) An applicant for licensure by endorsement shall hold a license in good standing in a jurisdiction requiring qualifications substantially equivalent to those currently required for licensure by examination as provided in section 12-25-310 (1) and subsections (1) and (2) of this section and shall file an application as prescribed by the board. The board shall provide procedures for an applicant to apply directly to the board. The board may also provide an alternative application procedure so that an applicant may, at his or her option, instead apply to a national clearinghouse designated by the board. The national clearinghouse shall then forward the application to the board.

12-25-315. Licenses. (1) The board shall issue a license whenever an applicant for a license to practice architecture in Colorado successfully qualifies for such license as provided in this part 3.

(2) An architect may renew a license by paying to the board the license renewal fee established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the board shall then issue a certificate of renewal.

(3) The license of any architect shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this part 3 or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-25-317. Architect's stamp - record set of drawings. (1) The use of an architect's stamp shall be subject to the following:

(a) The stamp, signature of the architect whose name appears on the stamp, and date of the signature of such architect shall be placed on drawings to establish a record set of drawings. A record set shall not be reproduced. A record set shall be prominently identified and shall be for the permanent record of the architect, the project owner, and the regulatory authorities who have jurisdiction over the project. This section shall not prohibit the creation of multiple record sets.

(b) The stamp and the date the document is stamped shall be placed on drawings prepared under the direct supervision of the architect and on the cover, title page, and table of contents of specifications. Subsequent issues of addenda, revisions, clarifications, or other modifications shall be properly identified and dated for the record set. Where consultant drawings and specifications are incorporated into the record set, they shall be clearly identified by consultant stamps or other means and dated in accordance with law to distinguish proper reference to origination.

(c) Except as required for compliance with a federal contract, the stamp shall not be placed on reproducible drawings used for multiple copies or on reproducible drawings that are transferred away from the architect’s possession and supervision.

(d) A stamped record set with an original signature shall be retained in possession of the architect and shall be held for a minimum of three years following beneficial occupancy or beneficial use of the project by the owner or occupant.

(e) One original document may be stamped, signed, and dated pursuant to the requirements of federal government contracts.

(2) No person preparing plans and specifications for or construction contracts for the administration of any alteration, remodeling, or repair of any building shall use the title “architect” unless such person has been licensed as an architect pursuant to this part 3.

12-25.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Escort” means any person who, for a salary, fee, commission, hire, or profit, makes himself available to the public for the purpose of accompanying other persons for companionship.

(2) “Escort bureau” means any business, agency, or person who, for a fee, commission, hire, or profit, furnishes or arranges for persons to accompany other persons for companionship.

(3) “Escort bureau runner” means any person who, for a salary, fee, hire, or profit, acts in the capacity of an agent for an escort bureau by contacting or meeting with escort patrons whether or not said person is employed by such escort bureau or by another business or is self-employed.

(4) “Escort patron” means any person who seeks the services of an escort, escort bureau, or escort bureau runner.

(5) “Licensed premises” means that single, discrete, identifiable location at which a licensed activity is permitted and, in fact, is conducted under the authority of any one license.

(6) “Local licensing authority” means the governing body of a municipality or city and county, the board of county commissioners of a county, or any authority designated by municipal or county charter, municipal resolution or ordinance, or county resolution or ordinance.

(7) “Person” means a natural person, partnership, association, company, corporation, or organization or a managing agent, servant, officer, partner, owner, operator, or employee of any of them.

12-25.5-104. License required. (1) No person shall hold himself out to the public as an escort, or accept compensation as an escort, without having first secured a license therefor from the local licensing authority.

(2) No person shall conduct, manage, or carry on an escort bureau without having first secured a license therefor from the local licensing authority.

(3) No person shall represent himself as an escort bureau runner, or accept compensation as an escort bureau runner, without having first secured a license therefor from the local licensing authority.

(4) Licenses issued under this article shall be valid only within the boundaries of the local licensing authority.

12-25.5-105. Licensing - general provisions. (1) All licenses granted pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of their issuance unless revoked or suspended pursuant to section 12-25.5-108 or 12-25.5-113.

(2) Application for the renewal of an existing license shall be made to the local licensing authority not less than forty-five days prior to the date of expiration. The local licensing authority may cause a hearing on the application for renewal to be held. No such renewal hearing shall be held by the local licensing authority until a notice of hearing has been conspicuously posted on the licensed premises for a period of ten days and notice of the hearing has been provided the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing. The local licensing authority may refuse to renew any license for good cause, subject to judicial review.

(3) Each license issued under this article is separate and distinct, and no person shall exercise any of the privileges granted under any license other than that which he holds. A separate license must be obtained by each person wishing to exercise any of the privileges governed by this article and for each geographical location at or from which any person wishes to conduct business as an escort, escort bureau, or escort bureau runner.

(4) No license granted under the provisions of this article may be transferred or assigned, with or without consideration, without the consent of the local licensing authority. Any attempted transfer or assignment without the consent of the local licensing authority shall render the applicable license void.

(5) No changes of location for licensed premises shall be allowed without the consent of the local licensing authority. Any attempted change of location for licensed premises without the consent of the local licensing authority shall render the applicable license void.

(6) When a license has been issued to a husband and wife, the death of a spouse shall not require the surviving spouse to obtain a new license. All rights and privileges granted under the original license shall continue in full force and effect as to such survivor for the balance of the license.

(7) The licenses provided pursuant to this article shall specify the date of issuance, the period which is covered, the name of the licensee, and the premises licensed. Said license shall be conspicuously displayed at all times in the licensed premises of any person thereby licensed.

12-25.5-106. Application to local licensing authority - minimum qualifications - issuance. (1) Application for a license under the provisions of this article shall be made to the local licensing authority on forms prepared and furnished by the local licensing authority which shall set forth such information as the local licensing authority may require to enable the authority to determine whether a license should be granted. Such information shall include the name and address of the applicant and, if a partnership, also the names and addresses of all the partners and, if a corporation, association, or other organization, also the names and addresses of the president, vice-president, secretary, and managing officer, together with all other information deemed necessary by the local licensing authority. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such persons as the local licensing authority may prescribe. The local licensing authority may require payment of a reasonable processing fee with each application, which fee shall not exceed three hundred dollars for an escort bureau license application and two hundred dollars for an escort license application.

(2) (a) No individual shall be issued a license as an escort or as an escort bureau runner unless he:

(I) Has attained eighteen years of age;

(II) Is a resident of the state of Colorado.

(b) No person shall be issued a license as an escort bureau, and no person other than an individual shall be issued a license as an escort bureau runner unless:

(I) If an individual, he has attained the age of eighteen years; or

(II) If a partnership or limited partnership, all partners have attained the age of eighteen years; or

(III) If a corporation, the directors and all officers thereof have attained the age of eighteen years; and

(IV) If an individual, he is a resident of this state for six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the application with the local licensing authority; or

(V) If a partnership or limited partnership, all of the partners thereof are residents of this state for six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the application with the local licensing authority; or

(VI) If a corporation, the directors and all of the officers thereof are residents of this state for six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the application with the local licensing authority; and

(VII) If a corporation, the corporation is qualified with the secretary of state to do business in this state or is incorporated under the laws of this state.

(3) (a) Before granting or denying any license renewal or new license for which an application has been made, the local licensing authority or one or more of its agents or inspectors may visit and inspect the premises or property in or from which the applicant proposes to conduct his business and investigate the fitness to conduct such business of any person, including all officers and directors of any corporation, applying for a license. In investigating the fitness of any applicant, licensee, or employee or agent of the licensee or applicant, the local licensing authority may have access to criminal history record information furnished by criminal justice agencies subject to any restrictions imposed by such agencies. In the event the local licensing authority takes into consideration information concerning the applicant's or licensee's criminal history record, the local licensing authority shall also consider any information provided by the applicant or licensee regarding such criminal history record, including, but not limited to, evidence of mitigating factors, rehabilitation, character references, and educational achievements, especially those items pertaining to the period of time between the applicant's last criminal conviction and the consideration of his application for a license or license renewal.

(b) As used in this subsection (3), "criminal justice agency" means any federal, state, or municipal court or any governmental agency or subunit of such agency which performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order and which allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.

(4) Every applicant, licensee, or agent or employee of said applicant or licensee, prior to commencing work for, in, or upon the premises of the escort bureau, shall obtain a photographic identity card from the designated law enforcement agency within the licensing jurisdiction in a form prescribed by the local licensing authority and shall carry said identity card at all times while in or upon the licensed premises or while acting as an escort or escort bureau runner.

(5) No escort bureau or escort bureau runner shall employ the services of any person who has not obtained a valid identity card.

12-25.5-107. Refusal of license by local licensing authority. The local licensing authority shall refuse a license if the character of the applicant or any of its officers, directors, or partners is such that violations of this article would be likely to result if a license were granted or if the applicant or any of its officers, directors, or partners has held any license issued pursuant to this article which was suspended or revoked or for which renewal was denied within two years prior to the date of the application being acted upon.

In the event that an otherwise disqualifying refusal, suspension, or revocation is pending judicial review, the local licensing authority shall postpone any action based on the subject matter of the pending review until said review is finally determined.

12-25.5-108. Suspension and revocation. In addition to any other penalties prescribed by this article, the local licensing authority has the power, on its own motion or on complaint, after investigation and public hearing at which the licensee shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard, to suspend or revoke any license issued by such authority for any violation by the licensee or by any of its agents, servants, or employees of the provisions of this article, or of any of the rules or regulations authorized pursuant to this article, or of any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of the license issued by such authority. The local licensing authority has the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and production of papers, books, and records reasonably necessary to the determination of any hearing which the local licensing authority conducts.

12-25.5-109. Persons prohibited as licensees. (1) No license provided by this article shall be issued to or held by:

- (a) Any corporation, any of whose officers, directors, or stockholders holding over ten percent of the issued or outstanding capital stock thereof are not of good moral character;
 - (b) Any partnership, association, or company, any of whose officers, or any of whose members holding more than ten percent interest therein, are not of good moral character;
 - (c) Any person employing, assisted by, or financed in whole or in part by any other person who is not of good moral character;
 - (d) A peace officer or any of the local licensing authority's inspectors or employees;
 - (e) Any person unless he is of good moral character.
- (2) For purposes of determining good moral character, the local licensing authority may consider the criminal record of all applicants, including, but not limited to, any conviction or guilty plea to a charge based on acts of dishonesty, fraud, deceit, sexual misconduct, or prostitution-related misconduct of any kind, whether or not the acts were committed in this state.

12-25.5-110. License fees. (1) The following license fees shall be paid to the local licensing authority annually in advance:

- (a) For the issuance of a new escort bureau license, an amount to be set by the local licensing authority, but in no event to exceed five thousand dollars;
- (b) For each renewal of an escort bureau license, an amount to be set by the local licensing authority, but in no event to exceed five thousand dollars;
- (c) For the issuance of a new escort or escort bureau runner license, an amount to be set by the local licensing authority, but in no event to exceed five hundred dollars;
- (d) For each renewal of an escort or escort bureau runner license, an amount to be set by the local licensing authority, but in no event to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

12-25.5-111. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful for any person:

- (a) To operate an escort bureau without holding a currently valid local license;
- (b) To work as an escort or escort bureau runner without a currently valid local license;
- (c) To work as an escort or escort bureau runner without obtaining and carrying a valid identity card pursuant to section 12-25.5-106 (4);

(d) To allow the provision or procurement of any escort service to or for any person under the age of eighteen years without the written consent of such person's parent or legal guardian;

(e) To permit any person under the age of eighteen years to be employed as an employee in an escort bureau. If any person who, in fact, is not eighteen years of age exhibits a fraudulent proof of age, reasonable reliance on such fraudulent proof of age may constitute an affirmative defense to any action seeking the revocation or suspension of any license issued under this article or to any criminal action arising because a person is not at least eighteen years of age.

12-25.5-112. Duties of escort bureau. (1) Every escort bureau shall refer all prospective escorts or escort bureau runners to the local licensing authority for licensing. Upon termination of employment of any escort or escort bureau runner with such escort bureau, the escort bureau shall notify the local licensing authority of such termination within five days.

(2) The escort bureau shall provide to each escort patron a written contract for services. The contract shall clearly state the name and address of the escort and customer, the type of services to be performed, the length of time such services shall be performed, the total amount of money such services will cost the escort patron, and any special terms or conditions relating to the services to be performed. The contract shall include a statement in clear and concise language that prostitution is illegal in this state and that both parties to an act of prostitution may be punished by both fine and imprisonment and that no act of prostitution shall be performed in relation to the services for which contracted. Each contract shall be numbered and utilized in numerical sequence by the escort bureau. The contract shall be signed by the escort patron and a copy furnished to him. The escort bureau shall also retain copies of all such contracts, and one copy of each such contract executed in any calendar month shall be transmitted by the escort bureau to the local licensing authority no later than ten days after the last day of such month. The local licensing authority shall treat such contracts transmitted to them as open public records.

(3) Each escort bureau shall provide to each employee of the escort bureau a written notice that includes:

(a) A statement that human trafficking and coercion of involuntary servitude are prohibited in this state by the provisions of sections 18-3-501, 18-3-502, and 18-3-503, C.R.S.; and

(b) The name, telephone number, and internet web site address of a local, statewide, or national organization that provides assistance to victims of human trafficking and slavery.

12-25.5-113. Violations and penalty. (1) Any person violating any of the provisions of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars for each offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. In addition to any other penalties, the court trying such offense may decree that any license theretofore issued under the provisions of this article be suspended or revoked and may decree that no such license shall thereafter be issued to any such person for a period not to exceed five years.

(2) The penalties provided in this section shall not be affected by the penalties provided in any other section of this article but shall be construed to be an addition to any other penalties.

(3) Any adult who causes a violation of the provisions of section 12-25.5-111 (1) (d) or (1) (e) may be proceeded against pursuant to section 18-6-701, C.R.S., for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

12-25.5-115. Local government regulation. This article is intended to provide minimum standards for the licensing of escort bureaus, escorts, and escort bureau runners. Nothing in this article shall prohibit a local government from enacting an ordinance providing more stringent standards for such licensing, but such ordinance shall meet the minimum standards established by this article. To the extent that this article directs implementation by local governments, all such implementing actions may be accomplished by resolution or by ordinance; and such implementing action shall be required upon a request to the local governing body for an application for a license to operate within the jurisdiction of said local governing body. Such a request shall not be acted upon until the implementing action by resolution or ordinance has been accomplished.

12-28-101. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Articles pyrotechnic" means pyrotechnic special effects materials and pyrotechnic devices for professional use that are similar to consumer fireworks in chemical composition and construction but are intended for theatrical performances and not intended for consumer use. "Articles pyrotechnic" shall also include pyrotechnic devices meeting the weight limits for consumer fireworks but are not labeled as such and are classified as UN0431 or UN0432 pursuant to 49 CFR 172.101, as amended.

(1.5) "Display fireworks" means large fireworks designed primarily to produce visible or audible effects by combustion, deflagration, or detonation and includes, but is not limited to, salutes containing more than one hundred thirty milligrams of explosive material, aerial shells containing more than forty grams of pyrotechnic compositions, and other display pieces that exceed the limits of explosive materials for classification as consumer fireworks as defined in 16 CFR 1500.1 to 1500.272 and 16 CFR 1507.1 to 1507.12 and are classified as fireworks UN0333, UN0334, or UN0335 pursuant to 49 CFR 172.101, as amended, and including fused set pieces containing components that exceed fifty milligrams of salute powder.

(1.7) "Display retailer" means a person, including a manufacturer, who is licensed as a display retailer under the provisions of section 12-28-104 and who sells, delivers, consigns, gives, or otherwise furnishes display fireworks or articles pyrotechnic to a person authorized by section 12-28-103 to discharge fireworks in Colorado.

(2) "Exporter" means any person, including a manufacturer, licensed as an exporter under the provisions of section 12-28-104 and who sells, delivers, consigns, gives, or otherwise furnishes fireworks for export outside of the state of Colorado.

(3) (a) "Fireworks" means any composition or device designed to produce a visible or audible effect by combustion, deflagration, or detonation, and that meets the definition of articles pyrotechnic, permissible fireworks, or display fireworks.

(b) "Fireworks" does not include:

(I) Toy caps, party poppers, and items similar to toy caps and party poppers that do not contain more than sixteen milligrams of pyrotechnic composition per item and snappers that do not contain more than one milligram of explosive composition per item;

(II) Highway flares, railroad fusees, ship distress signals, smoke candles, and other emergency signal devices;

(III) Educational rockets and toy propellant device type engines used in such rockets when such rockets are of nonmetallic construction and utilize replaceable engines or model cartridges containing less than two ounces of propellant and when such engines or model cartridges are designed to be ignited by electrical means;

(IV) Fireworks which are used in testing or research by a licensed explosives laboratory.

(3.5) "Fireworks display operator" includes an individual who, by experience and training, has demonstrated the required skill and ability to safely set up and discharge display fireworks.

(4) "Fund" means the fireworks licensing cash fund created in section 12-28-104 (6) (b).

(5) "Governing body" means:

(a) The city council, town council, board of trustees, or other governing body of any city or town, as to the area within the corporate limits of such city or town;

(b) The board of directors of any fire protection district organized pursuant to part 1 of article 1 of title 32, C.R.S., as to the area within the boundaries of such fire protection district; and

(c) The board of county commissioners as to the area within a county outside the corporate limits of any city or town or the boundaries of any fire protection district.

(6) "Local authority" means the duly authorized fire department, police department, or sheriff's department of a local jurisdiction.

(7) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures, makes, constructs, or produces fireworks.

(8) (a) "Permissible fireworks" means the following small fireworks devices designed to produce audible or visual effects by combustion, complying with the requirements of the United States consumer product safety commission as set forth in 16 CFR 1500.1 to 1500.272 and 1507.1 to 1507.12, and classified as consumer fireworks UN0336 and UN0337 pursuant to 49 CFR 172.101:

(I) Cylindrical fountains, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed seventy-five grams each for a single tube or, when more than one tube is mounted on a common base, a total pyrotechnic composition of no more than two hundred grams;

(II) Cone fountains, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed fifty grams each for a single cone or, when more than one cone is mounted on a common base, a total pyrotechnic composition of no more than two hundred grams;

(III) Wheels, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed sixty grams for each driver unit or two hundred grams for each complete wheel;

(IV) Ground spinner, a small device containing not more than twenty grams of pyrotechnic composition venting out of an orifice usually in the side of the tube, similar in operation to a wheel, but intended to be placed flat on the ground;

(V) Illuminating torches and colored fire in any form, total pyrotechnic composition not to exceed two hundred grams each;

(VI) Dipped sticks and sparklers, the total pyrotechnic composition of which does not exceed one hundred grams, of which the composition of any chlorate or perchlorate shall not exceed five grams;

(VII) Any of the following that do not contain more than fifty milligrams of explosive composition:

(A) Explosive auto alarms;

(B) Toy propellant devices;

(C) Cigarette loads;

- (D) Strike-on-box matches; or
- (E) Other trick noise makers;
- (VIII) Snake or glow worm pressed pellets of not more than two grams of pyrotechnic composition and packaged in retail packages of not more than twenty-five units;
- (IX) Fireworks that are used exclusively for testing or research by a licensed explosives laboratory;
- (X) Multiple tube devices with:
 - (A) Each tube individually attached to a wood or plastic base;
 - (B) The tubes separated from each other on the base by a distance of at least one-half of one inch;
 - (C) The effect limited to a shower of sparks to a height of no more than fifteen feet above the ground;
 - (D) Only one external fuse that causes all of the tubes to function in sequence; and
 - (E) A total pyrotechnic composition of no more than five hundred grams.
- (b) "Permissible fireworks" do not include aerial devices or audible ground devices, including, but not limited to, firecrackers.
- (9) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, firm, company, association, corporation, or governmental entity.
- (9.5) "Pyrotechnic operator" includes an individual who, by experience and training, has demonstrated the required skill and ability to safely set up and discharge articles of pyrotechnics.
- (10) "Retailer" means any person who sells, delivers, consigns, or furnishes permissible fireworks to another person not for resale.
- (11) "Storage" means the possession of fireworks for safe custody, where the safe-keeping is the principal object of deposit, and not the consumption or sale.
- (12) "Wholesaler" means any person, including a manufacturer, who is licensed as a wholesaler under section 12-28-104 and who sells, delivers, consigns, gives, or otherwise furnishes permissible fireworks to a retailer for resale in Colorado.

ANNOTATION

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Fireworks Defined.
- III. Items Excluded as Fireworks.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For article, "A Review of the 1959 Constitutional and Administrative Law Decisions", see 37 Dicta 81 (1960).

The subject is a valid one for legislative action under the police power. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

Therefore, this statute prohibiting the use or sale of fireworks is constitutional and valid. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

This statute is not so vague, indefinite, uncertain and ambiguous as to render it void and unenforceable, thus subjecting violators to deprivation of life, liberty and property without due process of law by reason of its failure to specify with more particularity the forbidden areas. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

Colorado by statute has made illegal the sale of fireworks and therein enumerated the broad categories of prohibited items. Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

Because the discernible legislative intent is the protection of life and property from the injury and damage resulting from indiscriminate firing and exploding of fireworks, and the protection as well of the ear drums and nervous systems of the citizenry of Colorado. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

II. FIREWORKS DEFINED.

The selection and use by the general assembly of the term "fireworks" was proper since it has a common and well understood meaning. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959); Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

It calls to mind the many products and devices prepared for display or celebration purposes and which explode, or burn and explode, and traditionally are used in the celebration of Independence Day or other holidays. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959); Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

Fireworks is a device for producing a striking display, as of light, noise, or smoke, by the combustion of explosive or inflammable composition. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

Fireworks include items which produce a visual or auditory sensation by combustion or explosion. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary defines fireworks as devices for producing a striking display, as of light, noise, or smoke, by the combustion of explosive or inflammable composition. This definition is not unlike the legal one which has been adopted by the general assembly. Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

Both are inclusive of items which produce a visual or auditory sensation by combustion or explosion. Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

The list of examples contained in this section is by way of illustration and not of limitation and is not to be given a strained construction. Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959); People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

The failure of this section to include firearms, ammunition and dynamite does not render the section vague or unreasonable and therefore invalid, since such items are not commonly used for celebration or amusement purposes. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

The general assembly is not required to legislate completely and exhaustively in the entire field. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

Toy cannons clearly come within the statutory definition of fireworks, and the prohibition of their sale is directly related to the promotion of the health, safety, and general welfare of the public. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

It is a matter of common knowledge that the keeping and storage of gunpowder in a building increases the risk of fire, and if so kept in violation of law and in violation of the terms of an insurance policy, the insurer is not liable under a contract of insurance. Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

Where a fire insurance policy provides that coverage thereunder would not be had if loss resulted from illegal trade, and loss resulted from a display of prohibited fireworks, a conclusion of a trial court that the legality or illegality of such display is immaterial and irrelevant is erroneous. Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

III. ITEMS EXCLUDED AS FIREWORKS.

There is a reasonable and proper delineation between harmful and nonharmful fireworks. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

In adopting a statute prohibiting the sale of fireworks it is proper for the general assembly to exclude from the category of prohibited items such devices as it deemed not to be dangerous. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

This classification is not ambiguous or indefinite. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

Each item so excluded has a specific and well understood meaning in common usage and no ordinary person could be misled concerning the import of toy pistols, toy guns, sparklers, etc., People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

The list of excluded items are not set forth in this section as examples of a broad class. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959); Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

This is a list of items which would normally be embraced within the definition of fireworks. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

The assembly has declared that they are not to be included, and in view of the fact that these sparklers, torches, etc., are listed as exceptions, the list must be construed strictly and cannot be enlarged by construction. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959); Standard Marine Ins. Co. v. Peck, 140 Colo. 56, 342 P.2d 661 (1959).

12-28-102. Unlawful use or sale of fireworks - exceptions. (1) Except as provided for in subsection (6) of this section, it shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly furnish to any person who is under sixteen years of age, by gift, sale, or any other means, any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 12-28-101 (8).

(2) Except as provided for in subsection (6) of this section, it shall be unlawful for any person who is under sixteen years of age to purchase any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 12-28-101 (8).

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any statutory or home-rule municipality from enacting any ordinance which prohibits a person under sixteen years of age from purchasing any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 12-28-101 (8).

(4) Any person who sells or offers to sell any fireworks, including those defined as permissible fireworks in section 12-28-101 (8), shall display a warning sign, as specified in this subsection (4). Said warning sign shall be displayed in a prominent place on the premises at all times, shall have a minimum height of eight and one-half inches and a minimum width of eleven inches, and shall read as follows:

WARNING

IT IS ILLEGAL FOR ANY PERSON UNDER SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE TO PURCHASE ANY FIREWORKS. VIOLATORS MAY BE PUNISHED BY A FINE OF UP TO $750.00, BY IMPRISONMENT FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, OR BY BOTH SUCH FINE AND IMPRISONMENT.

(5) Except as provided in this section and in section 12-28-103, it shall be unlawful for any person to possess or discharge any fireworks, other than permissible fireworks, anywhere in this state.

(6) At all times that it is lawful for any person over the age of sixteen years to possess and discharge permissible fireworks, it shall also be lawful for a person under the age of sixteen years to possess and discharge permissible fireworks, if such person is under adult supervision.

(7) (a) Except as provided in this section, it shall be unlawful for any person who is not licensed as a retailer under this article, in retail transactions with the public, to offer for sale, expose for sale, sell, or have in such person's possession with the intent to offer for sale any permissible fireworks.

(8) (a) Except as provided in this section, it shall be unlawful for any person who is not licensed as a display retailer, wholesaler, or exporter under this article, in transactions other than retail transactions with the public, to offer for sale, expose for sale, sell, or have in such person's possession with the intent to offer for sale any fireworks including permissible fireworks.

(9) Nothing in this article shall prevent or regulate:

(a) The use of fireworks by railroads or other transportation agencies for signal purposes or illumination;

(b) The sale or use of blank cartridges for a show or theater, for signal or ceremonial purposes in athletics or sports, or for use by military organizations;

(c) The sale, purchase, possession, or use of fireworks distributed by the division of parks and wildlife for agricultural purposes under conditions approved by the division; or

(d) The sale, delivery, consignment, gift, or furnishing of fireworks among display retailers, wholesalers, or exporters licensed under this article.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-28-102 as it existed prior to 1991.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "A Review of the 1959 Constitutional and Administrative Law Decisions", see 37 Dicta 81 (1960).

It is the legislative intent that the explosion of fireworks should be proscribed as a danger to health and safety and as a nuisance resulting from the unreasonable audible effect. People v. Young, 139 Colo. 357, 339 P.2d 672 (1959).

The definition of "use" as shown generally in recognized dictionaries fails to include any reference which, by the use of the most liberal rules of construction, would encompass a gift or the act of giving. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

The giving of or a gift from one to another is not one of the prohibited acts under this section. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

A violation of any of the provisions of the fireworks statute is a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine, or imprisonment, or both. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

It is axiomatic that a criminal or penal statute be strictly construed in favor of the one against whom it is sought to be enforced. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

The fact that negligence per se or statutory negligence is involved in a case rather than criminal responsibility makes no difference in construing a criminal or penal statute. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

Where negligence per se or statutory negligence is an issue, a penal statute has no different meaning and is not subject to a liberal construction as opposed to the meaning it must be given in a criminal case where the rule of strict construction is applicable. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

To hold this section applicable to minors who have not reached the age of understanding or to those mentally unable to comprehend its requirements is carrying the law of negligence to a point which is unreasonable and is establishing a doctrine abhorrent to all principles of equity and justice. Calkins v. Albi, 163 Colo. 370, 431 P.2d 17 (1967).

12-28-103. Permits - exceptions to permit requirements. (1) Any governing body has the power to grant nontransferable and nonassignable permits within the area under its jurisdiction for the storage of fireworks or for the facilities used for the retail sales of fireworks, including permissible fireworks, by any person and to adopt reasonable rules for the granting of such permits. The fee for a permit issued pursuant to this subsection (1) shall be limited to what is reasonable and necessary to cover the direct and indirect costs associated with the granting and enforcement of such permits.

(2) Any governing body has the power to grant nontransferable and nonassignable permits within the area under its jurisdiction for displays of fireworks or pyrotechnic special effects performances by any person, fair association, amusement park, or other organizations or groups and to adopt reasonable rules for the granting of such permits.

(3) No permit shall be required for the display of fireworks at the state fair grounds by the board of commissioners of the Colorado state fair authority, at any duly authorized county or district fair, or at any display by any governing body or local authority.

(4) The discharge of fireworks pursuant to a permit provided for in subsection (2) of this section, or as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall be lawful in Colorado, if the display or pyrotechnic special effects performance is performed in accordance with the requirements of the national fire protection association as stated in NFPA-1123, code for the outdoor display of fireworks or NFPA-1126, standard for the use of pyrotechnics before a proximate audience.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 12-28-103 and 12-28-105 as they existed prior to 1991.

ANNOTATION

No federal preemption. Subsection (1)(c), which effectively precludes the sale of fireworks to persons in cars bearing Colorado license plates, is not preempted by federal statutes or regulations. Colo. Pyrotechnic Assn. v. Meyer, 740 F. Supp. 792 (D. Colo. 1990) (decided prior to 1991 repeal and reenactment.)

Section does not preempt the authority of "governing bodies", other than municipalities, to restrict or prohibit the use of fireworks within their jurisdictions. Starr Fireworks, Inc. v. W. Adams County Fire Dept., 903 P.2d 1202 (Colo. App. 1995).

12-28-104. Licensing - application - fee - fireworks licensing cash fund - creation. (1) No person shall sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or possess with intent to sell permissible fireworks for retail until that person first obtains a retailer of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control within the department of public safety and the permit, if any, required by section 12-28-103 (1). Such retailer's license is valid only for the calendar year in which it is issued, applies to only one retail location, and shall at all times be displayed at the place of business of such licensed retailer.

(2) No person shall sell, deliver, consign, give, or furnish fireworks to a person authorized by section 12-28-103 to discharge fireworks in Colorado until that person first obtains a display retailer of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control and the permit, if any, required by section 12-28-103 (1).

(3) No person shall sell, deliver, consign, give, or furnish permissible fireworks to a retailer for resale in Colorado until that person first obtains a wholesaler of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control and the permit, if any, required by section 12-28-103 (1).

(4) No person shall sell, deliver, consign, give, or furnish fireworks for export outside of Colorado until that person first obtains an exporter of fireworks license from the director of the division of fire prevention and control and the permit, if any, required by section 12-28-103 (1).

(5) Applications for each display, retail, wholesale, and export license shall be filed with the director of the division of fire prevention and control at least thirty days before the start of activities for which the license is required. Each such license is valid through September 1 of the year following the date on which the license was issued.

(6) (a) The director of the division of fire prevention and control shall collect all fees pursuant to this article.

(b) All moneys received by the director pursuant to the administration of this article and all interest earned on the moneys shall be deposited in the state treasury in the fireworks licensing cash fund, which fund is hereby created, and the moneys shall be used, subject to annual appropriations by the general assembly, for the purposes set forth in this article, and shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of the state of Colorado or any other fund.

(c) (I) The executive director of the department of public safety shall set reasonable fees pursuant to this article at such rates as are necessary to provide for the actual direct and indirect costs and expenses of the department of public safety in the administration of this article; except that the fee for a:

(A) Retailer of fireworks license shall not exceed fifty dollars;

(B) Display retailer of fireworks license, a wholesaler of fireworks license, or an exporter of fireworks license shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(II) Such rates shall be reviewed annually by the executive director of the department of public safety.

(7) The executive director of the department of public safety shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this article. Such rules may include requirements for the certification of fireworks display operators and pyrotechnic operators, and any other requirements that are reasonably necessary for the safety of workers and the public and the protection of property. The procedure for the promulgation of such rules shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-103, C.R.S.

(8) Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of the director of the department of public safety may seek judicial review pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(10) This section shall take effect July 15, 1991.

12-28-105. Importation of fireworks - duties of licensees - retention of invoices for inspection. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person not licensed as a display retailer, wholesaler, or exporter under the provisions of section 12-28-104 to bring any fireworks including permissible fireworks into this state. Retail purchasers shall not purchase fireworks by mail order or receive any fireworks in Colorado by mail, parcel service, or other carrier. All fireworks sales and deliveries to retail purchasers in Colorado shall be made in Colorado and shall be conducted only by persons licensed pursuant to this article.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any retailer to sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or possess with intent to sell any permissible fireworks in this state which have not been purchased from a wholesaler licensed under the provisions of section 12-28-104.

(3) It shall be unlawful for a person to conduct any fireworks display or pyrotechnic special effects performance using fireworks that have not been purchased from a display retailer licensed under the provisions of section 12-28-104.

(4) Any retailer licensed under the provisions of section 12-28-104 (1), and any person who discharges fireworks pursuant to section 12-28-103 (2) or (3), shall keep available, for inspection by local authorities, a copy of each invoice for fireworks purchased as long as any fireworks included on such invoice are held in such person's possession. Such invoice shall show the license number of the wholesaler or display retailer from whom such fireworks were purchased.

12-28-106. Exportation of fireworks. (1) It shall be unlawful to export fireworks, other than permissible fireworks, from the state of Colorado, unless such fireworks are transported in accordance with the regulations of the United States department of transportation regulating the transportation of explosives, fireworks, and other dangerous articles by motor, rail, air, and water and the exporter obtains a signed bill of lading from each person transporting such fireworks, which shall show the quantity and types of fireworks transported and the recipient's full legal name and address.

(2) The exporter may transport such fireworks by common carrier or by the exporter's vehicle; except that the sale of such fireworks for transport in the purchaser's vehicle is unlawful unless:

(a) The exporter requires the purchaser to display a valid motor vehicle driver's license issued by a state other than the state of Colorado and records the number and state of issue of such driver's license on the bill of lading pertaining to such sale, and further requires the purchaser to display a valid motor vehicle registration showing that the purchaser owns a motor vehicle licensed in a state other than the state of Colorado, which license plate number and state of issue shall be recorded on the bill of lading pertaining to such sale; or

(b) The exporter requires the purchaser to display a valid motor vehicle driver's license issued by the state of Colorado and records the number and state of issue of such driver's license on the bill of lading pertaining to such sale, and further requires the purchaser to furnish a valid wholesale or retail license number or resale license number issued by the governing body of a state or local authority located outside of the state of Colorado, which number and state of issue shall be recorded on the bill of lading pertaining to such sale.

(3) The bills of lading required by this section shall be retained by the exporter for a period of three years from the date of such sale.

Professional Review Proceedings

12-29.1-101.	Legislative declaration.	12-29.1-102.	Solicitation of accident victims - waiting period.

12-29.1-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the proper practice of the healing arts professions requires the supervision and discipline of licensed practitioners for the benefit of the public, and, to this end, the licensing boards and their duly constituted professional review committees shall have the power, duty, and responsibility to conduct proceedings to determine facts so that the boards may invoke discipline fairly and progressively where required, and that such proceedings shall accommodate the requirements of full professional and technical disclosure, as well as due process of law for the licensee under investigation.

12-29.1-102. Solicitation of accident victims - waiting period. (1) Except as permitted by subsection (2) of this section, no health care practitioner licensed under articles 29.5 to 43 of this title or his or her agent shall engage in solicitation for professional employment concerning a personal injury unless the incident for which employment is sought occurred more than thirty days prior to the solicitation.

(2) This section shall not apply to any person providing emergency health care at the time of the incident or follow-up referrals to physicians from the emergency health care providers.

(3) As used in this section, “solicitation” means an initial contact initiated in person, through any form of electronic or written communication, or by telephone, telegraph, or facsimile, any of which is directed to a specific individual, unless said contact is requested by the individual, a member of the individual’s family, or the individual’s authorized representative. “Solicitation” does not include radio, television, newspaper, or yellow pages advertisements.

(4) Any agreement made in violation of this section is voidable at the option of the individual suffering the personal injury or the individual’s authorized representative.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1006, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-102. Definitions. In this article:

(1) “Disaster management agency” means the department of public health and environment.

(2) “Disaster relief organization” means an entity that provides emergency or disaster relief services that include health or veterinary services provided by volunteer health practitioners and that:

(A) Is designated or recognized as a provider of those services pursuant to a disaster response and recovery plan adopted by an agency of the federal government or the disaster management agency; or

(B) Regularly plans and conducts its activities in coordination with an agency of the federal government or the disaster management agency.

(3) "Emergency" means an event or condition that is an emergency, disaster, incident of bioterrorism, emergency epidemic, pandemic influenza, or other public health emergency under section 24-32-2104, C.R.S.

(4) "Emergency declaration" means a declaration of emergency issued by the governor pursuant to section 24-32-2104, C.R.S.

(5) "Emergency management assistance compact" means the interstate compact approved by congress by Pub.L. 104-321, 110 Stat. 3877, part 29 of article 60 of title 24, C.R.S.

(6) "Entity" means a person other than an individual.

(7) "Health facility" means an entity licensed under the laws of this or another state to provide health or veterinary services.

(8) "Health practitioner" means an individual licensed under the laws of this or another state to provide health or veterinary services.

(9) "Health services" means the provision of treatment, care, advice or guidance, or other services, or supplies, related to the health or death of individuals or human populations, to the extent necessary to respond to an emergency, including:

(A) The following, concerning the physical or mental condition or functional status of an individual or affecting the structure or function of the body:

(i) Preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative, maintenance, or palliative care; and

(ii) Counseling, assessment, procedures, or other services;

(B) Sale or dispensing of a drug, a device, equipment, or another item to an individual in accordance with a prescription; and

(C) Funeral, cremation, cemetery, or other mortuary services.

(10) "Host entity" means an entity operating in this state which uses volunteer health practitioners to respond to an emergency.

(11) "License" means authorization by a state to engage in health or veterinary services that are unlawful without the authorization. The term includes authorization under the laws of this state to an individual to provide health or veterinary services based upon a national certification issued by a public or private entity.

(12) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(13) "Scope of practice" means the extent of the authorization to provide health or veterinary services granted to a health practitioner by a license issued to the practitioner in the state in which the principal part of the practitioner's services are rendered, including any conditions imposed by the licensing authority.

(14) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(15) "Veterinary services" means the provision of treatment, care, advice or guidance, or other services, or supplies, related to the health or death of an animal or to animal populations, to the extent necessary to respond to an emergency, including:

(A) Diagnosis, treatment, or prevention of an animal disease, injury, or other physical or mental condition by the prescription, administration, or dispensing of vaccine, medicine, surgery, or therapy;

(B) Use of a procedure for reproductive management; and

(C) Monitoring and treatment of animal populations for diseases that have spread or demonstrate the potential to spread to humans.

(16) "Volunteer health practitioner" means a health practitioner who provides health or veterinary services, whether or not the practitioner receives compensation for those services. The term does not include a practitioner who receives compensation pursuant to a preexisting employment relationship with a host entity or affiliate which requires the practitioner to provide health services in this state, unless the practitioner is not a resident of this state and is employed by a disaster relief organization providing services in this state while an emergency declaration is in effect.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1006, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-103. Applicability to volunteer health practitioners. This article applies to volunteer health practitioners registered with a registration system that complies with section 12-29.3-105 and who provide health or veterinary services in this state for a host entity while an emergency declaration is in effect.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1008, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-104. Regulation of services during emergency. (a) While an emergency declaration is in effect, the disaster management agency, in consultation with the department of agriculture with regard to veterinary services, may limit, restrict, or otherwise regulate:

- (1) The duration of practice by volunteer health practitioners;
- (2) The geographical areas in which volunteer health practitioners may practice;
- (3) The types of volunteer health practitioners who may practice; and
- (4) Any other matters necessary to coordinate effectively the provision of health or veterinary services during the emergency.

(b) An order issued pursuant to subsection (a) of this section may take effect immediately, without prior notice or comment, and is not a rule within the meaning of the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(c) A host entity that uses volunteer health practitioners to provide health or veterinary services in this state shall:

(1) Consult and coordinate its activities with the disaster management agency and, with regard to veterinary services, the department of agriculture, to the extent practicable to provide for the efficient and effective use of volunteer health practitioners; and

(2) Comply with any laws other than this article relating to the management of emergency health or veterinary services, including articles 29.1 to 43 of this title.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1008, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-105. Volunteer health practitioner registration systems. (a) To qualify as a volunteer health practitioner registration system, a system must:

(1) Accept applications for the registration of volunteer health practitioners before or during an emergency;

(2) Include information about the licensure and good standing of health practitioners which is accessible by authorized persons;

(3) Be capable of confirming the accuracy of information concerning whether a health practitioner is licensed and in good standing before health services or veterinary services are provided under this article; and

(4) Meet one of the following conditions:

(A) Be an emergency system for advance registration of volunteer health-care practitioners established by a state and funded through the health resources services administration under section 319I of the "Public Health Service Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 247d-7b, as amended;

(B) Be a local unit consisting of trained and equipped emergency response, public health, and medical personnel formed pursuant to section 2801 of the "Public Health Service Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 300hh, as amended;

(C) Be operated by a:

(i) Disaster relief organization;

(ii) Licensing board;

(iii) National or regional association of licensing boards or health practitioners;

(iv) Health facility that provides comprehensive inpatient and outpatient health-care services, including a tertiary care and teaching hospital; or

(v) Governmental entity; or

(D) Be designated by the disaster management agency as a registration system for purposes of this article.

(b) While an emergency declaration is in effect, the disaster management agency, a person authorized to act on behalf of the disaster management agency, or a host entity, may confirm whether volunteer health practitioners utilized in this state are registered with a registration system that complies with subsection (a) of this section. Confirmation is limited to obtaining identities of the practitioners from the system and determining whether the system indicates that the practitioners are licensed and in good standing.

(c) Upon request of a person in this state authorized under subsection (b) of this section, or a similarly authorized person in another state, a registration system located in this state shall notify the person of the identities of volunteer health practitioners and whether the practitioners are licensed and in good standing.

(d) A host entity is not required to use the services of a volunteer health practitioner even if the practitioner is registered with a registration system that indicates that the practitioner is licensed and in good standing.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1009, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-106. Recognition of volunteer health practitioners licensed in other states.

(a) While an emergency declaration is in effect, a volunteer health practitioner, registered with a registration system that complies with section 12-29.3-105 and licensed and in good standing in the state upon which the practitioner's registration is based, may practice in this state to the extent authorized by this article as if the practitioner were licensed in this state.

(b) A volunteer health practitioner qualified under subsection (a) of this section is not entitled to the protections of this article if the practitioner is licensed in more than one state and any license of the practitioner is suspended, revoked, or subject to an agency order limiting or restricting practice privileges, or has been voluntarily terminated under threat of sanction.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1010, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-107. No effect on credentialing and privileging. (a) In this section:

(1) "Credentialing" means obtaining, verifying, and assessing the qualifications of a health practitioner to provide treatment, care, or services in or for a health facility.

(2) "Privileging" means the authorizing by an appropriate authority, such as a governing body, of a health practitioner to provide specific treatment, care, or services at a health facility subject to limits based on factors that include licensure, education, training, experience, competence, health status, and specialized skill.

(b) This article does not affect credentialing or privileging standards of a health facility and does not preclude a health facility from waiving or modifying those standards while an emergency declaration is in effect.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article added, p. 1011, § 1, effective May 22.

12-29.3-108. Provision of volunteer health or veterinary services - administrative sanctions. (a) Subject to subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a volunteer health practitioner shall adhere to the scope of practice for a similarly licensed practitioner established by the licensing provisions, practice acts, or other laws of this state.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, this article does not authorize a volunteer health practitioner to provide services that are outside the practitioner's scope of practice, even if a similarly licensed practitioner in this state would be permitted to provide the services.

(c) The disaster management agency may modify or restrict the health or veterinary services that volunteer health practitioners may provide pursuant to this article, and, with regard to emergencies that require only veterinary services, the department of agriculture may modify or restrict the veterinary services that volunteer health practitioners may provide pursuant to this article. An order under this subsection (c) may take effect immediately, without prior notice or comment, and is not a rule within the meaning of the “State Administrative Procedure Act”, article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(d) A host entity may restrict the health or veterinary services that a volunteer health practitioner may provide pursuant to this article.

(e) A volunteer health practitioner does not engage in unauthorized practice unless the practitioner has reason to know of any limitation, modification, or restriction under this section or that a similarly licensed practitioner in this state would not be permitted to provide the services. A volunteer health practitioner has reason to know of a limitation, modification, or restriction or that a similarly licensed practitioner in this state would not be permitted to provide a service if:

(1) The practitioner knows the limitation, modification, or restriction exists or that a similarly licensed practitioner in this state would not be permitted to provide the service; or

(2) From all the facts and circumstances known to the practitioner at the relevant time, a reasonable person would conclude that the limitation, modification, or restriction exists or that a similarly licensed practitioner in this state would not be permitted to provide the service.

(f) In addition to the authority granted by law of this state other than this article to regulate the conduct of health practitioners, a licensing board or other disciplinary authority in this state:

(1) May impose administrative sanctions upon a health practitioner licensed in this state for conduct outside of this state in response to an out-of-state emergency;

(2) May impose administrative sanctions upon a practitioner not licensed in this state for conduct in this state in response to an in-state emergency; and

(3) Shall report any administrative sanctions imposed upon a practitioner licensed in another state to the appropriate licensing board or other disciplinary authority in any other state in which the practitioner is known to be licensed.

(g) In determining whether to impose administrative sanctions under subsection (f) of this section, a licensing board or other disciplinary authority shall consider the circumstances in which the conduct took place, including any exigent circumstances, and the practitioner’s scope of practice, education, training, experience, and specialized skill.

12-29.3-109. Relation to other laws. (a) This article does not limit rights, privileges, or immunities provided to volunteer health practitioners by laws other than this article. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, this article does not affect requirements for the use of health practitioners pursuant to the emergency management assistance compact.

(b) The office of emergency management created in section 24-33.5-705, C.R.S., pursuant to the emergency management assistance compact, may incorporate into the emergency forces of this state volunteer health practitioners who are not officers or employees of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or a municipality or other local government within this state.

12-29.5-101. Legislative declaration. While recognizing that the rendering of acupuncture services is not part of the traditional practice of western medicine, it is the intent of the general assembly that those citizens who wish to obtain acupuncture services be allowed to do so and, in addition, that such citizens have available certain information to assist them in making informed choices when seeking such services. It is also the intent of the general assembly that the providers or practitioners of acupuncture should not misrepresent their qualifications, harm their clients, practice in an unhealthy manner, or otherwise deceive insurers or the recipients of acupuncture services.

12-29.5-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
(1) “Acupuncture” means a system of health care based upon traditional oriental medical concepts that employs oriental methods of diagnosis, treatment, and adjunctive therapies for the promotion, maintenance, and restoration of health and the prevention of disease.

(2) "Acupuncturist" means any person who provides for compensation, or holds himself out to the public as providing, acupuncture services.

(3) "Director" means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(3.2) "Guest acupuncturist" means an acupuncturist who is:

(a) Licensed, registered, certified, or regulated as an acupuncturist in another jurisdiction;

(b) In this state for the purpose of instruction or education for not more than seven days within a three-month period; and

(c) Under the direct supervision of a Colorado licensed acupuncturist or licensed chiropractor while performing such instruction or education.

(3.3) "Licensee" means an acupuncturist licensed pursuant to section 12-29.5-104.

(3.5) "Practice of acupuncture" means the insertion and removal of acupuncture needles, the application of heat therapies to specific areas of the human body, and traditional oriental adjunctive therapies. Traditional oriental adjunctive therapies within the scope of acupuncture may include manual, mechanical, thermal, electrical, and electromagnetic treatment, the recommendation of oriental therapeutic exercises, and, subject to federal law, the recommendation of herbs and dietary guidelines. The "practice of acupuncture" shall be defined by traditional oriental medical concepts and shall not include the utilization of western medical diagnostic tests and procedures, such as magnetic resonance imaging, radiographs (X rays), computerized tomography scans, and ultrasound. "Practice of acupuncture" does not mean:

(a) Osteopathic medicine and osteopathic manipulative treatment;

(b) "Chiropractic" or "chiropractic adjustment" as defined in section 12-33-102 or therapies allowed as part of the practice of chiropractic or chiropractic adjustment;

(c) Physical therapy as defined in section 12-41-103 or therapies allowed as part of the practice of physical therapy.

12-29.5-103. Mandatory disclosure of information to patients - retention of records of disclosure. (1) Every acupuncturist shall provide the following information in writing to each patient during the initial patient contact:

(a) The name, business address, and business phone number of the acupuncturist;

(b) A fee schedule;

(c) A statement indicating that:

(I) The patient is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, and the duration of therapy, if known;

(II) The patient may seek a second opinion from another health care professional or may terminate therapy at any time;

(III) In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies;

(d) A listing of the acupuncturist's education, experience, degrees, membership in a professional organization whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed pursuant to this article, certificates or credentials related to acupuncture awarded by such organizations, the length of time required to obtain said degrees or credentials, and experience;

(e) A statement indicating any license, certificate, or registration in acupuncture or any other health care profession which was issued to the acupuncturist by any local, state, or national health care agency, and indicating whether any such license, certificate, or registration was suspended or revoked;

(f) A statement that the acupuncturist is complying with any rules and regulations promulgated by the department of public health and environment with respect to this article, including those related to the proper cleaning and sterilization of needles used in the practice of acupuncture and the sanitation of acupuncture offices;

(g) A statement indicating that the practice of acupuncture is regulated by the department of regulatory agencies and the address and phone number of the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies; and

(h) A statement indicating the acupuncturist's training and experience in the recommendation and application of adjunctive therapies and herbs as defined by traditional oriental medical concepts.

(2) Any changes in the information required by paragraphs (a) to (f) of subsection (1) of this section shall be made in the mandatory disclosure within five days of the said change.

(3) The acupuncturist shall retain a copy of the written information specified in subsection (1) of this section, dated and signed by the patient, from the time of the initial evaluation until at least three years after the termination of treatment.

12-29.5-104. Requirement for licensure with the division of registrations - annual fee - required disclosures. (1) Every acupuncturist shall apply for licensure with the division of professions and occupations by providing an application to the director in the form the director shall require. Said application shall include the information specified in section 12-29.5-103 (1) (a) and (1) (d) to (1) (g), and shall include the disclosure of any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action against a licensed acupuncturist under this article.

(2) Any changes in the information required by subsection (1) of this section shall be reported within thirty days of said change to the division of professions and occupations in the manner prescribed by the director.

(3) In order to qualify for licensure, an acupuncturist shall have:

(a) Successfully completed an education program for acupuncturists that conforms to standards approved by the director, which standards may be established by utilizing the assistance of any professional organization whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed pursuant to this article; or

(b) Qualifications based on education, experience, or training which are substantially similar to those provided by paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) which are documented in the form required by the director and accepted by him in lieu of such education program.

(4) Every applicant for licensure shall pay license, renewal, and reinstatement fees to be established by the director in the same manner as is authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S. All licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(5) Every acupuncturist shall report to the director every judgment or administrative action, as well as the terms of any settlement or other disposition of any such judgment or action, against the acupuncturist involving malpractice or improper practice of acupuncture, whether occurring in Colorado or in any other jurisdiction. The acupuncturist shall make such report either within thirty days after the judgment or action or upon application for licensure or reinstatement, whichever occurs earlier.

(6) As a condition of licensure, every acupuncturist shall purchase and maintain commercial professional liability insurance with an insurance company authorized to do business in this state in a minimum indemnity amount of:

(a) Fifty thousand dollars per incident and fifty thousand dollars per year, if practicing as a sole proprietor or general partnership;

(b) Three hundred thousand dollars per incident and three hundred thousand dollars per year, if practicing as a limited liability company or a corporation.

(7) The director shall issue a license to practice acupuncture to any acupuncturist who is registered to practice acupuncture in this state prior to March 13, 2002.

12-29.5-104.5. Licensure by endorsement. (1) The director shall issue a license by endorsement to engage in the practice of acupuncture in this state to any applicant who has a license in good standing as an acupuncturist under the laws of another jurisdiction if the applicant presents satisfactory proof to the director that, at the time of application for a license by endorsement, the applicant possesses substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications to those required for licensure pursuant to this article.

(2) The director shall specify by rule what shall constitute “substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications” for the purposes of this section.

(3) The director shall establish a fee to be paid by any applicant for licensure by endorsement.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “in good standing” means a license that has not been revoked or suspended, or against which there are no disciplinary or adverse actions.

Source: L. 2002: Entire section added, p. 35, § 4, effective March 13.

12-29.5-105. Unlawful acts - exceptions. (1) Nothing in this article shall interfere with, or be interpreted to interfere with or prevent, any other licensed health care professional from practicing within the scope of his or her practice, as defined in this title.

(1.5) (a) It is unlawful for any person to practice acupuncture without a valid and current license on file with the division of professions and occupations, unless the acupuncturist is practicing pursuant to section 12-36-106 (3) (I) or has met the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to:

(I) Engage in the practice of acupuncture without being licensed; or

(II) Use the title “licensed acupuncturist”, “registered acupuncturist”, or “diplomat of acupuncture”, or use the designation “L.Ac.”, “R.Ac.”, or “Dipl. Ac.”, unless such person is practicing pursuant to section 12-36-106 (3).

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section to the contrary, a person in training may practice acupuncture without a valid and current license on file with the division if such practice takes place in the course of a bona fide training program and:

(a) All acupuncture acts and services performed by such persons are performed under the direct, on-site supervision of a licensed acupuncturist, who shall be responsible for all such acts and services as though the licensed acupuncturist had personally performed them; and

(b) The names and current residence addresses of all of such persons have been reported to the director by or on behalf of the licensed acupuncturist supervising such persons.

12-29.5-106. Grounds for disciplinary action. (1) The director may deny licensure to or take disciplinary action against an acupuncturist pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., if the director finds that the acupuncturist has committed any of the following acts:

- (a) Violated the provisions of section 12-29.5-105;
- (b) Failed to provide the mandatory disclosure required by section 12-29.5-103 or provided false, deceptive, or misleading information to patients in the said disclosure;
- (c) Failed to provide the information required by section 12-29.5-104 (1) or provided false, deceptive, or misleading information to the division of professions and occupations;
- (d) Committed, or advertised in any manner that he or she will commit, any act constituting an abuse of health insurance as prohibited by section 18-13-119, C.R.S., or a fraudulent insurance act as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;
- (e) Failed to refer a patient to an appropriate practitioner when the problem of the patient is beyond the training, experience, or competence of the acupuncturist;
- (f) Accepted commissions or rebates or other forms of remuneration for referring clients to other professional persons;
- (g) Offered or gave commissions, rebates, or other forms of remuneration for the referral of clients; except that, notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph (g), an acupuncturist may pay an independent advertising or marketing agent compensation for advertising or marketing services rendered on his behalf by such agent, including compensation which is paid for the results of performance of such services, on a per patient basis;
- (h) Failed to comply with, or aided or abetted a failure to comply with, the requirements of this article or any lawful rules or regulations adopted by the executive director of the department of public health and environment, including those regulations governing the proper cleaning and sterilization of acupuncture needles or the sanitary conditions of acupuncture offices, or any lawful orders of the department of public health and environment or of court;
- (i) Failed to comply with, or aided or abetted a failure to comply with, the requirements of this article or any lawful rules or regulations governing the practice of acupuncture adopted by the director, or any lawful orders of the director or of court;
- (j) Engaged in sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration, as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S., with a patient during the period of time beginning with the initial patient evaluation and ending with the termination of treatment;
- (k) Departed from, or failed to conform to, minimal standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or similar circumstances, whether or not actual injury to a patient is established;
- (l) Continued in the practice of acupuncture while subject to any physical or mental disability which renders the acupuncturist unable to treat patients with reasonable skill and safety or which may endanger a patient's health or safety, or continued in the practice of acupuncture while afflicted with a communicable, infectious, or contagious disease of such a serious nature as to render the acupuncturist unable to treat patients with reasonable skill and safety or which may endanger a patient's health or safety;
- (m) Continued in the practice of acupuncture while addicted to or dependent upon alcohol or upon any habit-forming drug or while abusing or habitually or excessively using any such habit-forming drug or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;
- (n) Committed and been convicted of a felony or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony; and
- (o) Published or circulated, directly or indirectly, any fraudulent, false, deceitful, or misleading claims or statements relating to acupuncture or to the acupuncturist's practice, capabilities, services, methods, or qualifications.

(2) The director may accept, as prima facie evidence of the commission of any act enumerated in subsection (1) of this section, evidence of disciplinary action taken by another jurisdiction against an acupuncturist's license or other authorization to practice if such disciplinary action was based upon acts or practices substantially similar to those enumerated in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (a) The director or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the director pursuant to this article. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the director.

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

12-29.5-107. Disciplinary authority and proceedings. (1) A proceeding for discipline of a licensee may be commenced by the director when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee has committed any act prohibited by section 12-29.5-106 (1).

(2) Disciplinary actions may consist of the following:

(a) Revocation or suspension of licensure;

(b) Placement of the licensee on probation and setting the terms of that probation; and

(c) (I) Issuance of letters of admonition. When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(II) When a letter of admonition is sent by the director, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(III) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(2.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

(3) Complaints of record on file with the director and the results of investigations shall be closed to public inspection during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges are served on a licensee. The director's records and papers shall be subject to the provisions of sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S.

(4) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(5) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(6) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (6) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (6) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(7) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(8) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(9) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order in a court of competent jurisdiction.

12-29.5-109. Civil penalties. (1) No action may be maintained against a recipient of acupuncture services for breach of a contract involving the rendering of acupuncture services provided under such contract by an acupuncturist who has committed, with respect to such recipient, any act prohibited by section 12-29.5-106 (1).

(2) When a patient, his insurer, or his legal guardian or representative has paid for acupuncture services rendered by an acupuncturist who has committed, with respect to such patient, any act prohibited by section 12-29.5-106 (1), whether or not said patient knew that said act or acts were illegal, he, his insurer, or his legal guardian or representative may recover, in an action at law, the amount of any fees paid for the acupuncture services and reasonable attorney fees.

(3) The criminal and civil penalties specified under this article are not exclusive but cumulative and in addition to any other causes of action, rights, or remedies a patient may have under law.

12-29.5-109.5. Immunity. The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-29.5-110. Director - powers and duties. (1) In addition to any other powers and duties conferred by this article, the director shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article;

(b) To establish the fees for licensure and renewal of licenses in the same manner as is authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S.;

(c) To accept or deny applications for licensure and to collect the annual license fees authorized by this article;

(d) To inspect on a complaint basis any premises where acupuncture services are provided to ensure compliance with this article and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto;

(e) To contract with the department of public health and environment or others to provide appropriate services as needed to carry out the inspections authorized with respect to the proper cleaning and sterilization of needles and the sanitation of acupuncture offices;

(f) To make investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence with respect to any complaint against any licensee when the director has reasonable cause to believe that the licensee is violating any of the provisions of this article and to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and records relevant to those investigations or hearings. Any subpoena issued pursuant to this article shall be enforceable by the district court.

(g) To conduct any other meetings or hearings necessary to carry out the provisions of this article;

(h) Through the department of regulatory agencies, and subject to appropriations made to the department of regulatory agencies, to employ administrative law judges on a full-time or part-time basis to conduct any hearings required by this article. The administrative law judges shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S.

(i) To seek, through the office of the attorney general, an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person from committing any act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (i), the director shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(j) To order the physical or mental examination of an acupuncturist if the director has reasonable cause to believe that the acupuncturist is subject to a physical or mental disability which renders the acupuncturist unable to treat patients with reasonable skill and safety or which may endanger a patient's health or safety; and the director may order such an examination whether or not actual injury to a patient is established;

(k) To report to the United States department of health and human services, pursuant to applicable federal law and regulations, any adverse action taken against the license of any acupuncturist.

12-29.7-102. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the practice of athletic training by a person who does not possess a valid registration issued pursuant to this article is not in the best interests of the people of the state of Colorado. It is not, however, the intent of this article to restrict the practice of a person duly registered pursuant to any article of this title or other laws of this state from practicing within the person’s scope of practice and authority pursuant to those laws.

12-29.7-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires: (1) “Accredited athletic training education program” means a program of instruction in athletic training that is offered by an institution of higher education and accredited by a national, regional, or state agency recognized by the United States secretary of education, or another program accredited and approved by the director.

(2) “Athlete” means a person who, in association with an educational institution, an organized community sports program or event, or a professional, amateur, or recreational organization or sports club, participates in games, sports, recreation, or exercise requiring physical strength, flexibility, range of motion, speed, stamina, or agility.

(3) “Athletic trainer” means a person registered to practice athletic training under this article.

(4) (a) “Athletic training” means the performance, pursuant to the direction of a Colorado licensed or otherwise lawfully practicing physician, dentist, or health care professional of those services that require the education, training, and experience required by this article for registration as an athletic trainer pursuant to section 12-29.7-107. “Athletic training” includes services appropriate for the prevention, recognition, assessment, management, treatment, rehabilitation, and reconditioning of injuries and illnesses sustained by an athlete:

(I) Engaged in sports, games, recreation, or exercise requiring physical strength, flexibility, range of motion, speed, stamina, or agility; or

(II) That affect an athlete’s participation or performance in such sports, games, recreation, or exercise.

(b) “Athletic training” includes:

(I) The planning, administration, evaluation, and modification of methods for prevention and risk management of injuries and illnesses;

(II) The identification and appropriate care and referral of medical conditions and disabilities associated with athletes;

(III) The recognition, assessment, treatment, management, prevention, rehabilitation, reconditioning, and appropriate referral of injuries and illnesses;

(IV) The use of therapeutic modalities for which the athletic trainer has received appropriate training and education;

(V) The use of conditioning and rehabilitative exercise;

(VI) The use of topical pharmacological agents, in conjunction with the administration of therapeutic modalities and pursuant to prescriptions issued in accordance with the laws of this state, for which the athletic trainer has received appropriate training and education;

(VII) The education and counseling of athletes concerning the prevention and care of injuries and illnesses;

(VIII) The education and counseling of the general public with respect to athletic training services;

(IX) The referral of an athlete receiving athletic training services to appropriate health care personnel as needed; and

(X) The planning, organization, administration, and evaluation of the practice of athletic training.

(c) As used in this subsection (4), “injuries and illnesses” includes those conditions in an athlete for which athletic trainers, as the result of their education, training, and competency, are qualified to provide care.

(5) “Direction of a physician, dentist, or health care professional” means the planning of services with a physician, dentist, or health care professional; the development and approval by the physician, dentist, or health care professional of procedures and protocols to be followed in the event of an injury or illness; the mutual review of the protocols on a periodic basis; and the appropriate consultation and referral between the physician, dentist, or health care professional and the athletic trainer.

(6) “Director” means the director of the division of professions and occupations or his or her designee.

(7) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies created in section 24-34-102, C.R.S.

(8) “National certifying agency” means a nationally recognized agency that certifies the competency of athletic trainers through the use of an examination.

(9) “Registrant” means an athletic trainer registered pursuant to this article.

12-29.7-104. Use of titles restricted. Only a person registered as an athletic trainer may use the title “athletic trainer” or “registered athletic trainer”, the letters “A.T.”, or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures that indicate that the person is an athletic trainer.

Source: L. 2009: Entire article added, (SB 09-026), ch. 373, p. 2022, § 1, effective July 1.

12-29.7-105. Limitations on authority. (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to authorize an athletic trainer to perform the practice of medicine, as defined in article 36 of this title; physical therapy, as defined in article 41 of this title; chiropractic, as defined in article 33 of this title; occupational therapy, as defined in article 40.5 of this title; or any other form of healing except as authorized by this article.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to authorize an athletic trainer to treat a disease or condition that is not related to a person’s participation in sports, games, recreation, or exercise, but the athletic trainer shall take such disease or condition into account in providing athletic training services and shall consult with a physician as appropriate regarding such disease or condition.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a person from recommending weight management or exercise to improve strength, conditioning, flexibility, and cardiovascular performance to a person in normal health as long as the person recommending the weight management or exercise does not represent himself or herself as an athletic trainer and the person does not engage in athletic training as defined in this article.

Source: L. 2009: Entire article added, (SB 09-026), ch. 373, p. 2022, § 1, effective July 1.

12-29.7-106. Registration required. Except as otherwise provided in this article, a person shall not practice athletic training or represent himself or herself as being able to practice athletic training in this state without possessing a valid registration issued by the director in accordance with this article and any rules adopted under this article.

12-29.7-107. Requirements for registration - registration by endorsement - denial - renewal - fees. (1) Every applicant for a registration to practice athletic training shall have:

- (a) Earned a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university;
- (b) Successfully completed an accredited athletic training education program;
- (c) (I) Passed a competency examination administered by a national certifying agency that has been approved by the director and provided evidence of certification within the past three years by the agency; or
- (II) Passed a competency examination developed and administered by the director;
- (d) Submitted an application in the form and manner designated by the director;
- (e) Paid a fee in an amount determined by the director; and
- (f) Submitted additional information as requested by the director to fully and fairly evaluate the applicant's qualifications for registration and to protect the public health and safety.

(2) When an applicant has fulfilled the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the director shall issue a registration to the applicant. The director may deny registration if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-29.7-109.

(3) (a) An applicant for registration by endorsement shall file an application and pay a fee as prescribed by the director and shall hold a current, valid license or registration in a jurisdiction that requires qualifications substantially equivalent to those required for registration by subsection (1) of this section.

(b) An applicant for registration shall submit with the application verification that the applicant has actively practiced for a period of time determined by rules of the director or has otherwise maintained continued competency as determined by the director.

(c) Upon receipt of all documents required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (3), the director shall review the application and make a determination of the applicant's qualification to be registered by endorsement.

(d) The director may deny the registration if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-29.7-109.

(4) (a) A registrant shall be required to renew the registration issued pursuant to this article according to a schedule of renewal dates established by the director. The registrant shall submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director and shall pay a renewal fee in an amount determined by the director.

(b) Registrations shall be renewed or reinstated in accordance with the schedule established by the director, and such renewal or reinstatement shall be granted pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a registrant fails to renew his or her registration pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the registration shall expire. A person whose registration has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S., for reinstatement.

(c) The registrant shall submit additional information as may be requested by the director to fully and fairly evaluate the applicant's qualifications for registration and to protect the public health and safety.

(5) All fees collected pursuant to this article shall be determined, collected, and appropriated in the same manner as set forth in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and periodically adjusted in accordance with section 24-75-402, C.R.S.

Source: L. 2009: Entire article added, (SB 09-026), ch. 373, p. 2023, § 1, effective July 1.

12-29.7-108. Scope of article - exclusions - authority for clinical setting. (1) Nothing contained in this article shall prohibit:

(a) The practice of athletic training that is an integral part of a program of study by students enrolled in an accredited athletic training education program. Students enrolled in an accredited athletic training education program shall be identified as “student athletic trainers” and shall only practice athletic training under the direction and immediate supervision of an athletic trainer currently registered under this article. A student athletic trainer shall not hold himself or herself out as an athletic trainer.

(b) The practice of athletic training by a person who is certified by a national certifying agency and who is employed by the United States government or any bureau, division, or agency of the federal government while acting in the course and scope of such employment;

(c) The practice of athletic training by a person who resides in another state or country, is currently licensed or registered in another state, or is currently certified by a national certifying agency, and is:

(I) Administering athletic training services to an athlete who is a member of a bona fide professional or amateur sports organization or to an athlete who is a member of a sports team of an accredited educational institution, if the person acts in accordance with rules established by the director and engages in the unregistered practice of athletic training for no more than ninety days in any calendar year; or

(II) Participating in an educational program of not more than twelve weeks’ duration. Upon written application by the person prior to the expiration of such twelve-week period, the director may grant an extension of time.

(d) The practice of any health care profession other than athletic training by a person licensed or registered under any other article of this title in accordance with the lawful scope of practice of the other profession or the performance of activities described in subsection (2) of this section, if the person does not hold himself or herself out as an athletic trainer or as engaging in the practice of athletic training;

(e) Athletic training by a patient for himself or herself or gratuitous athletic training by a friend or family member who does not represent himself or herself to be an athletic trainer.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or prohibit the administration of routine assistance or first aid by a person who is not a registered athletic trainer for injuries or illnesses sustained at an athletic event or program.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require an entity offering or sponsoring an athletic event or regular athletic activity to employ a registered athletic trainer.

(4) A registered athletic trainer may provide athletic training services in a clinical setting to a person who is not an athlete if the athletic trainer is under the direction and supervision of a Colorado licensed or otherwise lawfully practicing physician, dentist, or licensed health care professional who treats sports or musculoskeletal injuries. As used in this subsection (4), “direction and supervision” means the issuance of written or oral directives by the physician, dentist, or licensed health care professional to the registered athletic trainer pertaining to the athletic training services to be provided.

12-29.7-109. Grounds for discipline - disciplinary proceedings. (1) The director may take disciplinary action against a person registered under this article if the director finds that the person registered has represented himself or herself as a registered athletic trainer after the expiration, suspension, or revocation of his or her registration.

(2) The director may revoke, deny, suspend, or refuse to renew a registration, or issue a cease-and-desist order in accordance with this section upon reasonable grounds that the registrant:

(a) Has engaged in a sexual act with a person receiving services while a therapeutic relationship existed or within six months immediately following termination of the therapeutic relationship. For the purposes of this paragraph (a):

(I) "Sexual act" means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(II) "Therapeutic relationship" means the period beginning with the initial evaluation and ending upon the written termination of treatment. When an individual receiving services is an athlete participating on a sports team operated under the auspices of a bona fide amateur sports organization or an accredited educational institution that employs the registrant, the therapeutic relationship exists from the time the athlete becomes affiliated with the team until the affiliation ends or the athletic trainer terminates the provision of athletic training services to the team, whichever occurs first.

(b) Has falsified information in an application or has attempted to obtain or has obtained a registration by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(c) Is an excessive or habitual user or abuser of alcohol or habit-forming drugs or is a habitual user of a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects; except that the director has the discretion not to discipline the registrant if he or she is participating in good faith in a program approved by the director to end such use or abuse;

(d) Has a physical or mental condition or disability that renders the registrant unable to provide athletic training services with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of individuals receiving services;

(e) Has had a registration or license suspended or revoked for actions that are a violation of this article;

(f) Has been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or any crime defined in title 18, C.R.S. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of the conviction or plea shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the director shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(g) Has practiced athletic training without a registration;

(h) Has failed to notify the director of any disciplinary action in regard to the person's past or currently held license, certificate, or registration required to practice athletic training in this state or any other jurisdiction;

(i) Has refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when so ordered by the board pursuant to section 12-29.7-110; or

(j) Has otherwise violated any provision of this article.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the director need not find that the actions that are grounds for discipline were willful but may consider whether such actions were willful when determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to be imposed.

(4) (a) The director may commence a proceeding to discipline a registrant when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that the registrant has committed an act enumerated in this section.

(b) In any proceeding held under this section, the director may accept as evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a registrant in another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in the other jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(5) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to that article by the director or by an administrative law judge, at the director's discretion. The director has the authority to exercise all powers and duties conferred by this article during the disciplinary proceedings.

(6) (a) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin a person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (a), the attorney general shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(b) (I) The director is authorized to investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director.

(II) In order to aid the director in any hearing or investigation instituted pursuant to this section, the director or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6) is authorized to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant records, papers, books, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the director or an administrative law judge.

(III) Upon failure of any witness or registrant to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or registrant resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or registrant, may issue to the person or registrant an order requiring the person or registrant to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. If the person or registrant fails to obey the order of the court, the person or registrant may be held in contempt of court.

(c) The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct hearings, take evidence, make findings, and report such findings to the director.

(7) (a) The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person participating in good faith in making a complaint or report or in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result by reason of the participation.

(8) A final action of the director is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. A judicial proceeding to enforce an order of the director may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(9) An employer of an athletic trainer shall report to the director any disciplinary action taken against the athletic trainer or the resignation of the athletic trainer in lieu of disciplinary action for conduct that violates this article.

(10) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(11) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(12) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (12) shall be notified promptly by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. The notice may be served on the person against whom the order has been issued by personal service, by first-class, postage-prepaid United States mail, or in another manner as may be practicable. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall constitute notice of the order to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be held no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (12). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing be held later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (12) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served on the person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (12) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (12), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(13) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an unregistered act or practice; an act or practice constituting a violation of this article, a rule promulgated pursuant to this article, or an order issued pursuant to this article; or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(14) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(15) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in subsection (8) of this section.

12-29.7-110. Mental or physical examination of registrants. (1) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a person registered under this article is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the director may order the person to take a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. Unless due to circumstances beyond the registrant's control, if the registrant refuses to undergo a mental or physical examination, the director may suspend the person's registration until the results of the examination are known and the director has made a determination of the registrant's fitness to practice. The director shall proceed with an order for examination and shall make his or her determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order requiring a registrant to undergo a mental or physical examination shall contain the basis of the director's reasonable cause to believe that the registrant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the registrant shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's or licensed health care professional's testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The registrant may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician chosen by the registrant and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the registrant from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. The testimony and reports submitted by the registrant may be considered by the director in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician designated by the director.

(4) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the director shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the director and shall not be deemed a public record or made available to the public.

12-30-103. Powers and duties of department. (1) The department shall:

- (a) Prescribe reasonable rules and regulations with respect to the administration of this article;
- (b) Investigate violations of the provisions of this article and report such violations to the appropriate enforcement authority;
- (c) Secure the investigation and testing of the content, method of preparation, efficacy, or use of drugs, medicines, compounds, or devices, held out by any individual, person, firm, association, or other entity in the state as of value in the diagnosis, treatment, or cure of cancer, prescribe reasonable regulations with respect to such investigation and testing, and make findings of fact and recommendations upon completion of any such investigation and testing;
- (d) Hold hearings in respect to the investigations made under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), and subpoena witnesses and documents. Prior to issuance of a cease-and-desist order under section 12-30-108, a hearing shall be held by the department. The person furnishing a sample under section 12-30-104 shall be given due notice of such hearing and an opportunity to be heard.
- (e) Contract with independent scientific consultants for specialized services and advice.
- (2) Repealed.

12-30-106. Failure to comply with request of department. (1) If there is failure to either provide the sample, disclose the formula, or name the ingredients as required by this article, it shall be conclusively presumed that the drug, medicine, compound, or device which is the subject of the department's request has no value in the diagnosis, treatment, alleviation, or cure of cancer.

(2) Any individual, person, firm, association, or other entity that fails to comply with any of the provisions of this article, or with any order of the department validly issued under this article, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-505, C.R.S.

12-30-107. Unlawful acts. (1) It is a misdemeanor for an individual, person, firm, association, or other entity, other than a licensed physician, licensed advanced practice nurse within his or her scope of practice, licensed osteopath, or licensed dentist to diagnose, treat, or prescribe for the treatment of cancer or to hold himself or herself out to any person as being able to cure, diagnose, treat, or prescribe for the treatment of the disease of cancer. A licensed chiropractor shall not treat cancer or prescribe for the treatment of cancer. Such chiropractor may treat any person for human ailments within the scope of his or her license even though the person has or may have cancer at the time, but if a chiropractor knows or has reason to believe that any patient has or may have cancer, he or she must refer the patient to a medical doctor or an osteopath.

(2) It is a misdemeanor for any individual, person, firm, association, or other entity willfully and falsely to represent a device, substance, or treatment as being of a value in the treatment, alleviation, or cure of cancer. Nothing in this section shall abridge the existent rights of the press. Any person who is convicted of a third or any subsequent violation of this article commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-30-108. Findings - cease-and-desist order. (1) Following an investigation or testing of the content or composition of any drug, medicine, compound, or device held out either expressly or impliedly by any individual, person, firm, association, or other entity to be of value in the diagnosis, treatment, alleviation, or cure of cancer and after a hearing as provided in section 12-30-103, the department may direct that any such individual, person, firm, association, or other entity shall cease and desist any further holding out, either expressly or impliedly, that any such drug, medicine, compound, or device, or any substantially similar drug, medicine, compound, or device, is of value in the diagnosis or treatment of cancer.

(2) In the investigation or testing required by this article to determine the value or lack of value of any drug, medicine, compound, or device in the diagnosis, treatment, or cure of cancer, the department, as it deems necessary or advisable, shall utilize the facilities and findings of its own laboratories or other appropriate laboratories, clinics, hospitals, and nonprofit cancer research institutes recognized by the national cancer institute within this state or the facilities and findings of the federal government or of the national cancer institute. The department may arrange, by contract, for investigation by and submission to it of findings, conclusions, or opinions of trained scientists in the appropriate departments of universities, medical schools, clinics, hospitals, and nonprofit cancer research institutes recognized by the national cancer institute and the submission to it of findings, conclusions, or opinions of other qualified scientists. Prior to the issuance of a cease-and-desist order under this section, the department shall make a written finding of fact based on such investigation that the drug, medicine, compound, or device so investigated has been found to be either definitely harmful or of no value in the diagnosis, treatment, alleviation, or cure of cancer, and the department shall be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the written findings of fact are true.

12-30-109. Injunction. (1) If an individual, person, firm, association, or other entity, after service upon him or it of a cease-and-desist order issued by the department under section 12-30-108, persists in prescribing, recommending, or using the drug, medicine, compound, or device described in said cease-and-desist order, or a substantially similar drug, medicine, compound, or device, the district court in any county, on application of the department and when satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the written findings of fact required of the department by section 12-30-108 are true, may issue an order to show cause why there should not be issued an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such individual, person, firm, association, or other entity from holding out either expressly or impliedly such drug, medicine, compound, or device, or any substantially similar drug, medicine, compound, or device, as being of a value in the treatment, diagnosis, alleviation, or cure of cancer. After a hearing on such order to show cause, an injunction or other appropriate restraining order may be issued.

(2) Any person against whom an injunction has been issued, under subsection (1) of this section, may not undertake to use in the diagnosis, treatment, or cure of cancer any new, experimental, untested, or secret drug, medicine, compound, or device without first submitting it to the department for investigation and testing.

12-30-110. Investigation by executive director. (1) The executive director shall investigate possible violations of this article and report violations to the appropriate enforcement authority.

(2) County or district health officers, district attorneys, and the attorney general shall cooperate with the executive director in the enforcement of this article.

12-30-112. Investigation not an endorsement. The investigation or testing of any product shall not be deemed to imply or indicate any endorsement of the qualifications or value of any such product. No person shall make any representation that investigation or testing under this article constitutes any approval or endorsement of his, or its, activities by the department. The investigation or testing of any product shall not be deemed to imply or indicate that such product is useless or harmful, and during testing no person shall make any representation, except to the department, that the product under test is discredited or that it has been found useless or harmful.

12-30-113. Exceptions. (1) This article shall not apply to the use of any drug, medicine, compound, or device intended solely for legitimate and bona fide investigational purposes by experts qualified by scientific training and experience to investigate the safety and therapeutic value thereof unless the department finds that such drug, medicine, compound, or device is being used in diagnosis or treatment for compensation and profit.

(2) The provisions of this article shall not apply to any person who depends exclusively upon prayer for healing in accordance with the teachings of a bona fide religious sect, denomination, or organization, nor practitioner thereof.

(3) The provisions of this article shall except any drug which is being clinically investigated as a cure, treatment, or as an aid to the diagnosis of cancer according to the regulations of the "Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act".

(4) (a) (I) The provisions of this article shall not apply to the compound known as laetrile when manufactured in Colorado and prescribed by a licensed physician after fully disclosing to his patient the known adverse effects and reactions and the known reliability or unreliability in cancer treatment of such compound.

(II) In prescribing the use of laetrile, the licensed physician shall do so only upon a request by the patient.

(III) In complying with a patient's request concerning the use of laetrile, a licensed physician, pharmacist, hospital, or health care facility shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability for prescribing or administering laetrile as provided for in this subsection (4), but nothing in this subparagraph (III) shall preclude any cause of action brought by a patient against a licensed physician, pharmacist, hospital, or health care facility which does not arise from the prescription or administration of laetrile in accordance with the provisions of this subsection (4).

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly that the exception granted by this subsection (4) does not constitute an endorsement of the use of laetrile nor does it in any way encourage its use.

PART 2

SAFETY TRAINING FOR UNLICENSED X-RAY TECHNICIANS

- 12-32-201. Legislative declaration.
12-32-202. Board authorized to issue rules.

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-32-101. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Podiatric medicine" means the practice of podiatry.
- (2) "Podiatric physician" or "podiatrist" means any person who practices podiatry.
- (3) (a) "Practice of podiatry" means:

(I) Holding out one's self to the public as being able to treat, prescribe for, palliate, correct, or prevent any disease, ailment, pain, injury, deformity, or physical condition of the human toe, foot, ankle, tendons that insert into the foot, and soft tissue below the mid-calf, by the use of any medical, surgical, mechanical, manipulative, or electrical treatment, including complications thereof consistent with such scope of practice;

(II) Suggesting, recommending, prescribing, or administering any podiatric form of treatment, operation, or healing for the intended palliation, relief, or cure of any disease, ailment, injury, condition, or defect of the human toe, foot, ankle, tendons that insert into the foot, and soft tissue wounds below the mid-calf, including complications thereof consistent with such scope of practice; and

(III) Maintaining an office or other place for the purpose of examining and treating persons afflicted with disease, injury, or defect of the human toe, foot, ankle, tendons that insert into the foot, and soft tissue wounds below the mid-calf, including the complications thereof consistent with such scope of practice.

(b) The "practice of podiatry" does not include the amputation of the foot or the administration of an anesthetic other than a local anesthetic.

(c) A podiatrist may only treat a soft tissue wound below the mid-calf if the patient is being treated by a physician for his or her underlying medical condition or if the podiatrist refers the patient to a physician for further treatment of the underlying medical condition.

(4) "Soft tissue wound" means a lesion to the musculoskeletal junction that include dermal and sub-dermal tissue that do not involve bone removal or repair or muscle transfer.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "Acts of Diagnosis by Nurses and the Colorado Professional Nursing Practice Act", see 45 Den. L.J. 467 (1968).

In defining the "practice of podiatry", it was the intent of the general assembly to narrowly limit such definition to practice upon the human foot, toe, ankle, and tendons inserting into the foot and to require podiatrists to confine their practice strictly to the scope of their licenses. Thus, surgical and nonsurgical procedures performed by a podiatrist above the level of the ankle were outside the scope of podiatry. Snyder v. Colo. Podiatry Bd., 100 P.3d 496 (Colo. App. 2004).

12-32-101.5. Podiatric surgery. (1) Surgical procedures on the ankle below the level of the dermis may be performed by a podiatrist licensed before July 1, 2010, in this state who:

- (a) Is certified by the American board of podiatric surgery or its successor organization;
 - (b) Is performing surgery under the direct supervision of a licensed podiatrist certified by the American board of podiatric surgery or its successor organization; except that, if the supervising podiatrist is licensed on or after July 1, 2010, the supervising podiatrist shall be certified in reconstructive rearfoot/ankle surgery or foot and ankle surgery by the American board of podiatric surgery or its successor organization; or
 - (c) Is performing surgery under the direct supervision of a person licensed to practice medicine and certified by the American board of orthopedic surgery or its successor organization or by the American osteopathic board of orthopedic surgery or its successor organization.
- (2) Surgical procedures on the ankle below the level of the dermis may be performed by a podiatrist licensed on or after July 1, 2010, in this state who:
- (a) Is certified in reconstructive rearfoot/ankle surgery or foot and ankle surgery by the American board of podiatric surgery or its successor organization;
 - (b) Is performing surgery under the direct supervision of a licensed podiatrist certified by the American board of podiatric surgery or its successor organization; except that, if the supervising podiatrist is licensed on or after July 1, 2010, the supervising podiatrist shall be certified in reconstructive rearfoot/ankle surgery or foot and ankle surgery by the American board of podiatric surgery or its successor organization;
 - (c) Is performing surgery under the direct supervision of a person licensed to practice medicine and certified by the American board of orthopedic surgery or its successor organization or by the American osteopathic board of orthopedic surgery or its successor organization; or
 - (d) Has completed a three-year surgical residency approved by the Colorado podiatry board.

12-32-102. Podiatry license required - professional liability insurance required - exceptions. (1) It is unlawful for any person to practice podiatry within the state of Colorado who does not hold a license to practice medicine issued by the Colorado medical board or a license to practice podiatry issued by the Colorado podiatry board as provided by this article. A podiatry training license is required for a person serving an approved residency program. Such persons shall be licensed by the Colorado podiatry board pursuant to section 12-32-107.4. As used in this section, an “approved residency” is a residency in a hospital conforming to the minimum standards for residency training established or approved by the Colorado podiatry board, which has the authority, upon its own investigation, to approve any residency.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to practice podiatry within the state of Colorado unless such person purchases and maintains professional liability insurance as follows:

- (a) If such person performs surgical procedures, professional liability insurance shall be maintained in an amount not less than one million dollars per claim and three million dollars per year for all claims;
- (b) The Colorado podiatry board shall by rule establish financial responsibility standards for podiatrists who do not perform podiatric surgical procedures and who sign an affidavit attesting to such fact. The board may determine that no professional liability insurance requirements apply to such persons or may impose standards which shall not in any event exceed those prescribed in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

12-32-103. Appointment of members of podiatry board - terms - repeal of article.

(1) The governor shall appoint the members of the Colorado podiatry board. The board shall consist of four podiatrist members and one member from the public at large. The member from the public shall not be a licensed health care professional or be employed by or benefit financially from the health care industry. The terms of the members of the board shall be four years. The governor may remove any member of the board for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. Members of the board shall remain in office until their successors are appointed.

(2) The Colorado podiatry board shall elect biennially from its membership a president and a vice-president. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

(3) Members of the Colorado podiatry board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board.

(4) (a) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the Colorado podiatry board created by this section.

(b) This article is repealed, effective July 1, 2019.

12-32-104. Powers and duties of board. (1) The Colorado podiatry board shall regulate the practice of podiatry. The board shall exercise, subject to the provisions of this article, the following powers and duties:

(a) Adopt, promulgate, and from time to time revise such rules and regulations as may be necessary to enable it to carry out the provisions of this article;

(b) Examine, license, and renew licenses of duly qualified podiatric applicants;

(c) Conduct hearings upon complaints concerning the disciplining of podiatrists;

(d) (I) Make investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in the board.

(II) The board or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(III) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(e) Cause the prosecution of and seek injunctions against all persons violating this article;

(f) Approve or refuse to approve podiatric colleges; and

(g) Adopt regulations governing advertising by licensees to prevent the use of advertising which is misleading, deceptive, or false.

(2) Repealed.

12-32-105. Examination as to qualifications. (1) Every person desiring to practice podiatry in this state shall be examined as to his or her qualifications, except as otherwise provided in this article. Each applicant shall submit, in a manner approved by the Colorado podiatry board, an application containing satisfactory proof that said applicant:

(a) Is twenty-one years of age;

(b) Is a graduate of a school of podiatry at which not less than a two-year prepodiatry course and a four-year course of podiatry is required and that is recognized and approved by the Colorado podiatry board;

(c) Has completed one year of a residency program approved by the Colorado podiatry board as established by rules promulgated by the board; and

(d) In the two years immediately preceding the date the application is received by the Colorado podiatry board, has been enrolled in podiatric medical school or in a residency program, has passed the national examination, has been engaged in the active practice of podiatry as defined by the board, or can otherwise demonstrate competency as determined by the board.

12-32-107. Issuance, revocation, or suspension of license - probation - immunity in professional review. (1) (a) If the Colorado podiatry board determines that an applicant possesses the qualifications required by this article, has paid a fee to be determined and collected pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and is entitled to a license to practice podiatry, the board shall issue such license.

(b) If the Colorado podiatry board determines that an applicant for a license to practice podiatry does not possess the qualifications required by this article or that he or she has done any of the acts defined in subsection (3) of this section as unprofessional conduct, it may refrain from issuing a license, and the applicant may proceed as provided in section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.

(2) The Colorado podiatry board may refuse to issue or may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license to practice podiatry issued to any person; or the board may issue a letter of admonition or a letter of concern to or place on probation any person who, while holding such a license, is guilty of any unprofessional conduct.

(3) "Unprofessional conduct" as used in this article means:

(b) Resorting to fraud, misrepresentation, or material deception, or making a misleading omission, in applying for, securing, renewing, or seeking reinstatement of a license to practice podiatry in this state or any other state, in applying for professional liability coverage required pursuant to section 12-32-109.5 or for privileges at a hospital or other health care facility, or in taking the examination required in this article;

(c) and (d) Repealed.

(e) Conviction of a felony or any crime that would constitute a violation of this article. For purposes of this paragraph (e), "conviction" includes the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or the imposition of a deferred sentence.

(f) Habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol or controlled substances;

(g) Repealed.

(h) Aiding or abetting in the practice of podiatry any person not licensed to practice podiatry or any person whose license to practice podiatry is suspended;

(i) Any act or omission which fails to meet generally accepted standards of the practice of podiatry;

(j) Except as otherwise provided in section 25-3-103.7, C.R.S., practicing podiatry as the partner, agent, or employee of, or in joint venture with, any person who does not hold a license to practice podiatry within this state, or practicing podiatry as an employee of, or in joint venture with, any partnership or association any of whose partners or associates do not hold a license to practice podiatry within this state, or practicing podiatry as an employee of, or in joint venture with, any corporation other than a professional service corporation for the practice of podiatry as provided for in sections 12-32-109 (4) and 12-32-109.5. Any licensee holding a license to practice podiatry in this state may accept employment from any person, partnership, association, or corporation to examine and treat the employees of such person, partnership, association, or corporation.

(k) Violating, or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of, or conspiring to violate any provision or term of this article, any rule or regulation promulgated by the board pursuant to this article, or any final agency order;

(m) Procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, criminal abortion;

(n) Administering, dispensing, or prescribing any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., other than in the course of legitimate professional practice, which includes only prescriptions related to the scope of podiatric medicine as defined in section 12-32-101 (3) (a);

(o) Conviction of violation of any federal or state law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., and, for the purposes of this paragraph (o), a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere accepted by the court shall be considered as a conviction;

(p) Such physical or mental disability as to render the licensee unable to perform podiatry with reasonable skill and with safety to the patient;

(q) Advertising which is misleading, deceptive, or false;

(r) (I) Violation or abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S.; or

(II) Advertising through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the licensee will perform any act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;

(s) Engaging in a sexual act with a patient during the course of patient care or during the six-month period immediately following the termination of such care. "Sexual act", as used in this paragraph (s), means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(t) Performing any procedure in the course of patient care beyond the podiatrist's training and competence. This paragraph (t) shall not be construed to authorize a licensed podiatrist to act beyond the scope of podiatry as defined by section 12-32-101 (3).

(u) Engaging in any of the following activities and practices: Willful and repeated ordering or performance, without clinical justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies; the administration, without clinical justification, of treatment which is demonstrably unnecessary; the failure to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is not consistent with the standard of care for the profession; or ordering or performing, without clinical justification, any service, X ray, or treatment which is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of podiatry as interpreted by the board;

(v) Falsifying or repeatedly making incorrect essential entries or repeatedly failing to make essential entries on patient records;

(w) Committing a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(x) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 220, § 3, effective July 1, 1995.)

(y) Refusing to complete and submit the renewal questionnaire, or failing to report all of the relevant facts, or falsifying any information on the questionnaire as required pursuant to section 12-32-111;

(z) Failing to report to the board any podiatrist known to have violated or, upon information or belief, believed to have violated any of the provisions of this subsection (3);

(aa) Dividing fees or compensation or billing for services performed by an unlicensed person as prohibited by section 12-32-117;

(bb) Failing to report to the Colorado podiatry board within thirty days any adverse action taken against the licensee by another licensing agency in another state, territory, or country, any peer review body, any health care institution, any professional or medical society or association, any governmental agency, any law enforcement agency, or any court for acts of conduct that would constitute grounds for action as described in this article;

(cc) Failing to report to the board the surrender of a license or other authorization to practice medicine in another state or jurisdiction or the surrender of membership on any medical staff or in any medical or professional association or society while under investigation by any of those authorities or bodies for acts or conduct similar to acts or conduct that would constitute grounds for action as defined in this article;

(dd) Violating the provisions of section 8-42-101 (3.6), C.R.S.;

(ee) Any violation of the provisions of section 12-32-202 or any rule or regulation of the board adopted pursuant to said section;

(ff) Failing to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a complaint issued pursuant to section 12-32-108.3.

(3.5) The discipline of a licensee for acts related to the practice of podiatry in another state, territory, or country shall be deemed unprofessional conduct. For purposes of this subsection (3.5), "discipline" includes any sanction required to be reported pursuant to 45 CFR 60.8. This subsection (3.5) shall apply only to disciplinary action based upon acts or omissions in such other state, territory, or country substantially as defined as unprofessional conduct pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(4) (a) If a professional review committee is established pursuant to this section to investigate the quality of care being given by a person licensed pursuant to this article, it shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed under this article, but such committee may be authorized to act only by:

(I) The Colorado podiatry board; or

(II) A society or an association of persons licensed pursuant to this article whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed pursuant to this article residing in this state if the licensee whose services are the subject of review is a member of such society or association.

(b) Any member of the board or professional review committee, any member of the board's staff, any member of the professional review committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

(5) To prevent the use of advertising which is misleading, deceptive, or false, the Colorado podiatry board may adopt regulations governing advertising by podiatrists.

12-32-107.2. Volunteer podiatrist license. (1) Any person licensed to practice podiatry pursuant to this article may apply to the Colorado podiatry board for volunteer licensure status. Any such application shall be in the form and manner designated by the board. The board may grant such status by issuing a volunteer license, or it may deny the application if the licensee has been disciplined for any of the causes set forth in section 12-32-107.

- (2) Any person applying for a license under this section shall:
 - (a) Attest that, after a date certain, the applicant no longer earns income as a podiatrist;
 - (b) Pay the license fee authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S. The volunteer podiatrist license fee shall be reduced from the license fee.
 - (c) Maintain liability insurance as provided in section 12-32-102.
- (3) The volunteer status of a licensee shall be plainly indicated on the face of any volunteer license issued pursuant to this section.
- (4) The Colorado podiatry board is authorized to conduct disciplinary proceedings pursuant to section 12-32-108.3 against any person licensed under this section for an act committed while such person was licensed pursuant to this section.
- (5) Any person licensed under this section may apply to the Colorado podiatry board for a return to active licensure status by filing an application in the form and manner designated by the board. The board may approve such application and issue a license to practice podiatry or may deny the application if the licensee has been disciplined for or engaged in any of the activities set forth in section 12-32-107.
- (6) A podiatrist with a volunteer license shall only provide podiatry services if the services are performed on a limited basis for no fee or other compensation.

12-32-107.4. Podiatry training license. (1) The Colorado podiatry board shall issue a podiatry training license to an applicant who has:

- (a) Graduated from a podiatric medical school approved by the Colorado podiatry board;
 - (b) Passed the part I and part II examinations by the national board of podiatric medical examiners or its successor organization; and
 - (c) Been accepted into a podiatric residency program in Colorado.
- (2) At least thirty days prior to the date the applicant begins the residency program, the applicant shall submit a statement to the Colorado podiatry board from the residency director of an approved residency program in Colorado that states the applicant meets the necessary qualifications and that the residency program accepts responsibility for the applicant's training while in the program.
- (3) Where feasible, the applicant shall submit a completed application, on a form approved by the Colorado podiatry board, on or before the date on which the applicant begins the approved residency. A podiatry training license granted pursuant to this section shall expire if a completed application is not received by the board within sixty days after the applicant begins the approved residency.
- (4) The Colorado podiatry board may refuse to issue a podiatric training license to an applicant who does not have the necessary qualifications, who has engaged in unprofessional conduct pursuant to section 12-32-107, or who has been disciplined by a licensing board in another jurisdiction.
- (5) A person with a podiatric training license shall only practice podiatry under the supervision of a licensed podiatrist or a physician licensed to practice medicine within the residency program. A person with a podiatry training license shall not delegate podiatric or medical services to a person who is not licensed to practice podiatry or medicine and shall not have the authority to supervise physician assistants.
- (6) The podiatry training license shall not be renewed and shall expire:
- (a) No later than three years after the date the license is issued;
 - (b) If the training licensee is no longer participating in the residency program; or
 - (c) When the training licensee receives a license to practice podiatry pursuant to section 12-32-107.

12-32-107.5. Prescriptions - requirement to advise patients. (1) A podiatrist licensed under this article may advise the podiatrist's patients of their option to have the symptom or purpose for which a prescription is being issued included on the prescription order.

(2) A podiatrist's failure to advise a patient under subsection (1) of this section shall not be grounds for any disciplinary action against the podiatrist's professional license issued under this article. Failure to advise a patient pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not be grounds for any civil action against a podiatrist in a negligence or tort action, nor shall such failure be evidence in any civil action against a podiatrist.

Source: L. 2003: Entire section added, p. 764, § 4, effective March 25.

12-32-108. Licensure by endorsement. (1) The Colorado podiatry board may issue a license by endorsement to engage in the practice of podiatry in this state to any applicant who has a license in good standing as a podiatrist under the laws of another jurisdiction if the applicant presents proof satisfactory to the board that, at the time of application for a Colorado license by endorsement, the applicant possesses credentials and qualifications that are substantially equivalent to requirements in Colorado for licensure by examination, and that in the two years immediately preceding the date of the application the applicant has been engaged in the active practice of podiatry as defined by the board or can otherwise demonstrate competency as determined by the board. The board may specify by rule what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications.

(2) A fee to be set by the board shall be charged for registration by endorsement.

(3) "In good standing", as used in subsection (1) of this section, means a license that has not been revoked or suspended or against which there are no current disciplinary or adverse actions.

12-32-108.3. Disciplinary action by board. (1) In the discharge of its duties, the Colorado podiatry board may enlist the assistance of other persons licensed to practice podiatry or medicine in this state. Podiatrists have the duty to report to the board any podiatrist known, or upon information and belief, to have violated any of the provisions of section 12-32-107 (3).

(2) (a) Complaints in writing relating to the conduct of any podiatrist licensed or authorized to practice podiatry in this state may be made by any person or may be initiated by the Colorado podiatry board on its own motion. The podiatrist complained of shall be given notice by first-class mail of the nature of all matters complained of within thirty days of the receipt of the complaint or initiation of the complaint by the Colorado podiatry board and shall be given thirty days to make explanation or answer thereto.

(b) The Colorado podiatry board shall cause an investigation to be made when the board is informed of:

(I) Disciplinary actions taken by hospitals to suspend or revoke the privileges of a podiatrist and reported to such board pursuant to section 25-3-107, C.R.S.;

(II) Disciplinary actions taken by a professional review committee established pursuant to section 12-32-107 (4) against a podiatrist;

(III) An instance of a malpractice settlement or judgment against a podiatrist reported to the board pursuant to section 10-1-124, C.R.S.; or

(IV) Podiatrists who have been allowed to resign from hospitals for unprofessional conduct. Such hospitals shall report to the board.

(c) On completion of an investigation, the board shall make a finding that:

(I) The complaint is without merit and no further action need be taken with reference thereto;

(II) There is no reasonable cause to warrant further action with reference thereto;

(III) (A) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(B) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(C) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(IV) (A) The investigation discloses facts that warrant further proceedings by formal complaint, as provided in subsection (3) of this section, in which event the complaint shall be referred to the attorney general for preparation and filing of a formal complaint;

(B) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(V) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct which, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action but in which the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, in which case, a confidential letter of concern shall be sent to the podiatrist against whom a complaint was made. If the board learns of second or subsequent actions of the same or similar nature by the licensee, the board shall not issue a confidential letter of concern but shall take such other course of action as it deems appropriate.

(3) (a) All formal complaints seeking disciplinary action against a podiatrist shall be filed with the Colorado podiatry board. A formal complaint shall set forth the charges with sufficient particularity as to inform the podiatrist clearly and specifically of the acts of unprofessional conduct with which he or she is charged.

(b) The board may include in any disciplinary order placing a podiatrist on probation such conditions as the board may deem appropriate to assure that the podiatrist is physically, mentally, and otherwise qualified to practice podiatry in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of practice, including any or all of the following:

(I) Submission by the podiatrist to such examinations as the board may order to determine his or her physical or mental condition or his or her professional qualifications;

(II) The taking by him or her of such therapy or courses of training or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found either in the hearing or by such examinations;

(III) The review or supervision of his or her practice as may be necessary to determine the quality of his or her practice and to correct deficiencies therein; and

(IV) The imposition of restrictions upon the nature of his or her practice to assure that he or she does not practice beyond the limits of his or her capabilities.

(c) Upon the failure of a licensee to comply with any conditions imposed by the Colorado podiatry board pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), unless compliance is beyond the control of the licensee, the board may suspend the license of the licensee until the licensee complies with the conditions of the board.

(4) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ administrative law judges, on a full-time or part-time basis, to conduct hearings as provided by this article or on any matter within the board's jurisdiction upon such conditions and terms as the board may determine.

(5) The attendance of witnesses and the production of books, patient records, papers, and other pertinent documents at the hearing may be summoned by subpoenas issued by the board, which shall be served in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure for service of subpoenas.

(6) Disciplinary proceedings and hearings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to said article by the board or an administrative law judge at the board's discretion.

(7) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board. The person providing such copies shall prepare them from the original record and shall delete from the copy provided pursuant to the subpoena the name of the patient, but shall identify the patient by a numbered code, to be retained by the custodian of the records from which the copies were made. Upon certification of the custodian that the copies are true and complete except for the patient's name, they shall be deemed authentic, subject to the right to inspect the originals for the limited purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the copies. No privilege of confidentiality shall exist with respect to such copies, and no liability shall lie against the board or the custodian or his or her authorized employee for furnishing or using such copies in accordance with this subsection (7).

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(8) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1224), ch. 420, p. 2154, § 13, effective July 1, 2010.)

(9) Upon the expiration of the term of suspension, the license shall be reinstated by the Colorado podiatry board if the holder of the license furnishes the board with evidence that he or she has complied with all terms of the suspension. If the evidence shows he or she has not complied with all terms of the suspension, the board shall continue the suspension or revoke the license at a hearing, notice of which and the procedure at which shall be as provided in this section.

(10) If a person holding a license to practice podiatry in this state is determined to be mentally incompetent or insane by a court of competent jurisdiction and a court enters, pursuant to part 3 or 4 of article 14 of title 15 or section 27-65-109 (4) or 27-65-127, C.R.S., an order specifically finding that the mental incompetency or insanity is of such a degree that the person holding a license is incapable of continuing to practice podiatry, his or her license shall automatically be suspended by the board, and, anything in this article to the contrary notwithstanding, the suspension shall continue until the licensee is found by such court to be competent to practice podiatry.

(11) (a) If the Colorado podiatry board has reasonable cause to believe that a person licensed to practice podiatry in this state is unable to practice podiatry with reasonable skill and safety to patients because of a condition described in section 12-32-107 (3) (f) or (3) (p), it may require the licensee to submit to mental or physical examinations by physicians designated by the board. Upon the failure of the licensee to submit to the mental or physical examinations, unless due to circumstances beyond his or her control, the board may suspend the licensee's license to practice podiatry in this state until such time as he or she submits to the required examinations and the board has made a determination on the ability of the licensee based on the results of the examinations. The board shall ensure that all examinations are conducted and evaluated in a timely manner.

(b) Every person licensed to practice podiatry in this state shall be deemed, by so practicing or by applying for registration of his or her license to practice podiatry in this state, to have given his or her consent to submit to mental or physical examinations when directed in writing by the board and, further, to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication.

(c) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than before the Colorado podiatry board.

(12) Investigations and examinations of the Colorado podiatry board conducted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be exempt from the provisions of any law requiring that proceedings of the board be conducted publicly or that the minutes or records of the board with respect to action of the board taken pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (12) be open to public inspection. Any proceedings with regard to a licensee who is in violation of section 12-32-107 (3) (f) and who is participating in good faith in a rehabilitation program designed to alleviate the conditions specified in section 12-32-107 (3) (f) which has been approved by the board are also exempt from any such requirements of law.

(13) A person licensed to practice podiatry or medicine who, at the request of the Colorado podiatry board, examines another person licensed to practice podiatry shall be immune from suit for damages by the person examined if the examining person conducted the examination and made his or her findings or diagnosis in good faith.

(15) (a) If it appears to the Colorado podiatry board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (15), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 1 have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(16) (a) If it appears to the Colorado podiatry board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this part 1, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this part 1, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (16) shall be promptly notified by the Colorado podiatry board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (16) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the Colorado podiatry board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (16). The hearing may be continued by agreement of the parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (16) does not appear at the hearing, the Colorado podiatry board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (16) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the Colorado podiatry board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The Colorado podiatry board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (16), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(17) If it appears to the Colorado podiatry board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(18) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the Colorado podiatry board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(19) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the Colorado podiatry board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-32-108.7.

(20) The Colorado podiatry board may impose a fine, not to exceed five thousand dollars, for a violation of this article. All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (20) shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit the moneys to the general fund.

12-32-108.5. Reconsideration and review of action of board. (1) The Colorado podiatry board, on its own motion or upon application in accordance with subsection (3) of this section, at any time after the refusal to grant a license, the imposition of any discipline as provided in section 12-32-108.3, or the ordering of probation, as provided in section 12-32-107 (2), may reconsider its prior action and grant, reinstate, or restore such license or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action, or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto, shall rest in the sole discretion of the board.

(2) Upon the receipt of the application, it may be forwarded to the attorney general for such investigation as may be deemed necessary. A copy of the application and the report of investigation shall be forwarded to the board, which shall consider the same and report its findings and conclusions. The proceedings shall be governed by the applicable provisions governing formal hearings in disciplinary proceedings. The attorney general may present evidence bearing upon the matters in issue, and the burden shall be upon the applicant seeking reinstatement to establish the averments of his or her application as specified in section 24-4-105 (7), C.R.S. No application for reinstatement or for modification of a prior order shall be accepted unless the applicant deposits with the board all amounts unpaid under any prior order of the board.

(3) No licensee whose license is revoked shall be allowed to apply for reinstatement of such license earlier than two years after the effective date of the revocation.

12-32-109. Unauthorized practice - penalties. (1) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice podiatry within this state without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(1.5) Any person who presents as his or her own the diploma, license, certificate, or credentials of another, or who gives either false or forged evidence of any kind to the Colorado podiatry board, or any member thereof, in connection with an application for a license to practice podiatry, or who practices podiatry under a false or assumed name, or who falsely impersonates another licensee of a like or different name commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(2) No person shall advertise in any form or hold himself or herself out to the public as a podiatrist, or, in any sign or any advertisement, use the word “podiatrist”, “foot specialist”, “foot correctionist”, “foot expert”, “practipedist”, “podologist”, or any other terms or letters indicating or implying that he or she is a podiatrist or that he or she practices or holds himself or herself out as practicing podiatry or foot correction in any manner, without having, at the time of so doing, a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as required by this article.

(3) No podiatrist shall willfully cause the public to believe that he or she has qualifications extending beyond the limits of this article, and no podiatrist shall willfully sign his or her name using the prefix “Doctor” or “Dr.” without following his or her name with “podiatrist”, “Doctor of Podiatric Medicine”, or “D.P.M.”. No podiatrist shall use the title “podiatric physician” unless such title is followed by the words “practice limited to treatment of the foot and ankle”.

(4) The conduct of the practice of podiatry in a corporate capacity is hereby prohibited, but such prohibition shall not be construed to prevent the practice of podiatry by a professional service corporation whose stockholders are restricted solely to licensed podiatrists. Any such professional service corporation may exercise such powers and shall be subject to such limitations and requirements, insofar as applicable, as are provided in section 12-32-109.5, relating to professional service corporations for the practice of podiatry.

(5) The provisions of this article shall not apply to any physician licensed to practice medicine or surgery, any regularly commissioned surgeon of the United States armed forces or United States public health service, or any licensed osteopath.

(6) The provisions of this article shall not be construed to prohibit the recommending, advertising, fitting, adjusting, or sale of corrective shoes, arch supports, or similar mechanical appliances and foot remedies by retail dealers and manufacturers.

(7) The provisions of this article shall not be construed to prohibit, or to require a license for, the rendering of services under the personal and responsible direction and supervision of a person licensed to practice podiatry, and this exemption shall not apply to persons otherwise qualified to practice podiatry but not licensed to practice in this state.

(8) The provisions of this article shall not be construed to prohibit, or to require a license for, the rendering of nursing services by registered or other nurses in the lawful discharge of their duties pursuant to article 38 of this title.

12-32-109.3. Use of physician assistants. (1) A person licensed under the laws of this state to practice podiatry may delegate to a physician assistant licensed by the Colorado medical board pursuant to section 12-36-107.4 the authority to perform acts that constitute the practice of podiatry to the extent and in the manner authorized by rules promulgated by the Colorado podiatry board. Such acts shall be consistent with sound practices of podiatry. Each prescription issued by a physician assistant shall have the name of his or her supervising podiatrist printed on the prescription. Nothing in this section shall limit the ability of otherwise licensed health personnel to perform delegated acts. The dispensing of prescription medication by a physician assistant shall be subject to section 12-42.5-118 (6).

(2) If the authority to perform an act is delegated pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the act shall not be performed except under the personal and responsible direction and supervision of a person licensed under the laws of this state to practice podiatry, and said person shall not be responsible for the direction and supervision of more than two physician assistants at any one time without specific approval of the board. The board may define appropriate direction and supervision pursuant to rules and regulations.

(3) The provisions of sections 12-36-106 (5) and 12-36-107.4 governing physician assistants under the "Colorado Medical Practice Act" shall apply to physician assistants under this section.

12-32-109.5. Professional service corporations, limited liability companies, and registered limited liability partnerships for the practice of podiatry - definitions.

(1) Persons licensed to practice podiatry by the Colorado podiatry board may form professional service corporations for the practice of podiatry under the "Colorado Corporation Code", if such corporations are organized and operated in accordance with the provisions of this section. The articles of incorporation of such corporations shall contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The name of the corporation shall contain the words "professional company" or "professional corporation" or abbreviations thereof.

(b) The corporation shall be organized solely for the purposes of conducting the practice of podiatry only through persons licensed by the Colorado podiatry board to practice podiatry in the state of Colorado.

(c) The corporation may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado only in furtherance of and subject to its corporate purpose.

(d) All shareholders of the corporation shall be persons licensed by the Colorado podiatry board to practice podiatry in the state of Colorado, and who at all times own their shares in their own right. They shall be individuals who, except for illness, accident, time spent in the armed services, on vacations, and on leaves of absence not to exceed one year, are actively engaged in the practice of podiatry in the offices of the corporation.

(e) Provisions shall be made requiring any shareholder who ceases to be or for any reason is ineligible to be a shareholder to dispose of all his or her shares immediately, either to the corporation or to any person having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1).

(f) The president shall be a shareholder and a director and, to the extent possible, all other directors and officers shall be persons having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1). Lay directors and officers shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over professional matters. Notwithstanding sections 7-108-103 to 7-108-106, C.R.S., relating to the terms of office of directors, a professional service corporation for the practice of podiatry may provide in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws that the directors may have terms of office of up to six years and that the directors may be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, with the terms of each class staggered to provide for the periodic, but not annual, election of less than all the directors.

(g) The articles of incorporation shall provide and all shareholders of the corporation shall agree that all shareholders of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation or that all shareholders of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation except during periods of time when each person licensed by the Colorado podiatry board to practice podiatry in Colorado who is a shareholder or any employee of the corporation has a professional liability policy insuring himself or herself and all employees who are not licensed to practice podiatry who act at his or her direction in the amount of fifty thousand dollars for each claim and an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars or the corporation maintains in good standing professional liability insurance, which shall meet the following minimum standards:

(I) The insurance shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon the corporation by law for damages resulting from any claim made against the corporation arising out of the performance of professional services for others by those officers and employees of the corporation who are licensed by the Colorado podiatry board to practice podiatry.

(II) Such policies shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all nonprofessional employees.

(III) The insurance shall be in an amount for each claim of at least fifty thousand dollars multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice podiatry employed by the corporation. The policy may provide for an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice podiatry employed by the corporation, but no firm shall be required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate top limit of liability for all claims during the year of nine hundred thousand dollars.

(IV) The policy may provide that it does not apply to: Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured corporation or any stockholder or employee thereof; the conduct of any business enterprise, as distinguished from the practice of podiatry, in which the insured corporation under this section is not permitted to engage but which nevertheless may be owned by the insured corporation or in which the insured corporation may be a partner or which may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured corporation in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith; when not resulting from breach of professional duty, bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of any person, or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use thereof; and such policy may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and other usual matters.

(2) (a) The corporation shall do nothing which, if done by a person licensed to practice podiatry in the state of Colorado employed by it, would violate the standards of professional conduct as provided for in section 12-32-107 (3). Any violation by the corporation of this section shall be grounds for the Colorado podiatry board to terminate or suspend its right to practice podiatry.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of this section shall apply to the employment of a podiatrist by a professional service corporation, limited liability company, or registered limited liability partnership formed for the practice of podiatry in accordance with this section regardless of the date of formation of the entity.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish or change the obligation of each person licensed to practice podiatry employed by the corporation to conduct his or her practice in accordance with the standards of professional conduct provided for in section 12-32-107 (3). Any person licensed by the Colorado podiatry board to practice podiatry who by act or omission causes the corporation to act or fail to act in a way that violates such standards of professional conduct, including any provision of this section, shall be deemed personally responsible for the act or omission and shall be subject to discipline for the act or omission.

(4) A professional service corporation may adopt a pension, profit-sharing (whether cash or deferred), health and accident, insurance, or welfare plan for all or part of its employees including lay employees if such plan does not require or result in the sharing of specific or identifiable fees with lay employees, and if any payments made to lay employees, or into any such plan in behalf of lay employees, are based upon their compensation or length of service, or both, rather than the amount of fees or income received.

(5) (a) Except as provided in this section, corporations shall not practice podiatry.

(b) Employment of a podiatrist by a certified or licensed hospital, licensed skilled nursing facility, certified home health agency, licensed hospice, certified comprehensive outpatient rehabilitation facility, certified rehabilitation agency, authorized health maintenance organization, accredited educational entity, or other entity wholly owned and operated by any governmental unit or agency shall not be considered the corporate practice of podiatry if:

(I) The relationship created by the employment does not affect the ability of the podiatrist to exercise his or her independent judgment in the practice of the profession;

(II) The podiatrist's independent judgment in the practice of the profession is in fact unaffected by the relationship;

(III) The policies of the entity employing the podiatrist contain a procedure by which complaints by a podiatrist alleging a violation of this paragraph (b) may be heard and resolved;

(IV) The podiatrist is not required to exclusively refer any patient to a particular provider or supplier; except that nothing in this subparagraph (IV) shall invalidate the policy provisions of a contract between a podiatrist and his or her intermediary or the managed care provisions of a health coverage plan; and

(V) The podiatrist is not required to take any other action he or she determines not to be in the patient's best interest.

(c) A podiatrist employed by an entity described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) shall be an employee of the entity for purposes of liability for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employee.

(6) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Articles of incorporation" includes operating agreements of limited liability companies and partnership agreements of registered limited liability partnerships.

(b) "Corporation" includes a limited liability company organized under the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S., and a limited liability partnership registered under section 7-60-144 or 7-64-1002, C.R.S.

(c) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(d) "Employees" includes employees, members, and managers of a limited liability company and employees and partners of a registered limited liability partnership.

(d.5) "Health benefit plan" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 10-16-102 (21), C.R.S.

(e) "Share" includes a member's rights in a limited liability company and a partner's rights in a registered limited liability partnership.

(f) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

12-32-111. Renewal of license. (1) (a) The Colorado podiatry board shall set reasonable continuing education requirements for renewal of license, but in no event shall the board require more than fourteen hours' credit of continuing education per year. A podiatrist desiring to renew his or her license to practice podiatry shall submit to the Colorado podiatry board the information the board believes necessary to show that he or she has fulfilled the board's continuing education requirements and a fee to be determined and collected pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(b) On or before the 2013 podiatrist license renewal cycle, the Colorado podiatry board shall promulgate rules and implement an ongoing professional development program that shall be developed in conjunction with statewide professional associations that represent podiatrists. The professional development program may include the continuing education requirements in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1).

(1.5) The board shall establish a questionnaire to accompany the renewal form. The questionnaire shall be designed to determine if the licensee has acted in violation of, or has been disciplined for actions that might be construed as violations of, this article or that may make the licensee unfit to practice podiatry with reasonable care and safety. The failure of an applicant to answer the questionnaire accurately shall constitute unprofessional conduct pursuant to section 12-32-107.

(2) No license to practice podiatry that has been delinquent for more than two years shall be renewed unless the applicant demonstrates to the Colorado podiatry board his or her continued professional competence.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1224), ch. 420, p. 2158, § 19, effective July 1, 2010.)

(4) Renewal or reinstatement of a license shall be pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies, and a license shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the license shall expire. A person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or in section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The board shall establish the criteria for reinstatement of a license.

12-32-113. Injunctive proceedings. The Colorado podiatry board, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, may apply for injunctive relief through the attorney general in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person who does not possess a currently valid or active podiatry license from committing any act declared to be unlawful or prohibited by this article. If it is established that the defendant has been or is committing an act declared to be unlawful or prohibited by this article, the court or any judge thereof shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining said defendant from further committing such act. In the case of a violation of any injunction issued under the provisions of this section, the court or any judge thereof may summarily try and punish the offender for contempt of court. Such injunctive proceedings shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided for in this article.

12-32-114. Duplicates of license. The Colorado podiatry board is authorized to issue a duplicate license to any person to whom a license to practice podiatry in this state has been issued, upon application, properly verified by oath, establishing to the satisfaction of the board that the original license has been lost or destroyed and upon payment to the board of a fee to be determined by rule adopted by the board. No person shall be entitled to a duplicate license unless he or she is a licensee in good standing.

12-32-201. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that public exposure to the hazards of ionizing radiation used for diagnostic purposes should be minimized wherever possible. Accordingly, the general assembly finds, determines, and declares that for any podiatric physician or podiatrist to allow an untrained person to operate a machine source of ionizing radiation, including without limitation a device commonly known as an "X-ray machine", or to administer such radiation to a patient for diagnostic purposes is a threat to the public health and safety.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that podiatric physicians or podiatrists utilizing unlicensed persons in their practices provide those persons with a minimum level of education and training before allowing them to operate machine sources of ionizing radiation; however, it is not the general assembly's intent to discourage education and training beyond this minimum. It is further the intent of the general assembly that established minimum training and education requirements correspond as closely as possible to the requirements of each particular work setting as determined by the Colorado podiatry board pursuant to this part 2.

(3) The general assembly seeks to ensure, and accordingly declares its intent, that in promulgating the rules and regulations authorized by this part 2, the Colorado podiatry board will make every effort, consistent with its other statutory duties, to avoid creating a shortage of qualified individuals to operate machine sources of ionizing radiation for beneficial medical purposes in any area of the state.

Source: L. 91: Entire part added, p. 1609, § 1, effective May 1.

12-32-202. Board authorized to issue rules. (1) (a) The Colorado podiatry board shall adopt rules and regulations prescribing minimum standards for the qualifications, education, and training of unlicensed persons operating machine sources of ionizing radiation and administering such radiation to patients for diagnostic podiatric use. No podiatric physician nor podiatrist shall allow any unlicensed person to operate a machine source of ionizing radiation or to administer such radiation to any patient unless such person has met the standards then in effect under rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this section. The board may adopt rules and regulations allowing a grace period in which newly hired operators of machine sources of ionizing radiation shall receive the training required pursuant to this section.

(b) For purposes of this part 2, "unlicensed person" means any person who does not hold a current and active license entitling the person to practice podiatry under the provisions of this article.

(2) The Colorado podiatry board shall seek the assistance of licensed podiatrists in developing and formulating the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this section.

(3) The required number of hours of training and education for all unlicensed persons operating machine sources of ionizing radiation and administering such radiation to patients shall be established by the board by rule on or before July 1, 1992. This standard shall apply to all persons in podiatric settings other than hospitals and similar facilities licensed by the department of public health and environment pursuant to section 25-1.5-103, C.R.S. Such training and education may be obtained through programs approved by the appropriate authority of any state or through equivalent programs and training experience including on-the-job training as determined by the board.

12-33-202.	Board authorized to issue rules.

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-33-101. Legislative declaration - unlawful acts - license required. (1) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the general assembly of the state of Colorado that, in order to safeguard the life, health, and property and the public welfare of the people of this state and in order to protect the people of this state against unauthorized, unqualified, and improper practice of chiropractic, it is necessary that a proper regulatory authority be established and adequately provided for.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to practice or to offer to practice chiropractic in the state of Colorado, or to use in connection with his name or business or otherwise to assume, use, or advertise any title or description which will or which reasonably might be expected to mislead the public into believing he is a doctor of chiropractic, unless such person has been duly licensed under the provisions of this article. Anyone who holds himself out to the public as a doctor of chiropractic without qualifying for proper licensing under this article and without submitting to the regulations provided in this article endangers thereby the public life, health, property, and welfare.

12-33-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Acupuncture" means the puncture of the skin with fine needles for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes.

(1.3) (a) "Animal chiropractic" means diagnosing and treating animal vertebral subluxation through chiropractic adjustment of the spine or extremity articulations of fully awake dogs and horses. The chiropractic adjustment may be performed only with the hands or with the use of a hand-held low-force mechanical adjusting device functionally equivalent to the device known as an activator; all other equipment is prohibited.

(b) "Animal chiropractic" does not include:

(I) Performing veterinary medical care and diagnosis;

(II) Performing surgery;

(III) Dispensing or administering medications, dietary or nutritional supplements, herbs, essences, nutraceutical products, or anything else supplied orally, rectally, by inhalation, by injection, or topically except topically applied heat or cold;

(IV) Generating radiographic images or performing imaging procedures, including thermography;

(V) Performing acupuncture, or any treatment activity other than chiropractic adjustment;

(VI) Providing magnetic or other nonmanual treatment techniques, colonics, colored-light therapy, homeopathy, radionics, or vitamin therapy;

(VII) Venipuncture;

(VIII) Making diagnoses by methods such as live cell analysis, pendulum divining, iridology, hair analysis, nutritional deficiency questionnaires, herbal crystallization analysis, or food allergy testing.

(1.5) "Animal vertebral subluxation" means a lesion or dysfunction in a joint or motion segment in which alignment, movement integrity, or physiological function are altered, although contact between joint surfaces remains intact, which may influence biomechanical and neural integrity. Diagnosis of animal vertebral subluxation typically involves evaluation of gait and radiographs, and static and motion palpation techniques that are used to identify joint dysfunction. Diagnosis of animal vertebral subluxation does not include methods such as applied kinesiology, reflexology, pendulum divining, or thermography.

(1.7) “Chiropractic” means that branch of the healing arts that is based on the premise that disease is attributable to the abnormal functioning of the human nervous system. It includes the diagnosing and analyzing of human ailments and seeks the elimination of the abnormal functioning of the human nervous system by the adjustment or manipulation, by hand or instrument, of the articulations and adjacent tissue of the human body, particularly the spinal column, and the use as indicated of procedures that facilitate the adjustment or manipulation and make it more effective and the use of sanitary, hygienic, nutritional, and physical remedial measures for the promotion, maintenance, and restoration of health, the prevention of disease, and the treatment of human ailments. “Chiropractic” includes the use of venipuncture for diagnostic purposes. “Chiropractic” does not include colonic irrigation therapy. “Chiropractic” includes treatment by acupuncture when performed by an appropriately trained chiropractor as determined by the Colorado state board of chiropractic examiners. Nothing in this section shall apply to persons using acupuncture not licensed by the board.

(2) “Chiropractic adjustment” means the application, by hand, by a trained chiropractor who has fulfilled the educational and licensing requirements of this article, of adjustive force to correct subluxations, fixations, structural distortions, abnormal tensions, and disrelated structures, or to remove interference with the transmission of nerve force. The application of the dynamic adjustive thrust is designed and intended to produce and usually elicits audible and perceptible release of tensions and movement of tissues or anatomical parts for the purpose of removing or correcting interference to nerve transmission and expression.

(3) “Electrotherapy” means the application of any radiant or current energies of high or low frequency, alternating or direct, except surgical cauterization, electrocoagulation, the use of radium in any form, and X-ray therapy.

(4) “Venipuncture” means the puncture of a vein for the withdrawal of blood for the purpose of diagnosis through blood analysis. Any blood analysis shall be done by a chiropractor or by a commercial laboratory.

(5) “Veterinary medical clearance” means that a veterinarian licensed under article 64 of this title has examined an animal patient, has provided a diagnosis or differential diagnosis if appropriate, and has provided written clearance, which may be transmitted electronically, for animal chiropractic. The veterinary medical clearance shall precede the commencement of animal chiropractic treatment and may contain limitations on the scope, date of initiation, and duration of chiropractic treatment. Once a veterinary medical clearance has been received, the chiropractor is responsible for developing the plan of care for the animal patient’s animal chiropractic.

12-33-103. State board of chiropractic examiners - subject to termination - repeal of article. (1) There is hereby created a Colorado state board of chiropractic examiners, referred to in this article as the “board”, consisting of five members who are citizens of the United States, four of whom shall have practiced chiropractic in the state of Colorado for five years prior to their appointment and one of whom shall be appointed from the public at large. The governor shall appoint members of the board for a term of four years. Any board member may be removed by the governor for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

(2) Repealed.

(3) (a) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the Colorado state board of chiropractic examiners created by this section.

(b) This article is repealed, effective July 1, 2020.

12-33-107. Board powers. (1) The board is authorized to and shall:

(a) Adopt, promulgate, and from time to time revise such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law as may be necessary to enable it to carry out the provisions of this article; except that the board shall not adopt the code of ethics of any professional group or association by rule or regulation;

(b) Examine, license, and renew licenses of duly qualified chiropractic applicants;

(c) Approve or refuse to approve chiropractic schools and colleges;

(d) Conduct hearings upon complaints concerning the disciplining of chiropractors;

(e) Cause the prosecution of and seek injunctions against all persons violating this article;

(f) Employ investigators, issue subpoenas, compel the attendance of witnesses, compel the production of records, books, papers, and documents, and administer oaths to persons giving testimony at hearings;

(g) Repealed.

(h) Identify and proscribe, by rule, chiropractic practices which are untrue, deceptive, or misleading.

ANNOTATION

State board of chiropractic examiners is an “agency” of the state and may not be sued in a section 1983 civil rights action. States, state officials, and governmental entities that are considered arms of the state are not “persons” within the meaning of section 1983. Stjernholm v. Colo. State Bd. of Chiropractic Exam’rs, 820 P.2d 1166 (Colo. App. 1991).

The board performs both quasi-legislative and quasi-judicatory functions. Rule-making is a quasi-legislative function, and professional discipline and license suspension are quasi-judicial in nature. Bd. of Chiropractic

Exam’rs v. Stjernholm, 935 P.2d 959 (Colo. 1997).

As public officials engaging in quasi-judicial actions, the state board, board members, and board attorneys enjoy absolute immunity from suit for damages, state or federal. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam’rs v. Stjernholm, 935 P.2d 959 (Colo. 1997).

However, official immunity from damages does not equate to immunity from injunctive relief under § 1983. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam’rs v. Stjernholm, 935 P.2d 959 (Colo. 1997).

12-33-107.5. Limitation on authority. The authority granted the board under the provisions of this article shall not be construed to authorize the board to arbitrate or adjudicate fee disputes between licensees or between a licensee and any other party.

12-33-111. Licensure - minimum education requirements. (1) (a) A minimum educational requirement shall include a knowledge of the basic sciences and for original licensure shall include graduation from a high school or its educational equivalent and graduation from an approved chiropractic school or college which teaches a course of not less than four thousand resident classroom hours in a period of four academic years. All applicants for licensure who matriculate in a chiropractic school or college shall present evidence of having graduated from a chiropractic school or college having status with the commission on accreditation of the council on chiropractic education, or its successor, or from a chiropractic school or college which meets equivalent standards. The schedule of minimum educational requirements to enable any person to practice chiropractic in the state of Colorado is, except as otherwise provided, as follows:

- Group 1. Anatomy, including embryology and histology
- Group 2. Physiology and psychology
- Group 3. Biochemistry, inorganic and organic chemistry
- Group 4. Pathology, bacteriology, and toxicology
- Group 5. Public health, hygiene, sanitation, and first aid
- Group 6. Diagnosis (to include, but not be limited to, physical, clinical, laboratory, and all other recognized diagnostic procedures), pediatrics, dermatology, syphilology, psychiatry, and X ray
- Group 7. Obstetrics, gynecology
- Group 8. Principles and practice of chiropractic, adjustive technic. Electives including dietetics, nutrition, posture, physiotherapy, electrotherapy, and surgical, optometric, and dental indications

(b) Any chiropractic college or school meeting the requirements of this section and the rules and regulations adopted by the board shall be eligible for approval.

12-33-111.5. Display of license required. Every licensed practitioner of chiropractic shall conspicuously display his or her license to practice in this state. If a chiropractor practices at several locations, his or her name and license number shall be displayed in a manner that can be easily recognized by patients. Persons who engage in the practice of chiropractic under the name of a partnership, association, or other entity shall conspicuously display at the entrance of their place of business the name of each member or associate of such entity who is engaged in the practice of chiropractic.

12-33-112. Application for license - fee - examination. Any person who fulfills the minimum educational requirements prescribed by this article and by the board, who is not less than twenty-one years of age, who desires to obtain a license to practice chiropractic in this state, and who is not entitled to a license therefor under other provisions of this article may make application for such license upon such forms and in such manner as prescribed by the board, which application shall be accompanied by an examination fee. The board may refuse to examine or license an applicant if the applicant has committed any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action against a licensed chiropractor. Such applicant shall be examined by the board or the board's designee in the subjects outlined in section 12-33-111 to determine the applicant's qualifications to practice chiropractic. A license shall be granted to all applicants who on such examination are found qualified by attaining a passing grade on the examinations adopted by the board. Qualification in that portion of the examination relating to the basic sciences shall be established by the applicant submitting proof satisfactory to the board of successfully passing the examination in the basic sciences given by the national board of chiropractic examiners. The board may adopt the practical examination developed and administered by the national board of chiropractic examiners as the practical portion of the examination. If the board adopts such practical examination developed and administered by the national board of chiropractic examiners, qualification in the practical portion of the examination shall be established by the applicant submitting proof satisfactory to the board of successfully passing the practical examination given by the national board of chiropractic examiners, and the passing score for such practical examination shall be as set by the national board of chiropractic examiners. Any chiropractic applicant who desires to practice electrotherapy shall present evidence that he or she has successfully completed a course of not less than one hundred twenty classroom hours in this subject at a school approved by the board or under the instruction of an approved provider.

12-33-113. Licensure by endorsement. (1) Upon application for a license to practice chiropractic in this state, accompanied by the required fee, the board shall issue such license to any person who furnishes, upon such form and in such manner as the board prescribes, evidence satisfactory to the board that:

(a) The applicant is licensed to practice chiropractic in another state, a territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a province of Canada; and

(b) At the time of application under this section, the applicant possesses credentials and qualifications that are, in the judgment of the board, equivalent to this state's requirements for licensure by examination; and

(c) (I) The applicant has been engaged in the full-time practice of chiropractic, or has taught general clinical chiropractic subjects at an accredited school of chiropractic, as set forth in section 12-33-111 (I) (a), in one of the jurisdictions referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) for at least three of the five years immediately preceding the date of the receipt of the application; or

(II) The applicant has demonstrated competency as a chiropractor as determined by the board; and

(d) The applicant has not been convicted of a crime that would be grounds for the refusal, suspension, or revocation of a license to practice chiropractic in this state if committed in this state; and

(e) The applicant's license to practice chiropractic is in good standing.

12-33-114. Renewal of license. (1) Licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-33-116. Continuing education. It is hereby expressly declared to be the purpose of this section to provide for an increase in the annual scientific educational requirements of licensed Colorado chiropractors. Each licensed Colorado chiropractor in active practice within the state of Colorado shall be required annually to attend not less than fifteen hours of scientific clinics, forums, or chiropractic educational study consisting of subjects basic to the field of the healing arts as set forth in section 12-33-111. Each year at the time of its regular June meeting the board shall prepare an educational schedule of minimum postgraduate requirements of subjects as set forth in section 12-33-111 that shall be met by any school, clinic, forum, or convention giving such educational work, and such minimum standards must be complied with by such school, clinic, forum, or convention before the board issues a postgraduate attendance certificate. Credit hours shall be determined by the board. Applicants shall apply to the board prior to or after the course and present proof of attendance and synopsis of the course content for approval of credit hours. This provision is made mandatory in the best interest of public health and welfare and to provide progress in the field of chiropractic. If any licensed chiropractor is unable to comply with this section on account of dire emergency and for good cause shown, the board may waive the provisions of this section.

12-33-116.5. Professional liability insurance required. (1) (a) It is unlawful for any person to practice chiropractic within this state unless the person purchases and maintains professional liability insurance in an amount not less than three hundred thousand dollars per claim with an aggregate liability limit for all claims during the year of one million dollars.

(b) Professional liability insurance required by this section shall cover all acts within the scope of practice as defined by section 12-33-102. Professional liability coverage shall cover acupuncture and electrotherapy only if the licensee is authorized to perform these acts.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the board may by rule exempt or establish lesser liability insurance requirements for any class of licensee which:

- (a) Practices chiropractic as employees of the United States government;
- (b) Renders limited or occasional chiropractic services;
- (c) Performs less than full-time active chiropractic services because of administrative or other nonclinical duties of partial or complete retirement;
- (d) Provides uncompensated chiropractic care to patients but does not otherwise provide compensated chiropractic care to patients; or
- (e) Practices chiropractic in such a manner that renders the amounts provided in subsection (1) of this section unreasonable or unattainable.

12-33-117. Discipline of licensees - letters of admonition, suspension, revocation, denial, and probation - grounds. (1) Upon any of the following grounds, the board may issue a letter of admonition to a licensee or may revoke, suspend, deny, refuse to renew, or impose conditions on such licensee's license:

- (a) Using fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in applying for, securing, renewing, or seeking reinstatement of a license or in taking an examination provided for in this article;
- (b) An act or omission that constitutes negligent chiropractic practice or fails to meet generally accepted standards of chiropractic practice;
- (c) Conviction of a felony or any crime that would constitute a violation of this article. For purposes of this subsection (1), "conviction" includes the acceptance of a guilty plea or a plea of nolo contendere or the imposition of a deferred sentence.
- (d) Habitual intemperance or excessive use of a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or a habit-forming drug;
- (e) Habitual intemperance or excessive use of alcohol;
- (f) Disobedience to a lawful rule or order of the board;
- (g) Persisting in maintaining an unsanitary office or practicing under unsanitary conditions after warning from the board;
- (h) Repealed.
- (i) False or misleading advertising;
- (j) Failure to report malpractice judgments or settlements within sixty days;
- (k) Violation of abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S., or commission of a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;
- (l) Treating a patient by colonic irrigation or allowing colonic irrigation to be performed at the licensee's premises;
- (m) Practicing with a suspended or expired license;
- (n) Willfully deceiving or attempting to deceive the board of examiners or their agents with reference to any matter under investigation by the board;
- (o) Practicing under an assumed name;
- (p) Unethical advertising, as defined in subsection (3) of this section, or advertising through any medium that the licensee will perform an act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;
- (q) Violating this article or aiding any person to violate this article;
- (r) Knowingly practicing in the employment of or in association with any person who is practicing in an unlawful or unprofessional manner;
- (s) Offering, giving, or receiving commissions, rebates, or other forms of remuneration for the referral of clients; except that a licensee may compensate an independent advisory or marketing agent for advertising or marketing services, which services may include the referral of patients identified through such services, and a licensee may give an incidental gift to a patient in appreciation for a referral;

(t) Conducting any enterprise other than the regular practice of chiropractic whereby the holder's license is used as a means of attracting patients or attaining prestige or patronage in the conduct of such enterprise;

(u) Permitting the practice of chiropractic, the holding out of such practice, or the maintenance of an office for such by an unlicensed person in association with himself or herself;

(v) Engaging in any of the following activities and practices: Willful and repeated ordering or performance, without clinical justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies; the administration, without clinical justification, of treatment which is demonstrably unnecessary; the failure to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is not consistent with the standard of care for the profession; or ordering or performing, without clinical justification, any service, X ray, or treatment which is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of chiropractic as interpreted by the board;

(w) Falsifying or making incorrect essential entries or failing to make essential entries on patient records;

(x) Violating section 8-42-101 (3.6), C.R.S.;

(y) Violating section 12-33-202 or any rule adopted pursuant to said section;

(z) Failing to report to the board the surrender of a license to, or adverse action taken against a license by, a licensing agency in another state, territory, or country, a governmental agency, a law enforcement agency, or a court for acts or conduct that would constitute grounds for discipline pursuant to this article;

(aa) Engaging in a sexual act with a patient during the course of such patient's care or within six months immediately following the termination of the chiropractor's professional relationship with the patient. "Sexual act", as used in this paragraph (aa), means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration, as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(bb) Abandoning a patient by any means, including, but not limited to, failing to provide a referral to another chiropractor or other appropriate health care practitioner when such referral was necessary to meet generally accepted standards of chiropractic care;

(cc) Failing to provide adequate or proper supervision when employing unlicensed persons in a chiropractic practice;

(dd) Having a physical or mental disability that makes him or her unable to render chiropractic services with reasonable skill and safety;

(ee) Performing a procedure in the course of patient care that is beyond the chiropractor's training or competence or the scope of authorized chiropractic services under this article;

(ff) Failing to respond to a board-generated complaint letter.

(1.5) In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this section, a chiropractor violating any provision of this article or any rule promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined no less than one thousand dollars for a first violation proven by the board, up to three thousand dollars for a second violation proven by the board, and up to five thousand dollars for a third or subsequent violation proven by the board. The board shall establish guidelines for the imposition of such fines. All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (1.5) shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

(2) Disciplinary action taken against a licensee's ability to practice in another state or country shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this article and shall constitute grounds for discipline if the acts giving rise to such disciplinary action would violate this article if committed in this state.

(2.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

(3) (a) For purposes of this section, the term “unethical advertising” shall include, but not be limited to, advertising, through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise, which:

- (I) Contains false or misleading statements;
- (II) Holds out or promises cures or guarantees results;
- (III) Contains claims which cannot be substantiated by standard laboratory or diagnostic procedures.

(IV) and (V) Repealed.

(4) Any doctor of chiropractic proven to be incompetent or negligent may be required to take an examination, given by the board, in the subjects outlined in section 12-33-111. In addition, the board may order the doctor of chiropractic to take such therapy or courses of training or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found in the hearing.

(5) In the event any person holding a license to practice chiropractic in this state is determined to be mentally incompetent or insane by a court of competent jurisdiction and a court enters, pursuant to part 3 or 4 of article 14 of title 15 or section 27-65-109 (4) or 27-65-127, C.R.S., an order specifically finding that the mental incompetency or insanity is of such a degree that the person holding a license is incapable of continuing to practice chiropractic, his or her license shall automatically be suspended by the board, and, anything in this article to the contrary notwithstanding, such suspension shall continue until the licensee is found by such court to be competent to practice chiropractic.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-33-117 is similar to repealed CSA, C. 34, § 11, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Under the provisions of this section, proof of the final and conclusive conviction of a crime of the class mentioned by the section would be sufficient ground for suspension or revocation of a license. Hummel v. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam’rs, 103 Colo. 476, 87 P.2d 248 (1939).

Where a statute provides that “conviction of a crime” shall be a sufficient ground for the suspension or revocation of a license to practice chiropractic, a complaint and notice based thereon which allege only “a commission of crime", are insufficient. Hummel v. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 476, 87 P.2d 248 (1939).

In proceedings for the revocation of the license of a chiropractor to follow his profession, a complaint which alleges only that the respondent had committed petit larceny is wholly insufficient under the provisions of this section. Hummel v. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 476, 87 P.2d 248 (1939).

Chiropractic practitioner was guilty of "unprofessional conduct" and "unethical advertising" as those terms are defined in this section because of advertisements placed in the Denver Post and the yellow pages of the metropolitan area telephone directory. Bernie v. State Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs, 36 Colo. App. 229, 538 P.2d 1345 (1975).

This section does not prohibit a chiropractor from employing third persons to use tele-marketing to advertise his services. Plott v. Griffiths, 938 F.2d 164 (10th Cir. 1991).

This section prohibits holding oneself out as a doctor of chiropractic while one's license is suspended. Stjernholm v. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs, 865 P.2d 853 (Colo. App. 1993).

12-33-117.5. Mental and physical examination of licensees. (1) If the board has reasonable cause to believe a licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, it may require such licensee to take a mental or physical examination given by a physician or other qualified provider designated by the board. If the licensee refuses to undergo such examination or to release all medical records necessary to determine his or her ability to practice safely, unless such refusal or failure is due to circumstances beyond the licensee's control, the board may suspend such licensee's license until the results of such examination are known and the board has made a determination of the licensee's fitness to practice. The board shall proceed with an order for examination and make its determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order for examination issued by the board pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall include the board's reasons for believing the licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety.

(3) For purposes of any disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, a licensee shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of an examining physician's testimony and examination reports on the basis of privilege.

(4) A licensee may submit to the board testimony and examination reports received from a physician chosen by the licensee, if such testimony and reports pertain to a condition that the board has alleged may preclude the licensee from practicing with reasonable skill and safety.

(5) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one held before the board and shall not be a public record nor made available to the public.

12-33-118. Use of title. A license to practice chiropractic entitles the holder to use the title "Doctor" or "Dr." when accompanied by the word "Chiropractor" or the letters "D.C.", and to use the title of "Doctor of Chiropractic". Such license shall not confer upon the licensee the right to practice surgery or obstetrics or to prescribe, compound, or administer drugs, or to administer anesthetics. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit or to require a license for bona fide chiropractic students or interns in attendance upon a regular course of instruction in a lawfully operated chiropractic school or hospital with respect to performing chiropractic services within such school or hospital while under the direct supervision of a licensed chiropractor.

12-33-119. Disciplinary proceedings. (1) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ administrative law judges, on a full-time or part-time basis, to conduct hearings as provided by this article or on any matter within the board's jurisdiction upon such conditions and terms as the board may determine.

(2) A proceeding for the discipline of a licensee may be commenced when the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee under the board's jurisdiction has committed an act that may violate section 12-33-117.

(3) The attendance of witnesses and the production of books, patient records, papers, and other pertinent documents at the hearing may be summoned by subpoenas issued by the board, which shall be served in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure for service of subpoenas.

(3.5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1825, § 65, effective August 4, 2004.)

(4) Disciplinary proceedings and hearings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) A previously issued license to engage in the practice of chiropractic shall not be revoked or suspended until after a hearing conducted pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., except in the case of a deliberate and willful violation of this article or if the public health, safety, and welfare require emergency action under section 24-4-104 (4), C.R.S. The denial of an application to renew an existing license shall be treated in all respects as a revocation. If an application for a new license is denied, the applicant, within sixty days after the giving of notice of such action, may request a hearing as provided in section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(7) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board. The person providing such copies shall prepare them from the original record and shall delete from the copy provided pursuant to the subpoena the name of the patient, but he or she shall identify the patient by a numbered code, to be retained by the custodian of the records from which the copies were made.

(b) Upon certification of the custodian that the copies are true and complete except for the patient's name, they shall be deemed authentic, subject to the right to subpoena the originals for the limited purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the copies. The originals shall remain confidential and be returned to the custodian as soon as the accuracy of the copy is ascertained or as soon as the case is concluded if the original is needed as evidence of falsification. No privilege of confidentiality shall exist with respect to such copies, and no liability shall lie against the board or the custodian for furnishing or using such copies in accordance with this subsection (7).

(c) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(8) If a licensee has committed an act which violates section 12-33-117, the board shall withhold, revoke, or suspend an existing license, issue a letter of admonition, or grant probation on terms and conditions set by the board, or otherwise discipline a licensee as provided for in this article. A revoked or suspended license may thereafter be reissued by the board. The board may dismiss or terminate probation prior to the completion of the probationary period.

(9) (a) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be sent by certified mail to the chiropractor against whom the complaint was made and a copy also sent to the person making the complaint. When a letter of admonition is sent by certified mail by the board to a chiropractor complained against, such chiropractor shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based. If such request is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated, and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(b) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(10) Notwithstanding other laws to the contrary, investigations, examinations, meetings, and other proceedings of the board conducted pursuant to this section are not required to be conducted publically and minutes of the board need not be open to public inspection; except that final action of the board taken pursuant to this section shall be open to the public.

ANNOTATION

Disciplinary procedures under this section invoke application of the Administrative Procedures Act. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs v. Stjernholm, 935 P.2d 959 (Colo. 1997).

Board acted properly. There is nothing in the record to indicate that the board denied the chiropractic practitioner any constitutional right or privilege, acted in excess of its statutory authority or jurisdiction, or acted improperly, arbitrarily, or capriciously. Bernie v. State Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs, 36 Colo. App. 229, 538 P.2d 1345 (1975).

Board of chiropractic examiners only has authority to suspend a license summarily in situations involving an emergency, despite the APA's provision allowing summary suspension for either a deliberate or willful violation or an emergency situation, since the more specific statutory provision relating to a particular agency controls. Stjernholm v. Bd. of Chiropractic Exam'rs, 865 P.2d 853 (Colo. App. 1993).

12-33-119.1. Immunity in professional review. (1) If a professional review committee is established pursuant to this section to investigate the quality of care, including utilization review, being given by a person licensed pursuant to this article, it shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed under this article, but such committee may be authorized to act only by:

(a) The board; or

(b) A society or an association of persons licensed pursuant to this article whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed pursuant to this article residing in this state if the licensee whose services are the subject of review is a member of such society or association.

(2) Any member of the board or professional review committee, the board's or professional review committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or professional review committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-33-119.2. Cease-and-desist orders. (1) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 1 have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this part 1, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this part 1, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(4) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-33-121.

12-33-120. Unauthorized practice - penalties - exemption. (1) Except as specified in subsection (2) or (3) of this section, any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice chiropractic without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(2) A chiropractor who lawfully practices chiropractic in another state or territory and whose license is in good standing in such other state or territory may practice chiropractic in this state for the limited purpose of treating members, coaches, and staff of a visiting sports team while in Colorado without having a license issued pursuant to this article. An unlicensed chiropractor practicing pursuant to this subsection (2) shall not:

- (a) Practice in Colorado more than ten days in a twelve-month period;
- (b) Enter Colorado to practice more than three times in a twelve-month period; or
- (c) Hold himself or herself out as a chiropractor to or practice chiropractic with members of the general public.

(3) A chiropractor who lawfully practices chiropractic in another state or territory may provide chiropractic services to athletes or team personnel registered to train at the United States olympic training center in Colorado Springs or to provide chiropractic services at an event in this state sanctioned by the United States olympic committee. The chiropractor's services shall be contingent upon the requirements and approvals of the United States olympic committee and shall not exceed ninety days per calendar year.

12-33-122. Duty of district attorneys - duty of department of regulatory agencies. It is the duty of the several district attorneys of this state to prosecute all persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this article. It is the duty of the secretary-treasurer of the board, under the direction of the board, to aid said attorneys in the enforcement of this article. It is the duty of the attorney general to advise the board upon all legal matters and to represent the board in all actions brought by or against it. It is the duty of the department of regulatory agencies to forward to the board a copy of any correspondence concerning the professional conduct or competence of any licensed chiropractor which the department either transmits or receives.

12-33-124. Professional service corporations, limited liability companies, and registered limited liability partnerships for the practice of chiropractic - definitions.

(1) Persons licensed to practice chiropractic by the board may form professional service corporations for the practice of chiropractic under the "Colorado Corporation Code", if such corporations are organized and operated in accordance with the provisions of this section. The articles of incorporation of such corporations shall contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The name of the corporation shall contain the words "professional company" or "professional corporation" or abbreviations thereof.

(b) The corporation shall be organized solely for the purposes of conducting the practice of chiropractic only through persons licensed by the board to practice chiropractic in the state of Colorado.

(c) The corporation may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado only in furtherance of and subject to its corporate purpose.

(d) All shareholders of the corporation shall be persons licensed by the board to practice chiropractic in the state of Colorado, and who at all times own their shares in their own right. They shall be individuals who, except for illness, accident, time spent in the armed services, on vacations, and on leaves of absence not to exceed one year, are actively engaged in the practice of chiropractic in the offices of the corporation.

(e) Provisions shall be made requiring any shareholder who ceases to be or for any reason is ineligible to be a shareholder to dispose of all his shares forthwith, either to the corporation or to any person having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1).

(f) The president shall be a shareholder and a director, and to the extent possible, all other directors and officers shall be persons having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1). Lay directors and officers shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over professional matters.

(g) The articles of incorporation shall provide, and all shareholders of the corporation shall agree, that all shareholders of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation, or that all shareholders of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation except during periods of time when the corporation maintains in good standing professional liability insurance which shall meet the following minimum standards:

(I) The insurance shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon the corporation by law for damages resulting from any claim made against the corporation arising out of the performance of professional services for others by those officers and employees of the corporation who are licensed by the board to practice chiropractic.

(II) Such policies shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all nonprofessional employees.

(III) The insurance shall be in an amount for each claim of at least fifty thousand dollars multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice chiropractic employed by the corporation. The policy may provide for an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice chiropractic employed by the corporation, but no firm shall be required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate top limit of liability for all claims during the year of nine hundred thousand dollars.

(IV) The policy may provide that it does not apply to: Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured corporation or any stockholder or employee thereof; the conduct of any business enterprise, as distinguished from the practice of chiropractic, in which the insured corporation under this section is not permitted to engage but which nevertheless may be owned by the insured corporation or in which the insured corporation may be a partner or which may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured corporation in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith; when not resulting from breach of professional duty, bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of any person, or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use thereof; and such policy may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and other usual matters.

(3) The corporation shall do nothing which, if done by a person licensed to practice chiropractic in the state of Colorado employed by it, would violate the standards of professional conduct as provided for in section 12-33-117. Any violation by the corporation of this section shall be grounds for the board to terminate or suspend its right to practice chiropractic.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish or change the obligation of each person licensed to practice chiropractic employed by the corporation to conduct his practice in accordance with the standards of professional conduct provided for in section 12-33-117. Any person licensed by the board to practice chiropractic who by act or omission causes the corporation to act or fail to act in a way which violates such standards of professional conduct, including any provision of this section, shall be deemed personally responsible for such act or omission and shall be subject to discipline therefor.

(5) A professional service corporation may adopt a pension, profit-sharing (whether cash or deferred), health and accident insurance, or welfare plan for all or part of its employees including lay employees if such plan does not require or result in the sharing of specific or identifiable fees with lay employees, and if any payments made to lay employees, or into any such plan in behalf of lay employees, are based upon their compensation or length of service, or both, rather than the amount of fees or income received.

(6) Except as provided in this section, corporations shall not practice chiropractic.

(7) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Articles of incorporation" includes operating agreements of limited liability companies and partnership agreements of registered limited liability partnerships.

(b) "Corporation" includes a limited liability company organized under the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S., and a limited liability partnership registered under section 7-60-144 or 7-64-1002, C.R.S.

(c) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(d) "Employees" includes employees, members, and managers of a limited liability company and employees and partners of a registered limited liability partnership.

(e) "Share" includes a member's rights in a limited liability company and a partner's rights in a registered limited liability partnership.

(f) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

12-33-125. Reporting requirements. A person licensed to practice chiropractic in this state shall report to the board any chiropractor known or believed to have violated this article.

Source: L. 95: Entire section added, p. 1318, § 10, effective July 1.

12-33-126. Confidentiality - exceptions. (1) A licensee shall not disclose confidential communications made between such licensee and a patient in the course of such licensee's professional employment unless such patient gives his or her consent prior to the disclosure. An employee or associate of a licensee shall not disclose any knowledge of confidential communications acquired in his or her capacity as an employee or associate, unless a patient gives his or her consent prior to the disclosure.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply when:

(a) A patient or an heir, executor, or administrator of a patient files a complaint or suit against a licensee with respect to any cause of action arising out of or connected with:

(I) The care or treatment of such patient by such licensee; or

(II) The consultation by such licensee with another health care practitioner who provided care or treatment to the patient.

(b) A review of the services of a licensee is conducted by:

(I) The board, or a person or group authorized by the board;

(II) The governing board of a hospital where said licensee practices, which hospital is licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or the medical staff of such hospital if said staff operates pursuant to written bylaws approved by the governing board of the hospital; or

(III) A professional review committee established pursuant to section 12-33-119.1, if the licensee has signed a release authorizing such review.

(3) The records and information produced and used in a review described in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section shall not become public records solely because of the use of such records and information in such review, and the identity of a patient whose records are reviewed pursuant to said paragraph (b) shall not be disclosed to any person not directly involved in the review process. The board shall adopt procedures to ensure that the identity of patients remains confidential during the review process.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any disclosure required by law.

12-33-127. Animal chiropractic - registration - qualifications - continuing education - collaboration with veterinarian - discipline - title restriction - rules. (1) (a) A licensed chiropractor who is registered under this section is authorized to perform animal chiropractic when such chiropractic diagnosis and treatment is consistent with the scope of practice for chiropractors and the animal has been provided a veterinary medical clearance by a licensed veterinarian. A chiropractor shall have the knowledge, skill, ability, and documented competency to perform an act that is within the scope of practice for chiropractors.

(b) In recognition of the special authority granted by this section, the performance of animal chiropractic in accordance with this section shall not be deemed a violation of section 12-64-104.

(c) A licensed chiropractor who is not registered under this section may perform animal chiropractic if the animal has been provided a veterinary medical clearance by a licensed veterinarian and the animal chiropractic is performed under the direct, on-premises supervision of the veterinarian who has provided the veterinary medical clearance.

(d) An individual who is not licensed as a chiropractor or a veterinarian may not perform animal chiropractic.

(2) The state board of chiropractic examiners shall regulate animal chiropractic and diagnosis, including, without limitation, educational and clinical requirements for the performance of animal chiropractic and the procedure for referring complaints to the department of regulatory agencies regarding animal chiropractic diagnosis and therapy.

(3) Registry. (a) The state board of chiropractic examiners shall maintain a database of all licensed chiropractors that are registered pursuant to this section and rules promulgated pursuant to this article to practice animal chiropractic in this state. Information in the database shall be open to public inspection at all times and shall be easily accessible in electronic form.

(b) A licensed chiropractor who chooses to practice animal chiropractic and who seeks registration in animal chiropractic shall provide the state board of chiropractic examiners with registration information as required by the board, which shall include the chiropractor's name, current address, education and training in the field of animal chiropractic, active Colorado chiropractic license, and qualifications to perform animal chiropractic and treatment. Forms for chiropractors to provide such information shall be provided by the board.

(4) Educational qualifications. A licensed chiropractor who seeks registration in animal chiropractic shall obtain education in the field of animal chiropractic from an accredited college of veterinary medicine, an accredited college of chiropractic, or an educational program deemed equivalent by mutual agreement of the state board of chiropractic examiners and the state board of veterinary medicine. The educational program shall consist of no fewer than two hundred ten hours, shall include both classroom instruction and clinical experience, and shall culminate with a proficiency evaluation. The educational program shall include the following subjects:

(a) Chiropractic topics, including:

(I) History and systems review;

(II) Subluxation and vertebral subluxation; and

(III) Adjustment techniques for dogs and horses;

(b) Veterinary topics specific to canine and equine species, including:

(I) Anatomy, including sacropelvic, thoracolumbar, cervical, and extremity, including normal hoof anatomy and care;

(II) Physiology;

(III) Behavior;

(IV) Knowledge of breed anomalies;

(V) Restraint;

(VI) Biomechanics, gait, and lameness;

(VII) Neurology, neuroanatomy, and neurological conditions;

(VIII) Differential diagnosis of neuromusculoskeletal conditions;

(IX) Motion palpation;

(X) Pathology; and

(XI) Radiographic interpretation;

(c) Recognition of canine and equine zoonotic and contagious diseases;

(d) Animal-specific case management, outcome assessment, and documentation; and

(e) Animal-specific professional ethics and legalities.

(5) Continuing education. A licensed chiropractor who is registered to perform animal chiropractic shall complete twenty hours of continuing education per licensing period that is specific to the diagnosis and treatment of animals. All continuing education courses shall be in the fields of study listed in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Records and professional collaboration. (a) A licensed veterinarian who provides veterinary medical clearance for animal chiropractic may require a veterinarian's presence at any chiropractic treatment rendered pursuant to the veterinary medical clearance.

(b) The chiropractor and the veterinarian shall continue professional collaboration as necessary for the well-being of the animal patient. The veterinarian shall provide the animal patient's medical record to the chiropractor upon request.

(c) The chiropractor shall maintain an animal patient record that includes the written veterinary medical clearance, including the name of the veterinarian, date, and time the clearance was received. The chiropractor shall furnish a copy of the medical record to the veterinarian upon the veterinarian's request.

(d) A licensed chiropractor registered to perform animal chiropractic shall maintain complete and accurate records or patient files in the chiropractor's office for a minimum of three years.

(7) Discipline. Complaints received in the office of the state board of chiropractic examiners that include allegations of a violation related to animal chiropractic shall be forwarded to the state board of veterinary medicine for its review and advisory recommendation to the state board of chiropractic examiners. The state board of chiropractic examiners retains the final authority for decisions related to the discipline of a chiropractor.

(8) Separate treatment room. A licensed chiropractor who provides animal chiropractic diagnosis and treatment in the same facility where human patients are treated shall maintain a separate, noncarpeted room for the purpose of adjusting animals. The table and equipment used for animals shall not be used for human patients.

(9) Use of title. Only a licensed chiropractor qualified and registered in Colorado to perform animal chiropractic may use the titles "animal chiropractor", "animal adjuster", "equine chiropractor", or "equine adjuster". No chiropractor shall use the titles "veterinary chiropractor" or "veterinary adjuster" unless the chiropractor is also licensed to practice veterinary medicine in Colorado. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a licensed veterinarian from using the titles "animal adjuster" or "equine adjuster".

(10) Rules. The state board of chiropractic examiners, in consultation with the state board of veterinary medicine, may establish by rule any additional requirements to be met by a chiropractor regarding required documentation and any other rules necessary for the implementation of this section.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit, limit, or alter the privileges or practices of any other licensed profession, including veterinarians, from performing spinal, extremity, or other aspects of adjustment, manipulation, or mobilization on animals as allowed for in the scope of their respective practice acts.

12-33-128. Chiropractic assistants. A chiropractor may supervise up to five unlicensed persons as chiropractic assistants if such persons have received appropriate training as established by the board by rule promulgated pursuant to section 12-33-107. A chiropractic assistant may perform his or her duties only under the direct supervision of a chiropractor and only in those areas in which the chiropractic assistant has the requisite skill and training. A chiropractic assistant shall not perform a diagnosis, an adjustment, or acupuncture.

SAFETY TRAINING FOR UNLICENSED X-RAY TECHNICIANS

Cross references: For similar provisions in article 32 of this title regulating podiatrists, see part 2 of said article; for similar provisions in article 35 of this title regulating dentists, see part 2 of said article; for similar provisions in article 36 of this title regulating medical practitioners, see part 2 of said article.

12-33-201. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that public exposure to the hazards of ionizing radiation used for diagnostic purposes should be minimized wherever possible. Accordingly, the general assembly finds, determines, and declares that for any licensed chiropractor to allow an untrained person to operate a machine source of ionizing radiation, including without limitation a device commonly known as an "X-ray machine", or to administer such radiation to a patient for diagnostic purposes is a threat to the public health and safety.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that licensed chiropractors utilizing unlicensed persons in their practices provide those persons with a minimum level of education and training before allowing them to operate machine sources of ionizing radiation; however, it is not the general assembly's intent to discourage education and training beyond this minimum. It is further the intent of the general assembly that established minimum training and education requirements correspond as closely as possible to the requirements of each particular work setting as determined by the Colorado state board of chiropractic examiners pursuant to this part 2.

(3) The general assembly seeks to ensure, and accordingly declares its intent, that in promulgating the rules and regulations authorized by this part 2, the board will make every effort, consistent with its other statutory duties, to avoid creating a shortage of qualified individuals to operate machine sources of ionizing radiation for beneficial medical purposes in any area of the state.

12-33-202. Board authorized to issue rules. (1) (a) The Colorado state board of chiropractic examiners shall adopt rules and regulations prescribing minimum standards for the qualifications, education, and training of unlicensed persons operating machine sources of ionizing radiation and administering such radiation to patients for diagnostic chiropractic use. No licensed chiropractor shall allow any unlicensed person to operate any machine source of ionizing radiation or to administer such radiation to any patient unless such person has met the standards then in effect under rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this section. The board may adopt rules and regulations allowing a grace period in which newly hired operators of machine sources of ionizing radiation shall receive the training required pursuant to this section.

(b) For purposes of this part 2, “unlicensed person” means any person who does not hold a current and active license entitling the person to practice chiropractic under the provisions of this article.

(2) The board shall seek the assistance of licensed chiropractors in developing and formulating the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this section.

(3) The required number of hours of training and education for all unlicensed persons operating machine sources of ionizing radiation and administering such radiation to patients shall be established by the board by rule on or before July 1, 1992. This standard shall apply to all persons in chiropractic settings other than hospitals and similar facilities licensed by the department of public health and environment pursuant to section 25-1.5-103, C.R.S. Such training and education may be obtained through programs approved by the appropriate authority of any state or through equivalent programs and training experience including on-the-job training as determined by the board.

12-34-102. Definitions. In this part 1:

- (1) "Adult" means an individual who is at least eighteen years of age.
- (2) "Agent" means an individual:
 - (A) Authorized to make health-care decisions on the principal's behalf by a power of attorney for health care; or
 - (B) Expressly authorized to make an anatomical gift on the principal's behalf by any other record signed by the principal.
- (3) "Anatomical gift" means a donation of all or part of a human body, to take effect after the donor's death, for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education.
- (4) "Decedent" means a deceased individual whose body or part is or may be the source of an anatomical gift. The term includes a stillborn infant and, subject to restrictions imposed by law other than this part 1, a fetus.
- (5) "Disinterested witness" means a witness other than the spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandchild, grandparent, or guardian of the individual who makes, amends, revokes, or refuses to make an anatomical gift, or another adult who exhibited special care and concern for the individual. The term does not include a person to which an anatomical gift could pass under section 12-34-111.
- (6) "Document of gift" means a donor card or other record used to make an anatomical gift. The term includes a statement or symbol on a driver's license, identification card, or donor registry.

- (7) “Donor” means an individual whose body or part is the subject of an anatomical gift.
- (8) “Donor registry” means a database that contains records of anatomical gifts and amendments to or revocations of anatomical gifts.
- (9) “Driver’s license” means a license or permit issued by the department of revenue to operate a vehicle, whether or not conditions are attached to the license or permit.
- (10) “Eye bank” means a person that is licensed, accredited, or regulated under federal or state law to engage in the recovery, screening, testing, processing, storage, or distribution of human eyes or portions of human eyes.
- (11) “Guardian” means a person appointed by a court to make decisions regarding the support, care, education, health, or welfare of an individual. The term does not include a guardian ad litem.
- (12) “Hospital” means a facility licensed as a hospital under the law of any state or a facility operated as a hospital by the United States, a state, or a subdivision of a state.
- (13) “Identification card” means an identification card issued by the department of revenue or the department’s agent.
- (14) “Know” means to have actual knowledge.
- (15) “Minor” means an individual who is under eighteen years of age.
- (16) “Organ procurement organization” means a person designated by the secretary of the United States department of health and human services as an organ procurement organization.
- (17) “Parent” means a parent whose parental rights have not been terminated.
- (18) “Part” means an organ, an eye, or tissue of a human being. The term does not include the whole body.
- (19) “Person” means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.
- (20) “Physician” means an individual authorized to practice medicine or osteopathy under the law of any state.
- (21) “Procurement organization” means an eye bank, organ procurement organization, or tissue bank.
- (22) “Prospective donor” means an individual who is dead or near death and has been determined by a procurement organization to have a part that could be medically suitable for transplantation, therapy, research, or education. The term does not include an individual who has made a refusal.
- (23) “Reasonably available” means able to be contacted by a procurement organization without undue effort and willing and able to act in a timely manner consistent with existing medical criteria necessary for the making of an anatomical gift.
- (24) “Recipient” means an individual into whose body a decedent’s part has been or is intended to be transplanted.
- (25) “Record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.
- (26) “Refusal” means a record created under section 12-34-107 that expressly states an intent to bar other persons from making an anatomical gift of an individual’s body or part.
- (27) “Sign” means, with the present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:
- (A) To execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or
- (B) To attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic symbol, sound, or process.
- (28) “State” means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.
- (29) “Technician” means an individual determined to be qualified to remove or process parts by an appropriate organization that is licensed, accredited, or regulated under federal or state law. The term includes an enucleator.

(30) “Tissue” means a portion of the human body other than an organ or an eye. The term does not include blood unless the blood is donated for the purpose of research or education.

(31) “Tissue bank” means a person that is licensed, accredited, or regulated under federal or state law to engage in the recovery, screening, testing, processing, storage, or distribution of tissue.

(32) “Transplant hospital” means a hospital that furnishes organ transplants and other medical and surgical specialty services required for the care of transplant patients.

12-34-104. Who may make anatomical gift before donor’s death. Subject to section 12-34-108, an anatomical gift of a donor’s body or part may be made during the life of the donor for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education in the manner provided in section 12-34-105 by:

- (1) The donor, if the donor is an adult or if the donor is a minor and is:
 - (A) Emancipated; or
 - (B) Authorized under state law to apply for a driver’s license because the donor is at least sixteen years of age;
- (2) An agent of the donor, unless the power of attorney for health care or other record prohibits the agent from making an anatomical gift;
- (3) A parent of the donor, if the donor is an unemancipated minor; or
- (4) The donor’s guardian.

12-34-105. Manner of making anatomical gift before donor’s death. (a) A donor may make an anatomical gift:

- (1) By authorizing a statement or symbol indicating that the donor has made an anatomical gift to be imprinted on the donor’s driver’s license or identification card;
- (2) In a will;
- (3) During a terminal illness or injury of the donor, by any form of communication addressed to at least two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness; or
- (4) As provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) A donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under section 12-34-104 may make a gift by a donor card or other record signed by the donor or other person making the gift or by authorizing that a statement or symbol indicating that the donor has made an anatomical gift be included on a donor registry. If the donor or other person is physically unable to sign a record, the record may be signed by another individual at the direction of the donor or other person and must:

(1) Be witnessed by at least two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness, who have signed at the request of the donor or the other person; and

(2) State that it has been signed and witnessed as provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection (b).

(c) Revocation, suspension, expiration, or cancellation of a driver's license or identification card upon which an anatomical gift is indicated does not invalidate the gift.

(d) An anatomical gift made by will takes effect upon the donor's death whether or not the will is probated. Invalidation of the will after the donor's death does not invalidate the gift.

12-34-106. Amending or revoking anatomical gift before donor's death. (a) Subject to section 12-34-108, a donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under section 12-34-104 may amend or revoke an anatomical gift by:

(1) A record signed by:

(A) The donor;

(B) The other person; or

(C) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, another individual acting at the direction of the donor or the other person if the donor or other person is physically unable to sign; or

(2) A later-executed document of gift that amends or revokes a previous anatomical gift or portion of an anatomical gift, either expressly or by inconsistency.

(b) A record signed pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this section must:

(1) Be witnessed by at least two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness, who have signed at the request of the donor or the other person; and

(2) State that it has been signed and witnessed as provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection (b).

(c) Subject to section 12-34-108, a donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under section 12-34-104 may revoke an anatomical gift by the destruction or cancellation of the document of gift, or the portion of the document of gift used to make the gift, with the intent to revoke the gift.

(d) A donor may amend or revoke an anatomical gift that was not made in a will by any form of communication during a terminal illness or injury addressed to at least two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness.

(e) A donor who makes an anatomical gift in a will may amend or revoke the gift in the manner provided for amendment or revocation of wills or as provided in subsection (a) of this section.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Disposition of Last Remains — Planning Aspects", see 11 Colo. Law. 2986 (1982).

12-34-107. Refusal to make anatomical gift - effect of refusal. (a) An individual may refuse to make an anatomical gift of the individual's body or part by:

- (1) A record signed by:
 - (A) The individual; or
 - (B) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, another individual acting at the direction of the individual if the individual is physically unable to sign;
 - (2) The individual's will, whether or not the will is admitted to probate or invalidated after the individual's death; or
 - (3) Any form of communication made by the individual during the individual's terminal illness or injury addressed to at least two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness.
- (b) A record signed pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this section must:
- (1) Be witnessed by at least two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness, who have signed at the request of the individual; and
 - (2) State that it has been signed and witnessed as provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection (b).
 - (c) An individual who has made a refusal may amend or revoke the refusal:
 - (1) In the manner provided in subsection (a) of this section for making a refusal;
 - (2) By subsequently making an anatomical gift pursuant to section 12-34-105 that is inconsistent with the refusal; or
 - (3) By destroying or canceling the record evidencing the refusal, or the portion of the record used to make the refusal, with the intent to revoke the refusal.
 - (d) Except as otherwise provided in section 12-34-108 (h), in the absence of an express, contrary indication by the individual set forth in the refusal, an individual's unrevoked refusal to make an anatomical gift of the individual's body or part bars all other persons from making an anatomical gift of the individual's body or part.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Disposition of Last Remains — Planning Aspects", see 11 Colo. Law. 2986 (1982).

12-34-108. Preclusive effect of anatomical gift, amendment, or revocation. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g) of this section and subject to subsection (f) of this section, in the absence of an express, contrary indication by the donor, a person other than the donor is barred from making, amending, or revoking an anatomical gift of a donor's body or part if the donor made an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-105 or an amendment to an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-106.

(b) A donor's revocation of an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-106 is not a refusal and does not bar another person specified in section 12-34-104 or 12-34-109 from making an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-105 or 12-34-110.

(c) If a person other than the donor makes an unrevoked anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-105 or an amendment to an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-106, another person may not make, amend, or revoke the gift of the donor's body or part under section 12-34-110.

(d) A revocation of an anatomical gift of a donor's body or part under section 12-34-106 by a person other than the donor does not bar another person from making an anatomical gift of the body or part under section 12-34-105 or 12-34-110.

(e) In the absence of an express, contrary indication by the donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under section 12-34-104, an anatomical gift of a part is neither a refusal to give another part nor a limitation on the making of an anatomical gift of another part at a later time by the donor or another person.

(f) In the absence of an express, contrary indication by the donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under section 12-34-104, an anatomical gift of a part for one or more of the purposes set forth in section 12-34-104 is not a limitation on the making of an anatomical gift of the part for any of the other purposes by the donor or any other person under section 12-34-105 or 12-34-110.

(g) If a donor who is an unemancipated minor dies, a parent of the donor who is reasonably available may revoke or amend an anatomical gift of the donor's body or part.

(h) If an unemancipated minor who signed a refusal dies, a parent of the minor who is reasonably available may revoke the minor's refusal.

12-34-109. Who may make anatomical gift of decedent's body or part. (a) Subject to subsections (b) and (c) of this section and unless barred by section 12-34-107 or 12-34-108, an anatomical gift of a decedent's body or part for purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education may be made by any member of the following classes of persons who is reasonably available, in the order of priority listed:

(1) An agent of the decedent at the time of death who could have made an anatomical gift under section 12-34-104 (2) immediately before the decedent's death;

(2) The spouse of the decedent;

(2.5) A person who is designated by the decedent as a designated beneficiary in a designated beneficiary agreement pursuant to article 22 of title 15, C.R.S., with the right to be an agent to make, revoke, or object to anatomical gifts of the decedent;

(3) Adult children of the decedent;

(4) Parents of the decedent;

(5) Adult siblings of the decedent;

(6) Adult grandchildren of the decedent;

(7) Grandparents of the decedent;

(8) An adult who exhibited special care and concern for the decedent;

(9) The persons who were acting as the guardians of the person of the decedent at the time of death; and

(10) Any other person having the authority to dispose of the decedent's body.

(b) If there is more than one member of a class listed in paragraph (1), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (9) of subsection (a) of this section entitled to make an anatomical gift, an anatomical gift may be made by a member of the class unless that member or a person to which the gift may pass under section 12-34-111 knows of an objection by another member of the class. If an objection is known, the gift may be made only by a majority of the members of the class who are reasonably available.

(c) A person may not make an anatomical gift if, at the time of the decedent's death, a person in a prior class under subsection (a) of this section is reasonably available to make or to object to the making of an anatomical gift.

12-34-110. Manner of making, amending, or revoking anatomical gift of decedent's body or part. (a) A person authorized to make an anatomical gift under section 12-34-109 may make an anatomical gift by a document of gift signed by the person making the gift or by that person's oral communication that is electronically recorded or is contemporaneously reduced to a record and signed by the individual receiving the oral communication.

(b) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, an anatomical gift by a person authorized under section 12-34-109 may be amended or revoked orally or in a record by any member of a prior class who is reasonably available. If more than one member of the prior class is reasonably available, the gift made by a person authorized under section 12-34-109 may be:

(1) Amended only if a majority of the reasonably available members agree to the amending of the gift; or

(2) Revoked only if a majority of the reasonably available members agree to the revoking of the gift or if they are equally divided as to whether to revoke the gift.

(c) A revocation under subsection (b) of this section is effective only if, before an incision has been made to remove a part from the donor's body or before invasive procedures have begun to prepare the recipient, the procurement organization, transplant hospital, or physician or technician knows of the revocation.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Disposition of Last Remains — Planning Aspects", see 11 Colo. Law. 2986 (1982).

12-34-111. Persons that may receive anatomical gift - purpose of anatomical gift. (a) An anatomical gift may be made to the following persons named in the document of gift:

(1) A hospital; accredited medical school, dental school, college, or university; organ procurement organization; or other appropriate person, for research or education;

(2) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, an individual designated by the person making the anatomical gift if the individual is the recipient of the part;

(3) An eye bank or tissue bank.

(b) If an anatomical gift to an individual under paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of this section cannot be transplanted into the individual, the part passes in accordance with subsection (g) of this section in the absence of an express, contrary indication by the person making the anatomical gift.

(c) If an anatomical gift of one or more specific parts or of all parts is made in a document of gift that does not name a person described in subsection (a) of this section but identifies the purpose for which an anatomical gift may be used, the following rules apply:

(1) If the part is an eye and the gift is for the purpose of transplantation or therapy, the gift passes to the appropriate eye bank.

(2) If the part is tissue and the gift is for the purpose of transplantation or therapy, the gift passes to the appropriate tissue bank.

(3) If the part is an organ and the gift is for the purpose of transplantation or therapy, the gift passes to the appropriate organ procurement organization as custodian of the organ.

(4) If the part is an organ, an eye, or tissue and the gift is for the purpose of research or education, the gift passes to the appropriate procurement organization.

(d) For the purpose of subsection (c) of this section, if there is more than one purpose of an anatomical gift set forth in the document of gift but the purposes are not set forth in any priority, the gift must be used for transplantation or therapy, if suitable. If the gift cannot be used for transplantation or therapy, the gift may be used for research or education.

(e) If an anatomical gift of one or more specific parts is made in a document of gift that does not name a person described in subsection (a) of this section and does not identify the purpose of the gift, the gift may be used only for transplantation or therapy, and the gift passes in accordance with subsection (g) of this section.

(f) If a document of gift specifies only a general intent to make an anatomical gift by words such as “donor”, “organ donor”, or “body donor”, or by a symbol or statement of similar import, the gift may be used only for transplantation or therapy, and the gift passes in accordance with subsection (g) of this section.

(g) For purposes of subsections (b), (e), and (f) of this section the following rules apply:

(1) If the part is an eye, the gift passes to the appropriate eye bank.

(2) If the part is tissue, the gift passes to the appropriate tissue bank.

(3) If the part is an organ, the gift passes to the appropriate organ procurement organization as custodian of the organ.

(h) An anatomical gift of an organ for transplantation or therapy, other than an anatomical gift under paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of this section, passes to the organ procurement organization as custodian of the organ.

(i) If an anatomical gift does not pass pursuant to subsections (a) through (h) of this section or the decedent’s body or part is not used for transplantation, therapy, research, or education, custody of the body or part passes to the person under obligation to dispose of the body or part.

(j) A person may not accept an anatomical gift if the person knows that the gift was not effectively made under section 12-34-105 or 12-34-110 or if the person knows that the decedent made a refusal under section 12-34-107 that was not revoked. For purposes of this subsection (j), if a person knows that an anatomical gift was made on a document of gift, the person is deemed to know of any amendment or revocation of the gift or any refusal to make an anatomical gift on the same document of gift.

(k) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of this section, nothing in this part 1 affects the allocation of organs for transplantation or therapy.

12-34-112. Search and notification. (Reserved)

12-34-113. Delivery of document of gift not required - right to examine. (a) A document of gift need not be delivered during the donor's lifetime to be effective.

(b) Upon or after an individual's death, a person in possession of a document of gift or a refusal to make an anatomical gift with respect to the individual shall allow examination and copying of the document of gift or refusal by a person authorized to make or object to the making of an anatomical gift with respect to the individual or by a person to which the gift could pass under section 12-34-111.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-34-106 as it existed prior to 2007.

12-34-114. Rights and duties of procurement organization and others. (a) When a hospital refers an individual at or near death to a procurement organization, the organization shall make a reasonable search of the records of the department of revenue and any donor registry that it knows exists for the geographical area in which the individual resides to ascertain whether the individual has made an anatomical gift.

(b) A procurement organization must be allowed reasonable access to information in the records of the department of revenue to ascertain whether an individual at or near death is a donor.

(c) When a hospital refers an individual at or near death to a procurement organization, the organization may conduct any reasonable examination necessary to ensure the medical suitability of a part that is or could be the subject of an anatomical gift for transplantation, therapy, research, or education from a donor or a prospective donor. During the examination period, measures necessary to ensure the medical suitability of the part may not be withdrawn unless the hospital or procurement organization knows that the individual expressed a contrary intent.

(d) Unless prohibited by law other than this part 1, at any time after a donor's death, the person to which a part passes under section 12-34-111 may conduct any reasonable examination necessary to ensure the medical suitability of the body or part for its intended purpose.

(e) Unless prohibited by law other than this part 1, an examination under subsection (c) or (d) of this section may include an examination of all medical and dental records of the donor or prospective donor.

(f) Upon the death of a minor who was a donor or had signed a refusal, unless a procurement organization knows the minor is emancipated, the procurement organization shall conduct a reasonable search for the parents of the minor and provide the parents with an opportunity to revoke or amend the anatomical gift or revoke the refusal.

(g) Upon referral by a hospital under subsection (a) of this section, a procurement organization shall make a reasonable search for any person listed in section 12-34-109 having priority to make an anatomical gift on behalf of a prospective donor. If a procurement organization receives information that an anatomical gift to any other person was made, amended, or revoked, it shall promptly advise the other person of all relevant information.

(h) Subject to sections 12-34-111 (i) and 12-34-123, the rights of the person to which a part passes under section 12-34-111 are superior to the rights of all others with respect to the part. The person may accept or reject an anatomical gift in whole or in part. Subject to the terms of the document of gift and this part 1, a person that accepts an anatomical gift of an entire body may allow embalming, burial or cremation, and use of remains in a funeral service. If the gift is of a part, the person to which the part passes under section 12-34-111, upon the death of the donor and before embalming, burial, or cremation, shall cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation.

(i) Neither the physician who attends the decedent at death nor the physician who determines the time of the decedent's death may participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part from the decedent.

(j) A physician or technician may remove a donated part from the body of a donor that the physician or technician is qualified to remove.

12-34-118. Immunity. (a) A person that acts in accordance with this part 1 or with the applicable anatomical gift law of another state, or attempts in good faith to do so, is not liable for the act in a civil action, criminal prosecution, or administrative proceeding.

(b) Neither the person making an anatomical gift nor the donor's estate is liable for any injury or damage that results from the making or use of the gift.

(c) In determining whether an anatomical gift has been made, amended, or revoked under this part 1, a person may rely upon representations of an individual listed in section 12-34-109 (a) (2), (a) (3), (a) (4), (a) (5), (a) (6), (a) (7), or (a) (8) relating to the individual's relationship to the donor or prospective donor unless the person knows that the representation is untrue.

12-34-119. Law governing validity - choice of law as to execution of document of gift - presumption of validity. (a) A document of gift is valid if executed in accordance with:

- (1) This part 1;
- (2) The laws of the state or country where it was executed; or

(3) The laws of the state or country where the person making the anatomical gift was domiciled, has a place of residence, or was a national at the time the document of gift was executed.

(b) If a document of gift is valid under this section, the law of this state governs the interpretation of the document of gift.

(c) A person may presume that a document of gift or amendment of an anatomical gift is valid unless that person knows that it was not validly executed or was revoked.

12-34-120. Donor registry. (a) The department of revenue may establish or contract for the establishment of a donor registry.

(b) The department of revenue shall cooperate with a person that administers any donor registry that this state establishes, contracts for, or recognizes for the purpose of transferring to the donor registry all relevant information regarding a donor's making, amendment to, or revocation of an anatomical gift.

(c) A donor registry must:

(1) Allow a donor or other person authorized under section 12-34-104 to include on the donor registry a statement or symbol that the donor has made, amended, or revoked an anatomical gift;

(2) Be accessible to a procurement organization to allow it to obtain relevant information on the donor registry to determine, at or near death of the donor or a prospective donor, whether the donor or prospective donor has made, amended, or revoked an anatomical gift; and

(3) Be accessible for purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection (c) seven days a week on a twenty-four-hour basis.

(d) Personally identifiable information on a donor registry about a donor or prospective donor may not be used or disclosed without the express consent of the donor, prospective donor, or person that made the anatomical gift for any purpose other than to determine, at or near death of the donor or prospective donor, whether the donor or prospective donor has made, amended, or revoked an anatomical gift.

(e) This section does not prohibit any person from creating or maintaining a donor registry that is not established by or under contract with the state. Any such registry must comply with subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-34-110 as it existed prior to 2007.

12-34-121. Effect of anatomical gift on advance health-care directive. (a) In this section:

(1) "Advance health-care directive" means a power of attorney for health care or a record signed or authorized by a prospective donor containing the prospective donor's direction concerning a health-care decision for the prospective donor.

(2) "Declaration" means a record signed by a prospective donor specifying the circumstances under which a life support system may be withheld or withdrawn from the prospective donor.

(3) "Health-care decision" means any decision regarding the health care of the prospective donor.

(b) If a prospective donor has a declaration or health-care directive, and the terms of the declaration or directive and the express or implied terms of a potential anatomical gift are in conflict with regard to the administration of measures necessary to ensure the medical suitability of a part for transplantation or therapy, the prospective donor's attending physician and prospective donor shall confer to resolve the conflict. If the prospective donor is incapable of resolving the conflict, an agent acting under the prospective donor's declaration or directive, or, if none or the agent is not reasonably available, another person authorized by law other than this article to make health-care decisions on behalf of the prospective donor, shall act for the donor to resolve the conflict. The conflict must be resolved as expeditiously as possible. Information relevant to the resolution of the conflict may be obtained from the appropriate procurement organization and any other person authorized to make an anatomical gift for the prospective donor under section 12-34-109. Before resolution of the conflict, measures necessary to ensure the medical suitability of the part may not be withheld or withdrawn from the prospective donor if withholding or withdrawing the measures is not contraindicated by appropriate end-of-life care.

12-34-122. Cooperation between coroner and procurement organization. (a) A coroner shall cooperate with procurement organizations to maximize the opportunity to recover anatomical gifts for the purpose of transplantation or therapy.

(b) Subject to section 12-34-123, if a coroner receives notice from a procurement organization that an anatomical gift might be available or was made with respect to a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner and a post-mortem examination is going to be performed, the coroner or designee shall make every reasonable effort to conduct a post-mortem examination of the body or the part in a manner and within a period compatible with its preservation for the purposes of the gift and the medicolegal death investigation.

(c) A part may not be removed from the body of a decedent under the jurisdiction of a coroner for transplantation, therapy, research, or education unless the part is the subject of an anatomical gift. The body of a decedent under the jurisdiction of the coroner may not be delivered to a person for research or education unless the body is the subject of an anatomical gift. This subsection (c) does not preclude a coroner from performing the medicolegal investigation upon the body or parts of a decedent under the jurisdiction of the coroner.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-34-108.5 (8)(c) as it existed prior to 2007.

12-34-123. Facilitation of anatomical gift from decedent whose body is under jurisdiction of coroner. (a) Upon request of a procurement organization, a coroner shall release to the procurement organization the name, contact information, and available medical and social history of a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner. If the decedent's body or part is medically suitable for transplantation or therapy, the coroner shall release post-mortem examination results to the procurement organization. The procurement organization may make a subsequent disclosure of the post-mortem examination results or other information received from the coroner only if relevant to transplantation or therapy.

(b) The coroner may conduct a medicolegal examination by reviewing all medical records, laboratory test results, X-rays, other diagnostic results, and other information that any person possesses about a donor or prospective donor whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner which the coroner determines may be relevant to the investigation.

(c) A person that has any information requested by a coroner pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall provide that information as expeditiously as possible to allow the coroner to conduct the medicolegal investigation within a period compatible with the preservation of parts for the purpose of transplantation or therapy.

(d) If an anatomical gift has been or might be made of a part of a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner and a post-mortem examination is not required, or the coroner determines that a post-mortem examination is required but that the recovery of the part that is the subject of an anatomical gift will not interfere with the examination, the coroner and procurement organization shall cooperate in the timely removal of the part from the decedent for the purpose of transplantation or therapy.

(e) If an anatomical gift of a part from the decedent under the jurisdiction of the coroner has been or might be made, but the coroner initially believes that the recovery of the part could interfere with the post-mortem investigation into the decedent's cause or manner of death or preservation or collection of evidence, the coroner shall consult with the procurement organization or physician or technician designated by the procurement organization about the proposed recovery. The procurement organization shall obtain and provide the coroner with all available information which could relate to the cause or manner of the decedent's death. After consultation, the coroner may allow the recovery, or may deny or delay the recovery as provided in subsection (f), (g), or (h) of this section.

(f) The coroner, district attorney, and a procurement organization shall enter into an agreement establishing protocols and procedures governing the relations between them when an anatomical gift of a part from a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner has been or might be made but the coroner or the district attorney believes that the recovery of the part could interfere with the post-mortem investigation into the decedent's cause or manner of death or the documentation or preservation of evidence. Decisions regarding the recovery of the part from the decedent shall be made in accordance with the agreement. The coroner, district attorney, and procurement organization shall evaluate the effectiveness of the agreement at regular intervals but no less frequently than every two years.

(g) In the absence of an agreement as provided in subsection (f) of this section that establishes protocols and procedures governing the relations between the coroner, district attorney, and procurement organization when an anatomical gift of an organ from a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner has been or might be made, and following the consultation under subsection (e) of this section, if the coroner intends to deny recovery of the organ, the coroner or designee, at the request of the procurement organization, shall view the body either at the hospital or recovery location or by electronic means, prior to making a decision whether or not to allow the procurement organization to recover the organ. After viewing the body, the coroner or designee may allow recovery by the procurement organization to proceed, or, if the coroner or designee reasonably believes that the part may be involved in determining the decedent's cause or manner of death or preservation or collection of evidence, deny recovery by the procurement organization. The coroner or designee shall comply with all the requirements of this section in a manner and within a time period compatible with the preservation and purposes of the organ.

(h) In the absence of an agreement establishing protocols and procedures governing the relations between the coroner, district attorney, and procurement organization when an anatomical gift of an eye or tissues from a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the coroner has been or might be made, and following the consultation under subsection (e) of this section, the coroner may allow, deny, or delay the recovery of the eye or tissues until after the collection of evidence or autopsy, in order to preserve and collect evidence, to maintain a proper chain-of-custody, or to allow an accurate determination of the decedent's cause of death. When a determination to delay the recovery of the eye or tissues is made, every effort possible shall be made by the coroner to complete the collection of evidence or autopsy in a timely manner compatible with the preservation of the eye or tissues for the purpose of transplantation or therapy.

(i) If the coroner or designee denies or delays recovery under subsection (f), (g), or (h) of this section, the coroner or designee shall:

(1) State in a record the specific reasons for not allowing recovery of the part;

(2) Include the specific reasons in the records of the coroner; and

(3) Upon request by a procurement organization, provide a record within two weeks of the date of the request with the specific reasons for not allowing recovery of the part.

(j) If the coroner or designee allows recovery of a part, in addition to any information required pursuant to the protocol under subsection (f) of this section, the procurement organization shall cooperate with the coroner in any documentation of injuries and the preservation and collection of evidence prior to and during the recovery of the part and, upon the coroner's request, shall cause the physician or technician who removes the part to provide the coroner, as soon as practicable, with a record that includes: The names of all personnel participating in the removal of the part; a report documenting any internal or external injuries observed, any evidence observed, and describing the condition of the part; photographs or other documentation of evidence as identified in the protocol; and any other information and observations that would assist in the post mortem.

(k) If a coroner or designee is required to be present to view the body at the hospital or recovery location under subsection (g) of this section, upon request the procurement organization requesting the recovery of the part shall reimburse the coroner or designee for the reasonable additional cost of travel incurred in complying with subsection (g) of this section.

PART 2

UNCLAIMED HUMAN BODIES

Law reviews: For article, "Organ Donation Update", see 13 Colo. Law 612 (1984).

12-34-201. Board for distribution of unclaimed human bodies. (1) The deans and the heads of the departments of anatomy and surgery of the accredited medical and dental schools of this state are constituted a board for the distribution and delivery of unclaimed dead human bodies, described in this part 2, to and among such institutions which, under the provisions of this part 2, are entitled to distribution. The board has full power to establish rules and regulations for its government, and to appoint and remove officers, and shall keep full and complete minutes of its transactions. Records shall also be kept, under its direction, of all bodies received and distributed by said board, and of the institutions to which the same may be distributed, which minutes and records shall be open at all times to the inspection of each member of said board and of any district attorney of any county within this state. The name of said board of distribution shall be the anatomical board of the state of Colorado, called, in this part 2, the "anatomical board". The anatomical board, in its discretion, may exempt any counties or other districts from the provisions of this part 2 for any calendar year by the regulations of the board issued for such year.

12-34-202. Duty of public officers as to unclaimed bodies. (1) All public officers, agents, and servants, and all officers, agents, and servants of every county, city, township, borough, district, and other municipality, and every almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital, or other municipal or other public institution, and all other persons having charge or control over unclaimed dead human bodies required to be buried at public expense shall use reasonable effort to ascertain if said deceased person has any relative, friend, or other representative who will assume charge of said body for burial at his expense. If such effort does not result in the discovery of a claimant within twenty-four hours after death, such officers, agents, or other persons shall immediately notify the anatomical board or such person as may from time to time be designated by said board as its duly authorized officer or agent, when such unclaimed body or bodies come into his possession, charge, or control. In any county which is entirely located more than one hundred fifty miles from any accredited medical or dental school, the minimum period of notification shall be extended to forty-eight hours. Such officers, agents, or other persons, without fee or reward, shall deliver such unclaimed body to the anatomical board and permit the board or its agents to take and remove all such unclaimed bodies to be used for the advancement of medical and anatomical sciences.

(2) Such notices shall be given to the anatomical board in all cases, but no such body shall be delivered if any relative, by blood or marriage, shall previously claim the body for burial at the expense of such relative, but the body shall be surrendered to said claimant for interment; nor shall any such body be delivered if any representative of a fraternal society of which the deceased was a member, or a representative of any charitable organization, or if any friend of the deceased shall claim the body for burial prior to delivery to the board, said burial to be at the expense of such fraternal society, charitable organization, or friend. In the case of death of any person whose body is required to be buried at public expense and the duly authorized officer or agent of the anatomical board deems such body unfit for anatomical purposes, he shall notify the board of county commissioners or such other agency as may be in charge of the county paupers of the county in which such person dies, in writing, and the board of county commissioners or other agency shall direct some person to take charge of the body of such deceased indigent person, and cause it to be buried, and draw warrants upon the treasurer of said county for the payment of such expenses.

(3) No warrants for the payment of the expenses of the burial of any person whose body is required to be buried at public expense shall be drawn or paid except upon the certificate of the duly authorized officer or agent of the anatomical board to the effect that such unclaimed body is unfit for anatomical purposes, by reason of decomposition or contagious disease, and that the provisions of this part 2 have been complied with. If, through the failure of any person to deliver the body of a deceased indigent as required by this part 2, such unclaimed body becomes unfit for anatomical purposes, and is so certified by the duly authorized officer or agent of said anatomical board, such body shall be buried in accordance with the provisions of this part 2, and the person so failing to deliver such unclaimed body shall pay to the county treasurer the expense so incurred. Upon the refusal or failure of such person, on demand, to pay such expense, the board of county commissioners, or such other agency as may be in charge of the county paupers, may bring suit to recover the expenses, and the same may be recovered as debts of like amount are collectible by law.

12-34-203. Claiming of body - publication of notice. After an unclaimed body has been received by the anatomical board or its duly authorized agent, and has been preserved and stored, said body may be claimed within twenty days after death by relatives, friends, or fraternal or charitable organizations for burial or cremation at the expense of said claimant, and the body shall be surrendered to such claimant without charge of any character. During the twenty-day period the board shall publish at least two notices in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the county in which the death occurred or in which the body was first discovered, stating that the body is unclaimed and giving the name of the deceased if it is known. Such notice shall be published in the name of the coroner of such county.

12-34-204. Disposition of all or any portion of body after death - nonliability. (1) A person has a right during his lifetime to provide for the disposition of all or any portion of his body upon his death.

(2) No cause of action for damages shall accrue to any person arising out of the removal of all or any portion of the body of any deceased person if such deceased person has, prior to the time of his death, executed a written consent to such removal, and the person against whom such cause of action is alleged had no actual knowledge of any revocation of such consent.

(3) The anatomical board, or its duly authorized agent, is authorized to receive and distribute dead human bodies or parts thereof bequeathed or donated to it for the advancement of medical and anatomical sciences in the same manner as is now provided by law for the receipt and distribution of unclaimed dead human bodies; except that no publication of notice as required by section 12-34-203 shall be required.

ANNOTATION

Former statute held valid. State Bd. of Dental Exam’rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77

L. Ed. 496 (1932), (decided under repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 52, § 1).

12-35-102. Legislative declaration. The practice of dentistry and dental hygiene in this state is declared to affect the public health, safety, and welfare and to be subject to regulation and control in the public interest. It is further declared to be a matter of public interest and concern that the dental profession merit and receive the confidence of the public and that only qualified dentists and dental hygienists be permitted to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state. It is the purpose of this article to promote the public health, safety, and welfare by regulating the practice of dentistry and dental hygiene and to ensure that no one shall practice dentistry or dental hygiene without qualifying under this article. The provisions of this article relating to licensure by credentials are not intended to reduce competition or restrain trade with respect to the oral health needs of the public. All provisions of this article relating to the practice of dentistry and dental hygiene shall be liberally construed to carry out these objects and purposes.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-102 is similar to § 12-35-102 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, and former § 12-35-102 is similar to repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 52, § 1, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Dentistry is generally considered as a learned profession. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

Dentistry is subject to state regulation. Since dentistry is a profession having to do with public health, it is subject to regulation by the state. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

The purpose of regulation is to protect the public from ignorance, unskillfulness, unscrupulousness, deception and fraud. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

The purpose of the dental practice law is to protect the public interest. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

For the necessity of prescribing regulations for the practice of dentistry, see Gothard v. People, 32 Colo. 11, 74 P. 890 (1903).

Personal dentist-patient relation required. The state requires that the relation of the dental practitioner to his patients and patrons must be personal. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

Disciplinary proceedings are in furtherance of purpose of law. When the board exercises its statutory function of conducting disciplinary proceedings, it is pursuing the purpose of the dental practice law. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Plaintiff may not surrender license as of right during pendency. To effectuate the purpose of the dental practice law, plaintiff is not entitled to resign or surrender his license as of right, during the pendency of disciplinary proceedings, and thereby divest the board of its jurisdiction. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

12-35-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Accredited" means a program that is nationally recognized for specialized accrediting for dental, dental hygiene, and dental auxiliary programs by the United States department of education.

(2) "Board" means the state board of dental examiners, created in section 12-35-104.

(3) "Dental assistant" means any person not a dentist or dental hygienist licensed in Colorado who may be assigned or delegated to perform dental tasks or procedures as authorized by this article or by rules of the board.

(4) "Dental hygiene" means the delivery of preventive, educational, and clinical services supporting total health for the control of oral disease and the promotion of oral health provided by a dental hygienist within the scope of his or her education, training, and experience and in accordance with applicable law.

(4.5) "Dental hygiene diagnosis" means the identification of an existing oral health problem that a dental hygienist is qualified and licensed to treat within the scope of dental hygiene practice. The dental hygiene diagnosis focuses on behavioral risks and physical conditions that are related to oral health. A dentist shall confirm any dental hygiene diagnosis that requires treatment that is outside the scope of dental hygiene practice pursuant to sections 12-35-124, 12-35-125, and 12-35-128.

(5) "Dentistry" means the evaluation, diagnosis, prevention, or treatment, including nonsurgical, surgical, or related procedures, of diseases, disorders, or conditions of the oral cavity, maxillofacial area, or the adjacent and associated structures and the impact of the disease, disorder, or condition on the human body so long as a dentist is practicing within the scope of his or her education, training, and experience and in accordance with applicable law.

(6) (a) "Direct supervision" means the supervision of those tasks or procedures that do not require the presence of the dentist in the room where performed but require the dentist's presence on the premises and availability for prompt consultation and treatment.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (6) only, "premises" means within the same building, dental office, or treatment facility and within close enough proximity to respond in a timely manner to an emergency or the need for assistance.

(7) “Examination proctor” means a licensed dentist or dental hygienist, who shall have at least five years’ clinical experience and who is appointed by the board to supervise and administer written and clinical examinations in the field in which the dentist or dental hygienist is licensed to practice under this article.

(8) “Inactive license” means a status granted to a person pursuant to section 12-35-122.

(9) “Independent advertising or marketing agent” means a person, firm, association, or corporation that performs advertising or other marketing services on behalf of licensed dentists, including referrals of patients to licensees resulting from patient-initiated responses to such advertising or marketing services.

(10) (a) “Indirect supervision” means the supervision of those tasks or procedures that do not require the presence of the dentist in the office or on the premises at the time such tasks or procedures are being performed, but do require that the tasks be performed with the prior knowledge and consent of the dentist.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (10) only, “premises” means within the same building, dental office, or treatment facility and within close enough proximity to respond in a timely manner to an emergency or the need for assistance.

(11) “Laboratory work order” means the written instructions of a dentist licensed in Colorado authorizing another person to construct, reproduce, or repair any prosthetic denture, bridge, appliance, or other structure to function in the oral cavity, maxillofacial area, or adjacent and associated regions.

(12) “License” means the grant of authority by the board to any person to engage in the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene. “License” includes an academic license to practice dentistry pursuant to section 12-35-117.5. A license shall be a privilege personal to the licensee and may be revoked, suspended, or subjected to disciplinary conditions by the board for violation of any of the provisions of this article and shall be null and void upon the failure of the licensee to file an application for renewal and to pay the fee as required by section 12-35-121.

(13) “License certificate” means the documentary evidence that the board has granted authority to the licensee to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state.

(14) “Proprietor” includes any person who:

(a) Employs dentists, dental hygienists, or dental assistants in the operation of a dental office, except as provided in sections 12-35-113 and 12-35-128;

(b) Places in possession of a dentist, dental hygienist, dental assistant, or other agent such dental material or equipment as may be necessary for the management of a dental office on the basis of a lease or any other agreement for compensation for the use of such material, equipment, or offices; or

(c) Retains the ownership or control of dental equipment or material or a dental office and makes the same available in any manner for use by dentists, dental hygienists, dental assistants, or other agents; except that nothing in this paragraph (c) shall apply to bona fide sales of dental equipment or material secured by a chattel mortgage or retain-title agreement or to the loan of articulators.

(15) “Renewal certificate” means the documentary evidence that the board has renewed the authority of the licensee to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-35-103 is similar to § 12-35-103 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

License is privilege. A license, which gives a person the authority to practice dentistry, is a “privilege” granted by the board. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam’rs, 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

A license certificate is merely evidence of the license. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

12-35-104. State board of dental examiners - subject to termination - immunity - repeal of article. (1) (a) The state board of dental examiners is hereby created as the agency of this state for the regulation of the practice of dentistry in this state and to carry out the purposes of this article. The board shall be under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations as provided by section 24-34-102, C.R.S. The board shall consist of five dentist members, two dental hygienist members, and three members from the public at large, each member to be appointed by the governor for a term of four years and to have the qualifications provided in this article. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms of four years. Due consideration shall be given to having a geographical, political, urban, and rural balance among the board members. Should a vacancy occur in any board membership before the expiration of the term thereof, the governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment for the remainder of such term in the same manner as in the case of original appointments. Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

(b) Notwithstanding the July 1, 2004, recreation and reenactment of this article, members of the board who were serving as of June 30, 2004, shall continue to serve except as otherwise provided in this article, and their service shall be deemed to have been continuous. On and after January 1, 2005, the board shall consist of seven dentist members, three dental hygienist members, and three members from the public at large, each member to be appointed by the governor for a term of four years and to have the qualifications provided in this article.

(2) The board shall organize annually by electing one of its members as chairperson and one as vice-chairperson. It may adopt such rules for its government as it may deem proper. The board shall meet at least quarterly, and more often if necessary, at such times and places as it may from time to time designate.

(3) The board may employ examination proctors when necessary.

(4) (a) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the board. At the time of sunset review by the appropriate legislative committee, all functions of the board, including the issuing of permits for administering anesthesia and the regulation of such administration of anesthesia, shall be reviewed.

(b) This article is repealed, effective July 1, 2014.

12-35-105. Qualifications of board members. (1) A person shall be qualified to be appointed to the board if such person:

(a) Is a legal resident of Colorado;

(b) Is currently licensed as a dentist or dental hygienist, if fulfilling that position on the board; and

(c) Has been actively engaged in a clinical practice in this state for at least five years immediately preceding the appointment, if fulfilling the position of dentist or dental hygienist on the board.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section or section 24-5-101, C.R.S., a person convicted of a felony in Colorado or any other state or of violating this article or any law governing the practice of dentistry shall not be appointed to or serve on the board.

12-35-106. Quorum of board - panel. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but if less than a quorum is present on the day appointed for a meeting, those present may adjourn until a quorum is present. Any action taken by a quorum of the assigned panel shall constitute action by the board; except that, for disciplinary matters concerning a dentist, a majority of dentist members is required for a quorum.

12-35-107. Powers and duties of board. (1) The board shall exercise, subject to the provisions of this article, the following powers and duties:

(a) Conduct examinations to ascertain the qualifications and fitness of applicants for licensure to practice dentistry and dental hygiene. To assist with such examinations:

(I) Only proctors or licensed dentists may participate in the examination of candidates for dental licensure; and

(II) Only licensed dentists, licensed dental hygienists, or proctors may participate in the examination of candidates for dental hygiene licensure.

(b) Make, publish, declare, and periodically review such reasonable rules as may be necessary to carry out and make effective the powers and duties of the board as vested in it by this article. Rules of the board may include but shall not be limited to:

(I) The examination of applicants for licensing as dentists and dental hygienists;

(II) The practices of dentistry and dental hygiene;

(III) The tasks and procedures that may be assigned to dental assistants and dental hygienists; and

(IV) The specification of essential instructions to be included in a laboratory work order.

(c) Conduct hearings to revoke, suspend, or deny the issuance of a license or renewal license granted under the authority of this article or of previous laws, issue a confidential letter of concern, issue a letter of admonition, or reprimand, censure, or place on probation a licensee when evidence has been presented showing violation of any of the provisions of this article by a holder of or an applicant for a license. The board may elect to hear the matter itself pursuant to the provisions of section 12-35-129, or it may elect to hear the matter with the assistance of an administrative law judge or an advisory attorney from the office of the attorney general, and, in such case, the advisor or administrative law judge shall advise the board on legal and procedural matters and rule on evidence and otherwise conduct the course of the hearing.

(d) Conduct investigations and inspections for compliance with the provisions of this article;

(e) Grant and issue licenses and renewal certificates in conformity with this article to such applicants as have been found qualified. The board may also grant and issue temporary licenses. The board shall promulgate rules concerning the granting of temporary licenses, which rules shall include, but not be limited to, restrictions with respect to effective dates, areas of practice that may be performed, and licensing fees that may be charged to the applicant.

(f) Make such reasonable rules as may be necessary to carry out and make effective the powers and duties of the board as vested in it by the provisions of this article; except that all rules adopted or amended by the board on or after July 1, 1979, shall be subject to sections 24-4-103 (8) (c) and (8) (d) and 24-34-104 (9) (b) (II), C.R.S. Such rules may include, but shall not be limited to, minimum training and equipment requirements for the administration of local anesthetics, general anesthesia, conscious sedation, and nitrous oxide/oxygen inhalation sedation, including procedures that may be used by and minimum training requirements for dentists, dental hygienists, and dental assistants. The general assembly declares that rules relating to anesthesia are not intended to permit administration of local anesthetics, general anesthesia, or conscious sedation, by dental assistants nor to reduce competition or restrain trade with respect to dentistry needs of the public.

(g) Through the department of regulatory agencies and subject to appropriations made to the department of regulatory agencies, employ hearing officers or administrative law judges on a full-time or part-time basis to conduct any hearings required by this article. The hearing officers and administrative law judges shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S.

(h) (I) Issue anesthesia permits to licensed dentists and set and collect a fee for such issuance.

(II) Anesthesia permits shall be valid for a period of five years and shall allow permit-holding licensees to administer deep conscious sedation or both general anesthesia and deep conscious sedation.

(i) Develop criteria and procedures for an office inspection program including, but not limited to:

(I) Designating qualified inspectors who are experts in dental outpatient general anesthesia and deep conscious sedation;

(II) Requiring each licensee inspected to bear the cost of inspection by allowing designated inspectors to charge a reasonable fee as established by the board;

(III) Requiring an inspector to notify the board in writing of the results of an inspection.

(2) The board may recognize those dental specialties defined by the American dental association.

(3) To facilitate the licensure of qualified applicants, the board may, in its discretion, establish a subcommittee of at least six board members to perform licensing functions in accordance with this article. Four subcommittee members shall constitute a quorum of the subcommittee. The chairperson of the board may serve on a subcommittee as deemed necessary by the chairperson. Any action taken by a quorum of the subcommittee shall constitute action by the board.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "The Right to Cross-Examine Adverse Witnesses as a Part of Due Process in Hearings Before Colorado Agencies", see 31 Dicta 383 (1954).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-107 is similar to § 12-35-107 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The board of dental examiners, being a statutory board, is not vested with arbitrary power. State Bd. of Dental Colo. v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932) (decided under repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 52, § 14).

The dental practice law does not mention surrender of a license. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

The dental board may accept or reject the tendered surrender of a license; such authority must be implied from the authority to grant the license. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Surrender does not extinguish license. The surrender of the license certificate, until accepted, does not extinguish the license. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

So long as plaintiff's name is entered on the record book of the board, he remains licensed to practice dentistry. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Board can conduct disciplinary proceedings. Until the board accepts the surrender of a license, it is acting within the scope of its statutory power to conduct disciplinary proceedings, and the district court has no jurisdiction to restrain the board from performing its statutory function. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Disciplinary proceedings are in furtherance of purpose of law. The purpose of the dental practice law is to protect the public interest, and when the board exercises its statutory function of conducting disciplinary proceedings, it is pursuing that purpose. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Plaintiff may not surrender license as of right during pendency. To effectuate the purpose of the dental practice law, plaintiff is not entitled to resign or surrender his license as of right, during the pendency of disciplinary proceedings, and thereby divest the board of its jurisdiction. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Although a license to practice dentistry may be considered "property" to the extent that due process must be satisfied before there can be any governmental "taking" of it, a dentistry license is not property that may be abandoned so as to divest the board of jurisdiction after disciplinary proceedings have been instituted. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

Board may not participate with hearing officer in conducting proceedings. Where the board participated jointly with the hearing officer in conducting the proceedings involving a practitioner, in using the hearing officer as its legal advisor during its deliberations, and in entering the initial fact-finding decision, the board violates the statutory provisions of this article, and the practitioner is not required to demonstrate any prejudice to him as result of these statutory violations. In re Maul v. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 668 P.2d 933 (Colo. 1983).

12-35-108. Limitation on authority. The authority granted the board under the provisions of this article shall not be construed to authorize the board to arbitrate or adjudicate fee disputes between licensees or between a licensee and any other party.

12-35-109. Power of board to administer oaths - issue subpoenas - service - penalty for refusing to obey subpoena. (1) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(2) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the board may petition the district court in the county in which the proceeding is pending setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of the witness and the service of the subpoena, in which event, the district court, after hearing evidence in support of or contrary to the petition, may enter an order as in other civil actions compelling the witness to attend and testify or produce books, records, or other evidence.

(3) Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this part 1, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this part 1 shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this part 1 shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

Applied in In re Maul v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 668 P.2d 933 (Colo. 1983).

12-35-110. Disposition of fees. (1) The board shall not have the power to create any indebtedness on behalf of the state. All examination and other fees under this article shall be collected by the board and transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for the uses and purposes of this article. Expenditures from such appropriations shall be made upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law.

(2) Appropriations made to the board shall be applied only to the payment of the necessary traveling, hotel, and clerical expenses of the members of the board in the performance of their duties; the payment of dues for membership in the American association of dental examiners and the expense of sending delegates to the convention of such association; and the payment of all such other expenditures as may be necessary or proper to carry out and execute the powers and duties of the board and the provisions of this article.

(3) Publications of the board circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S.

A private corporation organized in another state may not lawfully engage in the practice of dentistry in Colorado without a license from the state board of dental examiners. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

This section is broad enough to include both a human being or an artificial being, a private corporation. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

12-35-113. What constitutes practicing dentistry. (1) A person shall be deemed to be practicing dentistry if such person:

(a) Performs, or attempts or professes to perform, any dental operation, oral surgery, or dental diagnostic or therapeutic services of any kind; except that nothing in this paragraph

(a) shall be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist or dental assistant from providing preventive dental or nutritional counseling, education, or instruction services;

(b) Is a proprietor of a place where dental operation, oral surgery, or dental diagnostic or therapeutic services are performed; except that nothing in this paragraph (b) shall be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist or dental assistant from performing those tasks and procedures consistent with section 12-35-128;

(c) Directly or indirectly, by any means or method, takes impression of the human tooth, teeth, jaws, maxillofacial area, or adjacent and associated structures, performs any phase of any operation incident to the replacement of a part of a tooth, or supplies artificial substitutes for the natural teeth, jaws, or adjacent and associated structures; except that nothing in this paragraph (c) shall prohibit or be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist or dental assistant from performing tasks and procedures consistent with sections 12-35-124 (1) (d), 12-35-125 (1) (d), and 12-35-128 (3) (a) (I);

(d) Furnishes, supplies, constructs, reproduces, or repairs any prosthetic denture, bridge, appliance, or other structure to be worn in the human mouth or upon the jaws, maxillofacial area, or adjacent and associated structures other than on the written laboratory work order of a duly licensed and practicing dentist;

(e) Places an appliance or structure described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1) in the human mouth;

(f) Adjusts or attempts or professes to adjust an appliance or structure described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1);

(g) Delivers an appliance or structure described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1) to any person other than the dentist upon whose laboratory work order the work was performed;

(h) Professes to the public by any method to furnish, supply, construct, reproduce, or repair any prosthetic denture, bridge, appliance, or other structure to be worn in the human mouth or upon the jaws, maxillofacial area, or adjacent and associated structures;

(i) Examines, diagnoses, plans treatment of, or treats natural or artificial structures or conditions associated with, adjacent to, or functionally related to the oral cavity, jaws, maxillofacial area, or adjacent and associated structures and their impact on the human body;

(j) Extracts, or attempts to extract, human teeth or corrects, or attempts to correct, malformations of human teeth or jaws;

(k) Repairs or fills cavities in human teeth;

(l) Prescribes ionizing radiation or the use of an X ray for the purpose of taking dental X rays or roentgenograms; except that nothing in this paragraph (l) shall be construed to prohibit these procedures from being delegated to appropriately trained personnel in accordance with this article and rules of the board;

(m) Gives, or professes to give, interpretations or readings of dental X rays or roentgenograms, CT scans, or other diagnostic methodologies; except that nothing in this paragraph (m) shall be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist from performing tasks and procedures consistent with sections 12-35-124 and 12-35-125;

(n) Represents himself or herself to an individual or the general public as practicing dentistry, by using the words "dentist" or "dental surgeon", or by using the letters "D.D.S.", "D.M.D.", "D.D.S./M.D.", or "D.M.D./M.D.". Nothing in this paragraph (n) shall be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist or dental assistant from performing tasks and procedures consistent with section 12-35-128 (2) or (3) (a).

(o) States, permits to be stated, or professes by any means or method whatsoever that he or she can perform or will attempt to perform dental operations or render a diagnosis connected therewith;

(p) Prescribes such drugs or medications and administers such general or local anesthetics, anesthesia, or analgesia as may be necessary for the proper practice of dentistry; except that nothing in this paragraph (p) shall be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist from performing those tasks and procedures consistent with sections 12-35-124 (1) (e), 12-35-125 (1) (e) and (1) (f), and 12-35-128, and in accordance with rules promulgated by the board;

(q) Prescribes, induces, and sets dosage levels for inhalation analgesia; except that nothing in this paragraph (q) shall be construed to prohibit the delegation of monitoring and administration to appropriately trained personnel in accordance with this article and rules of the board;

(r) Gives or professes to give interpretations or readings of dental charts or records or gives treatment plans or interpretations of treatment plans derived from examinations, patient records, dental X rays, or roentgenograms; except that nothing in this paragraph (r) shall be construed to prohibit a dental hygienist or dental assistant from performing tasks and procedures consistent with sections 12-35-124, 12-35-125, and 12-35-128 (2) and (3).

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-113 is similar to § 12-35-110 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

A statute will be presumed constitutional unless the contrary clearly appears, and this is particularly true where the statute is designed to protect the health and safety of the public. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Kogul, 179 Colo. 394, 501 P.2d 738 (1972).

Hence, a requirement that all repair work on dental prosthetics be done pursuant to a prescription by a licensed dentist is not unconstitutional, since it is reasonably related to the health and safety of the public. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Kogul, 179 Colo. 394, 501 P.2d 738 (1972).

The general assembly may devise reasonable schemes for regulation of activities which affect the health and safety of the public. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Kogul, 179 Colo. 394, 501 P.2d 738 (1972).

The scope of judicial review is limited to a determination whether or not the particular regulation is reasonably related to such health and safety. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Kogul, 179 Colo. 394, 501 P.2d 738 (1972).

Craniosacral manipulation for the relief of pain from temporomandibular joint dysfunction constitutes the practice of dentistry and is therefore exempt from the medical licensing requirements. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Raemer, 794 P.2d 1075 (Colo. App. 1990), appeal dismissed, 801 P.2d 536 (Colo. 1990).

Individuals who purchased dental equipment and then leased it to orthodontist were proprietors of a dental operation under subsections (14)(b) and (14)(c). Mason v. Orthodontic Ctrs. of Colo., 516 F. Supp. 2d 1205 (D. Colo. 2007).

Through these actions, the individuals were engaged in the practice of dentistry under subsection (1)(b). Mason v. Orthodontic Ctrs. of Colo., 516 F. Supp. 2d 1205 (D. Colo. 2007).

Because these individuals lacked a license to engage in such practice, they were also in violation of subsection (1)(a). Mason v. Orthodontic Ctrs. of Colo., 516 F. Supp. 2d 1205 (D. Colo. 2007).

Individuals who leased or arranged for offices and then sublet them to orthodontist were proprietors of a dental practice under subsection (14)(c). Mason v. Orthodontic Ctrs. of Colo., 516 F. Supp. 2d 1205 (D. Colo. 2007).

12-35-114. Dentists may prescribe drugs - surgical operations - anesthesia. A licensed dentist is authorized to prescribe such drugs or medicine, perform such surgical operations, administer such general or local anesthetics, and use such appliances as may be necessary to the proper practice of dentistry. A dentist shall not prescribe, distribute, or give to any person, including himself or herself, any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or as contained in schedule II of 21 U.S.C. sec. 812, other than in the course of legitimate dental practice and pursuant to the rules promulgated by the board regarding controlled substance record-keeping.

12-35-115. Persons exempt from operation of this article. (1) Nothing in this article shall apply to the following practices, acts, and operations:

(a) Practice of his or her profession by a physician or surgeon licensed as such under the laws of this state unless the physician or surgeon practices dentistry as a specialty;

(b) The giving of an anesthetic by a qualified anesthetist or registered nurse for a dental operation under the direct supervision of a licensed dentist;

(c) The practice of dentistry or dental hygiene in the discharge of their official duties by graduate dentists or dental surgeons or dental hygienists in the United States armed forces, public health service, Coast Guard, or veterans administration;

(d) Students or residents regularly employed by a private hospital or by a city, county, city and county, or state hospital under an advanced dental education program accredited by the commission on dental accreditation of the American dental association and approved and registered as such by the board;

(e) The practice of dental hygiene by instructors and students or the practice of dentistry by students or residents in schools or colleges of dentistry, schools of dental hygiene, or schools of dental assistant education while such instructors, students, or residents are participating in accredited programs of such schools or colleges;

(f) The practice of dentistry or dental hygiene by dentists or dental hygienists licensed in good standing by other states or countries while appearing in programs of dental education or research at the invitation of any group of licensed dentists or dental hygienists in this state who are in good standing, so long as such practice is limited to five consecutive days in a twelve-month period and the name of each person engaging in such practice is submitted to the board, in writing and on a form approved by the board, at least ten days before the person performs such practice;

(g) The filling of laboratory work orders of a licensed dentist, as provided by section 12-35-133, by any person, association, corporation, or other entity for the construction, reproduction, or repair of prosthetic dentures, bridges, plates, or appliances to be used or worn as substitutes for natural teeth or for restoration of natural teeth, or replacement of structures relating to the jaws, maxillofacial area, or adjacent and associated structures;

(h) The performance of acts by a person under the direct or indirect supervision of a dentist licensed in Colorado when authorized pursuant to the rules of the board or when authorized under other provisions of this article;

(i) The practicing of dentistry or dental hygiene by an examiner representing a testing agency approved by the board, during the administration of an examination; or

(j) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1128), ch. 172, p. 611, § 5, effective April 29, 2010.)

(k) The practice of dentistry or dental hygiene by dentists or dental hygienists licensed in good standing by other states while providing care as a volunteer, at the invitation of any group of licensed dentists or dental hygienists in this state who are in good standing, so long as such practice is limited to five consecutive days in a twelve-month period and the name of each person engaging in such practice is submitted to the board, in writing and on a form approved by the board, at least ten days before the person performs such practice.

12-35-116. Names and status under which dental practice may be conducted.

(1) The conduct of the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene in a corporate capacity is prohibited, but such prohibition shall not be construed to prevent the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene by a professional service corporation of licensees so constituted that they may be treated under the federal internal revenue laws as a corporation for tax purposes only. Any such professional service corporation may exercise such powers and shall be subject to such limitations and requirements, insofar as applicable, as are provided in section 12-36-134, relating to professional service corporations for the practice of medicine.

(2) The group practice of dentistry or dental hygiene is permitted.

(3) The practice of dentistry or dental hygiene by a limited liability company of licensees or by a limited liability partnership of licensees is permitted subject to the limitations and requirements, insofar as are applicable, set forth in section 12-36-134, relating to a limited liability company or limited liability partnership for the practice of medicine.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Operating a Personal Service Corporation", see 17 Colo. Law. 2011 (1988).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-116 is similar to 12-35-112 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12 and to repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 52, § 1, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

This section intends to forbid the practice of dentistry other than in one's own name. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

The practice of dentistry under the name of a corporation not licensed and not entitled to a license for such purpose is unlawful. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

Under this article a corporation which uses as a part of its name the word "dentist", and practices dentistry through its employees, is engaged in the dental practice. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

12-35-116.5. Ownership of dental or dental hygiene practice - information to be posted - heir to serve as temporary proprietor - limitations. (1) (a) Only a dentist licensed to practice dentistry in this state pursuant to this article may be the proprietor of a dental practice in this state.

(b) Only a dentist licensed to practice dentistry in this state pursuant to this article or a dental hygienist licensed to practice dental hygiene in this state pursuant to this article may be the proprietor of a dental hygiene practice in this state.

(c) (I) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (1), a nonprofit organization may be the proprietor of a dental or dental hygiene practice if:

(A) The organization is a community health center, as defined in the federal "Public Health Service Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 254b; or

(B) At least fifty percent of the patients served by the organization are low income. As used in this sub-subparagraph (B), "low income" means the patient's income does not exceed the income level specified for determining eligibility for the children's basic health plan established in article 8 of title 25.5, C.R.S.

(II) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (1), a political subdivision of the state may be the proprietor of a dental or dental hygiene practice. As used in this subparagraph (II), "political subdivision of the state" means a county, city and county, city, town, service authority, special district, or any other kind of municipal, quasi-municipal, or public corporation, as defined in section 7-49.5-103, C.R.S.

(III) The proprietorship of a dental or dental hygiene practice by a nonprofit organization that meets the criteria in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) or by a political subdivision of the state shall not affect the exercise of the independent professional judgment of the licensed dentist or dental hygienist providing care to patients on behalf of the organization or political subdivision.

(2) (a) The name, license number, ownership percentage, and other information, as required by the board, of each proprietor of a dental or dental hygiene practice, including an unlicensed heir who is the temporary proprietor of the practice, as specified in subsection (3) of this section, shall be available at the reception desk of the dental or dental hygiene practice during the practice's hours of operation. The information required by this paragraph (a) shall be available in a format approved by the board.

(b) Upon request, the dental or dental hygiene practice shall promptly make available to the requesting person a copy of the information required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (2).

(c) The dental or dental hygiene practice shall ensure that the information required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) is accurate and current. Any change in the information shall be updated within thirty days after the change.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding sections 12-35-125 and 12-35-129 (1) (h), (14), and (15), if a dentist or dental hygienist who was the proprietor of a dental or dental hygiene practice and was engaged in the active practice of dentistry or dental hygiene dies:

(I) An heir to the dentist may serve as a proprietor of the deceased dentist's dental or dental hygiene practice for up to one year after the date of the dentist's death, regardless of whether the heir is licensed to practice dentistry or dental hygiene; or

(II) An heir to the dental hygienist may serve as a proprietor of the deceased dental hygienist's dental hygiene practice for up to one year after the date of the dental hygienist's death, regardless of whether the heir is licensed to practice dentistry or dental hygiene.

(b) Upon good cause shown by the heir or the heir's representative, the board may extend the period described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) by up to an additional twelve months, if necessary, to allow the heir sufficient time to sell or otherwise dispose of the practice.

(c) If an heir to a deceased dentist or dental hygienist serves as a proprietor of the deceased dentist's or dental hygienist's practice as specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), all patient care provided during the time the heir is a proprietor of the practice shall be provided by an appropriately licensed dentist or dental hygienist.

(d) The temporary proprietorship of a dental or dental hygiene practice by an unlicensed heir shall not affect the exercise of the independent professional judgment of the licensed dentist or dental hygienist providing care to patients on behalf of the practice.

12-35-117. Application for license - fee. (1) Every person not currently holding a license to practice dentistry in this state who desires to practice dentistry in this state shall file with the board an application for a license on a form to be provided by the board, verified by the oath of the applicant, and accompanied by a fee required by section 12-35-138 (1) (a) or established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., in which application it shall appear that the applicant:

(a) Has attained the age of twenty-one years;

(b) Is a graduate of a dental school or college that, at the time of the applicant's graduation, was accredited. An official transcript prepared by the dental college or school attended shall be submitted to the board.

(c) Has listed any act the commission of which would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-35-129 against a licensed dentist, along with an explanation of the circumstances of such act;

(d) Has verification of licensure from other jurisdictions where the applicant holds or has held a dental or other health care license;

(e) Has proof that he or she has not been subject to final or pending disciplinary action by any state in which the applicant is or has been previously licensed; except that, if the applicant has been subject to disciplinary action, the board may review such disciplinary action to determine whether it warrants grounds for refusal to issue a license; and

(f) Has proof that he or she has met any more stringent criteria established by the board.

(2) An applicant for licensure shall demonstrate to the board that he or she has maintained the professional ability and knowledge required by this article when such applicant has not graduated from an accredited dental school or college within the twelve months immediately preceding the application and has not, for at least one year of the five years immediately preceding the application, engaged in:

- (a) The active clinical practice of dentistry;
- (b) Teaching dentistry in an accredited program; or
- (c) Service as a dentist in the military.

(3) Such other pertinent information shall appear on the application as the board may deem necessary to process the application.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-117 is similar to § 12-35-113 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, and former § 12-35-113 is similar to repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 52, § 8, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Only those who are qualified by statute and experience to practice dentistry may do so, if the general assembly sees fit to so ordain. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

That body may lawfully provide that only those who study the science and art of dentistry, and show that they are properly qualified, may practice dentistry. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

Every citizen is bound by the restrictions established by the general assembly. Gothard v. People, 32 Colo. 11, 74 P. 890 (1903).

A former provision which restricted the practice to persons holding a diploma from a dental school, college, or university duly authenticated by the laws of this or some other state was held not class legislation. Gothard v. People, 32 Colo. 11, 74 P. 890 (1903).

12-35-117.5. Academic license. (1) (a) A dentist who is employed at an accredited school or college of dentistry in this state and who practices dentistry in the course of his or her employment responsibilities shall either make written application to the board for an academic license in accordance with this section or shall otherwise become licensed pursuant to sections 12-35-117, 12-35-118, and 12-35-119, as applicable.

(b) Nothing in this section shall require a dentist who appears in a program of dental education or research, as described in section 12-35-115 (1) (f), to obtain an academic license pursuant to this section.

(2) A person who applies for an academic license shall submit proof to the board that he or she:

(a) Graduated from a school of dentistry located in the United States or another country;

(b) Is employed by an accredited school or college of dentistry in this state; and

(c) Successfully passed the jurisprudence examination described in section 12-35-119 (1) (b).

(3) An applicant for an academic license shall satisfy the credentialing standards of the accredited school or college of dentistry that employs the applicant.

(4) An academic license shall authorize the licensee to practice dentistry only while engaged in the performance of his or her official duties as an employee of the accredited school or college of dentistry and only in connection with programs affiliated or endorsed by the school or college. An academic licensee may not use an academic license to practice dentistry outside of his or her academic responsibilities.

(5) In addition to the requirements of this section, an applicant for an academic license shall complete all procedures for academic licensing established by the board to become licensed, including payment of any fee imposed pursuant to section 12-35-117 (1).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-35-113.5 as it existed prior to 2003, and the former § 12-35-118 was relocated to § 12-35-129.

12-35-119. Examinations - how conducted - certificates issued to successful applicants - conditions on reexamination. (1) Applicants for dental licensure shall submit to the board proof of having successfully passed the following:

(a) The examination administered by the joint commission on national dental examinations;

(b) A jurisprudence examination, approved by the board, designed to test the applicant's knowledge of the provisions of this article; and

(c) An examination designed to test the applicant's clinical skills and knowledge. Such examination shall be administered by a regional testing agency composed of at least four states or an examination of another state.

(2) All examination results required by the board shall be filed with the board and kept for reference for a period of not less than two years. Should the applicant successfully complete such examinations and be otherwise qualified, the applicant shall be granted a license by the board and shall be issued a license certificate.

(3) The board shall adopt rules to establish:

(a) The maximum number of times and maximum time period within which an applicant will be allowed to retake only the failed parts of the examination designed to test clinical skills and knowledge; and

(b) The maximum number of times an applicant may fail to successfully complete the examination designed to test clinical skills and knowledge before the board requires such applicant to take specified remedial measures as a prerequisite to retaking the examination.
